An Introduction to God's Word

The Bible contains God's message, or word, for us today. It shows us how to live our lives successfully and how to gain God's approval. It also answers the following questions:

1. Who is God?
2. How can you learn about God?
3. Who wrote the Bible?
4. Is the Bible scientifically accurate?
5. What is the Bible's message?
6. What did the Bible foretell about the Messiah?
7. What does the Bible foretell about our day?
8. Is God to blame for human suffering?
9. Why do humans suffer?
10. What does the Bible promise for the future?
11. What happens when someone dies?
12. What hope can we have for the dead?
13. What does the Bible say about work?
14. How can you manage your assets?
15. How can you find happiness?
16. How can you cope with anxiety?
17. How can the Bible help your family?
18. How can you draw close to God?
19. What is contained in the various books of the Bible?
20. How can you get the most out of your Bible reading?

HOW TO FIND BIBLE VERSES

The Bible is a collection of 66 smaller books. It is divided into two sections: the Hebrew-Aramaic Scriptures ("Old Testament") and the Greek Scriptures ("New Testament"). Each Bible book is divided into chapters and verses. When scriptures are cited, the first number after the name of the book indicates the chapter, and the next number or numbers refer to the verse or verses. For example, Genesis 1:1 refers to Genesis chapter 1, verse 1.

Question 1

Who is God?

"May people know that you, whose name is Jehovah, you alone are the Most High over all the earth."

Psalm 83:18 [Page 819]

"Know that Jehovah is God. He is the one who made us, and we belong to him."

Psalm 100:3 [Page 831]

"I am Jehovah. That is my name; I give my glory to no one else, nor my praise to graven images."

Isaiah 42:8 [Page 993]

"Everyone who calls on the name of Jehovah will be saved."

Romans 10:13 [Page 1518]

"Of course, every house is constructed by someone, but the one who constructed all things is God."

Hebrews 3:4 [Page 1602]

"Lift up your eyes to heaven and see. Who has created these things? It is the One who brings out their army by number; he calls them all by name. Because of his vast dynamic energy and his awe-inspiring power, not one of them is missing."

How can you learn about God?

"This book of the Law should not depart from your mouth, and you must read it in an undertone day and night, in order to observe carefully all that is written in it; for then your way will be successful and then you will act wisely."

Joshua 1:8 [Page 325]

"They continued reading aloud from the book, from the Law of the true God, clearly explaining it and putting meaning into it; so they helped the people to understand what was being read."

Nehemiah 8:8 [Page 677]

"Happy is the man who does not walk according to the advice of the wicked . . . , but his delight is in the law of Jehovah, and he reads His law in an undertone day and night. . . . Everything he does will succeed."

Psalm 1:1-3 [Page 753]

"Philip ran alongside and heard him reading aloud Isaiah the prophet, and he said: 'Do you actually know what you are reading?' He said: 'Really, how could I ever do so unless someone guided me?' "

Acts 8:30, 31 [Page 1473]

"His invisible qualities are clearly seen from the world's creation onward, because they are perceived by the things made, even his eternal power and Godship, so that they are inexcusable."

Romans 1:20 [Page 1507]

"Ponder over these things; be absorbed in them, so that your advancement may be plainly seen by all people."

1 Timothy 4:15 [Page 1590]

"Let us consider one another so as to incite to love and fine works, not forsaking our meeting together."

Hebrews 10:24, 25 [Page 1610]

"If any one of you is lacking in wisdom, let him keep asking God, for he gives generously to all and without reproaching, and it will be given him."

James 1:5 [Page 1616]

Question 3

Who wrote the Bible?

"Moses wrote down all the words of Jehovah."
Exodus 24:4 [Page 145]

"Daniel saw a dream and visions of his head as he lay on his bed. Then he wrote down the dream; he recorded a complete account of the matters."
Daniel 7:1 [Page 1217]

"When you received God's word, which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men but, just as it truthfully is, as the word of God."
1 Thessalonians 2:13 [Page 1581]

"All Scripture is inspired of God and beneficial for teaching."
2 Timothy 3:16 [Page 1595]

"Prophecy was at no time brought by man's will, but men spoke from God as they were moved by holy spirit."
2 Peter 1:21 [Page 1627]

Question 4

Is the Bible scientifically accurate?

"He stretches out the northern sky over empty space, suspending the earth upon nothing."

Job 26:7 [Page 727]

"All the streams flow into the sea, yet the sea is not full. To the place from which the streams flow, there they return so as to flow again."

Ecclesiastes 1:7 [Page 916]

"There is One who dwells above the circle of the earth."

What is the Bible's message?

"I will put enmity between you and the woman and between your offspring and her offspring. He will crush your head, and you will strike him in the heel."

Genesis 3:15 [Page 46]

"By means of your offspring all nations of the earth will obtain a blessing for themselves because you have listened to my voice."

Genesis 22:18 [Page 68]

"Let your Kingdom come. Let your will take place, as in heaven, also on earth."

Matthew 6:10 [Page 1312]

"For his part, the God who gives peace will crush Satan under your feet shortly."

Romans 16:20 [Page 1524]

"When all things will have been subjected to him, then the Son himself will also subject himself to the One who subjected all things to him, that God may be all things to everyone."

1 Corinthians 15:28 [Page 1541]

"Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his offspring . . . , who is Christ. Moreover, if you belong to Christ, you are really Abraham's offspring."

Galatians 3:16, 29 [Pages 1559, 1560]

"The kingdom of the world has become the Kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he will rule as king forever and ever."

Revelation 11:15 [Page 1650]

"So down the great dragon was hurled, the original serpent, the one called Devil and Satan, who is misleading the entire inhabited earth; he was hurled down to the earth, and his angels were hurled down with him."

Revelation 12:9 [Page 1650]

"He seized the dragon, the original serpent, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for 1,000 years."

Revelation 20:2 [Page 1658]

Question 6

What did the Bible foretell about the Messiah?

PROPHECY	FULFILLMENT
"You, O Bethlehem Ephrathah, . . . from you will come out for me the one to be ruler in Israel." Micah 5:2 [Page 1267]	"After Jesus had been born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, look! astrologers from the East came to Jerusalem." Matthew 2:1 [Page 1307]
"They divide my garments among themselves, and they cast lots for my clothing." Psalm 22:18 [Page 767]	"Now when the soldiers had nailed Jesus to the stake, they took his outer garments and divided them into four parts . . . But the inner garment was without a seam, being woven from top to bottom. So they said to one another: 'Let us not tear it, but let us cast lots over it to decide whose it will be.'" John 19:23, 24 [Page 1455]

PROPHECY	FULFILLMENT
"He is guarding all his bones; not one of them has been broken." Psalm 34:20 [Page 777]	"On coming to Jesus, they saw that he was already dead, so they did not break his legs." John 19:33 [Page 1456]
"He was pierced for our transgression." Isaiah 53:5 [Page 1011]	"One of the soldiers jabbed his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out." John 19:34 [Page 1456]
"They paid my wages, 30 pieces of silver." Zechariah 11:12, 13 [Page 1296]	"Then one of the Twelve, the one called Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests and said: 'What will you give me to betray him to you?' They stipulated to him 30 silver pieces." Matthew 26:14, 15; 27:5 [Pages 1342, 1345]

Question 7

What does the Bible foretell about our day?

"Nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom . . . All these things are a beginning of pangs of distress."

Matthew 24:7, 8 [Page 1338]

"Many false prophets will arise and mislead many; and because of the increasing of lawlessness, the love of the greater number will grow cold."

Matthew 24:11, 12 [Page 1339]

"When you hear of wars and reports of wars, do not be alarmed; these things must take place, but the end is not yet."

Mark 13:7 [Page 1369]

"There will be great earthquakes, and in one place after another food shortages and pestilences; and there will be fearful sights and from heaven great signs."

Luke 21:11 [Page 1416]

"In the last days critical times hard to deal with will be here. For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, haughty, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, disloyal, having no natural affection, not open to any agreement, slanderers, without self-control, fierce, without love of goodness, betrayers, headstrong, puffed up with pride, lovers of pleasures rather than lovers of God, having an appearance of godliness but proving false to its power."

2 Timothy 3:1-5 [Page 1595]

Question 8

Is God to blame for human suffering?

"It is unthinkable for the true God to act wickedly, for the Almighty to do wrong!"

Job 34:10 [Page 736]

"When under trial, let no one say: 'I am being tried by God.' For with evil things God cannot be tried, nor does he himself try anyone."

James 1:13 [Page 1616]

"Throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you."

1 Peter 5:7 [Page 1625]

"Jehovah is not slow concerning his promise, as some people consider slowness, but he is patient with you because he does not desire anyone to be destroyed but desires all to attain to repentance."

2 Peter 3:9 [Page 1629]

Question 9

Why do humans suffer?

"The swift do not always win the race, nor do the mighty win the battle, nor do the wise always have the food, nor do the intelligent always have the riches, nor do those with knowledge always have success, because time and unexpected events overtake them all."

Ecclesiastes 9:11 [Page 924]

"Through one man sin entered into the world and death through sin, and so death spread to all men because they had all sinned—."

Romans 5:12 [Page 1512]

"For this purpose the Son of God was made manifest, to break up the works of the Devil."

1 John 3:8 [Page 1632]

"The whole world is lying in the power of the wicked one."

Question 10

What does the Bible promise for the future?

"The righteous will possess the earth, and they will live forever on it."

Psalm 37:29 [Page 781]

"The earth remains forever."

Ecclesiastes 1:4 [Page 915]

"He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

Isaiah 25:8 [Page 968]

"At that time the eyes of the blind will be opened, and the ears of the deaf will be unstopped. At that time the lame will leap like the deer, and the tongue of the speechless will shout for joy. For waters will burst forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert plain."

Isaiah 35:5, 6 [Page 982]

"He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

Revelation 21:4 [Page 1659]

"They will build houses and live in them, and they will plant vineyards and eat their fruitage. They will not build for someone else to inhabit, nor will they plant for others to eat. For the days of my people will be like the days of a tree, and the work of their hands my chosen ones will enjoy to the full."

What happens when someone dies?

"His spirit goes out, he returns to the ground; on that very day his thoughts perish."

Psalm 146:4 [Page 869]

"The living know that they will die, but the dead know nothing at all . . . Whatever your hand finds to do, do with all your might, for there is no work nor planning nor knowledge nor wisdom in the Grave, where you are going."

Ecclesiastes 9:5, 10 [Page 923]

"[Jesus] added: 'Lazarus our friend has fallen asleep, but I am traveling there to awaken him.' Jesus, however, had spoken about his death. But they imagined he was speaking about taking rest in sleep. Then Jesus said to them plainly: 'Lazarus has died.'"

John 11:11, 13, 14 [Pages 1442, 1443]

Question 12

What hope can we have for the dead?

"Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."

John 5:28, 29 [Page 1432]

"There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."

Acts 24:15 [Page 1499]

"I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and scrolls were opened. But another scroll was opened; it is the scroll of life. The dead were judged out of those things written in the scrolls according to their deeds. And the sea gave up the dead in it, and death and the Grave gave up the dead in them, and they were judged individually according to their deeds."

Revelation 20:12, 13 [Page 1659]

What does the Bible say about work?

"Have you seen a man skillful at his work? He will stand before kings; he will not stand before common men."

Proverbs 22:29 [Page 902]

"Let the one who steals steal no more; rather, let him do hard work, doing good work with his hands, so that he may have something to share with someone in need."

Ephesians 4:28 [Page 1567]

"Everyone should eat and drink and find enjoyment for all his hard work. It is the gift of God."

Ecclesiastes 3:13 [Page 918]

How can you manage your assets?

"The one who loves having a good time will come to poverty; the one who loves wine and oil will not grow rich."

Proverbs 21:17 [Page 900]

"The borrower is a slave to the lender."

Proverbs 22:7 [Page 901]

"Who of you wanting to build a tower does not first sit down and calculate the expense to see if he has enough to complete it? Otherwise, he might lay its foundation but not be able to finish it, and all the onlookers would start to ridicule him, saying: 'This man started to build but was not able to finish.'"

Luke 14:28-30 [Page 1406]

"When they had eaten their fill, he said to his disciples: 'Gather together the fragments left over, so that nothing is wasted.'"

John 6:12 [Page 1433]

How can you find happiness?

"Better is a dish of vegetables where there is love than a fattened bull where there is hatred."

Proverbs 15:17 [Page 892]

"I, Jehovah, am your God, the One teaching you to benefit yourself, the One guiding you in the way you should walk."

Isaiah 48:17 [Page 1004]

"Happy are those conscious of their spiritual need, since the Kingdom of the heavens belongs to them."

Matthew 5:3 [Page 1310]

"You must love your neighbor as yourself."

Matthew 22:39 [Page 1336]

"Just as you want men to do to you, do the same way to them."

Luke 6:31 [Page 1389]

"Happy are those hearing the word of God and keeping it!"

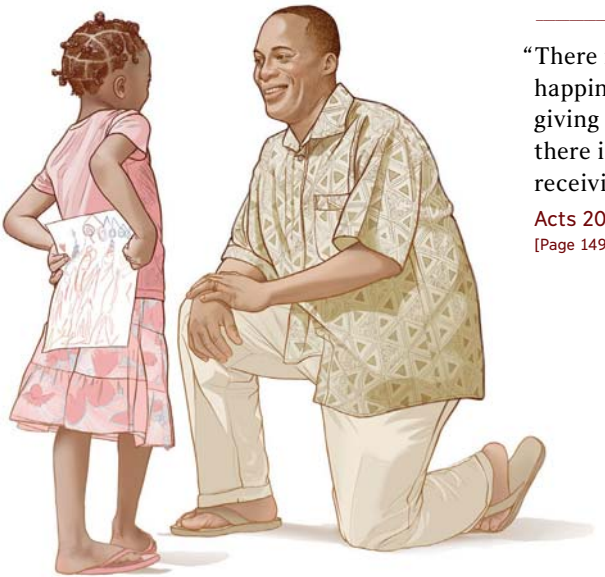
Luke 11:28 [Page 1400]

"When a person has an abundance, his life does not result from the things he possesses."

Luke 12:15 [Page 1402]

"So, having food and clothing, we will be content with these things."

1 Timothy 6:8 [Page 1591]



"There is more happiness in giving than there is in receiving."

Acts 20:35

How can you cope with anxiety?

"Throw your burden on Jehovah, and he will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous one to fall."

Psalm 55:22 [Page 795]

"The plans of the diligent surely lead to success, but all who are hasty surely head for poverty."

Proverbs 21:5 [Page 899]

"Do not be afraid, for I am with you. Do not be anxious, for I am your God. I will fortify you, yes, I will help you, I will really hold on to you with my right hand of righteousness."

Isaiah 41:10 [Page 991]

"Who of you by being anxious can add one cubit to his life span?"

Matthew 6:27 [Page 1313]

"So never be anxious about the next day, for the next day will have its own anxieties. Each day has enough of its own troubles."

Matthew 6:34 [Page 1313]

"Make sure of the more important things."
Philippians 1:10 [Page 1571]

"Do not be anxious over anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication along with thanksgiving, let your petitions be made known to God; and the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus."
Philippians 4:6, 7 [Page 1574]

Question 17

How can the Bible help your family?

HUSBANDS/FATHERS

"In the same way husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. A man who loves his wife loves himself, for no man ever hated his own body, but he feeds and cherishes it . . . Each one of you must love his wife as he does himself."

Ephesians 5:28, 29, 33 [Page 1569]

"Fathers, do not be irritating your children, but go on bringing them up in the discipline and admonition of Jehovah."

Ephesians 6:4 [Page 1569]

WIVES

"The wife should have deep respect for her husband."

Ephesians 5:33 [Page 1569]

"You wives, be in subjection to your husbands, as it is becoming in the Lord."

Colossians 3:18 [Page 1579]

CHILDREN

"Children, be obedient to your parents in union with the Lord, for this is righteous. 'Honor your father and your mother' is the first command with a promise: 'That it may go well with you and you may remain a long time on the earth.'"

Ephesians 6:1-3 [Page 1569]

"You children, be obedient to your parents in everything, for this is well-pleasing to the Lord."

Colossians 3:20 [Page 1579]

Question 18

How can you draw close to God?

"O Hearer of prayer, to you people of all sorts will come."

Psalm 65:2 [Page 800]

"Trust in Jehovah with all your heart, and do not rely on your own understanding. In all your ways take notice of him, and he will make your paths straight."

Proverbs 3:5, 6 [Page 876]

"This means everlasting life, their coming to know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ."

John 17:3 [Page 1451]

"In fact, [God] is not far off from each one of us."

Acts 17:27 [Page 1488]

"This is what I continue praying, that your love may abound still more and more with accurate knowledge and full discernment."

Philippians 1:9 [Page 1571]

"If any one of you is lacking in wisdom, let him keep asking God, for he gives generously to all and without reproaching, and it will be given him."

James 1:5 [Page 1616]

"Draw close to God, and he will draw close to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you indecisive ones."

James 4:8 [Page 1619]

"This is what the love of God means, that we observe his commandments; and yet his commandments are not burdensome."

1 John 5:3 [Page 1634]

How can I use these verses to help others?

"Your word is a lamp to my foot, and a light for my path."

Psalm 119:105

FOREWORD

The Holy Bible is God's written communication to all of us. We must study it to get to know its Author. (John 17:3; 2 Timothy 3:16) Within its pages, Jehovah God reveals his purpose for humans and for their earthly home. —Genesis 3:15; Revelation 21:3, 4.

No other book has such an impact on people's lives. The Bible inspires us to reflect Jehovah's qualities of love, mercy, and compassion. It gives hope, helping people to endure even the worst suffering. And it continues to expose the elements of this world that are out of harmony with the perfect will of God.—Psalm 119:105; Hebrews 4:12; 1 John 2:15-17.

Originally composed in Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek, the Bible has been translated, in whole or in part, into about 2,600 languages. It is by far the most widely translated and distributed book in history. We should expect nothing less. Bible prophecy states: "This good news of the Kingdom [the key message contained in the Bible] will be preached in all the inhabited earth for a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come." —Matthew 24:14.

Recognizing the importance of the Bible's message, we have undertaken the revision of this text with a profound respect for the content of the Bible. We feel the full weight of our responsibility to convey its message accurately. This revised edition has built on the fine foundation laid in previous editions of the New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures, a Bible that was first released more than 60 years ago. However, the English language has changed during the past half century. Such change prompted current members of the New World Bible Translation Committee to initiate this comprehensive revision. Our goal has been to produce a translation that is not only faithful to the original texts but also clear and easy to read. The Appendix articles "Principles of Bible Translation," "Features of This Revision," and "How the Bible Came to Us" discuss some of the linguistic refinements that were made in this edition.

Those who love Jehovah God and worship him desire an accurate, understandable translation of God's Word. (1 Timothy 2:4) To that end, we have made this revision available in English, with the intention of translating it into as many languages as possible. It is our hope and prayer that you, dear reader, will find this edition of the Holy Scriptures beneficial as you endeavor to "seek God . . . and really find him."—Acts 17:27.

1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.[a]

2 Now the earth was formless and desolate,* and there was darkness upon the surface of the watery deep,#[b] and God's active force△[c] was moving about over the surface of the waters.[d]

3 And God said: "Let there be light." Then there was light.[e]

4 After that God saw that the light was good, and God began to divide the light from the darkness. 5 God called the light Day, but the darkness he called Night.[f] And there was evening and there was morning, a first day.

6 Then God said: "Let there be an expanse[g] between the waters, and let there be a division between the waters and the waters."[h] 7 Then God went on to make the expanse and divided the waters beneath the expanse from the waters above the expanse.[i] And it was so. 8 God called the expanse Heaven.* And there was evening and there was morning, a second day.

9 Then God said: "Let the waters under the heavens be collected together into one place, and let the dry land appear."[j] And it was so. 10 God called the dry land Earth,[k] but the collecting of the waters, he called Seas.[a] And God saw that it was good.[b] 11 Then God said: "Let the earth cause grass to sprout, seed-bearing plants and fruit trees according to their kinds, yielding fruit along with seed on the earth." And it was so. 12 And the earth began to produce grass, seed-bearing plants[c] and trees yielding fruit along with seed, according to their kinds. Then God saw that it was good. 13 And there was evening and there was morning, a third day.

14 Then God said: "Let there be luminaries*[d] in the expanse of the heavens to make a division between the day and the night,[e] and they will serve as signs for seasons and for days and years.[f] 15 They will serve as luminaries in the expanse of the heavens to shine upon the earth." And it was so. 16 And God went on to make the two great luminaries, the greater luminary for dominating the day[g] and the lesser luminary for dominating the night, and also the stars.[h] 17 Thus God put them in the expanse of the heavens to shine upon the earth 18 and to dominate by day and by night and to make a division between the light and the darkness.[i] Then God saw that it was good. 19 And there was evening and there was morning, a fourth day.

20 Then God said: "Let the waters swarm with living creatures,* and let flying creatures fly above the earth across the expanse of the heavens."#[a] 21 And God created the great sea creatures# and all living creatures* that move and swarm in the waters according to their kinds and every winged flying creature according to its kind. And God saw that it was good. 22 With that God blessed them, saying: "Be fruitful and become many and fill the waters of the sea,[b] and let the flying creatures become many in the earth." 23 And there was evening and there was morning, a fifth day.

24 Then God said: "Let the earth bring forth living creatures* according to their kinds, domestic animals and creeping animals# and wild animals of the earth according to their kinds."[c] And it was so. 25 And God went on to make the wild animals of the earth according to their kinds and the domestic animals according to their kinds and all the creeping animals of the ground according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good.

26 Then God said: "Let us[d] make man in our image,[e] according to our likeness,[f] and let them have in subjection the fish of the sea and the flying creatures of the heavens and the domestic animals and all the earth and every creeping animal that is moving on the earth."[g] 27 And God went on to create the man in his image, in God's image he created him; male and female he created them.[h] 28 Further, God blessed them, and God said to them: "Be fruitful and become many, fill the earth[a] and subdue it,[b] and have in subjection[c] the fish of the sea and the flying creatures of the heavens and every living creature that is moving on the earth."

29 Then God said: "Here I have given to you every seed-bearing plant that is on the entire earth and every tree with seed-bearing fruit. Let them serve as food for you.[d] 30 And to every wild animal of the earth and to every flying creature of the heavens and to everything moving on the earth in which there is life,* I have given all green vegetation for food."[e] And it was so.

31 After that God saw everything he had made, and look! it was very good.[f] And there was evening and there was morning, a sixth day.

2 Thus the heavens and the earth and everything in them* were completed.[g] 2 And by the seventh day, God had completed the work that he had been doing,* and he began to rest on the seventh day from all his work that he had been doing.*[h] 3 And God went on to bless the seventh day and to declare it sacred, for on it God has been resting from all the work that he has created, all that he purposed to make.

4 This is a history of the heavens and the earth in the time they were created, in the day that Jehovah* God made earth and heaven.[i]

5 No bush of the field was yet on the earth and no vegetation of the field had begun sprouting, because Jehovah God had not made it rain on the earth and there was no man to cultivate the ground. 6 But a mist would go up from the earth, and it watered the entire surface of the ground.

7 And Jehovah God went on to form the man out of dust[a] from the ground and to blow into his nostrils the breath of life,[b] and the man became a living person.*[c] 8 Further, Jehovah God planted a garden in E′den,[d] toward the east; and there he put the man whom he had formed.[e] 9 Thus Jehovah God made to grow out of the ground every tree that was pleasing to look at and good for food and also the tree of life[f] in the middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and bad.[g]

10 Now there was a river flowing out of E′den to water the garden, and from there it divided into four rivers.* 11 The name of the first is Pi′shon; it is the one encircling the entire land of Hav′i·lah, where there is gold. 12 The gold of that land is good. Bdellium gum and onyx stone are also there. 13 The name of the second river is Gi′hon; it is the one encircling the entire land of Cush. 14 The name of the third river is Hid′de·kel;*[h] it is the one going to the east of Assyr′i·a.[i] And the fourth river is the Eu·phra′tes.[j]

15 Jehovah God took the man and settled him in the garden of E′den to cultivate it and to take care of it.[k] 16 Jehovah God also gave this command to the man: "From every tree of the garden you may eat to satisfaction.[l] 17 But as for the tree of the knowledge of good and bad, you must not eat from it, for in the day you eat from it you will certainly die."[a]

18 Then Jehovah God said: "It is not good for the man to continue to be alone. I am going to make a helper for him, as a complement of him."[b] 19 Now Jehovah God had been forming from the ground every wild animal of the field and every flying creature of the heavens, and he began bringing them to the man to see what he would call each one; and whatever the man would call each living creature,* that became its name.[c] 20 So the man named all the domestic animals and the flying creatures of the heavens and every wild animal of the field, but for man there was no helper as a complement of him. 21 So Jehovah God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep, and while he was sleeping, he took one of his ribs and then closed up the flesh over its place. 22 And Jehovah God built the rib that he had taken from the man into a woman, and he brought her to the man.[d]

23 Then the man said:

"This is at last bone of my bones
And flesh of my flesh.
This one will be called Woman,
Because from man she was taken."[e]

24 That is why a man will leave his father and his mother and he will stick to* his wife, and they will become one flesh.[f] 25 And both of them continued to be naked,[g] the man and his wife; yet they were not ashamed.

3 Now the serpent[h] was the most cautious* of all the wild animals of the field that Jehovah God had made. So it said to the woman: "Did God really say that you must not eat from every tree of the garden?"[a] 2 At this the woman said to the serpent: "We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden.[b] 3 But God has said about the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden:[c] 'You must not eat from it, no, you must not touch it; otherwise you will die.'" 4 At this the serpent said to the woman: "You certainly will not die.[d] 5 For God knows that in the very day you eat from it, your eyes will be opened and you will be like God, knowing good and bad."[e]

6 Consequently, the woman saw that the tree was good for food and that it was something desirable to the eyes, yes, the tree was pleasing to look at. So she began taking of its fruit and eating it.[f] Afterward, she also gave some to her husband when he was with her, and he began eating it.[g] 7 Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized that they were naked. So they sewed fig leaves together and made loin coverings for themselves.[h]

8 Later they heard the voice of Jehovah God as he was walking in the garden about the breezy part of the day, and the man and his wife hid from the face of Jehovah God among the trees of the garden. 9 And Jehovah God kept calling to the man and saying to him: "Where are you?" 10 Finally he said: "I heard your voice in the garden, but I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid myself." 11 At that he said: "Who told you that you were naked?[i] Have you eaten from the tree from which I commanded you not to eat?"[j] 12 The man said: "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, so I ate." 13 Jehovah God then said to the woman: "What is this you have done?" The woman replied: "The serpent deceived me, so I ate."[a]

14 Then Jehovah God said to the serpent:[b] "Because you have done this, you are the cursed one out of all the domestic animals and out of all the wild animals of the field. On your belly you will go, and you will eat dust all the days of your life. 15 And I will put enmity*[c] between you[d] and the woman[e] and between your offspring[#f] and her offspring.[#g] He will crush[△] your head,[h] and you will strike[⊠] him in the heel."[i]

16 To the woman he said: "I will greatly increase the pain of your pregnancy; in pain you will give birth to children, and your longing will be for your husband, and he will dominate you."

17 And to Adam* he said: "Because you listened to your wife's voice and ate from the tree concerning which I gave you this command,[j] 'You must not eat from it,' cursed is the ground on your account.[k] In pain you will eat its produce all the days of your life.[l] 18 It will grow thorns and thistles for you, and you must eat the vegetation of the field. 19 In the sweat of your face you will eat bread* until you return to the ground, for out of it you were taken.[m] For dust you are and to dust you will return."[n]

20 After this Adam named his wife Eve,* because she was to become the mother of everyone living.[o] 21 And Jehovah God made long garments from skins for Adam and for his wife, to clothe them.[p] 22 Jehovah God then said: "Here the man has become like one of us in knowing good and bad.[a] Now in order that he may not put his hand out and take fruit also from the tree of life[b] and eat and live forever,*—" 23 With that Jehovah God expelled him from the garden of E′den[c] to cultivate the ground from which he had been taken.[d] 24 So he drove the man out, and he posted at the east of the garden of E′den the cherubs[e] and the flaming blade of a sword that was turning continuously to guard the way to the tree of life.

4 Now Adam had sexual relations with his wife Eve, and she became pregnant.[f] When she gave birth to Cain,[g] she said: "I have produced* a male child with the help of Jehovah." 2 Later she again gave birth, to his brother Abel.[h]

Abel became a shepherd of the flock, but Cain became a cultivator of the ground. 3 After some time, Cain brought some fruits of the land as an offering to Jehovah. 4 But Abel brought some firstlings of his flock,[i] including their fat. While Jehovah looked with favor on Abel and on his offering,[j] 5 he did not look with any favor on Cain and on his offering. So Cain grew hot with anger and was dejected.* 6 Then Jehovah said to Cain: "Why are you so angry and dejected? 7 If you turn to doing good, will you not be restored to favor?* But if you do not turn to doing good, sin is crouching at the door, and its craving is to dominate you; but will you get the mastery over it?"

8 After that Cain said to his brother Abel: "Let us go over into the field." So while they were in the field, Cain assaulted his brother Abel and killed him.[a] 9 Later on, Jehovah said to Cain: "Where is your brother Abel?" and he said: "I do not know. Am I my brother's guardian?" 10 At this He said: "What have you done? Listen! Your brother's blood is crying out to me from the ground.[b] 11 And now you are cursed in banishment from the ground that has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand.[c] 12 When you cultivate the ground, it will not give you back its produce.* You will become a wanderer and a fugitive in the earth." 13 At this Cain said to Jehovah: "The punishment for my error is too great to bear. 14 Today you are driving me from the land,* and I will be hidden from your face; and I will become a wanderer and a fugitive on the earth, and anyone who finds me will certainly kill me." 15 So Jehovah said to him: "For that reason, anyone who kills Cain will suffer vengeance seven times."

So Jehovah set up* a sign for Cain in order that no one finding him would strike him. 16 Then Cain went away from before Jehovah and took up residence in the land of Exile,* to the east of E′den.[d]

17 Afterward Cain had sexual relations with his wife,[e] and she became pregnant and gave birth to E′noch. Then he engaged in building a city and named the city after his son E′noch. 18 Later I′rad was born to E′noch. And I′rad became father to Me·hu′ja·el, and Me·hu′ja·el became father to Me·thu′sha·el, and Me·thu′sha·el became father to La′mech.

19 La′mech took two wives for himself. The name of the first was A′dah, and the name of the second was Zil′lah. 20 A′dah gave birth to Ja′bal. He was the founder of those who dwell in tents and have livestock. 21 His brother's name was Ju′bal. He was the founder of all those who play the harp and the pipe.* 22 Also, Zil′lah gave birth to Tu′bal-cain, who forged every sort of tool of copper and iron. And the sister of Tu′bal-cain was Na′a·mah. 23 Then La′mech composed these words for his wives A′dah and Zil′lah:

"Hear my voice, you wives of La′mech;
Give ear to my saying:
A man I have killed for wounding me,
Yes, a young man for striking me.
24 If 7 times Cain is to be avenged,[a]
Then La′mech 77 times."

25 Adam again had sexual relations with his wife, and she gave birth to a son. She named him Seth*[b] because, as she said, "God has appointed for me another offspring# in place of Abel, because Cain killed him."[c] 26 There was also born to Seth a son, and he named him E′nosh.[d] At that time people began calling on the name of Jehovah.

5 This is the book of Adam's history. In the day that God created Adam, he made him in the likeness of God.[e] 2 Male and female he created them.[f] On the day they were created,[g] he blessed them and named them Man.*

3 Adam lived for 130 years and then became father to a son in his likeness, in his image, and he named him Seth.[a] 4 After becoming father to Seth, Adam lived for 800 years. And he became father to sons and daughters. 5 So all the days of Adam's life amounted to 930 years, and then he died.[b]

6 Seth lived for 105 years and then became father to E′nosh.[c] 7 After becoming father to E′nosh, Seth lived for 807 years. And he became father to sons and daughters. 8 So all the days of Seth amounted to 912 years, and then he died.

9 E′nosh lived for 90 years and then became father to Ke′nan. 10 After becoming father to Ke′nan, E′nosh lived for 815 years. And he became father to sons and daughters. 11 So all the days of E′nosh amounted to 905 years, and then he died.

12 Ke′nan lived for 70 years and then became father to Ma·hal′a·lel.[d] 13 After becoming father to Ma·hal′a·lel, Ke′nan lived for 840 years. And he became father to sons and daughters. 14 So all the days of Ke′nan amounted to 910 years, and then he died.

15 Ma·hal′a·lel lived for 65 years and then became father to Ja′red.[e] 16 After becoming father to Ja′red, Ma·hal′a·lel lived for 830 years. And he became father to sons and daughters. 17 So all the days of Ma·hal′a·lel amounted to 895 years, and then he died.

18 Ja′red lived for 162 years and then became father to E′noch.[f] 19 After becoming father to E′noch, Ja′red lived for 800 years. And he became father to sons and daughters. 20 So all the days of Ja′red amounted to 962 years, and then he died.

continued to walk with the true God* for 300 years. And he became father to sons and daughters. 23 So all the days of E'noch amounted to 365 years. 24 E'noch kept walking with the true God.[a] Then he was no more, for God took him.[b]

25 Me·thu'se·lah lived for 187 years and then became father to La'mech.[c] 26 After becoming father to La'mech, Me·thu'se·lah lived for 782 years. And he became father to sons and daughters. 27 So all the days of Me·thu'se·lah amounted to 969 years, and then he died.

28 La'mech lived for 182 years and then became father to a son. 29 He named him Noah,*[d] saying: "This one will bring us comfort# from our labor and from the painful toil of our hands because of the ground that Jehovah has cursed."[e] 30 After becoming father to Noah, La'mech lived for 595 years. And he became father to sons and daughters. 31 So all the days of La'mech amounted to 777 years, and then he died.

32 After Noah reached 500 years of age, he became father to Shem,[f] Ham,[g] and Ja'pheth.[h]

6 Now when men started to grow in number on the surface of the ground and daughters were born to them, 2 the sons of the true God*[i] began to notice that the daughters of men were beautiful. So they began taking as wives all whom they chose. 3 Then Jehovah said: "My spirit will not tolerate man indefinitely,[j] because he is only flesh.* Accordingly, his days will amount to 120 years."[k]

4 The Neph'i·lim* were on the earth in those days and afterward. During that time the sons of the true God continued to have relations with the daughters of men, and these bore sons to them. They were the mighty ones of old times, the men of fame.

5 Consequently, Jehovah saw that man's wickedness was great on the earth and that every inclination of the thoughts of his heart was only bad all the time.[a] 6 Jehovah regretted* that he had made men on the earth, and his heart was saddened.#[b] 7 So Jehovah said: "I am going to wipe men whom I have created off the surface of the ground, man together with domestic animals, creeping animals, and flying creatures of the heavens, for I regret that I have made them." 8 But Noah found favor in the eyes of Jehovah.

9 This is the history of Noah.

Noah was a righteous man.[c] He proved himself faultless* among his contemporaries.# Noah walked with the true God.[d] 10 In time Noah became father to three sons, Shem, Ham, and Ja'pheth.[e] 11 But the earth had become ruined in the sight of the true God, and the earth was filled with violence. 12 Yes, God looked upon the earth, and it was ruined;[f] all flesh* had ruined its way on the earth.[g]

13 After that God said to Noah: "I have decided to put an end to all flesh, because the earth is full of violence on account of them, so I am bringing them to ruin together with the earth.[h] 14 Make for yourself an ark* from resinous wood.[a] You will make compartments in the ark and cover it with tar#[b] inside and outside. 15 This is how you will make it: The ark should be 300 cubits* long, 50 cubits wide, and 30 cubits high. 16 You will make a window for light* for the ark, one cubit from the top. You should put the entrance of the ark in its side[c] and make it with a lower deck, a second deck, and a third deck.

17 "As for me, I am going to bring floodwaters[d] upon the earth to destroy from under the heavens all flesh that has the breath of life.* Everything on the earth will perish.[e] 18 And I am establishing my covenant with you, and you must go into the ark, you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you.[f] 19 And bring into the ark two of every sort of living creature[g] in order to preserve them alive with you, a male and a female;[h] 20 of the flying creatures according to their kinds, the domestic animals according to their kinds, and all creeping animals of the ground according to their kinds, two of each will go in there to you to preserve them alive.[i] 21 For your part, you are to collect and take with you every kind of food to eat,[j] to serve as food for you and for the animals."

22 And Noah did according to all that God had commanded him. He did just so.[k]

7 After that Jehovah said to Noah: "Go into the ark, you and all your household, because you are the one I have found to be righteous before me among this generation.[a] 2 You must take with you every kind of clean animal by sevens,[b] the male and its mate; and of every animal that is not clean just two, the male and its mate; 3 also of the flying creatures of the sky by sevens, male and female, to preserve their offspring alive over all the earth.[c] 4 For in just seven days, I will make it rain[d] on the earth for 40 days and 40 nights,[e] and I will wipe from the surface of the ground every living thing that I have made."[f] 5 Then Noah did everything that Jehovah had commanded him.

6 Noah was 600 years old when the floodwaters came upon the earth.[g] 7 So Noah, along with his sons, his wife, and his sons' wives, went into the ark ahead of the floodwaters.[h] 8 Of every clean animal and of every animal that is not clean and of the flying creatures and of everything that moves on the ground,[i] 9 they went inside the ark to Noah by twos, male and female, just as God had commanded Noah. 10 And seven days later the floodwaters came upon the earth.

11 In the 600th year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the 17th day of the month, on that day all the springs of the vast watery deep burst open and the floodgates of the heavens were opened.[j] 12 And the rain poured down on the earth for 40 days and 40 nights. 13 On that very day, Noah went into the ark along with his sons, Shem, Ham, and Ja'pheth,[k] and his wife and the three wives of his sons.[l] 14 They went in with every wild animal according to its kind, and every domestic animal according to its kind, and every creeping animal of the earth according to its kind, and every flying creature according to its kind, every bird, every winged creature. 15 They kept going to Noah inside the ark, two by two, of every sort of flesh that has the breath of life.* 16 So they went in, male and female of every sort of flesh, just as God had commanded him. After that Jehovah shut the door behind him.

17 The flooding continued* for 40 days on the earth, and the waters kept increasing and began carrying the ark, and it was floating high above the earth. 18 The waters became overwhelming and kept increasing greatly upon the earth, but the ark floated on the surface of the waters. 19 The waters overwhelmed the earth so greatly that all the tall mountains under the whole heavens were covered.[a] 20 The waters rose up to 15 cubits* above the mountains.

21 So all living creatures* that were moving on the earth perished[b]—the flying creatures, the domestic animals, the wild animals, the swarming creatures, and all mankind.[c] 22 Everything on dry land that had the breath of life* in its nostrils died.[d] 23 So He wiped every living thing from the surface of the earth, including man, animals, creeping animals, and the flying creatures of the sky. They were all wiped off the earth;[e] only Noah and those with him in the ark survived.[f] 24 And the waters continued overwhelming the earth for 150 days.[a]

8 But God gave attention to* Noah and to all the wild animals and domestic animals that were with him in the ark,[b] and God caused a wind to blow over the earth, and the waters began to subside. 2 The springs of the watery deep and the floodgates of the heavens were stopped up, so the rain from the heavens stopped falling.*[c] 3 Then the waters began to recede progressively from the earth. By the end of 150 days, the waters had subsided. 4 In the seventh month, on the 17th day of the month, the ark came to rest on the mountains of Ar′a·rat. 5 And the waters were steadily decreasing until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first of the month, the tops of the mountains appeared.[d]

6 So at the end of 40 days, Noah opened the window[e] that he had made in the ark 7 and sent out a raven; it continued flying outside and returning, until the waters dried off the earth.

8 Later he sent out a dove to see whether the waters had receded from the surface of the ground. 9 The dove did not find any resting-place to perch,* so it returned to him into the ark because the waters were still covering the surface of the whole earth.[f] So he reached his hand out and brought it inside the ark. 10 He waited seven more days, and once again he sent out the dove from the ark. 11 When the dove came to him toward evening, he saw that there was a freshly plucked olive leaf in its bill! So Noah knew that the waters had receded from the earth.[a] 12 He waited still another seven days. Then he sent out the dove, but it did not return to him anymore.

13 Now in the 601st year,[b] in the first month, on the first day of the month, the waters had drained from the earth; and Noah removed the covering of the ark and saw that the surface of the ground was drying. 14 In the second month, on the 27th day of the month, the earth had dried off.

15 God now said to Noah: 16 "Go out of the ark, you, your wife, your sons, and your sons' wives.[c] 17 Bring out with you all the living creatures of every sort of flesh,[d] of the flying creatures and of the animals and of all the creeping animals of the earth, that they may multiply* on the earth and be fruitful and become many on the earth."[e]

18 So Noah went out, together with his sons,[f] his wife, and his sons' wives. 19 Every living creature, every creeping animal and every flying creature, everything that moves on the earth, went out of the ark by families.[g] 20 Then Noah built an altar[h] to Jehovah and took some of all the clean animals and of all the clean flying creatures[i] and offered burnt offerings on the altar.[j] 21 And Jehovah began to smell a pleasing* aroma. 9 God went on to bless Noah and his sons and to say to them: "Be fruitful and become many and fill the earth.[a] 2 A fear of you and a terror of you will continue upon every living creature of the earth and upon every flying creature of the heavens, upon everything that moves on the ground and upon all the fish of the sea. They are now given into your hand.[b] 3 Every moving animal that is alive may serve as food for you.[c] Just as I gave you the green vegetation, I give them all to you.[d] 4 Only flesh with its life—its blood[e]—you must not eat.[f] 5 Besides that, I will demand an accounting for your lifeblood.* I will demand an accounting from every living creature; and from each man I will demand an accounting for the life of his brother.[g] 6 Anyone shedding man's blood, by man will his own blood be shed,[h] for in God's image He made man.[i] 7 As for you, be fruitful and become many, and increase abundantly on the earth and multiply."[j]

8 Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him: 9 "I am now establishing my covenant with you[k] and with your offspring after you, 10 and with every living creature* that is with you, the birds, the animals, and all the living creatures of the earth with you, all those that came out of the ark—every living creature of the earth.[l] 11 Yes, I establish my covenant with you: Never again will all flesh* be destroyed by the waters of a flood, and never again will a flood bring the earth to ruin."[m]

12 And God added: "This is the sign of the covenant that I am making between me and you and every living creature* that is with you, for all future generations. 13 I put my rainbow in the cloud, and it will serve as a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. 14 Whenever I bring a cloud over the earth, then the rainbow will certainly appear in the cloud. 15 And I will certainly remember my covenant that I made between me and you and every living creature of every kind;* and never again will the waters become a flood to destroy all flesh.[a] 16 And the rainbow will occur in the cloud, and I will certainly see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of every kind* on the earth."

17 God repeated to Noah: "This is the sign of the covenant that I establish between me and all flesh that is on the earth."[b]

18 Noah's sons who came out of the ark were Shem, Ham, and Ja'pheth.[c] Ham later became the father of Ca'naan.[d] 19 These three were Noah's sons, and all the earth's population came from them and spread abroad.[e]

20 Now Noah started off as a farmer, and he planted a vineyard. 21 When he drank of the wine, he became intoxicated, and he uncovered himself inside his tent. 22 Ham, the father of Ca'naan, saw his father's nakedness, and he told his two brothers outside. 23 So Shem and Ja'pheth took a garment and put it upon both their shoulders and walked in backward. Thus they covered their father's nakedness while their faces were turned away, and they did not see their father's nakedness.

24 When Noah woke up from his wine and learned what his youngest son had done to him, 25 he said:

"Cursed be Ca'naan.[a] Let him become the lowest slave to his brothers."[b]

26 And he added:

"Praised be Jehovah, the God of Shem,
And let Ca'naan become a slave to him.[c]

27 Let God grant ample space to Ja'pheth,
And let him reside in the tents of Shem.
Let Ca'naan become a slave to him also."

28 Noah continued to live for 350 years after the Flood.[d] 29 So all the days of Noah amounted to 950 years, and he died.

10 This is the history of Noah's sons, Shem,[e] Ham, and Ja'pheth.

Sons were born to them after the Flood.[f] 2 The sons of Ja'pheth were Go'mer,[g] Ma'gog,[h] Ma'da·i, Ja'van, Tu'bal,[i] Me'shech,[j] and Ti'ras.[k]

3 The sons of Go'mer were Ash'ke·naz,[l] Ri'phath, and Togar'mah.[m]

4 The sons of Ja'van were E·li'shah,[n] Tar'shish,[o] Kit'tim,[p] and Do'da·nim.

5 From these the inhabitants of the islands spread into their lands, according to their languages and their families and by their nations.

6 The sons of Ham were Cush, Miz'ra·im,[q] Put,[r] and Ca'naan.[s]

7 The sons of Cush were Se'ba,[t] Hav'i·lah, Sab'tah, Ra'amah,[u] and Sab'te·ca.

The sons of Ra'a·mah were She'ba and De'dan.

earth. 9 He became a mighty hunter in opposition to Jehovah. That is why there is a saying: "Just like Nim′rod, a mighty hunter in opposition to Jehovah." 10 The beginning of his kingdom was* Ba′bel,[a] E′rech,[b] Ac′cad, and Cal′neh, in the land of Shi′nar.[c] 11 From that land he went into As·syr′i·a[d] and built Nin′e·veh,[e] Re·ho′both-Ir, Ca′lah, 12 and Re′sen, between Nin′e·veh and Ca′lah: This is the great city.*

13 Miz′ra·im became father to Lu′dim,[f] An′a·mim, Le·ha′bim, Naph·tu′him,[g] 14 Path·ru′sim,[h] Cas·lu′him (from whom the Phi·lis′tines[i] came), and Caph′to·rim.[j]

15 Ca′naan became father to Si′don,[k] his firstborn, and Heth,[l] 16 as well as the Jeb′u·site,[m] the Am′or·ite,[n] the Gir′ga·shite, 17 the Hi′vite,[o] the Ark′ite, the Si′nite, 18 the Ar′vad·ite,[p] the Zem′a·rite, and the Ha′math·ite.[q] Afterward, the families of the Ca′naan·ites were scattered. 19 So the boundary of the Ca′naan·ites was from Si′don as far as Ge′rar,[r] near Gaz′a,[s] as far as Sod′om, Go·mor′rah,[t] Ad′mah, and Ze·boi′im,[u] near La′sha. 20 These were the sons of Ham according to their families and their languages, by their lands and their nations.

21 Children were also born to Shem, the forefather of all the sons of E′ber[v] and the brother of Ja′pheth the oldest.* 22 The sons of Shem were E′lam,[w] As′shur,[x] Ar·pach′shad,[y] Lud, and A′ram.[z]

23 The sons of A′ram were Uz, Hul, Ge′ther, and Mash.

10:10 *Or "The first cities of his kingdom were." 10:12 *Or possibly, "They form the great city." 10:21 *Or possibly, "and the older brother of Japheth."

24 Ar·pach′shad became father to She′lah,[a] and She′lah became father to E′ber.

25 Two sons were born to E′ber. The name of the one was Pe′leg,*[b] because in his lifetime the earth# was divided. The name of his brother was Jok′tan.[c]

26 Jok′tan became father to Al·mo′dad, She′leph, Ha·zar·ma′veth, Je′rah,[d] 27 Ha·do′ram, U′zal, Dik′lah, 28 O′bal, A·bim′a·el, She′ba, 29 O′phir,[e] Hav′i·lah, and Jo′bab; all of these were the sons of Jok′tan.

30 Their place of dwelling extended from Me′sha as far as Se′phar, the mountainous region of the East.

31 These were the sons of Shem according to their families and their languages, by their lands and their nations.[f]

32 These were the families of the sons of Noah according to their family lines and by their nations. From these the nations were spread abroad in the earth after the Flood.[g]

11 Now all the earth continued to be of one language and of one set of words.* 2 As they traveled eastward, they discovered a valley plain in the land of Shi′nar,[h] and they began dwelling there. 3 Then they said to one another: "Come! Let us make bricks and bake them with fire." So they used bricks instead of stone, and bitumen as mortar. 4 They now said: "Come! Let us build a city for ourselves and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a celebrated name for ourselves, so that we will not be scattered over the entire face of the earth."[i]

10:25 *Meaning "Division." #Or "earth's population." 11:1 *Or "of one vocabulary."

5 Then Jehovah went down to see the city and the tower that the sons of men had built. 6 Jehovah then said: "Look! They are one people with one language,[a] and this is what they have started to do. Now there is nothing that they may have in mind to do that will be impossible for them. 7 Come! Let us[b] go down there and confuse their language in order that they may not understand one another's language." 8 So Jehovah scattered them from there over the entire face of the earth,[c] and they gradually left off building the city. 9 That is why it was named Ba'bel,*[d] because there Jehovah confused the language of all the earth, and Jehovah scattered them from there over the entire face of the earth.

10 This is the history of Shem.[e]

Shem was 100 years old when he became father to Ar·pach'-shad[f] two years after the Flood. 11 After becoming father to Ar·pach'shad, Shem continued to live 500 years. And he became father to sons and daughters.[g]

12 Ar·pach'shad lived for 35 years and then became father to She'lah.[h] 13 After becoming father to She'lah, Ar·pach'shad continued to live 403 years. And he became father to sons and daughters.

14 She'lah lived for 30 years and then became father to E'ber.[i] 15 After becoming father to E'ber, She'lah continued to live 403 years. And he became father to sons and daughters.

16 E'ber lived for 34 years and then became father to Pe'-leg.[j] 17 After becoming father to Pe'leg, E'ber continued to live 430 years. And he became father to sons and daughters.

18 Pe'leg lived for 30 years and then became father to Re'u.[k]

19 After becoming father to Re'u, Pe'leg continued to live 209 years. And he became father to sons and daughters.

20 Re'u lived for 32 years and then became father to Se'rug. 21 After becoming father to Se'-rug, Re'u continued to live 207 years. And he became father to sons and daughters.

22 Se'rug lived for 30 years and then became father to Na'-hor. 23 After becoming father to Na'hor, Se'rug continued to live 200 years. And he became father to sons and daughters.

24 Na'hor lived for 29 years and then became father to Te'-rah.[a] 25 After becoming father to Te'rah, Na'hor continued to live 119 years. And he became father to sons and daughters.

26 Te'rah lived for 70 years, after which he became father to A'bram,[b] Na'hor,[c] and Ha'ran.

27 This is the history of Te'-rah.

Te'rah became father to A'bram, Na'hor, and Ha'ran; and Ha'ran became father to Lot.[d] 28 While his father Te'rah was still alive, Ha'ran died in the land of his birth, in Ur[e] of the Chal·de'ans.[f] 29 A'bram and Na'hor took wives for themselves. The name of A'bram's wife was Sar'-ai,[g] and the name of Na'hor's wife was Mil'cah,[h] the daughter of Ha'ran, the father of Mil'cah and Is'cah. 30 Now Sar'ai was barren;[i] she had no child.

31 Te'rah then took A'bram his son and Lot his grandson,[j] the son of Ha'ran, and Sar'ai his daughter-in-law, the wife of A'bram his son, and they went with him out of Ur of the Chal·de'ans to go to the land of Ca'-naan.[k] In time they came to Ha'-ran[l] and began dwelling there. 32 The days of Te'rah were 205 years. Then Te'rah died in Ha'-ran.

11:9 *Meaning "Confusion."

12 And Jehovah said to A′bram: “Go out from your land and away from your relatives and from the house of your father to the land that I will show you.[a] 2 I will make you a great nation, and I will bless you, and I will make your name great, and you will become a blessing.[b] 3 I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse him who calls down evil on you,[c] and all the families of the ground will certainly be blessed* by means of you.”[d]

4 So A′bram went just as Jehovah had told him, and Lot went with him. A′bram was 75 years old when he left Ha′ran.[e] 5 A′bram took his wife Sar′ai[f] and Lot the son of his brother[g] and all the goods that they had accumulated[h] and the people* whom they had acquired in Ha′ran, and they set out for the land of Ca′naan.[i] When they reached the land of Ca′naan, 6 A′bram traveled through the land as far as the site of She′chem,[j] near the big trees of Mo′reh.[k] At that time the Ca′naan·ites were in the land. 7 Jehovah then appeared to A′bram and said: “To your offspring*[l] I am going to give this land.”[m] So he built an altar there to Jehovah, who had appeared to him. 8 Later he moved from there to the mountainous region east of Beth′el[n] and pitched his tent with Beth′el on the west and A′i[o] on the east. There he built an altar to Jehovah[p] and began to call on the name of Jehovah.[q] 9 Afterward, A′bram broke camp and journeyed toward the Neg′eb,[r] moving his camp from one place to another.

10 Now a famine arose in the land, and A′bram went down toward Egypt to reside there for a while,[a] because the famine in the land was severe.[b] 11 As he was about to enter Egypt, he said to his wife Sar′ai: “Please listen! I know what a beautiful woman you are.[c] 12 So when the Egyptians see you, they will surely say, ‘This is his wife.’ Then they will kill me but keep you alive. 13 Please say you are my sister, so that it may go well with me because of you, and my life will be spared.”[d]

14 As soon as A′bram entered Egypt, the Egyptians noticed that the woman was very beautiful. 15 And the princes of Phar′aoh also saw her, and they began praising her to Phar′aoh, so that the woman was taken to the house of Phar′aoh. 16 He treated A′bram well because of her, and he acquired sheep, cattle, male and female donkeys, male and female servants, and camels.[e] 17 Then Jehovah struck Phar′aoh and his household with severe plagues because of Sar′ai, A′bram’s wife.[f] 18 So Phar′aoh called A′bram and said: “What is this you have done to me? Why did you not tell me that she was your wife? 19 Why did you say, ‘She is my sister,’[g] so that I was about to take her as my wife? Here is your wife. Take her and go!” 20 So Phar′aoh gave his men orders concerning him, and they sent him away with his wife and all that he had.[h]

13 A′bram then went up out of Egypt to the Neg′eb,[i] he and his wife and all that he had, together with Lot. 2 A′bram was very rich in livestock, silver, and gold.[j] 3 He camped in one place after another as he traveled from the Neg′eb to Beth′el, until he arrived at the place where his tent had been between Beth′el and A′i,[a] 4 to the place where he had previously built an altar. There A′bram called on the name of Jehovah.

5 Now Lot, who was traveling with A′bram, also owned sheep, cattle, and tents. 6 So the land did not allow for all of them to stay in the same place; their goods had become so many that they could no longer dwell together. 7 As a result, a quarrel arose between the herders of A′bram's livestock and the herders of Lot's livestock. (At that time the Ca′naan·ites and the Per′iz·zites were dwelling in the land.)[b] 8 So A′bram said to Lot:[c] "Please, there should be no quarreling between me and you and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen, for we are brothers. 9 Is not the whole land available to you? Please, separate from me. If you go to the left, then I will go to the right; but if you go to the right, then I will go to the left." 10 So Lot raised his eyes and saw that the whole district of the Jordan[d] was a well-watered region (before Jehovah destroyed Sod′om and Go·mor′rah), like the garden of Jehovah,[e] like the land of Egypt, as far as Zo′ar.[f] 11 Then Lot chose for himself the whole district of the Jordan, and Lot moved his camp to the east. So they separated from each other. 12 A′bram lived in the land of Ca′naan, but Lot lived among the cities of the district.[g] Finally he set up his tent near Sod′om. 13 Now the men of Sod′om were wicked, gross sinners against Jehovah.[h]

14 Jehovah said to A′bram, after Lot had separated from him: "Raise your eyes, please, and look from the place where you are, to the north and south, east and west, 15 because all the land that you see, I will give to you and your offspring* as a lasting possession.[a] 16 And I will make your offspring* like the dust particles of the earth, so that if anyone could count the dust particles of the earth, then your offspring* could be counted.[b] 17 Get up, travel through the length and breadth of the land, for to you I am going to give it." 18 So A′bram continued to live in tents. Later he came and dwelled among the big trees of Mam′re,[c] which are in Heb′ron,[d] and there he built an altar to Jehovah.[e]

14 Now in the days of Am′raphel king of Shi′nar,[f] Ar′ioch king of El·la′sar, Ched·or·la·o′mer[g] king of E′lam,[h] and Ti′dal king of Goi′im, 2 these made war with Be′ra king of Sod′om,[i] Bir′sha king of Go·mor′rah,[j] Shi′nab king of Ad′mah, Shem·e′ber king of Ze·boi′im,[k] and the king of Be′la, that is, Zo′ar. 3 All of these joined forces at the Valley* of Sid′dim,[l] that is, the Salt Sea.[#m]

4 They had served Ched·or·la·o′mer for 12 years, but they rebelled in the 13th year. 5 So in the 14th year, Ched·or·la·o′mer and the kings who were with him came and defeated the Reph′a·im in Ash′te·roth-kar·na′im, the Zu′zim in Ham, the E′mim[n] in Sha′veh-kir·i·a·tha′im, 6 and the Hor′ites[o] in their mountain of Se′ir[p] down to El-pa′ran, which is at the wilderness. 7 Then they turned back and came to En-mish′pat, that is, Ka′desh,[q] and conquered the whole territory of the A·mal′ek·ites[r] and also the Am′or·ites[s] who were dwelling in Haz′a·zon-ta′mar.[t]

8 At this point, the king of Sod′om went on the march, and also the king of Go·mor′rah, the king of Ad′mah, the king of Ze·boi′im, and the king of Be′la, that is, Zo′ar, and they drew up in battle formation against them in the Valley* of Sid′dim, 9 against Ched·or·la·o′mer king of E′lam, Ti′dal king of Goi′im, Am′ra·phel king of Shi′nar, and Ar′i·och king of El·la′sar[a]—four kings against the five. 10 Now the Valley* of Sid′dim was full of bitumen pits, and the kings of Sod′om and Go·mor′rah tried to escape and fell into them, and those who remained fled to the mountainous region. 11 Then the victors took all the goods of Sod′om and Go·mor′rah and all their food and went on their way.[b] 12 They also took Lot, the son of A′bram's brother who was dwelling in Sod′om,[c] as well as his goods, and they continued on their way.

13 After that a man who had escaped came and told A′bram the Hebrew. He was then dwelling* among the big trees of Mam′re the Am′or·ite,[d] the brother of Esh′col and A′ner.[e] These men were allies of A′bram. 14 Thus A′bram heard that his relative*[f] had been taken captive. With that he mobilized his trained men, 318 servants born in his household, and went in pursuit up to Dan.[g] 15 During the night, he divided his forces, and he and his servants attacked and defeated them. And he pursued them up to Ho′bah, which is north of Damascus. 16 He recovered all the goods, and he also recovered Lot his relative, his goods, the women, and the other people.

17 After A′bram returned from defeating Ched·or·la·o′mer and the kings who were with him, the king of Sod′om went out to meet A′bram at the Valley* of Sha′veh, that is, the Valley of the King.[a] 18 And Mel·chiz′e·dek[b] king of Sa′lem[c] brought out bread and wine; he was priest of the Most High God.[d]

19 Then he blessed him and said:

"Blessed be A′bram by the Most High God,
Maker of heaven and earth;
20 And praised be the Most High God,
Who has handed your oppressors over to you!"

And A′bram gave him a tenth of everything.[e]

21 After that the king of Sod′om said to A′bram: "Give me the people,* but take the goods for yourself." 22 But A′bram said to the king of Sod′om: "I raise my hand in an oath to Jehovah the Most High God, Maker of heaven and earth, 23 that I will not take anything that is yours, from a thread to a sandal lace, so that you may not say, 'I made A′bram rich.' 24 I will take nothing except what the young men have already eaten. As for the share of the men who went with me, A′ner, Esh′col, and Mam′re[f]—let them take their share."

15 After this the word of Jehovah came to A′bram in a vision, saying: "Do not fear,[g] A′bram. I am a shield for you.[h] Your reward will be very great."[i] 2 A′bram replied: "Sovereign Lord Jehovah, what will you give me, seeing that I continue childless and the one who will inherit my house is a man of Damascus, E·li·e′zer?"[j] 3 A′bram added: "You have given me no offspring,[k] and a member# of my household is succeeding me as heir." 4 But look! word in reply to him was, "This man will not succeed you as heir, but your own son will succeed you as heir."[a]

5 He now brought him outside and said: "Look up, please, to the heavens and count the stars, if you are able to do so." Then he said to him: "So your offspring* will become."[b] 6 And he put faith in Jehovah,[c] and He counted* it to him as righteousness.[d] 7 Then he added: "I am Jehovah, who brought you out of Ur of the Chal·de′ans to give you this land as your possession."[e] 8 To this he said: "Sovereign Lord Jehovah, how will I know that I will take possession of it?" 9 He replied to him: "Take for me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old female goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon." 10 So he took all of these and cut them in two and put each part opposite the other,* but he did not cut up the birds. 11 Then the birds of prey began to descend on the carcasses, but A′bram kept driving them away.

12 When the sun was about to set, a deep sleep fell upon A′bram and a great and frightening darkness descended on him. 13 Then He said to A′bram: "Know for certain that your offspring* will be foreigners in a land not theirs and that the people there will enslave them and afflict them for 400 years.[f] 14 But I will judge the nation they will serve,[g] and after that they will go out with many goods.[h] 15 As for you, you will go to your forefathers in peace; you will be buried at a good old age.[a] 16 But they will return here[b] in the fourth generation, because the error of the Am′orites has not yet reached its full measure."[c]

17 When the sun had set and it had become very dark, a smoking furnace appeared, and a fiery torch passed between the pieces. 18 On that day Jehovah made with A′bram a covenant,[d] saying: "To your offspring* I will give this land,[e] from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Eu·phra′tes:[f] 19 the land of the Ken′ites,[g] the Ken′iz·zites, the Kad′mon·ites, 20 the Hit′tites,[h] the Per′iz·zites,[i] the Reph′a·im,[j] 21 the Am′or·ites, the Ca′naanites, the Gir′ga·shites, and the Jeb′u·sites."[k]

16 Now A′bram's wife Sar′ai had borne him no children,[l] but she had an Egyptian servant whose name was Ha′gar.[m] 2 So Sar′ai said to A′bram: "Please now! Jehovah has prevented me from bearing children. Please, have relations with my servant. Perhaps I can have children by means of her."[n] So A′bram listened to what Sar′ai said. 3 After A′bram had lived for ten years in the land of Ca′naan, A′bram's wife Sar′ai took her Egyptian servant Ha′gar and gave her to her husband A′bram as his wife. 4 So he had relations with Ha′gar, and she became pregnant. When she realized that she was pregnant, she began to despise her mistress.

5 At this Sar′ai said to A′bram: "The injury done to me is your fault. I was the one who put my servant in your arms,* but when she realized that she was pregnant, she began to despise me. May Jehovah judge between me and you." 6 So A′bram said to Sar′ai: "Look! Your servant is under your authority. Do to her whatever you think is best." Then Sar′ai humiliated her, and she ran away from her.

7 Later Jehovah's angel found her at a spring of waters in the wilderness, the spring on the way to Shur.[a] 8 And he said: "Ha′gar, servant of Sar′ai, where have you come from and where are you going?" To this she said: "I am running away from my mistress Sar′ai." 9 Jehovah's angel then said to her: "Return to your mistress and humble yourself under her hand." 10 Then Jehovah's angel said: "I will greatly multiply your offspring,* so that they will be too numerous to count."[b] 11 Jehovah's angel added: "Here you are pregnant, and you will give birth to a son, and you must name him Ish′mael,* for Jehovah has heard your affliction. 12 He will be a wild donkey* of a man. His hand will be against everyone, and everyone's hand will be against him, and he will dwell opposite all his brothers."#

13 Then she called on the name of Jehovah, who was speaking to her: "You are a God of sight,"[c] for she said: "Have I here actually looked upon the one who sees me?" 14 That is why the well was called Be′er-la′hai-roi.* (It is between Ka′desh and Be′red.) 15 So Ha′gar bore to A′bram a son, and A′bram named his son, whom Ha′gar bore, Ish′ma·el.[d] 16 A′bram was 86 years old when Ha′gar bore Ish′ma·el to him.

17 When A′bram was 99 years old, Jehovah appeared to A′bram and said to him: "I am God Almighty. Walk before me and prove yourself faultless.* 2 I will establish my covenant between me and you,[a] and I will multiply you very, very much."[b]

3 At this A′bram fell facedown, and God continued to speak with him, saying: 4 "As for me, look! my covenant is with you,[c] and you will certainly become a father of many nations.[d] 5 Your name will no longer be A′bram;* your name will become Abraham,# for I will make you a father of many nations. 6 I will make you very, very fruitful and will make you become nations, and kings will come from you.[e]

7 "And I will keep my covenant between me and you[f] and your offspring* after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be God to you and to your offspring* after you. 8 And I will give to you and to your offspring* after you the land in which you lived as a foreigner[g] —the entire land of Ca′naan—for a lasting possession, and I will be their God."[h]

9 God said further to Abraham: "As for you, you are to keep my covenant, you and your offspring* after you throughout their generations. 10 This is my covenant between me and you, that you and your offspring* after you will keep: Every male among you must get circumcised.[i] 11 You must circumcise the flesh of your foreskins, and it will serve as a sign of the covenant between me and you.[j] 12 Throughout your generations, every male among you eight days old must be circumcised,[a] anyone who is born in the house and anyone who is not one of your offspring* and who was purchased with money from a foreigner. 13 Every man born in your house and every man purchased with your money must be circumcised,[b] and my covenant in your flesh must serve as a lasting covenant. 14 If any uncircumcised male will not circumcise the flesh of his foreskin, that person* must be cut off# from his people. He has broken my covenant."

17:1 *Or "blameless." 17:5 *Meaning "Father Is High (Exalted)." #Meaning "Father of a Crowd (Multitude); Father of Many."

15 Then God said to Abraham: "As for your wife Sar′ai,*[c] you must not call her Sar′ai, because Sarah# will become her name. 16 I will bless her and also give you a son by her;[d] I will bless her and she will become nations; kings of peoples will come from her." 17 At this Abraham fell facedown and began to laugh and to say in his heart:[e] "Will a man 100 years old have a child born to him, and will Sarah, a woman 90 years old, give birth?"[f]

18 So Abraham said to the true God: "O that Ish′ma·el might live before you!"[g] 19 To this God said: "Your wife Sarah will definitely bear you a son, and you must name him Isaac.#[h] And I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant to his offspring* after him.[i] 20 But as regards Ish′mael, I have heard you. Look! I will bless him and will make him fruitful and will multiply him very, very much. He will produce 12 chieftains, and I will make him become a great nation.[j] 21 However, I will establish my covenant with Isaac,[a] whom Sarah will bear to you at this appointed time next year."[b]

22 When God finished speaking with him, he went up from Abraham. 23 Abraham then took Ish′ma·el his son and all the men born in his house and everyone he had purchased with money, every male in the household of Abraham, and he circumcised the flesh of their foreskins on that very day, just as God had spoken with him.[c] 24 Abraham was 99 years old when he had the flesh of his foreskin circumcised.[d] 25 And Ish′ma·el his son was 13 years old when he had the flesh of his foreskin circumcised.[e] 26 On that very day, Abraham was circumcised and also his son Ish′mael. 27 All the men of his household, anyone born in the house and anyone purchased with money from a foreigner, were also circumcised with him.

18 Afterward, Jehovah[f] appeared to him among the big trees of Mam′re[g] while he was sitting at the entrance of the tent during the hottest part of the day. 2 He looked up and saw three men standing some distance from him.[h] When he saw them, he ran from the entrance of the tent to meet them, and he bowed down to the ground. 3 Then he said: "Jehovah, if I have found favor in your eyes, please do not pass by your servant. 4 Please, let a little water be brought and have your feet washed;[i] then recline under the tree. 5 Seeing that you have come here to your servant, let me bring a piece of bread so that you may refresh yourselves.* Then you may go on your way." At this they said: "All right. You may do as you have spoken."

6 So Abraham hurried to the tent to Sarah and said: "Quick! Get three measures* of fine flour, knead the dough, and make loaves of bread." 7 Next Abraham ran to the herd and chose a tender and good young bull. He gave it to the attendant, who hurried to prepare it. 8 He then took butter and milk and the young bull that he had prepared and set the food before them. Then he stood by them under the tree as they were eating.[a]

9 They said to him: "Where is your wife Sarah?"[b] He replied: "Here in the tent." 10 So one of them continued: "I will surely return to you next year at this time, and look! your wife Sarah will have a son."[c] Now Sarah was listening at the tent entrance, which was behind the man. 11 Abraham and Sarah were old, being advanced in years.[d] Sarah was past the age of childbearing.*[e] 12 So Sarah began to laugh to herself, saying: "After I am worn out and my lord is old, will I really have this pleasure?"[f] 13 Then Jehovah said to Abraham: "Why did Sarah laugh and say, 'Am I really going to give birth even though I am old?' 14 Is anything too extraordinary for Jehovah?[g] I will return to you next year at this appointed time, and Sarah will have a son." 15 But Sarah denied it, saying, "I did not laugh!" for she was afraid. At this he said: "Yes! You did laugh."

16 When the men got up to leave and looked down toward Sod'om,[h] Abraham was walking with them to escort them. 17 Jehovah said: "Am I keeping hidden from Abraham what I am going to do?[i] 18 Why, Abraham is surely going to become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed* by means of him.[a] 19 For I have come to know him in order that he may command his sons and his household after him to keep Jehovah's way by doing what is right and just,[b] so that Jehovah may bring about what he has promised concerning Abraham."

20 Then Jehovah said: "The outcry against Sod'om and Gomor'rah is indeed great,[c] and their sin is very heavy.[d] 21 I will go down to see whether they are acting according to the outcry that has reached me. And if not, I can get to know it."[e]

22 Then the men left from there and went toward Sod'om, but Jehovah[f] remained with Abraham. 23 Then Abraham approached and said: "Will you really sweep away the righteous with the wicked?[g] 24 Suppose there are 50 righteous men within the city. Will you, then, sweep them away and not pardon the place for the sake of the 50 righteous who are inside it? 25 It is unthinkable that you would act in this manner by putting the righteous man to death with the wicked one so that the outcome for the righteous man and the wicked is the same![h] It is unthinkable of you.[i] Will the Judge of all the earth not do what is right?"[j] 26 Then Jehovah said: "If I find in Sod'om 50 righteous men in the city, I will pardon the whole place for their sake." 27 But Abraham again responded: "Please, here I have presumed to speak to Jehovah, whereas I am dust and ashes. 28 Suppose the 50 righteous should lack five. Because of the five will you destroy the whole city?" To this he said: "I will not destroy it if I find there 45."[a] 29 But yet again he spoke to him and said: "Suppose 40 are found there." He answered: "I will not do it for the sake of the 40." 30 But he continued: "Jehovah, please, do not become hot with anger,[b] but let me go on speaking: Suppose only 30 are found there." He answered: "I will not do it if I find 30 there." 31 But he continued: "Please, here I have presumed to speak to Jehovah: Suppose only 20 are found there." He answered: "I will not destroy it for the sake of the 20." 32 Finally he said: "Jehovah, please, do not become hot with anger, but let me speak just once more: Suppose only ten are found there." He answered: "I will not destroy it for the sake of the ten." 33 When Jehovah finished speaking to Abraham, he went his way[c] and Abraham returned to his place.

19 The two angels arrived at Sod'om by evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sod'om. When Lot saw them, he got up to meet them and bowed down with his face to the earth.[d] 2 And he said: "Please, my lords, turn aside, please, into the house of your servant and stay overnight and have your feet washed. Then you may get up early and travel on your way." To this they said: "No, we will stay overnight in the public square." 3 But he was so insistent with them that they went with him to his house. Then he made a feast for them, and he baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

4 Before they could lie down to sleep, the men of the city—the men of Sod'om from boy to old man, all of them—surrounded the house in one mob. 5 And they kept calling out to Lot and saying to him: "Where are the men who came in to you tonight? Bring them out to us so that we may have sex with them."[a]

6 Then Lot went out to them to the doorway, and he shut the door behind him. 7 He said: "Please, my brothers, do not act wickedly. 8 Please, here I have two daughters who have never had sexual relations with a man. Please, let me bring them out to you for you to do to them whatever seems good to you. But do not do anything to these men, for they have come under the shelter* of my roof."[b] 9 At this they said: "Stand back!" And they added: "This lone foreigner came to live here, and yet he dares to judge us! Now we are going to do worse to you than to them." And they crowded in* on Lot and moved forward to break down the door. 10 So the men reached out their hands and brought Lot into the house with them, and they shut the door. 11 But they struck the men who were at the entrance of the house with blindness, from the least to the greatest, so that they wore themselves out trying to find the doorway.

12 Then the men said to Lot: "Do you have anyone else here? Sons-in-law, your sons, your daughters, and all your people in the city, bring out of this place! 13 For we are going to destroy this place, because the outcry against them has indeed grown great* before Jehovah,[c] so that Jehovah sent us to destroy the city." 14 So Lot went out and began to speak to his sons-in-law who were to marry his daughters, and he kept saying: "Get up! Get out of this place, because Jehovah will destroy the city!" But to his sons-in-law, he seemed to be joking.[d]

15 As dawn was breaking, the angels became urgent with Lot, saying: "Get up! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here with you, so that you will not be swept away in the error of the city!"[a] 16 When he kept lingering, then because of Jehovah's compassion for him,[b] the men seized hold of his hand and the hand of his wife and the hands of his two daughters, and they brought him out and stationed him outside the city.[c] 17 As soon as they had brought them to the outskirts, he said: "Escape for your life!* Do not look behind you[d] and do not stand still in any part of the district![e] Escape to the mountainous region so that you may not be swept away!"

18 Then Lot said to them: "Not there, please, Jehovah! 19 Please, now, your servant has found favor in your eyes and you are showing great kindness* to me by preserving me# alive,[f] but I am not able to flee to the mountainous region because I am afraid that disaster may overtake me and I will die.[g] 20 Please, now, this town is nearby and I can flee there; it is only a small place. May I, please, escape there? It is only a small place. Then I will survive."* 21 So he said to him: "Very well, I will also show you consideration[h] by not overthrowing the town you speak of.[i] 22 Hurry! Escape there, because I cannot do anything until you arrive there!"[j] That is why he named the town Zo'ar.*[k]

23 The sun had risen over the land when Lot arrived at Zo'ar. 24 Then Jehovah made it rain sulfur and fire on Sod'om and Go·mor'rah—it came from Jehovah, from the heavens.[a] 25 So he overthrew these cities, yes, the entire district, including all the inhabitants of the cities and the plants of the ground.[b] 26 But Lot's wife, who was behind him, began to look back, and she became a pillar of salt.[c]

27 Now Abraham got up early in the morning and went to the place where he had stood before Jehovah.[d] 28 When he looked down toward Sod'om and Gomor'rah and all the land of the district, he saw quite a sight. There was dense smoke rising from the land like the dense smoke of a kiln![e] 29 So when God destroyed the cities of the district, God kept Abraham in mind by sending Lot out from the cities he overthrew, the cities where Lot had been dwelling.[f]

30 Later Lot went up from Zo'ar with his two daughters and began living in the mountainous region,[g] because he was afraid to live in Zo'ar.[h] So he began living in a cave with his two daughters. 31 And the firstborn said to the younger: "Our father is old, and there is not a man in the land to have relations with us according to the custom of the whole earth. 32 Come, let us give our father wine to drink, and let us lie down with him and preserve offspring from our father."

33 So that night they kept giving their father wine to drink; then the firstborn went in and lay down with her father, but he did not know when she lay down and when she got up. 34 Then on the next day, the firstborn said to the younger: "Here I lay down with my father last night. Let us give him wine to drink tonight also. Then you go in and lie down with him, and let us preserve offspring from our father." 35 So that night also, they repeatedly gave their father wine to drink; then the younger went and lay down with him, but he did not know when she lay down and when she got up. 36 So both daughters of Lot became pregnant by their father. 37 The firstborn gave birth to a son and named him Mo′ab.[a] He is the father of the Mo′ab·ites of today.[b] 38 The younger also gave birth to a son, and she named him Ben-am′mi. He is the father of the Am′mon·ites[c] of today.

20 Now Abraham moved his camp from there[d] to the land of the Neg′eb and began dwelling between Ka′desh[e] and Shur.[f] While he was residing* at Ge′rar,[g] 2 Abraham repeated concerning his wife Sarah: "She is my sister."[h] So A·bim′e·lech king of Ge′rar sent for Sarah and took her.[i] 3 Afterward, God came by night to A·bim′e·lech in a dream and said to him: "Here you are as good as dead because of the woman whom you have taken,[j] since she is married and belongs to another man."[k] 4 However, A·bim′e·lech had not gone near her.* So he said: "Jehovah, will you kill a nation that is really innocent?# 5 Did he not say to me, 'She is my sister,' and did she too not say, 'He is my brother'? I did this with an honest heart and innocent hands." 6 Then the true God said to him in the dream: "I know that you did this with an honest heart, so I held you back from sinning against me. That is why I did not allow you to touch her. 7 Now return the man's wife, for he is a prophet,[l] and he will make supplication for you[m] and you will keep living. But if you are not returning her, know that you will surely die, you and all who are yours."

8 A·bim′e·lech got up early in the morning and called all his servants and told them all these things, and they became very frightened. 9 Then A·bim′e·lech called Abraham and said to him: "What have you done to us? What sin have I committed against you that you would bring upon me and my kingdom such a great sin? What you have done to me was not right." 10 And A·bim′e·lech went on to say to Abraham: "What were your intentions when you did this thing?"[a] 11 Abraham said: "It was because I said to myself, 'Surely there is no fear of God in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife.'[b] 12 And besides, she really is my sister, the daughter of my father but not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wife.[c] 13 So when God caused me to wander from the house of my father,[d] I said to her: 'Let this be how you show loyal love to me: Everywhere we go, say of me, "He is my brother."'"[e]

14 A·bim′e·lech then took sheep and cattle and male and female servants and gave them to Abraham, and he returned his wife Sarah to him. 15 A·bim′e·lech also said: "Here my land is available to you. Dwell wherever you please." 16 And to Sarah he said: "Here I give 1,000 pieces of silver to your brother.[f] It is a sign of your innocence* to all who are with you and before everybody, and you are cleared of reproach." 17 And Abraham began to make supplication to the true God, and God healed A·bim′e·lech and his wife and his slave girls, and they began having children; 18 for Jehovah had made all the women of the house of A·bim′e·lech barren* because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.[a]

21 Jehovah turned his attention to Sarah just as he had said, and Jehovah did for Sarah what he had promised.[b] 2 So Sarah became pregnant[c] and then bore a son to Abraham in his old age at the appointed time God had promised him.[d] 3 Abraham named his newborn son, whom Sarah bore to him, Isaac.[e] 4 And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, just as God had commanded him.[f] 5 Abraham was 100 years old when his son Isaac was born to him. 6 Then Sarah said: "God has brought me laughter; everybody hearing of it will laugh with me."* 7 And she added: "Who would have said to Abraham, 'Sarah will certainly nurse children'? Yet, I have given birth to a son for him in his old age."

8 Now the child grew and was weaned, and Abraham prepared a big feast on the day that Isaac was weaned. 9 But Sarah kept noticing that the son of Ha′gar[g] the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, was mocking Isaac.[h] 10 So she said to Abraham: "Drive out this slave girl and her son, for the son of this slave girl is not going to be an heir along with my son, with Isaac!"[i] 11 But what she said about his son was very displeasing to Abraham.[j] 12 Then God said to Abraham: "Do not be displeased by what Sarah is saying to you about the boy and about your slave girl. Listen to her,* for what will be called your offspring# will be through Isaac.[k] 13 As for the son of the slave girl,[l] I will also make a nation out of him,[a] because he is your offspring."#

14 So Abraham got up early in the morning and took bread and a skin bottle of water and gave it to Ha′gar. He set these on her shoulder and then sent her away along with the boy.[b] So she departed and wandered about in the wilderness of Be′er-she′ba.[c] 15 Finally the water in the skin bottle was used up, and she pushed the boy under one of the bushes. 16 Then she went on and sat down by herself, about the distance of a bowshot away, because she said: "I do not want to watch the boy die." So she sat down at a distance and began to cry aloud and to weep.

17 At that God heard the voice of the boy,[d] and God's angel called to Ha′gar from the heavens and said to her:[e] "What is the matter with you, Ha′gar? Do not be afraid, for God has heard the voice of the boy there where he is. 18 Get up, lift the boy and take hold of him with your hand, for I will make him a great nation."[f] 19 Then God opened her eyes and she saw a well of water, and she went and filled the skin bottle with water and gave the boy a drink. 20 And God was with the boy[g] as he grew up. He lived in the wilderness and became an archer. 21 He took up dwelling in the wilderness of Pa′ran,[h] and his mother took a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

22 At that time A·bim′e·lech together with Phi′col the chief of his army said to Abraham: "God is with you in everything you are doing.[i] 23 So now swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me and with my offspring and with my descendants, and that you will deal with me and with the land where you have been residing with the same loyal love that I have shown you."[a] 24 So Abraham said: "I swear to this."

25 However, Abraham complained to A·bim′e·lech about the well of water that the servants of A·bim′e·lech had violently seized.[b] 26 A·bim′e·lech replied: "I do not know who did this; you did not tell me about it, and I heard nothing about it until today." 27 At that Abraham took sheep and cattle and gave them to A·bim′e·lech, and the two of them made a covenant. 28 When Abraham set seven female lambs apart from the flock by themselves, 29 A·bim′e·lech said to Abraham: "Why have you set these seven female lambs here by themselves?" 30 Then he said: "You are to accept the seven female lambs from my hand as a witness that I dug this well." 31 That is why he called that place Be′er-she′ba,[c] because there both of them had taken an oath. 32 So they made a covenant[d] at Be′er-she′ba, after which A·bim′e·lech got up together with Phi′col the chief of his army, and they returned to the land of the Phi·lis′tines.[e] 33 After that he planted a tamarisk tree at Be′er-she′ba, and there he called on the name of Jehovah,[f] the everlasting God.[g] 34 And Abraham stayed in the land of the Phi·lis′tines for a long time.#[h]

22 Now after this the true God put Abraham to the test,[i] and he said to him: "Abraham!" to which he replied: "Here I am!" 2 Then he said: "Take, please, your son, your only son whom you so love,[j] Isaac,[k] and travel to the land of Mo·ri′ah[l] and offer him up there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I will designate to you."

3 So Abraham got up early in the morning and saddled his donkey and took two of his servants along with him and his son Isaac. He split the wood for the burnt offering, and then he rose and traveled to the place that the true God indicated to him. 4 On the third day, Abraham looked up and saw the place from a distance. 5 Abraham now said to his servants: "You stay here with the donkey, but the boy and I will go over there and worship and return to you."

6 So Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and put it on his son Isaac. Then he took in his hands the fire and the knife,* and the two of them walked on together. 7 Then Isaac said to his father Abraham: "My father!" He replied: "Yes, my son!" So he continued: "Here are the fire and the wood, but where is the sheep for the burnt offering?" 8 To this Abraham said: "God himself will provide the sheep for the burnt offering,[a] my son." And both of them walked on together.

9 Finally they reached the place that the true God had indicated to him, and Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. He bound his son Isaac hand and foot and put him on the altar on top of the wood.[b] 10 Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife* to kill his son.[c] 11 But Jehovah's angel called to him from the heavens and said: "Abraham, Abraham!" to which he answered: "Here I am!" 12 Then he said: "Do not harm the boy, and do not do anything at all to him, for now I do know that you are God-fearing because you have not withheld your son, your only one, from me."[a] 13 At that Abraham looked up, and there just beyond him was a ram caught by its horns in a thicket. So Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt offering in place of his son. 14 And Abraham named that place Je·ho′vah-ji′reh.* This is why it is still said today: "In the mountain of Jehovah it will be provided."[b]

15 And Jehovah's angel called to Abraham a second time from the heavens, 16 saying: "'By myself I swear,' declares Jehovah,[c] 'that because you have done this and you have not withheld your son, your only one,[d] 17 I will surely bless you and I will surely multiply your offspring* like the stars of the heavens and like the grains of sand on the seashore,[e] and your offspring* will take possession of the gate# of his enemies.[f] 18 And by means of your offspring*[g] all nations of the earth will obtain a blessing for themselves because you have listened to my voice.'"[h]

19 After that Abraham returned to his servants, and they got up and went back together to Be′er-she′ba;[i] and Abraham continued to dwell at Be′er-she′ba.

20 After this it was reported to Abraham: "Here Mil′cah has also borne sons to Na′hor your brother:[j] 21 Uz his firstborn, Buz his brother, Kem·u′el the father of A′ram, 22 Che′sed, Ha′zo, Pil′dash, Jid′laph, and Bethu′el."[k] 23 Be·thu′el became the father of Re·bek′ah.[l] Mil′cah bore these eight to Na′hor the brother of Abraham. 24 His concubine, whose name was Reu′mah, also bore sons: Te′bah, Ga′ham, Ta′hash, and Ma′a·cah.

23 And Sarah lived for 127 years; these were the years of Sarah's life.[a] 2 So Sarah died in Kir′i-ath-ar′ba,[b] that is, Heb′ron,[c] in the land of Ca′naan,[d] and Abraham began to mourn and to weep over Sarah. 3 Then Abraham got up from before his dead wife and he said to the sons of Heth:[e] 4 "I am a foreigner and settler among you.[f] Give me a property to serve as a burial place in your midst so that I may remove my dead for burial." 5 At this the sons of Heth answered Abraham: 6 "Hear us, my lord. You are a chieftain of God* among us.[g] You may bury your dead in the choicest of our burial places. None of us will hold back his burial place from you to prevent you from burying your dead."

7 So Abraham got up and bowed down to the people of the land, to the sons of Heth,[h] 8 and said to them: "If you* agree to let me remove my dead for burial, then listen to me and urge E′phron the son of Zo′har 9 to sell me the cave of Machpe′lah, which belongs to him; it is at the edge of his field. Let him sell it to me in your presence for the full amount of silver[i] so that I may have a property for a burial place."[j]

10 Now E′phron was sitting among the sons of Heth. So E′phron the Hit′tite answered Abraham in the hearing of the sons of Heth, and before all who entered the gate of his city,[k] saying: 11 "No, my lord! Listen to me. I give you both the field and the cave that is in it. In the presence of the sons of my people, I give it to you. Bury your dead." 12 At that Abraham bowed down before the people of the land 13 and spoke to

E′phron in the hearing of the people, saying: “Listen to me, if you will! I will give you the full amount of silver for the field. Take it from me, in order that I may bury my dead there.”

14 Then E′phron answered Abraham: 15 “My lord, listen to me. This land is worth 400 silver shekels,* but what is that between me and you? So bury your dead.” 16 Abraham listened to E′phron, and Abraham weighed out to E′phron the amount of silver that he had mentioned in the hearing of the sons of Heth, 400 silver shekels* according to the weight accepted by the merchants.[a] 17 Thus the field of E′phron in Mach·pe′lah, which was in front of Mam′re—the field and the cave in it and all the trees within the boundaries of the field—became confirmed as 18 Abraham’s purchased property in the presence of the sons of Heth, before all those entering the gate of his city. 19 After that Abraham buried his wife Sarah in the cave of the field of Mach·pe′lah in front of Mam′re, that is, Heb′ron, in the land of Ca′naan. 20 Thus the field and the cave that was in it were transferred by the sons of Heth to Abraham as property for a burial place.[b]

24 Abraham was now old, advanced in years, and Jehovah had blessed Abraham in everything.[c] 2 Abraham said to his servant, the oldest one of his household, who was managing all he had:[d] “Please put your hand under my thigh, 3 and I will make you swear by Jehovah, the God of the heavens and the God of the earth, that you will not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Ca′naanites, among whom I am dwelling.[a] 4 You must go instead to my country and to my relatives[b] and take a wife for my son, for Isaac.”

5 However, the servant said to him: “What if the woman is not willing to come with me to this land? Must I then return your son to the land from which you came?”[c] 6 At this Abraham said to him: “See that you do not take my son there.[d] 7 Jehovah the God of the heavens, who took me from my father’s house and from the land of my relatives[e] and who spoke with me and swore to me:[f] ‘To your offspring*[g] I am going to give this land,’[h] he will send his angel ahead of you,[i] and you will certainly take a wife for my son from there.[j] 8 But if the woman is unwilling to come with you, you will be free from this oath. But you must not take my son there.” 9 With that the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master and swore to him concerning this matter.[k]

10 So the servant took ten of his master’s camels and departed, taking along all sorts of good things from his master. Then he went on his way to Mes·o·po·ta′mi·a, to the city of Na′hor. 11 He had the camels kneel down at a well of water outside the city. It was about evening, the time when the women would go out to draw water. 12 Then he said: “Jehovah the God of my master Abraham, please grant me success this day, and show your loyal love to my master Abraham. 13 Here I am standing at a spring of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water. 14 May it happen that the young woman to whom I say, ‘Please let down your water jar so that I may take a drink,’ and who replies, 'Take a drink, and I will also water your camels,' let this be the one you choose for your servant Isaac; and by this let me know that you have shown your loyal love to my master."

15 Even before he finished speaking, Re·bek′ah, who was the daughter of Be·thu′el[a] the son of Mil′cah[b] the wife of Na′hor,[c] Abraham's brother, came out with her water jar on her shoulder. 16 Now the young woman was very beautiful, a virgin; no man had had sexual relations with her. She went down to the spring, filled her water jar, and then came back up. 17 At once the servant ran to meet her and said: "Please give me a little sip of water from your jar." 18 In turn she said: "Drink, my lord." With that she quickly lowered her jar upon her hand and gave him a drink. 19 When she finished giving him a drink, she said: "I will also draw water for your camels until they are done drinking." 20 So she quickly emptied her jar into the drinking trough and ran again and again to the well to draw water, and she kept drawing water for all his camels. 21 The whole time the man silently stared at her in amazement, wondering whether Jehovah had made his trip successful or not.

22 When the camels had finished drinking, the man took out for her a gold nose ring weighing a half shekel* and two bracelets of gold weighing ten shekels,* 23 and he said: "Please tell me, whose daughter are you? Is there any room at your father's house for us to spend the night?" 24 At that she said to him: "I am the daughter of Be·thu′el[d] the son of Mil′cah, whom she bore to Na′hor."[e] 25 And she added: "We have both straw and much fodder and also a place to spend the night." 26 Then the man bowed down and prostrated himself before Jehovah 27 and said: "May Jehovah be praised, the God of my master Abraham, for he has not abandoned his loyal love and his faithfulness toward my master. Jehovah has guided me to the house of the brothers of my master."

28 And the young woman ran to tell her mother's household about these things. 29 Now Re·bek′ah had a brother whose name was La′ban.[a] So La′ban ran to the man who was outside at the spring. 30 When he saw the nose ring and the bracelets on the hands of his sister and heard the words of his sister Re·bek′ah, who was saying, "This is the way the man spoke to me," he came to meet the man, who was still there standing by the camels at the spring. 31 At once he said: "Come, you who are blessed by Jehovah. Why do you keep standing out here? I have made the house ready and a place for the camels." 32 With that the man came into the house, and he* unharnessed the camels and gave straw and fodder to the camels and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him. 33 However, when something to eat was set before him, he said: "I will not eat until I have told you what I have to say." So La′ban said: "Speak!"

34 Then he said: "I am Abraham's servant.[b] 35 And Jehovah has blessed my master very much, and he has made him very wealthy by giving him sheep and cattle, silver and gold, male and female servants, and camels and donkeys.[c] 36 Further, Sarah the wife of my master bore a son to my master after she grew old,[d] and he will give him everything he has.[a] 37 So my master made me swear, saying: 'You must not take a wife for my son from the daughters of the Ca'naan·ites, in whose land I am dwelling.[b] 38 No, but you will go to the house of my father and to my family,[c] and you must take a wife for my son.'[d] 39 But I said to my master: 'What if the woman is unwilling to come with me?'[e] 40 He said to me: 'Jehovah, before whom I have walked,[f] will send his angel[g] with you and will certainly give success to your journey, and you must take a wife for my son from my family and from the house of my father.[h] 41 You will be released from your oath to me if you go to my family and they will not give her to you. This will release you from your oath.'[i]

42 "When I got to the spring today, I said: 'Jehovah the God of my master Abraham, if you will make my journey successful, 43 here I am standing at a spring. What must take place is that when a young woman[j] comes out to draw water, I will say, "Please, let me drink a little water from your jar," 44 and she will say to me, "You take a drink, and I will also draw water for your camels." Let that woman be the one whom Jehovah has chosen for the son of my master.'[k]

45 "Before I was finished speaking in my heart, there was Re·bek'ah coming out with her jar on her shoulder, and she made her way down to the spring and began to draw water. Then I said to her: 'Give me a drink, please.'[l] 46 So she quickly lowered her jar from her shoulder and said: 'Take a drink,[m] and I will also water your camels.' Then I took a drink, and she also watered the camels. 47 After that I asked her, 'Whose daughter are you?' to which she replied, 'The daughter of Be·thu'el the son of Na'hor, whom Mil'cah bore to him.' So I put the ring on her nose and the bracelets on her hands.[a] 48 And I bowed down and prostrated myself before Jehovah and praised Jehovah the God of my master Abraham,[b] who had led me on the right path to take the daughter of the brother of my master for his son. 49 And now tell me if you wish to show loyal love and faithfulness toward my master; but if not, tell me, so that I may proceed one way or the other."*[c]

50 Then La'ban and Be·thu'el answered: "This is from Jehovah. We are not able to say yes or no to you.* 51 Here is Rebek'ah before you. Take her and go, and let her become a wife to the son of your master, just as Jehovah has spoken." 52 When Abraham's servant heard their words, he at once bowed down on the ground before Jehovah. 53 And the servant began to bring out articles of silver and of gold and garments and to give them to Re·bek'ah, and he gave valuable things to her brother and to her mother. 54 After that he and the men with him ate and drank, and they spent the night there.

When he got up in the morning, he said: "Send me off to my master." 55 To this her brother and her mother said: "Let the young woman stay with us at least ten days. Then she can go." 56 But he said to them: "Do not detain me, seeing that Jehovah has made my journey successful. Send me off, in order that I may go to my master." 57 So they said: "Let us call the young woman and inquire of her." 58 They called Re·bek'ah and said to her:

"Will you go with this man?" She replied: "I am willing to go."

59 So they sent off their sister Re·bek′ah[a] and her nurse*[b] and Abraham's servant and his men. 60 And they blessed Rebek′ah and said to her: "Our sister, may you become thousands times ten thousand,* and let your offspring# take possession of the gate^ of those who hate them."[c] 61 Then Re·bek′ah and her female attendants rose, got on the camels, and followed the man. So the servant took Rebek′ah and went on his way.

62 Now Isaac had come from the direction of Be′er-la′hai-roi,[d] for he was dwelling in the land of the Neg′eb.[e] 63 And Isaac was out walking in the field about nightfall to meditate.[f] When he looked up, why, he saw that camels were coming! 64 When Re·bek′ah looked up, she caught sight of Isaac, and she quickly got down from the camel. 65 Then she asked the servant: "Who is that man there walking in the field to meet us?" And the servant said: "It is my master." So she took her veil to cover herself. 66 And the servant told Isaac all the things he had done. 67 After that Isaac brought her into the tent of Sarah his mother.[g] Thus he took Re·bek′ah as his wife; and he fell in love with her,[h] and Isaac found comfort after the loss of his mother.[i]

25 Now Abraham again took a wife, and her name was Ke·tu′rah. 2 In time she bore him Zim′ran, Jok′shan, Me′dan, Mid′i·an,[j] Ish′bak, and Shu′ah.[k]

3 Jok′shan became father to She′ba and De′dan.

The sons of De′dan were As·shu′rim, Le·tu′shim, and Leum′mim.

4 The sons of Mid′i·an were E′phah, E′pher, Ha′noch, A·bi′da, and El·da′ah.

All of these were the sons of Ketu′rah.

5 Later on Abraham gave everything he had to Isaac,[a] 6 but Abraham gave gifts to his sons by his concubines. Then while he was still alive, he sent them eastward, away from Isaac his son,[b] to the land of the East. 7 The years of Abraham's life were 175 years. 8 Then Abraham breathed his last and died at a good old age, old and satisfied, and was gathered to his people.* 9 His sons Isaac and Ish′ma·el buried him in the cave of Mach·pe′lah in the field of E′phron the son of Zo′har the Hit′tite that is in front of Mam′re,[c] 10 the field that Abraham had purchased from the sons of Heth. There Abraham was buried, with his wife Sarah.[d] 11 After Abraham's death, God continued to bless his son Isaac,[e] and Isaac was dwelling near Be′er-la′hai-roi.[f]

12 This is the history of Ish′ma·el[g] the son of Abraham whom Ha′gar[h] the Egyptian, the servant of Sarah, bore to Abraham.

13 Now these are the names of the sons of Ish′ma·el, by their names according to their family origins: Ish′ma·el's firstborn Neba′ioth,[i] then Ke′dar,[j] Ad′be·el, Mib′sam,[k] 14 Mish′ma, Du′mah, Mas′sa, 15 Ha′dad, Te′ma, Je′tur, Na′phish, and Ked′e·mah. 16 These are the sons of Ish′ma·el, and these are their names by their settlements and by their encampments,* 12 chieftains according to their clans.[l] 17 And Ish′ma·el lived for 137 years.

Then he breathed his last and died and was gathered to his people.* 18 And they took up dwelling from Hav′i·lah[a] near Shur,[b] which is close to Egypt, as far as As·syr′i·a. He settled near all his brothers.*[c]

19 And this is the history of Isaac the son of Abraham.[d]

Abraham became father to Isaac. 20 Isaac was 40 years old when he married Re·bek′ah, the daughter of Be·thu′el[e] the A·ra·mae′an of Pad′dan-a′ram, the sister of La′ban the A·ra·mae′an. 21 And Isaac kept pleading with Jehovah regarding his wife, because she was barren; so Jehovah responded to his plea, and his wife Re·bek′ah became pregnant. 22 And the sons within her began to struggle with each other,[f] so that she said: "If this is the way it is, why should I go on living?" So she inquired of Jehovah. 23 And Jehovah said to her: "Two nations are in your womb,[g] and two peoples will be separated from within you;[h] and the one nation will be stronger than the other nation,[i] and the older will serve the younger."[j]

24 When the time came for her to give birth, look! twins were in her womb. 25 Then the first came out red all over and was like a garment of hair,[k] so they named him E′sau.[l] 26 After that his brother came out and his hand was holding onto the heel of E′sau,[m] so he named him Jacob.[n] Isaac was 60 years old when she gave birth to them.

27 As the boys got bigger, E′sau became a skilled hunter,[o] a man of the field, but Jacob was a blameless man, dwelling in tents.[a] 28 And Isaac loved E′sau because it meant game in his mouth, whereas Re·bek′ah loved Jacob.[b] 29 On one occasion Jacob was boiling some stew when E′sau returned from the field exhausted. 30 So E′sau said to Jacob: "Quick, please, give me some* of the red stew that you have there,# for I am exhausted!"△ That is why his name was E′dom.☒[c] 31 To this Jacob said: "First sell me your right as firstborn!"[d] 32 And E′sau continued: "Here I am about to die! What use is a birthright to me?" 33 And Jacob added: "Swear to me first!" So he swore to him and sold his right as firstborn to Jacob.[e] 34 Then Jacob gave E′sau bread and lentil stew, and he ate and drank, and he got up and went away. Thus E′sau despised the birthright.

26 Now there was a famine in the land, in addition to the first famine that occurred in the days of Abraham,[f] so that Isaac went to A·bim′e·lech king of the Phi·lis′tines, in Ge′rar. 2 Then Jehovah appeared to him and said: "Do not go down to Egypt. Dwell in the land that I designate to you. 3 Reside as a foreigner in this land,[g] and I will continue with you and bless you because to you and to your offspring* I will give all these lands,[h] and I will carry out the oath that I swore to your father Abraham:[i] 4 'I will multiply your offspring* like the stars of the heavens;[j] and I will give to your offspring* all these lands;[k] and by means of your offspring,* all nations of the earth will obtain a blessing for themselves,'[l] 5 on account of the fact that Abraham listened to my voice and continued to keep my requirements, my commands, my statutes, and my laws."[a] 6 So Isaac continued to dwell in Ge'rar.[b]

7 When the men of the place kept asking about his wife, he would say: "She is my sister."[c] He was afraid to say, "She is my wife," for he said, "The men of the place might kill me because of Re·bek'ah," for she was beautiful in appearance.[d] 8 After some time had passed, A·bim'e·lech king of the Phi·lis'tines was looking out of the window, and he saw Isaac displaying affection for* Re·bek'ah his wife.[e] 9 At once A·bim'e·lech called Isaac and said: "She is actually your wife! Why did you say, 'She is my sister'?" At this Isaac said to him: "I said it for fear I should die because of her."[f] 10 But A·bim'e·lech continued: "What have you done to us?[g] One of the people could easily have lain down with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us!"[h] 11 Then A·bim'e·lech commanded all the people, saying: "Anybody touching this man and his wife will surely be put to death!"

12 And Isaac began to sow seed in that land, and in that year he reaped 100 times what he sowed, for Jehovah was blessing him.[i] 13 The man became wealthy, and he continued to prosper until he became very wealthy. 14 He acquired flocks of sheep and herds of cattle and a large body of servants,[j] and the Phi·lis'tines began to envy him.

15 So the Phi·lis'tines took soil and stopped up all the wells that his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham.[k] 16 A·bim'e·lech then said to Isaac: "Move from our neighborhood, for you have grown far stronger than we are." 17 So Isaac moved from there and encamped in the valley* of Ge'rar[a] and began dwelling there. 18 And Isaac again dug the wells that had been dug in the days of his father Abraham but that the Phi·lis'tines had stopped up after Abraham's death,[b] and he called them by the names that his father had given them.[c]

19 When the servants of Isaac were digging in the valley,* they found a well of fresh water. 20 And the shepherds of Ge'rar began quarreling with the shepherds of Isaac, saying: "The water is ours!" So he named the well E'sek,* because they had quarreled with him. 21 And they started digging another well, and they began quarreling over it also. So he named it Sit'nah.* 22 Later he moved away from there and dug another well, but they did not quarrel over it. So he named it Re·ho'both* and said: "It is because now Jehovah has given us ample room and has made us fruitful in the land."[d]

23 Then he went up from there to Be'er-she'ba.[e] 24 That night Jehovah appeared to him and said: "I am the God of your father Abraham.[f] Do not be afraid,[g] for I am with you, and I will bless you and multiply your offspring* on account of Abraham my servant."[h] 25 So he built an altar there and called on the name of Jehovah.[i] And Isaac pitched his tent there,[j] and his servants dug a well there.

26 Later A·bim'e·lech came to him from Ge'rar with A·huz'zath his personal adviser and Phi'col the chief of his army.[k] 27 At this Isaac said to them: "Why have you come to me, seeing that you hated me and sent me away from your neighborhood?" 28 To this they said: "We have clearly seen that Jehovah has been with you.[a] So we said, 'Let there, please, be an oath of obligation between us and you, and let us make a covenant with you[b] 29 that you will do nothing bad to us just as we have not harmed you, seeing that we have done only good to you in that we sent you away in peace. You now are the blessed of Jehovah.'" 30 Then he made a feast for them, and they ate and drank. 31 In the morning they got up early and swore an oath to each other.[c] After that Isaac sent them away, and they went from him in peace.

32 On that day the servants of Isaac came and reported to him about the well that they had dug,[d] and they told him: "We have found water!" 33 So he named it Shi'bah. That is why the name of the city is Be'er-she'ba[e] to this day.

34 When E'sau was 40 years old, he took as wife Ju'dith the daughter of Be·e'ri the Hit'tite and also Bas'e·math the daughter of E'lon the Hit'tite.[f] 35 They were a source of great grief* to Isaac and Re·bek'ah.[g]

27 Now when Isaac was old and his eyes were too weak to see, he called E'sau[h] his older son to him and said: "My son!" He replied: "Here I am!" 2 And he went on to say: "I have now grown old. I do not know the day of my death. 3 So at this time take, please, your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field and hunt some wild game for me.[i] 4 Then make the kind of tasty dish that I am fond of and bring it to me. 5 However, Re·bek'ah was listening while Isaac spoke to E'sau his son. And E'sau went out into the field to hunt game and to bring it in.[a] 6 And Re·bek'ah said to Jacob her son:[b] "I just heard your father speaking to your brother E'sau, saying, 7 'Bring me some game and make me a tasty dish. Then let me eat so that I may bless you before Jehovah before my death.'[c] 8 And now, my son, listen carefully and do what I am instructing you.[d] 9 Go, please, to the herd and get me two of the best young goats from there so that I may prepare from them a tasty dish for your father, just the way he likes it. 10 Then take it to your father to eat, in order that he may bless you before his death."

11 Jacob said to his mother Re·bek'ah: "But E'sau my brother is a hairy man,[e] and my skin is smooth. 12 What if my father feels me?[f] Then I will certainly appear to be mocking him, and I will bring upon myself a curse rather than a blessing." 13 At this his mother said to him: "Upon me be the curse meant for you, my son. Just do as I say and go, get them for me."[g] 14 So he went and got them and brought them to his mother, and his mother made a tasty dish, just the way his father liked it. 15 After that Re·bek'ah took her older son E'sau's finest garments, which she had in the house, and put them on her younger son Jacob.[h] 16 She also put the skins of the young goats on his hands and on the hairless part of his neck.[i] 17 Then she handed the tasty dish and the bread that she had made to her son Jacob.[j]

18 So he went in to his father and said: "My father!" to which he said: "Here I am! Who are you, my son?" 19 Jacob said to his father: "I am E'sau your firstborn.[a] I have done just as you told me. Sit up, please, and eat some of my game, so that you* may bless me."[b] 20 At that Isaac said to his son: "How were you so quick in finding it, my son?" He replied: "Because Jehovah your God brought it to me." 21 Then Isaac said to Jacob: "Come near, please, that I may feel you, my son, to know whether you are really my son E'sau or not."[c] 22 So Jacob came near to his father Isaac, and he felt him, after which he said: "The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of E'sau."[d] 23 He did not recognize him because his hands were hairy like the hands of his brother E'sau. So he blessed him.[e]

24 After that he asked: "Are you really my son E'sau?" to which he replied: "I am." 25 Then he said: "Bring me some of the wild game for me to eat, my son, then I* will bless you." With that he brought it to him and he ate, and he brought him wine and he drank. 26 Then Isaac his father said to him: "Come near, please, and kiss me, my son."[f] 27 So he came near and kissed him, and he could smell the scent of his garments.[g] Then he blessed him and said:

"See, the scent of my son is like the scent of the field that Jehovah has blessed. 28 May the true God give you the dews of the heavens[h] and the fertile soils of the earth[i] and an abundance of grain and new wine.[j] 29 Let peoples serve you, and let nations bow low to you. Be master over your brothers, and let the sons of your mother bow low to you.[k] Cursed be everyone who curses you, and blessed be everyone who blesses you."[a]

30 Now Isaac had just finished blessing Jacob, and Jacob had barely left the presence of his father Isaac when his brother E'sau came back from his hunting.[b] 31 He too prepared a tasty dish and brought it to his father, and he said to his father: "Let my father get up and eat some of his son's game, in order that you* may bless me." 32 At this his father Isaac said to him: "Who are you?" to which he said: "I am your son, your firstborn, E'sau."[c] 33 And Isaac began to tremble violently, so he said: "Who was it, then, who hunted for game and brought it to me? I already ate it before you arrived, and I blessed him—and he will surely be blessed!"

34 On hearing his father's words, E'sau began to cry out in an extremely loud and bitter manner and to say to his father: "Bless me, yes, me too, my father!"[d] 35 But he said: "Your brother came deceitfully so that he might get the blessing meant for you." 36 At this he said: "Is he not rightly named Jacob,* that he might supplant me these two times?[e] My birthright he has already taken,[f] and now he has taken my blessing!"[g] Then he added: "Have you not reserved a blessing for me?" 37 But Isaac answered E'sau: "Here I have appointed him master over you,[h] and I have given him all his brothers as servants, and I have bestowed grain and new wine for his support.[i] What is left that I can do for you, my son?"

38 E'sau said to his father: "Is there just one blessing that you have, my father? Bless me, yes, me too, my father!" With that

E′sau cried loudly and burst into tears.[a] 39 So his father Isaac answered him:

"See, away from the fertile soils of the earth your dwelling will be, and away from the dew of the heavens above.[b] 40 And by your sword you will live,[c] and you will serve your brother.[d] But when you grow restless, you will indeed break his yoke off your neck."[e]

41 However, E′sau harbored animosity against Jacob because of the blessing his father had given him,[f] and E′sau kept saying in his heart: "The days of mourning for my father are getting closer.[g] After that I am going to kill Jacob my brother." 42 When the words of her older son E′sau were told to Re·bek′ah, she at once sent for her younger son Jacob and said to him: "Look! Your brother E′sau is planning to take revenge by killing you.* 43 Now, my son, do as I say. Get up and run away to my brother La′ban at Ha′ran.[h] 44 Dwell with him for a while until your brother's rage calms down, 45 until your brother's anger toward you subsides and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send for you from there. Why should I lose both of you in one day?"

46 After that Re·bek′ah kept saying to Isaac: "I am disgusted with my life because of the daughters of Heth.[i] If Jacob ever takes a wife from the daughters of Heth, like these daughters of the land, what good is my life?"[j]

28 So Isaac called Jacob and blessed him and commanded him, saying: "You must not take a wife from the daughters of Ca′naan.[k] 2 Go away to Pad′dan-a′ram to the house of Be·thu′el, your mother's father, and from there take for yourself a wife from the daughters of La′ban,[a] your mother's brother. 3 God Almighty will bless you and make you fruitful and multiply you, and you will certainly become a congregation of peoples.[b] 4 And he will give to you the blessing of Abraham,[c] to you and to your offspring* with you, so that you may take possession of the land where you have been living as a foreigner, which God has given to Abraham."[d]

5 So Isaac sent Jacob away, and he departed for Pad′dan-a′ram, to La′ban the son of Be·thu′el the A·ra·mae′an,[e] the brother of Re·bek′ah,[f] the mother of Jacob and E′sau.

6 E′sau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him away to Pad′dan-a′ram to take a wife from there and that when he blessed him, he commanded him, "Do not take a wife from the daughters of Ca′naan,"[g] 7 and that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother and departed for Pad′dan-a′ram.[h] 8 E′sau then realized that the daughters of Ca′naan were displeasing to his father Isaac,[i] 9 so E′sau went to Ish′ma·el and took as wife Ma′ha·lath the daughter of Abraham's son Ish′ma·el, the sister of Ne·ba′ioth, in addition to the other wives he already had.[j]

10 Jacob departed from Be′er-she′ba and kept going toward Ha′ran.[k] 11 In time he came to a place and prepared to spend the night there because the sun had set. So he took one of the stones of that place and set it to rest his head on and lay down there.[l] 12 Then he had a dream, and look! there was a stairway* set on the earth, and its top reached up to the heavens; and there were God's angels ascending and descending on it.[a] 13 And look! there was Jehovah stationed above it, and he said:

"I am Jehovah the God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac.[b] The land on which you are lying, to you I am going to give it and to your offspring.[c] 14 And your offspring will certainly become like the dust particles of the earth,[d] and you will spread abroad to the west and to the east and to the north and to the south, and by means of you and by means of your offspring* all the families of the ground will certainly be blessed.#[e] 15 I am with you, and I will safeguard you wherever you go, and I will return you to this land.[f] I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you."[g]

16 Then Jacob awoke from his sleep and said: "Truly Jehovah is in this place, and I did not know it." 17 And he grew fearful and added: "How awe-inspiring this place is! 20 Jacob then made a vow, saying: "If God will continue with me and will protect me on my journey and will give me bread to eat and garments to wear 21 and I return in peace to the house of my father, then Jehovah will certainly have proved to be my God. 22 And this stone that I have set up as a pillar will become a house of God,[l] and without fail I will give you a tenth of everything you give to me."

29 After that Jacob resumed his journey and traveled on to the land of the people of the East. 2 Now he saw a well in the field and three droves of sheep lying down next to it, because they usually watered the droves from that well. There was a large stone over the mouth of the well. 3 When all the droves had been gathered there, they rolled away the stone from the mouth of the well, and they watered the flocks, after which they returned the stone to its place over the mouth of the well.

4 So Jacob said to them: "My brothers, what place are you from?" to which they said: "We are from Ha'ran."[a] 5 He said to them: "Do you know La'ban[b] the grandson of Na'hor?"[c] to which they said: "We know him." 6 At this he said to them: "Is he well?" They replied: "He is well. And here is his daughter Rachel[d] coming with the sheep!" 7 Then he said: "It is still the middle of the day. It is not the time for gathering the herds. Water the sheep, and then go feed them." 8 To this they said: "We are not allowed to do so until all the droves are gathered and they roll the stone away from the mouth of the well. Then we water the sheep."

9 While he was yet speaking with them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she was a shepherdess. 10 When Jacob saw Rachel, the daughter of La'ban his mother's brother, and the sheep of La'ban, Jacob immediately approached and rolled the stone away from the mouth of the well and watered the sheep of La'ban his mother's brother. 11 Then Jacob kissed Rachel and raised his voice and burst into tears. 12 And Jacob began to tell Rachel that he was the relative* of her father and that he was the son of Re·bek′ah. And she ran off and told her father.

13 As soon as La′ban[a] heard the report about Jacob the son of his sister, he ran to meet him. He embraced him and kissed him and brought him into his house. And he began to tell La′ban all these things. 14 La′ban said to him: "You are indeed my bone and my flesh."* So he stayed with him a full month.

15 La′ban then said to Jacob: "Just because you are my relative,*[b] should you serve me for nothing? Tell me, what are your wages to be?"[c] 16 Now La′ban had two daughters. The name of the older was Le′ah, and the name of the younger, Rachel.[d] 17 But the eyes of Le′ah had no luster, whereas Rachel had become a very attractive and beautiful woman. 18 Jacob had fallen in love with Rachel, so he said: "I am willing to serve you seven years for your younger daughter Rachel."[e] 19 To this La′ban said: "It is better for me to give her to you than to give her to another man. Keep dwelling with me." 20 And Jacob served seven years for Rachel,[f] but in his eyes they were like just a few days because of his love for her.

21 Then Jacob said to La′ban: "Give over my wife because my days are up, and let me have relations with her." 22 With that La′ban gathered all the men of the place and made a feast. 23 But during the evening, he resorted to taking his daughter Le′ah and bringing her to him that he might have relations with her. 24 La′ban also gave his female servant Zil′pah to his daughter Le′ah as a servant.[a] 25 In the morning Jacob saw that it was Le′ah! So he said to La′ban: "What have you done to me? Was it not for Rachel that I served you? Why have you tricked me?"[b] 26 To this La′ban said: "It is not our custom here to give the younger woman before the firstborn. 27 Celebrate the week of this woman. After that you will also be given this other woman in exchange for serving me seven more years."[c] 28 Jacob did so and celebrated the week of this woman, after which he gave him his daughter Rachel as a wife. 29 Besides, La′ban gave his female servant Bil′hah[d] to his daughter Rachel as her servant.[e]

30 Then Jacob had relations also with Rachel, and he loved Rachel more than Le′ah, and he served him for another seven years.[f] 31 When Jehovah saw that Le′ah was unloved,* he then enabled her to become pregnant,#[g] but Rachel was barren.[h] 32 So Le′ah became pregnant and gave birth to a son and named him Reu′ben,[i] for she said: "It is because Jehovah has looked upon my affliction,[j] for now my husband will begin to love me." 33 And she again became pregnant and gave birth to a son and then said: "It is because Jehovah has listened, in that I was unloved, so he gave me this one also." Then she named him Sim′e·on.[k] 34 And she became pregnant yet again and gave birth to a son and then said: "Now this time my husband will join himself to me, because I have borne him three sons." Therefore, he was named Le′vi.[l] 35 And she became pregnant once more and gave birth to a son and then said: "This time I will praise Jehovah." She therefore named him Judah.[a] After that she stopped giving birth.

30 When Rachel saw that she had borne no children to Jacob, she became jealous of her sister and began to say to Jacob: "Give me children or else I will die." 2 At this Jacob's anger flared up against Rachel, and he said: "Am I in the place of God, who has prevented you from having children?"* 3 So she said: "Here is my slave girl Bil'hah.[b] Have relations with her in order that she may bear children for me* and that through her, I too may have children." 4 With that she gave him her servant Bil'hah as a wife, and Jacob had relations with her.[c] 5 Bil'hah became pregnant and in time bore Jacob a son. 6 Then Rachel said: "God has acted as my judge and has also listened to my voice, so that he gave me a son." That is why she named him Dan.[d] 7 Bil'hah, Rachel's servant, became pregnant once more and in time bore Jacob a second son. 8 Then Rachel said: "With strenuous wrestlings I have wrestled with my sister. I have also come off the winner!" So she named him Naph'ta·li.[e]

9 When Le'ah saw that she had stopped having children, she took her servant Zil'pah and gave her to Jacob as a wife.[f] 10 And Le'ah's servant Zil'pah bore a son to Jacob. 11 Then Le'ah said: "With good fortune!" So she named him Gad.[g] 12 After that Zil'pah, Le'ah's servant, bore a second son to Jacob. 13 Then Le'ah said: "With my happiness! For the daughters will certainly pronounce me happy."[a] So she named him Ash'er.[b]

14 Now Reu'ben[c] was walking in the days of the wheat harvest, and he found mandrakes in the field. So he brought them to his mother Le'ah. Then Rachel said to Le'ah: "Give me, please, some of your son's mandrakes." 15 At this she said to her: "Is it a small matter that you took my husband?[d] Would you now take my son's mandrakes also?" So Rachel said: "Very well. He will lie down with you tonight in exchange for your son's mandrakes."

16 When Jacob was coming from the field in the evening, Le'ah went out to meet him and said: "It is with me you are going to have relations, because I have hired you outright with my son's mandrakes." So he lay down with her that night. 17 And God heard and answered Le'ah, and she became pregnant and in time bore to Jacob a fifth son. 18 Then Le'ah said: "God has given me my wages* because I have given my servant to my husband." So she named him Is'sa·char.[e] 19 And Le'ah became pregnant once more and in time bore a sixth son to Jacob.[f] 20 Then Le'ah said: "God has endowed me, yes, me, with a good endowment. At last, my husband will tolerate me,[g] for I have borne him six sons."[h] So she named him Zeb'u·lun.[i] 21 Afterward she bore a daughter and named her Di'nah.[j] answered her by enabling her to become pregnant.[a] 23 And she became pregnant and gave birth to a son. Then she said: "God has taken away my reproach!"[b] 24 So she named him Joseph,[c] saying: "Jehovah is adding another son to me."

25 After Rachel had given birth to Joseph, Jacob immediately said to La'ban: "Send me away so that I may go to my place and to my land.[d] 26 Give over my wives and my children, for whom I have served with you, that I may go, for you well know how I have served you."[e] 27 Then La'ban said to him: "If I have found favor in your eyes,—I have understood by the omens* that Jehovah is blessing me because of you." 28 And he added: "Stipulate your wages to me, and I will give them."[f] 29 So Jacob said to him: "You know how I have served you and how your herd has fared with me;[g] 30 you had little before my coming, but your herd has increased and multiplied, and Jehovah has blessed you since I arrived. So when will I do something for my own house?"[h]

31 Then he said: "What should I give you?" And Jacob said: "You will give me nothing whatsoever! If you will do this one thing for me, I will resume shepherding your flock and guarding it.[i] 32 I will pass through your whole flock today. You set aside from there every sheep speckled and with color patches and every dark-brown sheep among the young rams and any color-patched and speckled one among the she-goats. From now on, these must become my wages.[a] 33 And my righteousness* must speak for me on a future day when you come to look over my wages; every one that is not speckled and color-patched among the she-goats and dark brown among the young rams will be considered stolen if it is with me."

34 To this La'ban said: "That is fine! Let it be according to your word."[b] 35 Then on that day, he set aside the he-goats striped and color-patched and all the she-goats speckled and color-patched, every one in which there was any white and every one dark brown among the young rams, and gave them into the care of his sons. 36 After that he set a distance of three days' journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob was shepherding the flocks of La'ban that remained over.

37 Jacob then took freshly cut staffs of the storax, almond, and plane trees, and he peeled white spots in them by exposing the white wood of the staffs. 38 Then he placed the staffs that he had peeled in front of the flock, in the gutters, in the drinking troughs, where the flocks would come to drink, that they might get into heat in front of them when they came to drink.

39 So the flocks would get into heat in front of the staffs, and the flocks would produce striped, speckled, and color-patched offspring. 40 Then Jacob separated the young rams and turned the flocks to face the striped ones and all the dark-brown ones among the flocks of La'ban. Then he separated his own flocks and did not mix them with La'ban's flocks. 41 And whenever the robust animals would get into heat, Jacob would place the staffs in the gutters before the eyes of the flocks, that they might get into heat by the staffs. 42 But when the animals were weak, he would not place the staffs there. So the weak ones always came to Laʹban's, but the robust ones became Jacob's.[a]

43 And the man grew very prosperous, and he acquired great flocks and male and female servants and camels and donkeys.[b]

31 In time he heard what the sons of Laʹban were saying: "Jacob has taken everything that belonged to our father, and from what belonged to our father, he has amassed all this wealth."[c] 2 When Jacob would look at the face of Laʹban, he saw that his attitude toward him was not what it used to be.[d] 3 Finally Jehovah said to Jacob: "Return to the land of your fathers and to your relatives,[e] and I will continue with you." 4 Then Jacob sent a message to Rachel and Leʹah to come out to the field to his flock, 5 and he said to them:

"I have seen that your father's attitude toward me has changed,[f] but the God of my father has been with me.[g] 6 You yourselves certainly know that I have served your father with all my power.[h] 7 And your father has tried to cheat me and has changed my wages ten times; but God has not allowed him to do me harm. 8 If on the one hand he would say, 'The speckled ones will be your wages,' then the whole flock produced speckled ones; but if on the other hand he would say, 'The striped ones will be your wages,' then the whole flock produced striped ones.[i] 9 So God kept taking your father's livestock away from him and giving it to me. 10 Once when the flock got into heat, I raised my eyes and saw in a dream that the he-goats mating with the flock were striped, speckled, and spotty.[a] 11 Then the angel of the true God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob!' to which I said, 'Here I am.' 12 And he continued, 'Raise your eyes, please, and see that all the he-goats mating with the flock are striped, speckled, and spotty, for I have seen all that Laʹban is doing to you.[b] 13 I am the true God of Bethʹel,[c] where you anointed a pillar and where you made a vow to me.[d] Now get up, go out of this land, and return to the land of your birth.'"[e]

14 At this Rachel and Leʹah answered him: "Is there any share left for us to inherit in our father's house? 15 Does he not consider us as foreigners, since he has sold us and has been using up the money given for us?[f] 16 All the riches that God has taken away from our father are ours and our children's.[g] So, then, do everything that God has told you to do."[h]

17 Then Jacob got up and lifted his children and his wives on the camels,[i] 18 and he began driving all his herd and all the goods that he had accumulated,[j] the livestock in his possession that he had accumulated in Padʹdan-aʹram, to go to Isaac his father in the land of Caʹnaan.[k]

19 Now Laʹban had gone to shear his sheep, and Rachel stole the teraphim statues*[l] that belonged to her father.[m] 20 Moreover, Jacob outwitted Laʹban the A·ra·maeʹan, for he had not told him that he was running away. 21 And he ran away and crossed the River,[n] he and all he had. Then he headed toward the mountainous region of Gilʹe·ad.[o] 22 On the third day, Laʹban was told that Jacob had run away. 23 So he took his brothers with him and pursued him for a journey of seven days and caught up with him in the mountainous region of Gil′e·ad. 24 Then God came to La′ban the A·ra·mae′an[a] in a dream by night[b] and said to him: "Be careful about what you say to Jacob, either good or bad."*[c]

25 So La′ban approached Jacob, as Jacob had pitched his tent in the mountain and La′ban had encamped with his brothers in the mountainous region of Gil′e·ad. 26 Then La′ban said to Jacob: "What have you done? Why have you resorted to outwitting me and carrying my daughters off like captives taken by the sword? 27 Why did you run away secretly and outwit me and not tell me? If you had told me, I could have sent you away with rejoicing and with songs, with tambourine and with harp. 28 But you did not give me a chance to kiss my grandchildren* and my daughters. You have acted foolishly. 29 It is in my power to do harm to you, but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, 'Be careful about what you say to Jacob, either good or bad.'[d] 30 Now you have gone because you have been longing to return to the house of your father, but why have you stolen my gods?"[e]

31 Jacob answered La′ban: "It was because I was afraid, for I said to myself, 'You might take your daughters away from me by force.' 32 Anyone with whom you find your gods will not live. Before our brothers, examine what I have, and take what is yours." But Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them. 33 So La′ban went into the tent of Jacob and into the tent of Le′ah and into the tent of the two slave girls,[a] but did not find them. Then he came out of Le′ah's tent and went into Rachel's tent. 34 Meanwhile, Rachel had taken the teraphim statues and put them in the woman's saddle basket of the camel, and she was sitting on them. So La′ban searched through the whole tent but did not find them. 35 Then she said to her father: "Do not be angry, my lord, because I am not able to get up before you, for the customary thing with women is upon me."[b] So he searched on carefully but did not find the teraphim statues.[c]

36 At that Jacob became angry and began to criticize La′ban. Jacob then said to La′ban: "What is my offense, and for what sin are you hotly pursuing me? 37 Now that you have searched through all my goods, what have you found that belongs to your house? Put it here in front of my brothers and your brothers, and let them decide between the two of us. 38 During these 20 years that I have been with you, your sheep and your goats never miscarried,[d] and I never ate the rams of your flock. 39 I did not bring you any animal torn by wild beasts.[e] I would stand the loss of it myself. Whether the animal was stolen by day or was stolen by night, you would demand compensation from me. 40 By day the heat consumed me, and the cold by night, and sleep would flee from my eyes.[f] 41 This makes 20 years for me in your house. I have served you 14 years for your two daughters and 6 years for your flock, and you kept changing my wages ten times.[g] 42 If the God of my father,[h] the God of Abraham and the One whom Isaac fears,*[a] had not been on my side, you would now have sent me away empty-handed. God has seen my affliction and the toil of my hands, and that is why he reproved you last night."[b]

43 Then La'ban answered Jacob: "The daughters are my daughters and the children my children and the flock my flock, and everything you are looking at is mine and my daughters'. What can I do today against these or against their children whom they have borne? 44 Now come, let us make a covenant, you and I, and it will serve as a witness between us." 45 So Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar.[c] 46 Then Jacob said to his brothers: "Pick up stones!" And they took stones and made a pile. After that they ate there on the pile of stones. 47 And La'ban began calling it Je'gar-sa·ha·du'tha,* but Jacob called it Gal'e·ed.#

48 La'ban then said: "This pile of stones is a witness between me and you today." That is why he named it Gal'e·ed,[d] 49 and the Watchtower, for he said: "Let Jehovah keep watch between you and me when we are out of each other's sight. 50 If you mistreat my daughters and if you start taking wives in addition to my daughters, though there is no man with us, remember that God will be a witness between you and me." 51 La'ban went on to say to Jacob: "Here is this pile of stones, and here is the pillar that I have erected between you and me. 52 This pile of stones is a witness, and the pillar is something that bears witness,[e] that I will not pass beyond this pile of stones to bring harm to you and you will not pass beyond this pile of stones and this pillar to bring harm to me. 53 Let the God of Abraham[a] and the God of Na'hor, the God of their father, judge between us." And Jacob swore by the One whom his father Isaac fears.*[b]

54 After that Jacob offered a sacrifice in the mountain and invited his brothers to eat bread. So they ate and spent the night in the mountain. 55 However, La'ban got up early in the morning and kissed his grandchildren*[c] and his daughters and blessed them.[d] Then La'ban departed and returned home.[e]

32 Jacob then went on his way, and the angels of God met up with him. 2 As soon as he saw them, Jacob said: "This is the camp of God!" So he named that place Ma·ha·na'im.*

3 Then Jacob sent messengers ahead of him to his brother E'sau in the land of Se'ir,[f] the territory* of E'dom,[g] 4 and he commanded them: "This is what you will say to my lord, to E'sau, 'This is what your servant Jacob says: "I have resided* with La'ban for a long time until now.[h] 5 And I have acquired bulls, donkeys, sheep, and male and female servants,[i] and I send this message to inform my lord, in order to find favor in your eyes."'"

6 In time the messengers returned to Jacob, saying: "We met your brother E'sau, and he is now on his way to meet you, and there are 400 men with him."[j] 7 And Jacob became very frightened and anxious.[k] So he divided the people who were with him, as well as the flocks, the cattle, and the camels, into two camps. 8 He said: "If E′sau attacks the one camp, then the other camp will be able to escape."

9 After that Jacob said: "O God of my father Abraham and God of my father Isaac, O Jehovah, you who are saying to me, 'Return to your land and to your relatives, and I will deal well with you,'[a] 10 I am unworthy of all the loyal love and of all the faithfulness that you have shown toward your servant,[b] for with only my staff I crossed this Jordan and now I have become two camps.[c] 11 Save me, I pray you,[d] from the hand of my brother E′sau, for I am afraid of him that he may come and attack me,[e] as well as the mothers and their children. 12 And you have said: 'I will certainly deal well with you, and I will make your offspring* like the grains of sand of the sea, which are too numerous to count.'"[f]

13 And he spent the night there. Then he took some of his possessions as a gift for E′sau his brother:[g] 14 200 female goats, 20 male goats, 200 female sheep, 20 rams, 15 30 camels nursing their young, 40 cows, 10 bulls, 20 female donkeys and 10 full-grown male donkeys.[h]

16 He handed them over to his servants, one drove after another, and he said to his servants: "Cross over ahead of me, and you are to set a space between one drove and the next." 17 He also commanded the first one: "In case E′sau my brother should meet you and ask, 'To whom do you belong, and where are you going, and to whom do these ahead of you belong?' 18 then you should say, 'To your servant Jacob. It is a gift sent to my lord, to E′sau,[a] and look! he himself is also behind us.'" 19 And he commanded also the second, the third, and all those following the droves: "According to this word, you are to speak to E′sau when you meet him. 20 And you should also say, 'Here is your servant Jacob behind us.'" For he said to himself: 'If I appease him by sending a gift ahead of me,[b] then afterward when I see him, he may give me a kindly reception.' 21 So the gift crossed over ahead of him, but he himself spent the night in the camp.

22 Later during that night, he rose and took his two wives[c] and his two female servants[d] and his 11 young sons and crossed over the ford of Jab′bok.[e] 23 So he took them and brought them across the stream,* and he brought over everything else he had.

24 Finally Jacob was left by himself. Then a man began to wrestle with him until the dawn broke.[f] 25 When he saw that he had not prevailed over him, he touched the socket of his hip; and the socket of Jacob's hip was dislocated during his wrestling with him.[g] 26 After that he said: "Let me go, for the dawn is breaking." To this he said: "I am not going to let you go until you bless me."[h] 27 So he said to him: "What is your name?" to which he said: "Jacob." 28 Then he said: "Your name will no longer be Jacob but Israel,*[i] for you have contended with God[j] and with men and you have at last prevailed." 29 In turn Jacob inquired: "Tell me, please, your name." However, he said: "Why is it that you ask my name?"[k] With that he blessed him there. 30 So Jacob named the place Pe·ni′el, *[a] for he said, "I have seen God face-to-face, yet my life# was preserved."[b]

31 And the sun rose upon him as soon as he passed by Penu′el,* but he was limping because of his hip.[c] 32 That is why to this day the sons of Israel are not accustomed to eat the thigh sinew,* which is on the socket of the hip joint, because he touched the socket of Jacob's hip joint by the thigh sinew.

33 Now Jacob raised his eyes and saw E′sau coming, and 400 men were with him.[d] So he divided the children among Le′ah, Rachel, and the two female servants.[e] 2 He put the female servants and their children in front,[f] Le′ah and her children after them,[g] and Rachel[h] and Joseph behind them. 3 Then he himself went ahead of them and bowed down to the earth seven times as he came near to his brother.

4 But E′sau ran to meet him, and he embraced him and kissed him, and they burst into tears. 5 When he raised his eyes and saw the women and the children, he said: "Who are these with you?" to which he said: "The children with whom God has favored your servant."[i] 6 At that the female servants came forward with their children and bowed down, 7 and Le′ah too came forward with her children, and they bowed down. Then Joseph came forward with Rachel, and they bowed down.[j]

8 E′sau said: "What is the purpose of all this camp of travelers that I have met?"[k] He replied: "In order to find favor in the eyes of my lord."[l] 9 Then E′sau said: "I have a great many possessions, my brother.[a] Keep what is yours." 10 However, Jacob said: "No, please. If I have found favor in your eyes, you must take my gift from my hand, because I brought it so that I could see your face. And I have seen your face as though seeing God's face, in that you received me with pleasure.[b] 11 Take, please, the gift conveying my blessing that was brought to you,[c] for God has favored me and I have everything I need."[d] And he continued to urge him, so that he took it.

12 Later E′sau said: "Let us move out and go, and let me go in advance of you." 13 But he said to him: "My lord is aware that the children are delicate[e] and that in my care are sheep and cattle nursing their young. If they are driven too quickly for one day, then the whole flock will die. 14 Let my lord, please, go on ahead of his servant, but I will continue the journey more slowly at the pace of my livestock and of the children until I come to my lord at Se′ir."[f] 15 Then E′sau said: "Please, let me leave some of my people with you." To this he said: "Why do this? Just let me find favor in the eyes of my lord." 16 So that day E′sau went on his way back to Se′ir.

17 And Jacob journeyed to Suc′coth,[g] and he built a house for himself and he made shelters for his herd. That was why he named the place Suc′coth.*

18 After journeying from Pad′dan-a′ram,[h] Jacob arrived safely at the city of She′chem[i] in the land of Ca′naan,[j] and he set up his camp near the city. 19 Then he acquired a portion of the field where he pitched his tent from the sons of Ha′mor, the father of She′chem, for 100 pieces of money.[a] 20 There he set up an altar and called it God, the God of Israel.[b]

34 Now Di′nah, Jacob's daughter by Le′ah,[c] used to go out to spend time with* the young women of the land.[d] 2 When She′chem, the son of Ha′mor the Hi′vite,[e] a chieftain of the land, saw her, he took her and lay down with her and violated her. 3 And he* became very attached to Di′nah, the daughter of Jacob, and he fell in love with the young woman and spoke persuasively to her.# 4 Finally She′chem said to Ha′mor[f] his father: "Get me this young woman to be my wife."

5 When Jacob heard that he had defiled Di′nah his daughter, his sons were with his herd in the field. So Jacob kept silent until they returned. 6 Later Ha′mor, She′chem's father, went out to speak with Jacob. 7 But the sons of Jacob heard about it and returned from the field right away. They were offended and very angry because he had disgraced Israel by lying down with Jacob's daughter,[g] something that should not be done.[h]

8 Ha′mor spoke with them, saying: "My son She′chem longs for* your daughter. Please give her to him as his wife, 9 and form marriage alliances* with us. Give us your daughters, and take our daughters for yourselves.[i] 10 You may dwell with us, and the land will become available for you. Dwell and carry on trade in it and settle in it." 11 Then She′chem said to her father and to her brothers: "Let me find favor in your eyes, and I will give you whatever you ask me. 12 You can demand from me a very high bride price and gift.[a] I am willing to give whatever you may say to me. Just give me the young woman as a wife."

13 And Jacob's sons answered She′chem and Ha′mor his father deceitfully because he had defiled Di′nah their sister. 14 They said to them: "We cannot possibly do such a thing, to give our sister to a man who is not circumcised,*[b] for that is a disgrace to us. 15 We can only consent on this condition: that you become like us and circumcise all your males.[c] 16 Then we will give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters for ourselves, and we will dwell with you and become one people. 17 But if you do not listen to us and get circumcised, then we will take our daughter and go."

18 Their words pleased Ha′mor[d] and She′chem, Ha′mor's son.[e] 19 The young man did not delay in doing what they asked,[f] because he found delight in Jacob's daughter, and he was the most honorable of the whole house of his father.

20 So Ha′mor and his son She′chem went to the city gate and spoke to the men of their city,[g] saying: 21 "These men wish to be at peace with us. Let them dwell in the land and carry on trade in it, for the land is large enough to accommodate them. We can take their daughters as wives, and our daughters we can give to them.[h] 22 Only on this one condition will the men consent to dwell with us in order to become one people: that every male among us be circumcised just the way they are circumcised.[i] 23 Then, will not their possessions, their wealth, and all their livestock be ours? So let us give them our consent that they may dwell with us." 24 All those going out by the gate of his city listened to Ha′mor and to his son She′chem, and all the males got circumcised, all those going out of the city gate.

25 However, on the third day, when they were still in pain, two sons of Jacob, Sim′e·on and Le′vi, Di′nah's brothers,[a] each took his sword and went into the unsuspecting city and killed every male.[b] 26 They killed Ha′mor and his son She′chem with the sword and then took Di′nah from She′chem's house and left. 27 Jacob's other sons came upon the slain men and plundered the city because they had defiled their sister.[c] 28 They took their flocks, their herds, their donkeys, and whatever was in the city and in the field. 29 They also took all their possessions, captured all their little children and their wives, and plundered everything in the houses.

30 At this Jacob said to Sim′e·on and to Le′vi:[d] "You have brought great trouble* on me in making me a stench to the inhabitants of the land, to the Ca′naan·ites and the Per′iz·zites. I am few in number, and they will certainly gather together to attack me and I will be annihilated, I and my house." 31 But they said: "Should anyone treat our sister like a prostitute?"

35 After that God said to Jacob: "Rise, go up to Beth′el[e] and dwell there, and make an altar there to the true God, who appeared to you when you were running away from E′sau your brother."[f]

2 Then Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him: "Get rid of the foreign gods that are in your midst,[a] and cleanse yourselves and change your garments, 3 and let us rise and go up to Beth′el. There I will make an altar to the true God, who answered me in the day of my distress and who has been with me wherever* I have gone."[b] 4 So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods they had and the earrings that were in their ears, and Jacob buried* them under the big tree that was close to She′chem.

5 When they traveled on, the terror of God struck the cities around them, so they did not chase after the sons of Jacob. 6 Jacob eventually came to Luz,[c] that is, Beth′el, in the land of Ca′naan, he and all the people with him. 7 There he built an altar and called the place El-beth′el,* because there the true God had revealed himself to him when he had run away from his brother.[d] 8 Later Deb′o·rah,[e] Re·bek′ah's nurse, died and was buried at the foot of Beth′el under an oak. So he named it Al′lon-bac′uth.*

9 God appeared to Jacob once again while he was coming from Pad′dan-a′ram and blessed him. 10 God said to him: "Your name is Jacob.[f] Your name will no longer be Jacob, but Israel will be your name." And he began to call him Israel.[g] 11 God further said to him: "I am God Almighty.[h] Be fruitful and become many. Nations and a congregation of nations will come from you,[i] and kings will descend from you.[j] 12 As for the land that I have given to Abraham and to Isaac, to you I will give it, and to your offspring after you I will give the land."[a] 13 Then God went up from him at the place where he had spoken with him.

14 So Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he had spoken with him, a pillar of stone, and he poured a drink offering on it and poured oil on it.[b] 15 And Jacob continued to call the place where God had spoken with him Beth'el.[c]

16 Then they pulled away from Beth'el. And while they were still some distance from Eph'rath, Rachel began to give birth, and her labor was very difficult. 17 But while she was struggling to deliver the child, the midwife said to her: "Do not be afraid, for you will have this son also."[d] 18 Just as her life was slipping away* (for she was dying), she named him Ben-o'ni,# but his father called him Benjamin.△[e] 19 So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Eph'rath, that is, Beth'le·hem.[f] 20 Jacob set up a pillar over her grave; it is the pillar of Rachel's grave to this day.

21 After that Israel pulled away and pitched his tent a distance beyond the tower of E'der. 22 Once while Israel was dwelling in that land, Reu'ben went and lay down with Bil'hah his father's concubine, and Israel heard about it.[g]

So there were 12 sons of Jacob. 23 The sons by Le'ah were Jacob's firstborn Reu'ben,[h] then Sim'e·on, Le'vi, Judah, Is'sa·char, and Zeb'u·lun. 24 The sons by Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin. 25 And the sons by Bil'hah, Rachel's servant, were Dan and Naph'ta·li. 26 And the sons by Zil'pah, Le'ah's servant, were Gad and Ash'er. These are Jacob's sons, who were born to him in Pad'dan-a'ram.

27 Jacob eventually came to where his father Isaac was at Mam're,[a] to Kir'i·ath-ar'ba, that is, Heb'ron, where Abraham and also Isaac had resided as foreigners.[b] 28 Isaac lived to be 180 years old.[c] 29 Then Isaac breathed his last and died and was gathered to his people,* after a long and satisfying life;# and his sons E'sau and Jacob buried him.[d]

36 This is the history of E'sau, that is, E'dom.[e]

2 E'sau took his wives from the daughters of Ca'naan: A'dah[f] the daughter of E'lon the Hit'tite;[g] and O·hol·i·ba'mah[h] the daughter of A'nah, the granddaughter of Zib'e·on the Hi'vite; 3 and Bas'e·math,[i] Ish'ma·el's daughter, the sister of Ne·ba'ioth.[j]

4 And A'dah bore El'i·phaz to E'sau, and Bas'e·math bore Reu'el,

5 and O·hol·i·ba'mah bore Je'ush, Ja'lam, and Kor'ah.[k]

These are the sons of E'sau, who were born to him in the land of Ca'naan. 6 After that E'sau took his wives, his sons, his daughters, all the members* of his household, his herd and all his other beasts, and all the wealth he had accumulated[l] in the land of Ca'naan and he went to another land some distance away from Jacob his brother.[m] 7 For their goods had become too many for them to dwell together, and the land where they were residing* was not able to sustain them because of their herds. 8 So E'sau took up

37 Jacob continued to dwell in the land of Ca′naan, where his father had lived as a foreigner.[e]

2 This is the history of Jacob.

When Joseph[f] was 17 years old, the young man was tending the flock[g] with the sons of Bil′hah[h] and the sons of Zil′pah,[i] the wives of his father. And Joseph brought a bad report about them to their father. 3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his other sons[a] because he was the son of his old age, and he had a special robe* made for him. 4 When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than all his brothers, they began to hate him, and they could not speak peaceably to him.

5 Later Joseph had a dream and told it to his brothers,[b] and they found further reason to hate him. 6 He said to them: "Please listen to this dream that I had. 7 There we were binding sheaves in the middle of the field when my sheaf got up and stood erect and your sheaves encircled and bowed down to my sheaf."[c] 8 His brothers said to him: "Are you really going to make yourself king over us and dominate us?"[d] So they found another reason to hate him, because of his dreams and what he said.

9 After that he had still another dream, and he related it to his brothers: "I have had another dream. This time the sun and the moon and 11 stars were bowing down to me."[e] 10 Then he related it to his father as well as his brothers, and his father rebuked him and said to him: "What is the meaning of this dream of yours? Am I as well as your mother and your brothers really going to come and bow down to the earth to you?" 11 And his brothers grew jealous of him,[f] but his father kept the saying in mind.

12 His brothers now went to pasture their father's flock near She′chem.[g] 13 Israel later said to Joseph: "Your brothers are tending flocks near She′chem, are they not? Come, and let me send you to them." At this he said to him: "I am ready!" 14 So he said to him: "Go, please, and see whether your brothers are well. See how the flock is, and bring word back to me." With that he sent him away from the valley* of Heb′ron,[a] and he went on toward She′chem. 15 Later a man found him as he was wandering in a field. The man asked him: "What are you looking for?" 16 To this he said: "I am looking for my brothers. Please tell me, where are they tending flocks?" 17 The man continued: "They have pulled away from here, for I heard them saying, 'Let us go to Do′than.'" So Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Do′than.

18 Now they caught sight of him from a distance, and before he reached them, they began plotting against him to put him to death. 19 So they said to one another: "Look! Here comes that dreamer.[b] 20 Come, now, let us kill him and pitch him into one of the waterpits, and we will say that a vicious wild animal devoured him. Then let us see what will become of his dreams." 21 When Reu′ben[c] heard this, he tried to rescue him from them. So he said: "Let us not take his life."[d] 22 Reu′ben said to them: "Do not shed blood.[e] Throw him into this waterpit in the wilderness, but do not harm him."[f] His purpose was to rescue him from them in order to return him to his father.

23 So as soon as Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped Joseph of his robe, the special robe that he wore,[g] 24 and they took him and threw him into the waterpit. At the time the pit was empty; there was no water in it.

25 Then they sat down to eat. When they looked up, there was a caravan of Ish′ma·el·ites[h] coming from Gil′e·ad. Their camels were carrying labdanum gum, balsam, and resinous bark,[i] and they were on their way down to Egypt. 26 At this Judah said to his brothers: "What profit would there be if we killed our brother and covered over his blood?[a] 27 Come, now, let us sell him[b] to the Ish′ma·el·ites, and do not let our hand be upon him. After all, he is our brother, our flesh." So they listened to their brother. 28 And when the Mid′i·an·ite[c] merchants were passing by, they lifted Joseph up out of the waterpit and sold him to the Ish′ma·el·ites for 20 pieces of silver.[d] These men took Joseph into Egypt.

29 Later when Reu′ben returned to the waterpit and saw that Joseph was not in the waterpit, he ripped his garments apart. 30 When he returned to his brothers, he exclaimed: "The child is gone! And I—what am I going to do?"

31 So they took Joseph's robe and slaughtered a male goat and dipped the robe in the blood. 32 After that they sent the special robe to their father and said: "This is what we found. Please examine whether this is your son's robe or not."[e] 33 Then he examined it and exclaimed: "It is my son's robe! A vicious wild animal must have devoured him! Joseph is surely torn to pieces!" 34 With that Jacob ripped his garments apart and put sackcloth around his waist and mourned his son for many days. 35 And all his sons and all his daughters kept trying to comfort him, but he kept refusing to take comfort, saying: "I will go down into the Grave*[f] mourning my son!" And his father continued weeping for him.

36 Now the Mid′i·an·ites sold him in Egypt to Pot′i·phar, a court official of Phar′aoh[g] and the chief of the guard.[h]

37:35 *Or "Sheol," that is, the common grave of mankind. See Glossary.

38 About that time Judah left his brothers and pitched his tent near an A·dul′lam·ite man named Hi′rah. 2 There Judah saw the daughter of a certain Ca′naan·ite[a] named Shu′a. So he took her and had relations with her, 3 and she became pregnant. Later she bore a son, and he named him Er.[b] 4 Again she became pregnant and bore a son and named him O′nan. 5 Yet again she bore a son and named him She′lah. He* was in Ach′zib[c] when she bore him.

6 In time Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, and her name was Ta′mar.[d] 7 But Er, Judah's firstborn, was displeasing to Jehovah; so Jehovah put him to death. 8 In view of that, Judah said to O′nan: "Have relations with your brother's wife and perform brother-in-law marriage with her and raise up offspring for your brother."[e] 9 But O′nan knew that the offspring would not be considered his.[f] So when he did have relations with his brother's wife, he wasted his semen on the ground so as not to give offspring to his brother.[g] 10 What he did was bad in the eyes of Jehovah, so he also put him to death.[h] 11 Judah said to Ta′mar his daughter-in-law: "Dwell as a widow in the house of your father until my son She′lah grows up," for he said to himself: 'He too may die like his brothers.'[i] So Ta′mar went and stayed in her own father's house.

12 Some time passed, and Judah's wife, the daughter of Shu′a,[j] died. Judah kept the mourning period, and then he went to his sheepshearers in Tim′nah[k] with his companion Hi′rah the A·dul′lam·ite.[l] 13 Ta′mar was told: "Here your father-in-law is going up to Tim′nah to shear his sheep." 14 With that she removed her widow's clothing and veiled herself and covered herself with a shawl and sat down at the entrance of E·na′im, which is on the road to Tim′nah, for she saw that She′lah had grown up and yet she had not been given to him as a wife.[a]

15 When Judah caught sight of her, he at once took her for a prostitute, because she had covered her face. 16 So he turned aside to her by the road and said: "Allow me, please, to have relations with you," for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law.[b] However, she said: "What will you give me that you may have relations with me?" 17 To this he said: "I will send a young goat from my herd." But she said: "Will you give a security until you send it?" 18 He continued: "What security should I give you?" to which she said: "Your seal ring[c] and your cord and your rod that is in your hand." Then he gave them to her and had relations with her, and she became pregnant by him. 19 After that she got up and went away and removed her shawl and clothed herself with her widow's clothing.

20 And Judah sent the young goat by the hand of his companion the A·dul′lam·ite,[d] to get back the security from the hand of the woman, but he never found her. 21 He inquired of the men of her place, saying: "Where is that temple prostitute in E·na′im along the road?" But they said: "No temple prostitute has ever been in this place." 22 Finally he returned to Judah and said: "I never found her, and besides, the men of the place said, 'No temple prostitute has ever been in this place.'" 23 So Judah said: "Let her take them for herself, in order that we may not fall into contempt. At any rate,

I have sent this young goat, but you never found her."

24 However, about three months later, Judah was told: "Ta′mar your daughter-in-law has acted as a prostitute, and she is also pregnant by her prostitution." At that Judah said: "Bring her out and let her be burned."[a] 25 As she was being brought out, she sent word to her father-in-law: "I am pregnant by the man to whom these belong." Then she added: "Please examine to whom these belong, the seal ring and the cord and the rod."[b] 26 Then Judah examined them and said: "She is more righteous than I am, because I did not give her to She′lah my son."[c] And he had no further sexual relations with her after that.

27 When the time came for her to give birth, there were twins in her womb. 28 As she was giving birth, one put out his hand, and the midwife immediately took a scarlet thread and tied it around his hand, saying: "This one came out first." 29 But as soon as he drew back his hand, his brother came out, and she exclaimed: "What a breach you have made for yourself!" So he was named Pe′rez.*[d] 30 Afterward his brother came out, around whose hand the scarlet thread was tied, and he was named Ze′rah.[e]

39 Now Joseph was taken down to Egypt,[f] and an Egyptian named Pot′i·phar,[g] a court official of Phar′aoh and chief of the guard, bought him from the Ish′ma·el·ites[h] who had taken him down there. 2 But Jehovah was with Joseph.[i] As a result, he became successful and was put over the house of his master, the Egyptian. 3 And his master saw that Jehovah was with him and that Jehovah was making everything that he did successful.

4 Joseph kept finding favor in his eyes, and he became his personal attendant. So he appointed him over his house, and he put him in charge of all that was his. 5 From the time he appointed him over his house and in charge of all that was his, Jehovah kept blessing the house of the Egyptian because of Joseph, and Jehovah's blessing came to be on all that he had in the house and in the field.[a] 6 He eventually left everything that was his in Joseph's care, and he gave no thought to anything except the food he was eating. Moreover, Joseph grew to be well-built and handsome.

7 Now after these things, the wife of his master began to cast her eyes on Joseph and say: "Lie down with me." 8 But he refused and said to his master's wife: "Here my master does not know what is with me in the house, and he has entrusted everything he has into my care. 9 There is no one greater in this house than I am, and he has not withheld from me anything at all except you, because you are his wife. So how could I commit this great badness and actually sin against God?"[b]

10 So day after day she spoke to Joseph, but he never consented to lie with her or to remain with her. 11 But on one of the days when he went into the house to do his work, none of the household servants were in the house. 12 Then she grabbed hold of him by his garment and said: "Lie down with me!" But he left his garment in her hand and fled outside. 13 As soon as she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and had fled outside,

14 she began to cry out to the men of her house and to say to them: "Look! He brought to us this Hebrew man to make us a laughingstock. He came to me to lie down with me, but I began to cry out at the top of my voice. 15 Then as soon as he heard me raising my voice and screaming, he left his garment beside me and fled outside." 16 After that she laid his garment beside her until his master came to his house.

17 Then she told him the same thing, saying: "The Hebrew servant whom you brought to us came to me to make me a laughingstock. 18 But as soon as I raised my voice and began to scream, he left his garment beside me and fled outside." 19 As soon as his master heard the words his wife spoke to him, saying: "These are the things your servant did to me," his anger blazed. 20 So Joseph's master took him and gave him over to the prison, the place where the prisoners of the king were kept under arrest, and he remained there in the prison.[a]

21 But Jehovah continued with Joseph and kept showing loyal love to him and granting him favor in the eyes of the chief officer of the prison.[b] 22 So the chief officer of the prison put Joseph in charge of all the prisoners in the prison, and everything that they were doing there, he was the one having it done.[c] 23 The chief officer of the prison was looking after absolutely nothing that was in Joseph's care, for Jehovah was with Joseph and Jehovah made whatever he did successful.[d]

40 After these things, the chief cupbearer[e] of the king of Egypt and the chief baker sinned against their lord, the king of Egypt. 2 So Phar'aoh grew indignant at his two officers, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker,[a] 3 and he committed them to the jail of the house of the chief of the guard,[b] to the place where Joseph was a prisoner.[c] 4 Then the chief of the guard assigned Joseph to be with them and to take care of them,[d] and they remained in jail for some time.*

5 The cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were confined in the prison, each had a dream on the same night, and each dream had its own interpretation. 6 The next morning, when Joseph came in and saw them, they looked dejected. 7 So he asked the officers of Phar'aoh who were in custody with him in his master's house: "Why are your faces gloomy today?" 8 At this they said to him: "We each had a dream, but there is no interpreter with us." Joseph said to them: "Do not interpretations belong to God?[e] Relate it to me, please."

9 So the chief cupbearer related his dream to Joseph, saying to him: "In my dream, there was a vine before me. 10 And on the vine, there were three twigs, and as it was sprouting shoots, it blossomed, and its clusters ripened into grapes. 11 And Phar'aoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes and squeezed them out into Phar'aoh's cup. After that I put the cup in Phar'aoh's hand." 12 Then Joseph said to him: "This is its interpretation: The three twigs are three days. 13 Three days from now, Phar'aoh will bring you out,* restoring you to your office,[f] and you will put Phar'aoh's cup into his hand as you did before when you were his cupbearer.[g] 14 Nevertheless, you must remember me when things go well with you. Please show me loyal love and mention me to Phar′aoh, in order to get me out of this place. 15 I was, in fact, kidnapped from the land of the Hebrews,[a] and I have not done anything here for which they should put me in prison."*[b]

16 When the chief baker saw that Joseph had interpreted something good, he said to him: "I too was in my dream, and there were three baskets of white bread on my head, 17 and in the top basket, there were all sorts of baked goods for Phar′aoh, and there were birds eating them out of the basket on top of my head." 18 Then Joseph answered, "This is its interpretation: The three baskets are three days. 19 Three days from now, Phar′aoh will behead you* and will hang you on a stake, and the birds will eat your flesh from you."[c]

20 Now the third day was Phar′aoh's birthday,[d] and he made a feast for all his servants, and he brought out* both the chief cupbearer and the chief baker in the presence of his servants. 21 And he returned the chief cupbearer to his post of cupbearer, and he continued to hand the cup to Phar′aoh. 22 But he hanged the chief baker, just as Joseph had interpreted to them.[e] 23 However, the chief cupbearer did not remember Joseph; he kept forgetting him.[f]

41 At the end of two full years, Phar′aoh dreamed[g] that he was standing by the Nile River. 2 And there, coming up from the river, were seven fine-looking, fat cows, and they were feeding on the Nile grass.[h]

3 There were seven other cows that looked ugly and thin coming up after them from the Nile, and they stood alongside the fat cows by the bank of the Nile. 4 Then the ugly, thin cows began to eat up the seven fine-looking, fat cows. At this Phar′aoh woke up.

5 Then he went back to sleep and had a second dream. There were seven ears of grain coming up on one stalk, full and choice.[a] 6 And growing up after them were seven ears of grain that were thin and scorched by the east wind. 7 And the thin ears of grain began to swallow up the seven full and choice ears of grain. At this Phar′aoh woke up and realized that it was a dream.

8 But in the morning, his spirit became agitated. So he sent for all the magic-practicing priests of Egypt and all her wise men. Phar′aoh related his dreams to them, but there was no one who could interpret them for Phar′aoh.

9 At that the chief cupbearer spoke with Phar′aoh, saying: "I am confessing my sins today. 10 Phar′aoh was indignant at his servants. So he committed me to the jail of the house of the chief of the guard, both me and the chief baker.[b] 11 After that we each had a dream on the same night. He and I each had a dream with its own interpretation.[c] 12 And there with us was a young Hebrew man, a servant of the chief of the guard.[d] When we related them to him,[e] he interpreted for us the meaning of each dream. 13 It happened exactly as he had interpreted to us. I was restored to my office, but the other man was hanged."[f]

14 So Phar′aoh sent for Joseph,[g] and they brought him quickly from the prison.*[h] He shaved and changed his clothes and went in to Phar′aoh.

15 Then Phar'aoh said to Joseph: "I had a dream, but there is no one to interpret it. Now I have heard it said about you that you can hear a dream and interpret it."[a] 16 At this Joseph answered Phar'aoh: "I need not be considered! God will speak concerning Phar'aoh's welfare."[b]

17 Phar'aoh went on to say to Joseph: "In my dream I was standing on the bank of the Nile River. 18 And there, coming up from the Nile, were seven fine-looking, fat cows, and they began to feed on the Nile grass.[c] 19 And there were seven other cows coming up after them, poor and very bad-looking and thin. I have never seen such bad-looking cows in all the land of Egypt. 20 And the skinny, bad cows began to eat up the first seven fat cows. 21 But when they had consumed them, no one could have known that they had done so, since their appearance was just as bad as at the start. At that I woke up.

22 "After that I saw in my dream seven ears of grain coming up on one stalk, full and choice.[d] 23 Growing up after them were seven ears of shriveled grain, thin and scorched by the east wind. 24 Then the thin ears of grain began to swallow up the seven choice ears of grain. So I told it to the magic-practicing priests,[e] but there was no one who could explain it to me."[f]

25 Then Joseph said to Phar'aoh: "The dreams of Phar'aoh are one and the same. The true God has told to Phar'aoh what He will do.[g] 26 The seven good cows are seven years. Likewise, the seven good ears of grain are seven years. The dreams are one and the same. 27 The seven skinny and bad cows that came up after them are seven years, and the seven empty ears of grain, scorched by the east wind, will prove to be seven years of famine. 28 This is just as I told to Phar'aoh: The true God has caused Phar'aoh to see what He will do.

29 "There are to be seven years of great abundance in all the land of Egypt. 30 But seven years of famine will certainly arise after them, and all the abundance in the land of Egypt will certainly be forgotten, and the famine will exhaust the land.[a] 31 And the previous abundance in the land will not be remembered because of the famine afterward, for it will be very severe. 32 The dream was given twice to Phar'aoh because the matter has been firmly established by the true God, and the true God will soon carry it out.

33 "So now let Phar'aoh look for a man who is discreet and wise and place him over the land of Egypt. 34 Let Phar'aoh take action and appoint overseers in the land, and he should collect one fifth of the produce of Egypt during the seven years of abundance.[b] 35 And let them collect all the food during these coming good years, and let them stockpile grain under Phar'aoh's authority as food to be stored in the cities and safeguarded there.[c] 36 The food should serve as a supply for the land for the seven years of famine that will occur in the land of Egypt, so that the land may not perish in the famine."[d]

37 This proposal seemed good to Phar'aoh and all his servants. 38 So Phar'aoh said to his servants: "Can another man be found like this one in whom there is the spirit of God?" 39 Phar'aoh then said to Joseph: "Since God has caused you to know all of this, there is no one as discreet and wise as you. 40 You will personally be over my house, and all my people will obey you implicitly.[a] Only in my role as king* will I be greater than you." 41 And Phar′aoh added to Joseph: "See, I am putting you over all the land of Egypt."[b] 42 Then Phar′aoh removed his signet ring from his own hand and put it on Joseph's hand and clothed him with garments of fine linen and placed a necklace of gold around his neck. 43 Moreover, he had him ride in the second chariot of honor that he had, and they would call out ahead of him, "A·vrékh!"* Thus he put him over all the land of Egypt.

44 Phar′aoh further said to Joseph: "I am Phar′aoh, but without your authorization, no man may do a single thing* in all the land of Egypt."[c] 45 After that Phar′aoh gave Joseph the name Zaph′e·nath-pa·ne′ah and gave him As′e·nath[d] the daughter of Pot·i′phe·ra the priest of On* as a wife. And Joseph began to oversee# the land of Egypt.[e] 46 Joseph was 30 years old[f] when he stood before* Phar′aoh king of Egypt.

Then Joseph went out from before Phar′aoh and traveled throughout all the land of Egypt. 47 And during the seven years of abundance, the land went on producing plentifully.* 48 And he kept collecting all the food of the seven years from the land of Egypt, and he would stockpile the food in the cities. In each city he would store the food from the fields around it. 49 Joseph continued stockpiling grain in very great quantity, like the sand of the sea, until finally they gave up measuring it because it could not be measured.

50 Before the year of the famine arrived, two sons were born to Joseph,[a] whom As′e·nath the daughter of Pot·i′phe·ra the priest of On* bore to him. 51 Joseph named the firstborn Ma·nas′seh,[b] for he said, "God has made me forget all my trouble and all the house of my father." 52 And he named the second one E′phra·im,[c] for he said, "God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction."[d]

53 Then the seven years of abundance in the land of Egypt ended,[e] 54 and the seven years of famine began, just as Joseph had said.[f] The famine developed in all the lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread.*[g] 55 Eventually, all the land of Egypt suffered from the famine, and the people began to cry to Phar′aoh for bread.[h] Then Phar′aoh said to all the Egyptians: "Go to Joseph, and do whatever he tells you."[i] 56 The famine continued over all the surface of the earth.[j] Then Joseph began to open up all the granaries that were among them and to sell to the Egyptians,[k] as the famine had a strong grip on the land of Egypt. 57 Moreover, people of all the earth came to Egypt to buy from Joseph, because the famine had a strong grip on all the earth.[l]

42 When Jacob learned that there was grain in Egypt,[m] he said to his sons: "Why do you just keep looking at one another?" 2 He added: "I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy some for us, so that we may stay alive and not die."[a] 3 So ten of Joseph's brothers[b] went down to buy grain from Egypt. 4 But Jacob did not send Benjamin,[c] Joseph's brother, with his other brothers, for he said: "Perhaps a fatal accident may befall him."[d]

5 So Israel's sons came along with the others who were coming to buy, because the famine had extended to the land of Ca′naan.[e] 6 Joseph was the man in authority over the land,[f] and he was the one who sold grain to all the people of the earth.[g] So Joseph's brothers came and bowed low to him with their faces to the ground.[h] 7 When Joseph saw his brothers, he immediately recognized them, but he concealed his identity from them.[i] So he spoke harshly with them and said: "Where have you come from?" to which they said: "From the land of Ca′naan to buy food."[j]

You have come to see the vulnerable areas* of the land!" 10 Then they said to him: "No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food. 11 We are all sons of but one man. We are upright men. Your servants do not act as spies." 12 But he said to them: "Not so! You have come to see the vulnerable areas of the land!" 13 At this they said: "Your servants are 12 brothers,[l] We are the sons of but one man[m] in the land of Ca′naan, and the youngest is now with our father,[n] whereas the other one is no more."[o]

14 However, Joseph said to them: "It is just as I said to you—'You are spies!' 15 By this you will be tested: As surely as Phar′aoh lives, you will not leave this place until your youngest brother comes here.[a] 16 Send one of you to bring your brother while you remain in bondage. In this way, your words may be tested out to see if you are telling the truth. And if not, then, as surely as Phar′aoh lives, you are spies." 17 With that he put them together in custody for three days.

18 Joseph said to them on the third day: "Do this and live, for I fear God. 19 If you are upright, let one of your brothers remain in bondage in your house of custody, but the rest of you may go and take grain to alleviate the famine in your households.[b] 20 Then bring your youngest brother to me, so that your words will be found trustworthy and you will not die." And they did so.

21 And they said to one another: "We are surely being punished on account of our brother,[c] because we saw his distress* when he begged us to show compassion, but we did not listen. That is why this distress has come upon us." 22 Then Reu′ben answered them: "Did I not say to you, 'Do not sin against the child,' but you would not listen?[d] Now his blood is certainly being asked back."[e] 23 But they did not know that Joseph understood, for there was an interpreter between them. 24 So he turned away from them and began to weep.[f] When he returned and spoke to them again, he took Sim′e·on[g] from them and bound him before their eyes.[h] 25 Joseph then gave the command to fill up their bags* with grain and to return each man's money to his own sack and to give them provisions for the journey. This was done for them.

26 So they loaded their grain on their donkeys and left from there. 27 When one of them opened his sack to give fodder to his donkey at the lodging place, he saw his money there in the mouth of his bag. 28 At that he said to his brothers: "My money has been returned, and now here it is in my bag!" Then their hearts sank, and trembling, they turned to one another and said: "What is this that God has done to us?"

29 When they came to Jacob their father in the land of Ca′naan, they told him all the things that had befallen them, saying: 30 "The man who is the lord of the country spoke harshly with us[a] and accused us of spying on the country. 31 But we said to him, 'We are upright men. We are not spies.[b] 32 We are 12 brothers,[c] the sons of our father. One is no more,[d] and the youngest is now with our father in the land of Ca′naan.'[e] 33 But the man who is the lord of the country said to us, 'By this I will know that you are upright: Leave one of your brothers with me.[f] Then take something to alleviate the famine in your households and go.[g] 34 And bring your youngest brother to me, so that I may know that you are not spies but upright men. I will then give your brother back to you, and you may carry on trade in the land.'"

35 As they were emptying their sacks, here was each one's bag of money in his sack. When they and their father saw their bags of money, they became afraid. 36 Jacob their father exclaimed to them: "It is I you have bereaved![h] Joseph is no more,[i] and Sim′e·on is no more,[j] and you are going to take Benjamin! It is upon me that all these things have come!" 37 But Reu′ben said to his father: "You may put to death my own two sons if I do not bring him back to you.[a] Give him over to my care, and I will return him to you."[b] 38 However, he said: "My son will not go down with you, because his brother is dead and he alone is left.[c] If a fatal accident should befall him on the journey you would make, then you would certainly bring down my gray hairs to the Grave*[d] in grief."[e]

43 Now the famine was severe in the land.[f] 2 So when they had finished eating the grain they had brought from Egypt,[g] their father said to them: "Return and buy a little food for us." 3 Then Judah said to him: "The man clearly warned us, 'You must not see my face again unless your brother is with you.'[h] 4 If you send our brother with us, we will go down and buy food for you. 5 But if you do not send him, we will not go down, for the man said to us, 'You must not see my face again unless your brother is with you.'"[i] 6 And Israel[j] asked: "Why did you have to bring this trouble on me by telling the man that you had another brother?" 7 They replied: "The man directly inquired concerning us and our relatives, saying, 'Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother?' and we told him these facts.[k] How could we possibly know that he would say, 'Bring your brother down'?"[l]

8 Judah then urged Israel his father: "Send the boy with me,[m] and let us go on our way so that we may live and not die[n]—we and you and our children.[o] 9 I will be a guarantee for his safety.*[p]

You may hold me responsible. If I fail to return him to you and present him to you, I will have sinned against you for all time. 10 But if we had not delayed, we could have been there and back twice by now."

11 So Israel their father said to them: "If it must be so, then do this: Take the finest products of the land in your bags* and carry them down to the man as a gift:[a] a little balsam,[b] a little honey, labdanum, resinous bark,[c] pistachio nuts, and almonds. 12 Take double the money with you; and also take back the money that was returned in the mouth of your bags.[d] Maybe it was a mistake. 13 Take your brother and go, return to the man. 14 May God Almighty grant you pity from the man, so that he may release to you your other brother and Benjamin. But as for me, if I must be bereaved, I will be bereaved!"[e]

15 So the men took this gift, and they took double the money in their hand and Benjamin. Then they rose and went on their way down to Egypt and again stood before Joseph.[f] 16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he at once said to the man who was over his house: "Take the men to the house and slaughter animals and prepare the meal, for the men are to eat with me at noon." 17 Immediately the man did just as Joseph had said,[g] and he took them to Joseph's house. 18 But the men became afraid when they were taken to Joseph's house, and they began to say: "It is because of the money that was returned in our bags the last time that we are being brought here. Now they will attack us and make us slaves and take our donkeys!"[h]

19 So they approached the man who was over Joseph's house and spoke to him at the entrance of the house. 20 They said: "Pardon us, my lord! We did come down the first time to buy food.[a] 21 But when we arrived at our lodging place and began opening our bags, why, here was the money of each one in the mouth of his bag, our money in full weight.[b] So we would like to return it personally. 22 And we have brought more money to buy food. We do not know who placed our money in our bags."[c] 23 Then he said: "It is all right. Do not be afraid. Your God and the God of your father put treasure in your bags. Your money came first to me." After that he brought out Sim'e·on to them.[d]

24 Then the man brought them into Joseph's house and gave them water for washing their feet, and he gave fodder for their donkeys. 25 And they prepared the gift[e] for Joseph's coming at noon, for they had heard that they were going to eat a meal there.[f] 26 When Joseph went into the house, they brought their gift to him into the house and prostrated themselves to him to the ground.[g] 27 After this he inquired about their welfare and said: "How is your aged father of whom you have spoken? Is he still alive?"[h] 28 To this they said: "Your servant our father is well. He is still alive." Then they bowed down and prostrated themselves.[i]

29 When he looked up and saw Benjamin his brother, the son of his mother,[j] he said: "Is this your brother, the youngest one of whom you have spoken to me?"[k] He added: "May God show you his favor, my son." 30 Joseph then hurried out, because he was overcome with emotion for his brother, and he looked for a place to weep. So he went into a private room and gave way to tears there.[a] 31 After that he washed his face and went out, now in control of himself, and he said: "Serve the meal." 32 They served him by himself and them by themselves, and the Egyptians with him ate by themselves, for the Egyptians could not eat a meal with the Hebrews, because that is a detestable thing to the Egyptians.[b]

33 The brothers* were seated before him, the firstborn according to his right as firstborn[c] and the youngest according to his youth, and they kept looking at one another in amazement. 34 He kept sending portions of food from his table to theirs, but he increased Benjamin's portion five times the size of the portions of all the others.[d] So they continued banqueting and drinking with him to the full.

44 Later he commanded the man who was over his house: "Fill the bags of the men with as much food as they can carry, and place the money of each one in the mouth of his bag.[e] 2 But you must place my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the bag of the youngest, along with the money for his grain." So he did as Joseph had instructed.

3 In the morning when it had become light, the men were sent away with their donkeys. 4 They had not gone far from the city when Joseph said to the man who was over his house: "Get up! Chase after the men! When you overtake them, say to them, 'Why have you repaid bad for good? 5 Is not this what my master drinks from and uses to read omens expertly? It is a wicked thing you have done.'"

6 So he overtook them and spoke these words to them.

7 But they said to him: "Why does my lord say such a thing? It is unthinkable that your servants would do anything like this. 8 Why, the money that we found in the mouth of our bags we brought back to you from the land of Ca'naan.[a] How, then, could we steal silver or gold from the house of your master? 9 If it is found with one of your slaves, let him die, and the rest of us will also become slaves to my master." 10 So he said: "Let it be as you say: The one with whom it is found will become my slave, but the rest of you will be innocent." 11 With that each one quickly lowered his bag to the ground and opened it. 12 He searched carefully, starting with the oldest and finishing with the youngest. Finally the cup was found in Benjamin's bag.[b]

13 Then they ripped their garments apart, and each of them lifted his load back onto his donkey and returned to the city. 14 When Judah[c] and his brothers went into Joseph's house, he was still there; and they fell to the ground before him.[d] 15 Joseph said to them: "What is this deed that you have done? Did you not know that a man like me can expertly read omens?"[e] 16 At this Judah replied: "What can we say to my master? What can we speak? And how can we prove ourselves righteous? The true God has found out the error of your slaves.[f] We are now slaves to my master, both we and the one in whose hand the cup was found!" 17 However, he said: "It is unthinkable for me to do this! The man in whose hand the cup was found is the one who will become a slave to me.[g] As for the rest of you, go up in peace to your father."

18 Judah now approached him and said: "I beg you, my master, please let your slave speak a word in my master's ears, and do not become angry with your slave, for you are like Phar'aoh himself.[a] 19 My master asked his slaves, 'Do you have a father or a brother?' 20 So we said to my master, 'We do have an aged father and a child of his old age, the youngest.[b] But his brother is dead,[c] so he is the only remaining son of his mother,[d] and his father loves him.' 21 After that you said to your slaves, 'Bring him down to me so that I may see him.'[e] 22 But we said to my master, 'The boy is not able to leave his father. If he did leave him, his father would certainly die.'[f] 23 Then you said to your slaves, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you may not see my face anymore.'[g]

24 "So we went up to your slave my father and told him the words of my master. 25 Later our father said, 'Return and buy a little food for us.'[h] 26 But we said, 'We are not able to go down. If our youngest brother is with us we will go down, for we cannot see the man's face unless our youngest brother is with us.'[i] 27 Then your slave my father said to us, 'You well know that my wife bore but two sons to me.[j] 28 But one of them left me and I said: "He must surely have been torn to pieces!"[k] and I have not seen him until now. 29 If you were to take this one also out of my sight and a fatal accident were to befall him, you would certainly bring down my gray hairs to the Grave*[l] with calamity.'[m]

30 "And now if I return to your slave my father without the boy along with us, since his own life* is bound up with this one's life,* 31 then as soon as he sees that the boy is not there, he will die, and your slaves will indeed bring down the gray hairs of your slave our father to the Grave* in grief. 32 Your slave gave a guarantee to my father for the boy, saying, 'If I fail to bring him back to you, then I will have sinned against my father forever.'[a] 33 So now, please, let your slave stay instead of the boy as my master's slave, in order that the boy may return with his brothers. 34 How can I return to my father without the boy along with me? I could not bear looking on when this calamity befalls my father!"

45 At this Joseph could no longer control himself before all his attendants.[b] So he cried out: "Have everyone leave me!" No one else stayed with him while Joseph made himself known to his brothers.[c]

2 Then he began to weep so loudly that the Egyptians heard it and Phar'aoh's house heard it. 3 Finally Joseph said to his brothers: "I am Joseph. Is my father still alive?" But his brothers were unable to answer him at all, because they were astonished on account of him. 4 So Joseph said to his brothers: "Come close to me, please." With that they came close to him.

Then he said: "I am Joseph your brother, whom you sold into Egypt.[d] 5 But now do not be upset and do not reproach one another because you sold me here; because God has sent me ahead of you for the preservation of life.[e] 6 This is the second year of the famine in the land,[f] and there are yet five years in which there will be no plowing or harvest. 7 But God sent me ahead of you in order to preserve for you a remnant[a] on the earth* and to keep you alive by a great deliverance. 8 So, then, it was not you who sent me here, but it was the true God, in order to appoint me as chief adviser* to Phar'aoh and lord for all his house and ruler over all the land of Egypt.[b]

9 "Return quickly to my father, and you must say to him, 'This is what your son Joseph has said: "God has appointed me lord over all Egypt.[c] Come down to me. Do not delay.[d] 10 You must dwell in the land of Go'shen,[e] where you will be near me—you, your sons, your grandsons, your flocks, your herds, and everything you have. 11 I will supply you with food there, for there are yet five years of famine.[f] Otherwise, you and your house and everything you have will come to poverty."' 12 You and my brother Benjamin can now see with your own eyes that I am really the one speaking to you.[g] 13 So you must tell my father about all my glory in Egypt and everything you have seen. Now hurry and bring my father down here."

14 Then he embraced* his brother Benjamin and gave way to weeping, and Benjamin wept with his arms around his neck.[h] 15 And he kissed all his brothers and wept over them, and after that his brothers spoke with him.

16 The news reached the house of Phar'aoh: "Joseph's brothers have come!" It was good in the eyes of Phar'aoh and his servants. 17 So Phar'aoh said to Joseph: "Tell your brothers, 'Do this: Load your beasts of burden and go to the land of Ca'naan, 18 and take your father and your households and come here to me. I will give you the good things of the land of Egypt, and you will eat* the richest# part of the land.'[a] 19 And you are commanded to tell them:[b] 'Do this: Take wagons[c] from the land of Egypt for your children and your wives, and you must bring your father on one of them and come here.[d] 20 Do not worry about your belongings,[e] for the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.'"

21 And the sons of Israel did so, and Joseph gave them wagons according to Phar'aoh's orders, and he gave them provisions for the journey. 22 To each of them he gave individual changes of clothing, but to Benjamin he gave 300 silver pieces and five changes of clothing.[f] 23 And to his father he sent the following: ten donkeys carrying good things of Egypt and ten female donkeys carrying grain and bread and sustenance for his father for the journey. 24 So he sent his brothers off, and as they departed, he said to them: "Do not become upset with one another on the way."[g]

25 Then they went up from Egypt and came into the land of Ca'naan to their father Jacob. 26 Then they reported to him: "Joseph is still alive, and he is the ruler over all the land of Egypt!"[h] But his heart grew numb because he did not believe them.[i] 27 When they went on telling him all the words that Joseph had spoken to them and when he saw the wagons that Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of their father Jacob began to revive. 28 Israel exclaimed: "It is enough! 46 So Israel took all that he had* and departed. When he arrived at Be'er-she'ba,[a] he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.[b] 2 Then God spoke to Israel in a vision by night and said: "Jacob, Jacob!" to which he said: "Here I am!" 3 He said: "I am the true God, the God of your father.[c] Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for there I will make you into a great nation.[d] 4 I myself will go down with you to Egypt, and I myself will also bring you back from there,[e] and Joseph will lay his hand on your eyes."*[f]

5 After that Jacob departed from Be'er-she'ba, and the sons of Israel transported Jacob their father and their children and their wives in the wagons that Phar'aoh had sent to transport him. 6 They took along their herds and their goods, which they had accumulated in the land of Ca'naan. And so they came into Egypt, Jacob and all his offspring with him. 7 He brought with him into Egypt his sons and his grandsons, his daughters and his granddaughters—all his offspring.

8 Now these are the names of Israel's sons who came into Egypt,[g] Jacob and his sons: Jacob's firstborn was Reu'ben.[h]

9 The sons of Reu'ben were Ha'noch, Pal'lu, Hez'ron, and Car'mi.[i]

10 The sons of Sim'e·on[j] were Jem·u'el, Ja'min, O'had, Ja'chin, Zo'har, and Sha'ul[k] the son of a Ca'naan·ite woman.

11 The sons of Le'vi[l] were Ger'shon, Ko'hath, and Me·rar'i.[m]

12 The sons of Judah[n] were Er, O'nan, She'lah,[o] Pe'rez,[p] and Ze'rah.[q] However, Er and O'nan died in the land of Ca'naan.[a]

The sons of Pe'rez came to be Hez'ron and Ha'mul.[b]

13 The sons of Is'sa·char were To'la, Pu'vah, Iob, and Shim'ron.[c]

14 The sons of Zeb'u·lun[d] were Se'red, E'lon, and Jah'le·el.[e]

15 These are the sons of Le'ah, whom she bore to Jacob in Pad'dan-a'ram, together with his daughter Di'nah.[f] All his sons and his daughters* numbered 33.

16 The sons of Gad[g] were Ziph'i·on, Hag'gi, Shu'ni, Ez'bon, E'ri, Ar·o'di, and A·re'li.[h]

17 The sons of Ash'er[i] were Im'nah, Ish'vah, Ish'vi, and Beri'ah, and their sister was Se'rah.

The sons of Be·ri'ah were He'ber and Mal'chi·el.[j]

18 These are the sons of Zil'pah,[k] whom La'ban gave to his daughter Le'ah. She bore these to Jacob: 16 persons* in all.

19 The sons of Jacob's wife Rachel were Joseph[l] and Benjamin.[m]

20 There were born to Joseph in the land of Egypt Manas'seh[n] and E'phra·im,[o] whom As'e·nath[p] the daughter of Poti'phe·ra the priest of On* bore to him.

21 The sons of Benjamin[q] were Be'la, Be'cher, Ash'bel, Ge'ra,[r] Na'a·man, E'hi, Rosh, Mup'pim, Hup'pim,[s] and Ard.[t]

22 These are the sons of Rachel who were born to Jacob: 14 persons* in all.

23 The son* of Dan[u] was Hu'shim.[v]

24 The sons of Naph′ta·li[a] were Jah′ze·el, Gu′ni, Je′zer, and Shil′lem.[b]

25 These are the sons of Bil′hah, whom La′ban gave to his daughter Rachel. She bore these to Jacob: seven persons* in all.

26 All those* who descended from Jacob and went into Egypt with him, aside from the wives of Jacob's sons, were 66.[c] 27 Joseph's sons who were born to him in Egypt were two.* All the people# of the house of Jacob who came into Egypt were 70.[d]

28 Jacob sent Judah[e] ahead to tell Joseph that he was on the way to Go′shen. When they came into the land of Go′shen,[f] 29 Joseph had his chariot prepared and went up to meet Israel his father at Go′shen. When he presented himself to him, he at once embraced him* and wept for some time.# 30 Then Israel said to Joseph: "Now I am ready to die; I have seen your face and know that you are still alive."

31 Joseph then said to his brothers and to his father's household: "Let me go up and report to Phar′aoh[g] and tell him, 'My brothers and my father's household who were in the land of Ca′naan have come here to me.[h] 32 The men are shepherds,[i] and they raise livestock,[j] and they have brought their flocks and their herds and all that they have.'[k] 33 When Phar′aoh calls you and asks, 'What is your occupation?' 34 you must say, 'Your servants have raised livestock from our youth until now, both we and our forefathers,'[l] so that you may dwell in the land of Go′shen,[m] for every herder of sheep is detestable to the Egyptians."[n]

47 So Joseph went and reported to Phar′aoh:[a] "My father and my brothers and their flocks and their herds and all that they possess have come from the land of Ca′naan, and they are in the land of Go′shen."[b] 2 He took five of his brothers and presented them to Phar′aoh.[c]

3 Phar′aoh said to his brothers: "What is your occupation?" They replied to Phar′aoh: "Your servants are herders of sheep, both we and our forefathers."[d] 4 Then they said to Phar′aoh: "We have come to reside as foreigners in the land[e] because there are no pastures for the flock of your servants, for the famine is severe in the land of Ca′naan.[f] So please let your servants dwell in the land of Go′shen."[g] 5 At that Phar′aoh said to Joseph: "Your father and your brothers have come here to you. 6 The land of Egypt is at your disposal. Have your father and your brothers dwell in the very best part of the land.[h] Let them dwell in the land of Go′shen, and if you know of any capable men among them, put them in charge of my livestock."

7 Then Joseph brought in Jacob his father and presented him to Phar′aoh, and Jacob blessed Phar′aoh. 8 Phar′aoh asked Jacob: "How old are you?" 9 Jacob said to Phar′aoh: "The years of my wanderings* are 130. Few and distressing the years of my life have been,[i] and they are not as long as the years of the lives of my forefathers during their wanderings."#[j] 10 After that Jacob blessed Phar′aoh and went out from before him.

11 So Joseph settled his father and his brothers, and he gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the very best part of the land, in the land of Ram′e·ses,[a] just as Phar′aoh had commanded. 12 And Joseph kept supplying his father and his brothers and the entire household of his father with food* according to the number of their children.

13 Now there was no food* in all the land, because the famine was very severe, and the land of Egypt and the land of Ca′naan became exhausted as a result of the famine.[b] 14 Joseph was collecting all the money that was to be found in the land of Egypt and in the land of Ca′naan for the grain that people were buying,[c] and Joseph kept bringing the money into Phar′aoh's house. 15 In time the money from the land of Egypt and the land of Ca′naan was spent, and all the Egyptians began coming to Joseph, saying: "Give us food! Why should we die before your very eyes because our money has run out?" 16 Then Joseph said: "If your money has run out, hand over your livestock, and I will give you food in exchange for your livestock." 17 So they began bringing their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph kept giving them food in exchange for their horses, the livestock of the flock and of the herd, and the donkeys, and he kept providing them with food in exchange for all their livestock during that year.

18 When that year came to its close, they began coming to him the next year and saying: "We will not hide from my lord that the money and the stock of domestic animals have already been given to my lord. We have nothing left for my lord but our bodies and our land. 19 Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land in exchange for food, and we together with our land will become slaves to Phar′aoh. Give us seed so that we may live and not die and that our land may not become desolate." 20 Joseph then bought all the land of the Egyptians for Phar′aoh because every Egyptian sold his field, for the famine was very severe; and the land became Phar′aoh's.

21 Then he moved the people into cities, from one end of the territory of Egypt to its other end.[a] 22 Only the land of the priests he did not buy,[b] because the rations for the priests were from Phar′aoh and they lived on their rations that Phar′aoh gave them. That is why they did not sell their land. 23 Then Joseph said to the people: "See, I have today bought you and your land for Phar′aoh. Here is seed for you, and you must sow the land with it. 24 When it produces, give a fifth to Phar′aoh,[c] but four parts will be yours as seed for the field and as food for you and for those in your houses and for your children to eat." 25 So they said: "You have preserved our lives.[d] Let us find favor in the eyes of my lord, and we will become slaves to Phar′aoh."[e] 26 Then Joseph made it a decree, which is valid until today over the land of Egypt, that a fifth belongs to Phar′aoh. It was only the land of the priests that did not become Phar′aoh's.[f]

27 Israel continued to dwell in the land of Egypt, in the land of Go′shen,[g] and they settled in it and were fruitful and increased greatly.[h] 28 And Jacob lived on in the land of Egypt for 17 years, so that the days of Jacob's life came to be 147 years.[i]

29 The time was approaching for Israel to die,[j] so he called his son Joseph and said: "If, now, I have found favor in your eyes, place your hand, please, under my thigh, and show loyal love and faithfulness to me. Please, do not bury me in Egypt.[a] 30 When I die,* you must carry me out of Egypt and bury me in the grave of my forefathers."[b] Accordingly, he said: "I will do just as you say." 31 Then he said: "Swear to me." So he swore to him.[c] At that Israel bowed down at the head of his bed.[d]

48 After these things, Joseph was told: "Look, your father is getting weak." At that he took his two sons Ma·nas'seh and E'phra·im with him.[e] 2 Then Jacob was told: "Here your son Joseph has come to you." So Israel gathered his strength and sat up on his bed. 3 And Jacob said to Joseph:

"God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Ca'naan and blessed me.[f] 4 And he said to me, 'I am making you fruitful, and I will make you many, and I will transform you into a congregation of peoples,[g] and I will give this land to your offspring* after you as a lasting possession.'[h] 5 Now your two sons who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt are mine.[i] E'phra·im and Ma·nas'seh will become mine just as Reu'ben and Sim'e·on are mine.[j] 6 But the children born to you after them will become yours. They will be called by the name of their brothers in their inheritance.[k] 7 As for me, when I was coming from Pad'dan, Rachel died[l] alongside me in the land of Ca'naan, while there was yet a good stretch of land before coming to Eph'rath.[m] So I buried her there on the way to Eph'rath, that is, Beth'le·hem."[n]

8 Then Israel saw Joseph's sons and asked: "Who are these?" 9 So Joseph said to his father: "They are my sons whom God has given me in this place."[a] At this he said: "Bring them to me, please, so that I may bless them."[b] 10 Now the eyes of Israel were failing from age, and he was unable to see. So Joseph brought them close to him, and he kissed them and embraced them. 11 Israel said to Joseph: "I never imagined I would see your face,[c] but here God has also let me see your offspring."* 12 Joseph then removed them from Israel's knees, and he bowed down with his face to the ground.

"The true God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked,[h]
The true God who has been shepherding me during all my life until this day,[i]
16 The angel who has been recovering me from all calamity,[j] bless the boys.[k]
Let my name be called upon them and the name of my fathers, Abraham and Isaac, Let them increase to a multitude in the earth."[l]

17 When Joseph saw that his father kept his right hand placed on E'phra·im's head, it was displeasing to him, so he tried to take hold of his father's hand to move it from E'phra·im's head to Ma·nas'seh's head. 18 Joseph said to his father: "Not so, my father, because this is the firstborn.[a] Put your right hand on his head." 19 But his father kept refusing and said: "I know it, my son, I know it. He too will become a people, and he too will become great. Nevertheless, his younger brother will become greater than he will,[b] and his offspring* will become the full equivalent of nations."[c] 20 So he continued to bless them on that day,[d] saying:

"Let Israel mention you when they pronounce blessings, saying,
'May God make you like E′phra·im and like Ma·nas′-seh.'"

Thus he kept putting E′phra·im before Ma·nas′seh.

of the powerful one of Jacob, from the shepherd, the stone of Israel. 25 He* is from the God

you, and he is with the Almighty, and he will bless you

27 "Benjamin[q] will keep on the evening he will divide spoil."[s] 28 All of these are the 12 tribes of Israel, and this is what their father said to them when he was blessing them. He gave each of them an appropriate blessing.[a] 29 After that he gave these commands to them: "I am being gathered to my people.*[b] Bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of E'phron the Hit'tite,[c] 30 the cave in the field of Mach·pe'lah in front of Mam're in the land of Ca'naan, the field that Abraham purchased from E'phron the Hit'tite

31 There they buried Abraham and his wife Sarah.[d] There they buried Isaac[e] and his wife Re-bek'ah, and there I buried Le'ah.
32 The field and the cave that is in it were purchased from the sons of Heth."[f]
33 Thus Jacob finished giving these instructions to his sons.
Then he drew his feet up onto the bed and breathed his last and was gathered to his people.*[g]

50 Joseph then threw himself on his father[h] and wept over him and kissed him. 2 Afcians embalmed Israel, 3 and they took the full 40 days for him, for this is the full period for the embalming, and the Egyptians continued to shed tears for him 70 days.

for him passed, Joseph spoke my father, after which I will return.'" 6 Phar'aoh replied: "Go and bury your father just as he made you swear."[a]

7 So Joseph went up to bury his father, and all of Phar'aoh's servants went with him, the elders[b] of his court and all the elders of the land of Egypt 8 and all of Joseph's household and his brothers and the household of his father.[c] Only their little children and their flocks and their herds they left in the land of Go'shen. 9 Chariots[d] and horsemen also went up with him, and the camp was very numerous. 10 Then they came to the threshing floor of A'tad, which is in the region of the Jordan, and there they carried on a very great and bitter mourning, and he kept mourning for his father seven days. 11 The inhabitants of the land, the Ca'naanites, saw them mourning at the threshing floor of A'tad, and they exclaimed: "This is a great mourning for the Egyptians!" That is why it was named A'belmiz'ra·im,* which is in the region of the Jordan.

12 So his sons did for him exactly as he had instructed them.[e] 13 His sons carried him into the land of Ca'naan and buried him in the cave of the field of Mach·pe'lah, the field in front of Mam're that Abraham had purchased from E'phron the Hit'tite as property for a burial place.[f] 14 After he buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt with his brothers and all those who had gone with him to bury his father.

15 When Joseph's brothers saw that their father was dead, they said: "It may be that Joseph is harboring animosity against us and that he will repay us for all the evil that we did to him."[a] 16 So they sent a message to Joseph in these words: "Your father gave this command before his death: 17 'This is what you are to say to Joseph: "I beg you, please pardon the transgression of your brothers and the sin they committed in bringing such harm to you."' Now, please, pardon the transgression of the servants of your father's God." And Joseph wept when they spoke to him. 18 Then his brothers also came and fell down before him and said: "Here we are as slaves to you!"[b] 19 Joseph said to them: "Do not be afraid. Am I in the place of God? 20 Although you meant to harm me,[c] God intended it to turn out well and to preserve many people alive, as he is doing today.[d] 21 So now do not be afraid. I will keep supplying you and your little children with food."[e] Thus he comforted them and spoke reassuringly to them.

22 And Joseph continued to dwell in Egypt, he and the household of his father, and Joseph lived for 110 years. 23 Joseph saw the third generation of E'phra·im's sons,[f] also the sons of Ma'chir,[g] Ma·nas'seh's son. They were born upon Joseph's knees.* 24 At length Joseph said to his brothers: "I am dying, but God will without fail turn his attention to you,[h] and he will certainly bring you up out of this land to the land about which he swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."[i] 25 So Joseph made the sons of Israel swear, saying: "God will without fail turn his attention to you. You must take my bones up out of here."[j] 26 And Joseph died at the age of 110, and they had him embalmed,[k] and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

1 Now these are the names of Israel's sons who came into Egypt with Jacob, each man who came with his household:[a] 2 Reu′ben, Sim′e·on, Le′vi, and Judah;[b] 3 Is′sa·char, Zeb′u·lun, and Benjamin; 4 Dan and Naph′ta·li; Gad and Ash′er.[a] 5 And all those* who were born to Jacob# were 70 people,^ but Joseph was already in Egypt.[a] 6 Joseph eventually died,[b] and also all his brothers and all that generation. 7 And the Israelites* became fruitful and began to increase greatly, and they kept on multiplying and growing mightier at an extraordinary rate, so that the land became filled with them.[c]

8 In time there arose over Egypt a new king, one who did not know Joseph. 9 So he said to his people: "Look! The people of Israel are more numerous and mightier than we are.[d] 10 Let us deal shrewdly with them. Otherwise, they will continue to multiply, and if a war breaks out, they will join our enemies and fight against us and leave the country."

11 So they appointed chiefs of forced labor* over them to oppress them with hard labor,[e] and they built storage cities for Phar'aoh, namely, Pi'thom and Ra·am'ses.[f] 12 But the more they would oppress them, the more they would multiply and the more they kept spreading out, so they felt sick with fear because of the Israelites.[g] 13 Consequently, the Egyptians forced the Israelites into harsh slavery.[h] 14 They made their life bitter with hard labor, as they worked with clay mortar and bricks and in every form of slavery in the field. Yes, they made them toil in harsh conditions in every form of slavery.[i]

15 Later the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives whose names were Shiph'rah and Pu'ah, 16 and he told them: "When you help the Hebrew women to give birth[j] and you see them on the stool for childbirth,* you must put the child to death if it is a son; but if it is a daughter, she must live." 17 However, the midwives feared the true God, and they did not do what the king of Egypt told them. Instead, they would keep the male children alive.[a] 18 In time the king of Egypt called the midwives and said to them: "Why have you kept the male children alive?" 19 The midwives said to Phar'aoh: "The Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women. They are lively and have already given birth before the midwife can come in to them."

20 So God dealt well with the midwives, and the people kept increasing and becoming very mighty. 21 And because the midwives had feared the true God, he later gave them families. 22 Finally Phar'aoh commanded all his people: "You are to throw every newborn son of the Hebrews into the Nile River, but you are to keep every daughter alive."[b]

2 About that time, a certain man of the house of Le'vi married a daughter of Le'vi.[c] 2 And the woman became pregnant and gave birth to a son. When she saw how beautiful he was, she kept him concealed for three months.[d] 3 When she was no longer able to conceal him,[e] she took a papyrus basket* and coated it with bitumen and pitch and put the child in it and placed it among the reeds by the bank of the Nile River. 4 But his sister[f] stood at a distance to see what would happen to him.

5 When Phar'aoh's daughter came down to bathe in the Nile, her female attendants were walking by the side of the Nile. And she caught sight of the basket in the middle of the reeds. She immediately sent her slave girl to get it.[g] 6 When she opened it, she saw the child, and the boy was crying. She felt compassion for him, but she said: "This is one of the children of the Hebrews." 7 Then his sister said to Phar'aoh's daughter: "Shall I go and call a nursing woman from the Hebrews to nurse the child for you?" 8 Phar'aoh's daughter said to her: "Go!" At once the girl went and called the child's mother.[a] 9 Phar'aoh's daughter then said to her: "Take this child with you and nurse him for me, and I will pay you." So the woman took the child and nursed him. 10 When the child grew older, she brought him to Phar'aoh's daughter, and he became a son to her.[b] She named him Moses* and said: "It is because I have drawn him out of the water."[c]

11 Now in those days, after Moses had become an adult,* he went out to his brothers to look at the burdens they were bearing,[d] and he caught sight of an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his brothers. 12 So he looked this way and that, and seeing no one, he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand.[e]

13 But he went out on the following day, and there were two Hebrew men fighting with each other. So he said to the one in the wrong: "Why do you strike your companion?"[f] 14 At this he said: "Who appointed you as a prince and a judge over us? Are you planning to kill me just as you killed the Egyptian?"[g] Moses now was afraid and said: "Surely the matter has become known!"

15 Then Phar'aoh heard about it, and he attempted to kill Moses; but Moses ran away from Phar'aoh and went to dwell in the land of Mid'i-an,[a] and he sat down by a well. 16 Now the priest of Mid'i-an[b] had seven daughters, and these came to draw water and to fill the troughs to water their father's flock. 17 But as usual, the shepherds came and drove them away. At this Moses got up and helped* the women and watered their flock. 18 When they came home to their father Reu'el,[c] he exclaimed: "How is it that you have come home so quickly today?" 19 They replied: "A certain Egyptian[d] rescued us from the shepherds, and he even drew water for us and watered the flock." 20 He said to his daughters: "But where is he? Why did you leave the man behind? Call him, so that he may eat with us." 21 After that Moses consented to stay with the man, and he gave his daughter Zip·po'rah[e] to Moses in marriage. 22 Later she bore a son, and he named him Ger'shom,[f] for he said, "I have become a foreign resident in a foreign land."[g]

23 After a long time,* the king of Egypt died,[h] but the Israelites continued to groan because of the slavery and to cry out in complaint, and their cry for help because of the slavery kept going up to the true God.[i] 24 In time God heard their groaning,[j] and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.[k] 25 So God looked on the Israelites; and God took notice.

3 Moses became a shepherd of the flock of his father-in-law Jeth'ro,[l] the priest of Mid'i-an. While he was leading the flock to the west side of the wilderness, he eventually came to the mountain of the true God, to

Ho′reb.[a] 2 Then Jehovah's angel appeared to him in a flame of fire in the midst of a thornbush.[b] As he kept looking, he saw that the thornbush was on fire, and yet the thornbush was not consumed. 3 So Moses said: "I will go over to inspect this unusual sight to see why the thornbush does not burn up." 4 When Jehovah saw that he went over to look, God called to him out of the thornbush and said: "Moses! Moses!" to which he said: "Here I am." 5 Then he said: "Do not come any nearer. Remove your sandals from your feet, because the place where you are standing is holy ground."

6 He went on to say: "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham,[c] the God of Isaac,[d] and the God of Jacob."[e] Then Moses hid his face, because he was afraid to look at the true God. 7 Jehovah added: "I have certainly seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and I have heard their outcry because of those who force them to work; I well know the pains they suffer.[f] 8 I will go down to rescue them out of the hand of the Egyptians[g] and to bring them up out of that land to a land good and spacious, a land flowing with milk and honey,[h] the territory of the Ca′naan·ites, the Hit′tites, the Am′or·ites, the Per′iz·zites, the Hi′vites, and the Jeb′u·sites.[i] 9 Now look! The outcry of the people of Israel has reached me, and I have seen also the harsh way that the Egyptians are oppressing them.[j] 10 Now come, I will send you to Phar′aoh, and you will bring my people the Israelites out of Egypt."[k]

11 However, Moses said to the true God: "Who am I that I should go to Phar′aoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?" 12 To this he said: "I will prove to be with you,[l] and this is the sign for you that it was I who sent you: After you have brought the people out of Egypt, you people will serve* the true God on this mountain."[a]

13 But Moses said to the true God: "Suppose I go to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your forefathers has sent me to you,' and they say to me, 'What is his name?'[b] What should I say to them?" 14 So God said to Moses: "I Will Become What I Choose* to Become."#[c] And he added: "This is what you are to say to the Israelites, 'I Will Become has sent me to you.'"[d] 15 Then God said once more to Moses:

"This is what you are to say to the Israelites, 'Jehovah the God of your forefathers, the God of Abraham,[e] the God of Isaac,[f] and the God of Jacob,[g] has sent me to you.' This is my name forever,[h] and this is how I am to be remembered from generation to generation. 16 Now go, and gather the elders of Israel and say to them, 'Jehovah the God of your forefathers has appeared to me, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and he said: "I have certainly taken notice of you[i] and of what is being done to you in Egypt. 17 So I say, I will take you away from affliction[j] at the hands of the Egyptians to the land of the Ca′naan·ites, the Hit′tites, the Am′or·ites,[k] the Per′izzites, the Hi′vites, and the Jeb′usites,[l] to a land flowing with milk and honey."'[m]

18 "They will certainly listen to your voice,[n] and you will go, you and the elders of Israel, to the king of Egypt, and you men should say to him: 'Jehovah the God of the Hebrews[o] has communicated with us. So, please, let us make a three-day journey into the wilderness so that we may sacrifice to Jehovah our God.'[a] 19 But I myself well know that the king of Egypt will not give you permission to go unless a mighty hand compels him.[b] 20 So I will have to stretch out my hand and strike Egypt with all my extraordinary acts that I will do in it, and after that he will send you out.[c] 21 And I will give this people favor in the eyes of the Egyptians, and when you go, you will by no means go empty-handed.[d] 22 Each woman must ask her neighbor and the woman lodging in her house for articles of silver and of gold as well as clothing, and you will put them on your sons and your daughters; and you will plunder the Egyptians."[e]

4 However, Moses answered: "But suppose they do not believe me and do not listen to my voice,[f] for they will say, 'Jehovah did not appear to you.'" 2 Then Jehovah said to him: "What is that in your hand?" He answered: "A rod." 3 He said: "Throw it on the ground." So he threw it on the ground, and it became a serpent;[g] and Moses fled from it. 4 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Reach out your hand and seize it by the tail." So he reached out and seized it, and it became a rod in his hand. 5 God then said: "This is so that they may believe that Jehovah the God of their forefathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob,[h] has appeared to you."[i]

6 Jehovah said to him once more: "Put your hand, please, into the upper fold of your garment." So he put his hand into the fold of his garment. When he drew it out, why, his hand was stricken with leprosy like snow![j] 7 Then he said: "Return your hand into the upper fold of your garment." So he returned his hand into his garment. When he drew it out of the garment, it was restored like the rest of his flesh! 8 He said: "If they will not believe you or pay attention to the first sign, then they will certainly heed the next sign.[a] 9 Still, even if they will not believe these two signs and refuse to listen to your voice, you will take some water from the Nile River and pour it out on the dry land, and the water that you take from the Nile will become blood on the dry land."[b]

10 Moses now said to Jehovah: "Pardon me, Jehovah, but I have never been a fluent speaker, neither in the past nor since you have spoken to your servant, for I am slow of speech* and slow of tongue."[c] 11 Jehovah said to him: "Who made a mouth for man, or who makes them speechless, deaf, clear-sighted, or blind? Is it not I, Jehovah? 12 So go now, and I will be with you as you speak,* and I will teach you what you should say."[d] 13 But he said: "Pardon me, Jehovah, please send anyone whom you want to send." 14 Then Jehovah's anger blazed against Moses, and he said: "What about your brother Aaron[e] the Levite? I know that he can speak very well. And he is now on his way here to meet you. When he sees you, his heart will rejoice.[f] 15 So you must speak to him and put the words in his mouth,[g] and I will be with you and him as you speak,[h] and I will teach you men what to do. 16 He will speak for you to the people, and he will be your spokesman, and you will serve as God to him.*[i] 17 And you will take this rod in your hand and perform the signs with it."[a]

18 So Moses went back to Jeth'ro his father-in-law[b] and said to him: "I want to go, please, and return to my brothers who are in Egypt to see whether they are still alive." Jeth'ro said to Moses: "Go in peace." 19 After that Jehovah said to Moses in Mid'i-an: "Go, return to Egypt, because all the men who were seeking to kill you* are dead."[c]

20 Then Moses took his wife and his sons and lifted them onto a donkey, and he started back to the land of Egypt. Moreover, Moses took the rod of the true God in his hand. 21 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "After you have returned to Egypt, see that you perform before Phar'aoh all the miracles that I have empowered you to do.[d] But I will allow his heart to become obstinate,[e] and he will not send the people away.[f] 22 You must say to Phar'aoh, 'This is what Jehovah says: "Israel is my son, my firstborn.[g] 23 I say to you, Send my son away so that he may serve me. But if you refuse to send him away, I am going to kill your son, your firstborn."'"[h]

24 Now on the road at the lodging place, Jehovah[i] met him and was seeking to put him to death.[j] 25 Finally Zip·po'rah[k] took a flint* and circumcised her son and caused his foreskin to touch his feet and said: "It is because you are a bridegroom of blood to me." 26 So He let him go. At that time she said, "a bridegroom of blood," because of the circumcision.

27 Then Jehovah said to Aaron: "Go into the wilderness to meet Moses."[l] So he went and met him at the mountain of the true God[m] and greeted him with a kiss. 28 And Moses told Aaron all the words of Jehovah, who had sent him,[a] and all the signs that He had commanded him to do.[b] 29 After that Moses and Aaron went and gathered all the elders of the Israelites.[c] 30 Aaron told them all the words that Jehovah had spoken to Moses, and he performed the signs[d] before the eyes of the people. 31 At this the people believed.[e] When they heard that Jehovah had turned his attention to the Israelites[f] and that he had seen their affliction,[g] they bowed down and prostrated themselves.

5 Afterward, Moses and Aaron went in and said to Phar'aoh: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says, 'Send my people away so that they may celebrate a festival to me in the wilderness.'" 2 But Phar'aoh said: "Who is Jehovah,[h] that I should obey his voice to send Israel away?[i] I do not know Jehovah at all, and what is more, I will not send Israel away."[j] 3 But they said: "The God of the Hebrews has communicated with us. Please, we want to make a three-day journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to Jehovah our God;[k] otherwise, he will strike us with disease or with the sword." 4 The king of Egypt replied to them: "Why is it, Moses and Aaron, that you are taking the people away from their work? Return to your labor!"*[l] 5 And Phar'aoh continued: "Look at how many people of the land there are, and you would have them rest from their labor."

6 That same day, Phar'aoh commanded the taskmasters and their foremen: 7 "You must no longer give straw to the people to make bricks.[m] Let them go and gather straw for themselves. 8 But you must still impose on them the same quota of bricks as they made in the past. Do not reduce it for them, for they are relaxing.* That is why they are crying out, 'We want to go, we want to sacrifice to our God!' 9 Make them work harder, and keep them busy so that they will not pay attention to lies."

10 So the taskmasters[a] and their foremen went out and said to the people: "Here is what Phar'aoh has said, 'I am giving you no more straw. 11 Go and get your own straw for yourselves wherever you can find it, but your work will not be reduced at all.'" 12 Then the people scattered throughout all the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw. 13 And the taskmasters kept urging them: "You must each finish your work every day, just as when straw was provided." 14 Also the foremen of the Israelites, whom Phar'aoh's taskmasters had appointed over them, were beaten.[b] They asked them: "Why did you not reach the quota of bricks that you used to make? It happened both yesterday and today."

15 So the foremen of the Israelites went in and complained to Phar'aoh: "Why are you treating your servants this way? 16 No straw is given to your servants, yet they are saying to us, 'Make bricks!' Your servants are beaten, but your own people are at fault." 17 But he said: "You are relaxing,* you are relaxing!*[c] That is why you are saying, 'We want to go, we want to sacrifice to Jehovah.'[d] 18 So now go, get back to work! No straw will be given to you, but you must still produce your quota of bricks."

19 Then the foremen of the Israelites saw that they were in serious trouble because of the order: "You must not reduce your daily quota of bricks at all." 20 After that they met up with Moses and Aaron, who were standing there to meet them as they came out from Phar'aoh. 21 At once they said to them: "May Jehovah look upon you and judge, since you have made Phar'aoh and his servants despise us* and you have put a sword in their hand to kill us."[a] 22 Then Moses turned to Jehovah and said: "Jehovah, why have you afflicted this people? Why have you sent me? 23 From the time that I went in before Phar'aoh to speak in your name,[b] he has dealt worse with this people,[c] and you have certainly not rescued your people."[d]

6 So Jehovah said to Moses: "Now you will see what I will do to Phar'aoh.[e] A mighty hand will force him to send them away, and a mighty hand will force him to drive them out of his land."[f]

2 Then God said to Moses: "I am Jehovah. 3 And I used to appear to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob as God Almighty,[g] but with regard to my name Jehovah[h] I did not make myself known to them.[i] 4 I also established my covenant with them to give them the land of Ca'naan, the land in which they lived as foreigners.[j] 5 Now I myself have heard the groaning of the people of Israel, whom the Egyptians are enslaving, and I remember my covenant.[k]

6 "Therefore, say to the Israelites: 'I am Jehovah, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians and rescue you from their slavery,[l] and I will reclaim you with an outstretched* arm and with

9 Moses later gave this message to the Israelites, but they did not listen to Moses because of their discouragement and because of the harsh slavery.[e]

10 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 11 "Go in and tell Phar'aoh, Egypt's king, that he should send the Israelites away out of his land." 12 However, Moses replied to Jehovah: "Look! The Israelites have not listened to me;[f] how will Phar'aoh ever listen to me, as I speak with difficulty?"*[g] 13 But Jehovah again told Moses and Aaron what commands to give to the Israelites and to Phar'aoh, Egypt's king, in order to bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt.

14 These are the heads of the house of their fathers: The sons of Reu'ben, Israel's firstborn,[h] were Ha'noch, Pal'lu, Hez'ron, and Car'mi.[i] These are the families of Reu'ben.

15 The sons of Sim'e·on were Jem·u'el, Ja'min, O'had, Ja'chin, Zo'har, and Sha'ul, the son of a Ca'naan·ite woman.[j] These are the families of Sim'e·on.

16 These are the names of the sons of Le'vi,[k] according to their family descents: Ger'shon, Ko'hath, and Me·rar'i.[l] The length of Le'vi's life was 137 years.

17 The sons of Ger'shon were Lib'ni and Shim'e·i, according to their families.[m]

18 The sons of Ko'hath were Am'ram, Iz'har, Heb'ron, and Uz'zi·el.[a] The length of Ko'hath's life was 133 years.

19 The sons of Me·rar'i were Mah'li and Mu'shi.

These were the families of the Levites, according to their family descents.[b]

20 Now Am'ram took Joch'e·bed, his father's sister, as his wife.[c] She bore him Aaron and Moses.[d] The length of Am'ram's life was 137 years.

21 The sons of Iz'har were Kor'ah,[e] Ne'pheg, and Zich'ri.

22 The sons of Uz'zi·el were Mish'a·el, El·za'phan,[f] and Sith'ri.

23 Now Aaron took E·li'sheba, Am·min'a·dab's daughter, the sister of Nah'shon,[g] as his wife. She bore him Na'dab, A·bi'hu, El·e·a'zar, and Ith'a·mar.[h]

24 The sons of Kor'ah were As'sir, El·ka'nah, and A·bi'asaph.[i] These were the families of the Kor'ah·ites.[j]

25 El·e·a'zar,[k] Aaron's son, took one of the daughters of Pu'ti·el as his wife. She bore him Phin'e·has.[l]

These are the heads of the paternal houses of the Levites, according to their families.[m]

26 This is the Aaron and Moses to whom Jehovah said: "Bring the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt, company by company."*[n] 27 It was they who spoke to Phar'aoh, Egypt's king, to bring the people of Israel out of Egypt. It was this Moses and Aaron.[o]

28 On that day when Jehovah spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt, 29 Jehovah told Moses: "I am Jehovah. Speak to Phar'aoh, king of Egypt, everything I am speaking to you." 30 Then Moses said before Jehovah:

7 Jehovah then said to Moses: "See, I have made you like God* to Phar'aoh, and Aaron your own brother will become your prophet.[b] 2 You are to repeat everything that I will command you, and Aaron your brother will speak to Phar'aoh, and he will send the Israelites away from his land. 3 As for me, I will allow Phar'aoh's heart to become obstinate,[c] and I will multiply my signs and my miracles in the land of Egypt.[d] 4 But Phar'aoh will not listen to you, and I will lay my hand upon Egypt and bring my multitudes,* my people, the Israelites, out of the land of Egypt with great judgments.[e] 5 And the Egyptians will certainly know that I am Jehovah[f] when I stretch out my hand against Egypt and bring the Israelites out from among them." 6 Moses and Aaron did what Jehovah had commanded them; they did just so. 7 Moses was 80 years old and Aaron was 83 years old when they spoke to Phar'aoh.[g]

8 Jehovah now said to Moses and Aaron: 9 "If Phar'aoh says to you, 'Perform a miracle,' then tell Aaron, 'Take your rod and throw it down before Phar'aoh.' It will become a big snake."[h] 10 So Moses and Aaron went in to Phar'aoh and did exactly as Jehovah had commanded. Aaron threw his rod down before Phar'aoh and his servants, and it became a big snake. 11 However, Phar'aoh summoned the wise men and the sorcerers, and the magic-practicing priests of Egypt[i] also did the same thing with their magic.*[j] 12 Each one threw down his rod, and they became big snakes; but Aaron's rod swallowed up their rods. 13 Still, Phar'aoh's heart became obstinate,[a] and he did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had said.

14 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Phar'aoh's heart is unresponsive.[b] He has refused to send the people away. 15 Go to Phar'aoh in the morning. Look! He is going out to the water! And you should station yourself to meet him by the edge of the Nile River; and take with you in your hand the rod that turned into a serpent.[c] 16 And you must say to him, 'Jehovah the God of the Hebrews has sent me to you,[d] and he says: "Send my people away so that they may serve me in the wilderness," but you have not obeyed until now. 17 This is what Jehovah says: "By this you will know that I am Jehovah.[e] Here I am striking the water that is in the Nile River with the rod that is in my hand, and it will turn into blood. 18 And the fish that are in the Nile will die, and the Nile will stink, and the Egyptians will find it impossible to drink water from the Nile."'"

19 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Say to Aaron, 'Take your rod and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt,[f] over its rivers, over its canals,* over its marshes,[g] and over all its reservoirs, that they may become blood.' There will be blood in all the land of Egypt, even in the wooden and stone containers." 20 Immediately Moses and Aaron did just as Jehovah had commanded. He lifted up the rod and struck the water that was in the Nile River before the eyes of Phar'aoh and his servants, and all the water that was in the river was turned into blood.[a] 21 And the fish that were in the river died,[b] and the river began to stink, and the Egyptians were unable to drink water from the Nile,[c] and there was blood throughout the land of Egypt.

22 Nevertheless, the magic-practicing priests of Egypt did the same thing with their secret arts,[d] so that Phar'aoh's heart continued to be obstinate, and he did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had said.[e] 23 Then Phar'aoh returned to his house, and he did not take this to heart either. 24 So all the Egyptians were digging all around the Nile for water to drink, because they could not drink any water of the Nile. 25 And seven full days passed after Jehovah struck the Nile.

8 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Go in to Phar'aoh and say to him, 'This is what Jehovah says: "Send my people away so that they may serve me.[f] 2 If you keep refusing to send them away, I will plague all your territory with frogs.[g] 3 And the Nile River will swarm with frogs, and they will come up and enter into your house, into your bedroom, on your bed, into the houses of your servants and on your people, into your ovens, and into your kneading troughs.*[h] 4 On you, on your people, and on all your servants, the frogs will come up."'"

5 Jehovah later said to Moses: "Say to Aaron, 'Stretch out your hand with your rod over the rivers, the Nile canals, and the marshes, and make the frogs come up over the land of Egypt.'" 6 So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs began to come up and to cover the land of Egypt. 7 However, the magic-practicing priests did the same thing by their secret arts, and they too made the frogs come up over the land of Egypt.[a] 8 Phar'aoh then called Moses and Aaron and said: "Plead with Jehovah to remove the frogs from me and my people,[b] as I want to send the people away so that they may sacrifice to Jehovah." 9 Then Moses said to Phar'aoh: "I leave to you the honor of telling me when I should plead to have the frogs removed from you, your servants, your people, and your houses. Only in the Nile River will they be left." 10 To this he said: "Tomorrow." So he said: "It will be according to your word so that you may know that there is no one else like Jehovah our God.[c] 11 The frogs will depart from you, your houses, your servants, and your people. They will be left only in the Nile."[d]

12 So Moses and Aaron went out from Phar'aoh, and Moses pleaded with Jehovah about the frogs that He had brought upon Phar'aoh.[e] 13 Then Jehovah did as Moses asked, and the frogs began to die in the houses, the courtyards, and the fields. 14 They were piling them up in countless heaps, and the land began to stink. 15 When Phar'aoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his heart[f] and he refused to listen to them, just as Jehovah had said.

16 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Say to Aaron, 'Stretch out your rod and strike the dust of the earth, and it must become gnats in all the land of Egypt.'" 17 And they did this. Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod and struck the dust of the earth, and the gnats came on man and beast. All the dust of the earth became gnats in all the land of Egypt.[g] 18 The magic-practicing priests tried to do the same and produce gnats by their secret arts,[a] but they could not. And the gnats came on man and beast. 19 So the magic-practicing priests said to Phar′aoh: "It is the finger of God!"[b] But Phar′aoh's heart continued to be obstinate, and he did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had said.

20 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Get up early in the morning and station yourself in front of Phar′aoh. Look! He is coming out to the water! And you must say to him, 'This is what Jehovah has said: "Send my people away so that they may serve me. 21 But if you do not send my people away, I will send on you, your servants, and your people and into your houses the gadfly;* and the houses of Egypt will be full of gadflies, and they will even cover the ground they# stand on. 22 On that day I will certainly set apart the land of Go′shen, where my people are dwelling. No gadflies will exist there,[c] and by this you will know that I, Jehovah, am here in the land.[d] 23 And I will make a distinction between my people and your people. Tomorrow this sign will take place."'"

24 And Jehovah did so, and heavy swarms of gadflies began to invade the house of Phar′aoh and the houses of his servants and all the land of Egypt.[e] The land was ruined by the gadflies.[f] 25 Finally, Phar′aoh called Moses and Aaron and said: "Go, sacrifice to your God in the land." 26 But Moses said: "It is not proper to do so, because what we would sacrifice to Jehovah our God would be detestable to the Egyptians.[g] If we would make a sacrifice that was detestable to the Egyptians right before their eyes, would they not stone us? 27 We will make a three-day journey into the wilderness, and there we will sacrifice to Jehovah our God, just as he has said to us."[a]

28 Phar′aoh now said: "I will send you away to sacrifice to Jehovah your God in the wilderness. Only, you must not go so far away. Plead in my behalf."[b] 29 Then Moses said: "Now I am going away from you, and I will plead with Jehovah, and the gadflies will depart from Phar′aoh, his servants, and his people tomorrow. But Phar′aoh must stop trifling* with us by refusing to send the people away to sacrifice to Jehovah."[c] 30 Moses then went out from Phar′aoh and pleaded with Jehovah.[d] 31 So Jehovah did according to Moses' word, and the gadflies departed from Phar′aoh, his servants, and his people. Not one was left. 32 However, Phar′aoh again hardened his heart and did not send the people away.

9 So Jehovah said to Moses: "Go in to Phar′aoh and say to him, 'This is what Jehovah the God of the Hebrews has said: "Send my people away so that they may serve me.[e] 2 But if you refuse to send them away and you keep holding them, 3 look! Jehovah's hand[f] will come against your livestock in the field. On the horses, the donkeys, the camels, the herd, and the flock, there will be a devastating plague.[g] 4 And Jehovah will certainly make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt, and nothing that belongs to the Israelites will die."'"[h] 5 Moreover, Jehovah set an appointed time, saying: "Tomorrow Jehovah will do this in the land."

6 And Jehovah did this on the very next day, and all sorts of livestock of Egypt began to die,[a] but not one of Israel's livestock died. 7 When Phar'aoh inquired, look! not so much as one of Israel's livestock had died. Nevertheless, Phar'aoh's heart continued to be unresponsive, and he did not send the people away.[b]

8 Jehovah then said to Moses and Aaron: "Fill both of your hands with soot from a kiln, and Moses must throw it into the air in front of Phar'aoh. 9 And it will become a fine dust on all the land of Egypt, and it will become festering boils on man and beast in all the land of Egypt."

10 So they took soot from a kiln and stood before Phar'aoh, and Moses tossed it into the air, and it became festering boils breaking out on man and beast. 11 The magic-practicing priests were unable to stand before Moses because of the boils, for they had developed on the magic-practicing priests and on all the Egyptians.[c] 12 But Jehovah allowed Phar'aoh's heart to become obstinate, and he did not listen to them, just as Jehovah had told Moses.[d]

Every man and beast caught in the field and not brought into the house will die when the hail comes down on them.'"'

20 Anyone among Phar'aoh's servants who feared Jehovah's word quickly brought his own servants and his livestock into the houses, 21 but whoever did not take Jehovah's word to heart left his servants and his livestock in the field.

22 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Stretch out your hand toward the heavens, so that hail may come down on all the land of Egypt,[b] on man and beast and all the vegetation of the field in the land of Egypt."[c] 23 So Moses stretched out his rod toward the heavens, and Jehovah sent thunder and hail, and fire* fell down to the earth, and Jehovah kept making it rain down hail on the land of Egypt. 24 There was hail, and there was fire flashing in the midst of the hail. It was very heavy; there had never been any like it in the land since Egypt had become a nation.[d] 25 The hail struck everything in the field throughout the land of Egypt, from man to beast, and it struck down all the vegetation and shattered all the trees of the field.[e] 26 Only in the land of Go′shen, where the Israelites were, there was no hail.[a]

27 So Phar′aoh sent for Moses and Aaron and said to them: "I have sinned this time. Jehovah is righteous, and I and my people are in the wrong. 28 Plead with Jehovah that there may be an end to God's thunder and hail. Then I will be willing to send you away, and you will not stay any longer." 29 So Moses said to him: "As soon as I go out of the city, I will spread out my hands before Jehovah. The thunder will stop and the hail will not continue any longer, so that you may know that the earth belongs to Jehovah.[b] 30 But as for you and your servants, I know already that even then, you will not fear Jehovah God."

31 Now the flax and the barley had been struck down, because the barley was in the ear and the flax had flower buds. 32 But the wheat and the spelt had not been struck down, because they were later crops.* 33 Moses now went out of the city from Phar′aoh and spread out his hands before Jehovah, and the thunder and the hail stopped and the rain quit pouring down on the earth.[c] 34 When Phar′aoh saw that the rain, the hail, and the thunder had stopped, he sinned again and hardened his heart,[d] he as well as his servants. 35 And Phar′aoh's heart continued obstinate, and he did not send the Israelites away, just as Jehovah had stated through Moses.[e]

10 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Go in to Phar′aoh, for I have allowed his heart and the hearts of his servants to become unresponsive,[f] so that I may display these signs of mine right before him,[a] 2 and in order that you may declare to your sons and your grandsons how severely I have dealt with Egypt and what signs I have performed among them;[b] and you will certainly know that I am Jehovah."

3 So Moses and Aaron went in to Phar′aoh and said to him: "This is what Jehovah the God of the Hebrews has said, 'How long will you refuse to submit to me?[c] Send my people away so that they may serve me. 4 For if you keep refusing to send my people away, here I am bringing locusts within your boundaries tomorrow. 5 And they will cover the surface of the earth, and it will not be possible to see the ground. They will eat up what escaped the hail and was left for you, and they will eat all your trees that are growing in the field.[d] 6 They will fill your houses, the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all Egypt to an extent that your fathers and your grandfathers never saw from the time they have been in this land until today.'"[e] With that he turned and went out from Phar′aoh.

7 Then Phar′aoh's servants said to him: "How long will this man continue to menace* us? Send the men away so that they may serve Jehovah their God. Do you not yet realize that Egypt has been ruined?" 8 So Moses and Aaron were brought back to Phar′aoh, and he said to them: "Go, serve Jehovah your God. But just who will be going?" 9 Then Moses said: "We will go with our young people, our old people, our sons, our daughters, our sheep, and our cattle,[f] because we will hold a festival to Jehovah."[g] 10 He said to them: "If I ever send you and your children away, then Jehovah is indeed with you![a] It is clear that you intend to do something evil. 11 No! Only your men may go and serve Jehovah, for that is what you requested." With that they were driven out from before Phar'aoh.

12 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, so that they may come up over the land of Egypt and eat up all the vegetation of the land, everything that the hail has let remain." 13 At once Moses stretched out his rod over the land of Egypt, and Jehovah caused an east wind to blow on the land all that day and all night. The morning came, and the east wind brought the locusts. 14 And the locusts came up over all the land of Egypt and settled down on the whole territory of Egypt.[b] It was extremely severe;[c] never before had there been so many locusts, nor would there ever be so many again. 15 They covered the surface of the entire land, and the land grew dark with them; they devoured all the vegetation of the land and all the fruit of the trees that the hail had left; nothing green was left on the trees or on the vegetation of the field in all the land of Egypt.

16 So Phar'aoh quickly called Moses and Aaron and said: "I have sinned against Jehovah your God and against you. 17 Now, please, pardon my sin just this once, and plead with Jehovah your God that he just remove this deadly plague from upon me." 18 So he* went out from Phar'aoh and pleaded with Jehovah.[d] 19 Then Jehovah caused the wind to shift, and it became a very stiff west wind, and it carried the locusts away and drove them into the Red Sea. Not a single locust remained in all the territory of Egypt. 20 However, Jehovah allowed Phar'aoh's heart to become obstinate,[a] and he did not send the Israelites away.

21 Jehovah then said to Moses: "Stretch out your hand toward the heavens so that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, a darkness so thick that it can be felt." 22 Moses immediately stretched out his hand toward the heavens, and there was a dense darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days.[b] 23 They did not see one another, and none of them got up from where they were for three days; but all the Israelites had light in their dwellings.[c] 24 Phar'aoh then called Moses and said: "Go, serve Jehovah.[d] Only your sheep and your cattle will remain behind. Even your children may go with you." 25 But Moses said: "You yourself will also provide us with* sacrifices and burnt offerings, and we will offer them to Jehovah our God.[e] 26 Our livestock will also go with us. Not an animal* will be allowed to remain, because we will be using some of them to worship Jehovah our God, and we do not know what we will offer in worship to Jehovah until we arrive there." 27 So Jehovah allowed Phar'aoh's heart to become obstinate, and he did not consent to send them away.[f] 28 Phar'aoh said to him: "Get out of my sight! Make sure that you do not try to see my face again, for on the day you see my face, you will die." 29 To this Moses said: "Just as you have spoken, I will not try to see your face again."

11 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "One more plague I am going to bring upon Phar'aoh and Egypt. After that he will send you away from here.[a] When he does send you away, he will literally drive you out of here.[b] 2 Now tell the people that all the men and women should ask their neighbor for articles of silver and of gold."[c] 3 And Jehovah gave the people favor in the eyes of the Egyptians. Moreover, Moses himself had become highly esteemed in the land of Egypt among Phar'aoh's servants and among the people.

4 Moses then said: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'About midnight I am going out into the midst of Egypt,[d] 5 and every firstborn in the land of Egypt will die,[e] from the firstborn of Phar'aoh who is sitting on his throne to the firstborn of the slave girl who is working at the hand mill, and every firstborn of the livestock.[f] 6 Throughout all the land of Egypt, there will be a great outcry such as has never occurred nor will ever occur again.[g] 7 But not even a dog will bark* at the Israelites, at the men or their livestock, so that you may know that Jehovah can make a distinction between the Egyptians and the Israelites.'[h] 8 And all your servants will certainly come down to me and prostrate themselves to me, saying, 'Go, you and all the people who follow you.'[i] And after that I will go out." With that he went out from Phar'aoh in the heat of anger.

9 Jehovah then said to Moses: "Phar'aoh will not listen to you,[j] in order for my miracles to be multiplied in the land of Egypt."[k] 10 Moses and Aaron performed all these miracles before Phar'aoh,[l] but Jehovah allowed Phar'aoh's heart to become obstinate, so that he did not send the Israelites away from his land.[m]

12 Jehovah now said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: 2 "This month will be the beginning of the months for you. It will be the first of the months of the year for you.[a] 3 Speak to the entire assembly of Israel, saying, 'On the tenth day of this month, they should each take for themselves a sheep[b] for their father's house, a sheep to a house. 4 But if the household is too small for the sheep, they* and their nearest neighbor should share it between themselves in their house according to the number of people.# When making the calculation, determine how much of the sheep each one will eat. 5 Your sheep should be a sound,[c] one-year-old male. You may choose from the young rams or from the goats. 6 You must care for it until the 14th day of this month,[d] and the whole congregation of the assembly of Israel must slaughter it at twilight.*[e] 7 They must take some of the blood and splash it on the two doorposts and the upper part of the doorway of the houses in which they eat it.[f]

8 "'They must eat the meat on this night.[g] They should roast it over the fire and eat it along with unleavened bread[h] and bitter greens.[i] 9 Do not eat any of it raw or boiled, cooked in water, but roast it over the fire, its head together with its shanks and its inner parts. 10 You must not save any of it until morning, but any of it left over until morning you should burn with fire.[j] 11 And this is how you should eat it, with your belt fastened,* sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you should eat it in a hurry. It is Jehovah's Passover. 12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt on this night and strike every firstborn in the land of Egypt, from man to beast;[a] and I will execute judgment on all the gods of Egypt.[b] I am Jehovah. 13 The blood will serve as your sign on the houses where you are; and I will see the blood and pass over you, and the plague will not come on you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.[c]

14 "'This day will serve as a memorial for you, and you must celebrate it as a festival to Jehovah throughout your generations. As a lasting statute, you should celebrate it. 15 Seven days you are to eat unleavened bread.[d] Yes, on the first day you are to remove the sourdough from your houses, because anyone eating what is leavened from the first day down to the seventh, that person* must be cut off# from Israel. 16 On the first day you will hold a holy convention, and on the seventh day, another holy convention. No work is to be done on these days.[e] Only what every person* needs to eat, that alone may be prepared for you.

17 "'You must keep the Festival of Unleavened Bread,[f] for on this very day, I will bring your multitudes* out of the land of Egypt. And you must keep this day throughout your generations as a lasting statute. 18 In the first month, on the 14th day of the month, in the evening, you are to eat unleavened bread until the 21st day of the month, in the evening.[g] 19 No sourdough is to be found in your houses for seven days, because if anyone eats what is leavened, whether he is a foreigner or a native of the land,[h] that person* must be cut off# from the assembly of Israel.[a] 20 You should not eat anything leavened. In all your homes, you are to eat unleavened bread.'"

21 Moses promptly called all the elders of Israel[b] and said to them: "Go and select young animals* for each of your families, and slaughter the Passover sacrifice. 22 Then you must dip a bunch of hyssop into the blood that is in a basin and strike the upper part of the doorway and the two doorposts with the blood; and none of you should go out of the entrance of his house until morning. 23 Then when Jehovah passes through to plague the Egyptians and sees the blood on the upper part of the doorway and on the two doorposts, Jehovah will certainly pass over the entrance, and he will not allow the plague of death* to enter into your houses.[c]

24 "You must observe this event as a lasting regulation for you and your sons.[d] 25 And when you come into the land that Jehovah will give you just as he has stated, you must keep this observance.[e] 26 And when your sons ask you, 'What does this observance mean to you?'[f] 27 you must say, 'It is the sacrifice of the Passover to Jehovah, who passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt when he plagued the Egyptians, but he spared our houses.'"

Then the people bowed low and prostrated themselves. 28 So the Israelites went and did just as Jehovah had commanded Moses and Aaron.[g] They did just so.

29 Then at midnight, Jehovah struck down every firstborn in the land of Egypt,[h] from the firstborn of Phar′aoh who was sitting on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the prison,* and every firstborn of the animals.[a] 30 Phar′aoh got up that night along with all his servants and all the other Egyptians, and there was a great outcry among the Egyptians, because there was not a house where someone was not dead.[b] 31 At once he called Moses and Aaron[c] by night and said: "Get up, get out from among my people, both you and the other Israelites. Go and serve Jehovah, just as you have said.[d] 32 Take also your flocks and your herds and go, just as you have said.[e] But you must also bless me."

33 And the Egyptians began to urge the people to depart quickly[f] out of the land "because," as they said, "we are all as good as dead!"[g] 34 So the people carried their flour dough before it was leavened, with their kneading troughs* wrapped up in their clothing on their shoulder. 35 The Israelites did what Moses had told them and asked the Egyptians for articles of silver and of gold as well as clothing.[h] 36 Jehovah gave the people favor in the eyes of the Egyptians, so that they gave them what they asked for, and they plundered the Egyptians.[i]

37 Then the Israelites departed from Ram′e·ses[j] for Suc′coth,[k] about 600,000 men on foot, besides children.[l] 38 And a vast mixed company*[m] also went with them, as well as flocks and herds, a great number of livestock. 39 They began to bake the dough that they brought from Egypt into round loaves of unleavened bread. It was not leavened, because they had been driven out of Egypt so suddenly that they had not prepared any provisions for themselves.[a]

40 The dwelling of the Israelites, who had dwelled in Egypt,[b] was 430 years.[c] 41 At the end of the 430 years, on this very day, all the multitudes* of Jehovah went out of the land of Egypt. 42 It is a night on which they will celebrate Jehovah's bringing them out of the land of Egypt. This night is to be observed to Jehovah by all the people of Israel throughout their generations.[d]

43 Then Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron, "This is the statute of the Passover: No foreigner may eat of it.[e] 44 But if someone has a slave man who was purchased with money, you should circumcise him.[f] Only then may he share in eating it. 45 A settler and a hired worker may not eat of it. 46 In one house it is to be eaten. You must not take any of the meat outside of the house, and you must not break any of its bones.[g] 47 All the assembly of Israel are to celebrate it. 48 If a foreigner resides with you and he wants to celebrate the Passover to Jehovah, every male of his must be circumcised. Then he may come near to celebrate it, and he will become like a native of the land. But no uncircumcised man may eat of it.[h] 49 One law will apply for the native and for the foreigner who is residing among you."[i]

50 So all the Israelites did just as Jehovah had commanded Moses and Aaron. They did just so. 51 On this very day, Jehovah brought the Israelites along with their multitudes* out of the land of Egypt.

13 Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 2 "Sanctify* to me every firstborn male# among the Israelites. The first male to be born, of both human and animal, belongs to me."[a]

3 Then Moses said to the people: "Remember this day on which you went out of Egypt,[b] from the house of slavery, because with a mighty hand Jehovah brought you out of here.[c] So nothing leavened may be eaten. 4 You are going out on this day, in the month of A'bib.[d] 5 When Jehovah has brought you into the land of the Ca'naanites, the Hit'tites, the Am'orites, the Hi'vites, and the Jeb'usites,[e] which he swore to your forefathers to give you,[f] a land flowing with milk and honey,[g] then you must keep this observance in this month. 6 Seven days you are to eat unleavened bread,[h] and on the seventh day, there will be a festival to Jehovah. 7 Unleavened bread is to be eaten for the seven days;[i] and nothing leavened is to be found with you,[j] and no sourdough is to be found with you within all your territory. 8 And you must tell your son on that day, 'It is because of what Jehovah did for me when I came out of Egypt.'[k] 9 And this will serve for you as a sign on your hand and as a memorial* on your forehead,#[l] so that Jehovah's law may be in your mouth, for with a mighty hand Jehovah brought you out of Egypt. 10 You must keep this statute at its appointed time from year to year.[m]

11 "When Jehovah brings you into the land of the Ca'naanites, which he has sworn to give to you and to your forefathers,[a] 12 you must devote to Jehovah every firstborn male,* as well as every male firstling of the livestock that you acquire. The males belong to Jehovah.[b] 13 Every firstling donkey you are to redeem with a sheep, and if you do not redeem it, then you must break its neck. And every firstborn male of your sons you are to redeem.[c]

14 "In case your son should ask you later on, 'What does this mean?' then you should say to him, 'With a mighty hand Jehovah brought us out of Egypt, from the house of slavery.[d] 15 When Phar'aoh stubbornly refused to send us away,[e] Jehovah killed every firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of man to the firstborn of beast.[f] That is why I am sacrificing to Jehovah all the firstborn males,* and I redeem every firstborn of my sons.' 16 This must serve as a sign on your hand and as a headband on your forehead,#[g] for with a mighty hand Jehovah brought us out of Egypt."

17 Now when Phar'aoh sent the people away, God did not lead them by the way of the land of the Phi·lis'tines, although it was near. For God said: "The people may change their minds when they are confronted by war and will return to Egypt." 18 So God made the people go around by the way of the wilderness of the Red Sea.[h] But it was in battle formation that the Israelites went up out of the land of Egypt. 19 Moses also took Joseph's bones with him, because Joseph had made the sons of Israel solemnly swear: "God will not fail to turn his attention to you, and you must take my bones up out of here with you."[a] 20 They departed from Suc'coth and encamped at E'tham, at the edge of the wilderness.

21 Now Jehovah was going ahead of them by day in a pillar of cloud to lead them along the way,[b] and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so that they could travel by day and by night.[c] 22 The pillar of cloud would not move away from before the people during the day, nor the pillar of fire at night.[d]

14 Jehovah now said to Moses: 2 "Tell the Israelites that they should turn back and encamp before Pi·ha·hi'roth, between Mig'dol and the sea, within view of Ba'al-ze'phon.[e] You are to encamp facing it by the sea. 3 Then Phar'aoh will say about the Israelites, 'They are wandering in confusion in the land. The wilderness has closed in on them.' 4 I will allow Phar'aoh's heart to become obstinate,[f] and he will chase after them, and I will glorify myself by means of Phar'aoh and all his army;[g] and the Egyptians will certainly know that I am Jehovah."[h] So that is what they did.

5 Later it was reported to the king of Egypt that the people had run away. Immediately, Phar'aoh and his servants had a change of heart regarding the people,[i] and they said: "Why did we do this and release Israel from serving as slaves for us?" 6 So he made his war chariots ready, and he took his people with him.[j] 7 He took 600 chosen chariots and all the other chariots of Egypt, with warriors on every one of them. 8 Thus Jehovah allowed the heart of Phar'aoh king of Egypt to become obstinate, and he chased after the Israelites, while the Israelites were going out with confidence.*[k] 9 The Egyptians chased after them,[a] and all the chariot horses of Phar'aoh and his cavalrymen and his army were catching up with them while they were camping by the sea, by Pi·ha·hi'roth, facing Ba'al-ze'phon.

10 When Phar'aoh got closer, the Israelites raised their eyes and saw the Egyptians pursuing them. The Israelites became terrified and began to cry out to Jehovah.[b] 11 They said to Moses: "Is it because there are no burial places in Egypt that you have brought us here to die in the wilderness?[c] What have you done to us by leading us out of Egypt? 12 Is this not the very thing we told you in Egypt when we said, 'Let us alone, so that we may serve the Egyptians'? For it is better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness."[d] 13 Then Moses said to the people: "Do not be afraid.[e] Stand firm and see the salvation of Jehovah that he will perform for you today.[f] For the Egyptians whom you see today, you will never ever see again.[g] 14 Jehovah himself will fight for you,[h] and you will keep silent."

15 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Why do you keep crying out to me? Tell the Israelites that they should break camp. 16 As for you, lift up your rod and stretch out your hand over the sea and divide it, so that the Israelites may go through the midst of the sea on dry ground. 17 As for me, I am allowing the hearts of the Egyptians to become obstinate, so that they will go in after them; thus I will glorify myself by means of Phar'aoh and all his army, his war chariots, and his cavalrymen.[i] 18 And the Egyptians will certainly know that I am Jehovah when I glorify myself by means of Phar'aoh, his war chariots, and his cavalrymen."[j]

19 Then the angel of the true God[a] who was going ahead of the camp of Israel departed and went to their rear, and the pillar of cloud that was in front of them moved to the rear and stood behind them.[b] 20 So it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel.[c] On the one side, it was a dark cloud. On the other side, it was lighting up the night.[d] So the one camp did not come near the other camp all night long.

21 Moses now stretched out his hand over the sea;[e] and Jehovah drove the sea back with a strong east wind all night long, turning the sea basin into dry ground,[f] and the waters divided.[g] 22 So the Israelites went through the midst of the sea on dry ground,[h] while the waters formed a wall on their right hand and on their left.[i] 23 The Egyptians pursued them, and all Phar'aoh's horses, his war chariots, and his cavalrymen began going after them into the midst of the sea.[j] 24 During the morning watch,* Jehovah looked at the camp of the Egyptians from within the pillar of fire and cloud,[k] and he threw the camp of the Egyptians into confusion. 25 He kept taking wheels off their chariots so that they were driving them with difficulty, and the Egyptians were saying: "Let us flee from any contact with Israel, because Jehovah is fighting for them against the Egyptians."[l]

26 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Stretch out your hand over the sea so that the waters may come back over the Egyptians, their war chariots, and their cavalrymen." 27 Moses at once stretched out his hand over the sea, and as morning approached, the sea returned to its normal condition. As the Egyptians fled from it, Jehovah shook the Egyptians off into the midst of the sea.[a] 28 The returning waters covered the war chariots and the cavalrymen and all of Phar'aoh's army who had gone into the sea after them.[b] Not so much as one among them was allowed to survive.[c]

29 But the Israelites walked on dry ground in the midst of the seabed,[d] and the waters formed a wall on their right hand and on their left.[e] 30 Thus Jehovah saved Israel on that day from the hand of the Egyptians,[f] and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. 31 Israel also saw the great power* that Jehovah wielded against the Egyptians, and the people began to fear Jehovah and to put faith in Jehovah and in his servant Moses.[g]

15 At that time Moses and the Israelites sang this song to Jehovah:[h]

"Let me sing to Jehovah, for he has become highly exalted.[i]
The horse and its rider he has hurled into the sea.[j]
2 My strength and my might is Jah,* since he has become my salvation.[k]
This is my God, and I will praise him;[l] my father's God,[m] and I will exalt him.[n]
3 Jehovah is a powerful warrior.[o] Jehovah is his name.[p]

And his finest warriors have sunk into the Red Sea.[r]

15:15 *A sheikh was a tribal chief. #Or "the despots."

22 Moses later led Israel away from the Red Sea, and they went out to the wilderness of Shur and marched on for three days in the wilderness, but they did not find water. 23 They came to Ma′rah,*[a] but they were not able to drink the water from Ma′rah because it was bitter. That is why he named it Ma′rah. 24 So the people began to murmur against Moses,[b] saying: "What are we to drink?" 25 He cried out to Jehovah,[c] and Jehovah directed him to a tree. When he threw it into the water, the water became sweet.

There He established for them a regulation and a case for judgment, and there He put them to the test.[d] 26 He said: "If you will strictly listen to the voice of Jehovah your God and will do what is right in his eyes and will pay attention to his commandments and keep all his regulations,[e] I will not bring upon you any of the diseases that I brought upon the Egyptians,[f] for I, Jehovah, am healing you."[g]

27 After that they came to E′lim, where there were 12 springs of water and 70 palm trees. So they camped there by the water.

16 After they departed from E′lim, the entire assembly of the Israelites eventually came to the wilderness of Sin,[h] which is between E′lim and Si′nai, on the 15th day of the second month after their departure from the land of Egypt.

2 Then the entire assembly of the Israelites began to murmur against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness.[i] 3 The Israelites kept saying to them: "If only we had died by Jehovah's hand in the land of Egypt while we were sitting by the pots of meat,[j] while we were eating bread to satisfaction. Now you have brought us out into this wilderness to put this whole congregation to death by famine."[a]

4 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Here I am raining down bread for you from the heavens,[b] and each of the people should go out to gather his amount day by day,[c] so that I may put them to the test to see whether they will walk in my law or not.[d] 5 But on the sixth day[e] when they prepare what they have gathered, it is to be double the amount that they pick up on each of the other days."[f]

6 So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites: "In the evening you will certainly know that it is Jehovah who brought you out of the land of Egypt.[g] 7 In the morning you will see Jehovah's glory, for he has heard your murmurings against Jehovah. Who are we that you should murmur against us?" 8 Moses continued: "When Jehovah gives you meat to eat in the evening and in the morning bread to satisfaction, you will see that Jehovah has heard your murmurings that you are murmuring against him. But who are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against Jehovah."[h]

9 Then Moses said to Aaron: "Tell the entire assembly of the Israelites, 'Come near before Jehovah, for he has heard your murmurings.'"[i] 10 As soon as Aaron had spoken to the entire assembly of the Israelites, they turned and faced toward the wilderness, and look! Jehovah's glory appeared in the cloud.[j]

11 Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 12 "I have heard the murmurings of the Israelites.[k] Tell them, 'At twilight* you will eat meat, and in the morning you will be satisfied with bread,[a] and you will certainly know that I am Jehovah your God.'"[b]

13 So that evening quail came and covered the camp,[c] and in the morning a layer of dew was all around the camp. 14 When the layer of dew evaporated, there was a fine, flaky substance on the surface of the wilderness,[d] as fine as frost on the ground. 15 When the Israelites saw it, they began to say to one another, "What is it?" for they did not know what it was. Moses said to them: "It is the bread that Jehovah has given you for food.[e] 16 This is what Jehovah has commanded, 'Each one should gather it according to how much he can eat. You are to take an omer measure*[f] for each individual according to the number of the people# that each of you has in his tent.'" 17 The Israelites began to do so; they gathered it, some gathering much and some gathering little. 18 When they would measure it by the omer, the one who had gathered much had no surplus and the one who had gathered little had no shortage.[g] They each gathered it according to what they could eat.

19 Then Moses said to them: "Nobody should leave any of it until the morning."[h] 20 But they did not listen to Moses. When some men left some of it until the morning, it bred worms and stank, and Moses became indignant at them. 21 They would pick it up morning by morning, each one according to what he could eat. When the sun got hot, it melted.

22 On the sixth day, they picked up twice as much bread,[i] two omer measures for each person. So all the chieftains of the assembly came and reported it to Moses. 23 At that he said to them: "It is what Jehovah has said. Tomorrow there will be a complete rest,* a holy sabbath to Jehovah.[a] Bake what you need to bake, and boil what you need to boil;[b] then save whatever is left over and keep it until the morning." 24 So they saved it until the morning, just as Moses had commanded, and it did not stink nor were there maggots in it. 25 Then Moses said: "Eat it today, because today is a sabbath to Jehovah. Today you will not find it on the ground. 26 You will pick it up for six days, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath,[c] there will be none." 27 However, some of the people did go out to pick it up on the seventh day, but they found nothing.

28 So Jehovah said to Moses: "How long will you refuse to keep my commandments and my laws?[d] 29 Take notice of the fact that Jehovah has given you the Sabbath.[e] That is why he is giving you the bread for two days on the sixth day. Everyone must stay where he is; nobody is to leave his locality on the seventh day." 30 So the people observed the Sabbath* on the seventh day.[f]

31 The house of Israel named the bread "manna."* It was white like coriander seed, and its taste was like that of flat cakes with honey.[g] 32 Then Moses said: "This is what Jehovah has commanded, 'Fill an omer measure of it as something to be kept throughout your generations,[h] so that they may see the bread that I gave you to eat in the wilderness when I was bringing you out of the land of Egypt.'" 33 So Moses said to Aaron:

"Take a jar and put in it an omer measure of manna and deposit it before Jehovah as something to be kept throughout your generations."[a] 34 Just as Jehovah commanded Moses, Aaron placed it before the Testimony[b] so that it might be preserved. 35 The Israelites ate the manna for 40 years,[c] until they came to a land that was inhabited.[d] They ate the manna until they came to the frontier of the land of Ca′naan.[e] 36 Now an omer is a tenth of an e′phah measure.*

17 The entire assembly of the Israelites departed from the wilderness of Sin[f] by stages according to the order of Jehovah,[g] and they camped at Reph′i-dim.[h] But there was no water for the people to drink.

2 So the people began quarreling with Moses[i] and saying: "Give us water to drink." But Moses said to them: "Why are you quarreling with me? Why do you keep putting Jehovah to the test?"[j] 3 But the people were very thirsty for water there, and they kept murmuring against Moses[k] and saying: "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to kill us and our sons and our livestock with thirst?" 4 Finally Moses cried out to Jehovah: "What should I do with this people? A little longer and they will stone me!"

5 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Go ahead of the people, and take with you some of the elders of Israel and your rod with which you struck the Nile River.[l] Take it in your hand and walk on. 6 Look! I will be standing before you there on the rock in Ho′reb. You must strike the rock, and water will come out of it, and the people will drink it."[m] Moses did so before the eyes of the elders of Israel. 7 So he named the place Mas′sah*[a] and Mer′i-bah#[b] because of the quarreling of the Israelites and because they put Jehovah to the test[c] by saying: "Is Jehovah in our midst or not?"

8 Then the A·mal′ek·ites[d] came and fought against Israel in Reph′i-dim.[e] 9 At this Moses said to Joshua:[f] "Choose men for us and go out to fight against the A·mal′ek·ites. Tomorrow I will stand on top of the hill, with the rod of the true God in my hand." 10 Then Joshua did just as Moses told him,[g] and he fought against the A·mal′ek·ites. And Moses, Aaron, and Hur[h] went up to the top of the hill.

11 As long as Moses kept his hands lifted up, the Israelites prevailed, but as soon as he would let down his hands, the A·mal′ek·ites prevailed. 12 When the hands of Moses were heavy, they took a stone and put it under him, and he sat on it. Then Aaron and Hur, one on each side, supported his hands, so that his hands remained steady until the sun set. 13 Thus Joshua defeated Am′a-lek and his people with the sword.[i]

14 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Write this as a memorial* in the book and repeat it to Joshua, 'I will completely wipe out the memory of Am′a·lek from under the heavens.'"[j] 15 Then Moses built an altar and named it Je·ho′vah-nis′si,* 16 saying: "Because his hand is against the throne of Jah,[k] Jehovah will have war with Am′a·lek from generation to generation."[l]

18 Now Jeth′ro the priest of Mid′i-an, Moses' father-in-law,[m] heard about all that God had done for Moses and for his people Israel, how Jehovah had brought Israel out of Egypt.[a] 2 Jeth′ro, Moses' father-in-law, had taken in Zippo′rah, Moses' wife, when she was sent back to him, 3 along with her two sons.[b] One son was named Ger′shom,[c] because Moses said, "I have become a foreign resident in a foreign land," 4 and the other was named E·lie′zer, because he said, "The God of my father is my helper, who rescued me from Phar′aoh's sword."[d]

5 So Jeth′ro, Moses' father-in-law, along with Moses' sons and his wife, came to Moses into the wilderness where he was camping at the mountain of the true God.[e] 6 Then he sent word to Moses: "I, your father-in-law Jeth′ro,[f] am coming to you with your wife and her two sons." 7 At once Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and he bowed down and kissed him. Each of them asked about the other's welfare, and then they went into the tent.

8 Moses related to his father-in-law all that Jehovah had done to Phar′aoh and Egypt in behalf of Israel,[g] all the hardships that had befallen them along the way,[h] and how Jehovah had delivered them. 9 Jeth′ro rejoiced over all the good that Jehovah had done for Israel by rescuing them from Egypt.* 10 Then Jeth′ro said: "Praised be Jehovah, who rescued you from Egypt and from Phar′aoh, and who rescued the people from under Egypt's control. 11 Now I know that Jehovah is greater than all the other gods,[i] because of what he did to those who acted arrogantly against his people." 12 Then Jeth′ro, Moses' father-in-law, brought a burnt offering and sacrifices for God, and Aaron and all the elders of Israel came to eat a meal with Moses' father-in-law before the true God.

13 On the next day, Moses sat down as usual to serve as judge for the people, and the people kept standing before Moses from morning until evening. 14 When Moses' father-in-law saw all that he was doing for the people, he said: "What is this that you are doing for the people? Why do you sit here alone with all the people standing before you from morning until evening?" 15 Moses said to his father-in-law: "Because the people keep coming to me to inquire of God. 16 When a case arises, it comes to me and I must judge between one person and the other, and I make known the decisions of the true God and his laws."[a] cases arise,* and they will bring every difficult case to you,[a] but every minor case they will decide. Make it easier for yourself by letting them share the load along with you.[b] 23 If you do this, and God so commands you, you will be able to stand the strain, and everyone will go home satisfied."

24 Moses immediately listened to his father-in-law and did all that he had said. 25 Moses chose capable men out of all Israel and appointed them heads over the people, as chiefs of thousands, chiefs of hundreds, chiefs of fifties, and chiefs of tens. 26 So they judged the people when cases arose. A difficult case they would bring to Moses,[c] but every minor case they would judge. 27 After that Moses saw his father-in-law off,[d] and he went his way to his land.

19 In the third month after the Israelites went out of the land of Egypt, on the same day, they came to the wilderness of Si'nai. 2 They pulled away from Reph'i·dim[e] and came to the wilderness of Si'nai and camped in the wilderness. Israel camped there in front of the mountain.[f]

3 Then Moses went up to the true God, and Jehovah called to him from the mountain,[g] saying: "This is what you are to say to the house of Jacob and to tell the Israelites, 4 'You have seen for yourselves what I did to the Egyptians,[h] in order to carry you on wings of eagles and bring you to myself.[i] 5 Now if you will strictly obey my voice and keep my covenant, you will certainly become my special property* out of all peoples,[j] for the whole earth belongs to me.[k] 6 You will become to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.'[l] These are the words that you are to say to the Israelites."

7 So Moses went and summoned the elders of the people and declared to them all these words that Jehovah had commanded him.[a] 8 After that all the people answered unanimously: "All that Jehovah has spoken, we are willing to do."[b] Moses immediately took the people's response to Jehovah. 9 And Jehovah said to Moses: "Look! I am coming to you in a dark cloud, so that the people may hear when I speak with you and so that they may always put faith in you as well." Then Moses reported the words of the people to Jehovah.

10 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Go to the people and sanctify them today and tomorrow, and they must wash their clothing. 11 And they must be ready for the third day, because on the third day Jehovah will come down upon Mount Si'nai before the eyes of all the people. 12 You must set boundaries for the people all around it and tell them, 'Beware of going up to the mountain or touching its border. Anybody touching the mountain will surely be put to death. 13 No hand is to touch him, but he will either be stoned or be shot through.* Whether beast or man, he will not live.'[c] But at the sound of the ram's horn[d] they may come up to the mountain."

14 Then Moses went down from the mountain to the people, and he began to sanctify the people, and they washed their clothing.[e] 15 He said to the people: "Get ready for the third day. Abstain from sexual relations."*

16 On the morning of the third day, there was thunder and lightning, and there was a heavy cloud[a] on the mountain and a very loud sound of a horn, and all the people in the camp began to tremble.[b] 17 Moses now brought the people out of the camp to meet the true God, and they took their place at the base of the mountain. 18 Mount Si′nai smoked all over, because Jehovah came down upon it in fire;[c] and its smoke was rising like the smoke of a kiln, and the whole mountain was trembling violently.[d] 19 As the sound of the horn grew louder and louder, Moses spoke, and the voice of the true God answered him.

20 So Jehovah came down upon Mount Si′nai to the top of the mountain. Then Jehovah called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.[e] 21 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Go down and warn the people not to try to force their way through to look at Jehovah, or many of them will perish. 22 And let the priests who regularly come near to Jehovah sanctify themselves, so that Jehovah may not strike* them."[f] 23 Moses then said to Jehovah: "The people are not able to come up to Mount Si′nai because you already warned us, saying, 'Set boundaries around the mountain, and make it sacred.'"[g] 24 However, Jehovah said to him: "Go, descend, and come back up, you and Aaron with you, but do not let the priests and the people force their way through to come up to Jehovah, so that he may not strike them."[h] 25 So Moses descended to the people and told them.

20 Then God spoke all these words:[i]

2 "I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.[a] 3 You must not have any other gods besides me.*[b]

4 "You must not make for yourself a carved image or a form* like anything that is in the heavens above or on the earth below or in the waters under the earth.[c] 5 You must not bow down to them nor be enticed to serve them,[d] for I, Jehovah your God, am a God who requires exclusive devotion,[e] bringing punishment for the error of fathers upon sons, upon the third generation and upon the fourth generation of those who hate me, 6 but showing loyal love to the thousandth generation of those who love me and keep my commandments.[f]

7 "You must not take up the name of Jehovah your God in a worthless way,[g] for Jehovah will not leave unpunished the one who takes up His name in a worthless way.[h]

8 "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it sacred.[i] 9 You are to labor and do all your work for six days,[j] 10 but the seventh day is a sabbath to Jehovah your God. You must not do any work, neither you nor your son nor your daughter nor your slave man nor your slave girl nor your domestic animal nor your foreign resident who is inside your settlements.*[k] 11 For in six days Jehovah made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and he began to rest on the seventh day.[l] That is why Jehovah blessed the Sabbath day and made it sacred.

12 "Honor your father and your mother,[m] so that you may live a long time in the land that Jehovah your God is giving you.[n]

18 Now all the people were witnessing the thunder and lightning, the sound of the horn, and the mountain smoking; and seeing this made them tremble and stand at a distance.[f] 19 So they said to Moses: "You speak with us, and we will listen, but do not let God speak with us, for fear that we will die."[g] 20 So Moses said to the people: "Do not be afraid, for the true God has come to put you to the test,[h] in order that the fear of him may continue with you so that you may not sin."[i] 21 So the people kept standing at a distance, but Moses went near to the dark cloud where the true God was.[j]

If he is the husband of a wife, then his wife must go out with him. 4 If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the wife and her children will become her master's, and he will go out by himself.[d] 5 But if the slave should insist and say, 'I love my master, my wife, and my sons; I do not want to be set free,'[e] 6 his master must bring him before the true God. Then he will bring him up against the door or the doorpost, and his master will pierce his ear through with an awl, and he will be his slave for life.

7 "If a man sells his daughter as a slave, she will not go free the same way that a slave man does. 8 If her master is not pleased with her and he does not designate her as a concubine but causes her to be purchased by someone else,* he will not be entitled to sell her to foreigners, for he has betrayed her. 9 If he selects her for his son, he is to grant her the rights of a daughter. 10 If he takes another wife for himself, the sustenance, the clothing, and the marriage due[f] of the first wife are not to be diminished. 11 If he will not render these three things to her, then she is to go free without paying any money.

23:26 *Or "I will make the number of your days full." 23:27 *Or "I will make all your enemies turn their back to you." 23:28 *Or possibly, "panic; terror."

31 "I will set your boundary from the Red Sea to the sea of the Phi·lis′tines and from the wilderness to the River;*[a] for I will give the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you will drive them out from before you.[b] 32 You must not make a covenant with them or their gods.[c] 33 They should not dwell in your land, so that they may not cause you to sin against me. If you should serve their gods, it would surely become a snare to you."[d]

24 Then he said to Moses: "Go up to Jehovah, you and Aaron, Na′dab and A·bi′hu,[e] and 70 of the elders of Israel, and bow down from a distance. 2 Moses should approach Jehovah by himself; but the others should not approach, and the people should not go up with him."[f]

3 Then Moses came and related to the people all the words of Jehovah and all the judicial decisions,[g] and all the people answered with one voice: "All the words that Jehovah has spoken, we are willing to do."[h] 4 So Moses wrote down all the words of Jehovah.[i] Then he got up early in the morning and built at the foot of the mountain an altar and 12 pillars corresponding to the 12 tribes of Israel. 5 After that he sent young Israelite men, and they offered up burnt offerings and sacrificed bulls as communion sacrifices[j] to Jehovah. 6 Then Moses took half of the blood and put it in bowls, and half the blood he sprinkled on the altar. 7 Then he took the book of the covenant and read it aloud to the people.[k] And they said: "All that Jehovah has spoken we are willing to do, and we will be obedient."[l] 8 So Moses took the blood and sprinkled it on the people[a] and said: "This is the blood of the covenant that Jehovah has made with you in harmony with all these words."[b]

9 Moses and Aaron, Na′dab and A·bi′hu, and 70 of the elders of Israel went up, 10 and they saw the God of Israel.[c] Under his feet was what seemed like a sapphire pavement, and it was as pure as the heavens themselves.[d] 11 He did not harm the distinguished men of Israel,[e] and they saw a vision of the true God and ate and drank.

12 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Come up to me on the mountain and stay there. I will give you the stone tablets with the law and the commandment that I will write for their instruction."[f] 13 So Moses got up with his attendant Joshua,[g] and Moses went up the mountain of the true God.[h] 14 But to the elders he had said: "Wait here for us until we return to you.[i] You have Aaron and Hur[j] with you. Whoever has a legal case may go to them."[k] 15 Then Moses went up the mountain while the cloud was covering it.[l]

16 Jehovah's glory[m] remained on Mount Si′nai,[n] and the cloud covered it for six days. On the seventh day he called to Moses from the midst of the cloud. 17 To the Israelites who were watching, the appearance of Jehovah's glory was like a consuming fire on the mountaintop. 18 Moses then entered into the cloud and went up the mountain.[o] And Moses stayed on the mountain 40 days and 40 nights.[p]

25 Jehovah then said to Moses: 2 "Tell the people of Israel to take up a contribution for me; from every person whose heart moves him, you are to take up my contribution.[q] 3 This is the contribution that you are to accept from them: gold,[r] silver,[s] copper,[t] 4 blue

29 "Aaron must carry the names of the sons of Israel on the breastpiece of judgment over his heart when he comes into the Holy as a constant memorial before Jehovah. 30 You will put the U′rim and the Thum′mim*[b] into the breastpiece of judgment, and they must be over Aaron's heart when he comes in before Jehovah, and Aaron must carry the means for making judgments of the Israelites over his heart before Jehovah constantly.

31 "You are to make the sleeveless coat of the eph′od entirely of blue thread.[c] 32 There will be an opening at the top* in the middle of it. Its opening should have a border woven all around it by a loom worker. It should be like the opening of a coat of mail, so that it will not be torn. 33 You should make pomegranates of blue thread, purple wool, and scarlet material all around its hem, along with bells of gold in between them. 34 You should alternate a bell of gold and a pomegranate, a bell of gold and a pomegranate, all around the hem of the sleeveless coat. 35 It must be worn by Aaron so that he may minister, and the sound from it must be heard when he goes into the sanctuary before Jehovah and when he comes out, so that he will not die.[d]

36 "You are to make a shining plate of pure gold and engrave on it as one would engrave a seal: 'Holiness belongs to Jehovah.'[a] 37 You must fasten it to the turban[b] with a blue cord; it is to remain on the front of the turban. 38 It will be on Aaron's forehead, and Aaron will bear responsibility when someone commits an error against the holy things,[c] which the Israelites sanctify when they offer them as holy gifts. It must always remain on his forehead, so that they may gain approval before Jehovah.

39 "You are to weave the checkered robe of fine linen, make a turban of fine linen, and make a woven sash.[d]

40 "You will also make robes, sashes, and headgear for Aaron's sons,[e] for glory and beauty.[f] 41 You will clothe your brother Aaron and his sons with him, and you are to anoint them[g] and install them*[h] and sanctify them, and they will serve as priests to me. 42 Also make linen shorts* for them to cover their naked flesh.[i] These are to extend from the hips to the thighs. 43 These must be worn by Aaron and his sons when they come into the tent of meeting or when they approach the altar to minister in the holy place, so that they may not incur guilt and die. It is a permanent statute for him and his offspring* after him.

29 "This is what you are to do to sanctify them to serve as priests to me: Take a young bull, two unblemished rams,[j] 2 unleavened bread, unleavened ring-shaped loaves mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers spread with oil.[k] You are to make them with fine wheat flour 3 and put them in a basket and present them in the basket,[l] along with the bull and the two rams.

34 Then Jehovah said to Moses: “Take equal portions of these perfumes:[a] stacte drops, onycha, perfumed galbanum, and pure frankincense. 35 Make it into an incense;[b] the spice mixture should be skillfully blended,* salted,[c] pure, and holy. 36 You are to pound some of it into fine powder and put some of it before the Testimony in the tent of meeting, where I will present myself to you. 31 Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 2 “See, I have chosen* Bez′al-el[e] the son of U′ri the son of Hur of the tribe of Judah.[f] 3 I will fill him with the spirit of God, giving him wisdom, understanding, and knowledge of every kind of craftsmanship, 4 for making artistic designs, for working with gold, silver, and copper, 5 for cutting and setting stones,[g] and for making every kind of wood product.[h] 6 Moreover, to assist him I have appointed O·ho′li·ab[i] the son of A·his′a·mach of the tribe of Dan, and I am putting wisdom into the heart of all those who are skillful,* so that they may make everything I have commanded you:[j] 7 the tent of meeting,[k] the ark of the Testimony[l] and the cover[m] that is on it, all the utensils of the tent, 8 the table[n] and its utensils, the lampstand of pure gold and all its utensils,[o] the altar of incense,[p] 9 the altar of burnt offering[q] and all its

12 Jehovah said further to Moses: 13 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them, 'Especially, you are to keep my sabbaths,[d] for it is a sign between me and you during your generations in order that you may know that I, Jehovah, am sanctifying you. 14 You must keep the Sabbath, for it is something holy to you.[e] Whoever profanes it must be put to death. It is a lasting covenant. 17 It is an enduring sign between me and the people of Israel,[h] for in six days Jehovah made the heavens and the earth and on the seventh day he rested and refreshed himself.'"[i]

18 Now as soon as he had finished speaking with him on Mount Si'nai, he gave Moses two tablets of the Testimony,[j] tablets of stone written on by God's finger.[k]

32 Meanwhile, the people saw that Moses was taking a long time coming down from the mountain.[l] So the people gathered around Aaron and said to him: "Get up, make for us a god who will go ahead of us,[m] because we do not know what has happened to this Moses, the man who led us up out of the land of Egypt." 2 At this Aaron said to them: "Take the gold earrings[a] from the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters and bring them to me." 3 So all the people began taking off the gold earrings that were in their ears and bringing them to Aaron. 4 Then he took the gold from them, and he formed it with an engraving tool and made it into a statue* of a calf.[b] They began to say: "This is your God, O Israel, who led you up out of the land of Egypt."[c]

5 When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it. Then Aaron called out: "There is a festival to Jehovah tomorrow." 6 So they got up early on the next day and began offering up burnt offerings and presenting communion sacrifices. After that the people sat down to eat and drink. Then they got up to have a good time.[d]

7 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Go, descend, because your people, whom you led up out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves.[e] 8 They have quickly deviated from the way I commanded them to go.[f] They have made for themselves a statue* of a calf, and they keep bowing down to it and sacrificing to it and saying, 'This is your God, O Israel, who led you up out of the land of Egypt.'" 9 Jehovah went on to say to Moses: "I have seen that this is an obstinate* people.[g] 10 So now let me be, and I will exterminate them in my burning anger, and let me make a great nation from you instead."[h]

32:4, 8 *Or "molten statue." 32:9 *Lit., "stiff-necked." 32:11 *Or "softened the face of."

O Jehovah, should you turn your burning anger against your people after bringing them out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand?[a] 12 Why should the Egyptians say, 'He had evil intentions when he led them out. He wanted to kill them in the mountains and exterminate them from the surface of the earth'?[b] Turn from your burning anger and reconsider* your decision to bring this calamity on your people. 13 Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, to whom you swore by yourself and said: 'I will multiply your offspring* like the stars of the heavens,[c] and I will give all this land that I have designated to your offspring,* so that they may take it as a permanent possession.'"[d]

14 So Jehovah began to reconsider* the calamity that he had spoken of bringing on his people.[e]

15 Moses then turned and went down from the mountain with the two tablets of the Testimony[f] in his hand.[g] The tablets were inscribed on both sides; they were written on the front and on the back. 16 The tablets were the workmanship of God, and the writing was the writing of God engraved on the tablets.[h] 17 When Joshua began to hear the noise of the people because of their shouting, he said to Moses: "There is the sound of battle in the camp." 18 But Moses said:

"It is not the sound of singing over a victory,*
And it is not the sound of wailing over a defeat;
I hear the sound of another kind of singing."

32:12 *Or "feel regret over." 32:13 *Lit., "seed." 32:14 *Or "felt regret over." 32:18 *Or "a mighty act."

19 As soon as Moses got near the camp and saw the calf[a] and the dances, his anger began to blaze, and he threw the tablets from his hands and shattered them at the foot of the mountain.[b] 20 He took the calf that they had made and he burned it with fire and crushed it into powder;[c] then he scattered it on the water and made the Israelites drink it.[d] 21 And Moses said to Aaron: "What did this people do to you that you have brought a great sin upon them?" 22 Aaron replied: "Do not be enraged, my lord. You well know that the people are inclined to do evil.[e] 23 So they said to me, 'Make for us a god who will go ahead of us, for we do not know what has happened to this Moses, the man who led us up out of the land of Egypt.'[f] 24 So I said to them, 'Whoever has any gold must take it off and give it to me.' Then I threw it into the fire and out came this calf."

25 Moses saw that the people were unrestrained, for Aaron had let them go unrestrained, so that they were a disgrace before their opposers. 26 Then Moses took his position in the gate of the camp and said: "Who is on Jehovah's side? Come to me!"[g] And all the Levites gathered around him. 27 He now said to them: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel has said, 'Each of you must fasten on his sword and pass through all the camp from gate to gate, killing his brother, his neighbor, and his close companion.'"[h] 28 The Levites did what Moses said. So about 3,000 men were killed on that day. 29 Then Moses said: "Set yourselves apart* for Jehovah today, for each of you has gone against his own son and his own brother;[i] today he will give you a blessing."[j]

32:29 *Lit., "Fill your hand."

30 On the very next day, Moses said to the people: "You committed a very great sin, and now I will go up to Jehovah to see if I can make amends for your sin."[a] 31 So Moses returned to Jehovah and said: "What a great sin this people has committed! They made themselves a god of gold![b] 32 But now if you are willing, pardon their sin;[c] if not, please wipe me out from your book that you have written."[d] 33 However, Jehovah said to Moses: "Whoever has sinned against me, I will wipe him out of my book. 34 Go now, lead the people to the place about which I have spoken to you. Look! My angel will go ahead of you,[e] and on the day when I make an accounting, I will bring punishment on them for their sin." 35 Then Jehovah began plaguing the people because they had made the calf, the one that Aaron had made.

33 Jehovah said further to Moses: "Go on your way from here with the people whom you led up out of the land of Egypt. Journey to the land about which I swore to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, saying, 'To your offspring* I will give it.'[f] 2 I will send an angel ahead of you[g] and drive out the Ca'naan·ites, the Am'or·ites, the Hit'tites, the Per'iz·zites, the Hi'vites, and the Jeb'u·sites.[h] 3 Go up to a land flowing with milk and honey.[i] But I will not go in the midst of you, for you are an obstinate* people,[j] and I might exterminate you on the way."[k]

4 When the people heard this harsh word, they began to mourn, and not one of them put on his ornaments. 5 Jehovah said to Moses: "Say to the Israelites, 'You are an obstinate* people.[l] In one moment I could go through the midst of you and exterminate you.[a] So now keep your ornaments off while I consider what to do to you.'" 6 So from Mount Ho'reb onward, the Israelites refrained from wearing* their ornaments.

7 Now Moses took his tent and pitched it outside the camp, at some distance from the camp, and he called it a tent of meeting. Everyone inquiring of Jehovah[b] would go out to the tent of meeting, which was outside the camp. 8 As soon as Moses went out to the tent, all the people would rise and stand at the entrance of their own tents, and they would gaze after Moses until he entered into the tent. 9 As soon as Moses would go into the tent, the pillar of cloud[c] would come down and stand at the entrance of the tent while God spoke with Moses.[d] 10 When all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance of the tent, each of them rose and bowed down at the entrance of his own tent. 11 Jehovah spoke to Moses face-to-face,[e] just as one man would speak to another man. When he returned to the camp, Joshua[f] the son of Nun, his minister and attendant,[g] would not depart from the tent.

12 Now Moses said to Jehovah: "See, you are saying to me, 'Lead this people up,' but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. Moreover, you have said, 'I know you by name,* and you have also found favor in my eyes.' 13 Please, if I have found favor in your eyes, make me know your ways,[h] so that I may know you and continue to find favor in your eyes. Consider, too, that this nation is your people."[i] 14 So he said: "I my-

Is it not by your going along with us,[c] so that I and your people will be distinguished from every other people on the face of the earth?"[d]

17 Jehovah went on to say to Moses: "I will also do this thing that you request, because you have found favor in my eyes and I know you by name." 18 Then he said: "Please show me your glory." 19 But he said: "I will make all my goodness pass before your face, and I will declare before you the name of Jehovah;[e] and I will favor the one whom I favor, and I will show mercy to the one to whom I show mercy."[f] 20 But he added: "You cannot see my face, for no man can see me and live."

21 Jehovah said further: "Here is a place near me. Station yourself on the rock. 22 When my glory is passing by, I will place you in a crevice of the rock, and I will shield you with my hand until I have passed by. 23 After that I will take my hand away, and you will see my back. But my face may not be seen."[g]

34 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Carve out for yourself two tablets of stone like the first ones,[h] and I will write on the tablets the words that appeared on the first tablets,[i] which you shattered.[j] 2 Get ready for the morning, as you will go up in the morning to Mount Si'nai and station yourself before me there on the top of the mountain.[k] 3 But nobody may go up with you, and nobody else should be seen anywhere on the mountain. Not even the flocks or herds should graze in front of that mountain."[a]

4 So Moses carved out two tablets of stone like the first ones and got up early in the morning and went up Mount Si'nai, just as Jehovah had commanded him, and he took the two tablets of stone in his hand. 5 Then Jehovah came down[b] in the cloud and stationed himself with him there and declared the name of Jehovah.[c] 6 Jehovah was passing before him and declaring: "Jehovah, Jehovah, a God merciful[d] and compassionate,*[e] slow to anger[f] and abundant in loyal love#[g] and truth,△[h] 7 showing loyal love to thousands,[i] pardoning error and transgression and sin,[j] but he will by no means leave the guilty unpunished,[k] bringing punishment for the error of fathers upon sons and upon grandsons, upon the third generation and upon the fourth generation."[l]

8 Moses hurried to bow low to the earth and prostrate himself. 9 Then he said: "If, now, I have found favor in your eyes, O Jehovah, then please, Jehovah, go along with us in our midst,[m] although we are an obstinate* people,[n] and forgive our error and our sin,[o] and take us as your own possession." 10 In turn he said: "Here I am making a covenant: Before all your people, I will do wonderful things that have never been done* in all the earth or among all the nations,[p] and all the people among whom you live will see the work of Jehovah, for it is an awe-inspiring thing that I am doing with you.[q]

29 Moses then came down from Mount Si′nai, and the two tablets of the Testimony were in his hand.[a] When he came down from the mountain, Moses did not know that the skin of his face was emitting rays because he had been speaking with God. 30 When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, they noticed that the skin of his face emitted rays and they were afraid to go near him.[b]

31 But Moses called to them, so Aaron and all the chieftains of the assembly came to him, and Moses spoke with them. 32 After that all the Israelites came near to him, and he gave them all the commands that Jehovah had given him on Mount Si′nai.[c] 33 When Moses would finish speaking with them, he would put a veil over his face.[d] 34 But when Moses would go in before Jehovah to speak with him, he would take off the veil until he went out.[e] Then he went out and revealed to the Israelites the commands he had received.[f] 35 And the Israelites saw that the skin of Moses' face emitted rays; then Moses put the veil back over his face until he went in to speak with God.*[g]

35 Moses later gathered the entire assembly of the Israelites together and said to them: "These are the things that Jehovah has commanded to be done:[h] 2 Work may be done for six days, but the seventh day will become something holy to you, a sabbath of complete rest to Jehovah.[i] Anybody doing work on it will be put to death.[j] 3 You must not light a fire in any of your dwelling places on the Sabbath day."

before Moses. 21 Then everyone whose heart impelled him[a] and everyone whose spirit incited him came and brought their contribution for Jehovah to be used for the tent of meeting, for all its service, and for the holy garments. 22 They kept coming, the men along with the women, each with a willing heart, bringing brooches, earrings, rings, and other jewelry, as well as all sorts of articles of gold. They all presented their offerings* of gold to Jehovah.[b] 23 And all who had blue thread, purple wool, scarlet material, fine linen, goat hair, ram skins dyed red, and sealskins brought them. 24 All those contributing silver and copper brought Jehovah's contribution, and all who had acacia wood for any part of the work brought it.

25 All the skilled women[c] spun with their hands, and they brought what they had spun: blue thread, purple wool, scarlet material, and fine linen. 26 And all the skilled women whose hearts impelled them spun the goat hair.

27 And the chieftains brought onyx stones and other stones to be set in the eph'od and the breastpiece,[d] 28 and the balsam and the oil for lighting and for the anointing oil[e] and for the perfumed incense.[f] 29 All the men and women whose hearts incited them brought something for the work that Jehovah, through Moses, had commanded to be done; the Israelites brought it as a voluntary offering to Jehovah.[g]

30 Then Moses said to the Israelites: "See, Jehovah has chosen Bez'al·el the son of U'ri the son of Hur of the tribe of Judah.[h] 31 He has filled him with the spirit of God, giving him wisdom, understanding, and knowledge of every sort of craftsmanship 32 for making artistic designs, for working with gold, silver, and copper, 33 for cutting and setting stones, and for making all kinds of artistic wood products. 34 And he has put it into his heart to teach, he and O·ho'li·ab[a] the son of A·his'a·mach of the tribe of Dan. 35 He has filled them with skill*[b] to do all the work of a craftsman, an embroiderer, and a weaver using blue thread, purple wool, scarlet material, and fine linen, and of a loom worker. 36 "Bez'al·el will work along with O·ho'li·ab and every skilled man* to whom Jehovah has given wisdom and understanding so as to know how to do all the work of the holy service just as Jehovah has commanded."[c]

2 Moses then called Bez'al·el and O·ho'li·ab and every skilled man into whose heart Jehovah had put wisdom,[d] everyone whose heart impelled him to volunteer to do the work.[e] 3 Then they took from Moses all the contribution[f] that the Israelites had brought for the work of the holy service. However, these continued to bring him voluntary offerings, morning after morning.

4 Then after they started the holy work, all the skilled workers were coming, one after another, 5 and they were telling Moses: "The people are bringing much more than what is required for the work that Jehovah has commanded to be done." 6 So Moses commanded that an announcement be made throughout the camp, saying: "Men and women, do not bring any more goods for the holy contribution." With that the people were restrained from bringing in anything else. 7 The goods were enough for all the work to be done, and more than enough.

8 So all the skilled workers[a] made the tabernacle[b] of ten tent cloths of fine twisted linen, blue thread, purple wool, and scarlet material; he* made them with cherubs embroidered on them.[c] 9 Each tent cloth was 28 cubits* long and 4 cubits wide. All the tent cloths were the same size. 10 Then he joined five of the tent cloths together, and the other five tent cloths he joined together. 11 After that he made loops of blue thread on the edge of the one tent cloth where it would join. He did the same on the edge of the outermost tent cloth at the corresponding place where it would join. 12 He made 50 loops on the one tent cloth and 50 loops on the other edge of the tent cloth at the place where it would join so that the loops would be opposite one another. 13 Finally, he made 50 gold clasps and joined the tent cloths together with the clasps, so that the tabernacle became one unit.

14 Then he made tent cloths of goat hair for the tent over the tabernacle. He made 11 tent cloths.[d] 15 Each tent cloth was 30 cubits long and 4 cubits wide. The 11 tent cloths were the same size. 16 Then he joined five of the tent cloths together, and he joined the other six tent cloths together. 17 Next he made 50 loops along the edge of the outermost tent cloth where it joined, and he made 50 loops along the edge of the other tent cloth that joined with it. 18 And he made 50 copper clasps for joining the tent together to become one unit.

19 He made a covering for the tent out of ram skins dyed red and a covering out of sealskins to go over that.[a]

20 Then he made out of acacia wood[b] the tabernacle's panel frames, which stood upright.[c] 21 Each panel frame was ten cubits high and one and a half cubits wide. 22 Each panel frame had two tenons* joined to each other. That is how he made all the panel frames of the tabernacle. 23 Thus he made the panel frames for the south side of the tabernacle, 20 panel frames, facing south. 24 Then he made 40 socket pedestals of silver to go under the 20 panel frames, two socket pedestals beneath one panel frame for its two tenons and two socket pedestals under each following panel frame for its two tenons.[d] 25 For the other side of the tabernacle, the northern side, he made 20 panel frames 26 and their 40 socket pedestals of silver, two socket pedestals beneath the one panel frame and two socket pedestals beneath each of the other panel frames.

27 For the rear section of the tabernacle to the west, he made six panel frames.[e] 28 He made two panel frames as corner posts of the tabernacle at the two rear corners. 29 The posts were doubled from the bottom to the top, up to the first ring. That is what he did with the two corner posts. 30 So they amounted to eight panel frames along with their 16 socket pedestals of silver, two socket pedestals under each panel frame.

31 Then he made bars of acacia wood, five bars for the panel frames of the one side of the tabernacle[a] 32 and five bars for the panel frames of the other side of the tabernacle and five for the panel frames of the tabernacle for the rear section to the west. 33 Then he made the middle bar to extend along the middle of the panel frames from one end to the other. 34 He overlaid the panel frames with gold, and he made their rings of gold as holders for the bars, and he overlaid the bars with gold.[b]

35 Then he made a curtain[c] of blue thread, purple wool, scarlet material, and fine twisted linen. He made it with cherubs[d] embroidered on it.[e] 36 Then he made for it four acacia pillars and overlaid them with gold, along with hooks of gold, and cast four socket pedestals of silver for them. 37 Next he made a screen* for the entrance of the tent out of blue thread, purple wool, scarlet material, and fine twisted linen woven together,[f] 38 as well as its five pillars and their hooks. He overlaid their tops and their connectors* with gold, but their five socket pedestals were of copper.

37 Bez′al·el[g] then made the Ark[h] of acacia wood. It was two and a half cubits* long and a cubit and a half wide and a cubit and a half high.[i] 2 He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside and made a border* of gold around it.[j] 3 After that he cast four rings of gold for it, for above its four feet, with two rings on its one side and two rings on its other side. 4 He next made poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.[k] 5 Then he put the poles through the rings on the sides of the Ark for carrying the Ark.[a]

6 He made the cover of pure gold.[b] It was two and a half cubits long and a cubit and a half wide.[c] 7 He then made two cherubs[d] of hammered gold on both ends of the cover.[e] 8 One cherub was on one end, and the other cherub on the other end. He made the cherubs on both ends of the cover. 9 The two cherubs spread out their wings upward, overshadowing the cover with their wings.[f] They were facing each other, and their faces were turned toward the cover.[g]

10 He then made the table of acacia wood.[h] It was two cubits long, a cubit wide, and a cubit and a half high.[i] 11 And he overlaid it with pure gold and made a border* of gold around it. 12 Next he made a rim the width of a handbreadth# to go around it and a border* of gold to go around the rim. 13 Further, he cast four rings of gold for it and placed the rings on the four corners where the four legs were attached. 14 The rings were near the rim, as holders for the poles used for carrying the table. 15 Then he made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold for carrying the table. 16 After that he made out of pure gold the utensils that went on the table—its dishes, its cups, its bowls, and its pitchers from which drink offerings would be poured.[j]

17 Then he made the lampstand[k] of pure gold. He made the lampstand of hammered work. Its base, its stem, its cups, its knobs, and its blossoms were one piece.[l] 18 Six branches were extending out from its stem, three branches of the

This was done for the six branches extending out from the stem of the lampstand. 20 And on the stem of the lampstand were four cups shaped like almond flowers, with knobs and blossoms alternating. 21 There was a knob under the first two branches that extended out of the stem and a knob under the next two branches and a knob under the next two branches, for the six branches extending out from the stem of the lampstand. 22 The knobs and the branches and the whole lampstand were made to be one piece of pure, hammered gold. 23 Then he made its seven lamps[a] and its snuffers* and its fire holders out of pure gold. 24 He made it, along with all its utensils, from a talent* of pure gold.

25 He now made the altar of incense[b] out of acacia wood. It was square, a cubit long, a cubit wide, and two cubits high. Its horns were one piece with it.[c] 26 He overlaid it with pure gold, its top surface and its sides all around and its horns, and he made a border* of gold around it. 27 He made two rings of gold for it below its border* on two opposite sides to hold the poles used for carrying it. 28 After that he made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold. 29 He also made the holy anointing oil[a] and the pure, perfumed incense,[b] skillfully blended.*

38 He made the altar of burnt offering out of acacia wood. It was square, five cubits* long, five cubits wide, and three cubits high.[c] 2 Then he made its horns on its four corners. Its horns were one piece with it. Next he overlaid it with copper.[d] 3 After that he made all the utensils of the altar, the cans, the shovels, the bowls, the forks, and the fire holders. All its utensils he made of copper. 4 He also made a grating for the altar, a network of copper, under its rim, down toward its center. 5 He cast four rings on the four corners near the grating of copper, as holders for the poles. 6 After that he made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with copper. 7 He inserted the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar for carrying it. He made the altar in the form of a hollow chest of planks.

8 Then he made the basin of copper[e] and its copper stand; he used the mirrors* of the women who were organized to serve at the entrance of the tent of meeting.

9 Then he made the courtyard.[f] For the south side of the courtyard, facing south, he made the hanging curtains of fine twisted linen, for 100 cubits.[g] 10 There were 20 pillars and 20 socket pedestals of copper, and the hooks of the pillars and their connectors* were of silver. 11 Also, for the north side, there were 100 cubits of hanging curtains. Their 20 pillars and their

20 socket pedestals were of copper. The hooks of the pillars and their connectors* were of silver. 12 But for the west side, the hanging curtains were for 50 cubits. There were ten pillars and ten socket pedestals, and the hooks of the pillars and their connectors* were of silver. 13 The width of the east side, toward the sunrising, was 50 cubits. 14 There were 15 cubits of hanging curtains on the one wing, with three pillars and three socket pedestals. 15 And for the other wing on the other side of the entrance of the courtyard, there were hanging curtains for 15 cubits, with three pillars and three socket pedestals. 16 All the hanging curtains around the courtyard were of fine twisted linen. 17 The socket pedestals for the pillars were of copper, the hooks of the pillars and their connectors* were of silver, the tops were overlaid with silver, and there were silver fasteners for all the pillars of the courtyard.[a]

18 The screen* of the entrance of the courtyard was woven of blue thread, purple wool, scarlet material, and fine twisted linen. It was 20 cubits long and 5 cubits high, the same height as the hanging curtains of the courtyard.[b] 19 Their four pillars and their four socket pedestals were made of copper. Their hooks were of silver, and their tops and connectors* were overlaid with silver. 20 All the tent pins for the tabernacle and around the courtyard were of copper.[c]

21 The following is the inventory of the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the Testimony,[d] which was inventoried at the command of Moses, as the responsibility of the Levites[a] under the direction of Ith′a·mar[b] the son of Aaron the priest. 22 Bez′al·el[c] the son of U′ri the son of Hur of the tribe of Judah did all that Jehovah had commanded Moses. 23 With him was O·ho′li·ab[d] the son of A·his′a·mach of the tribe of Dan, a craftsman and an embroiderer and a weaver of the blue thread, the purple wool, the scarlet material, and the fine linen.

24 All the gold that was used for all the work of the holy place equaled the amount of the gold of the wave offering,[e] 29 talents* and 730 shekels# by the standard shekel of the holy place.△ 25 And the silver of the ones registered of the assembly was 100 talents and 1,775 shekels by the standard shekel of the holy place.△ 26 The half shekel for each individual was half a shekel by the standard shekel of the holy place△ for every man who was among those registered from 20 years of age and up,[f] amounting to 603,550.[g]

27 The casting of the socket pedestals of the holy place and the socket pedestals of the curtain amounted to 100 talents; 100 socket pedestals equaled 100 talents, one talent for each socket pedestal.[h] 28 From the 1,775 shekels, he made hooks for the pillars and overlaid their tops and joined them together.

29 The copper of the offering* was 70 talents and 2,400 shekels. 30 With this he made the socket pedestals of the entrance of the tent of meeting, the copper altar and its copper grating, all the utensils of the altar, 31 the socket ped-

39 From the blue thread, the purple wool, and the scarlet material,[b] they made finely woven garments for ministering in the holy place. They made the holy garments that were for Aaron,[c] just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

2 He made the eph′od[d] of gold, blue thread, purple wool, scarlet material, and fine twisted linen. 3 They hammered plates of gold into thin sheets, and he cut it into threads to work in with the blue thread, the purple wool, the scarlet material, and the fine linen, and it was embroidered. 4 They made shoulder pieces for it that were attached, and it was joined to them at its two edges. 5 And the woven belt,* which was attached to the eph′od for tying it securely in position,[e] was made of the same material, of gold, blue thread, purple wool, scarlet material, and fine twisted linen, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

6 Then they mounted the onyx stones in gold settings, and they engraved them with the names of the sons of Israel, as they would engrave a seal.[f] 7 He placed them on the shoulder pieces of the eph′od as memorial stones for the sons of Israel,[g] just as Jehovah had commanded Moses. 8 Then he made the breastpiece[h] with the workmanship of an embroiderer, like the workmanship of the eph′od, out of gold, blue thread, purple wool, scarlet material, and fine twisted linen.[i] 9 It was square when doubled. They made the breastpiece, which, when doubled, was as long and as wide as the span of the hand.* 10 They set four rows of stones in it. The first row was ruby, topaz, and emerald. 11 The second row was turquoise, sapphire, and jasper. 12 The third row was lesh′em stone,* agate, and amethyst. 13 And the fourth row was chrys′o·lite, onyx, and jade. They were mounted in settings of gold. 14 The stones corresponded to the names of the 12 sons of Israel, and the names were engraved like a seal, each name representing one of the 12 tribes.

15 Then they made wreathed chains on the breastpiece, like cords of pure gold.[a] 16 And they made two settings of gold and two rings of gold and attached the two rings to the two corners of the breastpiece. 17 After that they put the two cords of gold through the two rings at the corners of the breastpiece. 18 Then they put the two ends of the two cords through the two settings and attached them to the shoulder pieces on the front of the eph′od. 19 Next they made two rings of gold and set them at the two ends on the inside edge of the breastpiece, facing the eph′od.[b] 20 Then they made two more rings of gold and put them on the front of the eph′od, below the shoulder pieces and above the place where the woven belt* joined the eph′od. 21 Finally, they tied the breastpiece with a blue cord from its rings to the rings of the eph′od, in order to keep the breastpiece in its place on the eph′od, above the woven belt,* just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

22 Then he made the sleeveless coat of the eph′od, woven by a loom worker, all of blue thread.[a] 23 The opening of the sleeveless coat was in the middle of it, like the opening of a coat of mail. Its opening had a border around it, so that it would not be torn. 24 Next they made on the hem of the sleeveless coat pomegranates of blue thread, purple wool, and scarlet material, twisted together. 25 And they made bells of pure gold and put the bells in between the pomegranates all around the hem of the sleeveless coat, in between the pomegranates; 26 they alternated a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, all around the hem of the sleeveless coat, which was used for ministering, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

27 And they made the robes of fine linen, woven by a loom worker, for Aaron and his sons,[b] 28 and the turban[c] of fine linen, the ornamental headgear[d] of fine linen, the linen shorts*[e] of fine twisted linen, 29 and the sash of fine twisted linen, blue thread, purple wool, and scarlet material woven together, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

30 Finally, they made the shining plate, the holy sign of dedication,* out of pure gold and inscribed on it an inscription as one would engrave a seal: "Holiness belongs to Jehovah."[f] 31 They attached to it a cord made from blue thread in order to put it on the turban, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

32 So all the work for the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, was completed, and the Israelites did everything that Jehovah had commanded Moses.[g] They did just so.

33 Then they brought the tabernacle[a] to Moses, the tent[b] and all its utensils: its clasps,[c] its panel frames,[d] its bars[e] and its pillars and its socket pedestals;[f] 34 its covering of ram skins dyed red,[g] its covering of sealskins, the curtain for the screen;[h] 35 the ark of the Testimony and its poles[i] and the cover;[j] 36 the table, all its utensils[k] and the showbread; 37 the lampstand of pure gold, its lamps,[l] the row of lamps, and all its utensils[m] and the oil for lighting;[n] 38 the altar[o] of gold, the anointing oil,[p] the perfumed incense,[q] the screen*[r] for the entrance of the tent; 39 the altar of copper[s] and its grating of copper, its poles,[t] all its utensils,[u] the basin and its stand;[v] 40 the hanging curtains of the courtyard, its pillars and its socket pedestals,[w] the screen*[x] for the entrance of the courtyard, its tent cords and its tent pins[y] and all the utensils for the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of meeting; 41 the finely woven garments for ministering in the sanctuary, the holy garments for Aaron the priest,[z] and the garments of his sons for serving as priests.

42 According to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses, that was how the Israelites did all the work.[a] 43 When Moses inspected all their work, he saw that they had done it just as Jehovah had commanded; and Moses blessed them.

40 Then Jehovah said to Moses: 2 "On the first day of the first month, you are to set up the tabernacle, the tent of meeting.[b] 3 Place the ark of the Testimony in it,[c] and screen off the Ark with the curtain.[d] 4 You are to bring the table[e] in and arrange the things that belong on it and bring in the lampstand[a] and light its lamps.[b] 5 Then put the golden altar for incense[c] before the ark of the Testimony and put the screen* for the entrance of the tabernacle in place.[d]

6 "You are to put the altar of burnt offering[e] before the entrance of the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, 7 and place the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water in it.[f] 8 Then set up the courtyard[g] around it and put up the screen*[h] for the entrance of the courtyard. 9 Next you are to take the anointing oil[i] and anoint the tabernacle and all that is in it,[j] and sanctify it and all its utensils, so that it will become something holy. 10 You are to anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils and sanctify the altar, so that it will become a most holy altar.[k] 11 And anoint the basin and its stand and sanctify it.

12 "Then bring Aaron and his sons near to the entrance of the tent of meeting, and wash them with water.[l] 13 And you are to clothe Aaron with the holy garments[m] and anoint him[n] and sanctify him, and he will serve as priest to me. 14 After that bring his sons near, and clothe them with robes.[o] 15 You are to anoint them just as you anointed their father,[p] so that they will serve as priests to me, and their anointing will serve continually for them as a lasting priesthood during their generations."[q]

16 Moses did according to all that Jehovah had commanded him.[r] He did just so.

17 In the first month, in the second year, on the first day of the month, the tabernacle was set up.[s] 18 When Moses set up the tabernacle, he put its socket pedestals[a] down, set up the panel frames,[b] put its bars[c] in, and set up its pillars. 19 He spread out the tent[d] over the tabernacle and placed the covering[e] of the tent over it, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

20 After that he took the Testimony[f] and put it into the Ark[g] and placed the poles[h] on the Ark and put the cover[i] on the Ark.[j] 21 He brought the Ark into the tabernacle and put the curtain[k] of the screen in place and screened off the ark of the Testimony,[l] just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

22 Next he put the table[m] in the tent of meeting on the north side of the tabernacle outside the curtain, 23 and he arranged the row of bread[n] on it before Jehovah, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

24 He placed the lampstand[o] in the tent of meeting in front of the table, on the south side of the tabernacle. 25 He lit the lamps[p] before Jehovah, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

26 He next placed the golden altar[q] in the tent of meeting before the curtain, 27 in order to make perfumed incense[r] smoke on it,[s] just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

28 Then he put the screen*[t] for the entrance of the tabernacle in place.

29 He placed the altar of burnt offering[u] at the entrance of the tabernacle, the tent of meeting, so that he might offer up the burnt offering[v] and the grain offering on it, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

30 He then placed the basin between the tent of meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing.[w] 31 Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their hands and their feet at it.

32 Whenever they went into the tent of meeting or approached the altar, they would wash,[a] just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

33 Finally he set up the courtyard[b] around the tabernacle and the altar and put up the screen* for the entrance of the courtyard.[c]

So Moses finished the work. 34 And the cloud began to cover the tent of meeting, and Jehovah's glory filled the tabernacle.[d] 35 Moses was not able to go into the tent of meeting because the cloud remained over it, and Jehovah's glory filled the tabernacle.[a]

36 And when the cloud lifted from the tabernacle, the Israelites would break camp during all stages of their journey.[b] 37 However, if the cloud did not lift up, then they would not break camp until the day it lifted.[c] 38 For Jehovah's cloud was over the tabernacle by day, and a fire remained over it by night in the sight of all the house of Israel during all stages of their journey.[d]

6 Jehovah went on to say to Moses: 2 "If someone* sins and behaves unfaithfully toward Jehovah[c] by deceiving his neighbor in connection with something entrusted to him,[d] or something deposited with him, or he robs or defrauds his neighbor, 3 or he finds something lost and is deceptive about it, and if he swears falsely over any such sin he may commit,[e] this is what he should do: 4 If he has sinned and is guilty, he must return what he stole, what he extorted, what he took by fraud, what was entrusted to him, or the lost thing that he found, 5 or anything about which he swore falsely, and he must make full compensation for it,[f] and he will add to it a fifth of its value. 8 Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 9 "Command Aaron and his sons and say, 'This is the law of the burnt offering:[i] The burnt offering will remain on the hearth on the altar all night long until the morning, and the fire will be kept burning on the altar. 10 The priest will clothe himself with his official dress of linen,[a] and he will put the linen shorts*[b] on over his flesh. of the communion sacrifices and the fat will have the right leg as his portion.[a] 34 For I take the breast of the wave offering and the leg of the sacred portion from the communion sacrifices of the Israelites, and I give them to Aaron the priest and his sons as a lasting regulation for the Israelites.[b]

37 This is the law concerning the burnt offering,[e] the grain offering,[f] the sin offering,[g] the guilt offering,[h] the installation sacrifice,[i] and the communion sacrifice,[j] 38 just as Jehovah commanded Moses on Mount Si'nai[k] in the day he commanded the Israelites to present their offerings to Jehovah in the wilderness of Si'nai.[l]

8 Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 2 "Take Aaron and his sons with him,[m] the garments,[n] the anointing oil,[o] the bull of the sin offering, the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread,[p] 3 and make all the assembly gather together at the entrance of the tent of meeting."

4 Then Moses did just as Jehovah had commanded him, and the assembly gathered together at the entrance of the tent of meeting. 5 Moses now said to the assembly: "This is what Jehovah has commanded us to do." 6 So Moses brought Aaron and his sons near and washed them with water.[q] 7 After that he put the robe[r] on him, wrapped him with the sash,[s] clothed him with the sleeveless coat,[a] and put the eph'od[b] on him and tied it with the woven belt*[c] of the eph'od, binding it securely on him. 8 Next he placed the breastpiece[d] on him and put the U'rim and the Thum'mim[e] in the breastpiece. 9 Then he placed the turban[f] on his head, and he put on the front of the turban the shining plate of gold, the holy sign of dedication,*[g] just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

10 Moses then took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it[h] and sanctified them. 11 After that he spattered some of it seven times on the altar and anointed the altar and all its utensils and the basin and its stand in order to sanctify them. 12 Finally he poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron's head and anointed him in order to sanctify him.[i]

13 Moses then brought Aaron's sons near and clothed them with robes and wrapped them with sashes and put* headgear on them,[j] just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

14 Then he brought the bull of the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bull of the sin offering.[k] 15 Moses slaughtered it and took the blood[l] with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar on all sides, and he purified the altar from sin, but the rest of the blood he poured at the base of the altar, in order to sanctify it to make atonement on it. 16 After that he took all the fat that was on the intestines, the appendage of the liver, and the two kidneys and their fat, and Moses made them smoke on the altar.[m] 17 Then he had the rest of the bull, its skin, its flesh, and its dung, burned with fire outside the camp,[a] just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

18 He now brought the ram of the burnt offering near, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram.[b] 19 Moses then slaughtered it and sprinkled the blood on all sides of the altar. 20 He cut the ram into its pieces, and Moses made the head, the pieces, and the suet* smoke. 21 He washed the intestines and the shanks with water, and Moses made the entire ram smoke on the altar. It was a burnt offering as a pleasing* aroma. It was an offering made by fire to Jehovah, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

25 Then he took the fat, the fat tail, all the fat that was on the intestines, the appendage of the liver, the two kidneys and their fat, and the right leg.[f] 26 He took out of the basket of unleavened bread that was before Jehovah one unleavened ring-shaped loaf,[g] one ring-shaped loaf of oiled bread,[h] and one wafer. He then placed them on the pieces of fat and the right leg. 27 After that he put all of them on the palms of Aaron and the palms of his sons and began to wave them back and forth as a wave offering before Jehovah. 28 Then Moses took them from their hands and made them smoke on the altar on top of the burnt offering. They were an installation sacrifice as a pleasing* aroma. It was an offering made by fire to Jehovah.

29 Moses then took the breast and waved it back and forth as a wave offering before Jehovah.[a] From the installation ram it became the portion for Moses, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.[b]

30 And Moses took some of the anointing oil[c] and some of the blood that was on the altar and spattered it on Aaron and his garments and on his sons and the garments of his sons who were with him. Thus he sanctified Aaron and his garments and his sons[d] and their garments.[e]

31 Then Moses said to Aaron and his sons: "Boil[f] the flesh at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and you will eat it there with the bread that is in the installation basket, just as I was commanded, 'Aaron and his sons will eat it.'[g] 32 What is left over of the flesh and the bread you will burn with fire.[h] 33 You must not go out from the entrance of the tent of meeting for seven days, until the days for completing your installation are over, because it will take seven days to install you as priests.*[i] 34 Jehovah commanded that we do what we have done today in order to make atonement for you.[j] 35 You will stay at the entrance of the tent of meeting day and night for seven days[k] and carry out your obligation to Jehovah,[l] so that you may not die; for so I have been commanded."

36 And Aaron and his sons did all the things that Jehovah had commanded by means of Moses.

9 On the eighth day,[a] Moses called Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel. 2 He said to Aaron: "Take for yourself a young calf for a sin offering[b] and a ram for a burnt offering, sound ones, and present them before Jehovah. 3 But you will say to the Israelites, 'Take a male goat for a sin offering and a calf and a young ram, each a year old, sound ones, for a burnt offering, 4 and a bull and a ram for communion sacrifices,[c] to sacrifice them before Jehovah, and a grain offering[d] mixed with oil, for today Jehovah will appear to you.'"[e]

5 So they took what Moses had commanded before the tent of meeting. Then the whole assembly came forward and stood before Jehovah. 6 And Moses said: "This is what Jehovah has commanded you to do, so that the glory of Jehovah may appear to you."[f] 7 Then Moses said to Aaron: "Approach the altar and present your sin offering[g] and your burnt offering, and make atonement in your own behalf[h] and in behalf of your house; and present the offering of the people,[i] and make atonement in their behalf,[j] just as Jehovah has commanded."

8 Aaron immediately approached the altar and slaughtered the calf of the sin offering that was for him.[k] 9 Then Aaron's sons presented the blood[l] to him, and he dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar, and he poured the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.[m] 10 He made the fat and the kidneys and the appendage of the liver from the sin offering smoke on the altar, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.[a] 11 And he burned the flesh and the skin with fire outside the camp.[b]

12 Then he slaughtered the burnt offering, and Aaron's sons handed him the blood, and he sprinkled it on all sides of the altar.[c] 13 They handed him the pieces of the burnt offering along with the head, and he made them smoke on the altar. 14 Further, he washed the intestines and the shanks and made them smoke on the burnt offering on the altar.

15 He then presented the offering of the people and took the goat of the sin offering that was for the people and slaughtered it and made a sin offering with it like the first one. 16 And he presented the burnt offering and handled it according to the regular procedure.[d]

17 He next presented the grain offering,[e] filling his hand with some of it and making it smoke on the altar, in addition to the burnt offering of the morning.[f]

18 After that he slaughtered the bull and the ram of the communion sacrifice that was for the people. Then Aaron's sons handed him the blood, and he sprinkled it around on all sides of the altar.[g] 19 As for the pieces of fat of the bull,[h] the fat tail of the ram, the fat covering the internal organs, the kidneys, and the appendage of the liver,[i] 20 they placed all those pieces of fat on the breasts, after which he made the pieces of fat smoke on the altar.[j] 21 But the breasts and the right leg Aaron waved back and forth as a wave offering before Jehovah, just as Moses had commanded.[k]

munion sacrifices. 23 Finally Moses and Aaron went into the tent of meeting and came out and blessed the people.[a]

Jehovah's glory now appeared to all the people,[b] 24 and fire came out from Jehovah[c] and began consuming the burnt offering and the pieces of fat on the altar. When all the people saw it, they started shouting and they fell with their faces to the ground.[d]

10 Later Aaron's sons Na′dab and A·bi′hu[e] each took his fire holder and put fire in it and placed incense[f] on it. Then they began offering before Jehovah unauthorized fire,[g] which he had not commanded them to do. 2 At this a fire came out from before Jehovah and consumed them,[h] so that they died before Jehovah.[i] 3 Then Moses said to Aaron: "This is what Jehovah has said, 'I will be made holy among those near to me,[j] and I will be glorified before all the people.'" And Aaron kept silent.

4 So Moses called Mish′a·el and El·za′phan, the sons of Uz′zi·el,[k] Aaron's uncle, and said to them: "Come here, carry your brothers from in front of the holy place to a place outside the camp." 5 So they came forward and carried the men away in their robes to a place outside the camp, just as Moses had told them.

6 Moses then said to Aaron and his other sons El·e·a′zar and Ith′a·mar: "Do not let your heads go ungroomed or tear your garments,[l] so that you may not die and that God may not become indignant against all the assembly. Your brothers of the whole house of Israel will weep over those whom Jehovah has killed by the fire. 7 You must not go out from the entrance of the tent of meeting or you will die, for Jehovah's anointing oil is upon you."[a] So they did according to Moses' word.

8 Then Jehovah said to Aaron: 9 "Do not drink wine or other alcoholic beverages, you and your sons with you, when you come into the tent of meeting,[b] so that you will not die. It is a permanent statute for your generations. 10 This is to distinguish between the holy thing and the profane and between the unclean thing and the clean,[c] 11 and to teach the Israelites all the regulations that Jehovah has spoken to them through Moses."[d]

12 Then Moses spoke to Aaron and to El·e·a′zar and Ith′a·mar, his sons who were left: "Take what was left of the grain offering from Jehovah's offerings made by fire and eat it as unleavened bread near the altar,[e] because it is something most holy.[f] 13 You must eat it in a holy place,[g] because it is your allowance and the allowance of your sons from Jehovah's offerings made by fire, for this is what I have been commanded. 14 You will also eat the breast of the wave offering and the leg of the sacred portion[h] in a clean place, you and your sons and your daughters with you,[i] because these things have been given as your allowance and the allowance of your sons from the communion sacrifices of the Israelites. 15 They will bring the leg of the sacred portion and the breast of the wave offering along with the offerings of fat made by fire, in order to wave the wave offering back and forth before Jehovah; and it will serve as a permanent allowance for you and your sons with you,[j] just as Jehovah has commanded."

16 And Moses diligently searched for the goat of the sin offering,[k] and he discovered that it had been burned up. So he grew indignant at El·e·a′zar and Ith′a·mar, Aaron's sons who were left, and he said: 17 "Why did you not eat the sin offering in the holy place,[a] since it is something most holy and he has given it to you so that you may answer for the error of the assembly and make atonement for them before Jehovah? 18 Look! Its blood has not been brought inside the holy place.[b] You certainly should have eaten it in the holy place, just as I was commanded." 19 Aaron replied to Moses: "Look! Today they presented their sin offering and their burnt offering before Jehovah,[c] and yet these things happened to me. If I had eaten the sin offering today, would that have been pleasing to Jehovah?" 20 When Moses heard that, he was satisfied.

11 Then Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron: 2 "Tell the Israelites, 'These are the living creatures of the earth* that you may eat:[d] 3 Every animal that has a split hoof and a cleft in its hooves and that chews the cud may be eaten.

12 Jehovah went on to say to Moses: 2 "Tell the Israelites, 'If a woman becomes pregnant* and gives birth to a male, she will be unclean for seven days, just as she is in the days of the impurity when she is menstruating.[b] 3 On the eighth day, the flesh of his foreskin will be circumcised.[c] 4 She will continue cleansing herself from the blood for the next 33 days. 13 Jehovah continued to speak to Moses and Aaron, saying: 2 "If a man develops on his skin* a swelling, a scab, or a blotch and it could become the disease of leprosy*[a] on his skin, he must then be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons, the priests.[b] 3 The priest will examine the infection on his skin. The priest will examine it and declare him unclean. 4 But if the blotch on his skin is white and its appearance is not deeper than the skin and the hair has not turned white, the priest will then quarantine the infected person for seven days.[c] 5 The priest will then examine him on the seventh day, and if it appears that the infection has stopped and has not spread on the skin, the priest will quarantine him for another seven days.

6 "The priest should examine him again on the seventh day, and if the infection has faded and has not spread in the skin, the priest will declare him clean;[d] it was only a scab. 24 "Or if someone has a scar from the fire and the raw flesh of the scar becomes a reddish-white blotch or a white one, 25 the priest will then examine it. If the hair in the blotch has turned white and it appears to be deeper than the skin, it is leprosy that has broken out in the scar, and the priest will declare him unclean. area is not deeper than the skin, 33 the person should have himself shaved, but he will not have the infected area shaved. Then the priest will quarantine the infected person for seven days.

34 "The priest will again examine the infected area on the seventh day, and if the infection of the scalp and beard has not spread on the skin and it does not appear deeper than the skin, the priest must then declare him clean, and he should wash his garments and be clean. 35 But if the infection clearly spreads on the skin after his purification, 36 the priest will examine him, and if the infection has spread on the skin, the priest does not need to look for yellow hair; that person is unclean. 37 But if the examination shows that the infection has not spread and black hair has grown on it, the infection has been healed. He is clean, and the priest will declare him clean.[a]

38 "If a man or a woman develops blotches on the skin* and the blotches are white, 39 the priest will examine them.[b] If the skin blotches are faded white, it is a harmless rash that has broken out on the skin. That person is clean.

40 "If a man loses the hair of his head and becomes bald, he is clean. 41 If he loses the hair on the front of his head and becomes bald there, he is clean. 42 But if a reddish-white sore develops on the bald part of his scalp or on his forehead, it is leprosy breaking out on his scalp or on his forehead. 43 The priest will examine him, and if the swelling from the infection is reddish-white on the bald spot on top of his head or on his forehead and it looks like leprosy on his skin, 44 he is a leper. He is unclean, and the priest should declare him unclean because of the disease on his head. 45 As for the leper who has the disease, his garments should be torn and his head should be left ungroomed and he should cover over his mustache and call out, 'Unclean, unclean!' 46 He will be unclean the whole time that he has the disease. Since he is unclean, he should live in isolation. His dwelling place will be outside the camp.[a] 47 "If the disease of leprosy contaminates a garment, whether a woolen or a linen garment, 48 either in the warp or in the woof of the linen or of the wool, or in a skin or in anything made of skin, 49 and the yellowish-green or reddish stain from the disease contaminates the garment, a skin, the warp, the woof, or any article of skin, it is a contamination from leprosy, and it should be shown to the priest. 50 The priest will examine the disease, and he must quarantine the disease for seven days.[b] 51 When he examines the disease on the seventh day and sees that it has spread in the garment, in the warp, in the woof, or in the skin (regardless of what the skin is used for), the disease is malignant leprosy, and it is unclean.[c] 52 He should burn the garment or the warp or the woof in the wool or in the linen or any article of skin in which the disease has developed, for it is malignant leprosy. It should be burned in the fire.

53 "But if the priest examines it and the disease has not spread in the garment or in the warp or in the woof or in any article of skin, 54 the priest will then command that they should wash the contaminated item, and he will quarantine it for another seven days. 55 The priest will then examine the contaminated 56 "But if the priest has examined it and the contaminated part is faded after it has been thoroughly washed, he will then tear it out of the garment or the skin or the warp or the woof. 57 However, if it still appears in another part of the garment or in the warp or in the woof or in any article of skin, it is spreading, and you should burn any contaminated item in the fire.[a] 58 But when the contamination disappears from the garment or the warp or the woof or any article of skin that you wash, it should then be washed a second time, and it will be clean.

59 "This is the law of the disease of leprosy in a garment of wool or of linen, or in the warp or in the woof, or in any article of skin, for declaring it clean or unclean."

14 Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 2 "This is to be the law of the leper on the day his purification is established, when he is to be brought to the priest.[b] 3 The priest will go outside the camp and examine him. If the leper has been cured of the leprosy, 4 the priest will command him to bring two live clean birds, cedarwood, scarlet material, and hyssop for his cleansing.[c] 5 The priest will command that the one bird be killed in an earthenware vessel over running water. 6 But he should take the living bird along with the cedarwood, the scarlet material, and the hyssop, and dip them together in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water. 7 Then he will spatter it seven times on the one cleansing himself from the leprosy and declare him clean, and he will set the living bird free in the open field.[a]

8 "The one cleansing himself must wash his garments and shave off all his hair and bathe in water, and he will be clean. Afterward, he may come into the camp, but he will dwell outside his tent for seven days. 9 On the seventh day, he should shave off all the hair on his head and his chin and his eyebrows. After he shaves off all his hair, he will wash his garments and bathe himself in water, and he will be clean.

19 "The priest will sacrifice the sin offering[c] and make atonement for the one cleansing himself from his impurity, and afterward he will slaughter the burnt offering. 20 And the priest will offer up the burnt offering and the grain offering[d] on the altar, and the priest will make atonement for him,[e] and he will be clean.[f]

21 "However, if he is poor and does not have enough means, he will then take one young ram as a guilt offering for a wave offering, in order to make atonement for himself, along with one tenth of an e′phah* of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, a log measure of oil, 22 and two turtledoves or two young pigeons, according to his means. The one will serve as a sin offering, and the other as a burnt offering.[g] 23 On the eighth day,[h] he will bring them for establishing his purification to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting before Jehovah.[a]

24 "The priest will take the young ram of the guilt offering[b] and the log measure of oil, and the priest will wave them back and forth as a wave offering before Jehovah.[c] 25 He will then slaughter the young ram of the guilt offering, and the priest will take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the right earlobe of the one cleansing himself and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.[d] 26 The priest will pour some of the oil into his own left palm,[e] 27 and he will then spatter with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left palm seven times before Jehovah. 28 And the priest will put some of the oil that is in his palm on the right earlobe of the one cleansing himself and on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot on the same places that he put the blood of the guilt offering. 29 The priest will then put what is left over of the oil in his palm on the head of the one cleansing himself, in order to make atonement for him before Jehovah.

as a possession,[a] and I contaminate a house in your land with the disease of leprosy,[b] 35 the one to whom the house belongs should then come and tell the priest, 'Some kind of contamination has appeared in my house.' 36 The priest will give orders to clear out the house before he comes to examine the contamination, in order that he may not declare everything that is in the house unclean; and after that the priest will come in to inspect the house. 37 He will examine the affected area, and if the walls of the house are contaminated with yellowish-green or reddish depressions and they appear to be deeper than the wall surface, 38 the priest will then go out of the house to the entryway of the house and quarantine the house for seven days.[c]

39 "Then the priest will return on the seventh day and make an inspection. If the contamination has spread in the walls of the house, 40 the priest will then give orders, and the contaminated stones must be torn out and thrown outside the city into an unclean place. 41 Then he is to have the inside of the house thoroughly scraped, and the plaster and mortar that is removed should be discarded outside the city in an unclean place. 42 They will then insert other stones in the place of the stones they removed, and he should use different mortar and have the house plastered.

43 "If, though, the contamination returns and breaks out in the house after the stones were torn out and the house was scraped and replastered, 44 the priest will then go in and inspect it. If the contamination has spread in the house, it is malignant leprosy[d] in the house. The house is unclean. 45 He will then have the house pulled down—its stones, its timbers, and all the plaster and mortar of the house—and carried outside the city to an unclean place.[a] 46 But whoever enters the house any of the days it is quarantined[b] will be unclean until the evening;[c] 47 and whoever lies down in the house should wash his garments, and whoever eats in the house should wash his garments.

48 "However, if the priest comes and sees that the contamination has not spread in the house after the house was replastered, the priest will then declare the house clean, because the contamination has been healed. 49 In order to purify the house from uncleanness,* he will take two birds, cedarwood, scarlet material, and hyssop.[d] 50 He is to kill the one bird in an earthenware vessel over running water. 51 Then he will take the cedarwood, the hyssop, the scarlet material, and the live bird and dip them in the blood of the bird that was killed and in the running water, and he must spatter it toward the house seven times.[e] 52 And he will purify the house from uncleanness* with the blood of the bird, the running water, the live bird, the cedarwood, the hyssop, and the scarlet material. 53 He will then set the live bird free outside the city in the open field and make atonement for the house, and it will be clean.

54 "This is the law respecting any case of leprosy, infection of the scalp or the beard,[f] 55 leprosy of the garment[g] or the house,[h] 56 and respecting swellings, scabs, and blotches,[i] 57 in order to determine when something is unclean and when something is clean.[j] This is the law about leprosy."[k]

16 Jehovah spoke to Moses after the death of Aaron's two sons who died for approaching Jehovah.[a] 2 Jehovah said to Moses: "Tell Aaron your brother that he may not come at just any time into the holy place[b] inside the curtain,[c] in front of the cover on the Ark, so that he may not die,[d] for I will appear over the cover[e] in a cloud.[f]

3 "This is what Aaron should bring when he comes into the holy place: a young bull for a sin offering[g] and a ram for a burnt offering.[h] 4 He should put on the holy linen robe,[i] and the linen shorts*[j] should cover his body,# and he should wrap himself with the linen sash[k] and his head with the linen turban.[l] They are holy garments.[m] He will bathe himself in water[n] and put them on.

5 "He should take from the assembly of the Israelites[o] two young male goats for a sin offering and one ram for a burnt offering.

6 "Aaron must then present the bull of the sin offering, which is for himself, and he will make atonement in behalf of himself[p] and his house.

7 "He will then take the two goats and make them stand before Jehovah at the entrance of the tent of meeting. 8 Aaron will draw lots over the two goats, the one lot for Jehovah and the other lot for A·za′zel.* 9 Aaron will present the goat that was designated by lot[q] for Jehovah and make it a sin offering. 10 But the goat designated by lot for A·za′zel should be brought alive to stand before Jehovah in order to perform the atonement upon it, so that it may be sent away for A·za′zel into the wilderness.[r]

16:4 *Or "undergarments." #Or "his exposed flesh." 16:8 *Possibly meaning "Goat That Disappears."

11 "Aaron will present the bull of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make atonement in behalf of himself and his house; afterward he will slaughter the bull of the sin offering, which is for himself.[a]

12 "He will then take the fire holder[b] full of burning coals from the altar[c] before Jehovah and two handfuls of fine perfumed incense,[d] and he will bring them inside the curtain.[e] 13 He will also put the incense on the fire before Jehovah,[f] and the cloud of the incense will envelop the Ark cover,[g] which is on the Testimony,[h] so that he may not die.

14 "He will take some of the bull's blood[i] and spatter it with his finger in front of the cover on the east side, and he will spatter some of the blood with his finger seven times before the cover.[j]

15 "He will then slaughter the goat of the sin offering, which is for the people,[k] and bring its blood inside the curtain[l] and do with its blood[m] the same as he did with the bull's blood; he is to spatter it toward the cover and before the cover.

16 "He must make atonement for the holy place concerning the acts of uncleanness of the Israelites and concerning their transgressions and their sins,[n] and that is what he should do for the tent of meeting, which is located among them in the midst of their acts of uncleanness.

17 "No other man should be in the tent of meeting from the time he goes in to make atonement in the holy place until he comes out. He will make atonement in behalf of himself and his house[o] and in behalf of the entire congregation of Israel.[p]

18 "He will then come out to the altar,[q] which is before Jehovah, and make atonement for it, and he will take some of the bull's blood and some of the goat's blood and put it on the horns of the altar on all sides. 19 He will also spatter some of the blood on it with his finger seven times and cleanse it and sanctify it from the acts of uncleanness of the Israelites.

20 "When he has finished making atonement[a] for the holy place and the tent of meeting and the altar,[b] he will also present the live goat.[c] 21 Aaron will lay both his hands on the head of the live goat and confess over it all the errors of the Israelites and all their transgressions and all their sins, and he will put them on the head of the goat[d] and send it away into the wilderness by the hand of a man designated to do this.* 22 The goat will carry upon itself all their errors[e] into a desert land,[f] and he will send the goat away into the wilderness.[g]

23 "Aaron will then enter into the tent of meeting and take off the linen garments that he put on when he went into the holy place, and he will lay them down there. 24 He must bathe himself* in water[h] in a holy place and put on his garments;[i] then he will come out and offer up his burnt offering[j] and the people's burnt offering[k] and make atonement in his own behalf and in behalf of the people.[l] 25 He will make the fat of the sin offering smoke on the altar.

26 "The man who sent away the goat for A·za′zel[m] should wash his garments and bathe himself in water, and after that he may come into the camp.

17 Jehovah continued speaking to Moses, saying: 18 "Speak to Aaron and his sons and all the Israelites and say to them, 'When an Israelite man or a foreign resident in Israel presents a burnt offering[b] to Jehovah to fulfill his vows or to make a voluntary offering,[c] 19 he should present a sound male[d] from the herd, the young rams, or the goats, in order to gain approval. 20 You must not present anything with a defect,[e] for it will not serve to gain approval for you.

21 "'If a man presents a communion sacrifice[f] to Jehovah to pay a vow or as a voluntary offering, it should be a sound animal from the herd or the flock, in order to gain approval. No defect at all should be in it. 22 No offering should be blind, have a fracture, a cut, a wart, scabbiness, or ringworm; you must not present any of these to Jehovah or make such an offering on the altar for Jehovah. 23 You may present a bull or a sheep with a limb that is too long or too short as a voluntary offering, but it will not be accepted with approval as a vow offering. 24 You must not present to Jehovah one having the testicles damaged or crushed or pulled off or cut off, and you should not offer such animals in your land. 25 And you must not present any of these from the hand of a foreigner as the bread of your God, for they are corrupted and defective. They will not be accepted with approval for you.'"

26 Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 27 "When a bull or a young ram or a goat is born, it will continue with its mother for seven days,[a] but from the eighth day forward it will be accepted with approval as an offering, an offering made by fire to Jehovah. 28 As for a bull or a sheep, you must not slaughter it and its young on the same day.[b]

29 "If you sacrifice a thanksgiving sacrifice to Jehovah,[c] you should sacrifice it to gain approval for yourselves. 30 It should be eaten on that day. You must not leave any of it until morning.[d] I am Jehovah.

31 "You must keep my commandments and carry them out.[e] I am Jehovah. 32 You must not profane my holy name,[f] and I must be sanctified in the midst of the Israelites.[g] I am Jehovah, who is sanctifying you,[h] 33 the one bringing you out of the land of Egypt to prove myself God to you.[i] I am Jehovah."

23 Jehovah continued speaking to Moses, saying: 2 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them, 'The seasonal festivals[j] of Jehovah that you should proclaim[k] are holy conventions. These are my seasonal festivals:

3 "'Six days work may be done, but on the seventh day is a sabbath of complete rest,[l] a holy convention. You may not do any sort of work. It is to be a sabbath to Jehovah wherever you dwell.[m]

9 Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 10 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them, 'When you eventually come into the land that I am giving you and you have reaped its harvest, you must bring a sheaf of the firstfruits[b] of your harvest to the priest.[c] 11 And he will wave the sheaf back and forth before Jehovah to gain approval for you. They should serve as something holy to Jehovah for the priest.[f] 21 On this day you will make a proclamation[g] for a holy convention for yourselves. You may not do any hard work. 22 "'When you reap the harvest of your land, you must not reap the edge of your field completely and you should not pick up what is left from your harvest.[h] You should leave it for the poor*[i] and for the foreign resident.[j] I am Jehovah your God.'"

23 Jehovah went on speaking to Moses, saying: 24 "Tell the Israelites, 'In the seventh month, on the first of the month, you should observe a complete rest, a memorial signaled by a trumpet blast,[k] a holy convention. 25 You may not do any hard work, and you will present an offering made by fire to Jehovah.'"

44 So Moses spoke of the seasonal festivals of Jehovah to the Israelites.

10 Now among the Israelites was a son of an Israelite woman and an Egyptian man,[h] and a fight broke out between him and an Israelite man in the camp. 11 The son of the Israelite woman began to abuse the Name* and to curse# it.[i] So they brought him to Moses.[j] Incidentally, his mother was Shelo'mith, the daughter of Dib'ri of the tribe of Dan. 12 They placed him in custody until Jehovah's decision was made clear to them.[k]

13 Then Jehovah said to Moses: 14 "Bring the one who cursed to the outside of the camp, and all those who heard him must lay their hands on his head, and then the entire assembly must stone him.[a] 15 And you should tell the Israelites, 'If any man curses his God, he will answer for his sin. 16 So the abuser of Jehovah's name should be put to death without fail.[b] The entire assembly should stone him without fail. The foreign resident should be put to death the same as the native for his abusing the Name.

17 "'If a man takes a human life,* he should be put to death without fail.[c] 18 Anyone who strikes and kills a domestic animal* should make compensation for it, life for life.# 19 If a man injures his fellow man, then what he has done should be done to him.[d] 20 Fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, the same sort of injury he inflicted should be inflicted on him.[e] 21 The man who strikes and kills an animal should make compensation for it,[f] but the one who strikes and kills a man should be put to death.[g]

22 "'One judicial decision will apply for you, whether a foreign resident or a native,[h] because I am Jehovah your God.'"

23 Moses then spoke to the Israelites, and they brought the one who uttered the curse to the outside of the camp, and they stoned him.[i] Thus the Israelites did just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

25 Jehovah spoke further to Moses on Mount Si'nai, saying: 2 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them, 'When you eventually come into the land that I am giving you,[j] then the land will observe a sabbath to Jehovah.[k] 3 Six years you comes wealthy and your brother has become poor alongside him and must sell himself to the foreign resident or the settler who lives among you, or to a member of the family of the foreign resident, 48 he will continue to have the right of repurchase after he has sold himself. One of his brothers may buy him back,[a] 49 or his uncle or the son of his uncle may buy him back, or any close relative,* one of his family, may buy him back.

"'Or if he himself has become wealthy, he may also buy himself back.[b] 50 He should calculate with his purchaser the time from the year he sold himself to him until the Jubilee year,[c] and the money of his sale will correspond to the number of years.[d] His workdays during that time will be assessed at the rate of a hired worker.[e] 51 If there are many years remaining, he should pay his repurchase price in proportion to the years that are left. 52 But if only a few years remain until the Jubilee year, he should then calculate for himself and pay his repurchase price in proportion to the years remaining. 53 He should continue to serve him year by year as a hired worker; and you should see to it that he does not treat him cruelly.[f] 54 However, if he cannot buy himself back on these terms, he will then go free in the year of Jubilee,[g] he and his children* with him.

55 "'For the Israelites are my own slaves. They are my slaves whom I brought out of the land of Egypt.[h] I am Jehovah your God.

26 "'You must not make worthless gods for yourselves,[i] and you must not set up a carved image[j] or a sacred pillar for yourselves, and you must not put a stone figure[a] in your land in order to bow down toward it;[b] for I am Jehovah your God. 2 You should keep my sabbaths and show reverence for* my sanctuary. I am Jehovah.

3 "'If you continue walking in my statutes and keeping my commandments and you carry them out,[c] 4 I will give you showers of rain at their proper time,[d] and the land will yield its produce,[e] and the trees of the field will give their fruit. 5 Your threshing season will extend until your grape harvest, and the grape harvest will extend until the sowing season; and you will eat your bread to satisfaction and dwell in security in your land.[f] 6 I will put peace in the land,[g] and you will lie down with no one making you afraid;[h] and I will rid the land of vicious wild animals, and a sword of war will not pass through your land. 7 You will certainly pursue your enemies, and they will fall before you by the sword. 8 Five of you will pursue 100, and 100 of you will pursue 10,000, and your enemies will fall before you by the sword.[i]

9 "'I will direct my favor to* you and make you fruitful and multiply you,[j] and I will keep my covenant with you.[k] 10 While you are still eating the old produce of the preceding year, you will need to clear out the old to make way for the new. 11 And I will place my tabernacle in your midst,[l] and I* will not reject you. 12 I will walk among you and be your God,[m] and you for your part will be my people.[n] 13 I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt to in opposition to me, 24 then I too will walk in opposition to you, and I myself will strike you seven times for your sins. 25 I will bring an avenging sword upon you for breaking the covenant.[a] If you gather yourselves into your cities, I will send disease into your midst,[b] and you will be given into the hand of an enemy.[c] 26 When I destroy your supply* of bread,[#d] ten women will be able to bake your bread in only one oven and then ration your bread by weight;[e] and you will eat but you will not be satisfied.[f]

27 "'If in spite of this you will not listen to me and you insist on walking in opposition to me, 28 I will intensify my opposition to you,[g] and I myself will have to chastise you seven times for your sins. 29 So you will have to eat the flesh of your sons, and you will eat the flesh of your daughters.[h] 30 I will annihilate your sacred high places[i] and cut down your incense stands and pile your carcasses on the carcasses of your disgusting idols,[j] and I[#] will turn away from you in disgust.[k] 31 I will give your cities to the sword[l] and make your sanctuaries desolate, and I will not smell the pleasing aromas of your sacrifices. 32 I myself will make the land desolate,[m] and your enemies who are dwelling in it will stare in amazement over it.[n] 33 And I will scatter you among the nations,[o] and I will unsheathe a sword after you;[p] and your land will be made desolate,[q] and your cities will be devastated.

26:26 *Lit., "rod." Possibly referring to rods used for storing bread. #Or "food." 26:30 *The Hebrew term may be related to a word for "dung" and is used as an expression of contempt. #Or "my soul." 26:31 *Or "appeasing; soothing." Lit., "restful."

34 "'At that time the land will pay off its sabbaths all the days it lies desolate, while you are in the land of your enemies. At that time the land will rest,* as it must repay its sabbaths.[a] 35 All the days it lies desolate it will rest, because it did not rest during your sabbaths when you were dwelling on it.

36 "'As for those who survive,[b] I will fill their hearts with despair in the lands of their enemies; and the sound of a blowing leaf will cause them to flee, and they will flee like someone running from the sword and fall without anyone pursuing them.[c] 37 They will stumble over one another like those running from a sword, though no one is pursuing them. You will not be able to resist your enemies.[d] 38 You will perish among the nations,[e] and the land of your enemies will consume you. 39 Those of you who remain will be left to rot in the lands of your enemies[f] because of your error. Yes, they will rot away because of the errors of their fathers.[g] 40 Then they will confess their own error[h] and the error and unfaithfulness of their fathers and admit that they behaved unfaithfully by walking in opposition to me.[i] 41 Then I also walked in opposition to them[j] by bringing them into the land of their enemies.[k]

"'Perhaps then their uncircumcised* heart will be humbled,[l] and then they will pay off their error. 42 And I will remember my covenant with Jacob,[m] and my covenant with Isaac,[n] and I will remember my covenant with Abraham,[o] and I will remember the land. 43 While the land was abandoned by them, it was paying off its sabbaths[a] and lying desolate without them, and they were paying for their error, because they rejected my judicial decisions and they* abhorred my statutes.[b] 44 But despite all of this, while they are in the land of their enemies, I will never completely reject them[c] nor cast them away to the point of exterminating them, which would violate my covenant[d] with them, for I am Jehovah their God. 45 For their sakes I will remember the covenant with their ancestors[e] whom I brought out of the land of Egypt under the eyes of the nations,[f] in order to prove myself their God. I am Jehovah.'"

46 These are the regulations, the judicial decisions, and the laws that Jehovah established between himself and the Israelites on Mount Si'nai through Moses.[g]

27 Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 2 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them, 'If a man makes a special vow[h] to offer the estimated value of a person* to Jehovah, 3 the estimated value of a male from 20 to 60 years old will be 50 shekels* of silver by the standard shekel of the holy place.# 4 But if it is a female, the estimated value will be 30 shekels. 5 If the age is from 5 to 20 years old, the estimated value of the male will be 20 shekels and 10 shekels for the female. 6 If the age is from one month up to five years old, the estimated value of the male will be five shekels of silver and three shekels of silver for the female.

7 "'If the age is 60 years and over, the estimated value will be 15 shekels for the male and

10 shekels for the female. 8 But if he is too poor to pay the estimated value,[a] the person will stand before the priest, and the priest will set a value on him. The priest will make the valuation according to what the one making the vow can afford.[b]

9 "'If the vow involves an animal that is suitable for offering to Jehovah, whatever may be given to Jehovah will become something holy. 10 He may not replace it or exchange it with good for bad or with bad for good. But if he should exchange it with one animal for another animal, the original and what is exchanged for it will both become holy. 11 If it is an unclean animal[c] that may not be presented as an offering to Jehovah, he will then stand the animal before the priest. 12 The priest will then set its value, as to whether it is good or bad. The value estimated by the priest will stand. 13 But if he ever wants to buy it back, he must then give a fifth of it in addition to the estimated value.[d]

14 "'Now if a man should sanctify his house as something holy to Jehovah, the priest will then set its value, whether it is good or bad. According to the value that the priest sets, that is what it will cost.[e] 15 But if the one who sanctifies his house wants to buy it back, he must then give a fifth of the money of the estimated value in addition to it, and it will become his.

16 "'If a man sanctifies to Jehovah some of the field that he possesses, the value will be estimated in proportion to the seed needed to sow it: a ho'mer* of barley seed will be 50 shekels of silver. 17 If he sanctifies his field from the year of Jubilee,[a] the estimated value stands. 18 If he sanctifies his field after the Jubilee, the priest will calculate for him the price in proportion to the years that are left until the next year of Jubilee, and a deduction should be made from the estimated value.[b] 19 But if the one who sanctified it should ever buy the field back, he must then give a fifth of the money of the estimated value in addition to it, and it will remain his. 20 Now if he should not buy the field back and the field is sold to another man, it may not be bought back again. 21 When the field is released in the Jubilee, it will become something holy to Jehovah, as a field that is devoted to him. It will become the property of the priests.[c]

22 "'If a man sanctifies to Jehovah a field he purchased that is not part of his hereditary property,[d] 23 the priest will calculate for him the amount of the valuation up until the year of Jubilee, and he will give the estimated value on that day.[e] It is something holy to Jehovah. 24 In the year of Jubilee, the field will return to the one he bought it from, to the one the land belongs to.[f]

25 "'Every value should be estimated by the standard shekel of the holy place. The shekel should amount to 20 ge'rahs.*

26 "'However, no one should sanctify the firstborn of the animals, since it is born as the firstborn for Jehovah.[g] Whether bull or sheep, it already belongs to Jehovah.[h] 27 If it is among the unclean animals and he redeems it according to the estimated value, he should give a fifth of it in addition to it.[i] But if it is not bought back, it will be sold according to the estimated value.

1 And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Si′nai,[a] in the tent of meeting,[b] on the first day of the second month, in the second year of their coming out of the land of Egypt.[c] He said: 2 "Take a census[d] of the whole assembly of the Israelites* individually# according to their families, according to their paternal houses, according to the count of the names of all the males. 3 You and Aaron are to register by their companies* all those from 20 years old and up[e] who can serve in the army in Israel.

4 "Take with you one man from each tribe; each one is to be a head of his paternal house.[f] 5 These are the names of the men who will stand with you: of Reu′ben, E·li′zur[g] the son of Shed′e·ur; 6 of Sim′e·on, She·lu′mi·el[h] the son of Zu·ri·shad′dai; 7 of Judah, Nah′shon[i] the son of Am·min′a·dab; 8 of Is′sachar, Ne·than′el[j] the son of Zu′ar; 9 of Zeb′u·lun, E·li′ab[k] the son of He′lon; 10 of the sons of Joseph: from E′phra·im,[l] E·lish′ama the son of Am·mi′hud; from Ma·nas′seh, Ga·ma′li·el the son of Pe·dah′zur; 11 of Benjamin, Ab′i·dan[m] the son of Gid·e·o′ni; 12 of Dan, A·hi·e′zer[n] the son of Am·mi·shad′dai; 13 of Ash′er, Pa′gi·el[o] the son of Och′ran; 14 of Gad, E·li′a·saph[p] the son of Deu′el; 15 of Naph′ta·li, A·hi′ra[q] the son of E′nan. 16 These are the ones summoned from the assembly. They are the chieftains[r] of the tribes of their fathers, the heads of the thousands of Israel."[s]

17 So Moses and Aaron took these men who had been designated by name. 18 They gathered all the assembly on the first day of the second month, so that they might be registered individually by name, by family, and by their paternal houses, from 20 years old and up,[a] 19 just as Jehovah had commanded Moses. So he registered them in the wilderness of Si′nai.[b]

20 The sons of Reu′ben, the descendants of Israel's firstborn,[c] were listed by name, by family, and by their paternal houses. All the males from 20 years old and up who could serve in the army were counted individually, 21 and the number registered of the tribe of Reu′ben was 46,500.

22 The descendants of Sim′e·on[d] were listed by name, by family, and by their paternal houses. All the males from 20 years old and up who could serve in the army were counted individually, 23 and the number registered of the tribe of Sim′e·on was 59,300.

44 These were registered by Moses together with Aaron and the 12 chieftains of Israel, each representing his paternal house. 45 All the Israelites from 20 years old and up who could serve in the army in Israel were registered by their paternal house, 46 and the total number registered was 603,550.[a]

47 But the Levites[b] were not registered in among them by the tribe of their fathers.[c] 48 So Jehovah told Moses: 49 "Only the tribe of Le′vi you are not to register, and you should not include the number of them along with the other Israelites.[d] 50 You should appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of the Testimony[e] and over all its utensils and over everything that belongs to it.[f] They will carry the tabernacle and all its utensils,[g] and they will minister at it,[h] and they are to camp around the tabernacle.[i] 51 Whenever the tabernacle is to be moved, the Levites should take it down;[j] and when the tabernacle is to be reassembled, the Levites should set it up; and any unauthorized person* who comes near should be put to death.[k]

E′nan. 30 Those registered in his army are 53,400.[a]

31 "All those registered in the camp of Dan are 157,600. They should break camp last,[b] according to their three-tribe divisions."

32 These were the Israelites who were registered according to their paternal houses; the total of those in the camps registered for the army was 603,550.[c] 33 But the Levites did not get registered[d] along with the other Israelites,[e] just as Jehovah had commanded Moses. 34 The Israelites did everything that Jehovah had commanded Moses. This is how they encamped by their three-tribe divisions[f] and how they broke camp,[g] each by family and according to their paternal houses.

3 Now these were the family lines* of Aaron and Moses in the day that Jehovah spoke with Moses on Mount Si′nai.[h] 2 These were the names of Aaron's sons: the firstborn Na′dab, and A·bi′hu,[i] El·e·a′zar,[j] and Ith′amar.[k] 3 These were the names of Aaron's sons, the anointed priests who had been installed* to serve as priests.[l] 4 However, Na′dab and A·bi′hu died before Jehovah when they offered unauthorized fire before Jehovah[m] in the wilderness of Si′nai, and they did not have any sons. But El·e·a′zar[n] and Ith′a·mar[o] continued to serve as priests along with Aaron their father.

5 Jehovah then said to Moses: 6 "Bring the tribe of Le′vi[p] forward, and stand them before Aaron the priest, and they will minister[q] to him. 7 They are to fulfill their responsibilities toward him and toward all the assembly before the tent of meeting by carrying out their service in connection with the tabernacle. 8 They are to take care of all the utensils[a] of the tent of meeting and to carry out their responsibilities toward the Israelites by taking care of the services related to the tabernacle.[b] 9 You are to give the Levites to Aaron and his sons. They are given ones, given to him from the Israelites.[c] 10 You should appoint Aaron and his sons, and they are to carry out their priestly duties,[d] and any unauthorized person* who comes near should be put to death."[e]

11 Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 12 "As for me, look! I take the Levites from among the Israelites in place of all the firstborn* of the Israelites,[f] and the Levites will become mine. 13 For every firstborn is mine.[g] In the day that I struck every firstborn in the land of Egypt,[h] I sanctified to myself every firstborn in Israel from man to beast.[i] They are to become mine. I am Jehovah."

14 Jehovah spoke further to Moses in the wilderness of Si′nai,[j] saying: 15 "Register the sons of Le′vi by their paternal houses and by their families. You should register every male from a month old and up."[k] 16 So Moses registered them at the order of Jehovah, just as he had been commanded. 17 These were the names of the sons of Le′vi: Ger′shon, Ko′hath, and Me·rar′i.[l]

18 Now these were the names of the sons of Ger′shon by their families: Lib′ni and Shim′e·i.[m]

19 The sons of Ko′hath by their families were Am′ram, Iz′har, Heb′ron, and Uz′zi·el.[n]

20 The sons of Me·rar′i by their families were Mah′li[o] and Mu′shi.[p]

These were the families of the Levites by their paternal houses.

21 From Ger′shon came the family of the Lib′nites[a] and the family of the Shim′e·ites. These were the families of the Ger′shon·ites. 22 The number of all their males a month old and up who were registered was 7,500.[b] 23 The families of the Ger′shon·ites were encamped behind the tabernacle[c] toward the west. 24 The chieftain of the paternal house of the Ger′shon·ites was E·li′a·saph the son of La′el. 25 The responsibility of the sons of Ger′shon[d] in the tent of meeting was to care for the tabernacle and the tent,[e] its covering,[f] the screen*[g] of the entrance of the tent of meeting, 26 the hanging curtains[h] of the courtyard, the screen*[i] of the entrance of the courtyard that surrounds the tabernacle and the altar, its tent cords, and all the service connected with these.

27 From Ko′hath came the family of the Am′ram·ites, the family of the Iz′har·ites, the family of the Heb′ron·ites, and the family of the Uz·zi′el·ites. These were the families of the Ko′hath·ites.[j] 28 The number of all the males from a month old and up was 8,600; they were responsible for taking care of the holy place.[k] 29 The families of the sons of Ko′hath camped on the south side of the tabernacle.[l] 30 The chieftain of the paternal house of the families of the Ko′hath·ites was E·li·za′phan the son of Uz′zi·el.[m] 31 Their responsibility was to care for the Ark,[n] the table,[o] the lampstand,[p] the altars,[q] the utensils[r] used to minister in the holy place, the screen,*[s] and all the service connected with these.[t]

32 The head chieftain of the Levites was El·e·a′zar[u] the son of Aaron the priest, who had the oversight of those taking care of the responsibilities of the holy place.

33 From Me·rar′i came the family of the Mah′lites and the family of the Mu′shites. These were the families of Merar′i.[a] 34 The number of all the males from a month old and up who were registered was 6,200.[b] 35 The chieftain of the paternal house of the families of Merar′i was Zu·ri·el the son of Ab′i·ha·il. They were encamped on the north side of the tabernacle.[c] 36 The sons of Me·rar′i were responsible for overseeing the panel frames[d] of the tabernacle, its bars,[e] its pillars,[f] its socket pedestals, all its utensils,[g] and all the service connected with these,[h] 37 as well as the pillars that were all around the courtyard and their socket pedestals,[i] their tent pins, and their tent cords.

38 Those camping in front of the tabernacle toward the east, before the tent of meeting toward the sunrise, were Moses and Aaron and his sons. They were responsible for taking care of the sanctuary as their obligation in behalf of the Israelites. Any unauthorized person* coming near would be put to death.[j]

39 All the Levite males from a month old and up, whom Moses and Aaron registered by their families at the order of Jehovah, were 22,000.

40 Then Jehovah said to Moses: “Register all the firstborn males of the Israelites from a month old and up,[k] count them, and make a list of their names. 41 You must take the Levites for me—I am Jehovah—in place of all the firstborn of the Israelites,[l] and take the domestic animals

44 Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 45 "Take the Levites in place of all the firstborn among the Israelites, and take the domestic animals of the Levites in place of their domestic animals, and the Levites must become mine. I am Jehovah. 46 As the ransom price[b] of the 273 of the firstborn of the Israelites who are in excess of the Levites,[c] 47 you are to take five shekels* for each individual,[d] according to the standard shekel of the holy place.[#] A shekel is 20 ge'rahs.[△e] 48 You are to give the money to Aaron and his sons as the ransom price of those who are in excess of them." 49 So Moses took the money of the redemption price from those who were in excess of the ransom price of the Levites. 50 He took the money from the firstborn of the Israelites, 1,365 shekels, according to the standard shekel of the holy place. 51 Then Moses gave the money of the ransom price to Aaron and his sons according to the word* of Jehovah, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

4 Jehovah now spoke to Moses and Aaron, saying: 2 "A census should be taken of the sons of Ko'hath[f] from among the sons of Le'vi, by their families and by their paternal houses, 3 all those from 30[a] to 50 years old[b] who are in the group assigned to work in the tent of meeting.[c]

15 "Aaron and his sons must finish covering the holy place[c] and all the utensils of the holy place when the camp is departing. Then the sons of Ko'hath will come in to carry them,[d] but they must not touch the holy place or they will die.[e] These things are the responsibility* of the sons of Ko'hath in connection with the tent of meeting.

16 "El·e·a'zar[f] the son of Aaron the priest is responsible for overseeing the oil of the lighting,[g] the perfumed incense,[h] the regular grain offering, and the anointing oil.[i] He has oversight of the entire tabernacle and all that is in it, including the holy place and its utensils."

17 Jehovah spoke further to Moses and Aaron, saying: 18 "Do not let the tribe of the families of the Ko'hath·ites[j] be cut off from among the Levites. 19 But do this for them that they may remain alive and not die because of approaching the most holy things.[k] Aaron and his sons will go in and assign each of them to his service and what he is to carry. 20 They must not come in and see the holy things even for an instant, or they will die."[l]

21 Then Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 22 "A census should be taken of the sons of Ger'shon[m] by their paternal houses and their families. 23 You are to register all those from 30 to 50 years old who are in the group assigned to serve in the tent of meeting. 24 This is what the families of the Ger'shon·ites are assigned to care for and to carry:[a] 25 They will carry the tent cloths of the tabernacle,[b] the tent of meeting, its covering and the sealskin covering that is on top over it,[c] the screen* of the entrance of the tent of meeting,[d] 26 the hanging curtains of the courtyard,[e] the screen* of the entrance of the courtyard[f] that surrounds the tabernacle and the altar, their tent cords and all their utensils and everything used in its service. This is their assignment. 27 All the service and the loads of the Ger'shonites[g] should be overseen by Aaron and his sons; you will assign all these loads as their responsibility. 28 This is the service that the families of the Ger'shonites are to carry out in the tent of meeting,[h] and their responsibilities are under the direction of Ith'a·mar[i] the son of Aaron the priest.

29 "As for the sons of Merar'i,[j] you will register them by family and by their paternal house. 30 From 30 to 50 years old you will register them, all who are in the group assigned to the service of the tent of meeting. 31 This is what they are responsible for carrying[k] in connection with their service at the tent of meeting: the panel frames[l] of the tabernacle, its bars,[m] its pillars,[n] its socket pedestals;[o] 32 the pillars[p] of the surrounding courtyard, their socket pedestals,[q] their tent pins,[r] and their tent cords together with all their equipment and all the service connected with these. You will assign to them by name the equipment they are responsible for carrying. 33 This is how the families of the sons of Me·rar′i[a] are to serve at the tent of meeting, under the direction of Ith′a·mar the son of Aaron the priest.”[b]

34 Moses and Aaron and the chieftains[c] of the assembly then registered the sons of the Ko′hath·ites[d] by their families and by their paternal house, 35 all those from 30 to 50 years old who were in the group assigned to the service of the tent of meeting.[e] 36 The total of those registered by their families was 2,750.[f] 37 These were registered from the families of the Ko′hath·ites, all those who were serving at the tent of meeting. Moses and Aaron registered them at the order of Jehovah through Moses.[g]

38 The sons of Ger′shon[h] were registered by their families and by their paternal house, 39 all those from 30 to 50 years old who were in the group assigned to the service at the tent of meeting. 40 The total of those registered by their families and by their paternal house was 2,630.[i] 41 This was the registration of the families of the sons of Ger′shon, all those who were serving at the tent of meeting. Moses and Aaron had them registered at the order of Jehovah.[j]

42 The sons of Me·rar′i were registered by their families and by their paternal house, 43 all those from 30 to 50 years old who were in the group assigned to the service at the tent of meeting.[k] 44 The total of those registered of them by their families was 3,200.[l] 45 This was the registration of the families of the sons of Me·rar′i, whom Moses and Aaron registered at the order of Jehovah through Moses.[m]

46 Moses and Aaron and the chieftains of Israel registered all these Levites by their families and by their paternal houses; 47 they were from 30 to 50 years old, and all were assigned to serve and carry loads in connection with the tent of meeting.[a] 48 The total of those registered was 8,580.[b] 49 They were registered at the order of Jehovah through Moses, each according to his assigned service and his load; they were registered just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

5 Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 2 “Command the Israelites to send out of the camp every leprous person[c] and everyone having a discharge[d] and everyone unclean by a dead person.[e] 3 Whether a male or a female, you should send them out. You should send them outside the camp, so that they may not contaminate[f] the camps of those in whose midst I am dwelling.”[g] 4 Therefore, the Israelites did so and sent them outside the camp. Just as Jehovah told Moses, so the Israelites did.

5 Jehovah continued speaking to Moses, saying: 6 “Tell the Israelites, ‘If a man or a woman commits any of the sins of mankind and acts unfaithfully toward Jehovah, that person* has become guilty.[h] 7 He* must confess[i] the sin that he has# committed and return the full amount as compensation for his guilt and also add a fifth of its value;[j] he is to give it to the one he wronged. 8 But if the victim does not have a close relative to receive the compensation, it should be returned to Jehovah and will belong to the priest, apart from the ram of atonement with which he will make atonement for him.[k]

9 "'Every holy contribution[a] from the Israelites that is presented to the priest should become his.[b] 10 The holy things of each person will remain his own. Whatever each one gives to the priest, that will belong to the priest.'"

11 Jehovah went on to speak to Moses, saying: 12 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them, 'This is what should be done if a man's wife goes astray and is unfaithful to him 13 and another man has sexual relations with her,[c] but it was unknown to her husband and remains undiscovered, so that she has defiled herself but there is no witness against her and she has not been caught: 14 Whether the husband becomes jealous and suspicious of his wife's faithfulness when she has defiled herself, or whether he is jealous and suspicious of his wife's faithfulness when she has not defiled herself, 15 the man must bring his wife to the priest, along with an offering for her, a tenth of an e'phah* of barley flour. He must not pour oil on it nor put frankincense on it, because it is a grain offering of jealousy, a grain offering bringing guilt to mind.

16 "'The priest will bring her forward and make her stand before Jehovah.[d] 17 The priest will take holy water in an earthenware vessel, and the priest will take some of the dust from the floor of the tabernacle and put it in the water. 18 And the priest will make the woman stand before Jehovah and unbind the woman's hair and put in her palms the grain offering for a reminder, that is, the grain offering of jealousy,[e] and the priest will have in his hand the bitter water that brings a curse.[f]

19 "'The priest will then make her swear, saying to the woman: "If no other man had sexual relations with you while you were under your husband's authority[a] and you have not gone astray and become defiled, may you be free of the effect of this bitter water that brings a curse. 20 But if you have gone astray while under your husband's authority by defiling yourself, and you have had sexual relations with another man[b] besides your husband—" 21 The priest will then make the woman swear an oath that includes a curse, and the priest will say to the woman: "May Jehovah make you an object for cursing and for an oath among your people, as Jehovah makes your thigh* fall away# and causes your abdomen to swell. 22 This water that brings a curse will enter into your intestines to cause your abdomen to swell and make your thigh* fall away."# To this the woman should say: "Amen! Amen!"△

23 "'Then the priest should write these curses in the book and wash them off into the bitter water. 24 He will then make the woman drink the bitter water that brings a curse, and the water that brings a curse will enter into her and produce bitterness. 25 And the priest should take the grain offering of jealousy[c] from the woman's hand and wave the grain offering back and forth before Jehovah, and he will bring it near the altar. 26 The priest will take a handful of the grain offering as a token offering and make it smoke on the altar,[d] and afterward he will make the woman drink the water. 27 When he makes her

29 "'This is the law about jealousy,[a] when a woman may go astray and defile herself while under her husband's authority, 30 or in the case of a man who becomes jealous and suspects his wife of unfaithfulness; he should make his wife stand before Jehovah, and the priest must carry out toward her all this law. 31 The man will be free from guilt, but his wife will answer for her guilt.'"

6 Jehovah spoke further to Moses and said: 2 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them, 'If a man or a woman takes a special vow to live as a Naz'i·rite*[b] to Jehovah, 3 he should keep away from wine and other alcoholic beverages. He should not drink the vinegar of wine or the vinegar of anything alcoholic.[c] He should not drink any liquid made from grapes, nor eat grapes, whether fresh or dried. 4 All the days of his Naziriteship he should not eat anything made from the grapevine, from the unripe grapes to the skins.

5 "'All the days of the vow of his Naziriteship no razor should pass over his head.[a] He is to remain holy by letting the hair of his head grow until the days of his being set apart to Jehovah are completed. 6 He should not approach* a dead person# during all the days he remains separated to Jehovah. 7 Even if his father or his mother or his brother or his sister should die, he may not defile himself,[b] because the sign of his Naziriteship to his God is upon his head.

8 "'He is holy to Jehovah all the days of his Naziriteship. 9 But if someone should suddenly die alongside him[c] and he defiles the hair symbolizing his separation to God,* he must shave his head[d] on the day he establishes his purification. He should shave it on the seventh day. 10 And on the eighth day, he should bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest at the entrance of the tent of meeting. 11 The priest will prepare one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering and make atonement for him for his sin[e] in connection with the dead person.* Then he must sanctify his head on that day. 12 And he must separate himself again to Jehovah for the days of his Naziriteship, and he will bring a young ram in its first year as a guilt offering. However, the former days will go uncounted because he defiled his Naziriteship.

13 "'Now this is the law about the Naz'i·rite: When he completes the days of his Naziriteship,[f] he will be brought to the entrance of the tent of meeting. 14 There he must present his offering to Jehovah: one sound young ram in its

27 And they must place my name upon the people of Israel,[e] that I may bless them."[f]

7 On the day that Moses finished setting up the tabernacle,[g] he anointed it[h] and sanctified it, together with all its furnishings, the altar, and all its utensils.[i] When he had anointed and sanctified these things,[j] 2 the chieftains of Israel,[k] the heads of their paternal houses, made an offering. These chieftains of the tribes who presided over the registration 3 brought before Jehovah their offering of six covered wagons and 12 oxen, a wagon for two chieftains and a bull* for each one; and they presented them before the tabernacle. 4 Jehovah said to Moses: 5 "Accept these things from them, as they will be used for the service of the tent of meeting, and you should give them to the Levites, to each one as needed for his duties."

6 So Moses accepted the wagons and the cattle and gave them to the Levites. 7 He gave two wagons and four oxen to the sons of Ger'shon, according to what was needed for their duties;[l] 8 and he gave four wagons and eight oxen to the sons of Me·rar'i, according to what was needed for their duties, under the direction of Ith'a·mar the son of Aaron the priest.[a] 9 But he did not give any to the sons of Ko′hath because their duties involved the service of the holy place,[b] and they carried the holy things on their shoulders.[c]

10 Now the chieftains made their presentation at the inauguration*[d] of the altar on the day it was anointed. When the chieftains presented their offering before the altar, 11 Jehovah said to Moses: "One chieftain each day, on successive days, will present his offering for the inauguration of the altar."

12 The one who presented his offering on the first day was Nah′shon[e] the son of Ammin′a·dab of the tribe of Judah. 13 His offering was one silver dish weighing 130 shekels* and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels by the standard shekel of the holy place,#[f] both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;[g] 14 one gold cup* weighing 10 shekels, full of incense; 15 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year for a burnt offering;[h] 16 one young goat for a sin offering;[i] 17 and for a communion sacrifice,[j] two cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs each a year old. This was the offering of Nah′shon the son of Am·min′a·dab.[k]

18 On the second day, Nethan′el[l] the son of Zu′ar, the chieftain of Is′sa·char, made a presentation. 19 He presented as his offering one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels by the standard shekel of the holy place,[m] both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;[a] 20 one gold cup weighing 10 shekels, full of incense; 21 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year for a burnt offering;[b] 22 one young goat for a sin offering;[c] 23 and for a communion sacrifice,[d] two cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs each a year old. This was the offering of Nethan′el the son of Zu′ar.

24 On the third day, the chieftain for the sons of Zeb′u·lun, E·li′ab[e] the son of He′lon, 25 made his offering of one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels by the standard shekel of the holy place,[f] both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;[g] 26 one gold cup weighing 10 shekels, full of incense; 27 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year for a burnt offering;[h] 28 one young goat for a sin offering;[i] 29 and for a communion sacrifice,[j] two cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs each a year old. This was the offering of E·li′ab[k] the son of He′lon.

30 On the fourth day, the chieftain for the sons of Reu′ben, E·li′zur[l] the son of Shed′eur, 31 made his offering of one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels by the standard shekel of the holy place,[m] both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;[n] 32 one gold cup weighing 10 shekels, full of incense; 33 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year for a burnt offering;[o] 34 one young goat for a sin offering;[p] 35 and for a communion sacrifice,[q] two cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs each a year old. 54 On the eighth day, the chieftain for the sons of Manas′seh, Ga·ma′li·el[e] the son of Pe·dah′zur, 55 made his offering of one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels by the standard shekel of the holy place,[f] both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;[g] 56 one gold cup weighing 10 shekels, full of incense; 57 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year, for a burnt offering;[h] 58 one young goat for a sin offering;[i] 59 and for a communion sacrifice,[j] two cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs each a year old. This was the offering of Ga·ma′li·el[k] the son of Pe·dah′zur.

60 On the ninth day, the chieftain[l] for the sons of Benjamin, Ab′i·dan[m] the son of Gid·e·o′ni, 61 made his offering of one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels by the standard shekel of the holy place,[n] both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;[o] 62 one gold cup weighing 10 shekels, full of incense; 63 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year for a burnt offering;[p] 64 one young goat for a sin offering;[q] 65 and for a communion sacrifice,[r] two cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs each a year old. offering of Ab′i·dan[a] the son of Gid·e·o′ni.

66 On the tenth day, the chieftain for the sons of Dan, A·hi·e′zer[b] the son of Am·mi·shad′dai, 67 made his offering of one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels by the standard shekel of the holy place,[c] both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;[d] 68 one gold cup weighing 10 shekels, full of incense; 69 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year for a burnt offering;[e] 70 one young goat for a sin offering;[f] 71 and for a communion sacrifice,[g] two cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs each a year old. This was the offering of A·hi·e′zer[h] the son of Am·mi·shad′dai.

72 On the 11th day, the chieftain for the sons of Ash′er, Pa′gi·el[i] the son of Och′ran, 73 made his offering of one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels by the standard shekel of the holy place,[j] both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;[k] 74 one gold cup weighing 10 shekels, full of incense; 75 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year for a burnt offering;[l] 76 one young goat for a sin offering;[m] 77 and for a communion sacrifice,[n] two cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs each a year old. This was the offering of Pa′gi·el[o] the son of Och′ran.

78 On the 12th day, the chieftain for the sons of Naph′ta·li, A·hi′ra[p] the son of E′nan, 79 made his offering of one silver dish weighing 130 shekels and one silver bowl weighing 70 shekels by the standard shekel of the holy place,[q] both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering;[a] 80 one gold cup weighing 10 shekels, full of incense; 81 one young bull, one ram, and one male lamb in its first year for a burnt offering;[b] 82 one young goat for a sin offering;[c] 83 and for a communion sacrifice,[d] two cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs each a year old. This was the offering of A·hi′ra[e] the son of E′nan.

84 This was the inauguration offering[f] of the altar from the chieftains of Israel when it was anointed: 12 silver dishes, 12 silver bowls, 12 gold cups;[g] 85 each silver dish weighing 130 shekels and each bowl weighing 70 shekels, all the silver of the vessels amounting to 2,400 shekels by the standard shekel of the holy place;[h] 86 the 12 gold cups full of incense each weighed 10 shekels by the standard shekel of the holy place, all the gold of the cups amounting to 120 shekels. 87 All the cattle for the burnt offering were 12 bulls, 12 rams, 12 male lambs each a year old and their grain offerings, and 12 young goats for a sin offering; 88 and all the cattle of the communion sacrifice amounted to 24 bulls, 60 rams, 60 male goats, and 60 male lambs each a year old. This was the inauguration offering[i] of the altar after it was anointed.[j]

89 Whenever Moses went into the tent of meeting to speak with God,*[k] he would hear the voice conversing with him from above the cover[l] of the ark of the Testimony, from between the two cherubs;[m] and God would speak to him.

8 Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying: 2 “Speak to Aaron and tell him, ‘When you light up the lamps, the seven lamps should shine on the area in front of the lampstand.'"[a] 3 So Aaron did this: He lit up its lamps for the area in front of the lampstand,[b] just as Jehovah had commanded Moses. 4 This is how the lampstand was made: It was hammered work of gold; from its stem to its blossoms, it was hammered work.[c] The lampstand was made according to the vision[d] that Jehovah had shown Moses.

5 Jehovah spoke again to Moses, saying: 6 "Take the Levites from among the Israelites, and cleanse them.[e] 7 This is how you should cleanse them: Sprinkle sin-cleansing water on them, and they must shave their whole body with a razor, wash their garments, and cleanse themselves.[f] 8 Then they will take a young bull[g] and its grain offering[h] of fine flour mixed with oil, and you will take another young bull for a sin offering.[i] 9 And you are to present the Levites before the tent of meeting and gather all the assembly of the Israelites.[j] 10 When you present the Levites before Jehovah, the Israelites are to lay their hands on the Levites.[k] 11 And Aaron must offer* the Levites before Jehovah as a wave offering[l] from the Israelites, and they will carry out the service of Jehovah.[m]

12 "Then the Levites will lay their hands on the heads of the bulls[n] and offer the one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to Jehovah to make atonement[o] for the Levites. 13 And you will have the Levites stand before Aaron and his sons and offer* them as a wave offering to Jehovah. 14 You must separate the Levites from among the Israelites, and the Levites will become mine.[p] 15 Afterward, the Levites will come in to serve at the tent of meeting. This is how you should cleanse them and offer* them as a wave offering. 16 For they are given ones, given to me from among the Israelites. In place of all those who are firstborn* of the Israelites,[a] I will take them for myself. 17 For every firstborn among the Israelites is mine, both man and animal.[b] I sanctified them to myself on the day I struck down every firstborn in the land of Egypt.[c] 18 I will take the Levites in place of all the firstborn among the Israelites. 19 I will give the Levites as given ones to Aaron and his sons from among the Israelites, to carry out the service in behalf of the Israelites at the tent of meeting[d] and to make atonement for the Israelites, so that no plague may occur among the Israelites[e] because the people of Israel come near the holy place."

20 Moses and Aaron and all the assembly of the Israelites did this with the Levites. In accord with all that Jehovah had commanded Moses regarding the Levites, that is what the Israelites did with them. 21 So the Levites purified themselves and washed their garments,[f] after which Aaron offered* them as a wave offering before Jehovah.[g] Then Aaron made atonement for them to cleanse them.[h] 22 Thereafter, the Levites went in to carry out their service at the tent of meeting before Aaron and his sons. Just as Jehovah had commanded Moses respecting the Levites, so they did with them.

23 Jehovah now spoke to Moses, saying: 24 "This applies to the Levites: From 25 years old and up, a man will join the company of those in the service of the tent of meeting. 25 But after the age of 50 years, he will retire from the service company and not serve any longer. 26 He may minister to his brothers who are taking care of the responsibilities at the tent of meeting, but he must not perform the service there. This is what you are to do regarding the Levites and their responsibilities."[a]

9 Jehovah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Si′nai in the first month[b] of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying: 2 "The Israelites should prepare the Passover sacrifice[c] at its appointed time.[d] 3 On the 14th day of this month at twilight,* you should prepare it at its appointed time. According to all its statutes and all its set procedures, you should prepare it."[e]

4 So Moses told the Israelites to prepare the Passover sacrifice. 5 Then they prepared the Passover sacrifice in the first month, on the 14th day of the month at twilight,* in the wilderness of Si′nai. According to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses, so the Israelites did.

6 Now there were men who had become unclean by touching a dead body,[f] so that they were not able to prepare the Passover sacrifice on that day. So those men presented themselves before Moses and Aaron on that day[g] 7 and said to him: "We are unclean because of touching a dead body. Why should we be kept from presenting the offering to Jehovah at its appointed time among the Israelites?"[h] 8 At this Moses said to them: "Wait there, and let me hear what Jehovah may command regarding you."[a]

9 Then Jehovah said to Moses: 10 "Tell the Israelites, 'Although any man among you or of your future generations should become unclean by touching a dead body*[b] or should be off on a distant journey, he must still prepare the Passover sacrifice to Jehovah. 11 They should prepare it in the second month,[c] on the 14th day at twilight.* They should eat it together with unleavened bread and bitter greens.[d] 12 They must not let any of it remain until morning,[e] and they should not break any bone in it.[f] They should prepare it according to every statute regarding the Passover. 13 But if a man was clean or was not off on a journey and neglected to prepare the Passover sacrifice, that person* must then be cut off# from his people,[g] because he did not present the offering of Jehovah at its appointed time. That man will answer for his sin.

14 "'And if a foreign resident is residing with you, he should also prepare the Passover sacrifice to Jehovah.[h] He should do so according to the statute of the Passover and its set procedure.[i] There should exist one statute for you, both for the foreign resident and for the native of the land.'"[j]

15 Now on the day the tabernacle was set up,[k] the cloud covered the tabernacle, the tent of the Testimony, but in the evening what appeared to be fire remained over the tabernacle until morning.[l] 16 That is what continued to take place: The cloud would cover it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.[a] 17 Whenever the cloud lifted from the tent, the Israelites would promptly depart,[b] and in the place where the cloud would remain, there is where the Israelites would encamp.[c] 18 At the order of Jehovah the Israelites would depart, and at the order of Jehovah they would encamp.[d] As long as the cloud remained over the tabernacle, they would remain encamped. 19 When the cloud would stay over the tabernacle for many days, the Israelites would obey Jehovah and not depart.[e] 20 Sometimes the cloud would remain for a few days over the tabernacle. At the order of Jehovah they would remain encamped, and at the order of Jehovah they would depart. 21 Sometimes the cloud would remain only from evening until morning, and when the cloud lifted in the morning, they would depart. Whether it was day or night when the cloud lifted, they would depart.[f] 22 Whether it was two days, a month, or longer, as long as the cloud stayed over the tabernacle, the Israelites remained encamped and would not depart. But when it lifted, they would depart. 23 At the order of Jehovah they would encamp, and at the order of Jehovah they would depart. They kept their obligation to Jehovah at the order of Jehovah through Moses.

10 Jehovah then said to Moses: 2 "Make two trumpets[g] for yourself; make them of hammered silver, and use them to summon the assembly and to break up the camps. 3 When both of them are blown, the whole assembly must be summoned to you at the entrance of the tent of meeting.[h] 4 If just one is blown, only the chieftains, the heads of the thousands of Israel, will be summoned to you.[i]

5 "When you sound a fluctuating trumpet blast, the camps of those to the east[a] should depart. 6 When you sound a fluctuating trumpet blast a second time, the camps of those to the south[b] should depart. They should sound the trumpet blasts in this way each time one of them departs.

7 "Now when calling the congregation together, you should blow the trumpets,[c] but not with fluctuating blasts. 8 Aaron's sons, the priests, should blow the trumpets,[d] and the use of them will serve as a lasting statute for you throughout your generations.

9 "If you should go to war in your land against an oppressor who is harassing you, you should sound a war call on the trumpets,[e] and you will be remembered by Jehovah your God and be saved from your enemies.

10 "Also, on your joyous occasions[f]—your festivals[g] and at the beginning of your months—you are to sound the trumpets over your burnt offerings[h] and your communion sacrifices;[i] they will serve as a reminder for you before your God. I am Jehovah your God."[j]

11 Now in the second year, in the second month, on the 20th day of the month,[k] the cloud lifted from over the tabernacle[l] of the Testimony. 12 So the Israelites began to pull away from the wilderness of Si'nai in the order established for their departure,[m] and the cloud settled in the wilderness of Pa'ran.[n] 13 This was the first time they departed following the order of Jehovah through Moses.[o]

14 So the three-tribe division of the camp of the sons of Judah departed first by their companies,* and Nah'shon[p] the son of

Am·min′a·dab was over its company. 15 Over the company of the tribe of the sons of Is′sachar was Ne·than′el[a] the son of Zu′ar. 16 Over the company of the tribe of the sons of Zeb′u·lun was E·li′ab[b] the son of He′lon.

17 When the tabernacle was taken down,[c] the sons of Ger′shon[d] and the sons of Me·rar′i,[e] who carried the tabernacle, departed.

18 Then the three-tribe division of the camp of Reu′ben departed by their companies,* and E·li′zur[f] the son of Shed′e·ur was over its company. 19 Over the company of the tribe of the sons of Sim′e·on was She·lu′mi·el[g] the son of Zu·ri·shad′dai. 20 Over the company of the tribe of the sons of Gad was E·li′a·saph[h] the son of Deu′el.

21 Then the Ko′hath·ites, who carried the sanctuary items,[i] departed. The tabernacle was to be set up by the time they arrived.

22 Then the three-tribe division of the camp of the sons of E′phra·im departed by their companies,* and E·lish′a·ma[j] the son of Am·mi′hud was over its company. 23 Over the company of the tribe of the sons of Ma·nas′seh was Ga·ma′li·el[k] the son of Pe·dah′zur. 24 Over the company of the tribe of the sons of Benjamin was Ab′i·dan[l] the son of Gid·e·o′ni.

25 Then the three-tribe division of the camp of the sons of Dan departed by their companies,* forming the rear guard for all the camps, and A·hi·e′zer[m] the son of Am·mi·shad′dai was over its company. 26 Over the company of the tribe of the sons of Ash′er was Pa′gi·el[n] the son of Och′ran. 27 Over the company of the tribe of the sons of Naph′ta·li was A·hi′ra[o] the son of E′nan. 28 This was the order of departure that the Israelites and their companies* followed when they would depart.[a]

29 Then Moses said to Ho′bab the son of Reu′el*[b] the Mid′i·anite, the father-in-law of Moses: "We are setting out for the place about which Jehovah said, 'I will give it to you.'[c] Do come with us,[d] and we will treat you well, because Jehovah has promised good things for Israel."[e] 30 But he said to him: "I will not go. I will return to my own country and to my relatives." 31 At this he said: "Please do not leave us, for you know where we should camp in the wilderness, and you can serve as our guide.* 32 And if you do come with us,[f] whatever goodness Jehovah shows to us, we will surely show to you."

33 So they began marching from the mountain of Jehovah[g] for a journey of three days, and the ark[h] of Jehovah's covenant traveled before them for the three-day journey to search out a resting-place for them.[i] 34 And Jehovah's cloud[j] was over them by day when they set out from the encampment.

35 Whenever the Ark was moved, Moses would say: "Rise up, O Jehovah,[k] and let your enemies be scattered, and let those who hate you flee from before you." 36 And when it would rest, he would say: "Do return, O Jehovah, to the countless* thousands of Israel."[l]

11 Now the people began to complain bitterly before Jehovah. When Jehovah heard it, his anger flared, and a fire from Jehovah began to blaze against them and to consume some on the outskirts of the camp. 2 When the people began to cry out to Moses, he made supplication to Jehovah,[a] and the fire died out. 3 So that place was given the name Tab'e-rah,* because a fire from Jehovah had blazed against them.[b]

4 The mixed crowd*[c] who were in their midst then expressed selfish longing,[d] and the Israelites too began to weep again and say: "Who will give us meat to eat?[e] 5 How fondly we remember the fish that we used to eat without cost in Egypt, also the cucumbers, the watermelons, the leeks, the onions, and the garlic![f] 6 But now we* are withering away. We see nothing at all except this manna."[g]

7 Incidentally, the manna[h] was like coriander seed,[i] and it looked like bdellium gum. 8 The people would spread out and pick it up and grind it in hand mills or pound it in a mortar. Then they would boil it in cooking pots or make it into round loaves,[j] and it tasted like an oiled sweet cake. 9 When the dew descended on the camp by night, the manna would also descend on it.[k]

10 Moses heard the people weeping, family after family, each man at the entrance of his tent. And Jehovah became very angry,[l] and Moses was also very displeased. 11 Then Moses said to Jehovah: "Why have you afflicted your servant? Why have I not found favor in your eyes, so that you put the burden of all this people on me?[m] 12 Did I conceive all this people? Did I give birth to them, so that you should tell me, 'Carry them in your bosom, just as an attendant* carries the nursing child,' to the land that you swore to give to their forefathers?[a] 13 From where will I get meat to give to all this people? For they keep weeping before me, saying, 'Give us meat to eat!' 14 I am not able to bear all this people by myself; it is too much for me.[b] 15 If this is how you are going to treat me, please kill me right now.[c] If I have found favor in your eyes, do not make me see any more calamity."

16 Jehovah replied to Moses: "Gather for me 70 men from the elders of Israel, men whom you recognize as* elders and officials of the people,[d] and take them to the tent of meeting, and have them stand there with you. 17 I will come down[e] and speak with you there,[f] and I will take away some of the spirit[g] that is on you and place it on them, and they will help you in bearing the burden of the people so that you may not have to bear it alone.[h] 18 You should say to the people, 'Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow,[i] for you will certainly eat meat, because you have wept in Jehovah's hearing[j] and have said: "Who will give us meat to eat? It was better for us in Egypt."[k] Jehovah will certainly give you meat, and you will eat.[l] 19 You will eat, not one day nor 2 days nor 5 days nor 10 days nor 20 days, 20 but for a whole month of days, until it comes out of your nostrils and it has become loathsome to you,[m] for you rejected Jehovah, who is in your midst, and you were weeping before him, saying: "Why is it that we have come out of Egypt?"'"[n]

21 Then Moses said: "The people I am among number 600,000 men[o] on foot, and yet you yourself have said, 'Meat I will give them, and they will eat enough for a whole month of days'! 22 If whole flocks and herds were slaughtered, would it be enough for them? Or if all the fish of the sea were caught, would it be enough for them?"

23 Jehovah then said to Moses: "Is the hand of Jehovah too short?[a] Now you will see whether what I say will happen to you or not."

24 So Moses went out and spoke the words of Jehovah to the people. And he gathered 70 men from the elders of the people and had them stand around the tent.[b] 25 Then Jehovah came down in a cloud[c] and spoke to him[d] and took away some of the spirit[e] that was on him and put it on each of the 70 elders. And as soon as the spirit settled down on them, they began to behave as prophets,*[f] but they did not do it again.

26 There were two of the men still in the camp. Their names were El'dad and Me'dad. And the spirit began to settle down on them, as they were among those whose names had been written down, but they had not gone out to the tent. So they began to behave as prophets in the camp. 27 And a young man ran and reported to Moses: "El'dad and Me'dad are behaving as prophets in the camp!" 28 Then Joshua[g] the son of Nun, the minister of Moses from his youth, responded and said: "My lord Moses, restrain them!"[h] 29 But Moses said to him: "Are you jealous for me? No, I wish that all of Jehovah's people were prophets and that Jehovah would put his spirit on them!" 30 Later Moses returned to the camp along with the elders of Israel.

31 Then a wind from Jehovah sprang up and began driving quail from the sea and causing them to fall around the camp,[a] about a day's journey on this side and a day's journey on the other side, all around the camp, and they were about two cubits* deep on the ground. 32 So all that day and all night and all the next day, the people stayed up and gathered the quail. No one gathered less than ten ho'mers,* and they kept spreading them all around the camp for themselves. 33 But while the meat was still between their teeth, before it could be chewed, Jehovah's anger blazed against the people, and Jehovah began striking the people with a very great slaughter.[b]

34 So they gave that place the name Kib'roth-hat·ta'a·vah,*[c] because there they buried the people who showed selfish craving.[d] 35 From Kib'roth-hat·ta'a·vah the people departed for Ha·ze'roth, and they remained at Ha·ze'roth.[e]

12 Now Mir'i·am and Aaron began to speak against Moses because of the Cush'ite wife he had married, for he had taken a Cush'ite wife.[f] 2 They were saying: "Is it only by Moses that Jehovah has spoken? Has he not also spoken through us?"[g] And Jehovah was listening.[h] 3 Now the man Moses was by far the meekest of all the men*[i] on the face of the earth.

4 Jehovah suddenly said to Moses and Aaron and Mir'i·am: "Go out, the three of you, to the tent of meeting." So the three of them went out. 5 And Jehovah came down in the pillar of cloud[j] and stood at the entrance of the tent and called Aaron and Mir′i-am. Both of them went forward. 6 He then said: "Hear my words, please. If there was a prophet of Jehovah among you, I would make myself known to him in a vision,[a] and I would speak to him in a dream.[b] 7 But it is not that way with my servant Moses! He is being entrusted with all my house.[c] 8 Face-to-face I speak to him,[d] openly, not by riddles; and the appearance of Jehovah is what he sees. Why, then, did you not fear to speak against my servant, against Moses?"

9 So Jehovah's anger burned against them, and he departed from them. 10 The cloud moved away from over the tent, and look! Mir′i-am was struck with leprosy as white as snow.[e] Then Aaron turned toward Mir′i-am, and he saw that she was struck with leprosy.[f] 11 Immediately Aaron said to Moses: "I beg you, my lord! Please do not hold this sin against us! We have acted foolishly in what we have done. 12 Please, do not let her continue like someone dead, whose flesh is half eaten away at birth!" 13 And Moses began to cry out to Jehovah, saying: "O God, please heal her! Please!"[g]

14 Jehovah replied to Moses: "If her father would spit directly in her face, would she not be humiliated for seven days? Let her be quarantined for seven days outside the camp,[h] and afterward she may be brought back in." 15 So Mir′i-am was quarantined outside the camp for seven days,[i] and the people did not break camp until Mir′i-am was brought back in. 16 Then the people departed from Ha·ze′roth[j] and began camping in the wilderness of Pa′ran.[a]

13 Jehovah now spoke to Moses, saying: 2 "Send out men to spy* out the land of Ca′naan, which I am giving to the Israelites. You are to send out one man from each ancestral tribe, each one a chieftain[b] among them."[c]

3 So Moses sent them out from the wilderness of Pa′ran[d] at the order of Jehovah. All the men were heads of the Israelites. 4 These are their names: of the tribe of Reu′ben, Sham·mu′a the son of Zac′cur; 5 of the tribe of Sim′e·on, Sha′phat the son of Ho′ri; 6 of the tribe of Judah, Ca′leb[e] the son of Je·phun′neh; 7 of the tribe of Is′sa·char, I′gal the son of Joseph; 8 of the tribe of E′phra·im, Ho·she′a[f] the son of Nun; 9 of the tribe of Benjamin, Pal′ti the son of Ra′phu; 10 of the tribe of Zeb′u-lun, Gad′di·el the son of So′di; 11 of the tribe of Joseph,[g] for the tribe of Ma·nas′seh,[h] Gad′di the son of Su′si; 12 of the tribe of Dan, Am′mi·el the son of Ge·mal′li; 13 of the tribe of Ash′er, Se′thur the son of Mi′cha·el; 14 of the tribe of Naph′ta·li, Nah′bi the son of Voph′si; 15 of the tribe of Gad, Geu′el the son of Ma′chi. 16 These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. And Moses gave the name Joshua*[i] to Ho·she′a the son of Nun.

17 When Moses was sending them to spy out the land of Ca′naan, he said to them: "Go up there into the Neg′eb, and then go up into the mountainous region.[j] 18 You must see what kind of land it is[k] and whether the people who are dwelling in it are strong or weak, few or many,

You must be courageous[b] and take some of the fruitage of the land." Now it was the season of the first ripe grapes.[c]

21 So they went up and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin[d] to Re'hob[e] to Le'bo-ha'math.[f] 22 When they went up into the Neg'eb, they came to Heb'ron,[g] where A·hi'man, She'shai, and Tal'mai,[h] the An'a·kim,[i] were living. Incidentally, Heb'ron had been built seven years before Zo'an of Egypt. 23 When they came to the Valley of Esh'col,[j] there they cut down a branch with one cluster of grapes, which two of the men had to carry on a bar, as well as some of the pomegranates and figs.[k] 24 They called that place the Valley* of Esh'col#[l] because of the cluster that the Israelites cut down from there.

25 At the end of 40 days,[m] they returned from spying out the land. 26 So they came back to Moses and Aaron and all the assembly of the Israelites in the wilderness of Pa'ran, at Ka'desh.[n] They brought back a report to all the assembly and showed them the fruitage of the land. 27 This is what they reported to Moses: "We entered the land into which you sent us, and it is indeed flowing with milk and honey,[o] and this is its fruitage.[p] 28 Nevertheless, the people who dwell in the land are strong, and the fortified cities are very great. We also saw the An'a·kim there.[a] 29 The A·mal'ek·ites[b] are dwelling in the land of the Neg'eb,[c] and the Hit'tites, the Jeb'u·sites,[d] and the Am'orites[e] are dwelling in the mountainous region, and the Ca'naanites[f] are dwelling by the sea[g] and along the Jordan."

30 Then Ca'leb tried to calm the people as they stood before Moses by saying: "Let us go up immediately, and we are sure to take possession of it, because we can surely conquer it."[h] 31 But the men who went up with him said: "We are not able to go up against the people, because they are stronger than we are."[i] 32 And they kept on giving the Israelites a bad report[j] about the land that they had spied out, saying: "The land that we passed through to spy out is a land that devours its inhabitants, and all the people whom we saw in it are men of extraordinary size.[k] 33 And there we saw the Neph'i·lim, the sons of A'nak,[l] who are from* the Neph'i·lim, and in comparison we seemed like grasshoppers, both to us and to them."

14 Then all the assembly raised their voice, and the people continued crying out and weeping all through that night.[m] 2 All the Israelites began to murmur against Moses and Aaron,[n] and the whole assembly spoke against them, saying: "If only we had died in the land of Egypt, or if only we had died in this wilderness! 3 Why is Jehovah bringing us to this land to fall by the sword?[o] Our wives and children will become plunder.[p] Is it not better for us to return to Egypt?"[q] 4 They were even saying to one another: "Let us appoint a leader and return to Egypt!"[r]

5 At this Moses and Aaron fell with their faces to the ground before the whole assembled congregation of the Israelites. 6 Joshua[a] the son of Nun and Ca′leb[b] the son of Je·phun′neh, who were among those who spied out the land, ripped their garments apart, 7 and they said this to all the assembly of the Israelites: "The land that we passed through to spy out is a very, very good land.[c] 8 If Jehovah is pleased with us, he will certainly bring us into this land and give it to us, a land that is flowing with milk and honey.[d] 9 But you must not rebel against Jehovah, and you must not fear the people of the land,[e] for we will devour them.* Their protection has been removed from them, and Jehovah is with us.[f] Do not fear them."

10 However, all the assembly talked of stoning them.[g] But Jehovah's glory appeared on the tent of meeting to all the people of Israel.[h]

11 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "How much longer will this people treat me without respect,[i] and how much longer will they not put faith in me in spite of all the signs that I performed among them?[j] 12 Let me strike them with pestilence and drive them away, and let me make you into a nation greater and mightier than they are."[k]

13 But Moses said to Jehovah: "Then the Egyptians, from whose midst you brought this people out by your power, will hear,[l] 14 and they will speak about it to the inhabitants of this land. These also have heard that you, Jehovah, are among this people[m] and have appeared to them face-to-face.[n] You are Jehovah, and your cloud is standing over them, and you are going before them in the pillar of cloud by day and in the pillar of fire by night.[a] 15 If you put this people to death all at once,* the nations who have heard of your fame would say this: 16 'Jehovah was not able to bring this people into the land he swore to give them, so he slaughtered them in the wilderness.'[b] 17 Please, now, Jehovah, let your power be great, as you promised when you said: 18 'Jehovah, slow to anger and abundant in loyal love,*[c] pardoning error and transgression, but he will by no means leave the guilty unpunished, bringing punishment for the error of fathers upon sons, upon the third generation and upon the fourth generation.'[d] 19 Forgive, please, the error of this people according to your great loyal love, just as you have pardoned this people from Egypt until now."[e]

20 Then Jehovah said: "I forgive them according to your word.[f] 21 But on the other hand, as surely as I live, all the earth will be filled with the glory of Jehovah.[g] 22 However, not one of the men who have seen my glory and my signs[h] that I performed in Egypt and in the wilderness and yet have kept testing me[i] these ten times and have not listened to my voice[j] 23 will ever see the land about which I swore to their fathers. 26 Jehovah then said to Moses and Aaron: 27 “How much longer will this evil assembly keep up this murmuring against me?[c] I have heard what the Israelites are murmuring against me.[d] 28 Say to them, ‘“As surely as I live,” declares Jehovah, “I will do to you just what I have heard you speak![e] 29 In this wilderness your corpses will fall,[f] yes, the whole number of you from 20 years old and up who were registered, all of you who have murmured against me.[g] 30 None of you will enter into the land that I swore* to have you reside in[h] except Ca′leb the son of Je·phun′neh and Joshua the son of Nun.[i]

35 ‘“‘I, Jehovah, have spoken. This is what I will do to all this evil assembly, those who have gathered together against me: In this wilderness they will come to their end, and here they will die.[a] 36 The men whom Moses sent to spy out the land and who caused the whole assembly to murmur against him when they returned with a bad report about the land,[b] 37 yes, the men who brought back the bad report about the land will be struck down and die before Jehovah.[c] 38 But Joshua the son of Nun and Ca′leb the son of Je·phun′neh, who were among those who went to spy out the land, will certainly keep living.”’”[d]

39 When Moses spoke these words to all the Israelites, the people began to mourn a great deal. 40 Moreover, they got up early in the morning and tried to go up to the top of the mountain, saying: “Here we are ready to go up to the place that Jehovah spoke about, for we have sinned.”[e] 41 But Moses said: “Why are you going beyond the order of Jehovah? This will not succeed. 42 Do not go up, for Jehovah is not with you; and you will be defeated by your enemies.[f] 43 For the A·mal′ek·ites and the Ca′naan·ites are there to face you,[g] and you will fall by the sword. Because you turned away from following Jehovah, Jehovah will not be with you.”[h]

44 However, they presumptuously went toward the top of the mountain,[i] but the ark of Jehovah’s covenant and Moses did not move away from the middle of the camp.[j] 45 Then the A·mal′ek·ites and the Ca′naanites who were dwelling in that mountain came down and struck them, scattering them as far as Hor′mah.[k]

8 "'But if you should offer a male of the herd as a burnt offering[g] or a sacrifice to perform a special vow[h] or communion sacrifices to Jehovah,[i] 9 you should also present together with the male of the herd a grain offering[j] of three tenths of an e′phah measure of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil. 10 You should also present wine as a drink offering,[k] half a hin, as an offering made by fire, as a pleasing* aroma to Jehovah. 11 This is what should be done for each bull or for each ram or for each of the male lambs or of the goats. 12 Whatever may be the number that you offer, that is what you should do for each one, according to their number. 13 This is how every native-born Israelite should present an offering made by fire, as a pleasing* aroma to Jehovah.

14 "'If a foreigner who is residing with you or one who has been in your midst for many of your generations should also make an offering by fire, as a pleasing* aroma to Jehovah, he should do just as you do.[a] 15 You who are of the congregation and the foreigner who is residing with you will have one statute. It will be a lasting statute for all your generations. The foreign resident should be the same as you before Jehovah.[b] 16 There should be one law and one judicial decision for you and for the foreigner who is residing with you.'"

17 Jehovah went on to say to Moses: 18 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them, 'When you come into the land where I am bringing you 19 and you eat any of the bread* of the land,[c] you should make a contribution to Jehovah. 20 You should make a contribution of the firstfruits[d] of your coarse meal as ring-shaped loaves. Like the contribution of a threshing floor is the way you should contribute it. 21 Some of the firstfruits of your coarse meal you should give as a contribution to Jehovah throughout your generations.

22 "'Now if you make a mistake and fail to observe all these commandments that Jehovah has spoken to Moses, 23 all that Jehovah has commanded you through Moses from the day that Jehovah commanded and onward for your generations, 24 and if it was done by mistake and without the knowledge of the assembly, the whole assembly must offer one young bull as a burnt offering for a pleasing* aroma to Jehovah, together with 27 "'If any person* should sin by mistake, then he must present a female goat in its first year for a sin offering.[d] 28 And the priest will make atonement for the person* who made a mistake by an unintentional sin before Jehovah, so as to make atonement for it, and it will be forgiven him.[e] 29 As for the native-born among the Israelites and the foreigner who is residing in their midst, there should be one law for you in the matter of doing something unintentionally.[f]

32 While the Israelites were in the wilderness, they found a man collecting pieces of wood on the Sabbath day.[j] 33 Those who found him collecting wood brought him up to Moses and Aaron and the whole assembly. 34 They committed him into custody[a] because it had not been specified what should be done to him.

35 And Jehovah said to Moses: "The man should be put to death without fail,[b] and the whole assembly should stone him outside the camp."[c] 36 So the whole assembly brought him outside the camp and stoned him so that he died, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

37 Jehovah went on to say this to Moses: 38 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them that they must make for themselves fringed edges on the skirts of their garments throughout their generations, and they are to put a blue string above the fringed edge of the skirt.[d] 39 'You must have this fringed edge so that you will see it and remember all the commandments of Jehovah and observe them.[e] You must not follow your own hearts and eyes, which are leading you to spiritual prostitution.[f] 40 This will help you remember, and you will observe all my commandments and be holy to your God.[g] 41 I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt in order to prove myself your God.[h] I am Jehovah your God.'"[i]

16 Then Kor'ah[j] the son of Iz'har,[k] the son of Ko'hath,[l] the son of Le'vi,[m] got up together with Da'than and A·bi'ram the sons of E·li'ab,[n] and On the son of Pe'leth, of the sons of Reu'ben.[o] 2 They rose up against Moses along with 250 Israelite men, chieftains of the assembly, chosen ones of the congregation, prominent men. 3 So they gathered together against[p] Moses and Aaron and said to them: "We have had enough of you! midst.[a] Why, then, should you exalt yourselves above the congregation of Jehovah?"

4 When Moses heard this, he at once fell facedown. 5 Then he said to Kor′ah and to all his supporters: "In the morning Jehovah will make known who belongs to him[b] and who is holy and who should approach him,[c] and whomever he may choose[d] will approach him. 6 Do this: Take fire holders,[e] Kor′ah and all your supporters,[f] 7 and put fire in them and place incense on them before Jehovah tomorrow, and the man whom Jehovah will choose,[g] he is the holy one. You sons of Le′vi[h] have gone far enough!"

8 Moses then said to Kor′ah: "Listen, please, you sons of Le′vi. 9 Does it seem to you such a little thing that the God of Israel has separated you from the assembly of Israel[i] and allowed you to approach him in order to perform the service of Jehovah's tabernacle and to stand before the assembly to minister to them,[j] 10 and that he brought you near to him along with all your brothers, the sons of Le′vi? Must you also try to secure the priesthood?[k] 11 For this reason, you and all your supporters who are gathering together are against Jehovah. As for Aaron, who is he that you should murmur against him?"[l]

12 Moses later sent for Da′than and A·bi′ram[m] the sons of E·li′ab, but they said: "We are not going to come! 13 Is it so little a thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey to put us to death in the wilderness?[n] Now do you also want to make yourself an absolute ruler over us?* 14 As it is, you have not brought us into any land flowing with milk and honey[a] or given us an inheritance of field and vineyard. Would you bore out the eyes of those men? We are not going to come!"

15 So Moses became very angry and said to Jehovah: "Do not turn to look at their grain offering. Not one donkey have I taken away from them, nor have I harmed one of them."[b]

16 Then Moses said to Kor′ah: "Present yourself with all your supporters before Jehovah tomorrow, you and they and Aaron. 17 Each one should take his fire holder and put incense on it, and each will present his fire holder before Jehovah, 250 fire holders, together with you and Aaron, each with his fire holder." 18 So each of them took his fire holder, and they put fire and incense on them and stood at the entrance of the tent of meeting together with Moses and Aaron. 19 When Kor′ah had gathered his supporters[c] against them at the entrance of the tent of meeting, Jehovah's glory appeared to all the assembly.[d]

20 Jehovah now told Moses and Aaron: 21 "Separate yourselves from among this group, so that I may exterminate them in an instant."[e] 22 At this, they fell with their faces to the ground and said: "O God, the God of the spirit of all people,*[f] will one man's sin cause you to become indignant against the entire assembly?"[g]

23 Jehovah then said to Moses: 24 "Speak to the assembly and tell them, 'Get away from around the tents of Kor′ah, Da′than, and A·bi′ram!'"[h]

25 Then Moses got up and went to Da′than and A·bi′ram, and the elders[i] of Israel went with him. 26 He told the assembly: "Move away, please, from the tents of these wicked men and do not touch anything that belongs to them, so that you may not be swept away in all their sin." 27 They immediately moved away from the tents of Kor′ah, Da′than, and A·bi′ram, from every side, and Da′than and A·bi′ram came out, taking their stand at the entrance of their tents, together with their wives, their sons, and their little children.

28 Then Moses said: "By this you will know that Jehovah has sent me to do all these things, that it is not of my own heart:* 29 If these people die a natural death as all men do and if their punishment is the same as that of all mankind, then Jehovah has not sent me.[a] 30 But if Jehovah does something extraordinary with them and the ground opens* and swallows them and everything that belongs to them and they go down alive into the Grave,# you will certainly know that these men have treated Jehovah disrespectfully."

31 As soon as he finished speaking all these words, the ground beneath them split apart.[b] 32 And the earth opened* and swallowed them up, along with their households and everyone who belonged to Kor′ah[c] and all their goods. 33 So they and all who belonged to them went down alive into the Grave,# and the earth covered them over, so that they perished from the midst of the congregation.[d] 34 All the Israelites who were around them fled at their screaming, for they said: "We are afraid that the earth may swallow us up!" 35 Then a fire came out from Jehovah[a] and consumed the 250 men offering the incense.[b]

36 Jehovah now said to Moses: 37 "Tell El·e·a′zar the son of Aaron the priest to take the fire holders[c] out of the fire, for they are holy. Also tell him to scatter the fire some distance away. 38 The fire holders of the men who sinned at the cost of their lives* should be made into thin metal plates to overlay the altar,[d] because they presented them before Jehovah, and they became holy. They should serve as a sign to the Israelites."[e] 39 So El·e·a′zar the priest took the copper fire holders that had been presented by those who were burned up, and beat them to overlay the altar, 40 just as Jehovah had told him through Moses. It was a reminder for the Israelites that no unauthorized person* who is not of the offspring of Aaron should approach to burn incense before Jehovah[f] and that no one should become like Kor′ah and his supporters.[g]

41 On the very next day, the whole assembly of the Israelites began to murmur against Moses and Aaron,[h] saying: "You two have put Jehovah's people to death." 42 When the assembly had gathered together against Moses and Aaron, they then turned toward the tent of meeting, and look! the cloud covered it, and Jehovah's glory began to appear.[i]

43 Moses and Aaron went before the tent of meeting,[j] 44 and Jehovah said to Moses: 45 "You men, remove yourselves from among this assembly, so that I may exterminate them in an instant."[k] At this they fell with their faces to the ground.[a] 46 Moses then said to Aaron: "Take the fire holder and put fire from the altar[b] in it and put incense on it and go quickly to the assembly and make atonement for them,[c] because indignation has gone out from Jehovah. The plague has started!" 47 Aaron at once took it, just as Moses had said, and ran into the midst of the congregation, and look! the plague had started among the people. So he put the incense on the fire holder and began making atonement for the people. 48 He kept standing between the dead and the living, and the scourge eventually stopped. 49 Those who died from the scourge amounted to 14,700, besides those dead on account of Kor'ah. 50 When at last Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance of the tent of meeting, the scourge had been stopped.

17 Jehovah now said to Moses: 2 "Speak to the Israelites and take from them one rod for each paternal house, from the chieftains of each paternal house,[d] 12 rods in all. Write the name of each one on his rod. 3 You should write Aaron's name on Le'vi's rod, because there is one rod for the head of each paternal house. 4 Deposit the rods in the tent of meeting before the Testimony,[e] where I regularly present myself to you.[f] 5 And the rod of the man whom I choose[g] will bud, and I will put a stop to the murmuring of the Israelites against me,[h] which they are also murmuring against you."[i]

6 So Moses spoke to the Israelites, and all their chieftains gave him rods—a rod for each chieftain of a paternal house, 12 rods—and Aaron's rod was among their rods. 7 Then Moses deposited the rods before Jehovah in the tent of the Testimony.

8 On the next day, when Moses went into the tent of the Testimony, look! Aaron's rod for the house of Le'vi had budded and was bringing forth buds and blossoming flowers and bearing ripe almonds. 9 Moses then brought out all the rods from before Jehovah to all the people of Israel. They looked at them, and each man took his own rod.

10 Jehovah then said to Moses: "Put Aaron's rod[a] back before the Testimony as something to be kept for a sign[b] to the sons of rebelliousness,[c] so that their murmurings against me may cease and so that they may not die." 11 Moses immediately did just as Jehovah had commanded him. He did just so.

12 The Israelites then said to Moses: "Now we will die, we will surely perish, we are all going to perish! 13 Anyone who even comes close to Jehovah's tabernacle will die![d] Must we end up dying that way?"[e]

18 Jehovah then said to Aaron: "You and your sons and your paternal house with you will be answerable for any error against the sanctuary,[f] and you and your sons with you will be answerable for any error against your priesthood.[g] 2 Also bring near your brothers of the tribe of Le'vi, your ancestral tribe, so that they may join you and minister to you[h] and your sons before the tent of the Testimony.[i] 3 They are to fulfill their responsibilities to you and to the entire tent.[j] However, they must not come near the utensils of the holy place and the altar, so that neither they nor you may die.[k] 4 They will join you and carry out their responsibilities regarding the tent of meeting and all the service of the tent, 20 Jehovah went on to say to Aaron: "In their land you will not have an inheritance, and no portion of land among them will become yours.[a] I am your portion and your inheritance in the midst of the Israelites.[b]

25 Then Jehovah said to Moses: 26 "You should tell the Levites, 'You will receive from the Israelites the tenth part that I have given to you from them for your inheritance,[g] and you should contribute from it a tenth part of the tenth part as a contribution to Jehovah.[h] 27 And it will be considered your contribution, as though it were the grain of the threshing floor[i] or the full production of the winepress or oil press. 28 In this way you will also give a contribution to Jehovah from all the tenth parts that you receive from the Israelites, and from them you are to give the contribution for Jehovah to Aaron the priest. 29 You will make every sort of contribution to Jehovah from the very best of all the gifts given to you[a] as something holy.'

30 "And you must say to them, 'When you contribute the best of them, then it will be considered for the Levites as the produce of the threshing floor and as the produce of the winepress or oil press. 31 You and your household may eat it in any place, because it is your wages in return for your service at the tent of meeting.[b] 32 You will not incur sin in this as long as you contribute the best from them, and you must not profane the holy things of the Israelites, or you will die.'"[c]

19 Jehovah spoke again to Moses and Aaron, saying: 2 "This is a statute of the law that Jehovah has commanded, 'Tell the Israelites that they should take for you a sound red cow in which there is no defect[d] and upon which no yoke has come. 3 You are to give it to El·e·a'zar the priest, and he will lead it outside the camp, and it will be slaughtered before him. 4 Then El·e·a'zar the priest will take some of its blood with his finger and spatter its blood seven times straight toward the front of the tent of meeting.[e] 5 The cow will then be burned before his eyes. Its skin and its flesh and its blood together with its dung will be burned.[f] 6 And the priest will take cedarwood, hyssop,[g] and scarlet material and throw them into the fire where the cow is being burned. 7 The priest will then wash his garments and bathe himself* in ing in Ka′desh.[a] It was there that Mir′i·am[b] died and was buried.

2 Now there was no water for the assembly,[c] and they gathered together against Moses and Aaron. 3 The people were quarreling with Moses,[d] saying: "If only we had died when our brothers died before Jehovah! 4 Why have you brought Jehovah's congregation into this wilderness for us and our livestock to die here?[e] 5 And why have you led us up out of Egypt to bring us into this evil place?[f] It is no place for seed and figs and vines and pomegranates, and there is no water to drink."[g] 6 Then Moses and Aaron came from before the congregation to the entrance of the tent of meeting and fell with their faces to the ground, and Jehovah's glory began to appear to them.[h]

7 Then Jehovah said to Moses: 8 "Take the rod and call the assembly together, you and Aaron your brother, and speak to the crag before their eyes that it may give its water, and you will bring out water for them from the crag and give the assembly and their livestock something to drink."[i]

9 So Moses took the rod from before Jehovah,[j] just as He had commanded him. 10 Then Moses and Aaron called the congregation together before the crag, and he said to them: "Hear, now, you rebels! Must we bring out water for you from this crag?"[k] 11 With that Moses lifted his hand up and struck the crag twice with his rod, and much water began to pour out, and the assembly and their livestock began to drink.[l]

12 Jehovah later said to Moses and Aaron: "Because you did not show faith in me and sanctify me before the eyes of the people of Israel, you will not bring this congregation into the land that I will give them."[a] 13 These are the waters of Mer′i·bah,*[b] where the Israelites quarreled with Jehovah, so that he was sanctified among them.

14 Then Moses sent messengers from Ka′desh to the king of E′dom:[c] "This is what your brother Israel[d] says, 'You well know all the hardship that we have experienced. 15 Our fathers went to Egypt,[e] and we dwelled in Egypt many years,*[f] and the Egyptians mistreated us and our fathers.[g] 16 Finally we cried out to Jehovah,[h] and he heard us and sent an angel[i] and brought us out of Egypt, and here we are in Ka′desh, a city on the border of your territory. 17 Please let us pass through your land. We will not pass through any field or vineyard, and we will not drink the water of any well. We will march on the King's Road without turning to the right or the left until we pass through your territory.'"[j]

18 However, E′dom said to him: "You may not pass through our territory. If you do, I will come out with the sword to meet you." 19 In turn the Israelites said to him: "By the highway we will go up, and if we and our livestock drink your water, we will pay for it.[k] We want nothing more than to pass through on foot."[l] 20 Still he said: "You may not pass through."[m] With that E′dom came out to encounter him with many people and a strong army.* 21 So E′dom refused to allow Israel to pass through his territory; therefore, Israel turned away from him.[n]

22 The people of Israel, the entire assembly, departed from Ka′desh and came to Mount Hor.[o] 23 Then Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron in Mount Hor by the border of the land of E′dom: 24 "Aaron will be gathered to his people.[a] He will not enter the land that I will give to the Israelites, because you both rebelled against my order regarding the waters of Mer′i·bah.[b] 25 Take Aaron and his son El·e·a′zar and bring them up into Mount Hor. 26 Remove Aaron's garments[c] and clothe El·e·a′zar[d] his son with them, and Aaron will die there."

27 So Moses did just as Jehovah had commanded, and they climbed Mount Hor before the eyes of all the assembly. 28 Then Moses removed Aaron's garments and clothed El·e·a′zar his son with them. After that Aaron died there on the top of the mountain.[e] And Moses and El·e·a′zar came down from the mountain. 29 When all the assembly saw that Aaron had died, the entire house of Israel wept for Aaron for 30 days.[f]

21 When the Ca′naan·ite king of A′rad,[g] who dwelled in the Neg′eb, heard that Israel had come by the way of Ath′a·rim, he attacked Israel and carried away some of them as captives. 2 So Israel made this vow to Jehovah: "If you give this people into my hand, I will without fail devote their cities to destruction." 3 So Jehovah listened to Israel's voice and gave the Ca′naan·ites over to them, and they devoted them and their cities to destruction. Therefore, they named the place Hor′mah.*[h]

4 As they continued their journey from Mount Hor[i] by the way of the Red Sea in order to go around the land of E′dom,[j] the people* became weary of the journey. 5 And the people kept speaking against God and Moses,[a] saying: "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? There is no food and no water,[b] and we* have come to hate# this contemptible bread."[c] 6 So Jehovah sent poisonous* serpents among the people, and they kept biting the people, so that many Israelites died.[d]

7 So the people came to Moses and said: "We have sinned by speaking against Jehovah and against you.[e] Intercede with Jehovah so that he may remove the serpents from us." And Moses interceded on behalf of the people.[f] 8 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Make a replica of a poisonous* snake and put it on a pole. Then when anyone has been bitten, he will have to look at it in order to keep alive." 9 Moses at once made a serpent of copper[g] and put it on the pole,[h] and whenever a serpent had bitten a man and he looked at the copper serpent, he survived.[i]

10 After that the Israelites departed and camped in O′both.[j] 11 Then they departed from O′both and camped in I′ye·ab′a·rim,[k] in the wilderness that faces Mo′ab, toward the east. 12 From there they departed and camped by the Valley* of Ze′red.[l] 13 From there they departed and camped in the region of the Ar′non,[m] which is in the wilderness that extends from the border of the Am′or·ites, for the Ar′non is the boundary of Mo′ab, between Mo′ab and the Am′orites. 14 That is why the book of the Wars of Jehovah speaks of "Va′heb in Su′phah and the valleys* of Ar′non, 15 and the de-

"Spring up, O well!

We will not drink water from any well. We will march on the King's Road until we pass through your territory."[f] 23 But Si′hon did not allow Israel to pass through his territory. 25 So Israel took all these cities, and they began dwelling in all the cities of the Am′or·ites,[a] in Hesh′bon and all its dependent* towns. 26 For Hesh′bon was the city of Si′hon, the king of the Am′or·ites, who had fought with the king of Mo′ab and taken all his land from him as far as the Ar′non. 27 That is what gave rise to the taunting proverbial saying:

"Come to Hesh′bon.
Let the city of Si′hon be built and firmly established.
28 For a fire came out of Hesh′bon, a flame from the town of Si′hon.
It has consumed Ar of Mo′ab, the lords of the high places of the Ar′non.
29 Woe to you, Mo′ab! You will be destroyed, O people of Che′mosh![b]
He makes his sons fugitives and his daughters captives of Si′hon, the king of the Am′or·ites.
30 Let us shoot at them;
Hesh′bon will be destroyed as far as Di′bon;[c]
Let us desolate it as far as No′phah;
Fire will spread as far as Med′e·ba."[d]

31 So Israel began to dwell in the land of the Am′or·ites. 32 Moses then sent some men to spy on Ja′zer.[e] They captured its dependent* towns and drove out the Am′or·ites who were there. 33 After that they turned and went up by way of Ba′shan. And Og[f] the king of Ba′shan came out with all his people to meet them in battle at Ed′re·i.[g] 34 Jehovah said to Moses: "Do not be afraid of him,[h] for I will give him and all his people and his land into your hand,[i] and you will do to him just as you did to Si′hon the king of the Am′or·ites, who lived in Hesh′bon.”[a] 35 So they kept striking him down, along with his sons and all his people, until none of his people survived,[b] and they took possession of his land.[c]

22 Then the Israelites departed and camped on the desert plains of Mo′ab across the Jordan from Jer′i·cho.[d] 2 Now Ba′lak[e] the son of Zip′por saw all that Israel had done to the Am′or·ites, 3 and Mo′ab became very frightened of the people, because they were so many; indeed, Mo′ab felt sick with fear because of the Israelites.[f] 4 So Mo′ab said to the elders of Mid′i·an:[g] “Now this congregation will devour all our surroundings, just as a bull devours the grass in the field.”

Ba′lak the son of Zip′por was king of Mo′ab at that time. 5 He sent messengers to Ba′laam the son of Be′or at Pe′thor,[h] which is by the River* in his native land. He summoned him, saying: “Look! A people has come out of Egypt. Look! They have covered the face# of the earth,[△i] and they are dwelling right in front of me. 6 Now, please, come and curse this people for me,[j] for they are mightier than I am. Perhaps I can defeat them and drive them out of the land, for I well know that the one whom you bless is blessed and the one whom you curse is cursed.”

7 So the elders of Mo′ab and the elders of Mid′i·an traveled with the fee for divination in their hands and went to Ba′laam[k] and conveyed to him Ba′lak’s message. 8 At that he said to them: “Spend the night here, and I will bring back to you whatever word Jehovah speaks to me.” So the princes of Mo′ab stayed with Ba′laam.

9 Then God came to Ba′laam and said:[a] “Who are these men with you?” 10 Ba′laam said to the true God: “Ba′lak the son of Zip′por, the king of Mo′ab, has sent me a message, saying, 11 ‘Look! The people who are coming out of Egypt are covering the face# of the earth.[△] Now come and put a curse on them for me.[b] Perhaps I may be able to fight against them and drive them out.’” 12 But God said to Ba′laam: “You must not go with them. You must not curse the people, for they are blessed.”[c]

13 Ba′laam got up in the morning and said to the princes of Ba′lak: “Go to your land, for Jehovah has refused to let me go with you.” 14 So the princes of Mo′ab departed and returned to Ba′lak and said: “Ba′laam has refused to come with us.”

15 However, Ba′lak again sent princes, more numerous and more distinguished than the first group. 16 They came to Ba′laam and said to him: “This is what Ba′lak the son of Zip′por has said, ‘Please do not let anything hinder you from coming to me, 17 for I will honor you greatly and I will do anything you tell me to do. So come, please, and curse this people for me.’” 18 But Ba′laam answered the servants of Ba′lak: “If Ba′lak were to give me his own house full of silver and gold, I could not do anything beyond the order of Jehovah my God, whether small or great.[d] 19 But please stay here tonight also, so that I may learn what else Jehovah will tell me.”[e]

20 Then God came to Ba′laam by night and said to him: “If these men have come to summon you, go along with them. But you may speak only the words that I tell you to say.”[f]

21 So Ba′laam got up in the morning and saddled his donkey* and went with the princes of Mo′ab.[a]

22 But God's anger blazed because he was going, and Jehovah's angel stationed himself in the road to resist him. Now Ba′laam was riding on his donkey, and two of his attendants were with him. 23 And when the donkey saw Jehovah's angel standing in the road with a drawn sword in his hand, it tried to turn off the road into the field. But Ba′laam began to beat the donkey to make it return to the road. 24 Then Jehovah's angel stood in a narrow path between two vineyards, with stone walls on both sides. 25 When the donkey saw Jehovah's angel, it began to squeeze itself against the wall and it jammed Ba′laam's foot against the wall, and Ba′laam began beating it again.

26 Jehovah's angel now passed by again and stood in a narrow place where there was no way to turn to the right or to the left. 27 When the donkey saw Jehovah's angel, it lay down under Ba′laam, so Ba′laam became furious and kept beating the donkey with his staff. 28 Finally Jehovah caused the donkey to speak,*[b] and it said to Ba′laam: "What have I done to you to make you beat me these three times?"[c] 29 Ba′laam replied to the donkey: "It is because you have made a fool of me. If only I had a sword in my hand, I would kill you!" 30 Then the donkey said to Ba′laam: "Am I not your donkey that you have ridden on all your life until today? Have I ever treated you this way before?" He replied: "No!" 31 Then Jehovah uncovered Ba′laam's eyes,[a] and he saw Jehovah's angel standing in the road with a drawn sword in his hand. At once he bowed low and prostrated himself on his face.

32 Then Jehovah's angel said to him: "Why have you beaten your donkey these three times? Look! I myself came out to offer resistance, because your way is in defiance of my will.[b] 33 The donkey saw me and tried to turn away from me these three times.[c] Supposing it had not turned away from me! By now I would have killed you and let the donkey live." 34 Ba′laam said to Jehovah's angel: "I have sinned, because I did not know that it was you standing in the road to meet me. And now if it is bad in your eyes, I will go back." 35 But Jehovah's angel said to Ba′laam: "Go with the men, but you may speak only the words that I tell you." So Ba′laam continued going with the princes of Ba′lak.

36 When Ba′lak heard that Ba′laam had come, he immediately went out to meet him at the city of Mo′ab, which is on the bank of the Ar′non on the border of the territory. 37 Ba′lak said to Ba′laam: "Did I not send for you? Why did you not come to me? Did you think I am not able to honor you greatly?"[d] 38 Ba′laam replied to Ba′lak: "Well, I have come to you now. But will I be allowed to say anything? I can only speak words that God puts in my mouth."[e]

39 So Ba′laam went with Ba′lak, and they came to Kir′i-ath-hu′zoth. 40 Ba′lak sacrificed cattle and sheep and sent some to Ba′laam and the princes who were with him. 41 In the morning Ba′lak took Ba′laam and brought him up to Ba′moth-ba′al; from there he could see all the people.[f]

22:21 *Lit., "female donkey." 22:28 *Lit., "opened the mouth of the female donkey."

23 Then Ba′laam said to Ba′lak: “Build on this spot seven altars,[a] and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me.” 2 Ba′lak immediately did just as Ba′laam had said. And Ba′lak and Ba′laam offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.[b] 3 Ba′laam then said to Ba′lak: “Stay here by your burnt offering, and I will go. Perhaps Jehovah will get in touch with me. Whatever he reveals to me, I will tell you.” So he went to a barren hill.

4 Then God got in touch with Ba′laam,[c] who said to Him: “I set the seven altars in rows, and I offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.” 5 Jehovah put this word in the mouth of Ba′laam:[d] “Return to Ba′lak, and this is what you are to say.” 6 So he returned and saw that Ba′lak and all the princes of Mo′ab were standing by his burnt offering. 7 Then he spoke this proverbial saying:[e]

“Ba′lak the king of Mo′ab has brought me from A′ram,[f]
From the mountains of the east:
‘Do come to curse Jacob for me.
Yes, come to denounce Israel.’[g]
8 How could I put a curse on those whom God has not cursed?
And how could I denounce those whom Jehovah has not denounced?[h]
9 From the top of the rocks I see them,
And from the hills I see them.
As a people they dwell there alone;[i]
They do not count themselves among the nations.[j]
10 Who can number the dust particles of Jacob[k]
Or count even the fourth part of Israel?
Let me* die the death of the upright,
And let my end be like theirs.”

11 Ba′lak then said to Ba′laam: “What have you done to me? I brought you to put a curse on my enemies, and here you have done nothing but bless them.”[a] 12 He answered: “Must I not speak whatever Jehovah puts in my mouth?”[b]

13 Ba′lak said to him: “Please come with me to another place from which you can see them. You will see only a part of them; you will not see them all. Put a curse on them for me from there.”[c] 14 So he took him to the field of Zo′phim, to the top of Pis′gah,[d] and built seven altars and offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.[e] 15 So Ba′laam said to Ba′lak: “Stay here by your burnt offering while I get in touch with Him over there.” 16 And Jehovah got in touch with Ba′laam and put this word in his mouth:[f] “Return to Ba′lak, and this is what you are to say.” 17 So he came to him and saw that he was waiting by his burnt offering, and the princes of Mo′ab were with him. Ba′lak asked him: “What has Jehovah said?” 18 Then he spoke this proverbial saying:[g]

“Get up, Ba′lak, and listen.
Hear me, O son of Zip′por.
19 God is not a mere man who tells lies,[h]
Nor a son of man who changes his mind.*[i]

When he speaks, will he not carry it out?[j]

Now He has blessed,[a] and
I cannot reverse it.[b] 21 He does not tolerate any magical power against Jacob,
And he does not allow any trouble against Israel.
Jehovah his God is with them,[c]
And he is loudly hailed as king among them.
22 God is bringing them out of Egypt.[d]
He is like the horns of a wild bull for them.[e]
23 For there are no omens of doom against Jacob,[f]
Nor any divination against Israel.[g]
At this time it may be said about Jacob and Israel:
'Look at what God has done!'
24 Here is a people who will rise up like a lion,
And like the lion, it will raise itself up.[h]
It will not lie down until it eats prey
And drinks the blood of the slain ones."

25 Ba'lak then said to Ba'- laam: "If on the one hand you cannot put any curse on him, then on the other hand you should not bless him either."
26 Ba'laam answered Ba'lak:
"Did I not say to you, 'I will do all that Jehovah says'?"[i]

27 Ba'lak said to Ba'laam:
"Please come and let me take you to yet another place. Perhaps it will be right in the eyes of the true God for you to put a curse on him for me from there."[j] 28 So Ba'lak took Ba'laam to the top of Pe'- or, which looks toward Je·shi'- mon.*[k] 29 Then Ba'laam said to Ba'lak: "Build seven altars on this spot, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me."[a] 30 So Ba'lak did just as Ba'laam had said, and he offered up a bull and a ram on each altar.

24 When Ba'laam saw that it pleased* Jehovah to bless Israel, he did not go away again to search for omens of doom,[b] but he turned his face to the wilderness. 2 When Ba'- laam raised his eyes and saw Israel encamped by his tribes,[c] then the spirit of God came upon him.[d] 3 He then spoke this proverbial saying:[e]

"The saying of Ba'laam the 4 The saying of the one hearing the word of God,

Who saw a vision of the

of his enemies,[g]
While Israel is displaying his courage.
19 And out of Jacob one will be subduing,[h]
And he will destroy any survivor from the city."

20 When he saw Am'a·lek, he continued his proverbial saying:

"Am'a·lek was the first of the nations,[i]
But in the end he will perish."[j]

21 When he saw the Ken'ites,[k] he continued his proverbial saying:

"Secure is your dwelling, and set on the crag is your abode.
22 But someone will burn Ka'in down.
How long before As·syr'i·a carries you away captive?"

23 And he continued his proverbial saying:

"Woe! Who will survive when God does this?
24 Ships will come from the coast of Kit'tim,[l]
And they will afflict
As·syr'i·a,[m]

24:17 *Or "the temples of Moab's head."

And they will afflict E′ber.
But he too will utterly perish.”

25 Then Ba′laam[a] got up and went and returned to his place. Ba′lak also went his own way.

25 When Israel was dwelling in Shit′tim,[b] the people started to commit sexual immorality with the daughters of Mo′ab.[c] 2 The women invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods,[d] and the people began to eat and to bow down to their gods.[e] 3 So Israel joined in worship of* the Ba′al of Pe′or,[f] and Jehovah became enraged with Israel. 4 Jehovah said to Moses: “Take all the leaders* of these people and hang them up before Jehovah in broad daylight,# that the burning anger of Jehovah may turn back from Israel.” 5 Then Moses said to the judges of Israel:[g] “Each one of you should kill his men who joined in worship of* the Ba′al of Pe′or.”[h]

6 But just then, there came one of the Israelites bringing near to his brothers a Mid′i·an·ite woman[i] before the eyes of Moses and of all the assembly of the Israelites, while they were weeping at the entrance of the tent of meeting. 7 When Phin′e·has[j] the son of El·e·a′zar the son of Aaron the priest saw it, he immediately rose up from the midst of the assembly and took a spear* in his hand. 8 Then he went after the man of Israel into the tent and pierced both of them through, the man of Israel and the woman through her genital parts. At that the scourge on the Israelites was halted.[k] 9 Those who died from the scourge amounted to 24,000.[l]

10 Then Jehovah said to Moses: 11 “Phin′e·has[a] the son of El·e·a′zar the son of Aaron the priest has turned my wrath away from the people of Israel because he tolerated no rivalry at all toward me among them.[b] So I have not exterminated the Israelites in my insistence on exclusive devotion.[c] 12 Therefore, say, ‘I am giving him my covenant of peace. 13 And it will serve as the covenant of a lasting priesthood for him and his offspring after him,[d] because he tolerated no rivalry toward his God[e] and he made atonement for the people of Israel.’”

14 Incidentally, the name of the Israelite man who was put to death along with the Mid′i·an·i·tess was Zim′ri the son of Sa′lu, a chieftain of a paternal house of the Sim′e·on·ites. 15 The name of the Mid′i·an·ite woman who was put to death was Coz′bi the daughter of Zur;[f] he was a leader of the clans of a paternal house in Mid′i·an.[g]

16 Jehovah later said to Moses: 17 “Harass the Mid′i·anites and strike them down,[h] 18 because they have been harassing you with their cunning dealings against you in the affair of Pe′or[i] and of Coz′bi the daughter of a chieftain of Mid′i·an, their sister who was put to death[j] in the day of the scourge over the affair of Pe′or.”[k]

26 After the scourge,[l] Jehovah said to Moses and El·e·a′zar the son of Aaron the priest: 2 “Take a census of the whole assembly of the Israelites from 20 years of age and up, by their paternal houses, counting all those who can serve in the army in Israel.”[m] 3 So Moses and El·e·a′zar[n] the priest spoke with them in the desert plains of Mo′ab[o] by the Jordan at Jer′i·cho,[p] saying: 4 “Take a census of them from the age of 20 years and up, just as Jehovah commanded Moses."[a]

Now the sons of Israel who went out of the land of Egypt were: 5 Reu'ben,[b] Israel's firstborn; Reu'ben's sons[c] were: of Ha'noch, the family of the Ha'noch·ites; of Pal'lu, the family of the Pal'lu·ites; 6 of Hez'ron, the family of the Hez'ron·ites; of Car'mi, the family of the Car'mites. 7 These were the families of the Reu'ben·ites, and their registered ones amounted to 43,730.[d]

8 The son of Pal'lu was E·li'ab. 9 And the sons of E·li'ab were Nem'u·el, Da'than, and A·bi'ram. This Da'than and A·bi'ram were chosen ones of the assembly who fought against Moses[e] and Aaron along with Kor'ah's group[f] when they fought against Jehovah.[g]

10 Then the earth opened* and swallowed them up. As for Kor'ah, he died with his supporters when the fire consumed 250 men.[h] And they became a warning example.[i] 11 However, the sons of Kor'ah did not die.[j]

12 The sons of Sim'e·on[k] by their families were: of Nem'u·el, the family of the Nem'u·elites; of Ja'min, the family of the Ja'min·ites; of Ja'chin, the family of the Ja'chin·ites; 13 of Ze'rah, the family of the Ze'rah·ites; of Sha'ul, the family of the Sha'u'lites. 14 These were the families of the Sim'e·on·ites: 22,200.[l]

15 The sons of Gad[m] by their families were: of Ze'phon, the family of the Ze'phon·ites; of Hag'gi, the family of the Hag'gites; of Shu'ni, the family of the Shu'nites; 16 of Oz'ni, the family of the Oz'nites; of E'ri, the family of the E'rites; 17 of Ar'od, the family of the Ar'od·ites; of A·re'li, the family of the A·re'lites. 18 These were the families of the sons of Gad, and their registered ones were 40,500.[a]

19 The sons of Judah[b] were Er and O'nan.[c] However, Er and O'nan died in the land of Ca'naan.[d] 20 And the sons of Judah by their families were: of She'lah,[e] the family of the She·la'nites; of Pe'rez,[f] the family of the Per'e·zites; of Ze'rah,[g] the family of the Ze'rah·ites. 21 And the sons of Pe'rez were: of Hez'ron,[h] the family of the Hez'ron·ites; of Ha'mul,[i] the family of the Ha·mu'lites. 22 These were the families of Judah, and their registered ones were 76,500.[j]

23 The sons of Is'sa·char[k] by their families were: of To'la,[l] the family of the To'la·ites; of Pu'vah, the family of the Pu'nites; 24 of Ja'shub, the family of the Jash'u·bites; of Shim'ron, the family of the Shim'ron·ites. 25 These were the families of Is'sa·char, and their registered ones were 64,300.[m]

48 The sons of Naph′ta·li[b] by their families were: of Jah′-ze·el, the family of the Jah′ze·el-ites; of Gu′ni, the family of the Gu′nites; 49 of Je′zer, the family of the Je′zer·ites; of Shil′lem, the family of the Shil′lem·ites. 50 These were the families of Naph′ta·li by their families, and their registered ones were 45,400.[c]

51 This is the total of those registered of the Israelites: 601,730.[d]

52 After that Jehovah said to Moses: 53 "Among these the land should be divided as an inheritance according to the list of the names.*[e] 54 For the larger groups, you should increase the inheritance, and for the smaller groups, you should reduce the inheritance.[f] Each group's inheritance should be given in proportion to the number of those registered. 55 However, the land should be apportioned by lot.[g] They should receive their inheritance according to the names of the tribes of their fathers. 56 Each inheritance will be determined by lot and apportioned among the larger and the smaller groups."

57 Now these were the registered ones of the Levites[h] by their families: of Ger′shon, the family of the Ger′shon·ites; of Ko′hath,[i] the family of the Ko′-hath·ites; of Me·rar′i, the family of the Me·rar′ites. 58 These were the families of the Levites: the family of the Lib′nites,[j] the family of the Heb′ron·ites,[k] the family of the Mah′lites,[a] the family of the Mu′shites,[b] the family of the Kor′ah·ites.[c]

Ko′hath became father to Am′ram.[d] 59 And the name of Am′ram's wife was Joch′e·bed,[e] Le′vi's daughter, whom his wife bore to Le′vi in Egypt. And to Am′ram she bore Aaron and Moses and their sister Mir′i·am.[f] 60 Then to Aaron there were born Na′dab, A·bi′hu, El·e·a′zar, and Ith′a·mar.[g] 61 But Na′dab and A·bi′hu died for presenting unauthorized fire before Jehovah.[h]

62 The total of those registered was 23,000, all males from a month old and up.[i] For they were not registered among the Israelites,[j] because no inheritance was to be given to them among the Israelites.[k]

63 These were the ones registered by Moses and El·e·a′zar the priest when they registered the Israelites in the desert plains of Mo′ab by the Jordan at Jer′i·cho. 64 But among them there was no one who had been registered by Moses and Aaron the priest in the census of the Israelites taken in the wilderness of Si′nai.[l] 65 For Jehovah had said concerning them: "They will die without fail in the wilderness."[m] So there was not a man left of them except Ca′leb the son of Jephun′neh and Joshua the son of Nun.[n]

27 Then the daughters of Ze·lo′phe·had,[o] the son of He′pher, the son of Gil′e·ad, the son of Ma′chir, the son of Ma·nas′seh, of the families of Ma·nas′seh the son of Joseph, approached. The names of his daughters were Mah′lah, Noah, Hog′lah, Mil′cah, and Tir′zah. 2 They stood before Moses, El·e·a′zar the priest, the chieftains,[p] and all the assembly at the entrance of the tent of meeting and said: 3 "Our father died in the wilderness, but he was not among the group who banded together against Jehovah, the supporters of Kor′ah,[a] but he died for his own sin and he did not have any sons. 4 Why should the name of our father be lost from his family because he had no son? Give us a possession among our father's brothers." 5 So Moses presented their case before Jehovah.[b]

6 Jehovah then said this to Moses: 7 "The daughters of Ze·lo′phe·had are correct. You should by all means give them the possession as an inheritance among their father's brothers and transfer their father's inheritance to them.[c] 8 And tell the Israelites, 'If a man dies without having a son, you must then cause his inheritance to pass to his daughter. 9 And if he has no daughter, you will give his inheritance to his brothers. 10 And if he has no brothers, you will give his inheritance to his father's brothers. 11 And if his father has no brothers, you will give his inheritance to the closest blood relative in his family, and he will take possession of it. This will serve as a statute by judicial decision for the Israelites, just as Jehovah has commanded Moses.'"

12 Then Jehovah said to Moses: "Go up into this mountain of Ab′a·rim,[d] and view the land that I will give the Israelites.[e] 13 When you have seen it, you will also be gathered to your people,*[f] just as Aaron your brother was,[g] 14 because when the assembly was quarreling with me in the wilderness of Zin, you rebelled against my order to sanctify me before them by means of the waters.[h] These are the waters of Mer′i·bah[i] at

15 Then Moses said to Jehovah: 16 “Let Jehovah, the God of the spirit of all people,* appoint over the assembly a man 17 who will go out and come in before them and who will lead them out and bring them in, so that Jehovah’s assembly may not become like sheep that have no shepherd.” 18 So Jehovah said to Moses: “Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom there is spirit, and lay your hand on him.[c] 19 Then stand him before El·e·a′zar the priest and before all the assembly, and you must commission him before their eyes.[d] 20 You are to confer some of your authority* on him,[e] so that all the assembly of the Israelites may listen to him.[f] 21 He will stand before El·e·a′zar the priest, who will inquire in his behalf by the judgment of the U′rim[g] before Jehovah. At his order they will go out and at his order they will come in, he and all the Israelites with him and all the assembly.”

22 So Moses did just as Jehovah had commanded him. He took Joshua and stood him before El·e·a′zar the priest and before all the assembly, 23 and he laid his hands on him and commissioned him,[h] just as Jehovah had spoken through Moses.[i]

28 Jehovah next said to Moses: 2 “Command the Israelites and tell them, ‘You should take care that you present to me my offering, my bread. My offerings by fire as a pleasing# aroma to me must be made at their appointed times.’[j]

3 “And say to them, ‘This is the offering made by fire that you will present to Jehovah: two sound year-old male lambs a day as a burnt offering regularly.[a] 4 The one male lamb you will offer in the morning, and the other male lamb you will offer at twilight,[b] 5 together with a tenth of an e′phah of fine flour mixed with a fourth of a hin# of beaten oil as a grain offering.[c] 6 It is a regular burnt offering,[d] which was established at Mount Si′nai as a pleasing# aroma, an offering made by fire to Jehovah, 7 along with its drink offering, a fourth of a hin for each male lamb.[e] Pour out the alcoholic drink in the holy place as a drink offering to Jehovah. 8 And you will offer the other male lamb at twilight.* With the same grain offering as that made in the morning and with its same drink offering, you will present it as an offering made by fire as a pleasing# aroma to Jehovah.[f]

9 “‘However, on the Sabbath day,[g] the offering should be two sound year-old male lambs and two tenths of an e′phah measure of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering, together with its drink offering. 10 This is the burnt offering for the Sabbath, along with the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.[h]

11 “‘At the start of each month* you will present as a burnt offering to Jehovah two young bulls, one ram, and seven sound male lambs each a year old,[i] 12 and three tenth measures of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering[j] for each bull and two tenth measures of fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering for the one ram,[k] assembly of Jehovah.[a] 17 Now you should kill every male among the children and kill every woman who has had sexual relations with a man. 18 But you may keep alive all the young girls who have not had sexual relations with a man.[b] 19 And you should camp outside the camp seven days. Every one of you who has killed someone* and every one of you who has touched someone slain[c] should purify himself[d] on the third day and on the seventh day, you and your captives. 20 And you should purify from sin every garment, every article of skin, everything made of goat hair, and every article of wood."

21 El·e·a′zar the priest then said to the men of the army who had gone into the battle: "This is the statute of the law that Jehovah commanded Moses, 22 'Only the gold, the silver, the copper, the iron, the tin, and the lead, 23 everything that can be processed with fire, you should pass through the fire, and it will be clean. However, it should also be purified by the water for cleansing.[e] Everything that cannot be processed with fire, you should pass through the water. 24 And you should wash your garments on the seventh day and be clean, and then you may come into the camp.'"[f]

25 Jehovah then said this to Moses: 26 "Take an inventory of the plunder, counting the captives both of humans and animals; do this together with El·e·a′zar the priest and the heads of the paternal houses of the assembly. 27 Divide what was plundered into two parts to be shared between those in the army who took part in the battle and all the rest of the assembly.[g] 28 As a tax for Jehovah, you should take from the soldiers who went out into the battle one soul* out of every 500, of the people, the herd, the donkeys, and the flock. 29 You should take it from their half and give it to El·e·a′zar the priest as Jehovah's contribution.[a] 30 From the half given to the Israelites, you should take one out of 50, of the people, the herd, the donkeys, the flock, and every sort of domestic animal, and give them to the Levites,[b] who care for the responsibilities connected with Jehovah's tabernacle."[c]

31 So Moses and El·e·a′zar the priest did just as Jehovah had commanded Moses. 32 The spoils, the rest of the plunder that the people of the expedition had taken, amounted to 675,000 of the flock, 33 72,000 of the herd, 34 and 61,000 donkeys. 35 The women who had not had sexual relations with a man[d] amounted to 32,000 women.* 36 The half that was the share of those who went out into the battle amounted to 337,500 of the flock. 37 The tax for Jehovah from the flock amounted to 675. 38 And there were 36,000 of the herd, and the tax on them for Jehovah was 72. 39 And there were 30,500 donkeys, and the tax on them for Jehovah was 61. 40 And there were 16,000 humans,# and the tax on them for Jehovah was 32 persons.* 41 Then Moses gave the tax as Jehovah's contribution to El·e·a′zar the priest,[e] just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

42 From the half belonging to the Israelites, which Moses had divided off from the portion that belonged to the men who waged war, 43 that half of the flock amounted to 337,500, 44 and of the herd, 36,000, 45 and of the donkeys, 30,500, 46 and of the people,* 16,000. 47 Then Moses took from the half belonging to the Israelites one out of 50, of the people and of the animals, and gave them to the Levites,[a] who cared for the responsibility of Jehovah's tabernacle,[b] just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

48 Then the appointed men who were of the thousands of the army,[c] the chiefs of the thousands and the chiefs of the hundreds, approached Moses, 49 and they said to Moses: "Your servants have taken the count of the men of war who are under our command, and not one has been reported missing from us.[d] 50 So let us each present what he has found as Jehovah's offering, articles of gold, ankle chains, bracelets, signet rings, earrings, and other jewelry, in order to make atonement for ourselves* before Jehovah."

51 So Moses and El·e·a'zar the priest accepted the gold from them, all the jewelry. 52 All the gold of the contribution that they made to Jehovah amounted to 16,750 shekels,* from the chiefs of the thousands and the chiefs of the hundreds. 53 The men of the army had each taken plunder for himself. 54 Moses and El·e·a'zar the priest accepted the gold from the chiefs of the thousands and of the hundreds and brought it into the tent of meeting as a reminder* for the people of Israel before Jehovah.

32 Now the sons of Reu'ben[e] and the sons of Gad[f] had very large quantities of livestock, and they saw that the lands of Ja'zer[g] and Gil'e·ad were a good region for livestock. 2 So the sons of Gad and the sons of Reu'ben approached Moses, El·e·a'zar the priest, and the chieftains of the assembly and said: 3 "At'a·roth, Di'bon, Ja'zer, Nim'rah, Hesh'bon,[a] E·le·a'leh, Se'bam, Ne'bo,[b] and Be'on,[c] 4 the land that Jehovah defeated before the assembly of Israel,[d] is a good land for livestock, and your servants have much livestock."[e] 5 They continued: "If we have found favor in your eyes, let this be the land given to your servants as a possession. Do not make us cross the Jordan."

6 Then Moses said to the sons of Gad and the sons of Reu'ben: "Are your brothers to go to war while you yourselves keep dwelling here? 7 Why should you discourage the people of Israel from crossing into the land that Jehovah is certain to give them? 8 That is what your fathers did when I sent them from Ka'desh-bar'ne·a to see the land.[f] 9 When they went up to the Valley* of Esh'col[g] and saw the land, they discouraged the people of Israel from going into the land that Jehovah was to give them.[h] 10 Jehovah's anger blazed on that day so that he swore:[i] 11 'The men who came up out of Egypt from 20 years old and up will not see the land[j] of which I have sworn to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob,[k] because they have not followed me wholeheartedly— 12 except Ca'leb[l] the son of Je·phun'neh the Ken'iz·zite and Joshua[m] the son of Nun, because they have followed Jehovah wholeheartedly.'[n] 13 So Jehovah's anger blazed against Israel and he made them wander about in the wilderness for 40 years,[o] until all the generation that was doing evil in the eyes of Jehovah came to its end.[a] 14 Now here you have risen in the place of your fathers as a brood of sinful men who increase the burning anger of Jehovah against Israel. 15 If you turn back from following him, he will certainly leave them again in the wilderness, and you will bring ruin to all this people."

16 They later approached him and said: "Let us build here stone pens for our livestock and cities for our children. 17 But we will continue ready for battle[b] and will go before the Israelites until we have brought them to their place, while our children will dwell in the fortified cities, safe from the inhabitants of the land. 18 We will not return to our houses until each of the Israelites has received his land as an inheritance.[c] 19 For we will not receive an inheritance with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond, because we have received our inheritance on the east side of the Jordan."[d]

20 Moses replied to them: "If you will do this: Take up arms before Jehovah for the war;[e] 21 and if every one of you takes up arms and crosses the Jordan before Jehovah as he drives away his enemies from before him[f] 22 until the land is subdued before Jehovah,[g] afterward you may return[h] and be free from guilt before Jehovah and Israel. Then this land will become your possession before Jehovah.[i] 23 But if you do not do this, you will have sinned against Jehovah. In that case, know that your sin will catch up with you. 24 So you may build cities for your children and pens for your flocks,[j] but you must do what you have promised."

25 The sons of Gad and the sons of Reu'ben said this to Moses: "Your servants will do just as my lord is commanding. 26 Our children, our wives, our livestock, and all our domestic animals will stay there in the cities of Gil'e·ad,[a] 27 but your servants will cross over, every man armed for battle to wage war before Jehovah,[b] just as my lord is speaking."

28 So Moses gave a command concerning them to El·e·a'zar the priest, to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the paternal houses of the tribes of Israel. 29 Moses said to them: "If the sons of Gad and the sons of Reu'ben cross over the Jordan with you, every man armed for the war before Jehovah, and the land is subdued before you, you will then give them the land of Gil'e·ad as a possession.[c] 30 But if they do not take up arms and cross over with you, they will then settle among you in the land of Ca'naan."

31 To this the sons of Gad and the sons of Reu'ben answered: "What Jehovah has spoken to your servants is what we will do. 32 We will take up arms and cross over before Jehovah to the land of Ca'naan,[d] but the possession we are to inherit will be on this side of the Jordan." 33 So Moses gave to them—to the sons of Gad, the sons of Reu'ben,[e] and to the half tribe of Ma·nas'seh[f] the son of Joseph—the kingdom of Si'hon[g] the king of the Am'or·ites and the kingdom of Og[h] the king of Ba'shan, the land belonging to its cities in those territories, and the cities of the surrounding land.

34 And the sons of Gad built* Di'bon,[i] At'a·roth,[j] A·ro'er,[k] 35 At'roth-sho'phan, Ja'zer,[l] Jog'be·hah,[m] 36 Beth-nim'rah,[n] and Beth-ha'ran,[o] fortified cities, and they built stone pens for 39 The sons of Ma'chir[f] the son of Ma·nas'seh marched against Gil'e·ad and captured it and drove away the Am'orites who were in it. 40 So Moses gave Gil'e·ad to Ma'chir the son of Ma·nas'seh, and he began dwelling in it.[g] 41 And Ja'ir the son of Ma·nas'seh marched against them and captured their tent villages, and he began to call them Hav'voth-ja'ir.[h] 42 And No'bah marched against and captured Ke'nath and its dependent towns, and he began to call it No'bah by his own name.

33 These were the stages of the journey of the people of Israel when they went out of the land of Egypt[i] by their companies*[j] under the direction of Moses and Aaron.[k] 2 Moses kept recording the departure places by the stages of their journey at the order of Jehovah, and these were their stages from one departure place to another:[l] 3 They departed from Ram'eses[m] in the first month, on the 15th day of the month.[n] On the very day after the Passover,[o] the Israelites went out with confidence* before the eyes of all the Egyptians. 4 Meanwhile, the Egyptians were burying all the firstborn whom Jehovah had struck down among them,[p] for Jehovah had executed judgments on their gods.[q]

5 So the Israelites departed from Ram'e·ses and camped at Suc'coth.[a] 6 Then they departed from Suc'coth and camped at E'tham,[b] which is on the edge of the wilderness. 7 Next they departed from E'tham and turned back toward Pi·ha·hi'roth, which is in view of Ba'al-ze'phon,[c] and they camped before Mig'dol.[d] 8 After that they departed from Pi·ha·hi'roth and passed through the midst of the sea[e] to the wilderness[f] and kept marching a three-day journey in the wilderness of E'tham[g] and camped at Ma'rah.[h]

9 Then they departed from Ma'rah and came to E'lim. Now in E'lim there were 12 springs of water and 70 palm trees, so they camped there.[i] 10 Next they departed from E'lim and camped by the Red Sea. 11 After that they departed from the Red Sea and camped in the wilderness of Sin.[j] 12 Then they departed from the wilderness of Sin and camped at Doph'kah. 13 Later they departed from Doph'kah and camped at A'lush. 14 They next departed from A'lush and camped at Reph'i·dim,[k] where there was no water for the people to drink. 15 After that they departed from Reph'i·dim and camped in the wilderness of Si'nai.[l]

16 They departed from the wilderness of Si'nai and camped at Kib'roth-hat·ta'a·vah.[m] 17 Then they departed from Kib'roth-hat·ta'a·vah and camped at Ha·ze'roth.[n] 18 After that they departed from Ha·ze'roth and camped at Rith'mah. 19 Next they departed from Rith'mah and camped at Rim'mon-pe'rez. 20 Then they departed from Rim'mon-pe'rez and camped at Lib'nah. 21 They departed from Lib'nah and camped at Ris'sah. 22 Next they departed from Ris'sah and camped at Ke·he·la'thah.

37 Later they departed from Ka′desh and camped at Mount Hor,[f] on the frontier of the land of E′dom. 38 And Aaron the priest went up into Mount Hor at the order of Jehovah and died there in the 40th year after the Israelites left the land of Egypt, in the fifth month, on the first of the month.[g] 39 Aaron was 123 years old at his death on Mount Hor.

40 Now the king of A′rad,[h] the Ca′naan·ite who was dwelling in the Neg′eb in the land of Ca′naan, heard about the coming of the Israelites.

41 In time they departed from Mount Hor[i] and camped at Zal·mo′nah. 42 After that they departed from Zal·mo′nah and camped at Pu′non. 43 Next they departed from Pu′non and camped at O′both.[a] 44 Then they departed from O′both and camped at I′ye-ab′a·rim, on the border of Mo′ab.[b] 45 Later they departed from I′yim and camped at Di′bon-gad.[c] 46 After that they departed from Di′bon-gad and camped at Al′mon-dib·la·tha′im. 47 Then they departed from Al′mon-dib·la·tha′im and camped in the mountains of Ab′a·rim[d] before Ne′bo.[e] 48 Finally they departed from the mountains of Ab′a·rim and camped on the desert plains of Mo′ab by the Jordan at Jer′i·cho.[f] 49 They continued camping along the Jordan, from Beth-jesh′i·moth as far as A′bel-shit′tim,[g] on the desert plains of Mo′ab.

50 Jehovah spoke to Moses on the desert plains of Mo′ab by the Jordan at Jer′i·cho, saying: 51 “Speak to the Israelites and tell them, ‘You are crossing the Jordan into the land of Ca′naan.[h] 52 You must drive away all the inhabitants of the land from before you and destroy all their carvings of stone[i] and all their metal statues,*[j] and you should demolish all their sacred high places.[k] 53 And you will take possession of the land and dwell in it, because I will certainly give you the land as a possession.[l] 54 You must apportion the land by lot[m] as a possession among your families. 34 And Jehovah spoke further to Moses, saying: 2 "Give these instructions to the Israelites: 'When you go into the land of Ca'naan,[d] this is the land that will fall to you as an inheritance, the land of Ca'naan according to its boundaries.[e]

3 "'Your southern border will extend from the wilderness of Zin alongside E'dom, and your south boundary on the east will be from the extremity of the Salt Sea.[f] 4 Your boundary will change direction to pass south of the ascent of A·krab'bim[g] and continue to Zin, and its end will be south of Ka'desh-bar'ne·a.[h] Then it will extend to Ha'zar-ad'dar[i] and continue to Az'mon. 5 The boundary will change direction at Az'mon to the Wadi of Egypt, and its end will be at the Sea.#[j]

13 So Moses instructed the Israelites, saying: "This is the land that you will apportion as your possession by lot,[e] just as Jehovah has commanded to give to the nine and a half tribes. 14 For the tribe of the Reu'benites by their paternal house, the tribe of the Gad'ites by their paternal house, and the half tribe of Ma·nas'seh have already taken their inheritance.[f] 15 The two and a half tribes have already taken their inheritance east of the region of the Jordan by Jer'i·cho, toward the sunrising."[g]

Joseph[a] from the tribe of the sons of Ma·nas′seh,[b] 25 a chieftain, Han′ni·el the son of E′phod; 24 from the tribe of the sons of E′phra·im,[c] a chieftain, Kem·u′el the son of Shiph′tan; 25 of the tribe of the sons of Zeb′u·lun,[d] a chieftain, E·li·za′phan the son of Par′nach; 26 of the tribe of the sons of Is′sa·char,[e] a chieftain, Pal′ti·el the son of Az′zan; 27 of the tribe of the sons of Ash′er,[f] a chieftain, A·hi′hud the son of She·lo′mi; 28 of the tribe of the sons of Naph′ta·li,[g] a chieftain, Ped·ah′el the son of Am·mi′hud." 29 These are the ones whom Jehovah commanded to distribute the land to the Israelites in the land of Ca′naan.[h]

35 Jehovah went on to speak to Moses on the desert plains of Mo′ab by the Jordan[i] at Jer′i·cho, saying: 2 "Instruct the Israelites that they are to give the Levites cities to inhabit out of the inheritance they will possess,[j] and they should give the Levites the pastures around the cities.[k] 3 They will inhabit the cities, and the pastures will be for their livestock, their goods, and all their other animals. 4 The pastures of the cities that you will give the Levites will extend for 1,000 cubits* from the wall all around the city. 5 You should measure outside the city 2,000 cubits on the east side, 2,000 cubits on the south side, 2,000 cubits on the west side, and 2,000 cubits on the north side, with the city in the middle. These will be the pastures of their cities.

6 "The cities that you will give to the Levites will be 6 cities of refuge,[l] which you will give for the manslayer to flee to,[m] as well as 42 other cities. 7 You are to give to the Levites a total of 48 cities, together with their pastures.[a] 8 The cities you give them will be from the possession of the Israelites.[b] From the larger group you will take many, and from the smaller group you will take few.[c] Each group will give some of its cities to the Levites in proportion to the inheritance that it receives."

9 Jehovah continued to speak to Moses, saying: 10 "Speak to the Israelites and tell them, 'You are crossing the Jordan to the land of Ca′naan.[d] 11 You should choose cities convenient for yourselves to serve as cities of refuge, where the manslayer who unintentionally kills someone* should flee.[e] 12 These cities will serve as a refuge for you from the blood avenger,[f] so that the manslayer will not die until he stands trial before the assembly.[g] 13 The six cities of refuge that you provide will serve this purpose. 14 You will provide three cities on this side of the Jordan[h] and three cities in the land of Ca′naan[i] to serve as cities of refuge. 15 These six cities will serve as a refuge for the Israelites, for the foreign resident,[j] and for the settler among them, for anyone to flee there who unintentionally kills someone.*[k]

16 "'But if he struck him with an iron instrument and he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer should be put to death without fail.[l] 17 And if he struck him with a stone that could cause death and he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer should be put to death without fail. 18 And if he struck him with a wooden instrument that could cause death and he dies, he is a murderer. The murderer should be put to death without fail.

When he encounters him, he himself will put him to death. 20 If death resulted because he pushed him out of hatred or threw something at him with malicious intent,[a] 21 or out of hatred he struck him with his hand, and he died, the one who struck him will be put to death without fail. 22 "'But if it was unexpectedly and not out of hatred that he pushed him or threw any article at him without malicious intent,[b] 23 or if he did not see him and caused a stone to fall on him and he was not an enemy or seeking his injury, and the person died, 24 the assembly should then judge between the one who struck him and the avenger of blood, in harmony with these judgments.[c] 25 The assembly should then save the manslayer from the hand of the avenger of blood and return him to its city of refuge to which he had fled, and he must dwell in it until the death of the high priest who was anointed with the holy oil.[d]

26 "'But if the manslayer goes out of the boundary of his city of refuge to which he fled 27 and the avenger of blood finds him outside the boundary of his city of refuge and slays the manslayer, he has no bloodguilt. 28 For he must dwell in his city of refuge until the high priest's death. But after the high priest's death, the manslayer may return to the land that he owns.[e] 29 These things will serve for you as a statute for judgment throughout your generations in all your dwelling places.

5 Then Moses commanded the Israelites at the order of Jehovah: "What the tribe of the sons of Joseph is saying is correct. 6 This is the word that Jehovah has commanded for the daughters of Ze·lo′phe·had: 'They may marry whomever they wish. However, they should marry someone from a family of the tribe of their father. 7 No inheritance of the Israelites should circulate from tribe to tribe, for the Israelites should hold on to the inheritance of the tribe of their forefathers. 8 And every daughter who possesses an inheritance among the tribes of Israel should become a wife of a descendant of her father's tribe,[a] so that the Israelites may keep possession of the inheritance of their forefathers. 9 No inheritance should circulate from one tribe to another tribe, for the tribes of Israel should hold on to their own inheritance.'"

10 The daughters of Ze·lo′phe·had did just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.[b] 11 So Mah′lah, Tir′zah, Hog′lah, Mil′cah, and Noah, the daughters of Ze·lo′phe·had,[c] married the sons of their father's brothers. 12 They became wives of men from the families of Ma·nas′seh the son of Joseph so that their inheritance would remain in the tribe of their father's family.

13 These are the commandments and the judicial decisions that Jehovah gave to the Israelites through Moses on the desert plains of Mo′ab by the Jordan at Jer′i·cho.[d]

1 These are the words that Moses spoke to all Israel in the region of the Jordan in the wilderness, on the desert plains in front of Suph, between Pa'ran, To'phel, La'ban, Ha·ze'roth, and Di'za·hab. 2 It is 11 days from Ho'reb to Ka'desh-bar'ne·a[a] by way of Mount Se'ir. 3 In the 40th year,[b] in the 11th month, on the first of the month, Moses spoke to the Israelites* according to all that Jehovah had instructed him to tell them. 4 This was after he defeated Si'hon[c] the king of the Am'or·ites, who was dwelling in Hesh'bon, and Og[d] the king of Ba'shan, who was dwelling in Ash'ta·roth, in Ed're·i.[e] 5 In the region of the Jordan in the land of Mo'ab, Moses undertook to explain this Law,[f] saying:

6 "Jehovah our God told us in Ho'reb, 'You have stayed long enough in this mountainous region.[g] 7 Turn and set out for the mountainous region of the Am'or·ites[h] and toward all their neighbors in the Ar'a·bah,[i] the mountainous region, the She·phe'lah, the Neg'eb, and the seacoast,[j] the land of the Ca'naanites, and Leb'a·non,[a] up to the great river, the river Eu·phra'tes.[b] 8 See, I have set the land before you. Go in and take possession of the land about which Jehovah swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac,[c] and Jacob,[d] to give it to them and their offspring after them.'[e]

9 "And I told you at that time, 'I am not able to carry you by myself.[f] 10 Jehovah your God has multiplied you, and here you are today as numerous as the stars of the heavens.[g] 11 May Jehovah, the God of your forefathers, multiply you[h] a thousand times as many as you are, and may he bless you just as he has promised you.[i] 12 How can I bear by myself the burden of you and the load of you and your quarreling?[j] 13 Select wise, discreet, and experienced men of your tribes, and I will appoint them as heads over you.'[k] 14 You answered me, 'What you have told us to do is good.' 15 So I took the heads of your tribes, wise and experienced men, and appointed them as heads over you, chiefs of thousands, chiefs of hundreds, chiefs of fifties, chiefs of tens, and officers of your tribes.[a]

16 "At that time I instructed your judges, 'When you hear a case between your brothers, you are to judge with righteousness[b] between a man and his brother or a foreign resident.[c] 17 You must not be partial in judgment.[d] You should hear the small one the same as the great one.[e] You must not become intimidated by men,[f] for the judgment belongs to God;[g] and if a case is too difficult for you, you should present it to me, and I will hear it.'[h] 18 At that time I instructed you regarding all the things that you should do.

19 "Then we departed from Ho'reb and marched through all that great and fearsome wilderness[i] that you saw on the way to the mountainous region of the Am'or·ites,[j] just as Jehovah our God had commanded us, and we eventually came to Ka'desh-bar'ne·a.[k] 20 I then said to you, 'You have come to the mountainous region of the Am'or·ites, which Jehovah our God is giving to us. 21 See, Jehovah your God has given the land over to you. Go up, take possession of it, just as Jehovah, the God of your forefathers, has told you.[l] Do not be afraid or terrified.'

22 "However, all of you approached me and said, 'Let us send men ahead of us to search out the land for us and bring word back to us as to what route we should take and what kind of cities we will encounter.'[m] 23 The suggestion seemed good to me, so I selected 12 of your men, one for each tribe.[n] 24 They left and went up into the mountainous region[o] and reached the Valley* of Esh'col and spied it out. 25 They took some of the fruitage of the land and carried it back to us, and they brought word back to us, 'The land that Jehovah our God is giving us is good.'[a] 26 But you refused to go up, and you rebelled against the order of Jehovah your God.[b] 27 You kept grumbling in your tents and were saying, 'It was because Jehovah hated us that he brought us out of the land of Egypt to hand us over to the Am'or·ites to annihilate us. 28 What kind of place are we going to? Our brothers made us lose heart*[c] by saying, "They are a people greater and taller than we are, and their cities are great and fortified to the heavens,#[d] and we saw the sons of the An'a·kim[e] there."'

29 "So I said to you, 'Do not be struck with terror or be afraid because of them.[f] 30 Jehovah your God will go before you and will fight for you,[g] just as he did in Egypt before your very eyes.[h] 31 And you saw in the wilderness how Jehovah your God carried you just as a man carries his son, everywhere you went until you came to this place.' 32 But despite all of this, you did not put faith in Jehovah your God,[i] 33 who was going ahead of you on the way, to spy out a place for you to camp. He appeared by fire at night and by a cloud in the daytime to show you the way you should walk.[j]

34 "All the while Jehovah heard what you were saying, and he became indignant and solemnly swore,[k] 35 'Not one of these men of this evil generation will see the good land that I swore to give to your fathers,[l] 36 except Ca'leb the son of Je·phun'neh. He will see it, and I will give the land on which he walked to him and to his sons, because he has followed Jehovah wholeheartedly.[a] 37 (Jehovah even became angry with me because of you, and he said, "You too will not go in there.[b] 38 Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you,[c] is the one who will enter into the land.[d] Make him strong,[e] for he will cause Israel to inherit it.") 39 Moreover, your children whom you said would become plunder[f] and your sons who today do not know good or bad, these will enter, and I will give it to them to possess.[g] 40 But as for you, turn back and depart for the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea.'[h]

41 "At this you said to me, 'We have sinned against Jehovah. We will now go up and fight, just as Jehovah our God has commanded us!' So each of you put on his weapons of war, and you thought it would be an easy thing to go up the mountain.[i] 42 But Jehovah said to me, 'Tell them: "You must not go up and fight, for I will not be with you.[j] If you do, you will be defeated by your enemies."' 43 So I spoke to you, but you did not listen. Instead, you rebelled against Jehovah's order and presumptuously tried to go up the mountain. 44 Then the Am'or·ites who were dwelling in that mountain came out to meet you and chased you away like bees do, and they scattered you in Se'ir as far as Hor'mah. 45 So you returned and began to weep before Jehovah, but Jehovah did not listen to you or pay attention to you. 46 That is why you kept dwelling in Ka'desh for as long as you did.

2 "Then we turned and departed for the wilderness by the way of the Red Sea, just as Jehovah had told me,[a] and we traveled for many days around Mount Se'ir. 2 Finally Jehovah said to me, 3 'You have gone around this mountain long enough. Now turn north. 4 And give this command to the people: "You will pass by the border of your brothers, the descendants of E'sau,[b] who are dwelling in Se'ir,[c] and they will be afraid of you,[d] and you must be very careful. 5 Do not engage in hostilities with* them, for I will not give you any of their land, not even the space of a footprint, because I have given Mount Se'ir to E'sau as his possession.[e] 6 You should give them money for the food you will eat, and you should pay for the water you will drink.[f] 7 For Jehovah your God has blessed you in all that you have done. He is fully aware of your walking through this great wilderness. These 40 years Jehovah your God has been with you, and you have lacked nothing."'[g] 8 So we passed by our brothers, the descendants of E'sau,[h] who are dwelling in Se'ir, keeping away from the way of the Ar'a·bah, from E'lath and from E'zi·on-ge'ber.[i]

"Next we turned and traveled by the way of the wilderness of Mo'ab.[j] 9 Jehovah then said to me, 'Do not engage in hostilities or in war with Mo'ab, for I will not give you any of his land as a possession because I have given Ar as a possession to the descendants of Lot.[k] 10 (The E'mim[l] formerly lived there, a people great and numerous and tall like the An'a·kim. 11 The Reph'a·im[m] were also considered like the An'a-kim,[a] and the Mo′ab·ites used to call them E′mim. 12 Previously, the Hor′ites[b] were living in Se′ir, but the descendants of E′sau dispossessed and annihilated them and settled in their place,[c] just as Israel will do to the land that is their possession, which Jehovah will certainly give to them.) 13 Now go and cross over the Valley* of Ze′red.' So we crossed over the Valley* of Ze′red.[d] 14 The time it took us to walk from Ka′desh-bar′ne·a until we crossed the Valley* of Ze′red was 38 years, until the entire generation of the men of war had perished from the camp, just as Jehovah had sworn to them.[e] 15 Jehovah's hand was against them to eliminate them from the camp until they had perished.[f]

16 "As soon as all the men of war had died off from among the people,[g] 17 Jehovah spoke to me again, saying, 18 'Today you are to pass by the territory of Mo′ab, that is, Ar. 19 When you come near to the Am′mon·ites, do not harass or provoke them, for I will not give you any of the land of the Am′monites as a possession, because I have given it to the descendants of Lot as their possession.[h] 20 This too used to be considered the land of the Reph′a·im.[i] (The Reph′a·im formerly lived there, and the Am′mon·ites used to call them Zam·zum′mim. 21 They were a great and numerous and tall people like the An′a·kim;[j] but Jehovah annihilated them before the Am′monites, and these drove them out and settled in their place. 22 That is what he did for the descendants of E′sau, who now dwell in Se′ir,[k] when he annihilated the Hor′ites[l] from before them, so that they could dispossess them and dwell in their place to this very day. 23 As for the Av′vim, they had dwelled in settlements as far as Gaz′a[a] until the Caph′to·rim,[b] who came out from Caph′tor,* annihilated them and settled in their place.)

24 "'Get up, and make your way across the Ar′non Valley.[c] See, I have given into your hand Si′hon[d] the Am′or·ite, king of Hesh′bon. So begin taking possession of his land, and engage him in war. 25 This day I will start to put the dread and the fear of you upon all the people under the heavens who hear the report about you. They will be disturbed and will tremble because of you.'[e]

26 "Then I sent messengers from the wilderness of Ked′emoth[f] to King Si′hon of Hesh′bon, with these peaceful words,[g] 27 'Let me pass through your land. I will remain on the road and not turn to the right or to the left.[h] 28 I will eat only the food and drink only the water that you will sell to me. Just allow me to pass through on foot 29 —that is what the descendants of E′sau dwelling in Se′ir and the Mo′ab·ites dwelling in Ar did for me—until I pass over the Jordan into the land that Jehovah our God is giving to us.' 30 But King Si′hon of Hesh′bon did not let us pass through, because Jehovah your God allowed his spirit to become obstinate[i] and his heart to become hard, in order to give him into your hand as is now the case.[j]

31 "Then Jehovah said to me, 'See, I have already begun to give Si′hon and his land over to you. Start to take possession of his land.'[k] 32 When Si′hon came out along with all his people to meet us in battle at Ja′haz,[a] 33 Jehovah our God handed him over to us, so that we defeated him, his sons, and all his people. 34 We captured all his cities at that time and devoted every city to destruction, including men, women, and children. We left no survivor.[b] 35 We plundered only the livestock for ourselves along with the spoils from the cities that we had captured. 36 From A·ro′er,[c] which is on the rim of the Ar′non Valley* (including the city that is in the valley), as far as Gil′e·ad, no town was beyond our reach. Jehovah our God handed them all over to us.[d] 37 However, you did not approach the land of the Am′mon·ites,[e] the whole bank of the Valley* of Jab′bok[f] and the cities of the mountainous region, or any other place forbidden by Jehovah our God.

3 "Then we turned and went up by way of Ba′shan. And Og, the king of Ba′shan, came out with all his people to meet us in battle at Ed′re·i.[g] 2 So Jehovah said to me, 'Do not be afraid of him, for I will give him and all his people and his land into your hand, and you will do to him just as you did to Si′hon the king of the Am′or·ites, who lived in Hesh′bon.' 3 So Jehovah our God also gave King Og of Ba′shan and all his people into our hand, and we kept striking him down until none of his people survived. 4 We then captured all his cities. There was no town that we did not take from them —60 cities, all the region of Ar′gob, the kingdom of Og in Ba′shan.[h] 5 All these cities were fortified with high walls, gates, and bars, along with a great number of rural towns. 6 However, we devoted them to destruction,[a] just as we had done to King Si′hon of Hesh′bon, in devoting every city to destruction, including men, women, and children.[b] 7 And we took all the livestock and the spoil of the cities for ourselves.

8 "At that time we seized the land of the two Am′or·ite kings[c] who were in the region of the Jordan, from the Ar′non Valley* as far as Mount Her′mon[d] 9 (the mountain that the Si·do′ni·ans used to call Sir′i·on and the Am′or·ites used to call Se′nir), 10 all the cities of the tableland,* all Gil′e·ad, and all Ba′shan as far as Sal′e·cah and Ed′re·i,[e] the cities of the kingdom that belonged to Og in Ba′shan. 11 For King Og of Ba′shan was the last remaining one of the Reph′a·im. His bier* was made of iron,# and it is still in Rab′bah of the Am′mon·ites. It is nine cubits^ long and four cubits wide, by the standard cubit. 12 At that time we took possession of this land: from A·ro′er,[f] which is by the Ar′non Valley,* and half of the mountainous region of Gil′e·ad, and I have given its cities to the Reu′ben·ites and the Gad′ites.[g] 13 And the rest of Gil′e·ad and all Ba′shan of the kingdom of Og I have given to the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh.[h] All the region of Ar′gob, which belongs to Ba′shan, was known as the land of the Reph′a·im.

14 "Ja′ir[i] the son of Manas′seh took all the region of Ar′gob[j] as far as the boundary of the Gesh′ur·ites and the Ma·ac′a·thites[k] and named those villages of Bashan after himself, Hav′voth-ja′ir,*[i] to this day. 15 And I have given Gil′e·ad to Ma′chir.[m] 16 And to the 18 "I then gave you this command: 'Jehovah your God has given you this land to take possession of it. All your valiant men will take up arms and cross over before your brothers, the Israelites.[c] 19 Only your wives, your children, and your livestock (I well know that you have a great deal of livestock) will continue dwelling in the cities that I have given you, 20 until Jehovah gives your brothers rest, as he does for you, and they also have taken possession of the land that Jehovah your God will give them across the Jordan. Then you will come back, each one to his possession that I have given you.'[d]

21 "At that time I gave this command to Joshua:[e] 'You have seen with your own eyes what Jehovah your God has done to these two kings. Jehovah will do the same thing to all the kingdoms into which you will cross over.[f] 22 You must not be afraid of them, for Jehovah your God is the one fighting for you.'[g]

23 "At that time I pleaded with Jehovah, saying, 24 'O Sovereign Lord Jehovah, you have begun to show your servant your greatness and your mighty arm,[h] for what god in the heavens or on the earth performs such mighty deeds as you?[a] 25 Please let me pass over and see the good land that is across the Jordan, this good mountainous region and Leb′anon.'[b] 26 But Jehovah was still furious with me because of you,[c] and he would not listen to me. Rather, Jehovah said to me, 'Enough from you! Never speak to me again about this matter. 27 Go up to the top of Pis′gah,[d] and look to the west and north and south and east and view the land with your eyes, for you will not cross over this Jordan.[e] 28 Commission Joshua[f] and encourage him and strengthen him, because he is the one who will cross over[g] before this people and he is the one who will cause them to inherit the land that you will see.' 29 All this happened while we were dwelling in the valley in front of Beth-pe′or.[h]

4 "Now, O Israel, listen to the regulations and the judicial decisions that I am teaching you to observe, so that you may live[i] and go in and take possession of the land that Jehovah, the God of your forefathers, is giving you. 2 You must not add to the word that I am commanding you, neither must you take away from it,[j] so as to keep the commandments of Jehovah your God that I am commanding you.

3 "Your own eyes have seen what Jehovah did in the case of the Ba′al of Pe′or; Jehovah your God annihilated from your midst every man who walked after the Ba′al of Pe′or.[k] 4 But you who are holding fast to Jehovah your God are all alive today. 5 See, I have taught you regulations and judicial decisions,[l] just as Jehovah my God has commanded me, so that you may observe them in the land you will take possession of. 6 You must carefully follow them,[m] because this will show wisdom[n] and understanding[o] on your part before the peoples who will hear about all these regulations, and they will say, 'This great nation is undoubtedly a wise and understanding people.'[a] 7 For what great nation has gods as near to it as Jehovah our God is to us whenever we call on him?[b] 8 And what great nation has righteous regulations and judicial decisions like this entire Law that I am putting before you today?[c]

9 "Just be careful and watch yourself closely,* so that you may not forget the things that your eyes have seen and so that they may not depart from your heart all the days of your life. You must also make them known to your sons and to your grandsons.[d] 10 On the day that you stood before Jehovah your God in Ho'reb, Jehovah said to me, 'Congregate the people together to me so that I may let them hear my words,[e] in order that they may learn to fear me[f] all the days that they are alive on the ground and that they may teach their sons.'[g]

11 "So you came near and stood at the base of the mountain, and the mountain was burning with fire up to the very heavens;* there was darkness, cloud, and thick gloom.[h] 12 And Jehovah began to speak to you out of the fire.[i] You heard the sound of words, but you saw no form[j]—there was only a voice.[k] 13 And he declared his covenant to you,[l] which he commanded you to observe—the Ten Commandments.*[m] Afterward, he wrote them on two tablets of stone.[n] 14 At that time Jehovah commanded me to teach you regulations and judicial decisions, which you are to observe in the land you will enter to take possession of.

15 "Therefore, watch yourselves closely*—since you did not see any form on the day Jehovah spoke to you in Ho'reb out of the middle of the fire—16 that you may not act corruptly by making for yourselves any carved image having the form of any symbol, the representation of male or female,[a] 17 the representation of any animal on the earth or the representation of any bird that flies in the sky,[b] 18 the representation of anything creeping on the ground or the representation of any fish in the waters under the earth.[c] 19 And when you raise your eyes to the heavens and see the sun and the moon and the stars—all the army of the heavens—do not get seduced and bow down to them and serve them.[d] Jehovah your God has given them to all the peoples under the whole heavens. 20 But you are the ones Jehovah took and brought out of the iron-smelting furnace, out of Egypt, to become the people of his personal possession,*[e] as you are today.

21 "Jehovah became angry with me because of you,[f] and he swore that I should not cross the Jordan or go into the good land that Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance.[g] 22 For I am to die in this land; I will not cross the Jordan,[h] but you will cross over and take possession of this good land. 23 Be careful that you do not forget the covenant of Jehovah your God that he made with you,[i] and do not make for yourselves a carved image, the form of anything forbidden to you by Jehovah your God.[j] 24 For Jehovah your God is a consuming fire,[a] a God who requires exclusive devotion.[b]

25 "If you become father to sons and grandsons and you have lived a long time in the land and you act ruinously and make a carved image[c] of any kind and you do what is evil in the eyes of Jehovah your God so as to offend him,[d] 26 I do take the heavens and the earth as witnesses against you today that you will surely and quickly perish from the land that you are crossing the Jordan to take possession of. You will not last long on it, but you will be utterly annihilated.[e] 27 Jehovah will scatter you among the peoples,[f] and just a few of you will survive[g] among the nations to which Jehovah will have driven you. 28 There you will have to serve gods of wood and stone made by human hands,[h] gods that cannot see or hear or eat or smell.

29 "If you search for Jehovah your God from there, you will certainly find him,[i] if you inquire for him with all your heart and with all your soul.*[j] 30 When you are in great distress and all these things have happened to you in later times, then you will return to Jehovah your God and listen to his voice.[k] 31 For Jehovah your God is a merciful God.[l] He will not desert you or bring you to ruin or forget the covenant that he swore to your forefathers.[m]

32 "Ask, now, about the former days before your time, from the day when God created man on the earth; search from one end of the heavens to the other end of the heavens. Has anything so great ever happened or has anything like it ever been heard of?[n] 33 Have any other people heard the voice of God speaking out of the fire the way you have heard it and kept on living?[a] 34 Or has God ever attempted to take for himself a nation out of the midst of another nation along with judgments,* with signs, with miracles,[b] with war,[c] with a mighty hand,[d] with an outstretched arm, and with terrifying deeds,[e] as Jehovah your God did for you in Egypt before your very eyes? 35 You yourselves have been shown these things so you will know that Jehovah is the true God;[f] there is no other besides him.[g] 36 He made you hear his voice from the heavens to correct you, and on the earth he made you see his great fire, and his words you heard from out of the fire.[h]

37 "Because he loved your forefathers and has chosen their offspring* after them,[i] you were brought out of Egypt in his presence by his great power. 38 From before you he drove away nations greater and mightier than you, to bring you in and give you their land as an inheritance, as it is today.[j] 39 Know, therefore, on this day, and take it to heart that Jehovah is the true God in the heavens above and on the earth beneath.[k] There is no other.[l] 40 You must keep his regulations and his commandments that I am commanding you today, in order that it may go well with you and your sons after you, so that you may long remain in the land that Jehovah your God is giving you."[m]

41 At that time Moses set apart three cities on the eastern side of the Jordan.[n] 42 If any manslayer unintentionally kills his fellow man and he did not previously hate him,[o] he must flee to one of these cities and live.[p] 43 The cities are Be'zer[q] in the wilderness on the

5 Moses then summoned all Israel and said to them: "Hear, O Israel, the regulations and the judicial decisions that I am announcing to you today, and you must learn them and carefully observe them. 2 Jehovah our God made a covenant with us in Ho'reb.[m] 3 It was not with our forefathers that Jehovah made this covenant, but with us, all of us alive here today. 4 Jehovah spoke face-to-face with you in the mountain, out of the fire.[n] 5 I was standing between Jehovah and you at that time[o] to convey to you the word of Jehovah, for you were afraid because of the fire and did not go up the mountain.[p] He said:

with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm.[a] That is why Jehovah your God commanded you to observe the Sabbath day.

16 "'Honor your father and your mother,[b] just as Jehovah your God has commanded you, so that you may live a long time and you may prosper* in the land that Jehovah your God is giving you.[c]

22 "These commandments* Jehovah spoke to all your congregation on the mountain, out of the fire, the cloud, and the thick gloom,[j] with a loud voice, and he added nothing further; then he wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me.[k]

23 "But as soon as you had heard the voice out of the darkness, while the mountain was burning with fire,[l] all the heads of your tribes and the elders approached me. 24 Then you said, 'Here Jehovah our God has shown us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the fire.[m] Today we have seen that God can speak with man and he can keep living.[n] 25 Now, why should we die? For this great fire may consume us. If we continue hearing the voice of Jehovah our God, we are sure to die. 26 For who is there of all flesh* who has heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the fire as we did and yet goes on living? 27 You yourself must go near to hear all that Jehovah our God will say, and you will be the one to tell us all that Jehovah our God says to you, and we will listen and do it.'[a]

28 "So Jehovah heard the words you spoke to me, and Jehovah said to me, 'I have heard the words that this people have spoken to you. All they have said is good.[b] 29 If only they would always have a heart inclined to fear me[c] and to keep all my commandments;[d] then it would go well with them and their sons forever![e] 30 Go say to them: "Return to your tents." 31 But you should stay here with me, and let me tell you all the commandments, the regulations, and the judicial decisions that you should teach to them and that they are to observe in the land that I am giving them to take possession of.' 32 Now you people should be careful to do just as Jehovah your God has commanded you.[f] You must not turn to the right or to the left.[g] 33 You should walk in all the way that Jehovah your God has commanded you,[h] in order that you may live and prosper and prolong your days in the land that you will take possession of.[i] am commanding you—you and your son and your grandson[a]—all the days of your life, so that you may live a long time.[b] 3 And you must listen, O Israel, and carefully observe them, so that you may prosper and become very many in the land flowing with milk and honey, just as Jehovah, the God of your forefathers, has promised you.

4 "Listen, O Israel: Jehovah our God is one Jehovah.[c] 5 You must love Jehovah your God with all your heart and all your soul*[d] and all your strength.#[e] 6 These words that I am commanding you today must be on your heart, 7 and you must inculcate them in* your sons[f] and speak of them when you sit in your house and when you walk on the road and when you lie down and when you get up.[g] 8 Tie them as a reminder on your hand, and they must be like a headband on your forehead.*[h] 9 Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

10 "When Jehovah your God brings you into the land that he swore to your forefathers Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob to give you[i]—great and fine cities that you did not build,[j] 11 houses full of all sorts of good things that you did not work for, hewn cisterns that you did not dig, and vineyards and olive trees that you did not plant—and you have eaten and become satisfied,[k] 12 be careful not to forget Jehovah,[l] who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery. 13 Jehovah your God you should fear,[m] and him you should serve,[n] and by his name you should swear.[o] 14 You must not follow after other gods, any gods of the peoples who are all around you,[a] 15 for Jehovah your God who is in your midst is a God who requires exclusive devotion.[b] Otherwise, the anger of Jehovah your God will blaze against you[c] and he will annihilate you from the face of the earth.[d]

16 "You must not put Jehovah your God to the test[e] the way you put him to the test at Mas'sah.[f] 17 You should diligently observe the commandments of Jehovah your God and his reminders and his regulations that he has commanded you to observe. 18 You must do what is right and good in Jehovah's eyes, in order that you may prosper and that you may enter and take possession of the good land about which Jehovah has sworn to your forefathers,[g] 19 by driving out all your enemies from before you, just as Jehovah has promised.[h]

20 "In the future, when your son asks you, 'What is the meaning of the reminders, the regulations, and the judicial decisions that Jehovah our God has commanded you?' 21 then you will say to your son, 'We became slaves to Phar'aoh in Egypt, but Jehovah brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand. 22 So before our eyes Jehovah kept sending signs and miracles, great and devastating, upon Egypt,[i] upon Phar'aoh, and upon all his household.[j] 23 And he brought us out from there in order to bring us here to give us the land about which he had sworn to our forefathers.[k] 24 Then Jehovah commanded us to carry out all these regulations and to fear Jehovah our God for our lasting good,[l] so that we could keep alive,[m] as we are today. 25 And it will mean righteousness for us if we are careful to observe all these com-

5 "Instead, this is what you should do to them: Tear down their altars, break up their sacred pillars,[m] cut down their sacred poles,[n] and burn up their graven images.[o] 6 For you are a holy people to Jehovah your God, and Jehovah your God has chosen you to become his people, his special property, out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.[p]

7 "It was not because you were the most numerous of all the peoples that Jehovah showed affection for you and chose you,[q] for you were the smallest of all the peoples.[r] 8 Rather, it was because of Jehovah's love for you and because he kept the oath that he had sworn to your forefathers[a] that Jehovah brought you out with a mighty hand, to redeem you from the house of slavery,[b] from the power* of Phar'aoh king of Egypt. 9 You well know that Jehovah your God is the true God, the faithful God, keeping his covenant and loyal love to a thousand generations of those who love him and keep his commandments.[c] 10 But those who hate him he will repay to their face with destruction.[d] He will not be slow to deal with those who hate him; he will repay them to their face. 11 Therefore, take care to keep the commandments and the regulations and the judicial decisions that I am commanding you today, by observing them.

12 "If you continue listening to these judicial decisions and you observe them and carry them out, Jehovah your God will keep the covenant and the loyal love about which he swore to your forefathers. 13 He will love you and bless you and multiply you. Yes, he will bless you with many children*[e] and with the produce of your soil, your grain, your new wine, your oil,[f] the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks, in the land that he swore to your forefathers to give to you.[g] 14 You will become the most blessed of all the peoples;[h] no man or woman among you will be childless, nor will your livestock be without young.[i] 15 Jehovah will take away from you all sickness, and he will not bring upon you any of the terrible diseases that you have known in Egypt.[j] Instead, he will bring them upon all those who hate you. 16 You are to destroy* all the peoples whom Jehovah your God gives 22 "Jehovah your God will certainly drive these nations away from before you little by little.[n] You will not be allowed to put an end to them quickly, so that the wild animals of the field will not multiply against you. 23 Jehovah your God will give them over to you and utterly defeat them until they are annihilated.[o] 24 He will give their kings into your hand,[p] and you will wipe out their names from under the heavens.[q] Nobody will stand up to you,[r] until you have exterminated them.[s] 25 You should burn the graven images of their gods in the fire.[t] Do not desire the silver and the gold on them or take it for yourself,[u] so that you are not ensnared by it, for it is something detestable to Jehovah your God.[a] 26 You must not bring a detestable thing into your house and thereby become something devoted to destruction like it. You should utterly loathe it and absolutely detest it, because it is something devoted to destruction.

8 "You should be careful to observe every commandment that I am giving you today, so that you may continue living[b] and multiply and go in and take possession of the land about which Jehovah swore to your forefathers.[c] 2 Remember the long road that Jehovah your God made you walk these 40 years in the wilderness,[d] to humble you and to put you to the test[e] so as to know what was in your heart,[f] whether you would keep his commandments or not. 3 So he humbled you and let you go hungry[g] and fed you with the manna,[h] which neither you had known nor your fathers had known, in order to make you know that man does not live by bread alone but man lives by every expression from Jehovah's mouth.[i] 4 The clothing you wore did not wear out, nor did your feet become swollen these 40 years.[j] 5 You well know in your heart that just as a man corrects his son, Jehovah your God was correcting you.[k]

6 "Now you must keep the commandments of Jehovah your God by walking in his ways and by fearing him. 7 For Jehovah your God is bringing you into a good land,[l] a land of streams of water,* springs and fountains# flowing in the valley plain and in the mountainous region, 8 a land of wheat and barley, of grapevines, fig trees, and pomegranates,[m] a land of olive oil and

He will subdue them before your eyes so that you may quickly drive them out* and destroy them, just as Jehovah has promised you.[h]

4 "Do not say in your heart when Jehovah your God drives them away from before you, 'It was because of my own righteousness that Jehovah has brought me in to take possession of this land.'[i] Rather, it is because of the wickedness of these nations[j] that Jehovah is driving them away from before you. 5 It is not because of your righteousness or the uprightness of your heart that you are going in to take possession of their land. Instead, it is because of the wickedness of these nations that Jehovah your God is driving them away from before you[k] and in order to carry out the word that Jehovah swore to your forefathers, Abraham,[l] Isaac,[m] and Jacob.[n] 6 Know, then, that it is not because of your righteousness that Jehovah your God is giving you this good land to take possession of, because you are an obstinate* people.[o]

16 Then I looked and saw that you had sinned against Jehovah your God! You had made a metal* calf for yourselves. You had turned aside quickly from the path Jehovah had commanded you to follow.[a] 17 So I took hold of the two tablets and threw them down with both my hands and shattered them before your eyes.[b] 18 Then I prostrated myself before Jehovah, as at first, for 40 days and 40 nights. I neither ate food nor drank water,[c] because of all the sins that you had committed by your doing what was evil in Jehovah's eyes and offending him. 19 For I was terrified because of Jehovah's great anger against you,[d] in that he was ready to annihilate you. However, Jehovah listened to me that time also.[e]

20 "Jehovah was so angry with Aaron that he was ready to annihilate him,[f] but I made supplication for Aaron at that time also. 21 Then I took the sinful thing you made, the calf,[g] and burned it up in the fire; I crushed it and ground it thoroughly until it was fine like dust, and I threw the dust into the stream that flows down from the mountain.[h]

22 "Further, at Tab'e·rah,[i] at Mas'sah,[j] and at Kib'roth-hat·ta'a·vah,[k] you also provoked Jehovah to anger. 23 When Jehovah sent you out of Ka'desh-bar'ne·a[l] and said, 'Go up and take possession of the land that I will certainly give you!' you again rebelled against the order of Jehovah your God,[m] and you did not exercise faith[n] in him and did not obey him. 24 You have rebelled against Jehovah ever since I have known you.

25 "So I kept prostrating myself before Jehovah 40 days and 40 nights,[o] for I prostrated myself in this way because Jehovah said he would annihilate you. 26 I began to make supplication to Jehovah and to say, 'O Sovereign Lord Jehovah, do not bring your people to ruin. They are your personal possession,[a] whom you redeemed through your greatness and brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.[b] 27 Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.[c] Do not pay attention to the stubbornness of this people, their wickedness, and their sin.[d] 28 Otherwise the people of the land from which you brought us may say: "Jehovah was unable to bring them into the land that he promised them, and because he hated them, he brought them out to put them to death in the wilderness."[e] 29 For they are your people and your personal possession,[f] whom you brought out with your great power and your outstretched arm.'[g]

10 "At that time Jehovah said to me, 'Carve out for yourself two tablets of stone like the first ones,[h] and come up to me on the mountain; also you must make for yourself an ark* of wood. 2 And I will write on the tablets the words that appeared on the first tablets, which you shattered, and you should place them in the ark.' 3 So I made an ark of acacia wood and carved out two tablets of stone like the first ones and went up the mountain with the two tablets in my hand.[i] 4 Then he wrote on the tablets the words he had written before,[j] the Ten Commandments,*[k] which Jehovah had spoken to you on the mountain out of the fire[l] on the day of the assembly;#[m] and Jehovah gave them to me. 5 Then I turned and went down the mountain[a] and placed the tablets in the ark that I had made, where they remain, just as Jehovah had commanded me.

6 "The Israelites then departed from Be·er'oth Ben'e-ja'a·kan for Mo·se'rah. There Aaron died and was buried,[b] and his son El·e·a'zar began to serve as priest in his place.[c] 7 From there they departed for Gud'go·dah, and from Gud'go·dah for Jot'ba·thah,[d] a land flowing with streams of water.*

8 "At that time Jehovah set apart the tribe of Le'vi[e] to carry the ark of Jehovah's covenant,[f] to stand before Jehovah in order to minister to him, and to bless in his name,[g] as they do to this day. 9 That is why Le'vi has no share or inheritance with his brothers. Jehovah is his inheritance, just as Jehovah your God had said to him.[h] 10 I myself stayed on the mountain as I did the first time, 40 days and 40 nights,[i] and Jehovah listened to me on that occasion also.[j] Jehovah did not want to destroy you. 11 Then Jehovah said to me, 'Go ahead of the people, and prepare to depart, so that they may go in and take possession of the land that I have sworn to their forefathers to give to them.'[k]

12 "Now, O Israel, what is Jehovah your God asking of you?[l] Only this: to fear Jehovah your God,[m] to walk in all his ways,[n] to love him, to serve Jehovah your God with all your heart and all your soul,[o] 13 and to keep the commandments and statutes of Jehovah that I am commanding you today for your own good.[p] 14 Look, to Jehovah your God belong the heavens, even the heavens of the heavens, and the earth with all that is in it.[a] 15 But only to your forefathers did Jehovah draw close and express his love, and he has chosen you, their offspring,[b] out of all the peoples, as you are today. 16 You must now cleanse* your hearts[c] and stop being so stubborn.#[d] 17 For Jehovah your God is the God of gods[e] and the Lord of lords, the God great, mighty, and awe-inspiring, who treats none with partiality[f] and does not accept a bribe. 18 He executes justice for the fatherless child* and the widow[g] and loves the foreign resident,[h] giving him food and clothing. 19 You too must love the foreign resident, for you became foreign residents in the land of Egypt.[i]

20 "Jehovah your God you should fear, him you should serve,[j] to him you should cling, and by his name you should swear. 21 He is the One you are to praise.[k] He is your God, who has done all these great and awe-inspiring things for you that your own eyes have seen.[l] 22 With 70 people* your forefathers went down into Egypt,[m] and now Jehovah your God has made you as numerous as the stars of the heavens.[n]

11 "You must love Jehovah your God[o] and always keep your obligation to him and his statutes, his judicial decisions, and his commandments. 2 You know that today I am addressing you, not your sons who have not known or seen the discipline of Jehovah your God,[p] his greatness,[q] his mighty hand[r] and his outstretched arm. 3 They did not see his signs and his deeds that he did in Egypt to Phar'aoh king of Egypt and to all his land;[a] 4 or what he did to the armies of Egypt, to Phar'aoh's horses and war chariots, which were overwhelmed by the waters of the Red Sea when they were chasing after you, and Jehovah destroyed them once and for all.[b] 5 They did not see what he has done for you in the wilderness until your coming to this place, 6 or what he did to Da'than and A·bi'ram, the sons of E·li'ab the son of Reu'ben, when the earth opened and swallowed them up, along with their households and their tents and every living thing that followed them, before the eyes of all Israel.[c] 7 Your own eyes have seen all the great deeds that Jehovah did.

8 "You must keep the whole commandment that I am giving you today, so that you may grow strong and cross over into the land to take possession of it, 9 and so that you may live long[d] in the land that Jehovah swore to give to your forefathers and their offspring,*[e] a land flowing with milk and honey.[f]

10 "The land you are going to take possession of is not like the land of Egypt, out of which you came, where you used to sow your seed and irrigate it with your foot,* like a garden of vegetables. 11 But the land you are about to cross into and possess is a land of mountains and valley plains.[g] It drinks the water that rains from the heavens;[h] 12 it is a land that Jehovah your God is caring for. 14 "You are sons of Jehovah your God. Do not cut yourselves[d] or shave your foreheads bald* for a dead person.[e] 2 For you are a holy people[f] to Jehovah your God, and Jehovah has chosen you to become his people, his special property,* out of all the peoples who are on the face of the earth.[g]

3 "You must not eat anything that is detestable.[h] 4 These are the animals that you may eat:[i] the bull, the sheep, the goat, 5 the deer, the gazelle, the roebuck, the wild goat, the antelope, the wild sheep, and the mountain sheep. 6 You may eat any animal that has a split hoof divided into two and that chews the cud. 7 However, you must not eat the following animals that chew the cud or that have split hooves: the camel, the hare, and the rock badger, because they chew the cud but do not have split hooves. They are unclean for you.[j] 8 Also the pig because it has a split hoof but does not chew the cud. It is unclean for you. You must not eat their flesh or touch their carcasses.

9 "Of everything that is living in the waters, you may eat these: Anything with fins and scales, you may eat.[a] 10 But you must not eat anything that has no fins and scales. It is unclean for you.

11 "You may eat any clean bird. 12 But you must not eat these: the eagle, the osprey, the black vulture,[b] 13 the red kite, the black kite, every kind of glede, 14 every kind of raven, 15 the ostrich, the owl, the gull, every kind of falcon, 16 the little owl, the long-eared owl, the swan, 17 the pelican, the vulture, the cormorant, 18 the stork, every kind of heron, the hoopoe, and the bat. 19 Every winged swarming creature* also is unclean for you. They should not be eaten. 20 Any clean flying creature you may eat.

21 "You must not eat any animal that was found dead.[c] You may give it to the foreign resident who is inside your cities,* and he may eat it, or it may be sold to a foreigner. For you are a holy people to Jehovah your God.

22 "You must without fail give a tenth* of everything your seed produces in the field year by year.[e] 23 You will eat the tenth part of your grain, your new wine, your oil, and the firstborn of your herd and your flock before Jehovah your God in the place that he chooses to have his name reside,[f] so that you may learn to fear Jehovah your God always.[g]

24 "But if the journey should be too long for you and you are not able to carry it to the place that Jehovah your God chooses as the place for his name[a] because it is far away from you (because Jehovah your God will bless you), 25 you may then convert it into money, and with your money in hand, travel to the place that Jehovah your God will choose. 26 You may then spend the money on whatever you desire*—cattle, sheep, goats, wine and other alcoholic beverages, and anything you please;# and you will eat there before Jehovah your God and rejoice, you and your household.[b] 27 And do not neglect the Levite who is inside your cities,[c] for he has no share or inheritance with you.[d]

28 "At the end of every three years, you should bring out the entire tenth part of your produce for that year and deposit it inside your cities.[e] 29 Then the Levite, who has no share or inheritance with you, the foreign resident, the fatherless child,* and the widow who are in your cities will come and eat their fill,[f] so that Jehovah your God may bless you in all that you do.[g]

15 "At the end of every seven years, you should grant a release.[h] 2 This is the nature of the release: Every creditor will release his neighbor from the debt he incurred. He should not demand payment from his neighbor or his brother, for it will be proclaimed a release to Jehovah.[i] 3 You may demand payment from the foreigner,[j] but you should release your claim on whatever your brother owes you. 4 However, no one among you should become poor, for Jehovah will surely bless you[k] in the land that Jehovah your God is giving you to possess as an inheritance, 5 but only if you strictly obey the voice of Jehovah your God and carefully observe all this commandment that I am giving you today.[a] 6 For Jehovah your God will bless you just as he has promised you, and you will lend* to many nations, but you will not need to borrow;[b] and you will dominate many nations, but they will not dominate you.[c]

7 "If one of your brothers becomes poor among you in one of your cities of the land that Jehovah your God is giving you, do not harden your heart or be tightfisted toward your poor brother.[d] 8 For you should generously open your hand to him[e] and by all means lend* whatever he needs or is lacking. 9 Be careful not to harbor this evil idea in your heart, 'The seventh year, the year of the release, has approached,'[f] and hold back your generosity toward your poor brother and give him nothing. If he calls out to Jehovah against you, it will be a sin on your part.[g] 10 You should generously give to him,[h] and you* should not give to him grudgingly, for this is why Jehovah your God will bless your every deed and undertaking.[i] 11 For there will always be poor people in the land.[j] That is why I am commanding you, 'You should generously open up your hand to your afflicted and poor brother in your land.'[k]

12 "If one of your brothers, a Hebrew man or woman, is sold to you and has served you for six years, then in the seventh year you should set him free.[l] 13 And if you should set him free, do not send him away empty-handed. 14 You should supply him generously with something from your flock, your threshing floor, and your press for oil and wine. Just as Jehovah your God has blessed you, you should give to him. 15 Remember that you became a slave in the land of Egypt and that Jehovah your God redeemed you. That is why I am commanding you to do this today.

16 "But if he says to you, 'I will not go out from your company!' because he loves you and your household, since he has been happy while with you,[a] 17 you should then take an awl and put it through his ear into the door, and he will become your slave for life. You should do the same with your slave girl. 18 Do not consider it a hardship when you set him free and he leaves you, because his service to you for six years was worth twice as much as that of a hired worker, and Jehovah your God has blessed you in everything that was done.

19 "You should sanctify every firstborn male of your herd and your flock to Jehovah your God.[b] You must not do any work with the firstborn of your herd* nor shear the firstborn of your flock. 20 You and your household should eat it before Jehovah your God year by year in the place that Jehovah will choose.[c] 21 But if it has a defect—lameness, blindness, or any other serious defect—you must not sacrifice it to Jehovah your God.[d] 22 You should eat it inside your cities,* the unclean and clean person together, as though it were a gazelle or a deer.[e] 23 But you must not eat its blood;[f] you should pour it out on the ground like water.[g]

You should sacrifice the Passover offering in the evening as soon as the sun sets,[j] at the appointed time of your coming out of Egypt. 7 You must cook it and eat it[k] in the place that Jehovah your God will choose,[l] and in the morning you may return to your own tents. 8 Six days you should eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day there will be a solemn assembly to Jehovah your God. You must do no work.[m]

9 "You should count off seven weeks. people with righteous judgment. 19 You must not pervert justice,[a] show partiality,[b] or accept a bribe, for the bribe blinds the eyes of the wise[c] and distorts the words of the righteous. 20 Justice—justice you should pursue,[d] so that you may keep living and take possession of the land that Jehovah your God is giving you.

21 "You should not plant any sort of tree as a sacred pole*[e] near the altar of Jehovah your God that you make for yourself.

22 "Neither should you set up a sacred pillar for yourself,[f] something Jehovah your God hates.

17 "You must not sacrifice to Jehovah your God a bull or a sheep that has a defect or anything wrong with it, for it would be detestable to Jehovah your God.[g]

2 "Suppose a man or a woman is found among you, in any of your cities that Jehovah your God is giving you, who is practicing what is bad in the eyes of Jehovah your God and violating his covenant,[h] 3 and he goes astray and worships other gods and he bows down to them or to the sun or the moon or all the army of the heavens,[i] a thing that I have not commanded.[j] 4 When it is reported to you or you hear about it, then you should investigate the matter thoroughly. If it is confirmed to be true[k] that this detestable thing has been done in Israel, 5 you must bring the man or the woman who has done this evil thing out to the city gates, and the man or the woman must be stoned to death.[l] 6 On the testimony* of two witnesses or of three witnesses[m] the one who is to die should be put to death. He must not be put to death on the testimony of one witness.[a] 7 The hand of the witnesses should be the first to come against him to put him to death, and the hand of all the people afterward. You must remove what is bad from your midst.[b]

8 "If a case arises in one of your cities that is too difficult for you to judge, whether it is a case involving bloodshed[c] or a legal claim that has been raised or a violent deed that has been committed or other matters of dispute, you should rise up and go to the place that Jehovah your God chooses.[d] 9 Go to the Levitical priests and to the judge[e] serving in those days, and make your inquiry, and they will hand down the decision to you.[f] 10 Then you must act according to the decision that they hand down to you from the place that Jehovah chooses. Be careful to do according to all that they instruct you. 11 You must act according to the law that they show you and according to the decision that they declare to you.[g] Do not deviate from the decision that they will hand down to you, either to the right or to the left.[h] 12 The man who acts presumptuously by not listening to the priest who is ministering to Jehovah your God or to the judge must die.[i] You must remove what is bad from Israel.[j] 13 All the people will then hear and become afraid, and they will not act presumptuously anymore.[k]

14 "When you enter the land that Jehovah your God is giving you and you have taken possession of it and are living in it, and you say, 'Let me appoint a king over myself like all the nations around me,'[l] 15 in that case, you should without fail appoint a king whom Jehovah your God chooses.[m] You should appoint a king from among your brothers. You are forbidden to appoint over yourself a foreigner who is not your brother. 16 However, he should not acquire many horses for himself[a] or make the people go back to Egypt in order to obtain more horses,[b] since Jehovah told you, 'You must never go back again by this way.' 17 Neither should he take many wives for himself, so that his heart may not go astray;[c] nor should he acquire vast amounts of silver and gold for himself.[d] 18 When he takes his seat on the throne of his kingdom, he must write for himself in a book* a copy of this Law, taken from the one kept by the Levitical priests.[e]

19 "It is to remain with him, and he must read from it all the days of his life,[f] so that he may learn to fear Jehovah his God and observe all the words of this Law and these regulations by carrying them out.[g] 20 Thus his heart will not exalt itself above his brothers, and he will not deviate from the commandment, either to the right or to the left, so that he may remain a long time over his kingdom, he and his sons in the midst of Israel.

18 "The Levitical priests, and indeed the entire tribe of Le'vi, will have no share or inheritance with Israel. They will eat of the offerings made by fire to Jehovah, which are his inheritance.[h] 2 So they should have no inheritance in the midst of their brothers. Jehovah is their inheritance, just as he has spoken to them.

4 The firstfruits of your grain, your new wine, your oil, and the first wool that is shorn from your flock you should give him.[a] 5 Jehovah your God has chosen him and his sons from all your tribes to minister in the name of Jehovah always.[b]

6 "But if a Levite leaves one of your cities in Israel where he was living[c] and he* desires to go to the place that Jehovah chooses,#[d] 7 he may minister there in the name of Jehovah his God the same as all his brothers, the Levites, who are stationed there before Jehovah.[e] 8 He will receive an equal share of food with them,[f] in addition to what he receives from selling his ancestral possessions.

9 "When you have entered into the land that Jehovah your God is giving you, you must not learn to imitate the detestable practices of those nations.[g] 10 There should not be found in you anyone who makes his son or his daughter pass through the fire,[h] anyone who employs divination,[i] anyone practicing magic,[j] anyone who looks for omens,[k] a sorcerer,[l] 11 anyone binding others with a spell, anyone who consults a spirit medium[m] or a fortune-teller,[n] or anyone who inquires of the dead.[o] 12 For whoever does these things is detestable to Jehovah, and on account of these detestable practices Jehovah your God is driving them away from before you. 13 You should prove yourself blameless before Jehovah your God.[p] do anything like this. 15 Jehovah your God will raise up for you from among your brothers a prophet like me. You must listen to him.[a] 16 This is in response to what you asked of Jehovah your God in Ho′reb on the day of the assembly*[b] when you said, 'Do not let me hear the voice of Jehovah my God or see this great fire anymore, so that I do not die.'[c] 17 Then Jehovah said to me, 'What they have said is good. 18 I will raise up for them from the midst of their brothers a prophet like you,[d] and I will put my words in his mouth,[e] and he will speak to them all that I command him.[f] 19 Indeed, I will require an account from the man who will not listen to my words that he will speak in my name.[g]

The prophet spoke it presumptuously. You should not fear him.'

19 "When Jehovah your God destroys the nations whose land Jehovah your God is giving you and you have dispossessed them and have settled in their cities and their houses,[i] 2 you should set apart three cities in the midst of your land that Jehovah your God is giving you to possess.[j] 3 You should divide the territory of the land that Jehovah your God has given you to possess into three parts, and prepare the roads so that any manslayer can flee to one of those cities.

4 "Now this is what should take place regarding the manslayer who may flee there in order to live: When he strikes his fellow man unintentionally and he did not previously hate him;[a] 5 as when he goes with his fellow man into the forest to gather wood and he raises his hand to cut the tree with the ax, but the axhead flies off the handle and hits his fellow man and he dies, the manslayer should flee to one of these cities to live.[b] 6 Otherwise, in the heat of anger,* the avenger of blood[c] may chase after the manslayer, overtake him, and kill him, because the distance to the city was too far. However, he did not deserve to die, since he did not previously hate his fellow man.[d] 7 That is why I am commanding you: 'Set three cities apart.'

8 "If Jehovah your God enlarges your territory as he swore to your forefathers[e] and he has given you all the land that he promised to give to your forefathers[f] 9 —provided you faithfully observe all this commandment that I am giving you today, to love Jehovah your God and always to walk in his ways[g]—then you are to add three other cities to these three.[h] 10 In this way no innocent blood will be spilled[i] in your land that Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance, and no bloodguilt will come upon you.[j]

11 "But if a man hated his fellow man[k] and he was waiting to attack him and he fatally wounded him* and he died, and the man has fled to one of these cities, 12 the elders of his city should then sum-to war with you, you should besiege it, 13 and Jehovah your God will certainly give it into your hand, and you must strike down every male in it with the sword. 14 However, the women, the children, the livestock, and everything that is in the city, all its spoil, you may plunder for yourself,[a] and you will eat the spoil of your enemies, which Jehovah your God has given to you.[b]

15 "That is what you will do to all the cities very far away from you that are not of the cities of these nearby nations. 16 But in the cities of these peoples, which Jehovah your God is giving you as an inheritance, you must not allow any breathing thing to live.[c] 17 Instead, you should devote them completely to destruction, the Hit'tites, the Am'or·ites, the Ca'naan·ites, the Per'iz·zites, the Hi'vites, and the Jeb'u·sites,[d] just as Jehovah your God has commanded you; 18 so that they may not teach you to follow all their detestable practices that they have done for their gods, causing you to sin against Jehovah your God.[e]

19 "If you lay siege to a city and capture it after fighting against it for many days, you should not destroy its trees by wielding an ax against them. You may eat from them, but you should not cut them down.[f] For should you besiege a tree of the field as you would a man? 20 You may destroy only a tree that you know is not used for food. You may cut it down and build siegeworks against the city that is making war against you, until it falls.

21 "If someone is found slain in a field of the land that Jehovah your God is giving you to possess and it is not known who killed him, 2 your elders and judges[g] should go out and measure the distance from the dead body to the cities that surround it. 3 Then the elders of the city nearest to the body should take from the herd a young cow that has never been put to work, that has never pulled in a yoke, 4 and the elders of that city should lead the young cow down to a valley* running with water where no tilling or sowing of seed has been done, and they should break the neck of the young cow there in the valley.[a]

5 "And the priests, the Levites, will approach because Jehovah your God has chosen them to minister to him,[b] to pronounce blessings in the name of Jehovah.[c] They will declare how every dispute involving violence should be resolved.[d] 6 Then all the elders of the city who are nearest to the dead body should wash their hands[e] over the young cow whose neck was broken in the valley, 7 and they should declare, 'Our hands did not shed this blood, nor did our eyes see it shed. 8 Do not hold this against your people Israel, whom you redeemed,[f] O Jehovah, and do not let guilt for innocent blood remain among your people Israel.'[g] Then the bloodguilt will not be held against them. 9 In this way you will remove the guilt of innocent blood from your midst by doing what is right in Jehovah's eyes.

10 "If you go to war against your enemies and Jehovah your God defeats them for you and you take them captive,[h] 11 and you see among the captives a beautiful woman and you are attracted to her and you want to take her as your wife, 12 you may bring her into your house. 15 "If a man has two wives and he loves one more than the other* and both have borne sons to him and the firstborn son belongs to the unloved one,[c] 16 on the day that he gives his inheritance to his sons, he will not be allowed to treat the son of the loved one as his firstborn at the expense of the son of the unloved one, the firstborn. 17 He should recognize as the firstborn the unloved one's son by giving him the double portion of everything he has, for that one is the beginning of his procreative power. The right of the firstborn's position belongs to him.[d]

22 "If you see your brother's bull or his sheep going astray, do not deliberately ignore it.[f] You should without fail lead it back to your brother. 2 But if your brother does not live near you or you do not know him, you should bring the animal to your house, and it will remain with you until your brother searches for it. Then you should return it to him.[g] 3 That is what you should do with his donkey, with his clothing, and with anything that your brother has lost and you have found. You must not ignore it.

4 "If you see your brother's donkey or his bull fall down on the road, you must not deliberately ignore it. You should without fail help him raise the animal up.[h]

5 "A woman must not put on the clothing of a man, nor should a man wear the clothing of a woman. For anyone doing so is detestable to Jehovah your God.

6 "If you happen upon a bird's nest along the road with young ones or eggs, whether in a tree or on the ground, and the mother is sitting on the young ones or the eggs, you must not take the mother together with her young.[i] 7 Be sure to send the mother away, but you may take the young for yourself. Do this so that it may go well with you and you may live long.

8 "If you build a new house, you must also make a parapet for your roof,[a] so that you may not bring bloodguilt on your house because of someone falling from it.

9 "You must not sow your vineyard with two sorts of seed.[b] Otherwise, everything produced from the seed you sow as well as the product of the vineyard will be forfeited to the sanctuary.

10 "You must not plow with a bull and a donkey together.[c]

Now this is the evidence of my daughter's virginity.' They will then spread out the cloth before the elders of the city. 18 The city elders[f] will take the man and discipline him.[g] 19 They will fine him 100 silver shekels* and give them to the girl's father, because the man defamed a virgin of Israel,[h] and she will continue to be his wife. He will not be allowed to divorce her as long as he lives.

20 "If, though, the accusation is true, and there is no evidence that the girl was a virgin, 21 they should bring the girl out to the entrance of her father's house, and the men of her city should stone her to death, because she has committed a disgraceful act[a] in Israel by committing sexual immorality* in the house of her father.[b] So you must remove what is bad from your midst.[c]

22 "If a man is found lying down with a woman who is the wife of another man, both of them must die together, the man who lay down with the woman as well as the woman.[d] So you must remove what is bad out of Israel.

23 "If a virgin is engaged to a man, and another man happens to meet her in the city and lies down with her, 24 you should bring them both out to the gate of that city and stone them to death, the girl because she did not scream in the city and the man because he humiliated the wife of his fellow man.[e] So you must remove what is evil from your midst.

rity still in your possession.[a] 13 You should by all means return to him what he has given as security as soon as the sun sets, and he will go to bed with his garment,[b] and he will bless you; and it will mean righteousness for you before Jehovah your God.

14 "You must not defraud a hired worker who is in need and poor, whether one of your brothers or a foreign resident in your land, within your cities.[c] 15 You should give him his wages that very day,[d] before the sun sets, because he is in need and his life depends on his wages. Otherwise, he will cry out to Jehovah against you, and you will be guilty of sin.[e]

16 "Fathers should not be put to death for what their children do, and children should not be put to death for what their fathers do.[f] A person should be put to death only for his own sin.[g]

17 "You must not pervert the judgment of the foreign resident or of the fatherless child,*[h] and you must not seize the garment of a widow as security for a loan.#[i] 18 Remember that you became a slave in Egypt, and Jehovah your God redeemed you from there.[j] That is why I am commanding you to do this.

19 "When you reap your harvest from your field and you have forgotten a sheaf in the field, do not go back to get it. It should be left for the foreign resident, the fatherless child, and the widow,[k] so that Jehovah your God may bless you in all that you do.[l]

20 "When you beat your olive tree, you should not repeat the procedure on its branches. What is left should remain for the foreign resident, the fatherless child, and the widow.[a]

21 "When you gather the grapes of your vineyard, you must not return to gather the leftovers. They should be left for the foreign resident, the fatherless child, and the widow. 22 Remember that you became a slave in the land of Egypt. That is why I am commanding you to do this.

25 "When a dispute arises between men, they may present themselves before the judges,[b] and they will judge them and pronounce the righteous one innocent and the wicked one guilty.[c] 2 If the wicked one deserves to be beaten,[d] the judge will have him lie down prostrate, and he will be beaten in his presence. The number of strokes should correspond to the wickedness of his deed. 3 He may beat him with up to 40 strokes,[e] but no more. If he would continue beating him with more strokes than this, your brother would be disgraced before your eyes.

4 "You must not muzzle a bull when it is threshing out grain.[f]

5 "If brothers dwell together and one of them dies without having a son, the wife of the dead one should not marry someone from outside the family. Her brother-in-law should go to her, take her as his wife, and perform brother-in-law marriage with her.[g] 6 The firstborn whom she will bear will carry on the name of his dead brother,[h] so that his name may not be wiped out of Israel.[i]

7 "Now if the man does not want to marry his brother's widow, his brother's widow should then go to the elders at the city gate and say, 'My husband's brother has refused to preserve his brother's name in Israel. He as you walk in his ways and observe his regulations,[a] his commandments,[b] and his judicial decisions,[c] and as you listen to his voice. 18 And today Jehovah has obtained your declaration that you will become his people, his special property,*[d] just as he has promised you, and that you will observe all his commandments 19 and that he will put you high above all the other nations that he has made,[e] giving you praise and fame and glory as you prove yourself a people holy to Jehovah your God,[f] just as he has promised."

27 Then Moses together with the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying: "Observe every commandment that I am giving you today. 2 And in the day when you will cross the Jordan into the land that Jehovah your God is giving you, set up large stones and cover them with plaster.[g] 3 Then write on them all the words of this Law when you have crossed over, so that you may enter into the land that Jehovah your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, just as Jehovah, the God of your forefathers, has promised you.[h] 4 When you have crossed the Jordan, you should set up these stones on Mount E'bal[i] and cover them with plaster, just as I am commanding you today. 5 You are also to build an altar there to Jehovah your God, an altar of stones. 9 Then Moses and the Levitical priests spoke to all Israel, saying: "Keep silent and listen, O Israel. This day you have become the people of Jehovah your God.[b] 10 You must listen to the voice of Jehovah your God and carry out his commandments[c] and his regulations, which I am commanding you today."

11 On that day Moses commanded the people, saying: 12 "The following tribes will stand on Mount Ger·i·zim[d] to bless the people when you have crossed the Jordan: Sim′e·on, Le′vi, Judah, Is′sa·char, Joseph, and Benjamin. 13 And the following will stand on Mount E′bal[e] to pronounce the curse: Reu′ben, Gad, Ash′er, Zeb′u·lun, Dan, and Naph′ta·li. 14 And the Levites will answer every man of Israel with a loud voice:[f]

18 "'Cursed is the one who causes a blind person to lose his way on the road.'[l] (And all the people will say, 'Amen!')

Yes, they will certainly besiege you within all your cities throughout your land that Jehovah your God has given you.[f] 53 Then you will have to eat your own children,* the flesh of your sons and your daughters[g] whom Jehovah your God has given you, because of the severity of the siege and the distress your enemy inflicts on you.

54 "Even the most delicate and sensitive man among you will have no pity on his brother or his cherished wife or his sons who remain, 55 and he will not share with them any of the flesh of his sons that he will eat, because he has nothing else on account of the severity of the siege and the distress your enemy inflicts on your cities.[h] 56 And the delicate and sensitive woman among you who would not even think of putting the sole of her foot on the ground because she is so delicate[i] will show no pity to her cherished husband or her son or her daughter, 57 even toward the afterbirth that comes from between her legs and toward the sons she bears, for she will secretly eat them because of the severity of the siege and the distress your enemy inflicts on your cities.

58 "If you will not carefully observe all the words of this Law that are written in this book[a] and you do not fear this glorious and awe-inspiring name,[b] that of Jehovah[c] your God, 59 Jehovah will inflict very severe plagues on you and your offspring, great and enduring plagues,[d] and grievous and enduring sicknesses. 60 He will bring back upon you all the diseases of Egypt that you used to fear, and they will certainly cling to you. 61 Moreover, Jehovah will even bring upon you every sickness or plague not written in the book of this Law until you have been annihilated. 62 Although you have become as numerous as the stars of the heavens,[e] very few of your number will be left,[f] because you did not listen to the voice of Jehovah your God.

63 "And just as Jehovah once delighted to make you prosper and to multiply you, so Jehovah will delight to destroy you and to annihilate you; and you will be torn from the land you are about to possess.

64 "Jehovah will scatter you among all the nations, from the one end of the earth to the other end of the earth,[g] and there you will have to serve gods of wood and of stone, which you and your forefathers have not known.[h] 65 You will have no peace among those nations[i] nor a place of rest for the sole of your foot. Rather, Jehovah will give you there an anxious heart[j] and failing eyes and a feeling of despair.*[k] 66 Your life will be in great peril, and you will feel dread night and day; and you will be uncertain of your survival. 67 In the morning you will say, 'If only it were evening!' and in the evening you will say, 'If only it were morning!' because of the dread you will feel in your heart and because of what your eyes will see. 68 And Jehovah will certainly bring you back to Egypt by ship, by the way that I told you, 'You will never see it again,' and there you will have to sell yourselves to your enemies as male and female slaves, but there will be no buyer."

29 These are the words of the covenant that Jehovah commanded Moses to make with the people of Israel in the land of Mo'ab, in addition to the covenant that he made with them at Ho'reb.[a]

2 Moses then called together all Israel and said to them: "You have seen all that Jehovah did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Phar'aoh and all his servants and all his land,[b] 3 the great judgments* that your eyes saw, those great signs and miracles.[c] 4 But Jehovah has not given you a heart to understand and eyes to see and ears to hear, down to this day.[d] 5 'While I kept guiding you for 40 years in the wilderness,[e] your garments did not wear out on you and your sandals did not wear out on your feet.[f] 6 You did not eat bread, and you did not drink wine or anything alcoholic, so that you would know that I am Jehovah your God.' 7 You eventually came to this place, and Si'hon the king of Hesh'bon[g] and Og the king of Ba'shan[h] came out to meet us in battle, but we defeated them.[i] 8 After that we took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reu'ben·ites, the Gad'ites, and the half tribe of the Ma·nas'sites.[j]

9 Therefore, observe the words of this covenant and obey them, so that everything you do will turn out well.[a]

10 "All of you are stationed today before Jehovah your God, the heads of your tribes, your elders, your officers, every man of Israel, 11 your children, your wives,[b] and your foreign resident[c] who is in the midst of your camp, from the one gathering your wood to the one drawing your water. 12 You are here in order to enter into the covenant of Jehovah your God and his oath, which Jehovah your God is making with you today[d] 13 in order that he may establish you today as his people[e] and that he may be your God,[f] just as he has promised you and just as he swore to your forefathers, Abraham,[g] Isaac,[h] and Jacob.[i]

14 "Now it is not with you alone that I am making this covenant and this oath, 15 but it is with those standing here with us today before Jehovah our God and with those who are not here with us today. 16 (For you well know how we lived in the land of Egypt and how we passed through the midst of various nations on our journey.[j] 17 And you used to see their detestable things and their disgusting idols*[k] of wood and stone, silver and gold, that were among them.) 18 Beware that there may not be a man or a woman, a family or a tribe among you today whose heart turns away from Jehovah our God to go serve the gods of those nations,[l] that there may not be a root among you producing poisonous fruit and wormwood.[m]

19 "But if someone hears the words of this oath and boasts in his heart, saying, 'I will have peace, though I insist on walking in the ways of my own heart,' to the ruin of everything* in his path, 20 Jehovah will not be willing to forgive him.[a] Instead, Jehovah's great anger will blaze against that man, and the entire curse written in this book will certainly come upon him,[b] and Jehovah will indeed wipe out his name from under the heavens. 21 Jehovah will then single him out from all the tribes of Israel for calamity in accord with the entire curse of the covenant that is written in this book of the Law.

22 "When the future generation of your sons and the foreigner from a distant land see the plagues of the land, the maladies that Jehovah has brought upon it— 23 sulfur and salt and burning, so that its whole land will not be sown or sprout, nor will any vegetation spring up in it, like the overthrow of Sod'om and Go·mor'rah,[c] Ad'mah and Ze·boi'im,[d] which Jehovah overthrew in his anger and in his wrath— 24 they and all the nations will say, 'Why did Jehovah do this to this land?[e] What caused this great, burning anger?' 25 Then they will say, 'It was because they abandoned the covenant of Jehovah,[f] the God of their forefathers, which he made with them when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.[g] 26 But they went and served other gods and bowed down to them, gods that they had not known and that he had not permitted them to worship.*[h] 27 Then Jehovah's burning anger came against that land by bringing upon it the entire curse written in this book.[i] 28 Therefore, Jehovah uprooted them from their soil in his anger[j] and fury and great indignation and deported them to another land, where they are today.'[a]

29 "The things concealed belong to Jehovah our God,[b] but the things revealed belong to us and to our descendants forever, so that we may carry out all the words of this Law.[c]

30 "When all these words come upon you, the blessing and the curse that I have put before you,[d] and you call them to mind*[e] in all the nations where Jehovah your God has dispersed you,[f] 2 and you return to Jehovah your God[g] and listen to his voice according to all that I am commanding you today, you and your sons, with all your heart and all your soul,[h] 3 Jehovah your God will then bring back your captives[i] and show you mercy[j] and regather you from all the peoples where Jehovah your God has scattered you.[k] 4 Even if your people are dispersed to the extremity of the heavens, from there Jehovah your God will gather you and bring you back.[l] 5 Jehovah your God will bring you into the land your fathers took possession of, and you will possess it; and he will make you prosper and will multiply you more than your fathers.[m] 6 Jehovah your God will cleanse# your heart and the heart of your offspring,[n] so that you will love Jehovah your God with all your heart and all your soul and you may live.[o] 7 Then Jehovah your God will bring all these curses upon your enemies, who hated and persecuted you.[p]

11 "Now this commandment that I am commanding you today is not too difficult for you, nor is it beyond your reach.*[d] 12 It is not in the heavens, so that you have to say, 'Who will ascend to the heavens and get it for us, so that we may hear it and observe it?'[e] 13 Nor is it on the other side of the sea, so that you have to say, 'Who will cross over to the other side of the sea and get it for us, so that we may hear it and observe it?' 14 For the word is very near you, in your own mouth and in your own heart,[f] so that you may do it.[g]

17 "But if your heart turns away[l] and you do not listen and you are enticed and bow down to other gods and serve them,[m] 18 I tell you today that you will certainly perish.[n] You will not live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess. 19 I take the heavens and the earth as witnesses against you today that I have put life and death before you, the blessing and the curse;[a] and you must choose life so that you may live,[b] you and your descendants,[c] 20 by loving Jehovah your God,[d] by listening to his voice, and by sticking to him,[e] for he is your life and by him you will endure a long time in the land that Jehovah swore to give to your forefathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob."[f]

31 Then Moses went out and spoke these words to all Israel, 2 saying to them: "I am 120 years old today.[g] I can no longer lead you,* for Jehovah has said to me, 'You will not cross this Jordan.'[h] 3 Jehovah your God is the one crossing before you, and he himself will annihilate these nations before you, and you will drive them away.[i] Joshua is the one who will lead you across,[j] just as Jehovah has spoken. 4 Jehovah will do to them just as he did to Si'hon[k] and to Og,[l] the kings of the Am'or·ites, and to their land when he annihilated them.[m] 5 Jehovah will defeat them for you, and you are to do to them according to the whole commandment that I have given you.[n] 6 Be courageous and strong.[o] Do not be afraid or struck with terror before them,[p] for Jehovah your God is the one marching with you. He will neither desert you nor abandon you."[q]

7 Moses then called Joshua and said to him before the eyes of all Israel: "Be courageous and strong,[r] for you are the one who will bring this people into the land that Jehovah swore to their forefathers to give to them, and you will give it to them as an inheritance.[a] 8 Jehovah is the one marching before you, and he will continue with you.[b] He will neither desert you nor abandon you. Do not be afraid or be terrified."[c]

9 Then Moses wrote this Law[d] and gave it to the priests, the Levites, who carry the ark of Jehovah's covenant, and to all the elders of Israel. 10 Moses commanded them, saying: "At the end of every seven years, at the appointed time in the year of the release,[e] during the Festival of Booths,[f] 11 when all Israel appears before the presence of Jehovah[g] your God in the place that he chooses, you should read this Law for all Israel to hear it.[h] 12 Gather the people together,[i] the men, the women, the children, and your foreign resident who is within your cities,# in order that they may listen and learn about and fear Jehovah your God and take care to carry out all the words of this Law. 13 Then their sons who have not known this Law will listen[j] and learn to fear Jehovah your God all the days that you live in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess."[k]

14 Jehovah then said to Moses: "Look! The time has drawn near for you to die.[l] Call Joshua, and present yourselves* at the tent of meeting, so that I may commission him."[m] So Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves at the tent of meeting. 15 Then Jehovah appeared at the tent in the pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood by the entrance of the tent.[n]

16 Jehovah now said to Moses: "Look! You are about to die,* and this people will begin to commit spiritual prostitution with the foreign gods that are around them in the land to which they are going.[a] They will forsake me[b] and break my covenant that I have made with them.[c] 17 At that time my anger will blaze against them,[d] and I will forsake them[e] and hide my face from them[f] until they are devoured. Then after many calamities and distresses have come upon them,[g] they will say, 'Is it not because our God is not in our midst that these calamities have come upon us?'[h] 18 But I will keep my face hidden in that day because of all the wickedness that they have done in turning to other gods.[i]

19 "Now write down this song for yourselves[j] and teach it to the Israelites.[k] Have them learn it* in order that this song may serve as my witness against the people of Israel.[l] 20 When I bring them to the land that I have sworn about to their forefathers[m]—one flowing with milk and honey[n]—and they eat their fill and prosper,*[o] they will turn to other gods and serve them and treat me with disrespect and break my covenant.[p] 21 When many calamities and distresses come upon them,[q] this song will serve as a witness to them (for their descendants should not forget it), for I already know the inclination that they have developed[r] even before I bring them into the land about which I have sworn."

22 So Moses wrote down this song in that day and taught it to the Israelites.

23 He* then commissioned Joshua[s] the son of Nun and said:

24 As soon as Moses had completed writing the words of this Law in a book in their entirety,[c] 25 Moses commanded the Levites who carry the ark of Jehovah's covenant, saying: 26 "Take this book of the Law[d] and place it at the side of the ark[e] of the covenant of Jehovah your God, and it will serve as a witness there against you. 27 For I myself well know your rebelliousness[f] and your stubbornness.*[g] If you have been so rebellious against Jehovah while I am still alive with you, then how much more so will you be after my death! 28 Gather together to me all the elders of your tribes and your officers, and let me speak these words in their hearing, and let me take the heavens and the earth as witnesses against them.[h] 29 For I well know that after my death you will surely act wickedly[i] and turn aside from the way about which I have commanded you. And calamity will certainly befall you[j] at the close of the days, because you will do what is bad in the eyes of Jehovah and you will offend him by the works of your hands."

30 Then in the hearing of the entire congregation of Israel, Moses recited the words of this song from beginning to end:[k]

32 "Give ear, O heavens, and I will speak,
And let the earth hear the

New ones that came along recently,
To gods that your forefathers did not know.
18 You forgot the Rock[a] who fathered you,
And you did not remember the God who gave birth to you.[b]
19 When Jehovah saw it, he rejected them[c]
Because his sons and his daughters offended him.
20 So he said, 'I will hide my face from them;[d]
I will see what will become of them.
For they are a perverse generation,[e]
Sons in whom there is no faithfulness.[f]
21 They have incited me to fury* with what is not a god;[g]
They have offended me with their worthless idols.[h]
So I will incite them to jealousy with what is not a people;[i]
I will offend them with a foolish nation.[j]
22 For my anger has kindled a fire[k]
That will burn to the depths of the Grave,*[l]
And it will consume the earth and its produce
And will set ablaze the foundations of mountains.
23 I will increase their calamities;
I will use up my arrows on them.
24 They will be exhausted from hunger[m]
And eaten up by burning fever and bitter destruction.[n]
I will send the teeth of beasts against them[o]

32:21 *Or "jealousy." 32:22 *Or "Sheol," that is, the common grave of mankind. See Glossary.

And the venom of reptiles of the dust.
25 Outside, a sword will bereave them;[a]
Inside, there is terror[b]
For both young man and virgin,
Infant together with gray-haired man.[c]
26 I would have said: "I will scatter them;
I will make the memory of them cease from among men,"
27 If not for my dread of the enemy's reaction,[d]
Because the adversaries might misconstrue it.[e]
They might say: "Our power has triumphed;[f]
It was not Jehovah who did all of this."
28 For they are a nation devoid of sense,*
And there is no understanding among them.[g]
29 If only they were wise![h] They would ponder over this.[i]
They would think about their outcome.[j]
30 How could one chase after 1,000,
And two put 10,000 to flight?[k]
Not unless their Rock had sold them[l]
And Jehovah had surrendered them.
31 For their rock is not like our Rock,[m]
Even our enemies have understood this.[n]
32 For their vine is from the vine of Sod'om
And from the terraces of Go·mor'rah.[o]
Their grapes are grapes of poison,
Their clusters are bitter.[p]
33 Their wine is the venom of serpents,
The cruel poison of cobras.
34 Is this not stored up with me,
Sealed up in my storehouse?[a]
35 Vengeance is mine, and retribution,[b]
At the appointed time when their foot slips,[c]
For the day of their disaster is near,
And what awaits them will come quickly.'
36 For Jehovah will judge his people,[d]
And he will feel pity for* his servants[e]
When he sees that their strength has waned,
And that only the helpless and weak remain.
37 Then he will say, 'Where are their gods,[f]
The rock in whom they sought refuge,
38 Who used to eat the fat of their sacrifices,*
To drink the wine of their drink offerings?[g]
Let them rise up and help you.
Let them become your place of refuge.
39 See now that I—I am he,[h]
And there are no gods apart from me.[i]
I put to death, and I make alive.[j]
I wound,[k] and I will heal,[l]
And no one can rescue from my hand.[m]
40 For I raise my hand to heaven,
And I swear: "As surely as I live forever,"[n]
41 If I sharpen my flashing sword
And prepare my hand for judgment,[o]
I will pay back vengeance on my adversaries[p]

32:28 *Or possibly, "deaf to advice."

32:36 *Or "feel regret over." 32:38 *Or "eat their finest sacrifices."

44 Thus Moses came and recited all the words of this song in the hearing of the people,[d] he and Ho·she'a*[e] the son of Nun. 45 After Moses finished speaking all these words to all Israel, 46 he said to them: "Take to heart all the words of my warning to you today,[f] so that you may command your sons to take care to do all the words of this Law.[g] 47 For this is no empty word for you, but it means your life,[h] and by this word you may live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess."

48 Jehovah spoke to Moses on this same day, saying: 49 "Go up into this mountain of Ab'a·rim,[i] Mount Ne'bo,[j] which is in the land of Mo'ab, which faces toward Jer'i·cho, and view the land of Ca'naan, which I am giving to the Israelites as a possession.[k] 50 Then you will die on the mountain you are about to ascend, and be gathered to your people,* just as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor[l] and was gathered to his people, 51 because both of you were unfaithful to me among the Israelites at the waters of Mer'i·bah[a] of Ka'desh in the wilderness of Zin, because you did not sanctify me before the people of Israel.[b] 52 You will see the land from a distance, but you will not enter the land that I am giving to the people of Israel."[c]

33 Now this is the blessing that Moses the man of the true God pronounced on the Israelites before his death.[d] 2 He said:

"Jehovah—from Si'nai he came,[e]
And he shone upon them from Se'ir.
He shone forth in glory from the mountainous region of Pa'ran,[f]
And with him were holy myriads,*[g]
At his right hand his warriors.[h]
3 He had affection for his people;[i]
All their holy ones are in your hand.[j]
They were sitting at your feet;[k]
They began to listen to your words.[l]
4 (Moses gave us a command, a law,[m]
As a possession of the congregation of Jacob.)[n]
5 And He became king in Jesh'u·run,*[o]
When the heads of the people gathered together,[p]
Along with all the tribes of Israel.[q]
6 Let Reu'ben live and not die off,[r]
And may his men not become few."[s]

33:2 *Or "were tens of thousands of holy ones." 33:5 *Meaning "Upright One," an honorary title for Israel.

7 And he pronounced this blessing on Judah:[a]
"Hear, O Jehovah, the voice of Judah,[b]
And may you bring him back to his people.
His arms have defended* what belongs to him,
And may you help him against his adversaries."[c]
8 Of Le'vi he said:[d]

Whom you put to the test at Mas'sah.[g]
You began to contend with him by the waters of Mer'i·bah,[h]

11 Bless, O Jehovah, his strength,
And may you show pleasure in the work of his hands.
Crush the legs* of those who rise up against him,
So that those who hate him may rise up no more."
12 Of Benjamin he said:[o]
"Let the beloved one of Jehovah reside in security by him;
While he shelters him the whole day,
He will reside between his shoulders."
13 Of Joseph he said:[a]
"May his land be blessed by Jehovah[b]
With the choice things of heaven,
With dew and the waters from the springs below,[c]
14 With choice things produced by the sun
And the choice yield each month,[d]
15 With the choicest things from the ancient mountains*[e]
And choice things of the enduring hills,
16 With the choice things of the earth and what fills it,[f]
And with the approval of the One residing in the thornbush.[g]

On the crown of the head of the one singled out from his brothers.[h]

And his horns are the horns of a wild bull.

All together to the ends of the earth.

And they are the thousands of Ma·nas'seh."
18 Of Zeb'u·lun he said:[j]

And you, Is'sa·char, in your tents.[k]
19 They will call peoples to the mountain.

1 After the death of Moses the servant of Jehovah, Jehovah said to Joshua*[a] the son of Nun, the minister[b] of Moses: 2 "Moses my servant is dead.[c] Now get up, cross the Jordan, you and all this people, and go into the land that I am giving to them, to the people of Israel.[d] 3 I will give you every place on which you set your foot, just as I promised Moses.[e] 4 Your territory will extend from the wilderness up to Leb'a·non and to the great river, the Eu·phra'tes —all the land of the Hit'tites[f]— and to the Great Sea* on the west.#[g] 5 No one will be able to take a stand against you as long as you live.[h] Just as I was with Moses, so I will be with you.[i] I will neither desert you nor abandon you.[j] 6 Be courageous and strong,[a] for you are the one who will cause this people to inherit the land that I swore to their forefathers I would give to them.[b]

7 "Only be courageous and very strong, and observe carefully the entire Law that Moses my servant commanded you. Do not deviate from it either to the right or to the left,[c] so that you may act wisely wherever you go.[d] 8 This book of the Law should not depart from your mouth,[e] and you must read it in an undertone* day and night, in order to observe carefully all that is written in it;[f] for then your way will be successful and then you will act wisely.[g] 9 Have I not commanded you? Be courageous and strong. Do not be struck with terror or fear, for Jehovah your God is with you wherever you go."[h]

10 Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people: 11 "Pass throughout the camp and give this command to the people, 'Get provisions ready, because in three days you will cross the Jordan to go in and take possession of the land that Jehovah your God is giving you to possess.'"[a]

12 And to the Reu'ben·ites, the Gad'ites, and the half tribe of Ma·nas'seh, Joshua said: 13 "Remember what Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded you:[b] 'Jehovah your God is giving you rest and has given you this land. 14 Your wives, your children, and your livestock will dwell in the land that Moses has given you on this side* of the Jordan,[c] but all you mighty warriors[d] should cross over in battle formation ahead of your brothers.[e] You must help them 15 until Jehovah gives your brothers rest, just as he has given you, and they also take possession of the land that Jehovah your God is giving them. Then return to the land you were given to occupy and take possession of it, the land that Moses the servant of Jehovah gave you on the east side of the Jordan.'"[f]

16 They answered Joshua: "We will do all that you have commanded, and we will go wherever you send us.[g] 17 Just as we listened to everything Moses said, so we will listen to you. Only may Jehovah your God be with you just as he was with Moses.[h] 18 Any man who rebels against your order and does not obey every command you give him will be put to death.[i] Only be courageous and strong."[j]

2 Then Joshua the son of Nun secretly sent two men out from Shit'tim[k] as spies. He told them: "Go and inspect the land, especially Jer'i·cho." So they went and came to the house of a prostitute named Ra'hab,[a] and they stayed there. 2 The king of Jer'i·cho was told: "Look! Israelite men have come in here tonight to spy out the land." 3 At that the king of Jer'i·cho sent word to Ra'hab: "Bring out the men who came and are staying in your house, for they have come to spy out the entire land."

4 But the woman took the two men and hid them. Then she said: "Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they were from. 5 And at dark when the city gate was about to be closed, the men went out. I do not know where the men went, but if you quickly chase after them, you will catch up with them." 6 (However, she had taken them up to the roof and hidden them among stalks of flax laid in rows on the roof.) 7 So the men chased after them in the direction of the Jordan at the fords,[b] and the city gate was shut once the pursuers had gone out.

8 Before the men lay down to sleep, she came up to them on the roof. 9 She said to the men: "I do know that Jehovah will give you the land[c] and that the fear of you has fallen upon us.[d] All the inhabitants of the land are disheartened because of you,[e] 10 for we heard how Jehovah dried up the waters of the Red Sea before you when you left Egypt[f] and what you did to the two kings of the Am'or·ites, Si'hon[g] and Og,[h] whom you devoted to destruction on the other side* of the Jordan. 11 When we heard about it, we lost heart,* and no one has any courage# because of you, for Jehovah your God is God in the heavens above and on the earth beneath.[a] 12 Now, please, swear to me by Jehovah that, because I showed loyal love to you, you will also show loyal love to my father's household; and you must give me a sign of good faith.* 13 You must spare the lives of my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all who belong to them, and you must save us* from death."[b]

14 At that the men said to her: "We will give our lives for yours!* If you do not tell about our mission, then we will show loyal love and faithfulness toward you when Jehovah gives us the land." 15 After that she let them down by a rope through the window, for her house was on a side of the city wall. In fact, she was dwelling on the wall.[c] 16 Then she said to them: "Go to the mountainous region and hide there for three days, so that those pursuing you may not find you. Then, after your pursuers have come back, you can go on your way."

17 The men said to her: "We will be free from guilt respecting this oath that you made us swear[d] 18 unless, when we come into the land, you tie this cord of scarlet thread in the window by which you let us down. You should gather your father, your mother, your brothers, and all your father's household with you into the house.[e] 19 Then if anyone goes out the doors of your house into the open, his blood will be on his own head, and we will be free from guilt. But if harm comes to* anyone who remains with you in the house, his blood will be on our heads. 20 But if you report our mission,[f] we will be free from guilt respecting your oath that you made us swear." 21 She replied: "Let it be according to your words."

With that she sent them off, and they went their way. Afterward, she tied the scarlet cord in the window. 22 So they left and went to the mountainous region and stayed there for three days, until the pursuers returned. The pursuers had been looking for them on every road but did not find them. 23 The two men then descended from the mountainous region and crossed the river and came to Joshua the son of Nun. They related to him all the things that had happened to them. 24 Then they said to Joshua: "Jehovah has handed over the entire land to us.[a] In fact, all the inhabitants of the land are disheartened because of us."[b]

3 Then Joshua got up early in the morning, and he and all the Israelites* departed from Shit'tim[c] and came to the Jordan. They spent the night there before crossing over.

2 After three days, the officers[d] passed throughout the camp 3 and commanded the people: "As soon as you see the ark of the covenant of Jehovah your God being carried by the Levitical priests,[e] you should depart from your place and follow it. 4 But keep a distance of about 2,000 cubits* from it; do not come any nearer to it, so that you may know which is the way to go, for you have not traveled on this way before."

5 Joshua now said to the people: "Sanctify yourselves,[f] for tomorrow Jehovah will do wonderful things among you."[g]

6 Then Joshua said to the priests: "Take up the ark[h] of the covenant and pass ahead of the people." So they took up the ark of the covenant and went ahead of the people.

7 Then Jehovah said to Joshua: "This day I will start to exalt you in the eyes of all Israel,[a] so that they may know that I will be with you[b] just as I was with Moses.[c] 8 You should give this command to the priests carrying the ark of the covenant: 'When you reach the edge of the waters of the Jordan, you should stand still in the Jordan.'"[d]

9 And Joshua said to the Israelites: "Come here and listen to the words of Jehovah your God." 10 Joshua then said: "By this you will know that a living God is among you,[e] and that he will without fail drive away from before you the Ca′naan·ites, the Hit′tites, the Hi′vites, the Per′iz·zites, the Gir′ga·shites, the Am′or·ites, and the Jeb′u·sites.[f] 11 Look! The ark of the covenant of the Lord of the whole earth is passing ahead of you into the Jordan. 12 Now take 12 men from the tribes of Israel, one man for each tribe,[g] 13 and as soon as the soles of the feet of the priests carrying the Ark of Jehovah, the Lord of the whole earth, touch* the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan flowing from upstream will be halted and they will stand still like a dam."#[h]

14 So when the people departed from their tents just before crossing the Jordan, the priests carrying the ark[i] of the covenant went ahead of the people. 15 As soon as the carriers of the Ark reached the Jordan and the priests carrying the Ark dipped their feet into the edge of the waters (now the Jordan overflows its banks[j] all the days of harvest), 16 the waters flowing from upstream stood still. They rose up like a dam# very far away at Adam, the city near Zar′e·than, while the waters descending toward the Sea of the Ar′a·bah, the Salt Sea,* drained away. They were halted, and the people crossed over opposite Jer′i·cho. 17 While the priests carrying the ark of Jehovah's covenant kept standing still on dry ground[a] in the middle of the Jordan, all Israel crossed over on dry ground[b] until the whole nation had finished crossing the Jordan.

4 As soon as the whole nation had finished crossing the Jordan, Jehovah said to Joshua: 2 "Take 12 men from the people, one man from each tribe,[c] 3 and give them this command: 'Take up 12 stones from the middle of the Jordan, from the place where the priests' feet stood still,[d] and carry them over with you and set them down in the place where you will spend the night.'"[e]

4 So Joshua called the 12 men whom he had appointed from the Israelites, one man from each tribe, 5 and Joshua said to them: "Pass ahead of the Ark of Jehovah your God to the middle of the Jordan, and each of you should lift up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the Israelites, 6 to serve as a sign among you. If your children* should later ask you, 'Why do you have these stones?'[f] 7 you must tell them: 'Because the waters of the Jordan were halted from before the ark[g] of Jehovah's covenant. When it crossed the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were halted. These stones will serve as a lasting memorial* to the people of Israel.'"[h]

8 So the Israelites did just as Joshua had commanded. They took up 12 stones from the middle of the Jordan, just as Jehovah had instructed Joshua, to correspond to the number of the tribes of the Israelites. They took them over to the place where they would spend the night and set them down there.

9 Joshua also set up 12 stones in the middle of the Jordan at the place where the feet of the priests who carried the ark of the covenant stood,[a] and the stones are there to this day.

10 The priests carrying the Ark remained standing in the middle of the Jordan until everything that Jehovah had ordered Joshua to tell the people to do was completed, in harmony with all that Moses had commanded Joshua. All the while, the people hurried across. 11 As soon as all the people had finished crossing over, the Ark of Jehovah and the priests crossed over in the sight of the people.[b] 12 And the Reu′ben·ites, the Gad′ites, and the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh crossed over in battle formation[c] ahead of the other Israelites, just as Moses had instructed them.[d] 13 About 40,000 soldiers armed for battle crossed over before Jehovah onto the desert plains of Jer′i·cho.

14 On that day Jehovah exalted Joshua in the eyes of all Israel,[e] and they deeply respected* him all the days of his life, just as they had deeply respected Moses.[f]

15 Then Jehovah said to Joshua: 16 "Command the priests carrying the ark[g] of the Testimony to come up out of the Jordan." 17 So Joshua commanded the priests: "Come up out of the Jordan." 18 When the priests carrying the ark[h] of the covenant of Jehovah came up from the middle of the Jordan and the soles of the feet of the priests stepped onto dry ground, the waters of the Jordan resumed their course and overflowed the banks[a] as before.

19 The people came up from the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month and camped at Gil′gal[b] on the eastern border of Jer′i·cho.

20 As for the 12 stones that they had taken out of the Jordan, Joshua set these up at Gil′gal.[c] 21 Then he said to the Israelites: "In the future when your children ask their fathers, 'What do these stones mean?'[d] 22 you must explain to your children: 'Israel crossed the Jordan on dry land[e] 23 when Jehovah your God dried up the waters of the Jordan before them until they had crossed it, just as Jehovah your God did to the Red Sea when he dried it up before us until we crossed it.[f] 24 He did this so that all the peoples of the earth may know how mighty Jehovah's hand is[g] and so that you may always fear Jehovah your God.'"

5 As soon as all the kings of the Am′or·ites[h] who were on the west side* of the Jordan and all the kings of the Ca′naan·ites[i] who were by the sea heard that Jehovah had dried up the waters of the Jordan before the Israelites until they had crossed over, they lost heart,[#j] and they lost all courage[△] because of the Israelites.[k]

2 At that time Jehovah said to Joshua: "Make for yourself flint knives and circumcise[l] the men of Israel again, a second time." 3 So Joshua made flint knives and circumcised the men of Israel at Gib′e·ath-ha·ar′a·loth.[a] 4 This is why Joshua circumcised them: All the males of the people who left Egypt, all the men of war, had died in the wilderness on the journey after they left Egypt.[b] 5 All the people who left Egypt were circumcised, but all the people born in the wilderness on the journey after they left Egypt were not circumcised. 6 The Israelites had walked for 40 years[c] in the wilderness until the entire nation had died off, that is, the men of war who left Egypt who did not obey the voice of Jehovah.[d] Jehovah swore to them that he would never let them see the land[e] that Jehovah had sworn to their forefathers to give to us,[f] a land flowing with milk and honey.[g] 7 So he raised up their sons instead of them.[h] These Joshua circumcised; they were uncircumcised because they had not circumcised them during the journey.

8 When they finished circumcising the entire nation, they remained where they were in the camp until they recovered.

9 Then Jehovah said to Joshua: "Today I have rolled away from you the reproach of Egypt." So that place has been called Gil′gal*[i] until this day.

10 The Israelites continued to camp at Gil′gal, and they observed the Passover on the 14th day of the month,[j] in the evening, on the desert plains of Jer′i·cho. 11 And they began to eat the produce of the land the day after the Passover, unleavened bread[k] and roasted grains, on this same day. 12 Then the manna stopped on the day following when they had eaten some of the produce of the land; there was no longer manna for the Israelites,[a] but they began to eat the produce of the land of Ca′naan in that year.[b]

13 When Joshua was near Jer′i·cho, he looked up and saw a man[c] standing in front of him with a drawn sword in his hand.[d] Joshua walked up to him and asked: "Are you on our side or on the side of our adversaries?" 14 To this he said: "No, but I have come as prince* of Jehovah's army."[e] With that Joshua fell with his face to the ground and prostrated himself and said to him: "What does my lord have to say to his servant?" 15 The prince of Jehovah's army replied to Joshua: "Remove your sandals from your feet, because the place where you are standing is holy." At once Joshua did so.[f]

6 Now Jer′i·cho was tightly shut up because of the Israelites; no one was leaving and no one was entering.[g]

2 Jehovah then said to Joshua: "See, I have handed over to you Jer′i·cho and its king and its mighty warriors.[h] 3 All you fighting men should march around the city, going around the city once. That is what you should do for six days. 4 Have seven priests carry seven ram's horns before the Ark. But on the seventh day, you should march around the city seven times and the priests should blow the horns.[i] 5 When the ram's horn is sounded—as soon as you hear the sound* of the horn—all the people should shout a great war cry. Then the wall of the city will fall down flat,[j] and the people must go up, each one straight ahead."

6 So Joshua the son of Nun called the priests together and told them: "Take up the ark of the covenant, and seven priests should carry seven ram's horns before the Ark of Jehovah."[a] 7 Then he told the people: "Move on and march around the city, and the armed troops[b] should go ahead of the Ark of Jehovah." 8 And just as Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests carrying seven ram's horns before Jehovah went forward and blew the horns, and the ark of the covenant of Jehovah was following them. 9 And the armed troops went ahead of the priests who were blowing the horns, and the rear guard followed the Ark as the horns were blown continuously.

10 Now Joshua had commanded the people: "Do not shout nor let your voices be heard. Not a word should come out of your mouths until the day I say to you, 'Shout!' Then shout." 11 He had the Ark of Jehovah go around the city, going around it once, after which they returned to the camp and spent the night there.

12 The next morning Joshua got up early, and the priests took up the Ark[c] of Jehovah, 13 and seven priests carrying seven ram's horns walked before the Ark of Jehovah, continuously blowing the horns. The armed troops were walking ahead of them while the rear guard was following the Ark of Jehovah as the horns were blown continuously. 14 They marched around the city on the second day once, after which they returned to the camp. That was what they did for six days.[d]

15 On the seventh day they got up early, as soon as the dawn broke, and they marched around the city in the same manner seven times. It was only on that day that they marched around the city seven times.[e] 16 And on the seventh time, the priests blew the horns, and Joshua told the people: "Shout,[a] for Jehovah has given you the city! 17 The city and everything in it is to be devoted to destruction;[b] it all belongs to Jehovah. Only Ra·hab[c] the prostitute may keep living, she and all who are with her in the house, because she hid the messengers we sent out.[d] 18 But keep away from what is devoted to destruction,[e] so that you do not desire something devoted to destruction and take it,[f] making the camp of Israel something devoted to destruction by bringing disaster* on it.[g] 19 But all the silver and the gold and the articles of copper and iron are holy to Jehovah.[h] They should go into the treasury of Jehovah."[i]

20 Then the people shouted when the horns were blown.[j] As soon as the people heard the sound of the horn and shouted a great war cry, the wall fell down flat.[k] After that the people went up into the city, each one straight ahead, and they captured the city. 21 They devoted all that was in the city to destruction by the sword, man and woman, young and old, bull, sheep, and donkey.[l]

22 Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land: "Go into the house of the prostitute and bring out the woman and all who belong to her, just as you swore to her."[m] 23 So the young spies went in and brought out Ra'hab, along with her father, her mother, her brothers, and all who belonged to her; yes, they brought out her whole family,[n] and they brought them safely to a place outside the camp of Israel.

24 Then they burned the city and everything in it with fire. But the silver, the gold, and the articles of copper and iron,

6:18 *Or "trouble; ostracism."

they gave to the treasury of Jehovah's house.[a] 25 Only Ra'hab the prostitute and her father's household and all who belonged to her were spared by Joshua;[b] and she lives in Israel to this day,[c] because she hid the messengers whom Joshua sent out to spy on Jer'i·cho.[d]

26 At that time Joshua pronounced this oath:* "Cursed be the man before Jehovah who undertakes to rebuild this city of Jer'i·cho. At the cost of his firstborn he will lay its foundation, and at the cost of his youngest he will put up its doors."[e]

27 So Jehovah was with Joshua,[f] and his fame spread through all the earth.[g]

7 But the Israelites were unfaithful with regard to what had been devoted to destruction, for A'chan[h] son of Car'mi, son of Zab'di, son of Ze'rah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of what was devoted to destruction.[i] At this Jehovah's anger blazed against the Israelites.[j]

2 Then Joshua sent men out from Jer'i·cho to A'i,[k] which is close by Beth-a'ven and east of Beth'el,[l] telling them: "Go up and spy on the land." So the men went up and spied on A'i. 3 When they returned to Joshua, they told him: "Not all the people need to go up. About two or three thousand men are enough to defeat A'i. Do not tire out all the people by making them go, for there are only a few of them."

4 So about 3,000 men went up there, but they had to flee from the men of A'i.[m] 5 The men of A'i struck down 36 men, and they pursued them from outside the city gate as far as Sheb'a·rim,* and they continued striking them down on the descent. So the courage* of the people melted and flowed away like water.

6 At this Joshua ripped his garments and fell with his face to the ground before the Ark of Jehovah until the evening, he and the elders of Israel, and they kept throwing dust on their heads. 7 Joshua said: "Alas, Sovereign Lord Jehovah, why did you bring this people all the way across the Jordan just to hand us over to the Am'or·ites to be destroyed? If only we had been satisfied to remain on the other side* of the Jordan! 8 Pardon me, O Jehovah, what can I say now that Israel has retreated* before his enemies? 9 When the Ca'naan·ites and all the inhabitants of the land hear about it, they will surround us and wipe out our very name from the earth, and what will you do about your great name?"[a]

10 Jehovah replied to Joshua: "Get up! Why are you lying on your face? 11 Israel has sinned. They have violated my covenant[b] that I commanded them to keep. They took some of what was devoted to destruction,[c] stealing[d] it and secretly putting it among their own possessions.[e] 12 Therefore, the Israelites will not be able to stand against their enemies. They will turn their backs and flee from their enemies, because they have become something devoted to destruction. I will not be with you again unless you annihilate from your midst what was devoted to destruction.[f] 13 Get up and sanctify the people![g] Tell them, 'Sanctify yourselves tomorrow, for this is what Jehovah the God of Israel says: "What is devoted to destruction is among you, O Israel. able to stand against your enemies until you remove from your midst the thing devoted to destruction. 14 You are to present yourselves in the morning, tribe by tribe, and the tribe that Jehovah selects[a] will come near, family by family, and the family that Jehovah selects will come near, household by household, and the household that Jehovah selects will come near, man by man. 15 And the one who is caught with the thing devoted to destruction will be burned with fire,[b] he and all that belongs to him, because he has violated the covenant[c] of Jehovah and because he has committed a disgraceful act in Israel.'"

16 So Joshua rose early the next morning and had Israel come near, tribe by tribe, and the tribe of Judah was selected. 17 He had the families of Judah come near and the family of the Ze'rah·ites[d] was selected, after which he had the family of the Ze'rah·ites come near, man by man, and Zab'di was selected. 18 Finally he had the household of Zab'di come near, man by man, and A'chan son of Car'mi, son of Zab'di, son of Ze'rah, of the tribe of Judah, was selected.[e] 19 Then Joshua said to A'chan: "My son, please, honor Jehovah the God of Israel and make confession to him. Tell me, please, what you have done. Do not hide it from me."

20 A'chan answered Joshua: "For a fact I am the one who sinned against Jehovah the God of Israel, and this is what I have done. 21 When I saw among the spoil a good-looking official garment from Shi'nar[f] and 200 shekels* of silver and one gold bar weighing 50 shekels, I desired them, so I took them. They are now hidden in the ground inside my tent, with the money underneath."

22 At once Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent, and there the garment was hidden in his tent, with the money underneath it. 23 So they took the things out of the tent and brought them to Joshua and all the Israelites and placed them before Jehovah. 24 Joshua and all Israel with him then took A'chan[a] the son of Ze'rah, the silver, the official garment, and the bar of gold,[b] along with his sons, his daughters, his bull, his donkey, his flock, his tent, and everything that was his, and they brought them up to the Valley* of A'chor.[c] 25 Joshua said: "Why have you brought disaster* upon us?[d] Jehovah will bring disaster upon you on this day." With that all Israel stoned him,[e] after which they burned them with fire.[f] Thus they stoned all of them. 26 And they raised a huge pile of stones over him that remains to this day. At this Jehovah's hot anger subsided.[g] That is why the name of that place is Valley of A'chor* to this day.

8 Then Jehovah said to Joshua: "Do not be afraid or be terrified.[h] Take with you all the fighting men and go up against A'i. See, I have handed over to you the king of A'i, his people, his city, and his land.[i] 2 Do to A'i and to its king just as you did to Jer'i·cho and its king,[j] except you may plunder its spoil and its livestock for yourselves. Set an ambush behind the city."

3 So Joshua and all the fighting men went up against A'i. Joshua chose 30,000 mighty warriors and sent them off by night. 4 He gave them this command: "See, you are to lie in ambush behind the city. Do not go very far from the city, and all of you be ready. 5 I and all the people with me will approach the city, and when they come out against us as before,[a] we will retreat from them. 6 When they come out after us, we will draw them away from the city, for they will say, 'They are retreating from us just as before.'[b] And we will retreat from them. 7 Then you should rise up from the ambush and capture the city; Jehovah your God will hand it over to you. 8 As soon as you have seized the city, you should set it on fire.[c] You should do according to Jehovah's word. See, I have given you your orders."

9 Then Joshua sent them out, and they marched to the place of ambush; they took a position between Beth'el and A'i, to the west of A'i, while Joshua spent that night with the people.

10 After Joshua rose up early in the morning and gathered* the troops, he and the elders of Israel led them to A'i. 11 All the fighting men[d] who were with him marched up and advanced to the front of the city. They camped to the north of A'i, with the valley between them and A'i. 12 In the meantime, he had taken about 5,000 men and had set them as an ambush[e] between Beth'el[f] and A'i, to the west of the city. 13 So the people set the main camp to the north of the city[g] and the rear guard west of the city,[h] and Joshua went that night into the middle of the valley.*

14 And as soon as the king of A'i saw this, he and the men of the city hurried out early in the morning to meet Israel in battle at a certain place overlooking the desert plain. But he did not know that there was an ambush set against him to the rear of the city. 15 When the men of A'i attacked, Joshua and all Israel fled along the road in the direction of the wilderness.[a] 16 Then all the people who were in the city were summoned to pursue them; and as they pursued Joshua they were drawn away from the city. 17 Not a man was remaining in A'i and Beth'el who did not go out after Israel. They left the city wide open and pursued Israel.

18 Jehovah now said to Joshua: "Stretch out the javelin that is in your hand toward A'i,[b] for into your hand I will give it."[c] So Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand toward the city. 19 The moment he stretched out his hand, the ambush rose up quickly from its place and ran into the city and captured it. They immediately set the city on fire.[d]

20 When the men of A'i turned around, they saw the smoke of the city rising to the sky, and they had no strength to flee in any direction. Then the people who had been fleeing toward the wilderness turned on their pursuers. 21 When Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had captured the city and saw the smoke of the city rising, they turned around and attacked the men of A'i. 22 And the others came out of the city to meet them, so that the men of A'i were trapped in the middle, with some Israelites on this side and some on that side, and they struck them down until there was not one survivor or escapee remaining.[e] 23 But they caught the king of A'i[f] alive and brought him before Joshua.

24 After Israel finished killing all the inhabitants of A'i in the field, in the wilderness where they had pursued them, and every last one of them had fallen by the sword, then all Israel returned to A′i and struck it with the sword. 25 All those who fell on that day, from man to woman, amounted to 12,000, all the people of A′i. 26 Joshua did not draw back his hand with which he had stretched out the javelin[a] until he had devoted all the inhabitants of A′i to destruction.[b] 27 However, Israel took the livestock and the spoil of that city for themselves, according to the orders that Jehovah had given to Joshua.[c]

28 Then Joshua burned A′i and reduced it to a permanent mound of ruins,[d] as it remains to this day. 29 He hung the king of A′i on a stake* until the evening, and as the sun was about to set, Joshua gave the order to take his dead body down from the stake.[e] Then they pitched it at the entrance of the city gate and raised up a great pile of stones over him, which is there to this day.

30 It was then that Joshua built an altar on Mount E′bal[f] to Jehovah the God of Israel, 31 just as Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded the Israelites and as it is written in the book of the Law[g] of Moses: "An altar of whole stones on which no iron tool has been wielded."[h] On it they offered up burnt offerings to Jehovah as well as communion sacrifices.[i]

32 Then he wrote there on the stones a copy of the Law[j] that Moses had written before the Israelites.[k] 33 All Israel, their elders, the officers, and their judges were standing on both sides of the Ark in front of the Levitical priests who were carrying the ark of the covenant of Jehovah. The foreign residents were there as well as the natives.[l] Half of them stood in front of Mount Ger′i·zim, and the other half in front of Mount E′bal[a] (just as Moses the servant of Jehovah had previously commanded),[b] to bless the people of Israel. 34 After this he read aloud all the words of the Law,[c] the blessings[d] and the curses,[e] according to all that is written in the book of the Law. 35 There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded that Joshua did not read aloud in front of all the congregation of Israel,[f] including the women and children and the foreign residents[g] who were living* among them.[h]

9 When all the kings who were on the west side of the Jordan[i] heard what had happened, those in the mountainous region, in the She·phe′lah, along the entire coast of the Great Sea,*[j] and in front of Leb′a·non—the Hit′tites, the Am′or·ites, the Ca′naan·ites, the Per′iz·zites, the Hi′vites, and the Jeb′u·sites[k]— 2 they formed an alliance to fight against Joshua and Israel.[l]

3 The inhabitants of Gib′e·on[m] also heard what Joshua had done to Jer′i·cho[n] and A′i.[o] 4 So they acted shrewdly and put provisions into worn-out sacks on their donkeys, along with worn-out wineskins that had burst and had been mended; 5 they also had worn-out and patched sandals on their feet, and they were wearing worn-out garments. All the bread of their provisions was dry and crumbly. 6 Then they went to Joshua at the camp at Gil′gal[p] and said to him and the men of Israel: "We have come from a distant land. Now make a covenant with us." 7 But the men of Israel said to the Hi′vites:[q] "Perhaps you are living near us. So how can we make a covenant with you?"[r] 8 They replied to Joshua: "We are your servants."*

Then Joshua said to them: "Who are you, and where do you come from?" 9 At this they said to him: "Your servants have come from a very distant land[a] out of regard for the name of Jehovah your God, because we have heard about his fame and about all he did in Egypt[b] 10 and about all he did to the two kings of the Am′or·ites who were on the other side* of the Jordan, King Si′hon[c] of Hesh′bon and King Og[d] of Ba′shan, who was in Ash′ta·roth. 11 So our elders and all the inhabitants of our land told us, 'Take provisions with you for the journey and go to meet them. Tell them: "We will be your servants;[e] now make a covenant with us."'[f] 12 This bread that we took as our provisions was still hot on the day we left our houses to come here to you. Now you can see it is dry and crumbly.[g] 13 And these wineskins were new when we filled them, but now they have burst.[h] And our garments and sandals have worn out because of the great length of the journey."

14 At that the men took* some of their provisions, but they did not inquire of Jehovah.[i] 15 So Joshua made peace with them[j] and made a covenant with them to let them live, and that is what the chieftains of the assembly swore to them in an oath.[k]

16 At the end of three days, after they made a covenant with them, they heard that they lived nearby, in their vicinity. 17 Then the Israelites set out and came to their cities on the third day; their cities were Gib′e·on,[l] Che·phi′rah, Be·er′oth, and Kir′i·ath-je′a·rim.[m] 18 But the Israelites did not attack them, because the chieftains of the assembly had sworn an oath to them by Jehovah[a] the God of Israel. So all the assembly began to murmur against the chieftains. 19 At this all the chieftains said to the entire assembly: "Since we swore an oath to them by Jehovah the God of Israel, we are not allowed to hurt them. 20 This is what we will do: We will let them live, so that there is no indignation against us because of the oath that we swore to them."[b] 21 And the chieftains added: "Let them live, but let them become gatherers of wood and drawers of water for all the assembly." This is what the chieftains promised them.

22 Joshua now called them and said to them: "Why did you trick us by saying, 'We are from a place very far away from you,' when you really live right among us?[c] 23 From now on you are cursed,[d] and you will always occupy a slave's position as gatherers of wood and drawers of water for the house of my God." 24 They answered Joshua: "It was because your servants were plainly told that Jehovah your God had commanded Moses his servant to give you all the land and to annihilate all its inhabitants from before you.[e] So we were afraid for our lives* because of you,[f] and that is why we did this.[g] 25 Now we are at your mercy.* Do to us whatever you think is good and right." 26 And that is what he did with them; he saved them from the hands of the Israelites, and they did not kill them. 27 But that day Joshua made them gatherers of wood and drawers of water for the assembly[h] and for Jehovah's altar at the place that He should choose,[i] and they remain so to this day.[j]

10 As soon as King A·do′ni-ze′dek of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had captured A′i and devoted it to destruction, doing to A′i and its king[a] just as he had done to Jer′i·cho and its king,[b] and how the inhabitants of Gib′e·on had made peace with Israel[c] and remained among them, 2 he was greatly alarmed,[d] because Gib′e-on was a great city, like one of the royal cities. It was greater than A′i,[e] and all its men were warriors. 3 So A·do′ni-ze′dek king of Jerusalem sent this message to Ho′ham king of Heb′ron,[f] Pi′ram king of Jar′muth, Ja-phi′a king of La′chish, and De′bir king of Eg′lon:[g] 4 "Come to my aid, and let us attack Gib′e-on, because it has made peace with Joshua and the Israelites."[h] 5 At this the five kings of the Am′or·ites[i]—the king of Jerusalem, the king of Heb′ron, the king of Jar′muth, the king of La′-chish, and the king of Eg′lon—gathered together along with their armies, and they marched on and encamped against Gib′e-on to fight against it.

6 Then the men of Gib′e·on sent word to Joshua at the camp at Gil′gal:[j] "Do not forsake* your slaves.[k] Come quickly! Rescue us and help us! All the kings of the Am′or·ites from the mountainous region have gathered against us." 7 So Joshua went up from Gil′gal with all the fighting men and the mighty warriors.[l]

8 Jehovah then said to Joshua: "Do not be afraid of them,[m] for I have handed them over to you.[n] Not one of them will be able to stand against you."[o] 9 Joshua came against them by surprise after marching all night long from Gil′gal. 10 Jehovah threw them into confusion before Israel,[p] and they inflicted a great slaughter on them at Gib′e-on, pursuing them by way of the ascent of Beth-ho′ron and striking them down as far as A·ze′-kah and Mak·ke′dah. 11 While they were fleeing from Israel and were on the descent of Beth-ho′ron, Jehovah hurled great hailstones from the sky on them as far as A·ze′kah, and they perished. In fact, more died from the hail than from the sword of the Israelites.

12 It was then, on the day that Jehovah routed the Am′or-ites before the eyes of the Israelites, that Joshua said to Jehovah before Israel:

"Sun, stand still[a] over
Gib′e·on,[b]
And moon, over the Valley* of Ai′ja·lon!"

13 So the sun stood still and the moon did not move until the nation could take vengeance on its enemies. Is it not written in the book of Ja′shar?[c] The sun stood still in the middle of the sky and did not hasten to set for about a whole day. 14 There has never been a day like that one, either before it or after it, when Jehovah listened to the voice of a man,[d] for Jehovah was fighting for Israel.[e]

15 After that Joshua together with all Israel returned to the camp at Gil′gal.[f]

16 Meanwhile, the five kings fled and hid in the cave at Mak·ke′dah.[g] 17 Then it was reported to Joshua: "The five kings have been found hiding in the cave at Mak·ke′dah."[h] 18 So Joshua said: "Roll large stones over the mouth of the cave and assign men to guard them. 19 But the rest of you should not stop. Pursue your enemies and strike them from the rear.[i] Do not allow them to enter into their cities, for Jehovah your

20 After Joshua and the Israelites had finished inflicting a very great slaughter on them, to the point of wiping them out except for some survivors who escaped and entered into the fortified cities, 21 all the people returned safely to Joshua at the camp at Mak·ke′dah. Not a man dared to utter a word* against the Israelites. 22 Then Joshua said: "Open the mouth of the cave and bring the five kings out of the cave to me." 23 So they brought to him from the cave these five kings: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Heb′ron, the king of Jar′muth, the king of La′chish, and the king of Eg′lon.[a] 24 When they brought these kings to Joshua, he summoned all the men of Israel and said to the commanders of the fighting men who had gone with him: "Come forward. Place your feet on the backs of the necks of these kings." So they came forward and placed their feet on the backs of their necks.[b] 25 Then Joshua said to them: "Do not be afraid or be terrified.[c] Be courageous and strong, for this is what Jehovah will do to all your enemies against whom you are fighting."[d]

26 Then Joshua struck them and put them to death and hung them on five stakes,* and they remained hanging on the stakes until the evening. 27 At sunset Joshua ordered that they be taken down off the stakes[e] and thrown into the cave where they had hidden themselves. Then large stones were placed at the mouth of the cave, and these remain to this very day.

28 Joshua captured Mak·ke′dah[f] on that day and struck it with the sword. He devoted its king and everyone* in it to destruction, letting no survivor remain.[a] He did to the king of Mak·ke′dah[b] just as he had done to the king of Jer′i·cho.

29 Then Joshua together with all Israel went from Mak·ke′dah to Lib′nah and fought against Lib′nah.[c] 30 Jehovah also gave it and its king[d] into Israel's hand, and they struck it and everyone* in it with the sword, not letting a survivor remain in it. So they did to its king just as they had done to the king of Jer′i·cho.[e]

31 Next Joshua together with all Israel went from Lib′nah to La′chish[f] and camped there and fought against it. 32 Jehovah gave La′chish into Israel's hand, and they captured it on the second day. They struck it and everyone* in it with the sword,[g] just as they had done to Lib′nah.

33 Then Ho′ram king of Ge′zer[h] went up to help La′chish, but Joshua struck him and his people down until not one survivor remained.

34 Then Joshua together with all Israel went from La′chish to Eg′lon[i] and camped there and fought against it. 35 They captured it on that day and struck it with the sword. They devoted everyone* in it to destruction on that day, just as they had done to La′chish.[j]

36 Then Joshua together with all Israel went up from Eg′lon to Heb′ron[k] and fought against it. 37 They captured it and struck it, its king, its towns, and everyone* in it with the sword, not letting any survivor remain. Just as he had done to Eg′lon, he devoted it and everyone* in it to destruction.

38 Finally Joshua together with all Israel turned toward De′bir[l] and fought against it.

39 He captured it, its king, and all its towns, and they struck them down with the sword, devoting everyone* in it to destruction,[a] not letting any survivor remain.[b] He did to De′bir and its king just as he had done to Heb′ron and to Lib′nah and its king.

40 Joshua conquered all the land of the mountainous region, the Neg′eb, the She·phe′lah,[c] and the slopes, and all their kings, not letting any survivor remain; he devoted everything that breathed to destruction,[d] just as Jehovah the God of Israel had commanded.[e] 41 Joshua conquered them from Ka′desh-bar′ne·a[f] to Gaz′a[g] and all the land of Go′shen[h] and up to Gib′e·on.[i] 42 Joshua captured all these kings and their land, all at the same time, because it was Jehovah the God of Israel who was fighting for Israel.[j] 43 Then Joshua returned with all Israel to the camp at Gil′gal.[k]

11 As soon as Ja′bin king of Ha′zor heard of it, he sent word to Jo′bab king of Ma′don,[l] and to the king of Shim′ron, the king of Ach′shaph,[m] 2 the kings who were in the northern mountainous region, those in the plains* south of Chin′ne·reth, those in the She·phe′lah and on the slopes of Dor[n] to the west, 3 the Ca′naan·ites[o] to the east and the west, the Am′or·ites,[p] the Hit′tites, the Per′iz·zites, the Jeb′u·sites in the mountainous region, and the Hi′vites[q] at the base of Her′mon[r] in the land of Miz′pah. 4 So they came out with all their armies, a vast multitude as numerous as the grains of sand on the seashore, together with very many horses and war chariots. 5 All these kings agreed to meet, and they came and camped together at the waters of Mer′om to fight against Israel.

6 At this Jehovah said to Joshua: "Do not be afraid because of them,[a] for about this time tomorrow, I am giving over all of them slain to Israel. Their horses you must hamstring,[b] and their chariots you must burn in the fire." 7 Joshua together with all the fighting men then launched a surprise attack against them along the waters of Mer′om. 8 Jehovah gave them into Israel's hand,[c] and they defeated them and pursued them as far as Great Si′don[d] and Mis′re·photh-ma′im[e] and the Valley of Miz′peh to the east, and they struck them down until no survivors remained.[f] 9 Joshua then did to them just as Jehovah had told him; he hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots in the fire.[g]

10 Moreover, Joshua then returned and captured Ha′zor and struck down its king with the sword,[h] because Ha′zor had formerly been the head of all these kingdoms. 11 They struck down everyone* in it with the sword, devoting them to destruction.[i] Not a breathing thing was left.[j] Then he burned Ha′zor in the fire. 12 Joshua captured all the cities of these kings and defeated all their kings with the sword.[k] He devoted them to destruction,[l] just as Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded. 13 However, Israel did not burn any of the cities that stood on their mounds except Ha′zor; it was the only one Joshua burned. 14 All the spoil of these cities and the livestock, the Israelites plundered for themselves.[m] But they struck every human with the sword until they had annihilated each one.[n] They did not let anyone who breathed remain.[o] 15 Just as Jehovah had commanded Moses his servant, so Moses commanded Joshua,[a] and so Joshua did. He left nothing undone of all that Jehovah had commanded Moses.[b]

16 Joshua conquered all this land, the mountainous region, all the Neg′eb,[c] all the land of Go′shen, the She·phe′lah,[d] the Ar′a·bah,[e] and the mountainous region of Israel and its She·phe′lah,* 17 from Mount Ha′lak, which goes up to Se′ir, and as far as Ba′al-gad[f] in the Valley of Leb′a·non at the base of Mount Her′mon,[g] and he captured all their kings and defeated them, putting them to death. 18 Joshua waged war with all these kings for quite some time. 19 There was no city that made peace with the Israelites except the Hi′vites inhabiting Gib′e·on.[h] They conquered all the others by war.[i] 20 It was Jehovah who allowed their hearts to become stubborn[j] so that they waged war against Israel, in order for him to devote them to destruction without any favorable consideration.[k] They were to be annihilated, just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.[l]

21 At that time Joshua wiped out the An′a·kim[m] from the mountainous region, from Heb′ron, De′bir, A′nab, and all the mountainous region of Judah and all the mountainous region of Israel. Joshua devoted them and their cities to destruction.[n] 22 There were no An′a·kim left in the land of the Israelites; they remained[o] only in Gaz′a,[p] in Gath,[q] and in Ash′dod.[r] 23 So Joshua took control of all the land, just as Jehovah had promised Moses,[s] and then Joshua gave it as an inheritance to Israel by their shares to be divided among their tribes.[t] And the land had rest from war.[u]

13 Now Joshua had grown old and was advanced in years.[a] So Jehovah said to him: “You have grown old and are advanced in years; but much of the land remains to be taken in possession.* 2 This is the land remaining:[b] all the regions of the Phi·lis′tines and all the Gesh′·ur·ites[c] 3 (from the branch of the Nile* that is east of# Egypt up to the border of Ek′ron to the north, which used to be considered Ca′naan·ite territory)[d] including that of the five lords of the Phi·lis′tines[e]—the Gaz′ites, the Ash′dod·ites,[f] the Ash′ke·lon·ites,[g] the Git′tites,[h] and the Ek′·ron·ites;[i] that of the Av′vim[j] 4 to the south; all the land of the Ca′naan·ites; Me·ar′ah, which belongs to the Si·do′ni·ans,[k] as far as A′phek, to the border of the Am′or·ites; 5 the land of the Ge′bal·ites[l] and all of Leb′a·non toward the east, from Ba′al·gad at the base of Mount Her′·mon to Le′bo-ha′math;[m] 6 all the inhabitants of the mountainous region from Leb′a·non[n] to Mis′re·photh-ma′im;[o] and all the Si·do′ni·ans.[p] I will drive them out before the Israelites.[q] You have only to assign it to Israel as an inheritance, just as I have commanded you.[r] 7 Now you must apportion this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and the half tribe of Ma·nas′·seh.”[s]

8 With the other half tribe, the Reu′ben·ites and the Gad′ites took their inheritance that Moses gave them on the east side of the Jordan, just as Moses the servant of Jehovah had given them:[t] 9 from A·ro′·er,[u] which is on the rim of the Ar′non Valley,[v] and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the tableland of Med′e·ba as far as Di′bon; 10 and all the cities of King Si′hon of the Am′or·ites, who reigned in Hesh′bon, up to the border of the Am′mon·ites;[a] 11 also Gil′e·ad and the territory of the Gesh′ur·ites and the Ma·ac′a·thites[b] and all Mount Her′mon and all Ba′shan[c] as far as Sal′e·cah;[d] 12 all the royal realm of Og in Ba′shan, who reigned in Ash′ta·roth and in Ed′re·i. (He was one of the last of the Reph′a·im.)[e] Moses defeated them and drove them out.[f] 13 But the Israelites did not drive out[g] the Gesh′ur·ites and the Ma·ac′a·thites, for Gesh′ur and Ma′a·cath live in the midst of Israel to this day.

14 It was only to the tribe of the Levites that he did not give an inheritance.[h] The offerings made by fire to Jehovah the God of Israel are their inheritance,[i] just as he promised them.[j]

15 Then Moses gave an inheritance to the tribe of the Reu′ben·ites by their families, 16 and their territory was from A·ro′er, which is on the rim of the Ar′non Valley,* and the city in the middle of the valley, and all the tableland by Med′e·ba; 17 Hesh′bon and all its towns[k] on the tableland, Di′bon, Ba′moth-ba′al, Beth-ba′al-me′on,[l] 18 Ja′haz,[m] Ked′e·moth,[n] Meph′a·ath,[o] 19 Kir·i·a·tha′im, Sib′mah,[p] and Ze′reth-sha′har on the mountain of the valley,* 20 Beth-pe′or, the slopes of Pis′gah,[q] Beth-jesh′i·moth,[r] 21 all the cities of the tableland, and all the royal realm of King Si′hon of the Am′or·ites, who reigned in Hesh′bon.[s] Moses defeated him[t] and the Mid′i·an·ite chieftains E′vi, Re′kem, Zur, Hur, and Re′ba,[a] vassals* of Si′hon who were dwelling in the land. 22 Ba′laam[b] the son of Be′or, the diviner,[c] was one whom the Israelites killed with the sword along with the rest who were slain. 23 The boundary of the Reu′ben·ites was the Jordan; and this territory was the inheritance of the Reu′ben·ites by their families, with the cities and their settlements.

24 Furthermore, Moses gave an inheritance to the tribe of Gad, the Gad′ites by their families, 25 and their territory included Ja′zer[d] and all the cities of Gil′e·ad and half of the land of the Am′mon·ites[e] as far as A·ro′er, which faces Rab′bah;[f] 26 and from Hesh′bon[g] to Ra′math-miz′peh and Bet′o·nim, and from Ma·ha·na′im[h] to the border of De′bir; 27 and in the valley,* Beth-ha′ram, Beth-nim′rah,[i] Suc′coth,[j] and Za′phon, the rest of the royal realm of King Si′hon of Hesh′bon,[k] with the Jordan as the border from the lower end of the Sea of Chin′ne·reth#[l] on the east side of the Jordan. 28 This was the inheritance of the Gad′ites by their families, with the cities and their settlements.

29 Further, Moses gave an inheritance to the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh, to half of the tribe of Ma·nas′seh by their families.[m] 30 And their territory extended from Ma·ha·na′im[n] and took in all of Ba′shan, all the royal realm of King Og of Ba′shan, and all the tent villages of Ja′ir[o] in Ba′shan, 60 towns. 31 And half of Gil′e·ad, and Ash′ta·roth and Ed′re·i,[p] the cities of the royal realm of Og in Ba′shan, went to the sons of Ma′chir[q] the son of Ma·nas′- seh, to half of the sons of Ma′chir by their families.

32 These were the inheritances that Moses gave them on the desert plains of Mo′ab beyond the Jordan, east of Jer′i·cho.[a]

33 But to the tribe of the Levites, Moses did not give an inheritance.[b] Jehovah the God of Israel is their inheritance, just as he promised them.[c]

14 Now this is what the Israelites took as an inheritance in the land of Ca′naan, which El·e·a′zar the priest and Joshua the son of Nun and the heads of the paternal houses of the tribes of Israel gave them to inherit.[d] 2 Their inheritance was by lot,[e] just as Jehovah had commanded through Moses for the nine and a half tribes.[f] 3 Moses had given the inheritance of the other two and a half tribes on the other side* of the Jordan,[g] and to the Levites he did not give an inheritance among them.[h] 4 The descendants of Joseph were considered two tribes,[i] Ma·nas′seh and E′phra·im;[j] and they did not give a share in the land to the Levites, except cities[k] to dwell in and their pastures for their livestock and their property.[l] 5 So the Israelites apportioned the land just as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

6 Then the men of Judah approached Joshua in Gil′gal,[m] and Ca′leb[n] the son of Je·phun′neh the Ken′iz·zite said to him: "You well know what Jehovah said[o] to Moses the man of the true God[p] about you and me at Ka′desh-bar′ne·a.[q] 7 I was 40 years old when Moses the servant of Jehovah sent me out of Ka′desh-bar′ne·a to spy out the land,[r] and I returned with a forthright report.[a] 8 Although my brothers who went up with me caused the people to lose heart, I followed Jehovah my God wholeheartedly.#[b] 9 Moses swore on that day, saying: 'The land on which your foot has walked will become a lasting inheritance for you and your sons, because you have followed Jehovah my God wholeheartedly.'[c] 10 Now just as he promised,[d] Jehovah has preserved me alive[e] these 45 years since Jehovah made this promise to Moses when Israel walked in the wilderness;[f] I am still here today, 85 years old. 11 And today I am as strong as on the day Moses sent me out. My strength is now as it was then, for war and for other activities. 12 Therefore, give me this mountainous region that Jehovah promised on that day. Though you heard on that day that there were An′a·kim[g] there with great fortified cities,[h] surely* Jehovah will be with me,[i] and I will drive them out,# just as Jehovah promised."[j]

13 So Joshua blessed him and gave Heb′ron to Ca′leb the son of Je·phun′neh as an inheritance.[k] 14 That is why Heb′ron belongs to Ca′leb the son of Jephun′neh the Ken′iz·zite as an inheritance to this day, because he followed Jehovah the God of Israel wholeheartedly.[l] 15 The name of Heb′ron was previously Kir′i·ath-ar′ba[m] (Ar′ba was the great man among the An′a·kim). And the land had rest from war.[n]

15 The land allotted*[o] to the tribe of Judah for their families extended to the boundary of E′dom,[p] the wilderness of Zin, to the Neg′eb at its southern end. 2 Their southern boundary ran from the extremity of the Salt Sea,[a] from the bay that faces southward. 3 And it extended south to the ascent of A·krab′bim,[b] passed over to Zin, then went up from the south to Ka′desh-bar′ne·a,[c] over to Hez′ron, up to Ad′dar, and went around toward Kar′ka. 4 Then it passed on to Az′mon[d] and extended to the Wadi of Egypt,[e] and the boundary ended at the Sea.# This was their southern boundary.

5 The eastern boundary was the Salt Sea* up to the end of the Jordan, and the boundary at the northern corner was at the bay of the sea, at the end of the Jordan.[f] 6 The boundary went up to Beth-hog′lah[g] and passed over at the north of Beth-ar′a·bah,[h] and the boundary went up to the stone of Bo′han[i] the son of Reu′ben. 7 The boundary went up to De′bir at the Valley* of A′chor[j] and turned northward to Gil′gal,[k] which is in front of the ascent of A·dum′mim that is south of the wadi, and the boundary passed over to the waters of En-she′mesh[l] and ended at En-ro′gel.[m] 8 The boundary went up to the Valley of the Son of Hin′nom[n] to the slope of the Jeb′u·site[o] at the south, that is, Jerusalem,[p] and the boundary went up to the top of the mountain that faces the Valley of Hin′nom to the west, which is at the extremity of the Valley* of Reph′a·im to the north. 9 And the boundary was marked from the top of the mountain to the spring of the waters of Neph·to′ah[q] and extended to the cities of Mount E′phron; and the boundary was marked to Ba′al·ah, that is, Kir′i·ath-je′a·rim.[a] 10 The boundary went around from Ba′al·ah westward to Mount Se′ir and passed over to the slope of Mount Je′a·rim at the north, that is, Ches′a·lon, and it went down to Beth-she′mesh[b] and passed over to Tim′nah.[c] 11 And the boundary extended to the slope of Ek′ron[d] to the north, and the boundary was marked to Shik′ke·ron and passed over to Mount Ba′al·ah and extended to Jab′ne·el, and the boundary ended at the sea.

12 The western boundary was at the Great Sea*[e] and its coast. This was the boundary of the descendants of Judah by their families on all sides.

13 And to Ca′leb[f] the son of Je·phun′neh, he gave a share among the descendants of Judah at the order of Jehovah to Joshua, namely, Kir′i·ath-ar′ba (Ar′ba was the father of A′nak), that is, Heb′ron.[g] 14 So Ca′leb drove out from there the three sons of A′nak:[h] She′shai, A·hi′man, and Tal′mai,[i] descendants of A′nak. 15 Then he went up from there against the inhabitants of De′bir.[j] (The name of De′bir was previously Kir′i·ath-se′pher.) 16 Ca′leb then said: "To the man who strikes Kir′i·ath-se′pher and captures it, I will give my daughter Ach′sah as a wife." 17 And Oth′ni·el[k] the son of Ke′naz,[l] Ca′leb's brother, captured it. So he gave him his daughter Ach′sah[m] as a wife. 18 While she was going home, she urged him to ask her father for a field. Then she dismounted from her donkey.* Ca′leb asked her: "What do you want?"[n] 19 She said: "Please grant me a blessing, for you have given me a piece of land in the south;* give me also 20 This was the inheritance of the tribe of Judah by their families.

21 The cities at the extremity of the tribe of Judah toward the boundary of E'dom[a] in the south were: Kab'ze·el, E'der, Ja'gur, 22 Ki'nah, Di·mo'nah, A·da'dah, 23 Ke'desh, Ha'zor, Ith'nan, 24 Ziph, Te'lem, Be·a'loth, 25 Ha'zor-ha·dat'tah, and Ke'ri·oth-hez'ron, that is, Ha'zor, 26 A'mam, She'ma, Mola'dah,[b] 27 Ha'zar-gad'dah, Hesh'mon, Beth-pel'et,[c] 28 Ha'zar-shu'al, Be'er-she'ba,[d] Biz·i·o·thi'ah, 29 Ba'al·ah, I'im, E'zem, 30 Elto'lad, Che'sil, Hor'mah,[e] 31 Zik'lag,[f] Mad·man'nah, San·san'nah, 32 Le·ba'oth, Shil'him, A'in, and Rim'mon[g]—a total of 29 cities together with their settlements.

33 In the She·phe'lah,[h] there were: Esh'ta·ol, Zo'rah,[i] Ash'nah, 34 Za·no'ah, En-gan'nim, Tap'pu·ah, E'nam, 35 Jar'muth, A·dul'lam,[j] So'coh, A·ze'kah,[k] 36 Sha'a·ra'im,[l] Ad·i·tha'im, and Ge·de'rah and Ged·e·ro·tha'im*—14 cities and their settlements.

37 Ze'nan, Ha·dash'ah, Mig'dal-gad, 38 Di'le·an, Miz'peh, Jok'the·el, 39 La'chish,[m] Boz'kath, Eg'lon, 40 Cab'bon, Lah'mam, Chit'lish, 41 Ge·de'roth, Beth-da'gon, Na'a·mah, and Makke'dah[n]—16 cities and their settlements.

42 Lib'nah,[o] E'ther, A'shan,[p] 43 Iph'tah, Ash'nah, Ne'zib, 44 Kei'lah, Ach'zib, and Ma·re'shah—nine cities and their settlements.

45 Ek'ron and its dependent* towns and its settlements; 46 from Ek'ron westward, all that is alongside Ash'dod and their settlements.

47 Ash'dod,[a] its dependent* towns and its settlements; Gaz'a,[b] its dependent towns and its settlements, down to the Wadi of Egypt, the Great Sea,# and the adjacent region.[c]

48 And in the mountainous region, Sha'mir, Jat'tir,[d] So'coh, 49 Dan'nah, Kir'i·ath-san'nah, that is, De'bir, 50 A'nab, Esh'te·moh,[e] A'nim, 51 Go'shen,[f] Ho'lon, and Gi'loh[g]—11 cities and their settlements.

Jer′i·cho, through the wilderness going up from Jer′i·cho into the mountainous region of Beth′el.[a] 2 It extended from Beth′el belonging to Luz and continued to the boundary of the Ar′chites at At′a·roth, 3 then it went down westward to the boundary of the Japh′le·tites as far as the boundary of Lower Beth-ho′ron[b] and Ge′zer,[c] and it ended at the sea.

4 So Joseph's descendants,[d] Ma·nas′seh and E′phra·im, took possession of their land.[e] 5 The boundary of the descendants of E′phra·im by their families was as follows: The boundary of their inheritance to the east was At′a·roth-ad′dar,[f] as far as Upper Beth-ho′ron,[g] 6 and the boundary extended to the sea. Mich·me′thath[h] was on the north, and the boundary went around east to Ta′a·nath-shi′loh, and it passed on the east to Ja·no′ah. 7 Then it went down from Ja·no′ah to At′a·roth and Na′a·rah and reached to Jer′i·cho[i] and extended to the Jordan. 8 From Tap′pu·ah[j] the boundary continued westward to the Wadi of Ka′nah, and it ended at the sea.[k] This is the inheritance of the tribe of E′phra·im by their families; 9 the descendants of E′phra·im also had enclave cities in the midst of the inheritance of Ma·nas′seh,[l] all the cities and their settlements.

10 But they did not drive away the Ca′naan·ites who were dwelling in Ge′zer,[m] and the Ca′naan·ites continue to dwell among E′phra·im to this day[n] and have been subjected to forced labor.[o]

17 Then the lot[p] fell for the tribe of Ma·nas′seh,[q] because he was Joseph's firstborn.[r] Since Ma′chir,[s] the firstborn of Ma·nas′seh and the father of Gil′e·ad, was a man of war, he received Gil′e·ad and Ba′shan.[t] 2 And the lot fell for the rest of the descendants of Ma·nas′seh according to their families, for the sons of Abi-e′zer,[a] the sons of He′lek, the sons of As′ri·el, the sons of She′chem, the sons of He′pher, and the sons of She·mi′da. These were the descendants of Ma·nas′seh the son of Joseph, the males according to their families.[b] 3 But Ze·lo′phe·had[c] the son of He′pher, the son of Gil′e·ad, the son of Ma′chir, the son of Ma·nas′seh, did not have sons, only daughters, and these were the names of his daughters: Mah′lah, Noah, Hog′lah, Mil′cah, and Tir′zah. 4 So they presented themselves before El·e·a′zar[d] the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the chieftains, saying: "It was Jehovah who commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers."[e] So at the order of Jehovah, he gave them an inheritance among the brothers of their father.[f]

5 There were also ten allotments that fell to Ma·nas′seh apart from the land of Gil′e·ad and Ba′shan, which were on the other side* of the Jordan,[g] 6 for the daughters of Manas′seh received an inheritance along with his sons, and the land of Gil′e·ad became the property of the rest of the descendants of Ma·nas′seh.

7 And the boundary of Manas′seh was from Ash′er to Mich·me′thath,[h] which faces She′chem,[i] and the boundary continued toward the south* to the land of the inhabitants of En-Tap′pu·ah. 8 The land of Tap′pu·ah[j] became Ma·nas′seh's, but Tap′pu·ah on Ma·nas′seh's boundary belonged to the descendants of E′phra·im. 9 And the boundary went down to the Wadi of Ka′nah, southward to the wadi. There were cities of E′phra·im among the cities of Ma·nas′seh,[a] and the boundary of Ma·nas′seh was on the north of the wadi, and it ended at the sea.[b] 10 To the south it belonged to E′phra·im, and to the north it belonged to Ma·nas′seh, and the sea was his boundary,[c] and on the north they* reached to Ash′er, and on the east, to Is′sa·char.

11 In the territories of Is′sachar and Ash′er, Ma·nas′seh was given Beth-she′an and its dependent* towns, Ib′le·am[d] and its dependent towns, the inhabitants of Dor[e] and its dependent towns, the inhabitants of En-dor[f] and its dependent towns, the inhabitants of Ta′a·nach[g] and its dependent towns, and the inhabitants of Me·gid′do and its dependent towns, three of the heights.

12 But the descendants of Ma·nas′seh were not able to take possession of these cities; the Ca′naan·ites persisted in dwelling in this land.[h] 13 When the Israelites grew strong, they subjected the Ca′naan·ites to forced labor,[i] but they did not drive them out* entirely.[j]

14 The descendants of Joseph said to Joshua: "Why have you given us* as an inheritance only one lot[k] and one allotment? We are a numerous people, for Jehovah has blessed us until now."[l] 15 Joshua replied to them: "If you are such a numerous people, go up to the forest and clear out a place for yourself there in the land of the Per′iz·zites[m] and the Reph′a·im,[n] since the mountainous region of E′phra·im[o] is too cramped for you." 16 Then the descendants of Joseph said: "The mountainous region is not enough for us, and all the Ca′naan·ites who are dwelling in the land of the valley[#] have war chariots[a] with iron scythes,[△] both those in Beth-she′an[b] and its dependent* towns and those in the Valley[⊠] of Jez′re·el."[c] 17 So Joshua said this to the house of Joseph, to E′phra·im and Ma·nas′seh: "You are a numerous people, and you have great power. You will not receive only one lot,[d] 18 but the mountainous region will also be yours.[e] Although it is a forest, you will clear it, and it will be the extremity of your territory. For you will drive away the Ca′naan·ites, even though they are strong and have war chariots with iron scythes."[△f]

18 Then all the assembly of the Israelites congregated at Shi′loh,[g] and they set up the tent of meeting there,[h] as the land was now subdued before them.[i] 2 But there were still seven tribes left of the Israelites whose inheritance had not been allotted. 3 So Joshua said to the Israelites: "How long will you put off going in to take possession of the land that Jehovah the God of your forefathers has given you?[j] 4 Give me three men from each tribe to send out; they should go out and walk throughout the land and map it out according to their inheritance. Then they should return to me. 5 They must apportion it among themselves into seven shares.[k] Judah will remain in his territory to the south,[l] and the house of Joseph will remain in their territory to the north.[m] 6 As for you, map out the land into seven shares, and bring them here to me, and I will cast lots[n] here for you before Jehovah our God.

7 But the Levites have no share among you,[a] because the priesthood of Jehovah is their inheritance;[b] and Gad, Reu′ben, and the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh[c] have already taken their inheritance on the east side of the Jordan, which Moses the servant of Jehovah gave them."

8 The men prepared to go, and Joshua commanded those who were to map out the land: "Go and walk through the land and map it out and return to me, and I will cast lots for you here before Jehovah in Shi′loh."[d] 9 With that the men went and traveled through the land and mapped it out by cities into seven shares, recording it in a book. After that they returned to Joshua at the camp in Shi′loh. 10 Joshua then cast lots for them in Shi′loh before Jehovah.[e] There Joshua apportioned the land to the Israelites by their shares.[f]

This was the inheritance of the descendants of Benjamin by their families.

19 Then the second lot[a] came out for Sim′e·on, for the tribe of Sim′e·on[b] by their families. And their inheritance was within the inheritance of Judah.[c] 2 Their inheritance was Be′er-she′ba[d] with She′ba, Mo·la′dah,[e] 3 Ha′zar-shu′al,[f] Ba′lah, E′zem,[g] 4 El·to′lad,[h] Be′thul, Hor′mah, 5 Zik′lag,[i] Beth-mar′ca·both, Ha′zar-su′sah, 6 Beth-le·ba′oth,[j] and Sha·ru′hen—13 cities and their settlements; 7 A′in, Rim′mon, E′ther, and A′shan[k]—four cities and their settlements; 8 and all the settlements that were around these cities as far as Ba′al-ath-be′er, Ra′mah of the south. This was the inheritance of the tribe of Sim′e·on by their families. 9 The inheritance of the descendants of Sim′e·on was taken out of the allotment of Judah, because the share of Judah was too large for them. So the descendants of Sim′e·on received a possession within their inheritance.[l]

10 Next the third lot[m] came up for the descendants of Zeb′u·lun[n] by their families, and the boundary of their inheritance went as far as Sa′rid. 11 Their boundary went up westward to Mar′e·al and reached to Dab′be-sheth and then to the valley* in front of Jok′ne·am. 12 And it went from Sa′rid eastward toward the sunrise, to the border of Chis′loth-ta′bor and out to Dab′e·rath[o] and then up to Ja·phi′a. 13 And from there it continued eastward toward the sunrise to Gath-he′pher,[p] to Eth-ka′zin, and out to Rim′mon, and it extended to Ne′ah. 14 And the boundary went around it on the north to Han′nathon, and it ended at the Valley of Iph′tah-el, 15 and Kat′tath, Na·hal′al, Shim′ron,[a] I′dalah, and Beth′le·hem[b]—12 cities and their settlements. 16 This was the inheritance of the descendants of Zeb′u·lun by their families.[c] These were the cities and their settlements.

17 The fourth lot[d] came out for Is′sa·char,[e] for the descendants of Is′sa·char by their families. 18 And their boundary was to Jez′re·el,[f] Che·sul′loth, Shu′nem,[g] 19 Haph′a·ra′im, Shi′on, An·a·ha′rath, 20 Rab′bith, Kish′i·on, E′bez, 21 Re′meth, En-gan′nim,[h] En-had′dah, and Beth-paz′zez. 22 And the boundary reached to Ta′bor[i] and Sha·ha·zu′mah and Beth-she′mesh, and the end of their border was at the Jordan—16 cities and their settlements. 23 This was the inheritance of the tribe of Is′sa·char by their families,[j] the cities and their settlements.

24 Then the fifth lot[k] came out for the tribe of Ash′er[l] by their families. 25 And their boundary was Hel′kath,[m] Ha′li, Be′ten, Ach′shaph, 26 Al·lam′me·lech, A′mad, and Mi′shal. It reached westward to Car′mel[n] and to Shi′hor-lib′nath, 27 and it went back toward the east to Beth-da′gon and reached to Zeb′u·lun and the Valley of Iph′tah-el to the north, to Beth-e′mek and Ne·i′el, and it extended to Ca′bul on the left, 28 and to E′bron, Re′hob, Ham′mon, and Ka′nah as far as Great Si′don.[o] 29 And the boundary went back to Ra′mah and as far as the fortified city of Tyre.[p] Then the boundary went back to Ho′sah, and it ended at the sea in the region of Ach′zib, 30 Um′mah, A′phek,[q] and Re′hob[r]—22 cities and their settlements. 31 This was the inheritance of the tribe of Ash′er by their families.[a] These were the cities and their settlements.

32 The sixth lot[b] came out for the descendants of Naph′ta·li, for the descendants of Naph′ta·li by their families. 33 Their boundary was from He′leph, from the big tree in Za·a·nan′nim,[c] and Ad′a·mi-ne′keb and Jab′ne·el as far as Lak′kum; and it ended at the Jordan. 34 The boundary went back westward to Az′noth-ta′bor and extended from there to Huk′kok and reached to Zeb′u·lun on the south and to Ash′er on the west and to Judah at the Jordan toward the east. 35 And the fortified cities were Zid′dim, Zer, Ham′math,[d] Rak′kath, Chin′ne·reth, 36 Ad′a·mah, Ra′mah, Ha′zor,[e] 37 Ke′desh,[f] Ed′re·i, En-ha′zor, 38 Yi′ron, Mig′dal-el, Ho′rem, Beth-a′nath, and Beth-she′mesh[g]—19 cities and their settlements. 39 This was the inheritance of the tribe of Naph′ta·li by their families,[h] the cities and their settlements.

40 The seventh lot[i] came out for the tribe of Dan[j] by their families. 41 And the border of their inheritance was Zo′rah,[k] Esh′ta·ol, Ir-she′mesh, 42 Sha·al·ab′bin,[l] Ai′ja·lon,[m] Ith′lah, 43 E′lon, Tim′nah,[n] Ek′ron,[o] 44 El′te·keh, Gib′be·thon,[p] Ba′al-ath, 45 Je′hud, Ben′e-be′rak, Gath-rim′mon,[q] 46 Me-jar′kon, and Rak′kon, with the border facing Jop′pa.[r] 47 But the territory of Dan was too cramped for them.[s] So they went up and fought against Le′shem[t] and captured it and struck it with the sword. Then they took possession of it and settled in it, and they changed the name of Le′shem to Dan, after the name of Dan their forefather.[u] 48 This was the inheritance of the tribe of Dan by their families. These were the cities and their settlements.

49 Thus they finished dividing the land for inheritance by its territories. Then the Israelites gave Joshua the son of Nun an inheritance in their midst. 50 At the order of Jehovah they gave him the city he asked for, Tim′nath-se′rah,[a] in the mountainous region of E′phra·im, and he built up the city and settled in it.

51 These were the inheritances that El·e·a′zar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the paternal houses of the tribes of Israel distributed[b] by lot in Shi′loh[c] before Jehovah, at the entrance of the tent of meeting.[d] So they finished apportioning the land.

20 Then Jehovah said to Joshua: 2 "Tell the Israelites, 'Select for yourselves the cities of refuge[e] about which I spoke to you through Moses, 3 so that the manslayer who unintentionally or accidentally* kills someone# may flee there. And they will serve as a refuge for you from the avenger of blood.[f] 4 He must flee to one of these cities[g] and stand at the entrance of the city gate[h] and present his case in the hearing of the elders of that city. Then they must receive him into the city and give him a place and he will live with them. 5 If the avenger of blood chases after him, they should not surrender the manslayer into his hand, for he killed his fellow man accidentally* and he did not previously hate him.[i] 6 He must dwell in that city until he stands trial before the assembly[j] and remain there until the death of the high priest[k] who is in office at that time. Then the manslayer may return to the city from which he fled, and he may enter his city and his house.'"[l]

20:3, 5 *Or "unknowingly." 20:3 #Or "strikes a soul."

7 So they gave a sacred status to* Ke′desh[a] in Gal′i·lee in the mountainous region of Naph′ta·li, She′chem[b] in the mountainous region of E′phra·im, and Kir′i·ath-ar′ba,[c] that is, Heb′ron, in the mountainous region of Judah. 8 In the region of the Jordan, east of Jer′i·cho, they selected Be′zer[d] in the wilderness on the tableland* out of the tribe of Reu′ben, Ra′moth[e] in Gil′e·ad out of the tribe of Gad, and Go′lan[f] in Ba′shan out of the tribe of Ma·nas′seh.[g]

9 These became the cities appointed for all the Israelites and for the foreign residents residing among them, so that anyone who unintentionally killed someone* could flee there[h] and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood prior to standing trial before the assembly.[i]

21 The heads of the paternal houses of the Levites now approached El·e·a′zar[j] the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the paternal houses of the tribes of Israel, 2 and they spoke to them in Shi′loh[k] in the land of Ca′naan, saying: "Jehovah through Moses commanded that we be given cities in which to dwell, along with their pastures for our livestock."[l] 3 So at the order of Jehovah, the Israelites gave the Levites these cities[m] and their pastures out of their own inheritance.[n]

4 The lot came out for the families of the Ko′hath·ites,[o] and the Levites who were descendants of Aaron the priest were given by lot* 13 cities out of the tribe of Judah,[p] the tribe of Sim′e·on,[q] and the tribe of Benjamin.[r]

5 And for the rest of the Ko′hath·ites, there were allotted* ten cities out of the families of the tribe of E′phra·im,[a] the tribe of Dan, and the half tribe of Manas′seh.[b]

6 And for the Ger′shon·ites,[c] there were allotted 13 cities out of the families of the tribe of Is′sa·char, the tribe of Ash′er, the tribe of Naph′ta·li, and the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh in Ba′shan.[d]

7 For the Me·rar′ites[e] by their families, there were 12 cities out of the tribe of Reu′ben, the tribe of Gad, and the tribe of Zeb′u·lun.[f]

8 Thus the Israelites gave the Levites these cities and their pastures by lot, just as Jehovah had commanded through Moses.[g]

9 So from the tribe of Judah and the tribe of Sim′e·on, they gave these cities here mentioned by name,[h] 10 and they were given to the sons of Aaron of the Ko′hath·ite families of the Levites, because they received the first lot. 11 They gave them Kir′i·ath-ar′ba[i] (Ar′ba was the father of A′nak), that is, Heb′ron,[j] in the mountainous region of Judah, and its surrounding pastures. 12 But the field of the city and its settlements they gave to Ca′leb the son of Jeph·un′neh as his possession.[k]

13 And to the sons of Aaron the priest, they gave the city of refuge for the manslayer,[l] namely, Heb′ron[m] with its pastures, also Lib′nah[n] with its pastures, 14 Jat′tir[o] with its pastures, Esh·te·mo′a[p] with its pastures, 15 Ho′lon[q] with its pastures, De′bir[r] with its pastures, 16 A′in[s] with its pastures, Jut′tah[t] with its pastures, and Beth-she′mesh with its pastures—nine cities out of these two tribes.

17 And from the tribe of Benjamin: Gib′e·on[u] with its pastures, Ge′ba with its pastures,[v]

25 And from the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh: Ta′a·nach[h] with its pastures and Gath-rim′mon with its pastures—two cities.

26 All the cities together with their pastures that the rest of the families of the Ko′hath·ites received were ten.

27 And the Ger′shon·ites[i] of the families of the Levites received from the half tribe of Manas′seh the city of refuge for the manslayer, namely, Go′lan,[j] in Ba′shan, with its pastures and Be·esh′te·rah with its pastures —two cities.

32 And from the tribe of Naph′ta·li: the city of refuge[a] for the manslayer, namely, Ke′desh[b] in Gal′i·lee with its pastures, Ham′moth-dor with its pastures, and Kar′tan with its pastures—three cities.

33 All the cities of the Ger′shon·ites by their families were 13 cities with their pastures.

34 And the families of the Merar′ites,[c] the rest of the Levites, received from the tribe of Zeb′u·lun:[d] Jok′ne·am[e] with its pastures, Kar′tah with its pastures, 35 Dim′nah with its pastures, and Na·hal′al[f] with its pastures —four cities.

36 And from the tribe of Reu′ben: Be′zer[g] with its pastures, Ja′haz with its pastures,[h] 37 Ked′e·moth with its pastures, and Meph′a·ath with its pastures—four cities.

38 And from the tribe of Gad:[i] the city of refuge for the manslayer, namely, Ra′moth in Gil′e·ad[j] with its pastures, Ma·ha·na′im[k] with its pastures, 39 Hesh′bon[l] with its pastures, and Ja′zer[m] with its pastures—a total of four cities.

40 All the cities that were allotted to the Me·rar′ites by their families, the rest of the families of the Levites, were 12 cities.

41 All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the Israelites were 48 cities together with their pastures.[n] 42 Each of these cities had its pastures all around it—this was the case for all these cities.

43 So Jehovah gave Israel all the land that he had sworn to give to their forefathers,[o] and they took possession of it and settled in it.[p] 44 Furthermore, Jehovah gave them rest on every side, just as he had sworn to their forefathers,[q] and not one of all their enemies could stand against them.[r] Jehovah gave all their enemies into their hand.[a] 45 Not a promise* failed out of all the good promises that Jehovah had made to the house of Israel; all of them came true.[b]

22 Then Joshua summoned the Reu′ben·ites, the Gad′ites, and the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh 2 and said to them: "You have done all that Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded you,[c] and you have obeyed my voice in all that I commanded you.[d] 3 You have not forsaken your brothers all this time, down to this day;[e] and you have kept the obligation of the commandment of Jehovah your God.[f] 4 Now Jehovah your God has given your brothers rest, just as he promised them.[g] So now you may return to your tents in the land that Moses the servant of Jehovah gave you to possess on the other side* of the Jordan.[h] 5 Only be very careful to carry out the commandment and the Law that Moses the servant of Jehovah gave you,[i] by loving Jehovah your God,[j] by walking in all his ways,[k] by keeping his commandments,[l] by sticking to him,[m] and by serving him[n] with all your heart and with all your soul."*[o]

6 Then Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their tents. 7 And to the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh, Moses had given an inheritance in Ba′shan,[p] and to the other half of the tribe, Joshua gave land on the west side of the Jordan,[q] along with their brothers. Moreover, when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them 8 and said to them: "Return to your tents with many riches, with very much livestock, with silver and gold, copper and iron, and garments in very great quantity.[a] Take your share of the spoil[b] of your enemies, along with your brothers."

9 After that the Reu′ben·ites, the Gad′ites, and the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh departed from the other Israelites, from Shi′loh in the land of Ca′naan, and they returned to the land of Gil′e·ad,[c] the land of their possession where they had settled at the order of Jehovah through Moses.[d] 10 When they came to the regions of the Jordan in the land of Ca′naan, the Reu′ben·ites, the Gad′ites, and the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh built an altar there by the Jordan, a large, impressive altar. 11 Later the other Israelites heard about it[e] and said: "Look! The Reu′ben·ites, the Gad′ites, and the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh have built an altar on the frontier of the land of Ca′naan in the regions of the Jordan on the side belonging to the Israelites." 12 When the Israelites heard about it, the whole assembly of the Israelites congregated at Shi′loh[f] to go to war against them.

13 Then the Israelites sent Phin′e·has[g] the son of El·e·a′zar the priest to the Reu′ben·ites, the Gad′ites, and the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh in the land of Gil′e·ad, 14 and ten chieftains were with him, one chieftain of each paternal house of all the tribes of Israel, each a head of his paternal house among the thousands* of Israel.[h] 15 When they came to the Reu′ben·ites, the Gad′ites, and the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh in the land of Gil′e·ad, they said to them:

Jehovah by building yourselves an altar and rebelling against Jehovah.[a] 17 Was the error of Pe'or not enough for us? We have not cleansed ourselves from it down to this day, even though a plague came upon the assembly of Jehovah.[b] 18 And you would turn back today from following Jehovah! If you rebel today against Jehovah, then tomorrow he will be indignant against the entire assembly of Israel.[c] 19 Now if it is because the land of your possession is unclean, cross over to the land of Jehovah's possession[d] where the tabernacle of Jehovah resides[e] and settle among us, but do not rebel against Jehovah, and do not make us rebels by building yourselves an altar in addition to the altar of Jehovah our God.[f] 20 When A'chan[g] the son of Ze'rah committed an act of unfaithfulness regarding what was devoted to destruction, did not indignation come against all the assembly of Israel?[h] And he was not the only man to die for his error.'"[i]

21 At this the Reu'ben·ites, the Gad'ites, and the half tribe of Ma·nas'seh said in answer to the heads of the thousands* of Israel:[j] 22 "The God of gods, Jehovah!* The God of gods, Jehovah![k] He knows, and Israel will also know. If we were rebellious and unfaithful to Jehovah, do not spare us this day. 23 If we built ourselves an altar to turn back from following Jehovah and to offer burnt offerings, grain offerings, and communion sacrifices on it, Jehovah will exact the penalty.[l] 24 No, it was because of another concern that we did this, for we said, 'In the future, your sons will say to our sons: "What do you have to do with Jehovah the God of Israel? 25 Jehovah has put the Jordan as a boundary between us and you, the Reu'ben·ites and the Gad'ites. You have no share in Jehovah." And your sons will hinder our sons from worshipping* Jehovah.'

26 "So we said, 'Let us by all means take action by building an altar, not for burnt offerings or sacrifices, 27 but to be a witness between you and us[a] and our descendants* after us that we will carry out our service to Jehovah before him with our burnt offerings and our sacrifices and our communion sacrifices,[b] so that your sons may not say to our sons in the future: "You have no share in Jehovah."' 28 So we said, 'If they should say that to us and to our descendants* in the future, we will then say: "See the replica of Jehovah's altar that our forefathers made, not for burnt offerings or sacrifices, but to be a witness between you and us."' 29 It is unthinkable for us to rebel against Jehovah and to turn back today from following Jehovah[c] by building an altar for burnt offerings, grain offerings, and sacrifices, other than the altar of Jehovah our God that is before his tabernacle!"[d]

30 When Phin'e·has the priest, the chieftains of the assembly, and the heads of the thousands* of Israel who were with him heard the words that the descendants of Reu'ben, Gad, and Ma·nas'seh spoke, they were satisfied.[e] 31 So Phin'e·has the son of El·e·a'zar the priest said to the descendants of Reu'ben, Gad, and Ma·nas'seh: "Today we know that Jehovah is among us, because you have not committed this act of unfaithfulness against Jehovah. Now you have saved the Israelites out of the hand of Jehovah."

32 Then Phin′e·has the son of El·e·a′zar the priest and the chieftains returned from the Reu′ben·ites and the Gad′ites in the land of Gil′e·ad to the land of Ca′naan, and they brought back word to the other Israelites. 33 And the Israelites were satisfied with the report. The Israelites then praised God, and they said nothing more about going to war against the Reu′ben·ites and the Gad′ites to destroy the land in which they were dwelling.

34 So the Reu′ben·ites and the Gad′ites named the altar,* because "it is a witness between us that Jehovah is the true God."

23 Many days after Jehovah had given Israel rest[a] from all its surrounding enemies, when Joshua was old and advanced in years,[b] 2 Joshua summoned all Israel,[c] its elders, its heads, its judges, and its officers,[d] and he said to them: "I have grown old; I am advanced in years. 3 And you have seen for yourselves all that Jehovah your God did to all these nations in your behalf because Jehovah your God was the one who was fighting for you.[e] 4 See, I assigned to you by lot*[f] the land of the nations that remain as an inheritance for your tribes,[g] as well as that of all the nations that I destroyed,[h] from the Jordan to the Great Sea# on the west.△ 5 And Jehovah your God was the one who kept thrusting them away from before you,[i] and he drove them out* for you, and you took possession of their land, just as Jehovah your God promised you.[j]

You must not even mention the names of their gods[d] nor swear by them, and you must never serve them nor bow down to them.[e] 8 But you must stick to Jehovah your God,[f] just as you have done down to this day. 9 Jehovah will drive away great and mighty nations from before you,[g] for not a man has been able to stand before you to this day.[h] 10 Just one man of you will chase a thousand,[i] because Jehovah your God is fighting for you,[j] just as he promised you.[k] 11 So be on guard constantly*[l] by loving Jehovah your God.[m]

12 "But if you should turn back at all and stick to what is left of these nations that remain[n] with you and you form marriage alliances*[o] with them and associate with them and they with you, 13 you should know for sure that Jehovah your God will not continue to drive out* these nations for you.[p] They will become a trap and a snare and a scourge on your flanks[q] and thorns in your eyes until you have perished from this good land that Jehovah your God has given you.

the good promises that Jehovah your God has spoken to you have come upon you,[a] so Jehovah will bring upon you all the calamity that he promised* and will annihilate you from this good land that Jehovah your God has given you.[b] 16 If you violate the covenant of Jehovah your God that he commanded you to keep and if you go and serve other gods and bow down to them, then Jehovah's anger will blaze against you[c] and you will quickly perish from the good land that he has given you."[d]

24 Joshua then assembled all the tribes of Israel together at She′chem and summoned the elders of Israel, its heads, its judges, and its officers,[e] and they stood before the true God. 2 Joshua said to all the people: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says, 'It was on the other side of the River* that your forefathers[f] lived a long time ago[g] —Te′rah the father of Abraham and the father of Na′hor—and they used to serve other gods.[h]

3 "'In time I took your forefather Abraham[i] from the other side of the River* and had him walk through all the land of Ca′naan and made his offspring# many.[j] I gave him Isaac;[k] 4 then to Isaac I gave Jacob and E′sau.[l] Later to E′sau I gave Mount Se′ir as his possession;[m] and Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt.[n] 5 I later sent Moses and Aaron,[o] and I plagued Egypt with what I did among them,[p] and then I brought you out. 6 When I was bringing your fathers out of Egypt[q] and you came to the sea, the Egyptians were chasing after your fathers with war chariots and cavalrymen as far as the Red Sea.[r] 7 They began to cry out to Jehovah,[a] so he placed a darkness between you and the Egyptians and brought the sea over them and covered them,[b] and your own eyes saw what I did in Egypt.[c] Then you dwelled in the wilderness many years.*[d]

8 "'And I brought you to the land of the Am′or·ites who were dwelling on the other side* of the Jordan, and they fought against you.[e] But I gave them into your hand so that you could take possession of their land, and I annihilated them from before you.[f] 9 Then Ba′lak son of Zip′por, the king of Mo′ab, rose up and fought against Israel. So he summoned Ba′laam the son of Be′or to curse you.[g] 10 But I would not listen to Ba′laam.[h] So he blessed you repeatedly,[i] and I rescued you from his hand.[j]

11 "'Then you crossed the Jordan[k] and came to Jer′i·cho.[l] And the leaders* of Jer′i·cho, the Am′or·ites, the Per′iz·zites, the Ca′naan·ites, the Hit′tites, the Gir′ga·shites, the Hi′vites, and the Jeb′u·sites fought against you, but I gave them into your hand.[m] 12 So I sent the feeling of dejection* ahead of you, and it drove them out from before you[n]—two kings of the Am′or·ites. It was not by your sword and not by your bow.[o] 13 Thus I gave you a land for which you had not toiled and cities that you had not built,[p] and you settled in them. River* and in Egypt,[a] and serve Jehovah. 15 Now if it seems bad to you to serve Jehovah, choose for yourselves today whom you will serve,[b] whether the gods that your forefathers served on the other side of the River*[c] or the gods of the Am′or·ites in whose land you are dwelling.[d] But as for me and my household, we will serve Jehovah."

16 At this the people answered: "It is unthinkable for us to abandon Jehovah and to serve other gods. 17 It is Jehovah our God who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt,[e] out of the house of slavery,[f] and who performed these great signs before our eyes[g] and who kept guarding us the entire way in which we walked and among all the peoples through whom we passed.[h] 18 Jehovah drove out all the peoples, including the Am′or·ites, who lived in the land before us. Therefore, we too will serve Jehovah, because he is our God."

19 Then Joshua said to the people: "You are not able to serve Jehovah, for he is a holy God;[i] he is a God who requires exclusive devotion.[j] He will not pardon your transgressions* and your sins.[k] 20 If you abandon Jehovah and serve foreign gods, he will also turn against you and exterminate you after doing good for you."[l]

21 But the people said to Joshua: "No, but we will serve Jehovah!"[m] 22 So Joshua said to the people: "You are witnesses against yourselves that of your own accord, you have chosen for yourselves to serve Jehovah."[n] To this they said: "We are witnesses."

23 "Therefore, remove the foreign gods that are among you, and incline your hearts to Jehovah the God of Israel." 24 The people said to Joshua: "We will serve Jehovah our God, and we will obey his voice!"

25 So Joshua made a covenant with the people on that day and established a regulation and a ruling for them in She′chem. 26 Then Joshua wrote these words in the book of God's Law[a] and took a great stone[b] and set it up under the large tree that is by the sanctuary of Jehovah.

27 Joshua went on to say to all the people: "Look! This stone will serve as a witness against us,[c] because it has heard everything Jehovah said to us, and it will serve as a witness against you, so that you may not deny your God." 28 With that Joshua sent the people away, each one to his inheritance.[d]

29 After these things, Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Jehovah, died at the age of 110.[e] 30 So they buried him in the territory of his inheritance in Tim′nath-se′rah,[f] which is in the mountainous region of E′phra·im, north of Mount Ga′ash. 31 Israel continued to serve Jehovah all the days of Joshua and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua and who had known all of Jehovah's deeds in behalf of Israel.[g]

32 The bones of Joseph,[h] which the Israelites had brought up out of Egypt, were buried in She′chem in the portion of the field that Jacob had acquired from the sons of Ha′mor,[i] She′chem's father, for 100 pieces of money;[j] and it became the inheritance of the sons of Joseph.[k]

33 Also, El·e·a′zar the son of Aaron died.[l] So they buried him in the Hill of Phin′e·has his son,[m] which had been given to him in the mountainous region of E′phra·im.

1 After the death of Joshua,[a] the Israelites* inquired of Jehovah:[b] "Who of us will go up first to fight against the Ca'naan·ites?" 2 Jehovah replied: "Judah will go up.[c] Look! I am giving* the land into his hand." 3 Then Judah said to his brother Sim'e·on: "Come up with me into my assigned territory*[d] to fight against the Ca'naan·ites. Then I will go with you into your assigned territory." So Sim'e·on went with him.

4 When Judah went up, Jehovah gave the Ca'naan·ites and the Per'iz·zites into their hands,[e] and they defeated 10,000 men in Be'zek. 5 They found A·do'ni-be'zek in Be'zek, and there they fought against him and defeated the Ca'naan·ites[f] and the Per'iz·zites.[g] 6 When A·do'ni-be'zek fled, they chased him and caught him and cut off his thumbs and his big toes. 7 Then A·do'ni-be'zek said: "There are 70 kings whose thumbs and big toes were cut off and who are picking up food under my table. Just as I have done, so God has repaid me." After that they brought him to Jerusalem,[h] and he died there.

8 Furthermore, the men of Judah fought against Jerusalem[i] and captured it; they struck it with the sword and set the city on fire. 9 Afterward, the men of Judah went down to fight against the Ca'naan·ites inhabiting the mountainous region and the Neg'eb and the She·phe'lah.[j] 10 So Judah marched against the Ca'naan·ites who were dwelling in Heb'ron (the name of Heb'ron was previously Kir'i·ath-ar'ba), and they struck down She'shai, A·hi'man, and Tal'mai.[k]

11 They marched from there against the inhabitants of De'bir.[l] (The name of De'bir was previously Kir'i·ath-se'pher.)[a] 12 Then Ca'leb[b] said: "To the man who strikes Kir'i·ath-se'pher and captures it, I will give my daughter Ach'sah as a wife."[c] 13 And Oth'ni·el[d] the son of Ke'naz,[e] Ca'leb's younger brother, captured it. So he gave him his daughter Ach'sah as a wife. 14 While she was going home, she urged him to ask her father for a field. Then she dismounted from her donkey.* Ca'leb asked her: "What do you want?" 15 She said to him: "Please grant me a blessing, for you have given me a piece of land in the south;* give me also Gul'loth-ma'im."[#] So Ca'leb gave her Upper Gul'loth and Lower Gul'loth.

16 And the descendants of the Ken'ite,[f] Moses' father-in-law,[g] came up from the city of palm trees[h] with the people of Judah to the wilderness of Judah south of A'rad.[i] They went there and settled among the people.[j] 17 But Judah marched on with his brother Sim'e·on, and they attacked the Ca'naan·ites inhabiting Ze'phath and devoted it to destruction.[k] So they named the city Hor'mah.[l] 18 Then Judah captured Gaz'a[m] and its territory, Ash'ke·lon[n] and its territory, and Ek'ron[o] and its territory. 19 Jehovah was with Judah, and they took possession of the mountainous region, but they could not drive out the inhabitants of the plain, because they had war chariots with iron scythes.[#p] 20 They gave Heb'ron to Ca'leb, just as Moses had promised,[q] and he drove out from there the three sons of A'nak.[r]

21 But the Ben′ja·min·ites did not drive out the Jeb′u·sites inhabiting Jerusalem, so the Jeb′u·sites continue dwelling with the Ben′ja·min·ites in Jerusalem down to this day.[a]

22 Meantime, the house of Joseph[b] went up against Beth′el, and Jehovah was with them.[c] 23 The house of Joseph was spying on Beth′el (incidentally, the name of the city was previously Luz),[d] 24 and the spies saw a man going out of the city. So they said to him: "Show us, please, the way into the city, and we will treat you kindly."* 25 So the man showed them the way into the city, and they struck the city with the sword, but they let the man and all his family go free.[e] 26 The man went to the land of the Hit′tites and built a city and named it Luz, which is its name to this day.

27 Ma·nas′seh did not take possession of Beth-she′an and its dependent* towns, Ta′a·nach[f] and its dependent towns, the inhabitants of Dor and its dependent towns, the inhabitants of Ib′le·am and its dependent towns, and the inhabitants of Me·gid′do and its dependent towns.[g] The Ca′naan·ites persisted in dwelling in this land. 28 When Israel grew stronger, they subjected the Ca′naan·ites to forced labor,[h] but they did not drive them out completely.[i]

29 Nor did E′phra·im drive out the Ca′naan·ites who were dwelling in Ge′zer. The Ca′naan·ites continued to dwell among them in Ge′zer.[j]

30 Zeb′u·lun did not drive out the inhabitants of Kit′ron and the inhabitants of Na′ha·lol.[k] The Ca′naan·ites continued to dwell among them and were subjected to forced labor.[l]

31 Ash′er did not drive out the inhabitants of Ac′co and the inhabitants of Si′don,[a] Ah′lab, Ach′zib,[b] Hel′bah, A′phik,[c] and Re′hob.[d] 32 So the Ash′er·ites continued to dwell among the Ca′naan·ites inhabiting the land, because they did not drive them out.

33 Naph′ta·li did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth-she′mesh and the inhabitants of Beth-a′nath,[e] but they continued to dwell among the Ca′naan·ites inhabiting the land.[f] The inhabitants of Beth-she′mesh and Beth-a′nath became forced laborers for them.

34 The Am′or·ites confined the Dan′ites to the mountainous region, for they would not let them come down into the plain.[g] 35 So the Am′or·ites persisted in dwelling in Mount He′res, Ai′ja·lon,[h] and Sha·al′bim.[i] But when the power of the house of Joseph increased,# they were forced into hard labor. 36 The territory of the Am′or·ites was from the ascent of A·krab′bim,[j] from Se′la upward.

2 Then Jehovah's angel[k] went up from Gil′gal[l] to Bo′chim and said: "I brought you up out of Egypt into the land about which I swore to your forefathers.[m] Furthermore, I said, 'I will never break my covenant with you.[n] 2 For your part, you must not make a covenant with the inhabitants of this land[o] and you should pull down their altars.'[p] But you have not obeyed my voice.[q] Why have you done this? 3 That is why I also said, 'I will not drive them away from before you,[r] and they will ensnare you,[s] and their gods will lure you away.'"[t] elites, the people began to weep loudly. 5 So they named that place Bo′chim,* and they sacrificed there to Jehovah.

6 When Joshua sent the people away, each of the Israelites went to his inheritance to take possession of the land.[a] 7 The people continued to serve Jehovah all the days of Joshua and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua and who had seen all of Jehovah's great deeds in behalf of Israel.[b] 8 Then Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Jehovah, died at the age of 110.[c] 9 So they buried him in the territory of his inheritance in Tim′nath-he′res,[d] in the mountainous region of E′phra·im, north of Mount Ga′ash.[e] 10 All that generation were gathered to their ancestors,* and another generation arose after them that did not know Jehovah or what he had done for Israel.

11 So the Israelites did what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah and served* the Ba′als.[f] 12 Thus they abandoned Jehovah, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt.[g] And they followed other gods, the gods of the peoples who were all around them,[h] and they bowed down to them and offended Jehovah.[i] 13 They abandoned Jehovah and served Ba′al and the Ash′to·reth images.[j] 14 At this Jehovah's anger blazed against Israel, so he handed them over to plunderers who pillaged them.[k] He sold them into the hand of the enemies around them,[l] and they were no longer able to hold their own against their enemies.[m] 15 Wherever they went, the hand of Jehovah was against them, bringing disaster on them,[n] just as Jehovah had said and just as Jehovah had sworn to them,[a] and they were in great distress.[b] 16 So Jehovah would raise up judges who would save them from the hand of their plunderers.[c]

17 But they refused to listen even to the judges and would prostitute themselves to other gods and bow down to them. They quickly turned aside from the way in which their forefathers had walked, those who had obeyed the commandments of Jehovah.[d] They failed to do that. 18 Whenever Jehovah did raise up judges for them,[e] Jehovah would be with the judge and save them from the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for Jehovah was moved to pity*[f] over their groaning caused by those who oppressed them[g] and those who were treating them abusively.

19 But when the judge died, they would again act more corruptly than their fathers by following other gods, serving them and bowing down to them.[h] They did not abandon their practices and their stubborn behavior. 20 Finally Jehovah's anger blazed against Israel,[i] and he said: "Because this nation has violated my covenant[j] that I commanded their forefathers and they have disobeyed me,[k] 21 I for my part will not drive out from before them even one of the nations that Joshua left behind when he died.[l] 22 This is to test whether Israel will keep Jehovah's way[m] by walking in it as their fathers did." 23 So Jehovah allowed these nations to remain. He did not drive them out quickly, and he did not give them into Joshua's hand.

3 These are the nations that Jehovah allowed to remain so that they could test all those of Israel who had not experienced any of the wars of Ca′naan[a] 2 (this was so that succeeding generations of Israelites would experience war, those who had not experienced such things before): 3 the five lords of the Phi·lis′tines,[b] and all the Ca′naan·ites, the Si·do′ni·ans,[c] and the Hi′vites[d] inhabiting Mount Leb′a·non[e] from Mount Ba′al-her′mon as far as Le′bo-ha′math.*[f] 4 They served as a means of testing Israel to determine whether Israel would obey Jehovah's commandments that he had given their fathers through Moses.[g] 5 So the Israelites lived among the Ca′naan·ites,[h] the Hit′tites, the Am′or·ites, the Per′iz·zites, the Hi′vites, and the Jeb′u·sites. 6 They would take their daughters as wives, and their own daughters they gave to their sons, and they began serving their gods.[i]

7 So the Israelites did what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, and they forgot Jehovah their God and were serving the Ba′als[j] and the sacred poles.[k] 8 At this Jehovah's anger blazed against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Cu′shan-rish·a·tha′im the king of Mes·o·po·ta′mi·a. The Israelites served Cu′shan-rish·a·tha′im for eight years. 9 When the Israelites called to Jehovah for help,[l] Jehovah raised up a savior to rescue the Israelites,[m] Oth′ni·el[n] the son of Ke′naz, the younger brother of Ca′leb. 10 The spirit of Jehovah came upon him,[o] and he became the judge of Israel. When he went out to battle, Jehovah gave Cu′shan-rish·a·tha′im the king of Mes·o·po·ta′mi·a* into his hand so that he prevailed over Cu′shan-rish·a·tha′im. 11 After that the land had rest* for 40 years. Then Oth′ni·el the son of Ke′naz died.

12 And once again the Israelites began doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.[a] So Jehovah let Eg′lon the king of Mo′ab[b] prevail over Israel, because they did what was bad in Jehovah's eyes. 13 Furthermore, he brought against them the Am′mon·ites[c] and the A·mal′ek·ites.[d] They attacked Israel and captured the city of palm trees.[e] 14 The Israelites served Eg′lon the king of Mo′ab for 18 years.[f] 15 Then the Israelites called to Jehovah for help,[g] so Jehovah raised up for them a savior,[h] E′hud[i] the son of Ge′ra, a Ben′ja·min·ite[j] who was left-handed.[k] In time the Israelites sent tribute through him to Eg′lon the king of Mo′ab. 16 Meanwhile, E′hud made for himself a two-edged sword, a cubit* long, and he strapped it underneath his garment on his right thigh. 17 He then presented the tribute to Eg′lon the king of Mo′ab. Now Eg′lon was a very fat man.

18 When E′hud finished presenting the tribute, he sent away the people who had carried the tribute. 19 But after reaching the carved images* at Gil′gal,[l] he himself went back and said: "I have a secret message for you, O king." So the king said: "Silence!" With that all his attendants left him. 20 So E′hud came to him as he was sitting alone in his cool roof chamber. Then E′hud said: "I have a message from God for you." So he rose up from his throne.* 21 Then E′hud drew the sword from his right thigh with his left hand and plunged it into his bel-

So they said: "He must be relieving himself* in the cool interior room." 25 They kept waiting until they were embarrassed, but when they saw that he was still not opening the doors of the roof chamber, they took the key and opened them and saw their lord fallen to the floor* dead!

26 E′hud escaped while they were lingering, and he passed by the carved images*[a] and made it safely to Se-i′rah. 27 When he arrived, he sounded the horn[b] in the mountainous region of E′phra-im;[c] and the Israelites went down out of the mountainous region, with him at their head. 28 Then he said to them: "Follow me, because Jehovah has given your enemies, the Mo′ab-ites, into your hand." So they followed him and captured the fords of the Jordan against the Mo′ab-ites, and they did not allow anyone to cross. 29 At that time they struck down about 10,000 Mo′ab-ites,[d] all strong and valiant men; not a single one escaped.[e] 30 So Mo′ab was subdued on that day under Israel's hand; and the land had rest* for 80 years.[f]

4 But after E′hud died, the Israelites again did what was bad in Jehovah's eyes.[a] 2 So Jehovah sold them into the hand of Ja′bin the king of Ca′naan,[b] who reigned in Ha′zor. The chief of his army was Sis′e-ra, who lived in Ha-ro′sheth[c] of the nations.* 3 The Israelites cried out to Jehovah,[d] because Ja′bin* had 900 war chariots with iron scythes,#[e] and he harshly oppressed the Israelites[f] for 20 years.

4 Now Deb′o-rah, a prophetess,[g] the wife of Lap′pi-doth, was judging Israel at that time. 5 She used to sit under Deb′o-rah's palm tree between Ra′mah[h] and Beth′el[i] in the mountainous region of E′phra-im; the Israelites would go up to her for judgment. 6 She sent for Ba′rak[j] the son of A-bin′o-am out of Ke′desh-naph′ta-li[k] and said to him: "Has not Jehovah the God of Israel given the command? 'Go and march to* Mount Ta′bor, and take 10,000 men of Naph′ta-li and Zeb′u-lun with you. 7 I will bring to you Sis′e-ra, the chief of Ja′bin's army, along with his war chariots and his troops to the stream* of Ki′shon,[l] and I will give him into your hand.'"[m]

8 At this Ba′rak said to her: "If you go with me, I will go, but if you do not go with me, I will not go." 9 To this she said: "I will certainly go with you. However, the campaign you are going on will not bring you glory, for it will be into the hand of a woman that Jehovah will give Sis′e-ra."[n] Then Deb′o-rah got up and went with Ba′rak to Ke′desh.[o] 10 Ba′rak summoned Zeb′u-lun and Naph′ta-li[p] to Ke′desh, and 10,000 men followed his steps. Deb′o-rah also went up with him.

4:2 *Or "Harosheth-ha-goiim." 4:3 *Lit., "he." #Lit., "chariots of iron." 4:6 *Or "Deploy your men on." 4:7 *Or "wadi."

11 Incidentally, He′ber the Ken′ite had separated from the Ken′ites,[a] the descendants of Ho′bab, Moses' father-in-law,[b] and his tent was pitched near the big tree in Za·a·nan′nim, which is at Ke′desh.

12 They reported to Sis′e·ra that Ba′rak the son of A·bin′o·am had gone up to Mount Ta′bor.[c] 13 At once Sis′e·ra assembled all his war chariots—900 chariots with iron scythes*—and all the troops that were with him from Ha·ro′sheth of the nations to go to the stream# of Ki′shon.[d] 14 Deb′o·rah now said to Ba′rak: "Rise up, for this is the day that Jehovah will give Sis′e·ra into your hand. Is Jehovah not going out before you?" And Ba′rak descended from Mount Ta′bor with 10,000 men following him. 15 Then Jehovah threw Sis′e·ra and all his war chariots and all the army into confusion[e] before the sword of Ba′rak. Finally Sis′e·ra got down from his chariot and fled on foot. 16 Ba′rak chased after the war chariots and the army as far as Ha·ro′sheth of the nations. So Sis′e·ra's whole army fell by the sword; not even one remained.[f]

17 But Sis′e·ra fled on foot to the tent of Ja′el[g] the wife of He′ber[h] the Ken′ite, for there was peace between Ja′bin[i] the king of Ha′zor and the house of He′ber the Ken′ite. 18 Then Ja′el came out to meet Sis′e·ra and said to him: "Come in, my lord, come in here. Do not be afraid." So he went into her tent, and she covered him with a blanket. 19 Then he said to her: "Give me, please, a little water to drink, for I am thirsty." So she opened a skin bottle of milk and gave him a drink,[j] after which she again covered him. 20 He told her: "Stand at the entrance of the tent, and if anybody comes and asks you, 'Is there a man here?' say, 'No!'"

21 But Ja′el the wife of He′ber took a tent pin and a hammer in her hand. Then while he was fast asleep and exhausted, she stealthily approached him and drove the pin through his temples and beat it into the ground, and he died.[a]

22 Ba′rak went there in pursuit of Sis′e·ra, and Ja′el now came out to meet him and said: "Come and I will show you the man you are looking for." He went in with her and saw Sis′e·ra lying dead, with the tent pin through his temples.

23 So on that day, God subdued Ja′bin the king of Ca′naan before the Israelites.[b] 24 The hand of the Israelites came down harder and harder against Ja′bin the king of Ca′naan,[c] until they destroyed Ja′bin the king of Ca′naan.[d]

5 On that day Deb′o·rah[e] along with Ba′rak[f] the son of A·bin′o·am sang this song:[g]

2 "Because of the unbound hair* in Israel,
Because of the people's volunteering,[h]

24 Most blessed of women is Ja′el[c]
The wife of He′ber[d] the Ken′ite;
She is most blessed of women living in tents.
25 He asked for water; she gave him milk.
In a majestic banquet bowl
she offered curdled milk.*[e] 26 With her hand she reached for the tent pin,
Her right hand for the workman’s mallet.
And she hammered Sis′e·ra,
she crushed his head,
And she smashed and pierced his temples.[f]
27 Between her feet he collapsed; he fell and lay still;
Between her feet he collapsed and fell;
Where he collapsed, there
he fell defeated.
28 From the window a woman looked out,
Sis′e·ra’s mother peered out from the lattice, ‘Why is his chariot delayed in coming?
Why are the hoofbeats of his chariots so late?’[a] 29 The wisest of her noble
ladies would answer her;
Yes, she too would repeat to herself,
30 ‘They must be dividing the spoil they found,
A girl,* two girls,# to every warrior, Spoil of dyed cloth for Sis′era, spoil of dyed cloth, An embroidered garment, dyed cloth, two embroidered garments
For the necks of the plunderers.’
31 So let all your enemies perish,[b] O Jehovah,
But let those who love you be like the sun rising in its glory.”

And the land had rest* for 40 years.[c]

6 But the Israelites again did what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah,[d] so Jehovah gave them into the hand of Mid′i·an for seven years.[e] 2 The hand of Mid′i·an dominated over Israel.[f] Because of Mid′i·an, the Israelites made hiding places* for themselves in the mountains, in the caves, and in the places difficult to approach.[g] 3 If Israel sowed seed, Mid′i·an and Am′a·lek[h] and the Easterners[i] would attack them. 4 They would camp against them and ruin the produce of the land all the way to Gaz′a, and they left nothing for Israel to eat and no sheep or bull or donkey.[j] 5 For they would come up with their livestock and tents as numerous as the locusts,[k] and they and their camels could not be numbered,[l] and they would come into the land to destroy it. 6 So Israel became greatly impoverished on account of Mid′i·an; and the Israelites called to Jehovah for help.[a]

7 When the Israelites called to Jehovah for help because of Mid′i·an,[b] 8 Jehovah sent to the Israelites a prophet who said to them: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says, 'I brought you up from Egypt and thus brought you out of the house of slavery.[c] 9 So I rescued you from the hand of Egypt and from all your oppressors and drove them out from before you and gave you their land.[d] 10 And I said to you: "I am Jehovah your God.[e] You must not fear the gods of the Am′or·ites in whose land you are dwelling."[f] But you did not obey me.'"*[g]

11 Later Jehovah's angel came[h] and sat under the big tree that was in Oph′rah, which belonged to Jo′ash the Abi-ez′rite.[i] His son Gid′e·on[j] was beating out wheat in the winepress in order to hide it from Mid′i·an. 12 Jehovah's angel appeared to him and said: "Jehovah is with you,[k] you mighty warrior." 13 At this Gid′e·on said to him: "Pardon me, my lord, but if Jehovah is with us, why has all of this come upon us?[l] Where are all his wonderful acts that our fathers related to us,[m] saying, 'Did Jehovah not bring us up out of Egypt?'[n] Now Jehovah has deserted us[o] and given us into Mid′i·an's hand." 14 Jehovah faced him and said: "Go with the strength you have, and you will save Israel out of Mid′i·an's hand.[p] Is it not I who send you?" 15 Gid′e·on answered him: "Pardon me, Jehovah. How can I save Israel? Look! My clan* is the least in Ma·nas′seh, and I am the most insignificant in my father's house." 16 But Jehovah said to him: "Because I will be with you,[a] you will strike down Mid′i·an as if they were one man."

17 Then he said to him: "If, now, I have found favor in your eyes, show me a sign that you are the one speaking with me. 18 Please do not depart from here until I return with my gift and set it before you."[b] So he said: "I will stay here until you return." 19 And Gid′e·on went in and prepared a young goat and made unleavened bread from an e′phah* of flour.[c] He put the meat in the basket and the broth in the cooking pot; then he brought them out to him and served them under the big tree.

20 The angel of the true God now said to him: "Take the meat and the unleavened bread and place them on the big rock there, and pour out the broth." And he did so. 21 Then Jehovah's angel stretched out the tip of the staff that was in his hand and touched the meat and the unleavened bread, and fire flared up from the rock and consumed the meat and the unleavened bread.[d] Jehovah's angel then vanished from his sight. 22 Gid′e·on now realized that it was Jehovah's angel.[e]

At once Gid′e·on said: "Alas, Sovereign Lord Jehovah, for I have seen Jehovah's angel face-to-face!"[f] 23 But Jehovah said to him: "Peace be with you. Have no fear;[g] you will not die." 24 So Gid′e·on built an altar there to Jehovah, and it is called Je·ho′vah-sha′lom*[h] down to this day. It is still in Oph′rah of the Abi-ez′rites.

25 That night Jehovah said to him: "Take the young bull that belongs to your father, the second young bull that is seven years old, and tear down the altar of Ba′al that belongs to your father, and cut down the sacred pole* next to it.[a] 26 After you build an altar to Jehovah your God on top of this stronghold with the row of stones, take the second young bull and offer it as a burnt offering on the pieces of wood from the sacred pole* that you cut down.” 27 So Gid′e·on took ten men of his servants and did just as Jehovah told him. But he feared the household of his father and the men of the city too much to do it by day, so he did it at night.

28 When the men of the city got up early the next morning, they saw that the altar of Ba′al had been pulled down and the sacred pole* beside it had been cut down and the second young bull had been offered up on the altar that had been built. 29 They asked one another: “Who did this?” After they investigated, they said: “Gid′e·on the son of Jo′ash did this.” 30 So the men of the city said to Jo′ash: “Bring your son out that he may die, because he pulled down the altar of Ba′al and cut down the sacred pole* next to it.” 31 Jo′ash[b] then said to all those who confronted him: “Do you have to defend Ba′al? Do you have to save him? Whoever defends him should be put to death this morning.[c] If he is a god, let him defend himself,[d] since someone pulled down his altar.” 32 And he called Gid′e·on Jer·ub·ba′al* on that day, saying: “Let Ba′al defend himself, for someone has pulled down his altar.”

33 All Mid′i·an[e] and Am′a·lek[f] and the Easterners joined forces;[g] and they crossed over* into the Valley* of Jez′re·el and camped. 34 Then Jehovah’s spirit came upon* Gid′e·on[a] and he sounded the horn,[b] and the Abi-ez′rites[c] rallied behind him. 35 He sent out messengers through all of Ma·nas′seh, and they too rallied behind him. He also sent out messengers through Ash′er, Zeb′u·lun, and Naph′ta·li, and they came up to meet him.

36 Then Gid′e·on said to the true God: “If you are saving Israel by means of me, just as you have promised,[d] 37 here I am laying a fleece of wool on the threshing floor. If there is dew on the fleece only but all the ground around it is dry, then I will know that you will save Israel by means of me, just as you have promised.” 38 And that is how it happened. When he rose up early the next day and wrung the fleece, he squeezed off enough dew from the fleece to fill a large banquet bowl with water. 39 However, Gid′e·on said to the true God: “Do not let your anger burn against me, but let me ask just once more. Let me, please, make just one more test with the fleece. Please let the fleece alone be dry while there is dew all over the ground.” 40 So that is what God did that night; only the fleece was dry, and there was dew all over the ground.

7 Then Jer·ub·ba′al, that is, Gid′e·on,[e] and all the people with him rose early and encamped at the well of Ha′rod, while the camp of Mid′i·an was north of him at the hill of Mo′reh in the valley plain.* 2 Jehovah now said to Gid′e·on: “There are too many people with you for me to give Mid′i·an into their hand.[f] Otherwise, Israel might brag about itself against me and say, 'My own hand saved me.'[a] 3 Now, please, announce in the presence of the people: 'Whoever is afraid and trembling, let him return home.'"[b] So Gid'e·on put them to the test. With that, 22,000 of the people returned home, and 10,000 remained.

4 Still Jehovah said to Gid'e·on: "There are yet too many people. Have them go down to the water so that I may test them for you there. When I say to you, 'This one will go with you,' he will go with you, but when I say to you, 'This one will not go along with you,' he will not go along." 5 So he took the people down to the water.

Then Jehovah said to Gid'e·on: "Separate everyone who laps up the water with his tongue just as a dog laps, from those who bend down on their knees to drink." 6 The number of those lapping up the water, putting their hand to their mouth, was 300 men. The rest of the people bent down on their knees to drink.

7 Jehovah now said to Gid'e·on: "I will save you with the 300 men who lapped the water, and I will give Mid'i·an into your hand.[c] But let all the other people go back home." 8 So after they took the provisions and the horns from the people, he sent all the other men of Israel back home, and he kept only the 300 men. The camp of Mid'i·an was below him in the valley plain.[d]

9 During that night, Jehovah said to him: "Get up, attack the camp, for I have given it into your hand.[e] 10 But if you are afraid to attack, go down to the camp with Pu'rah your attendant. 11 Listen to what they say, and afterward you will have the courage* to attack the camp." At that he and Pu'rah his attendant went down to the edge of the encamped army.

12 Now Mid'i·an and Am'a·lek and all the Easterners[a] covered the valley plain like a swarm of locusts, and their camels were without number,[b] as many as the grains of sand on the seashore. 13 Gid'e·on now came, and there was a man relating a dream to his companion, and he said: "This is the dream I had. There was a round loaf of barley bread rolling into the camp of Mid'i·an. It came to a tent and struck it so hard that it collapsed.[c] Yes, it turned the tent upside down, and the tent fell flat." 14 At this his companion said: "This can only be the sword of Gid'e·on[d] the son of Jo'ash, a man of Israel. God has given Mid'i·an and all the camp into his hand."[e]

15 As soon as Gid'e·on heard him relate the dream and its interpretation,[f] he bowed down to worship. After that he returned to the camp of Israel and said: "Get up, for Jehovah has given the camp of Mid'i·an into your hand." 16 Then he divided the 300 men into three bands and gave all of them horns[g] and large empty jars with torches inside the jars. 17 Then he said to them: "Watch me and do exactly what I do. When I come to the edge of the camp, you should do just as I do. 18 When I blow the horn, I and all who are with me, you also must blow the horns all around the camp and shout, 'For Jehovah and for Gid'e·on!'"

19 Gid'e·on and the 100 men who were with him came to the edge of the camp at the start of the middle night watch,* just after the sentries were posted. They blew the horns[h] and smashed the large water jars that were in their hands.[a] 20 So the three bands blew the horns and shattered the large jars. They held the torches in their left hands and blew the horns in their right hands and they called out: "The sword of Jehovah and of Gid'e·on!" 21 All the while each man stood in his place all around the camp, and the whole army ran away, shouting as they fled.[b] 22 The 300 continued to blow the horns, and Jehovah turned the sword of each one against the other throughout the camp;[c] and the army fled as far as Beth-shit'tah, on to Zer'e·rah, as far as the outskirts of A'bel-me·ho'lah[d] by Tab'bath.

23 And the men of Israel were called together from Naph'ta·li, Ash'er, and all of Ma·nas'seh,[e] and they chased after Mid'i·an. 24 Gid'e·on sent messengers into all the mountainous region of E'phra·im, saying: "Go down to attack Mid'i·an, and capture the access to the waters as far as Beth-bar'ah and the Jordan." So all the men of E'phra·im were gathered together, and they captured the waters as far as Beth-bar'ah and the Jordan. 25 They also captured the two princes of Mid'i·an, O'reb and Ze'eb; they killed O'reb on the rock of O'reb,[f] and they killed Ze'eb at the winepress of Ze'eb. They kept on pursuing Mid'i·an,[g] and they brought the heads of O'reb and Ze'eb to Gid'e·on in the region of the Jordan.

8 Then the men of E'phra·im said to him: "What have you done to us? Why did you not call us when you went to fight against Mid'i·an?"[h] And they quarreled bitterly with him.[i] 2 But he said to them: "What have I done compared with you? Are not the gleanings of E'phra·im[j] better than the grape harvest of Abi-e'zer?[a] 3 It was into your hand that God gave Mid'i·an's princes O'reb and Ze'eb,[b] and what have I done compared with you?" When he spoke this way,* the men calmed down.#

4 Gid'e·on then came to the Jordan and crossed it. He and the 300 men with him were tired, but they kept up the pursuit. 5 So he said to the men of Suc'coth: "Please give loaves of bread to the people following me, for they are tired and I am chasing after Ze'bah and Zal·mun'na, the kings of Mid'i·an." 6 But the princes of Suc'coth said: "Are the palms of Ze'bah and Zal·mun'na already in your hand so that we should give bread to your army?" 7 At this Gid'e·on said: "Just for that, when Jehovah gives Ze'bah and Zal·mun'na into my hand, I will give you a thrashing with the thorns and the briars of the wilderness."[c] 8 And he went up from there to Pe·nu'el and made the same request, but the men of Pe·nu'el gave him the same answer as the men of Suc'coth. 9 So he said also to the men of Pe·nu'el: "When I return in peace, I will pull down this tower."[d]

10 Now Ze'bah and Zal·mun'na were in Kar'kor with their armies, about 15,000 men. These were all who remained of the entire army of the Easterners,[e] for 120,000 men armed with swords had fallen. 11 Gid'e·on continued up by the way of the tent dwellers east of No'bah and Jog'be·hah[f] and attacked the camp, which was off guard. 12 When Ze'bah and Zal·mun'na fled, he pursued and captured the two Mid'i·an·ite kings, Ze'bah and Zal·mun'na, throwing the whole camp into a panic.

13 Gid′e·on the son of Jo′ash then returned from the war by way of the pass that goes up to He′res. 14 En route he captured and interrogated a young man from Suc′coth. So the young man wrote out for him the names of the princes and elders of Suc′coth, 77 men. 15 With that he went to the men of Suc′coth and said: "Here are Ze′bah and Zal·mun′na about whom you taunted me, saying, 'Are the palms of Ze′bah and Zal·mun′na already in your hand so that we should give bread to your exhausted men?'"[a] 16 Then he took the elders of the city and with thorns and briars of the wilderness, he taught the men of Suc′coth a lesson.[b] 17 And he pulled down the tower of Pe·nu′el[c] and killed the men of the city.

18 He asked Ze′bah and Zal·mun′na: "What sort of men did you kill in Ta′bor?" To this they said: "They were like you, each one looked like the son of a king." 19 At that he said: "They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As surely as Jehovah lives, if you had spared their lives, I would not have to kill you." 20 Then he said to Je′ther his firstborn: "Get up, kill them." But the young man did not draw his sword; he was afraid, for he was still a young man. 21 So Ze′bah and Zal·mun′na said: "Get up yourself and slay us, for a man is judged by his mightiness."* So Gid′e·on got up and killed Ze′bah and Zal·mun′na[d] and took the crescent-shaped ornaments that were on the necks of their camels.

22 Later the men of Israel said to Gid′e·on: "Rule over us, you and your son and your grandson as well, for you saved us out of the hand of Mid′i·an."[e]

23 But Gid′e·on said to them: "I will not rule over you, nor will my son rule over you. Jehovah is the one who will rule over you."[a] 24 Gid′e·on continued: "Let me make one request of you: that each of you give me a nose ring from his spoil." (For they had gold nose rings because they were Ish′ma·el·ites.)[b] 25 They replied: "We will surely give them." With that they spread out a robe and each man threw a nose ring from his spoil on it. 26 The weight of the gold nose rings that he had requested amounted to 1,700 gold shekels,* besides the crescent-shaped ornaments, the pendants, the purple wool garments worn by the kings of Mid′i·an, and the necklaces from the camels.[c]

27 Gid′e·on made it into an eph′od[d] and exhibited it in his city Oph′rah;[e] and all Israel committed spiritual prostitution with it there,[f] and it served as a snare to Gid′e·on and to his household.[g]

28 Thus Mid′i·an[h] was subdued before the Israelites, and they did not challenge them* again; and the land had rest# for 40 years in the days of Gid′e·on.[i]

29 So Jer·ub·ba′al[j] the son of Jo′ash returned to his home and stayed there.

30 Gid′e·on became father to 70 sons,* for he had many wives. 31 His concubine in She′chem also bore him a son, and he named him A·bim′e·lech.[k] 32 And Gid′e·on the son of Jo′ash died at a good old age and was buried in the tomb of Jo′ash his father in Oph′rah of the Abi-ez′rites.[l]

33 As soon as Gid′e·on died, the Israelites again committed spiritual prostitution with the Ba′als,[a] and they appointed Ba′al-be′rith as their god.[b] 34 The Israelites did not remember Jehovah their God,[c] who had rescued them from the hand of all their enemies around them;[d] 35 nor did they show loyal love toward the household of Jer·ub·ba′al, that is Gid′e·on, in return for all the good that he had done for Israel.[e]

9 In time A·bim′e·lech[f] the son of Jer·ub·ba′al went to his mother's brothers in She′chem, and he said to them and to all the family of his grandfather:* 2 "Please ask all the leaders* of She′chem, 'Which is better for you, for all 70 sons of Jer·ub·ba′al[g] to rule over you or for one man to rule over you? And remember that I am your own bone and flesh.'"# 3 So his mother's brothers said this in his behalf to all the leaders of She′chem, and their hearts were inclined to follow A·bim′e·lech, for they said: "He is our own brother." 4 Then they gave him 70 pieces of silver from the house* of Ba′al-be′rith,[h] and A·bim′e·lech used it to hire idle and insolent men to accompany him. 5 After that he went to his father's house at Oph′rah[i] and killed his brothers,[j] the sons of Jer·ub·ba′al, 70 men, on one stone. The only survivor was Jo′tham, the youngest son of Jer·ub·ba′al, because he hid.

6 Then all the leaders of She′chem and all Beth-mil′lo gathered together and made A·bim′e·lech king,[k] close by the big tree, by the pillar that was in She′chem.

7 When they reported it to Jo′tham, he at once went and stood on the top of Mount Ger′i·zim[a] and called out in a loud voice to them: "Listen to me, you leaders of She′chem, and then God will listen to you.

8 "Once there were trees that went to anoint a king over them. So they said to the olive tree, 'Rule over us.'[b] 9 But the olive tree said to them, 'Must I give up my oil,* which they use to glorify God and men, to go and wave over the other trees?' 10 Then the trees said to the fig tree, 'Come and rule over us.' 11 But the fig tree said to them, 'Must I give up my sweetness and my good fruitage to go and wave over the other trees?' 12 Next the trees said to the vine, 'Come and rule over us.' 13 The vine replied to them, 'Must I give up my new wine that makes God and men rejoice to go and wave over the trees?' 14 Finally all the other trees said to the bramble, 'Come and rule over us.'[c] 15 At this the bramble said to the trees, 'If you are really anointing me as king over you, come and seek refuge under my shadow. But if not, let fire come out of the bramble and consume the cedars of Leb′a·non.'

16 "Now have you acted sincerely and honorably in making A·bim′e·lech king,[d] and have you shown goodness toward Jer·ub·ba′al and his household, and have you treated him as he deserves? 17 When my father fought for you,[e] he risked his life* to save you from Mid′i·an's hand.[f] 18 But today you have risen up against my father's household and killed his sons, 70 men, on one stone.[g] Then you made A·bim′e·lech, the son of his slave girl,[h] king over the leaders of She′chem just because he is your brother. 19 Yes, if you are acting sincerely and honorably toward Jer·ub·ba′al and his household this day, rejoice over A·bim′e·lech and let him also rejoice over you. 20 But if not, may fire come out of A·bim′e·lech and consume the leaders of She′chem and Beth-mil′lo,[a] and may fire come out of the leaders of She′chem and Beth-mil′lo and consume A·bim′e·lech."[b]

21 Then Jo′tham[c] fled and escaped to Be′er, and he lived there because of his brother A·bim′e·lech.

22 A·bim′e·lech ruled* over Israel for three years. 23 Then God let hostility develop* between A·bim′e·lech and the leaders of She′chem, and they dealt treacherously with A·bim′e·lech. 24 This was so that the violence done to the 70 sons of Jer·ub·ba′al might be avenged, so as to place responsibility for their blood on their brother A·bim′e·lech for killing them[d] and on the leaders of She′chem for helping him to kill his brothers. 25 So the leaders of She′chem set men to ambush him on the mountaintops, and they would rob everyone who passed by them on the road. In time it was reported to A·bim′e·lech.

26 Then Ga′al son of E′bed and his brothers crossed over into She′chem,[e] and the leaders of She′chem put their trust in him. 27 They went out into the field and gathered the grapes of their vineyards, trod them out, and held a festival, after which they went into the house of their god[f] and ate and drank and cursed A·bim′e·lech. 28 Then Ga′al the son of E′bed said: "Who is A·bim′e·lech, and who is She′chem that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jer·ub·ba′al,[g] and is not Ze′bul his commissioner? Serve the men of Ha′mor, She′chem's father! But why should we serve him? 29 If only this people were under my command, I would depose A·bim′e·lech." Then he said to A·bim′e·lech: "Increase your army and come out."

30 When Ze′bul the prince of the city heard the words of Ga′al the son of E′bed, his anger blazed. 31 So he secretly* sent messengers to A·bim′e·lech, saying: "Look! Ga′al the son of E′bed and his brothers are now in She′chem, and here they are inciting the city against you. 32 Now come up by night, you and your men, and lie in wait in the field. 33 As soon as the sun rises in the morning, you should get up early and attack the city; and when he and his men come out against you, do whatever you can to defeat him."*

34 So A·bim′e·lech and all the people with him rose up by night, and in four bands they lay in wait against She′chem. 35 When Ga′al the son of E′bed went out and stood at the entrance of the city gate, A·bim′e·lech and the people with him rose up from the ambush. 36 When Ga′al saw the people, he said to Ze′bul: "Look! There are people coming down from the mountaintops." But Ze′bul said to him: "You are seeing the shadows of the mountains as if they were men."

37 Ga′al later said: "Look! People are coming down from the center of the land, and one band is coming by the way of the big tree of Me·on′e·nim." 38 Ze′bul replied to him: "Where now is your boast, 'Who is A·bim′e·lech that we should serve him?'[a] Are these not the people you rejected? Go out now and fight against them."

39 So Ga′al went out at the head of the leaders of She′chem and fought against A·bim′e·lech. 40 A·bim′e·lech pursued him, and Ga′al fled from him, and many fell slain as far as the entrance of the city gate.

41 And A·bim′e·lech continued to dwell in A·ru′mah, and Ze′bul[a] drove Ga′al and his brothers out of She′chem. 42 The next day the people went out into the field, and A·bim′e·lech was told about it. 43 So he took the people and divided them into three bands and lay in wait in the field. When he saw the people going out of the city, he attacked them and struck them down. 44 A·bim′e·lech and the bands with him charged forward and took a position at the entrance of the city gate, while two bands attacked all who were in the field, and they struck them down. 45 A·bim′e·lech fought against the city all that day and captured it. He killed the people in it, and then he pulled the city down[b] and sowed it with salt.

46 When all the leaders of the tower of She′chem heard about this, they immediately went to the vault* of the house# of El·be′rith.[c] 47 As soon as it was reported to A·bim′e·lech that all the leaders of the tower of She′chem had gathered together, 48 A·bim′e·lech and all the men with him went up Mount Zal′mon. A·bim′e·lech took an ax in his hand and cut off a tree branch and lifted it on his shoulder and said to the people with him: "What you saw me do, hurry and do the same!" 49 So all the people also cut off branches and followed A·bim′e·lech. Then they put the branches against the vault and set the vault on fire. So all the people of the tower of She′chem also died, about 1,000 men and women.

50 A·bim′e·lech then went to The′bez; he camped against The′bez and captured it. 51 There was a strong tower in the middle of the city, and all the men and women and all the city leaders fled there. They shut themselves in and climbed onto the roof of the tower. 52 A·bim′e·lech made his way to the tower and attacked it. He approached the entrance of the tower to set it on fire. 53 Then one of the women dropped an upper millstone on A·bim′e·lech's head and crushed his skull.[a] 54 He quickly called the attendant bearing his weapons and said to him: "Draw your sword and put me to death, so that they may not say about me, 'A woman killed him.'" So his attendant ran him through, and he died.

55 When the men of Israel saw that A·bim′e·lech was dead, they all went back home. 56 Thus God repaid A·bim′e·lech for the evil that he had done to his father by killing his 70 brothers.[b] 57 God also made all the evil of the men of She′chem come back on their own heads. So the curse of Jo′tham[c] the son of Jer·ub·ba′al[d] came upon them.

10 After A·bim′e·lech, To′la the son of Pu′ah, the son of Do′do, a man of Is′sa·char, rose up to save Israel.[e] He lived in Sha′mir in the mountainous region of E′phra·im. 2 He judged Israel for 23 years. Then he died and was buried in Sha′mir.

3 After him Ja′ir the Gil′e·adite rose up and judged Israel for 22 years. 4 He had 30 sons who rode on 30 donkeys, and they had 30 cities, which to this day are called Hav′voth-ja′ir;[f] they are in the land of Gil′e·ad. 5 After that Ja′ir died and was buried in Ka′mon.

6 Again the Israelites did what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah,[a] and they began to serve the Ba′als,[b] the Ash′to·reth images, the gods of A′ram,* the gods of Si′don, the gods of Mo′ab,[c] the gods of the Am′monites,[d] and the gods of the Phi·lis′tines.[e] They abandoned Jehovah and did not serve him. 7 Then Jehovah's anger blazed against Israel, and he sold them into the hands of the Phi·lis′tines and the Am′mon·ites.[f] 8 So they crushed and greatly oppressed the Israelites in that year—for 18 years they oppressed all the Israelites on the side of the Jordan that had been the land of the Am′or·ites in Gil′e·ad. 9 The Am′mon·ites would also cross the Jordan to fight against Judah and Benjamin and the house of E′phra·im; and Israel was greatly distressed. 10 Then the Israelites called to Jehovah for help,[g] saying: "We have sinned against you, for we abandoned our God and served the Ba′als."[h]

11 But Jehovah said to the Israelites: "Did I not save you from Egypt[i] and from the Am′or·ites,[j] the Am′mon·ites, the Phi·lis′tines,[k] 12 the Si·do′ni·ans, Am′a·lek, and Mid′i·an when they oppressed you? When you cried out to me, I saved you out of their hand. 13 But you abandoned me and served other gods.[l] That is why I will not save you again.[m] 14 Go to the gods whom you have chosen and call for help.[n] Let them save you in your time of distress."[o] 15 But the Israelites said to Jehovah: "We have sinned. Do to us whatever is good in your eyes. Only save us, please, this day." 16 And they removed the foreign gods from their midst and served Jehovah,[p] so that he could no longer tolerate* Israel's suffering.[q]

17 In time the Am′mon·ites[a] were called together, and they pitched camp in Gil′e·ad. So the Israelites gathered together and pitched camp in Miz′pah. 18 The people and the princes of Gil′e·ad said to one another: "Who will take the lead in fighting against the Am′mon·ites?[b] Let him become the chief over all the inhabitants of Gil′e·ad."

11 Now Jeph′thah[c] the Gil′e·ad·ite was a mighty warrior; he was the son of a prostitute, and Gil′e·ad was Jeph′thah's father. 2 But Gil′e·ad's wife also bore him sons. When the sons of his wife grew up, they drove Jeph′thah out and said to him: "You will have no inheritance in our father's household, for you are the son of another woman." 3 So Jeph′thah fled from his brothers and settled in the land of Tob. And idle men joined company with Jeph′thah, and they followed him.

4 After a while, the Am′mon·ites fought against Israel.[d] 5 And when the Am′mon·ites fought against Israel, the elders of Gil′e·ad immediately went to bring Jeph′thah back from the land of Tob. 6 They said to Jeph′thah: "Come and serve as our commander, so that we can fight against the Am′mon·ites." 7 But Jeph′thah said to the elders of Gil′e·ad: "Was it not you who hated me so much that you drove me out of my father's house?[e] Why have you come to me now when you are in distress?" 8 At this the elders of Gil′e·ad said to Jeph′thah: "That is why now we have returned to you. If you go with us and fight against the Am′mon·ites, you will become our leader over all the inhabitants of Gil′e·ad."[f] 9 So Jeph′thah said to the elders of Gil′e·ad: "If you bring me back to fight against the Am′mon·ites and Jehovah defeats them for me, then I will indeed become your leader!" 10 The elders of Gil′e·ad said to Jeph′thah: "Let Jehovah be the witness* between us if we do not do as you say." 11 So Jeph′thah went with the elders of Gil′e·ad, and the people made him their leader and commander. And Jeph′thah repeated all his words before Jehovah in Miz′pah.[a] 12 Jeph′thah then sent messengers to the king of the Am′mon·ites,[b] saying: "What do you have against me* that you have come to attack my land?" 13 So the king of the Am′mon·ites said to the messengers of Jeph′thah: "It is because Israel took my land when they came up out of Egypt,[c] from the Ar′non[d] to the Jab′bok and as far as the Jordan.[e] Now return it peaceably." 14 But Jeph′thah sent messengers back to the king of the Am′mon·ites 15 to say to him:

"This is what Jeph′thah says: 'Israel did not take the land of the Mo′ab·ites[f] and the land of the Am′mon·ites,[g] 16 for when they came up out of Egypt, Israel walked through the wilderness as far as the Red Sea[h] and came to Ka′desh.[i] 17 Then Israel sent messengers to the king of E′dom,[j] saying: "Please let us pass through your land," but the king of E′dom did not listen. Also to the king of Mo′ab[k] they sent word, but he did not consent. So Israel kept dwelling in Ka′desh.[l] 18 When they walked through the wilderness, they bypassed the land of E′dom[m] and the land of Mo′ab. They traveled east of the land of Mo′ab[n] and camped in the region of the Ar′non; they did not come within the boundary of Mo′ab,[o] for the Ar′non was the boundary of Mo′ab.

23 "'It was Jehovah the God of Israel who drove out the Am′or·ites from before his people Israel,[e] and now would you drive them out? 24 Do you not possess whatever your god Che′mosh[f] gives you to possess? Let Jehovah the Judge[k] be judge today between the people of Israel and the people of Am′mon.'"

28 But the king of the Am′mon·ites would not listen to the message that Jeph′thah sent to him.

11:26 *Or "surrounding."

29 Jehovah's spirit came upon Jeph′thah,[a] and he passed through Gil′e·ad and Ma·nas′seh to go to Miz′peh of Gil′e·ad,[b] and from Miz′peh of Gil′e·ad he continued on to the Am′mon·ites.

30 Then Jeph′thah made a vow[c] to Jehovah and said: "If you give the Am′mon·ites into my hand, 31 then whoever comes out of the door of my house to meet me when I return in peace from the Am′mon·ites will become Jehovah's,[d] and I will offer that one up as a burnt offering."[e]

32 So Jeph′thah went to fight against the Am′mon·ites, and Jehovah gave them into his hand. 33 He struck them down with a very great slaughter from A·ro′er all the way to Min′nith—20 cities—and as far as A′bel-ker′a·mim. Thus the Am′mon·ites were subdued before the Israelites.

34 Finally Jeph′thah came to his home in Miz′pah,[f] and look! his daughter was coming out to meet him, playing the tambourine and dancing! Now she was his one and only child. Besides her, he had neither son nor daughter. 35 When he saw her, he ripped his garments and said: "Oh no, my daughter! You have broken my heart,* for you have become the one I have banished. Now I have opened my mouth to Jehovah, and I am unable to turn back."[g]

36 But she said to him: "My father, if you have opened your mouth to Jehovah, do to me as you have promised,[h] since Jehovah has executed vengeance for you upon your enemies, the Am′mon·ites." 37 She then said to her father: "Let this be done for me: Let me be alone for two months, and let me go away into the mountains, and let me weep over my virginity with my female companions."*

38 At this he said: "Go!" So he sent her away for two months, and she went to the mountains with her companions to weep over her virginity. 39 At the end of two months, she returned to her father, after which he carried out the vow he had made regarding her.[a] She never had relations with a man. And it became a custom* in Israel: 40 From year to year, the young women of Israel would go to give commendation to the daughter of Jeph′thah the Gil′e·ad·ite four days in the year.

12 Then the men of E′phra·im were summoned, and they crossed over to Za′phon* and said to Jeph′thah: "Why did you not call us to go with you when you crossed over to fight against the Am′mon·ites?[b] We will burn your house down with you in it." 2 But Jeph′thah said to them: "Along with my people, I was engaged in a great conflict with the Am′mon·ites. I did call to you for help, but you did not save me from their hand. 3 When I saw that you would not save me, then I decided to risk my life* and go against the Am′mon·ites,[c] and Jehovah handed them over to me. So why have you come today to fight against me?"

4 Jeph′thah then gathered all the men of Gil′e·ad,[d] and they fought E′phra·im; the men of Gil′e·ad defeated E′phra·im, who had said: "You are only fugitives from E′phra·im, you Gil′e·ad·ites in E′phra·im and Ma·nas′seh." 5 Gil′e·ad captured the fords of the Jordan[e] ahead of E′phra·im; and when the men of E′phra·im were trying to escape, they would say, "Let me cross over"; then the men of Gil'e·ad would ask each one, "Are you an E'phra·im·ite?" When he would reply, "No!" 6 they would say to him, "Please say Shib'bo·leth." But he would say, "Sib'bo·leth," as he was unable to say the word correctly. Then they would seize him and slay him at the fords of the Jordan. So 42,000 E'phra·im·ites fell at that time.

7 Jeph'thah judged Israel for six years, after which Jeph'thah the Gil'e·ad·ite died and was buried in his city in Gil'e·ad.

8 Ib'zan from Beth'le·hem judged Israel after him.[a] 9 He had 30 sons and 30 daughters. He sent his daughters to marry men outside his clan, and he brought in 30 women to marry his sons. He judged Israel for seven years. 10 Then Ib'zan died and was buried in Beth'le·hem.

11 After him E'lon the Ze·bu'lu·nite judged Israel; he judged Israel for ten years. 12 Then E'lon the Ze·bu'lu·nite died and was buried in Ai'ja·lon in the land of Zeb'u·lun.

13 After him Ab'don the son of Hil'lel the Pir'a·thon·ite judged Israel. 14 He had 40 sons and 30 grandsons who rode on 70 donkeys. 13 Again the Israelites did what was bad in Jehovah's eyes,[c] and Jehovah gave them into the hand of the Phi·lis'tines[d] for 40 years.

2 Meanwhile, there was a man of Zo'rah[e] of the family of the Dan'ites,[f] whose name was Ma·no'ah.[g] His wife was barren and childless.[h] 3 In time Jehovah's angel appeared to the woman and said to her: "Look, you are barren and childless. But you will conceive and give birth to a son.[a] 4 Now be careful not to drink wine or anything alcoholic,[b] and do not eat anything unclean.[c] 5 Look! You will conceive and give birth to a son, and no razor should touch his head,[d] because the child will be a Naz'i·rite of God from birth,* and he will take the lead in saving Israel out of the hand of the Phi·lis'tines."[e]

6 Then the woman went and told her husband: "A man of the true God came to me, and his appearance was like an angel of the true God, very awe-inspiring. I did not ask him where he was from, nor did he tell me his name.[f] 7 But he said to me, 'Look! You will conceive and give birth to a son. Now do not drink wine or anything alcoholic, and do not eat anything unclean, because the child will be a Naz'i·rite of God from birth* until the day of his death.'"

8 Ma·no'ah pleaded with Jehovah and said: "Pardon me, Jehovah. Please let the man of the true God whom you just sent come again to instruct us about what we should do with the child who will be born." 9 So the true God listened to Ma·no'ah, and the angel of the true God came again to the woman while she was sitting in the field; her husband Ma·no'ah was not with her. 10 The woman quickly ran and told her husband: "Look! The man who came to me the other day has appeared to me."[g]

11 Then Ma·no'ah got up and went with his wife. He came to the man and said to him: "Are you the man who spoke to my wife?" He said: "I am." 12 Then Ma·no'ah said: "May your words come true! What will be the child's manner of life, and what will be his work?"[a] 13 So Jehovah's angel said to Ma·no'ah: "Your wife should keep herself from everything that I mentioned to her.[b] 14 She should not eat anything that the grapevine produces, she should not drink wine or anything alcoholic,[c] and she should not eat anything unclean.[d] Everything that I commanded her, let her observe."

15 Ma·no'ah now said to Jehovah's angel: "Please stay, and let us prepare a young goat for you."[e] 16 But Jehovah's angel said to Ma·no'ah: "If I stay, I will not eat your food; but if you wish to present a burnt offering to Jehovah, you may offer it up." Ma·no'ah did not know that he was Jehovah's angel. 17 Then Ma·no'ah said to Jehovah's angel: "What is your name,[f] so that we may honor you when your word comes true?" 18 However, Jehovah's angel said to him: "Why are you asking about my name, seeing that it is a wonderful one?"

19 Then Ma·no'ah took the young goat and the grain offering and offered them on the rock to Jehovah. And He was doing something amazing while Ma·no'ah and his wife were looking on. 20 As the flame ascended from the altar heavenward, Jehovah's angel ascended in the flame from the altar while Ma·no'ah and his wife were looking on. At once they fell with their faces to the ground. 21 Jehovah's angel did not appear again to Ma·no'ah and his wife. Then Ma·no'ah realized that he was Jehovah's angel.[g] 22 Ma·no'ah then said to his wife: "We are sure to die, because it is God whom we have seen."[h] 23 But his wife said to him: "If Jehovah wanted to put us to death, he would not have accepted a burnt offering[i] and a grain offering from our hand, he would not have shown us all these things, and he would not have told us any of these things."

24 The woman later gave birth to a son and named him Samson;[a] and as the boy grew, Jehovah continued to bless him. 25 In time Jehovah's spirit started to impel him[b] in Ma'ha·nehdan,[c] between Zo'rah and Esh'ta·ol.[d]

14 Then Samson went down to Tim'nah, and in Tim'nah he saw a Phi·lis'tine woman.* 2 So he went up and told his father and mother: "In Tim'nah a Phi·lis'tine woman caught my eye, and I want you to get her for me as a wife." 3 But his father and mother said to him: "Can you not find a woman among your relatives and among all our people?[e] Must you go and take a wife from among the uncircumcised Phi·lis'tines?" But Samson said to his father: "Get her for me, because she is the right one for me."* 4 His father and mother did not realize that this was from Jehovah, for He was looking for an opportunity against the Phi·lis'tines, as the Phi·lis'tines were ruling over Israel at that time.[f]

5 So Samson went down with his father and mother to Tim'nah. When he reached the vineyards of Tim'nah, why look! a lion* came roaring at him. 6 Then Jehovah's spirit empowered him,[g] and he tore it in two, just as someone tears a young goat in two with his bare hands. But he did not tell his father or mother what he had done. 7 Then he went down and spoke to the woman, and she was still the right one in Samson's eyes.[h]

8 Later when he was going back to take her home,[a] he turned aside to look at the dead body of the lion, and there in the lion's carcass was a swarm of bees and honey. 9 So he scraped the honey out into his hands and ate it as he walked along. When he rejoined his father and mother, he gave them some to eat. But he did not tell them that he had scraped the honey out of the carcass of a lion.

10 His father went down to the woman, and Samson held a banquet there, for that was what the young men used to do. 11 When they saw him, they brought 30 groomsmen to accompany him. 12 Then Samson said to them: "Please let me tell you a riddle. If during the seven days of the banquet you solve it and tell me the answer, I will have to give you 30 linen garments and 30 outfits of clothing. 13 But if you are unable to tell me the answer, you must give me 30 linen garments and 30 outfits of clothing." They said: "Tell us your riddle; we want to hear it." 14 So he said to them:

"Out of the eater came something to eat,
And out of the strong came something sweet."[b]

They were unable to solve the riddle for three days. 15 On the fourth day, they said to Samson's wife: "Trick your husband[c] so that he will tell us the answer to the riddle. Otherwise, we will burn you and your father's house with fire. Did you invite us here to take our possessions?" 16 So Samson's wife wept over him and said: "You must hate me; you do not love me.[d] You told a riddle to my people, but you have not told the answer to me." At this he said to her: "Why, I have not told it even to my own father and mother! Should I tell it to you?" 17 But she kept weeping over him the rest of the seven-day banquet. He finally told her on the seventh day, because she had pressured him. Then she told her people the answer to the riddle.[a] 18 So on the seventh day before the sun set,* the men of the city said to him:

"What is sweeter than honey,
And what is stronger than a lion?"[b]

He replied to them:

"If you had not plowed with my young cow,[c]
You would not have solved my riddle."

19 Then Jehovah's spirit empowered him,[d] and he went down to Ash′ke·lon[e] and struck down 30 of their men and took their clothing and gave the outfits to those who had answered the riddle.[f] He was furious as he went back up to his father's house.

20 Samson's wife[g] was then given to one of his groomsmen who had accompanied him.[h]

15 After a while, in the days of the wheat harvest, Samson went to visit his wife, bringing a young goat. He said: "I wish to go in to my wife in the bedroom."* But her father did not allow him to go in. 2 Her father said: "I thought, 'You must surely hate her.'[i] So I gave her to your groomsman.[j] Is not her younger sister more attractive than she is? Please, take her instead." 3 However, Samson said to them: "This time I cannot be blamed by the Philis′tines for harming them."

4 So Samson went and caught 300 foxes. Then he took torches, turned the foxes tail to tail, and put one torch between each pair of tails. 5 Then he set fire to the torches and sent the foxes out into the fields of standing grain of the Phi·lis′tines. He set on fire everything from sheaf to standing grain, as well as the vineyards and the olive groves.

6 The Phi·lis′tines asked: "Who did this?" They were told: "It was Samson, the son-in-law of the Tim′nite, because he took his wife and gave her to his groomsman."[a] At that the Phi·lis′tines went up and burned her and her father with fire.[b] 7 Then Samson said to them: "If this is how you act, I will not quit until I take revenge on you."[c] 8 Then he struck them down one after the other* with a great slaughter, after which he went down and stayed in a cave# of the crag E′tam.

9 Later the Phi·lis′tines came up and camped in Judah and were tramping about in Le′hi.[d] 10 Then the men of Judah said: "Why have you come up against us?" to which they answered: "We have come up to capture* Samson, to do to him just as he did to us." 11 So 3,000 men of Judah went down to the cave# of the crag E′tam and said to Samson: "Do you not know that the Phi·lis′tines are ruling over us?[e] So why have you done this to us?" He said to them: "As they did to me, so I did to them." 12 But they said to him: "We have come to capture* you and to hand you over to the Phi·lis′tines." Then Samson said: "Swear to me that you yourselves will not assault me." 13 They said to him: "No, we will only tie you and hand you over to them, but we will not put you to death."

So they bound him with two new ropes and brought him up from the crag. 14 When he came to Le′hi, the Phi·lis′tines shouted triumphantly at meeting him. Then Jehovah's spirit empowered him,[a] and the ropes on his arms became like linen threads that were scorched with fire, and his fetters melted off his hands.[b] 15 He now found a fresh jawbone of a male donkey; he reached out and grabbed it and struck down 1,000 men with it.[c] 16 Then Samson said:

"With the jawbone of a donkey—one heap, two heaps!
With the jawbone of a donkey I struck down 1,000 men."[d]

17 When he finished speaking, he threw the jawbone away and called that place Ra′math-le′hi.[e] 18 Then he became very thirsty, and he called on Jehovah and said: "It was you who gave this great salvation into the hand of your servant. But now am I to die of thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?" 19 So God split open a hollow that was in Le′hi, and water flowed from it.[f] When he drank, his spirit returned and he revived. That is why he named the place En-hak·kor′e,# which is in Le′hi to this day.

20 And he judged Israel in the days of the Phi·lis′tines for 20 years.[g]

16 One time Samson went to Gaz′a and saw a prostitute there, and he went in to her. 2 The Gaz′ites were told: "Samson has come here." So they surrounded him and lay in ambush for him all night long in the city gate. They stayed quiet the whole night, saying to themselves: "When daylight comes, we will kill him."

3 However, Samson kept lying there until midnight. Then he got up at midnight and grabbed the doors of the city gate and the two side posts and pulled them out along with the bar. He put them on his shoulders and carried them up to the top of the mountain that faces Heb′ron.

4 After that he fell in love with a woman in the Valley* of So′rek whose name was De·li′lah.[a] 5 So the lords of the Phi·lis′tines approached her and said: "Trick* him[b] and find out what gives his such great strength and how we can overpower him and tie him and subdue him. For this we will each give you 1,100 silver pieces."

6 De·li′lah later said to Samson: "Please tell me where your great power comes from and what can be used to tie you and subdue you." 7 Samson said to her: "If they tie me with seven fresh bowstrings* that have not been dried out, I will grow as weak as an ordinary man." 8 So the lords of the Phi·lis′tines brought up to her seven fresh bowstrings that had not been dried out, and she tied him with them. 9 Now they set an ambush in the inner room, and she called out to him: "The Phi·lis′tines are upon you, Samson!" At that he tore apart the bowstrings, just as easily as a thread of flax* comes apart when it touches fire.[c] The secret of his power did not become known.

10 Then De·li′lah said to Samson: "Look! You have fooled me* and told me lies. Now tell me, please, what can be used to tie you." 11 So he said to her: "If they tie me up with new ropes that have not been used for work, I will grow as weak as an ordinary man." 12 So De·li′lah took new ropes and tied him with them and called out: "The Phi·lis′tines are upon you, Samson!" (All the while the ambush was set in the inner room.) At that he tore them off his arms like threads.[a]

13 After that De·li′lah said to Samson: "Up until now you have fooled me and told me lies.[b] Tell me what can be used to tie you." Then he said to her: "If you weave the seven braids of my head with the warp thread." 14 So she fixed them with a pin and called out to him: "The Phi·lis′tines are upon you, Samson!" So he woke up from his sleep and pulled out the loom pin and the warp thread.

15 She now said to him: "How can you say, 'I love you,'[c] when your heart is not with me? These three times you have fooled me and have not told me the source of your great power."[d] 16 Because day after day she kept nagging him and pressuring him, he* was weary to the point of dying.[e] 17 So he finally opened his heart to her, saying: "A razor has never touched my head, because I am a Naz′i·rite of God from birth.*[f] If I am shaved, my power will leave me and I will grow weak and become like all other men."

18 When De·li′lah saw that he had opened his heart to her, she immediately summoned the Phi·lis′tine lords,[g] saying: "Come up this time, for he has opened his heart to me." So the Phi·lis′tine lords came up to her, bringing the money with them. 19 She made him fall asleep on her knees; then she called the man and had him shave off the seven braids of his head. After that she began to have control over him, for his power was leaving him. 20 Now she called out: "The Phi·lis'tines are upon you, Samson!" He woke up from his sleep and said: "I will go out as at other times[a] and shake myself free." But he did not know that Jehovah had left him. 21 So the Phi·lis'tines seized him and bored his eyes out. Then they brought him down to Gaz'a and bound him with two copper fetters, and he became a grinder of grain in the prison. 22 But the hair of his head started to grow back again after he had been shaved.[b]

23 The Phi·lis'tine lords gathered together to offer a great sacrifice to Da'gon[c] their god and to celebrate, for they were saying: "Our god has given Samson our enemy into our hand!" 24 When the people saw him, they praised their god and said: "Our god has given into our hand our enemy, the one who devastated our land[d] and killed so many of us."[e]

25 Because their heart was cheerful, they said: "Call Samson to provide us some amusement." So they called Samson out of the prison to entertain them; they made him stand between the pillars. 26 Then Samson said to the boy holding him by the hand: "Let me feel the pillars that support the house, so that I can lean against them." 27 (Incidentally, the house was full of men and women. All the Phi·lis'tine lords were there, and on the roof there were about 3,000 men and women who were looking on while Samson provided amusement.)

28 Samson[f] now called out to Jehovah: "Sovereign Lord Jehovah, remember me, please, and strengthen me,[g] please, just this once, O God, and let me take revenge on the Phi·lis'tines for one of my two eyes."[a]

29 Then Samson braced himself against the two middle pillars that supported the house, and he leaned on them with his right hand on one and his left hand on the other. 30 Samson called out: "Let me* die with the Phi·lis'tines!" Then he pushed with all his might, and the house fell on the lords and all the people in it.[b] So he killed more at his death than he had killed during his life.[c]

31 Later his brothers and all his father's family came down to take him back. They brought him up and buried him between Zo'rah[d] and Esh'ta·ol in the tomb of Ma·no'ah[e] his father. He had judged Israel for 20 years.[f]

17 There was a man of the mountainous region of E'phra·im[g] named Mi'cah. 2 He said to his mother: "The 1,100 silver pieces that were taken from you about which you pronounced a curse, which I heard —look! the silver is with me. I was the one who took it." At that his mother said: "May Jehovah bless my son." 3 So he gave the 1,100 pieces of silver back to his mother, but his mother said: "I will without fail sanctify the silver to Jehovah from my hand for my son to use in making a carved image and a metal statue.*[h] Now I give it back to you."

4 After he returned the silver to his mother, his mother took 200 silver pieces and gave them to the silversmith. He made a carved image and a metal statue;* and they were put in Mi'cah's house. 5 This man Mi'cah had a house of gods, and he made an eph'od[i] and teraphim statues*[j] and installed# one of his sons to serve as priest for him.[a] 6 In those days, there was no king in Israel.[b] Each one was doing what was right in his own eyes.*[c]

7 Now there was a young man of Beth′le·hem[d] in Judah who was of the family of Judah. He was a Levite[e] who had been living there for a time. 8 The man left the city of Beth′le·hem in Judah to find a place to live. While on his journey, he came to the mountainous region of E′phra·im, to the house of Mi′cah.[f] 9 Then Mi′cah said to him: "Where do you come from?" He replied: "I am a Levite from Beth′le·hem in Judah, and I am on my way to find a place to live." 10 So Mi′cah said to him: "Stay with me and serve as a father* and a priest for me. I will give you ten silver pieces a year and a set of garments and your food." So the Levite went in. 11 Thus the Levite agreed to stay with the man, and the young man became like one of his sons. 12 Furthermore, Mi′cah installed* the Levite to serve as a priest for him,[g] and he lived in the house of Mi′cah. 13 Then Mi′cah said: "Now I know that Jehovah will be good to me, for the Levite has become my priest."

18 In those days there was no king in Israel.[h] And in those days the tribe of the Dan′ites[i] was looking for an inheritance to dwell in, because until then they had not received an inheritance among the tribes of Israel.[j]

2 The Dan′ites sent five men from among their family, capable men from Zo′rah and Esh′ta·ol,[k] to spy out the land and to explore it. They said to them: "Go, explore the land." When they came to the mountainous region of E′phra·im, to the house of Mi′cah,[a] they spent the night there. 3 While they were near the house of Mi′cah, they recognized the voice* of the young Levite man, so they went over to him and asked: "Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What is keeping you here?" 4 He replied to them: "Thus and so Mi′cah did for me, and he hired me to serve as priest for him."[b] 5 Then they said to him: "Please ask God whether our journey will be successful." 6 The priest said to them: "Go in peace. Jehovah is with you on your journey."

7 So the five men went on and came to La′ish.[c] They saw how the people in it were dwelling in self-reliance in the manner of the Si·do′ni·ans. They were quiet and unsuspecting,[d] and no oppressive conqueror was in the land to disturb them. They were far away from the Si·do′ni·ans, and they had no dealings with anyone else.

8 When they returned to their brothers at Zo′rah and Esh′ta·ol,[e] their brothers said to them: "How did it go?" 9 They replied: "Let us go up against them, for we have seen that the land is very good. Why are you hesitant? Do not delay to go in to take possession of the land. 10 When you arrive, you will find an unsuspecting people,[f] and the land is spacious. God has given it into your hand, a place where there is no lack of anything on the earth."[g]

11 Then 600 men armed for battle from the family of the Dan′ites departed from Zo′rah and Esh′ta·ol.[h] 12 They went up and camped at Kir′i·ath·je′a·rim[i] in Judah. That is why that place, which is west of Kir′i·ath-je′a·rim, is called Ma′ha·neh-dan*[a] to this day. 13 They went from there to the mountainous region of E′phra-im and came to the house of Mi′cah.[b]

14 Then the five men who had gone to spy out the land of La′-ish[c] said to their brothers: "Did you know that there are in these houses an eph′od, teraphim statues,* a carved image, and a metal statue?#[d] Think about what you should do." 15 So they stopped there and came to the house of the young Levite man[e] at the house of Mi′cah and asked how he was. 16 All the while the 600 men of Dan,[f] armed for battle, stood at the entrance of the gate. 17 The five men who had gone to spy out the land[g] went inside to take the carved image, the eph′od,[h] the teraphim statues,[i] and the metal image.#[j] (The priest[k] was standing at the entrance of the gate with the 600 men armed for battle.) 18 They went into the house of Mi′cah and took the carved image, the eph′od, the teraphim statues, and the metal image.# The priest said to them: "What are you doing?" 19 But they said to him: "Be quiet. Put your hand over your mouth, and come with us to be a father* and a priest for us. Which is better—for you to be a priest to the house of one man[l] or to become a priest to a tribe and family in Israel?"[m] 20 So the priest was satisfied, and he took the eph′od, the teraphim statues,* and the carved image[n] and went off with the people.

21 Then they turned to go on their way, putting the children, the livestock, and the valuable things ahead of them. 22 They had gone some distance away from the house of Mi′cah when the men who lived in the houses near the house of Mi′cah gathered together and caught up with the Dan′ites. 23 When they cried out to the Dan′ites, they turned to face them and said to Mi′cah: "What is the matter? Why have you been gathered together?" 24 So he said: "You have taken my gods that I made, and you have gone off with the priest too. What do I have left? How, then, can you ask me, 'What is the matter with you?'" 25 The Dan′ites replied: "Do not raise your voice against us; otherwise, angry men* may assault you, and that would cost you your life# and the lives△ of your household." 26 So the Dan′ites went on their way; and Mi′cah, seeing that they were stronger than he was, turned and went back to his house.

27 After they took what Mi′-cah had made, as well as his priest, they went to La′ish,[a] to a people quiet and unsuspecting.[b] They struck them down with the sword and burned the city with fire. 28 There was no one to rescue it, for it was far from Si′don and they had no dealings with anyone else and it was in the valley plain* that belonged to Beth-re′hob.[c] Then they rebuilt the city and settled in it. 29 Furthermore, they named the city Dan[d] after the name of their father, Dan, who was born to Israel.[e] But La′ish was the city's former name.[f] 30 After that the Dan′ites set up the carved image[g] for themselves, and Jon′a·than[h] the son of Ger′-shom,[i] the son of Moses, and his sons became priests to the tribe of the Dan′ites until the day that the inhabitants of the land went into exile. 31 And they set up the carved image that Mi'cah had made, and it remained there all the days that the house of the true God was in Shi'loh.[a]

19 In those days, when there was no king in Israel,[b] a Levite who was then living in a remote part of the mountainous region of E'phra·im[c] took a concubine from Beth'le·hem[d] in Judah as his wife. 2 But his concubine was unfaithful to him, and she left him to go to her father's house at Beth'le·hem in Judah. She remained there for four months. 3 Then her husband went after her to persuade her to come back; he had his male attendant and a couple of donkeys with him. So she brought him into her father's house. When her father saw him, he was glad to meet him. 4 So his father-in-law, the young woman's father, convinced him to stay with him three days; and they would eat and drink, and he would spend the night there.

5 On the fourth day, when they got up early in the morning to go, the father of the young woman said to his son-in-law: "Eat something to give you strength,* and then you may go." 6 So they sat down, and they both ate and drank together; after that the father of the young woman said to the man: "Please, stay overnight and enjoy yourself."* 7 When the man rose to go, his father-in-law kept begging him, so he stayed overnight again.

8 When he got up early in the morning on the fifth day to go, the father of the young woman said: "Please, eat something to give you strength."* And they lingered until it was late in the day, and they both kept eating. 9 When the man rose to go with his concubine and his attendant, his father-in-law, the young woman's father, said to him: "Look, now! It is almost evening. Please, stay overnight. Here the day is coming to an end. Stay here overnight and enjoy yourself. Tomorrow you can get up early for your journey and go to your home."* 10 However, the man did not want to stay another night, so he got up and traveled as far as Je'bus, that is, Jerusalem.[a] He had with him the two saddled donkeys, his concubine, and his attendant.

11 When they were close to Je'bus, the daylight was nearly gone. So the attendant said to his master: "Should we stop at this city of the Jeb'u·sites and stay overnight here?" 12 But his master said to him: "We should not stop at a city of foreigners who are not Israelites. We will go on as far as Gib'e·ah."[b] 13 Then he said to his attendant: "Come and let us try to reach one of those places; we will stay overnight either in Gib'e·ah or in Ra'mah."[c] 14 So they went on their way, and the sun began to set when they were near Gib'e·ah, which belongs to Benjamin.

15 So they stopped there and went in to stay overnight in Gib'e·ah. Once inside, they sat down in the public square of the city, but nobody took them into his house to stay overnight.[d] 16 Eventually that evening, an old man came in from his work in the field. He was from the mountainous region of E'phra·im,[e] and he was living for a time in Gib'e·ah; but the residents of the city were Ben'ja·min·ites.[f] 17 When he looked up and saw the traveler in the public square of the city, the old man said: "Where are you going, and where do you come from?" 18 He replied: "We are traveling from Beth'le·hem in Judah to a remote area of the mountainous region of E'phraim, where I am from. I went to Beth'le·hem in Judah,[a] and I am going to the house of Jehovah,* but nobody is taking me into his house. 19 We have enough straw and fodder for our donkeys,[b] and bread[c] and wine for me, the woman, and our attendant. There is nothing lacking." 20 However, the old man said: "May you have peace! Let me take care of anything you need. Just do not stay overnight in the public square." 21 So he brought him into his house and gave feed* to the donkeys. Then they washed their feet and ate and drank.

22 While they were enjoying themselves, some worthless men of the city surrounded the house and were pounding on the door, and they kept saying to the old man who owned the house: "Bring out the man who came into your house, so that we may have sex with him."[d] 23 At that the owner of the house went out and said to them: "No, my brothers, do not act wickedly. Please, this man is a guest in my house. Do not commit this disgraceful act. 24 Here are my virgin daughter and this man's concubine. Let me bring them out, and you can humiliate them if you must.*[e] But you must not commit this disgraceful act toward this man."

25 But the men refused to listen to him, so the man grabbed hold of his concubine[f] and brought her outside to them. They raped her and abused her all night long until the morning. Then they sent her away at the break of dawn. 26 Early in the morning, the woman came and fell down at the entrance of the man's house where her master was and lay there until it was light. 27 When her master got up in the morning and opened the doors of the house to go out to resume his journey, he saw the woman, his concubine, lying at the entrance of the house with her hands on the threshold. 28 So he said to her: "Get up; let us go." But there was no answer. The man then put her on the donkey and set out for his home.

29 When he reached his house, he took the slaughtering knife and took hold of his concubine and cut her up limb by limb into 12 pieces and sent one piece into each territory of Israel. 30 All who saw it said: "Such a thing has never happened or been seen from the day that the Israelites went up out of the land of Egypt down to this day. Consider it,* take counsel,[a] and tell us what to do."

20 Consequently, all the Israelites came out from Dan[b] down to Be'er-she'ba and from the land of Gil'e·ad,[c] and the entire assembly gathered unitedly* before Jehovah at Miz'pah.[d] 2 So the chiefs of the people and all the tribes of Israel took their places in the congregation of God's people—400,000 foot soldiers armed with swords.[e]

3 The Ben'ja·min·ites heard that the men of Israel had gone up to Miz'pah.

Then the men of Israel said: "Tell us, how did this terrible thing happen?"[f] 4 At this the Levite man,[g] the husband of the murdered woman, said in answer: "I came to Gib'e·ah[a] of Benjamin with my concubine to stay overnight. 5 And the inhabitants* of Gib'e·ah rose up against me and surrounded the house by night. They meant to kill me, but they raped my concubine instead, and she died.[b] 6 So I took my concubine's body and cut it up and sent the pieces into every part of Israel's inheritance,[c] because they had committed a shameful and disgraceful act in Israel. 7 Now all you people of Israel, give your advice and counsel[d] here."

8 Then all the people rose up in unison* and said: "Not one of us will go to his tent or return to his house. 9 Now this is what we will do to Gib'e·ah: We will go up against it by lot.[e] 10 We will take 10 men out of 100 from all the tribes of Israel, and 100 out of 1,000 and 1,000 out of 10,000 to collect provisions for the army, so that they may take action against Gib'e·ah of Benjamin, in view of the disgraceful act that they committed in Israel." 11 Thus all the men of Israel were gathered against the city united* as allies.

12 Then the tribes of Israel sent men to all the tribesmen of Benjamin, saying: "What is this terrible thing that has happened among you? 13 Now hand over the worthless men from Gib'e·ah,[f] so that we may put them to death and clear out what is bad from Israel."[g] But the Ben'ja·min·ites refused to listen to their Israelite brothers.

14 Then the Ben'ja·min·ites gathered together out of the cities to Gib'e·ah to go out to battle against the men of Israel. 15 That day the Ben'ja·min·ites mustered from their cities 26,000 men armed with swords, apart from the 700 chosen men of Gib'e·ah. 16 In this army were 700 chosen men who were left-handed. Every one of these men could sling a stone to within a hairbreadth and would not miss.

17 The men of Israel apart from Benjamin mustered 400,000 men armed with swords,[a] and each one was an experienced warrior. 18 They rose up and went up to Beth'el to inquire of God.[b] Then the people of Israel said: "Who of us should go up in the lead to the battle against the Ben'ja·min·ites?" Jehovah replied: "Judah is to take the lead."

19 After that the Israelites rose up in the morning and camped against Gib'e·ah.

20 The men of Israel now went out to battle against Benjamin; they drew up in battle formation against them at Gib'e·ah. 21 So the Ben'ja·min·ites came out from Gib'e·ah and struck down 22,000 men of Israel on that day. 22 However, the army of the men of Israel showed themselves courageous and again drew up in battle formation in the same place as on the first day. 23 Then the Israelites went up and wept before Jehovah until the evening and inquired of Jehovah: "Should we again go into battle against our brothers, the people of Benjamin?"[c] To this Jehovah said: "Go up against them."

24 So the Israelites drew near to the Ben'ja·min·ites on the second day. 25 In turn Benjamin came out from Gib'e·ah to meet them on the second day and struck down another 18,000 Israelites,[d] all of them armed with swords. 26 At that all the men of Israel went up to Beth'el. They wept and sat there before Jehovah,[e] and they fasted[f] on that day until the evening and offered up burnt offerings[g] and communion offerings[a] before Jehovah. 27 After that the men of Israel inquired of Jehovah,[b] for the ark of the covenant of the true God was there in those days. 28 Now Phin′e·has[c] the son of El·e·a′zar, the son of Aaron, was ministering* before it in those days. They asked: "Should we go out yet again to battle against our brothers, the men of Benjamin, or should we stop?"[d] Jehovah replied: "Go up, because tomorrow I will give them into your hand." 29 Then Israel set men in ambush[e] all around Gib′e·ah.

30 The Israelites went up against the Ben′ja·min·ites on the third day, and they drew up in formation against Gib′e·ah the same as at the other times.[f] 31 When the Ben′ja·min·ites went out to meet the army, they were drawn away from the city.[g] Then, as at the other times, they started to attack and kill some of the men on the highways, one of which goes up to Beth′el and the other to Gib′e·ah, leaving about 30 men of Israel dead in the open field.[h] 32 So the Ben′ja·min·ites said: "They are suffering defeat before us the same as before."[i] But the Israelites said: "We will retreat and draw them away from the city onto the highways." 33 So all the men of Israel rose up from their places and drew up in formation at Ba′al-ta′mar while the Israelite ambush charged out of their places in the vicinity of Gib′e·ah. 34 Thus 10,000 chosen men out of all Israel came in front of Gib′e·ah, and the fighting was heavy. But the Ben′ja·min·ites did not know that disaster was near at hand.

35 Jehovah defeated Benjamin[j] before Israel, and on that day the Israelites struck down 25,100 men in Benjamin, all of them armed with swords.[a]

36 However, the Ben′ja·min·ites imagined that the men of Israel would be defeated when they retreated from Benjamin,[b] but they retreated because they trusted in the ambush that was set against Gib′e·ah.[c] 37 The ambush acted quickly and charged toward Gib′e·ah. Then the ambush spread out and struck down the whole city with the sword.

38 Now the men of Israel had arranged that the men who ambushed the city would make a smoke signal go up from there.

39 When the Israelites turned around in the battle, the men of Benjamin started by attacking and killing about 30 men of Israel,[d] and they said: "They are clearly suffering another defeat before us, just as in the previous battle."[e] 40 But the signal started to go up from the city as a pillar of smoke. When the men of Benjamin turned to look, they saw the whole city going up in flames to the sky. 41 Then the men of Israel made an about-face, and the men of Benjamin were dismayed, for they saw that disaster had overtaken them. 42 So they retreated from the men of Israel toward the wilderness, but the battle followed them; the men coming out of the cities joined in striking them down. 43 They surrounded the Ben′ja·min·ites and pursued them relentlessly. They trampled them down directly in front of Gib′e·ah toward the east. 44 Finally 18,000 men of Benjamin fell, all mighty warriors.[f]

45 The men of Benjamin turned and fled into the wilderness to the crag of Rim′mon,[g] and the Israelites killed* 5,000 of them on the highways, and they kept pursuing them as far as Gi′dom; so they struck down 2,000 more men. 46 All those of Benjamin who fell on that day amounted to 25,000 men armed with swords,[a] all mighty warriors. 47 But 600 retreated into the wilderness to the crag of Rim′mon, and they stayed on the crag of Rim′mon for four months.

48 And the men of Israel turned back against the Ben′ja·min·ites and struck those of the city with the sword, from men to livestock, all that remained. Also, they set all the cities in their path on fire.

21 Now the men of Israel had sworn this oath in Miz′pah:[b] "Not one of us will give his daughter to a man from Benjamin as a wife."[c] 2 Consequently, the people came to Beth′el[d] and sat there before the true God until evening, crying out and weeping bitterly. 3 And they were saying: "Why, O Jehovah the God of Israel, has this happened in Israel? Why should one tribe be missing today from Israel?" 4 And the next day the people got up early and built an altar there to offer up burnt offerings and communion offerings.[e]

5 Then the people of Israel said: "Who of all the tribes of Israel did not come up to assemble before Jehovah?" for they had taken a great oath that anyone who did not come up to Jehovah at Miz′pah would be put to death without fail. 6 So the people of Israel felt sorrow over what had happened to Benjamin their brother. They said: "Today one tribe has been chopped off from Israel. 7 What should we do to provide wives for those who are left, now that we have sworn by Jehovah[a] not to give them any of our daughters as wives?"[b]

8 They asked: "Who among the tribes of Israel did not come up to Jehovah at Miz′pah?"[c] It so happened that no one had come from Ja′besh-gil′e·ad into the camp where the congregation was. 9 When the people were counted, they saw that none of the inhabitants of Ja′besh-gil′e·ad were there. 10 So the assembly sent there 12,000 of the mightiest men. They commanded them: "Go and strike down the inhabitants of Ja′besh-gil′e·ad with the sword, even the women and the children.[d] 11 This is what you should do: Every male as well as every woman who has had sexual relations with a male, you should devote to destruction." 12 Among the inhabitants of Ja′besh-gil′e·ad, they found 400 girls who were virgins, who had never had sexual relations with a man. So they brought them to the camp at Shi′loh,[e] which is in the land of Ca′naan.

13 Then all the assembly sent a message to the Ben′ja·min·ites on the crag of Rim′mon[f] and offered them peace. 14 So Benjamin came back at that time. They gave them the women whom they had kept alive from the women of Ja′besh-gil′e·ad,[g] but they did not find enough for them. 15 And the people felt sorrow over what had happened to Benjamin[h] because Jehovah had made a division among the tribes of Israel. 16 The elders of the assembly said: "What should we do to provide wives for the remaining men, since all the women were annihilated out of Benjamin?" 17 They replied: "There should be an inheritance for the survivors of Benjamin, so that a tribe may not be wiped out of Israel. 18 But we are not allowed to give them wives from our daughters, because the people of Israel have sworn: 'Cursed is the one who gives a wife to Benjamin.'"[a]

19 Then they said: "Look! There is a festival of Jehovah from year to year in Shi'loh,[b] which is north of Beth'el and east of the highway that goes up from Beth'el to She'chem and south of Le·bo'nah." 20 So they commanded the men of Benjamin: "Go and set an ambush in the vineyards. 21 And when you see the young women* of Shi'loh come out to join in their circle dances, each of you should come out from the vineyards and seize a wife from the young women of Shi'loh, and you should return to the land of Benjamin. 22 And should their fathers or their brothers come to make a complaint against us, we will then tell them, 'Show us favor for their sakes, because we could not provide each one a wife by war[a] and you could not give a wife to them without becoming guilty.'"[b]

23 So the men of Benjamin did just that, and they each carried off a wife from the women who were dancing. After that they went back to their inheritance and rebuilt their cities[c] and settled in them.

24 And the Israelites dispersed from there at that time, each one to his tribe and his family, and they departed from there, each one to his inheritance.

25 In those days there was no king in Israel.[d] Each one was doing what was right in his own eyes.*

name was Na·o′mi,* and the names of his two sons were Mah′lon# and Chil′i·on.^ They were Eph′rath·ites from Beth′le·hem in Judah. And they came to the fields of Mo′ab and remained there.

3 After some time E·lim′e·lech, Na·o′mi's husband, died, and she was left with her two sons. 4 The men later married Mo′ab·ite women; one was named Or′pah, and the other was named Ruth.[a] They remained there for about ten years. 5 Then the two sons, Mah′lon and Chil′i·on, also died, and the woman was left without her two children and her husband. 6 So she started out with her daughters-in-law to return from the fields of Mo′ab, for she had heard in Mo′ab that Jehovah had turned his attention to his people by giving them food.*

7 She left the place where she had been living with both of her daughters-in-law. As they were walking on the road to return to the land of Judah, 8 Na·o′mi said to both of her daughters-in-law: "Go, return, each of you to your mother's home. May Jehovah show loyal love to you,[b] just as you have shown it to the men who have died and to me. 9 May Jehovah grant* that each of you finds security# in the home of your husband."[c] Then she kissed them, and they wept loudly. 10 They kept saying to her: "No, but we will go with you to your people." 11 But Na·o′mi said: "Return, my daughters. Why should you go with me? Can I still give birth to sons who could become your husbands?[d] 12 Return, my daughters. Go, for I have grown too old to marry. Even if I could hope to find a husband tonight and could also bear sons, 13 would you keep waiting for them until they could grow up? Would you refrain from getting remarried for their sakes? No, my daughters, I feel very bitter for you, because the hand of Jehovah has turned against me."[a]

14 Again they wept loudly, after which Or′pah kissed her mother-in-law and departed. But Ruth stuck with her. 15 So Na·o′mi said: "Look! Your widowed sister-in-law has returned to her people and her gods. Return with your sister-in-law."

16 But Ruth said: "Do not plead with me to abandon you, to turn back from accompanying you; for where you go I will go, and where you spend the night, I will spend the night. Your people will be my people, and your God my God.[b] 17 Where you die I will die, and there I will be buried. May Jehovah do so to me and add to it if anything but death should separate me from you."

18 When Na·o′mi saw that Ruth insisted on going with her, she stopped trying to convince her. 19 And they both continued on their way until they came to Beth′le·hem.[c] As soon as they arrived in Beth′le·hem, the whole city became stirred up over them, and women were saying: "Is this Na·o′mi?" 20 She would say to the women: "Do not call me Na·o′mi.* Call me Ma′ra,# for the Almighty has made life very bitter for me.[d] 21 I was full when I went, but Jehovah made me return empty-handed. Why should you call me Na·o′mi, when it is Jehovah who opposed me and the Almighty who caused me calamity?"[e]

22 This is how Na·o′mi returned from the fields of Mo′ab,[a] along with her Mo′ab·ite daughter-in-law Ruth. They came to Beth′le·hem at the beginning of the barley harvest.[b]

2 Now Na·o′mi had a relative on her husband's side who was very wealthy; his name was Bo′az,[c] and he was of the family of E·lim′e·lech.

2 Ruth the Mo′ab·i·tess said to Na·o′mi: "Let me go out, please, to the fields and glean[d] among the ears of grain behind whoever looks on me with favor." So Na·o′mi said to her: "Go, my daughter." 3 At that she went out and began to glean in the field behind the harvesters. By chance she came upon a plot of land belonging to Bo′az,[e] who was of the family of E·lim′e·lech.[f] 4 Just then Bo′az arrived from Beth′le·hem and said to the harvesters: "Jehovah be with you." And they replied: "Jehovah bless you."

5 Bo′az then asked the young man in charge of the harvesters: "To whom does this young woman belong?" 6 The young man in charge of the harvesters answered: "The young woman is a Mo′ab·i·tess[g] who returned with Na·o′mi from the fields of Mo′ab.[h] 7 She asked, 'Please, may I glean[i] and gather among the cut-off ears* of grain left behind by the harvesters?' And she has been on her feet since she came this morning until just now, when she sat in the shelter for a short rest."

8 Then Bo′az said to Ruth: "Listen, my daughter. Do not go away to glean in another field, and do not go anywhere else; stay close by my young women.[j] 9 Keep your eyes on the field that they harvest, and go with them. I have commanded the young men not to touch* you. When you are thirsty, go to the water jars and drink from what the young men have drawn."

10 At that she fell facedown and bowed down to the ground and said to him: "How have I found favor in your eyes, and why have you taken notice of me, when I am a foreigner?"[a] 11 Bo′az answered her: "A full report was made to me of all you have done for your mother-in-law after the death of your husband and how you left your father and your mother and the land of your relatives to go to a people whom you had not known before.[b] 12 May Jehovah reward you for what you have done,[c] and may there be a perfect wage* for you from Jehovah the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to seek refuge."[d] 13 To this she said: "Let me find favor in your eyes, my lord, because you have comforted me and spoken reassuringly to* your servant, although I am not even one of your servants."

14 Bo′az said to her at mealtime: "Come here, eat some of the bread, and dip your piece in the vinegar." So she sat down beside the harvesters. He then handed her some roasted grain, and she ate and was satisfied, and she had something left over. 15 When she got up to glean,[e] Bo′az commanded his young men: "Let her glean even among the cut-off ears* of grain, and do not mistreat her.[f] 16 You should also be sure to pull out some ears of grain from the bundles for her and leave them behind for her to glean, and do not say anything to stop her."

17 So she continued to glean in the field until evening.[g] When she beat out what she had gleaned, it came to about an e′phah* of barley. 18 Then she took it and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. Ruth also took out and gave to her the food that was left over[a] after she had eaten her fill.

19 Her mother-in-law then said to her: "Where did you glean today? Where did you work? May the one who took notice of you be blessed."[b] So she told her mother-in-law about whom she had worked with, saying: "The name of the man I worked with today is Bo′az." 20 At that Na·o′mi said to her daughter-in-law: "May he be blessed by Jehovah, who has not failed in his loyal love toward the living and the dead."[c] Na·o′mi continued: "The man is related to us.[d] He is one of our repurchasers."*[e] 21 Then Ruth the Mo′ab·i·tess said: "He also told me, 'Stay close by my young people until they have finished my entire harvest.'"[f] 22 Na·o′mi said to her daughter-in-law Ruth: "It is better, my daughter, for you to go out with his young women than to be harassed in another field."

23 So she stayed close to the young women of Bo′az and gleaned until the barley harvest[g] and the wheat harvest came to an end. And she kept dwelling with her mother-in-law.[h]

3 Na·o′mi, her mother-in-law, now said to her: "My daughter, should I not look for a home* for you,[i] so that it may go well with you? 2 Is not Bo′az our relative?[j] He is the one whose young women you were with. Tonight he is winnowing barley at the threshing floor. 3 So wash yourself and rub on some perfumed oil; then dress up* and go down to the threshing floor. Do not make your presence known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. 4 When he lies down, take note of the place where he lies down; then go and uncover his feet and lie down. He will tell you what you should do."

5 At that she replied: "All that you say to me I will do." 6 So she went down to the threshing floor and did all that her mother-in-law had instructed her to do. 7 Meanwhile, Bo′az ate and drank and was feeling good at heart. Then he went to lie down at the end of the grain heap. After that she quietly came and uncovered his feet and lay down. 8 At midnight the man began to shiver, and he leaned forward and saw a woman lying at his feet. 9 He said: "Who are you?" She replied: "I am Ruth, your servant. Spread out your garment* over your servant, for you are a repurchaser."[a] 10 At that he said: "May Jehovah bless you, my daughter. You have shown your loyal love more in this last instance than in the first instance,[b] by not going after the young men, whether poor or rich. 11 And now, my daughter, have no fear. I will do for you everything that you say,[c] for everyone in the city* knows that you are an excellent woman. 12 While it is true that I am a repurchaser,[d] there is a repurchaser more closely related than I am.[e] 13 Stay here tonight, and if he will repurchase you in the morning, fine! Let him repurchase you.[f] But if he does not want to repurchase you, I will then repurchase you myself, as surely as Jehovah lives. Lie down here until the morning.”

14 So she lay at his feet until the morning and then got up before it was light enough for anyone to be recognized. He then said: “Do not let it be known that a woman came to the threshing floor.” 15 He also said: “Bring the cloak that you are wearing, and hold it out.” So she held it out, and he put six measures* of barley in it and put it on her, after which he went into the city.

16 She went her way to her mother-in-law, who now said: “How did it go for you,* my daughter?” She told her everything that the man had done for her. 17 She added: “He gave me these six measures of barley and said to me, ‘Do not go empty-handed to your mother-in-law.’” 18 At that she said: “Sit here, my daughter, until you learn how the matter will turn out, for the man will not rest until he settles the matter today.”

4 Now Bo′az went up to the city gate[a] and sat there. And look! the repurchaser whom Bo′az had mentioned[b] passed by. At that Bo′az said: “Come here and sit down, So-and-so.” And he went over and sat down. 2 Then Bo′az took ten of the city elders[c] and said: “Sit down here.” So they sat down.

3 Bo′az now said to the repurchaser:[d] “Na·o′mi, who has returned from the fields of Mo′ab,[e] must sell the plot of land that belonged to our brother E·lim′e·lech.[f] 4 So I thought I should disclose it to you and say, ‘Buy it in front of the inhabitants and the elders of my people.[g] If you will repurchase it, repurchase it. But if you will not repurchase it, tell me so that I will know, for you have the claim to repurchase it, and I am next in line after you.’” He replied: “I am willing to repurchase it.”[a] 5 Then Bo′az said: “On the day you buy the field from Na·o′mi, you must also buy it from Ruth the Mo′ab·i·tess, the wife of the dead man, in order to restore the name of the dead man to his inheritance.”[b] 6 To this the repurchaser said: “I am unable to repurchase it, for I may ruin my own inheritance. Repurchase it for yourself with my right of repurchase, because I am not able to repurchase it.”

7 Now this was the custom of former times in Israel concerning the right of repurchase and exchange to validate every sort of transaction: A man had to remove his sandal[c] and give it to the other party, and this was the manner of confirming an agreement* in Israel. 8 So when the repurchaser said to Bo′az, “Buy it for yourself,” he removed his sandal. 9 Then Bo′az said to the elders and all the people: “You are witnesses[d] today that I am buying from Na·o′mi all that belonged to E·lim′e·lech and all that belonged to Chil′i·on and Mah′lon. 10 I am also acquiring Ruth the Mo′ab·i·tess, the wife of Mah′lon, as a wife to restore the name of the dead man to his inheritance,[e] so that the name of the dead man will not be cut off from among his brothers and from the city gate of his home. You are witnesses today.”[f]

11 At this all the people who were in the city gate and the elders said: “We are witnesses! May Jehovah grant the wife who is entering your house to be like Rachel and like Le′ah, both of whom built the house of Israel.[g] May you prosper in Eph′ra·thah[h] and make a good name* in Beth′le·hem.[i]

13 So Bo′az took Ruth and she became his wife. He had relations with her, and Jehovah let her conceive and she gave birth to a son. 14 Then the women said to Na·o′mi: “Praised be Jehovah, who has not left you without a repurchaser today. 1 Now there was a man of Ra·math·a′im-zo′phim*[a] of the mountainous region of E′phra·im[b] whose name was El·ka′nah,[c] the son of Je·ro′ham, the son of E·li′hu, the son of To′hu, the son of Zuph, an E′phra·im·ite. 2 He had two wives; one was named Han′nah, and the other was named Pe·nin′nah. Pe·nin′nah had children, but Han′nah had no children. 3 That man went up from his city year after year to worship* and to sacrifice to Jehovah of armies in Shi′loh.[a] That is where the two sons of E′li, Hoph′ni and Phin′e·has,[b] served as priests to Jehovah.[c]

4 One day when El·ka′nah offered a sacrifice, he gave portions to his wife Pe·nin′nah as well as to all her sons and her daughters,[a] 5 but to Han′nah he gave a special portion, because Han′nah was the one he loved; but Jehovah had not given her children.* 6 Moreover, her rival wife taunted her relentlessly in order to upset her because Jehovah had not given her children. 7 That is what she would do year after year; whenever Han′nah went up to the house of Jehovah,[b] her rival would taunt her so much that she would weep and not eat. 8 But her husband El·ka′nah said to her: "Han′nah, why do you weep, and why do you not eat, and why are you so sad?* Am I not better to you than ten sons?"

9 Then Han′nah got up after they had finished eating and drinking in Shi′loh. At the time, E′li the priest was sitting on the seat by the doorpost of the temple*[c] of Jehovah. 10 Han′nah was extremely bitter,* and she began to pray to Jehovah[d] and to weep uncontrollably. 11 And she made this vow: "O Jehovah of armies, if you look upon the affliction of your servant and remember me and you do not forget your servant and give to your servant a male child,[e] I will give him to Jehovah all the days of his life, and no razor will touch his head."[f]

12 While she prayed for a long time before Jehovah, E′li was watching her mouth. 13 Han′nah was speaking in her heart, only her lips were trembling, but her voice was not heard. So E′li thought she was drunk. 14 E′li said to her: "How long will you stay drunk? Stop drinking your wine." 15 At this Han′nah answered: "No, my lord! I am a woman under great stress;* I have not drunk wine or anything alcoholic, but I am pouring out my soul# before Jehovah.[a] 16 Do not take your servant for a worthless woman, for I have been speaking until now out of my great anguish and distress." 17 Then E′li answered: "Go in peace, and may the God of Israel grant your petition that you have asked of him."[b] 18 To this she said: "Let your servant find favor in your eyes." And the woman went on her way and ate, and her face was no longer downcast.

19 Then they got up early in the morning and bowed before Jehovah, after which they returned to their house in Ra′mah.[c] El·ka′nah had sexual relations with his wife Han′nah, and Jehovah gave attention to* her.[d] 20 Within a year* Han′nah became pregnant and gave birth to a son and named[e] him Samuel,# because, as she said, "it is from Jehovah that I have asked him."

21 In time El·ka′nah went up with all his household to offer the yearly sacrifice to Jehovah[f] and to present his vow offering. 22 But Han′nah did not go up,[g] for she said to her husband: "As soon as the boy is weaned, I will bring him; then he will appear before Jehovah and remain there from then on."[h] 23 El·ka′nah her husband then said to her: "Do what you think is best.* Stay at home until you wean him. May Jehovah carry out what you have said." So the woman stayed at home and nursed her son until she weaned him.

24 As soon as she had weaned him, she took him up to Shi′loh, along with a three-year-old bull, one e′phah* of flour, and a large jar of wine,[a] and she came to the house of Jehovah in Shi′loh[b] and brought the young boy with her. 25 Then they slaughtered the bull and brought the boy to E′li. 26 With that she said: "Pardon me, my lord! As surely as you live,* my lord, I am the woman who was standing with you in this place to pray to Jehovah.[c] 27 It was for this boy that I prayed, and Jehovah granted my petition that I asked of him.[d] 28 I, in turn, now lend him to Jehovah. "My heart rejoices in Jehovah;[e]

My horn* is exalted by Jehovah.
My mouth is opened wide against my enemies,
For I rejoice in your acts of salvation.
2 There is no one holy like Jehovah,
There is no one but you,[f]

He lifts up the poor from the ash heap,*[f]
To make them sit with princes,
Giving them a seat of honor.
To Jehovah belong earth's supports,[g]
And he places the productive land upon them.
9 He guards the steps of his loyal ones,[h]
But the wicked will be silenced in darkness,[i] became a minister of* Jehovah[a] before E'li the priest.

12 Now the sons of E'li were wicked men;[b] they had no regard for Jehovah. 13 This is what they did with the due right of the priests from the people:[c] Whenever any man was offering a sacrifice, an attendant of the priest came with a three-pronged fork in his hand when the meat was boiling, 14 and he would thrust it into the basin, the two-handled cooking pot, the cauldron, or the one-handled cooking pot. Whatever the fork brought up, the priest would take for himself. That is what they would do in Shi'loh to all the Israelites coming there. 15 Also, even before the man sacrificing could make the fat smoke,[d] an attendant of the priest would come and say to him: "Give the priest meat to roast. He will not take boiled meat from you, only raw meat." 16 When the man would say to him: "Let them first be sure to make the fat smoke,[e] then take for yourself whatever you desire,"* he would say: "No, give it to me now; if not, I will take it by force!" 17 Thus the sin of the attendants came to be very great before Jehovah,[f] for the men treated the offering of Jehovah with disrespect.

18 Now Samuel was ministering[g] before Jehovah, wearing* a linen eph'od,[h] though he was just a boy. 19 Also, his mother would make for him a little sleeveless coat, and she brought it up to him year after year when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.[i] 20 And E'li blessed El·ka'nah and his wife and said: "May Jehovah grant you a child from this wife in place of the one who was lent to Jehovah."[j] And they went back home. 21 Jehovah turned his attention to Han'nah, so that she could conceive;[a] and she gave birth to three more sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel continued growing up before Jehovah.[b]

22 Now E'li was very old, but he had heard about everything that his sons were doing[c] to all Israel and how they would lie down with the women who served at the entrance of the tent of meeting.[d] 23 He used to say to them: "Why do you keep doing things like these? For the things I am hearing about you from all the people are bad. 24 No, my sons, the report that I hear circulating among the people of Jehovah is not good. 25 If a man should sin against another man, someone may appeal to Jehovah for him;* but if a man should sin against Jehovah,[e] who can pray for him?" But they refused to listen to their father, for Jehovah had determined to put them to death.[f] 26 Meanwhile, the boy Samuel kept growing in stature and in favor both with Jehovah and with the people.[g]

27 A man of God came to E'li and said to him: "This is what Jehovah says: 'Did I not plainly reveal myself to your father's house while they were in Egypt as slaves to the house of Phar'aoh?[h] 28 And he was chosen out of all the tribes of Israel[i] to serve as my priest and to go up on my altar[j] to make sacrifices, to offer incense,* and to bear an eph'od before me; and I gave to the house of your forefather all the offerings made by fire of the Israelites.#[k] 29 Why do you men scorn* my sacrifice and my offering that I have commanded in my place of dwelling?[a] Why do you keep honoring your sons more than me by fattening yourselves from the best portions of every offering of my people Israel?[b]

30 "'That is why the word of Jehovah the God of Israel is: "I did indeed say that your house and the house of your forefather would always walk before me."[c] But now Jehovah declares: "It is unthinkable, on my part, because those honoring me I will honor,[d] but those despising me will be treated with contempt." 31 Look! Days are coming when I will cut off your strength* and that of your father's house, so that no man in your house will live to old age.[e] 32 And you will look upon a rival in my dwelling amid all the good that is done to Israel,[f] and never again will there be an old man in your house. 33 The man of yours whom I do not cut off from serving at my altar will cause your eyes to fail and will bring you grief,* but the greater number of your house will die by the sword of men.[g] 34 And what happens to your two sons, Hoph'ni and Phin'e·has, will be the sign for you: On one day both of them will die.[h] 35 Then I will raise up for myself a faithful priest.[i] He will act in harmony with what is my heart's desire;* and I will build for him a lasting house, and he will walk before my anointed one always. 36 Anyone who remains in your house will come and bow down to him for the payment of money and a loaf of bread, and will say: "Assign me, please, to one of the priestly offices to eat a piece of bread."'"[j]

3 Meanwhile, the boy Samuel was ministering[a] to Jehovah before E'li, but word from Jehovah had become rare in those days; visions[b] were not widespread.

2 One day E'li was lying down in his usual place, and his eyes had grown dim; he was not able to see.[c] 3 The lamp of God[d] had not yet been extinguished, and Samuel was lying in the temple*[e] of Jehovah, where the Ark of God was. 4 Jehovah then called Samuel. He answered: "Here I am." 5 He ran to E'li and said: "Here I am, for you called me." But he said: "I did not call. Lie down again." So he went and lay down. 6 Jehovah called once again: "Samuel!" At this Samuel got up and went to E'li and said: "Here I am, for you called me." But he said: "I did not call, my son. Lie down again." 7 (Now Samuel had not yet come to know Jehovah, and the word of Jehovah had not yet been revealed to him.)[f] 8 So Jehovah called again, a third time: "Samuel!" At that he got up and went to E'li and said: "Here I am, for you called me."

E'li then realized that it was Jehovah who was calling the boy. 9 So E'li said to Samuel: "Go, lie down, and if he calls you, you should say, 'Speak, Jehovah, for your servant is listening.'" And Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 Jehovah came and stood there, and he called as at the other times: "Samuel, Samuel!" At this Samuel said: "Speak, for your servant is listening." 11 Jehovah said to Samuel: "Look! I am doing something in Israel that will make both ears of anyone who hears about it tingle.[g] 12 On that day I will carry out toward E'li all that I said about his house, from start to finish.[a] 13 You must tell him that I am bringing a lasting judgment on his house for the error that he has known about,[b] for his sons are cursing God,[c] but he has not rebuked them.[d] 14 That is why I have sworn to the house of E′li that the error of the house of E′li will never be atoned for by sacrifices or by offerings."[e]

15 Samuel lay down until the morning; then he opened the doors of Jehovah's house. Samuel was afraid to tell E′li of the vision. 16 But E′li called for Samuel: "Samuel, my son!" At this he said: "Here I am." 17 He asked: "What message did he speak to you? Please, do not hide it from me. May God do so to you and add to it if you hide from me a single word of all that he said to you." 18 So Samuel told him everything, and he did not hide anything from him. E′li said: "It is Jehovah. Let him do what is good in his eyes."

19 Samuel continued growing up, and Jehovah himself was with him[f] and did not let any of all his words go unfulfilled.* 20 All Israel from Dan to Be′er-she′ba became aware that Samuel had been confirmed as Jehovah's prophet. 21 And Jehovah continued to appear in Shi′loh, for Jehovah revealed himself to Samuel in Shi′loh by the word of Jehovah.[g]

4 And the word of Samuel went out to all Israel.

Then Israel went out to meet the Phi·lis′tines in battle; they camped beside Eb·en·e′zer, and the Phi·lis′tines were encamped at A′phek. 2 The Phi·lis′tines drew up in battle formation to meet Israel, but the battle went badly and Israel was defeated by the Phi·lis′tines, who struck down about 4,000 men from the battle line in the field. 3 When the people returned to the camp, the elders of Israel said: "Why did Jehovah allow us to be defeated* today by the Phi·lis′tines?[a] Let us take the ark of Jehovah's covenant with us from Shi′loh,[b] so that it may be with us and save us from the hand of our enemies." 4 So the people sent men to Shi′loh, and they carried from there the ark of the covenant of Jehovah of armies, who sits enthroned above* the cherubs.[c] The two sons of E′li, Hoph′ni and Phin′e·has,[d] were also there with the ark of the covenant of the true God.

5 As soon as the ark of the covenant of Jehovah came into the camp, all the Israelites broke out into loud shouting, so that the earth shook. 6 When the Phi·lis′tines heard the sound of the shouting, they said: "Why is there such loud shouting in the camp of the Hebrews?" Finally they learned that the Ark of Jehovah had come into the camp. 7 The Phi·lis′tines became afraid, for they said: "God has come into the camp!"[e] So they said: "Too bad for us, for nothing like this has ever happened before! 8 Too bad for us! Who will save us from the hand of this majestic God? This is the God who struck Egypt with every sort of slaughter in the wilderness.[f] 9 Be courageous and act like men, you Phi·lis′tines, so that you may not serve the Hebrews just as they have served you.[g] Act like men and fight!" 10 So the Phi·lis′tines fought and Israel was defeated,[h] and each one fled to his tent. The slaughter was very great; on Israel's side, 30,000 foot soldiers fell. 11 Moreover, the Ark of God was captured, and the two sons of E′li, Hoph′ni and Phin′e·has, died.[a]

12 A man of Benjamin ran from the battle line and arrived at Shi′loh on that day with his garments ripped apart and dirt on his head.[b] 13 When the man arrived, E′li was sitting on the seat by the roadside watching, because his heart was trembling over the Ark of the true God.[c] The man went into the city to report the news, and the whole city began crying out. 14 When E′li heard the sound of the outcry, he asked: "What does the sound of this turmoil mean?" The same man hurried in and reported the news to E′li. 15 (Now E′li was 98 years old, and his eyes stared straight ahead, and he could not see.)[d] 16 Then the man said to E′li: "I am the one who came from the battle line! Just today I fled from the battle line." At this he asked: "What happened, my son?" 17 So the bearer of the news related: "Israel has fled from the Phi·lis′tines, and there was a great defeat among the people;[e] also your own two sons, Hoph′ni and Phin′e·has, have died,[f] and the Ark of the true God has been captured."[g]

18 At the moment he mentioned the Ark of the true God, E′li fell backward from his seat beside the gate, and his neck was broken and he died, for he was old and heavy. He had judged Israel for 40 years. 19 His daughter-in-law, the wife of Phin′e·has, was pregnant and close to giving birth. When she heard the report that the Ark of the true God had been captured and that her father-in-law and her husband had died, she doubled over and unexpectedly went into labor and gave birth. 20 As she was dying, the women standing by her said: "Do not be afraid, for you have given birth to a son." She did not answer and did not pay attention to it.* 21 But she named the boy Ich′a·bod,*[a] saying: "Glory has gone away from Israel into exile,"[b] referring to the capture of the Ark of the true God and what happened to her father-in-law and her husband.[c] 22 She said: "Glory has gone away from Israel into exile, because the Ark of the true God has been captured."[d]

5 When the Phi·lis′tines captured the Ark[e] of the true God, they brought it from Eb·en·e′zer to Ash′dod. 2 The Phi·lis′tines took the Ark of the true God and brought it into the house* of Da′gon and set it beside Da′gon.[f] 3 When the Ash′dod·ites got up early the next day, there was Da′gon fallen facedown on the ground before the Ark of Jehovah.[g] So they took Da′gon and returned him to his place.[h] 4 When they got up early in the morning on the following day, there was Da′gon fallen facedown on the ground before the Ark of Jehovah. The head of Da′gon and the palms of both his hands were cut off and were lying on the threshold. Only the fish part* had been left intact. 5 That is why to this day, the priests of Da′gon and all those who enter the house of Da′gon do not walk on the threshold of Da′gon in Ash′dod.

6 The hand of Jehovah was heavy against the Ash′dod·ites, and he devastated them by striking Ash′dod and its territories with piles.*[i] 7 When the men of Ash′dod saw what was happening, they said: "Do not let the Ark of the God of Israel remain with us, for his hand has dealt harshly with us and our god Da′gon." 8 So they sent for and gathered all the lords of the Phi·lis′tines and asked them: "What should we do with the Ark of the God of Israel?" They replied: "Let the Ark of the God of Israel be moved to Gath."[a] So they moved the Ark of the God of Israel there.

9 After they moved it there, the hand of Jehovah came against the city, bringing great panic. He struck the men of the city, from small to great, and piles broke out on them.[b] 10 So they sent the Ark of the true God to Ek′ron,[c] but as soon as the Ark of the true God came to Ek′ron, the Ek′ron·ites began to cry out: "They have brought the Ark of the God of Israel to us to put us and our people to death!"[d] 11 Then they sent for and gathered all the lords of the Phi·lis′tines and said: "Send the Ark of the God of Israel away; let it return to its place so that we and our people may not be put to death." For the terror of death had spread through the whole city; the hand of the true God had been very heavy there,[e] 12 and the men who did not die had been struck with piles. And the city's cry for help ascended to the heavens.

6 The Ark[f] of Jehovah was in Phi·lis′tine territory for seven months. 2 The Phi·lis′tines called the priests and the diviners[g] and asked: "What should we do with the Ark of Jehovah? Let us know how we should send it back to its place." 3 They replied: "If you send the ark of the covenant of Jehovah the God of Israel away, do not send it back without an offering. You should by all means return to him a guilt offering.[h] Only then will you be healed, and it will be made known to you why his hand has not turned away from you." 4 So they asked: "What guilt offering should we send to him?" They said: "According to the number of the lords of the Phi·lis′tines,[a] send five golden piles* and five golden mice, for the same scourge has afflicted every one of you and your lords. 5 You should make images of your piles and images of your mice[b] that are bringing the land to ruin, and you should honor the God of Israel. Perhaps he will lighten the weight of his hand that is on you and your god and your land.[c] 6 Why should you harden your heart as Egypt and Phar′aoh hardened their hearts?[d] When He dealt harshly with them,[e] they had to send Israel away, and they departed.[f] 7 Now prepare a new wagon and two cows that have calves and have never been under a yoke. Then hitch the cows to the wagon, but take their calves back home, away from them. 8 Take the Ark of Jehovah and place it on the wagon, and put the golden articles that you are sending to him as a guilt offering in a box next to it.[g] Then send it on its way 9 and watch: If it goes up the road to Beth-she′mesh,[h] to its own territory, then he is the one who has done this great evil to us. But if not, we will know that it was not his hand that struck us; it happened to us by coincidence."

10 The men did accordingly. They took two cows that had calves and hitched them to the wagon, and the calves they penned up at home. 11 Then they put the Ark of Jehovah on the wagon, as well as the box containing the golden mice and the images of their piles. 12 And the cows went straight ahead on the road to Beth-she′mesh.[a] They stayed on the one highway, mooing as they went; they did not turn either to the right or to the left. All the while the lords of the Phi·lis′tines were walking behind them as far as the boundary of Beth-she′mesh. 13 The people of Beth-she′mesh were reaping the wheat harvest in the valley plain.* When they raised their eyes and saw the Ark, they were overjoyed at seeing it. 14 The wagon came into the field of Joshua the Beth-she′mite and stopped there near a large stone. So they chopped up the wood of the wagon, and they offered the cows[b] as a burnt offering to Jehovah.

15 The Levites[c] took down the Ark of Jehovah and the box that was with it, which contained the golden articles, and they put them on the large stone. The men of Beth-she′mesh[d] offered up burnt offerings and made sacrifices on that day to Jehovah.

16 When the five lords of the Phi·lis′tines saw it, they returned to Ek′ron on that day. 17 Now these are the golden piles that the Phi·lis′tines sent as a guilt offering to Jehovah:[e] one for Ash′dod,[f] one for Gaz′a, one for Ash′ke·lon, one for Gath,[g] one for Ek′ron.[h] 18 And the number of the golden mice corresponded to the number of all the cities of the Phi·lis′tines that belonged to the five lords—both the fortified cities and the villages in the open country.

And the large stone upon which they rested the Ark of Jehovah serves as a witness down to this day in the field of Joshua the Beth-she′mite. 19 But God struck down the men of Beth-she′mesh, because they had looked upon the Ark of Jehovah. He struck down 50,070* among the people, and the people began mourning because Jehovah had struck them down with a great slaughter.[a] 20 So the men of Beth-she′mesh asked: "Who will be able to stand before Jehovah, this holy God,[b] and to whom will he go away from us?"[c] 21 So they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kir′i-ath-je′a-rim,[d] saying: "The Phi·lis′tines have returned the Ark of Jehovah. Come down and take it up with you."[e]

7 So the men of Kir′i-ath-je′a-rim came and took the Ark of Jehovah up into the house of A·bin′a·dab[f] on the hill, and they sanctified his son El·e·a′zar to guard the Ark of Jehovah.

2 A long time elapsed, 20 years in all, from the day of the Ark's coming to Kir′i-ath-je′a-rim, and all the house of Israel began to seek* after Jehovah.[g] 3 Samuel then said to all the house of Israel: "If you are returning to Jehovah with all your heart,[h] put away the foreign gods[i] and the Ash′to-reth images[j] from among you, and direct your heart unswervingly to Jehovah and serve only him,[k] and he will rescue you from the hand of the Phi·lis′tines."[l] 4 At that the Israelites got rid of the Ba′als and the Ash′to-reth images and served only Jehovah.[m]

5 Then Samuel said: "Gather all Israel together at Miz′pah,[n] and I will pray to Jehovah in your behalf."[o] 6 So they gathered together at Miz′pah, and they drew water and poured it out before Jehovah and kept a fast on that day.[p] There they said: "We have sinned against Jehovah."[q] And Samuel began serving as judge[r] over the Israelites in Miz′pah.

7 When the Phi·lis′tines heard that the Israelites had gathered together at Miz′pah, the lords of the Phi·lis′tines[a] went up against Israel. When the Israelites heard of it, they were afraid because of the Phi·lis′tines. 8 So the Israelites said to Samuel: "Do not stop calling to Jehovah our God to help us[b] and to save us from the hand of the Phi·lis′tines." 9 Then Samuel took a suckling lamb and offered it up as a whole burnt offering[c] to Jehovah; and Samuel called to Jehovah for help in behalf of Israel, and Jehovah answered him.[d] 10 As Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Phi·lis′tines advanced for battle against Israel. Jehovah now caused it to thunder loudly[e] on that day against the Phi·lis′tines, and He threw them into confusion,[f] and they were defeated before Israel.[g] 11 At that the men of Israel went out from Miz′pah and pursued the Phi·lis′tines, striking them down as far as south of Beth-car. 12 Then Samuel took a stone[h] and set it between Miz′pah and Jesh′a·nah and named it Eb·en·e′zer,* for he said: "Until now Jehovah has helped us."[i] 13 Thus the Phi·lis′tines were subdued, and they did not come again into the territory of Israel;[j] and the hand of Jehovah continued against the Phi·lis′tines all the days of Samuel.[k] 14 Also, the cities that the Phi·lis′tines had taken from Israel were returned to Israel, from Ek′ron to Gath, and Israel recovered their territory from the hand of the Phi·lis′tines.

There was also peace between Israel and the Am′or·ites.[l]

15 Samuel kept on judging Israel throughout his life.[m] 16 Each year he traveled in a circuit to Beth′el,[n] Gil′gal,[o] and Miz′pah,[a] and he judged Israel in all these places. 17 But he would return to Ra′mah,[b] because his house was there, and there he also judged Israel. He built an altar there to Jehovah.[c]

8 When Samuel had grown old, he appointed his sons as judges for Israel. 2 The name of his firstborn son was Joel, and the name of his second, A·bi′jah;[d] they were judges in Be′er-she′ba. 3 But his sons did not walk in his ways; they were inclined to pursue dishonest profit,[e] they accepted bribes,[f] and they perverted justice.[g]

4 In time all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ra′mah. 5 They said to him: "Look! You have grown old, but your sons are not walking in your ways. Now appoint for us a king to judge us like all the other nations."[h] 6 But it displeased* Samuel when they said: "Give us a king to judge us." Then Samuel prayed to Jehovah, 7 and Jehovah said to Samuel: "Listen to everything the people say to you; for it is not you whom they have rejected, but it is I whom they have rejected as their king.[i] 8 They are doing just as they have done from the day I brought them up out of Egypt until this day; they keep forsaking me[j] and serving other gods,[k] and that is what they are doing to you. 9 Now listen to them. However, you should solemnly warn them; tell them what the king who rules over them will have the right to demand."

10 So Samuel told the people who were asking him for a king all the words of Jehovah. 11 He said: "This is what the king who rules over you will have the right to demand:[l] He will take your sons[m] and put

19 However, the people refused to listen to what Samuel told them, and they said: "No, we are determined to have a king over us. 20 Then we will be like all the other nations, and our king will judge us and lead us and fight our battles." 21 After Samuel heard all the words of the people, he repeated them in the hearing of Jehovah. 22 Jehovah said to Samuel: "Listen to them, and appoint a king to reign over them."[m] Samuel then said to the men of Israel: "Each of you should return to his city."

9 There was a man of Benjamin named Kish,[n] the son of A·bi′el, the son of Ze′ror son of Be·co′rath son of A·phi′ah, a Ben′ja·min·ite[a] and a very wealthy man. 2 He had a son named Saul,[b] who was young and handsome—there was no man among the Israelites more handsome than he—and he stood head and shoulders taller than all the people.

3 When the donkeys* belonging to Saul's father Kish got lost, Kish said to his son Saul: "Please take with you one of the attendants and go look for the donkeys." 4 They passed through the mountainous region of E′phra·im and through the land of Shal′i·shah, and they did not find them. They traveled through the land of Sha′a·lim, but the donkeys were not there. They passed through the entire land of the Ben′ja·min·ites, and they did not find them.

5 They came into the land of Zuph, and Saul said to his attendant who was with him: "Come, let us return, so that my father does not start worrying about us rather than the donkeys."[c] 6 But the attendant replied: "Look, there is a man of God in this city, a man who is held in honor. All that he says is sure to come true.[d] Let us go there now. Perhaps he can tell us which way to go." 7 At this Saul said to his attendant: "If we go, what can we take to the man? There is no bread in our bags; there is nothing to take as a gift to the man of the true God. What do we have?" 8 So the attendant answered Saul again: "Look! There is a quarter of a shekel* of silver in my hand. I will give it to the man of the true God, and he will tell us which way to go." 9 (In former times in Israel, this was what a man would say when going to seek God: "Come, and let us go to the seer."[a] For the prophet of today used to be called a seer in former times.) 10 Then Saul said to his attendant: "What you said is good. Let us go." So they went to the city where the man of the true God was.

11 While they were going up the ascent to the city, they met girls going out to draw water. So they said to them: "Is the seer[b] in this place?" 12 They answered: "He is. Look, he is just ahead of you. Hurry now, for today he has come to the city, because the people are making a sacrifice[c] today on the high place.[d] 13 As soon as you come into the city, you will find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. The people will not eat until he comes, for he is the one who blesses the sacrifice. Once that is done, those who are invited may eat. So now go up right away, and you will find him." 14 So they went up to the city. As they were coming into the middle of the city, there was Samuel coming out to meet them to go up to the high place.

15 The day before Saul came, Jehovah had told* Samuel: 16 "Tomorrow about this time, I will send to you a man from the land of Benjamin.[e] You must anoint him as leader over my people Israel,[f] and he will save my people from the hand of the Phi·lis'tines. For I have seen the affliction of my people, and their outcry has reached me."[g] 17 When Samuel saw Saul, Jehovah told him: "Here is the man of whom I said to you, 'This is the one who will govern my people.'"* [h]

18 Then Saul approached Samuel in the middle of the gate and said: "Tell me, please, where is the house of the seer?" 19 Samuel answered Saul: "I am the seer. Go up ahead of me to the high place, and you will eat with me today.[a] I will send you away in the morning, and I will tell you all that you want to know.* 20 As for the donkeys that were lost three days ago,[b] do not worry about them, for they have been found. And to whom does all that is desirable of Israel belong? Is it not to you and to the whole house of your father?"[c] 21 At this Saul answered: "Am I not a Ben'ja·minite of the smallest of the tribes of Israel,[d] and my family the most insignificant of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? So why have you spoken to me in this way?"

22 Then Samuel took Saul and his attendant and brought them to the dining hall and gave them a place at the head of those invited; there were about 30 men. 23 Samuel said to the cook: "Bring the portion that I gave you and told you, 'Set it aside.'" 24 At that the cook lifted up the leg and what was on it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel said: "What has been reserved has been set before you. Eat, because they have reserved it for you for this occasion. For I told them, 'I invited guests.'" So Saul ate with Samuel on that day. 25 Then they went down from the high place[e] to the city, and he continued to speak with Saul on the housetop. 26 They rose early, and at daybreak Samuel called to Saul on the housetop, saying: "Get ready, so that I may send you away." So Saul got ready and both he and Samuel went outside. 27 While they were descending toward the outskirts of the city, Samuel said to Saul: "Tell the attendant[f] to go on ahead of us," so he went on ahead. "But you, stand still now, so that I may let you hear the word of God."

10 Samuel then took the flask of oil and poured it out on Saul's head.[a] He kissed him and said: "Has not Jehovah anointed you as a leader[b] over his inheritance?[c] 2 When you leave me today, you will find two men near the tomb of Rachel[d] in the territory of Benjamin at Zel'zah, and they will say to you, 'The donkeys that you went to look for have been found, but now your father has forgotten about the donkeys[e] and is worried about you. He is saying: "What should I do about my son?"' 3 Go on from there until you come to the big tree of Ta'bor, where you will meet three men going up to the true God at Beth'el,[f] one carrying three young goats, one carrying three loaves of bread, and one carrying a large jar of wine. 4 They will ask about your welfare and give you two loaves, and you must accept the loaves from them. 5 After that you will come to the hill of the true God, where there is a garrison of the Phi·lis'tines. When you come to the city, you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place, and a stringed instrument and tambourine and flute and harp will be played ahead of them while they are prophesying. 6 The spirit of Jehovah will empower you,[g] and you will prophesy along with them and be changed into a different person.[h] 7 When these signs have taken place, do whatever your hand finds possible, because the true God is with you. 8 Then go down ahead of me to Gil'gal,[i] and I will go down to you there to offer up burnt sacrifices and communion sacrifices. You should wait for seven days until I come to you. Then I will let you know what you should do."

9 As soon as Saul turned around to leave Samuel, God began changing his heart to be like that of someone else, and all these signs came true on that day. 10 So they went from there to the hill, and a group of prophets met him. At once the spirit of God empowered him,[a] and he began to prophesy[b] among them. 11 When all those who previously knew him saw him prophesying with the prophets, they said to one another: "What has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?" 12 Then a man from there said: "But who is their father?" So it became a saying:* "Is Saul also among the prophets?"[c]

13 When he finished prophesying, he came to the high place. 14 The brother of Saul's father later said to him and to his attendant: "Where did you go?" At that he said: "To look for the donkeys,[d] but we saw that they were not there, so we went to Samuel." 15 Saul's uncle asked: "Please tell me, what did Samuel say to you?" 16 Saul replied to his uncle: "He told us that the donkeys had already been found." But Saul did not tell him what Samuel said about the matter of the kingship.

17 Samuel then called the people together to Jehovah at Miz'pah[e] 18 and said to the Israelites: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says: 'It was I who brought Israel up out of Egypt and who rescued you from the hand of Egypt[f] and from the hand of all the kingdoms that were oppressing you. 19 But today you have rejected your God[g] who was your Savior out of all your evils and distresses, and you said: "No, you should appoint a king over us." Now take your stand before Jehovah by your tribes and by your thousands.'"*

20 So Samuel had all the tribes of Israel draw near,[a] and the tribe of Benjamin was selected.[b] 21 Then he had the tribe of Benjamin draw near by its families, and the family of the Mat'rites was selected. Finally Saul the son of Kish was selected.[c] But when they went to look for him, he was nowhere to be found. 22 So they inquired of Jehovah:[d] "Has the man come here yet?" Jehovah answered: "There he is hiding himself among the luggage." 23 So they ran and brought him from there. When he stood in the middle of the people, he was head and shoulders taller than all the other people.[e] 24 Samuel said to all the people: "Do you see the one whom Jehovah has chosen,[f] that there is none like him among all the people?" And all the people began to shout: "Long live the king!"

25 Samuel spoke to the people about the rightful due of kings[g] and wrote it in a book and deposited it before Jehovah. Then Samuel sent all the people away, everyone to his house. 26 Saul also went to his home in Gib'e·ah, accompanied by the warriors whose hearts Jehovah had touched. 27 But some worthless men said: "How will this one save us?"[h] So they despised him, and they did not bring any gift to him.[i] But he said nothing about it.*

11 Then Na'hash the Am'mon·ite[j] came up and camped against Ja'besh[k] in Gil'e·ad. All the men of Ja'besh said to Na'hash: "Make a covenant* with us, and we will serve you." 2 Na'hash the Am'mon·ite said to them: "I will make it with you on this condition: that all your right eyes be bored out. I will do this to humiliate all Israel." 3 The elders of Ja'besh replied to him: "Give us seven days' time so that we can send messengers into all the territory of Israel. Then, if there is no one to rescue us, we will surrender to you." 4 In time the messengers came to Gib'e·ah[a] of Saul and spoke these words in the hearing of the people, and all the people wept at the top of their voice.

5 But Saul was coming from the field behind the herd, and Saul said: "What is the matter with the people? Why are they weeping?" So they related to him the words of the men of Ja'besh. 6 The spirit of God empowered Saul[b] when he heard these words, and he burned with anger. 7 So he took a pair of bulls and cut them into pieces, and he sent these into all the territory of Israel by the hand of the messengers, who said: "Whoever does not follow Saul and Samuel should expect this to be done to his cattle!" And the fear of Jehovah fell upon the people, so that they came out with one accord.* 8 Then he counted them in Be'zek, and there were 300,000 Israelites and 30,000 men of Judah. 9 They now said to the messengers who had come: "This is what you should say to the men of Ja'besh in Gil'e·ad, 'Tomorrow when the sun gets hot, you will be saved.'" With that the messengers came and told the men of Ja'besh, and they were overjoyed. 10 So the men of Ja'besh said: "Tomorrow we will surrender to you, and you may

11 On the next day, Saul divided the people into three bands, and they made their way into the middle of the camp during the morning watch* and struck down the Am'mon·ites[b] until the day grew hot. Those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together. 12 Then the people said to Samuel: "Who was saying, 'Is Saul to be king over us?'[c] Hand the men over, and we will put them to death." 13 However, Saul said: "Not a man should be put to death on this day,[d] for today Jehovah has rescued Israel."

14 Samuel later said to the people: "Come and let us go to Gil'gal[e] to reconfirm the kingship."[f] 15 So all the people went to Gil'gal, and in Gil'gal they made Saul king before Jehovah. Then they offered communion sacrifices there before Jehovah,[g] and Saul and all the men of Israel celebrated with great joy.[h]

12 Finally Samuel said to all Israel: "Here I have done* all that you asked of me, and I appointed a king to reign over you.[i] 2 Now here is the king who is leading* you![j] As for me, I have grown old and gray, and my sons are here with you,[k] and I have led you from my youth until this day.[l] 3 Here I am. 6 So Samuel said to the people: "Jehovah, who used Moses and Aaron and who brought your forefathers up out of the land of Egypt,[b] is a witness. 7 And now take your positions, and I will judge you before Jehovah in view of all the righteous acts that Jehovah has done for you and for your forefathers.

Jehovah has appointed a king over you.[c] 14 If you fear Jehovah[d] and serve him[e] and obey his voice[f] and you do not rebel against the order of Jehovah, and both you and the king who reigns over you follow Jehovah your God, fine. 15 But if you do not obey the voice of Jehovah and you rebel against the order of Jehovah, the hand of Jehovah will be against you and your fathers.[g] 16 Now take your positions and see this great thing that Jehovah is doing before your eyes. 17 Is it not the wheat harvest today? I will call on Jehovah to make it thunder and rain; then know and understand what an evil thing you have done in the eyes of Jehovah in asking for a king for yourselves."[h]

18 At that Samuel called to Jehovah, and Jehovah made it thunder and rain on that day, so that all the people were greatly in fear of Jehovah and of Samuel. 19 And all the people said to Samuel: "Pray to Jehovah your God for your servants,[i] as we do not want to die, for we have added to all our sins another evil by asking for a king."

20 So Samuel said to the people: "Do not be afraid. You have indeed done all this evil. Only do not turn away from following Jehovah,[j] and serve Jehovah with all your heart.[k] 21 Do not turn away to follow the empty things,[l] which are of no benefit[m] and cannot rescue, because they are empty. 22 For the sake of his great name,[n] Jehovah will not abandon his people,[o] for Jehovah has taken it upon himself to make you his people.[a] 23 As for me, it is unthinkable for me to sin against Jehovah by ceasing to pray in your behalf, and I will continue to instruct you in the good and right way. 24 Only fear Jehovah,[b] and serve him faithfully* with all your heart, for see what great things he has done for you.[c] 25 But if you flagrantly do what is bad, you will be swept away,[d] both you and your king."[e]

13 Saul was . . .* years old when he became king,[f] and for two years he reigned over Israel. 2 Saul chose 3,000 men out of Israel; 2,000 of these were with Saul at Mich'mash and in the mountainous region of Beth'el and 1,000 were with Jon'a·than[g] at Gib'e·ah[h] of Benjamin. He sent the rest of the people away, each one to his tent. 3 Then Jon'a·than struck down the garrison of the Phi·lis'tines[i] that was in Ge'ba,[j] and the Phi·lis'tines heard about it. And Saul had the horn blown[k] throughout all the land, saying: "Let the Hebrews hear!" 4 All Israel heard the news: "Saul has struck down a garrison of the Phi·lis'tines, and now Israel has become a stench among the Phi·lis'tines." So the people were summoned to follow Saul at Gil'gal.[l]

5 The Phi·lis'tines also gathered together to fight against Israel, with 30,000 war chariots and 6,000 horsemen and troops as numerous as the grains of sand on the seashore;[m] and they went up and camped in Mich'mash to the east of Beth-a'ven.[n] 6 And the men of Israel saw that they were in trouble, because they were hard-pressed; so the people hid in the caves,[o] the hollows, the crags, the cellars,* and the cisterns. 7 Some of the Hebrews even crossed the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gil′e·ad.[a] But Saul was still in Gil′gal, and all the people following him were trembling. 8 He continued waiting for seven days until the designated* time that Samuel had set, but Samuel did not come to Gil′gal, and the people were scattering from him. 9 Finally Saul said: "Bring to me the burnt sacrifice and the communion sacrifices." And he offered up the burnt sacrifice.[b]

10 But as soon as he had finished offering up the burnt sacrifice, Samuel arrived. So Saul went out to meet him and bless him. 11 Then Samuel said: "What have you done?" Saul replied: "I saw that the people were deserting me,[c] and you did not come within the designated time, and the Phi·lis′tines were gathering together at Mich′mash.[d] 12 So I said to myself, 'Now the Phi·lis′tines will come down against me at Gil′gal, and I have not sought the favor* of Jehovah.' So I felt obligated to offer up the burnt sacrifice."

13 At this Samuel said to Saul: "You have acted foolishly. You have not obeyed the commandment that Jehovah your God gave you.[e] If you had, Jehovah would have made your kingdom firm over Israel forever. 14 But now your kingdom will not last.[f] Jehovah will find a man agreeable to his heart,[g] and Jehovah will commission him as a leader over his people,[h] because you did not obey what Jehovah commanded you."[i]

15 Then Samuel rose and went his way up from Gil′gal to Gib′e·ah of Benjamin, and Saul took the count of the people; those still with him were about 600 men.[a] 16 Saul, his son Jon′a·than, and the people still with them were dwelling in Ge′ba[b] of Benjamin, and the Phi·lis′tines had encamped at Mich′mash.[c] 17 And the raiding parties would go out from the camp of the Phi·lis′tines in three bands. One band would turn toward the road to Oph′rah, to the land of Shu′al; 18 another band would turn toward the road of Beth-ho′ron;[d] and the third band would turn toward the road leading to the boundary that overlooks the valley of Ze·bo′im, toward the wilderness.

19 Now there was not a metalworker to be found in all the land of Israel, because the Phi·lis′tines had said: "So that the Hebrews may not make a sword or a spear." 20 And all the Israelites had to go down to the Phi·lis′tines to get their plowshares, mattocks, axes, or sickles sharpened. 21 The price for sharpening was a pim* for the plowshares, for the mattocks, for the three-toothed instruments, for the axes, and for fixing fast the oxgoad. 22 And on the day of battle, not a sword or a spear was found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and Jon′a·than;[e] only Saul and his son Jon′a·than had weapons.

23 Now a garrison* of the Phi·lis′tines had gone out to the ravine pass of Mich′mash.[f]

14 One day Jon′a·than[g] the son of Saul said to the attendant carrying his weapons: "Come and let us cross over to the Phi·lis′tine outpost on the other side." But he did not tell his father. 2 Saul was staying on the outskirts of Gib′e·ah[h] under the pomegranate tree in

Mig′ron, and there were about 600 men with him.[a] 3 (And A·hi′jah the son of A·hi′tub,[b] the brother of Ich′a·bod,[c] the son of Phin′e·has,[d] the son of E′li,[e] the priest of Jehovah in Shi′loh,[f] was carrying the eph′od.)[g] And the people did not know that Jon′a·than had gone. 4 Now between the passages that Jon′a·than was trying to cross over to reach the outpost of the Phi·lis′tines, there was a toothlike crag on one side and a toothlike crag on the other side; the name of the one was Bo′zez, and the name of the other was Se′neh. 5 The one crag was a pillar on the north facing Mich′mash, and the other was on the south facing Ge′ba.[h]

6 So Jon′a·than said to his armor-bearer: "Come and let us cross over to the outpost of these uncircumcised men.[i] Perhaps Jehovah will act in our behalf, for nothing can hinder Jehovah from saving by many or by few."[j] 7 At this his armor-bearer said to him: "Do whatever your heart impels you to do. Turn wherever you wish, and I will follow you wherever your heart impels you." 8 Then Jon′a·than said: "We will cross over to those men and reveal our presence to them. 9 If they say to us, 'Stand still until we come to you!' we will stand where we are and not go up to them. 10 But if they say, 'Come up against us!' we will go up, because Jehovah will give them into our hand. This will be our sign."[k]

11 Then both of them revealed their presence to the outpost of the Phi·lis′tines. The Phi·lis′tines said: "Look! The Hebrews are coming out from the holes where they have been hiding."[l] 12 So the men of the outpost said to Jon′a·than and his armor-bearer: "Come up to us, and we will teach you a lesson!"[a] At once Jon′a·than said to his armor-bearer: "Follow me, for Jehovah will give them into the hand of Israel."[b] 13 And Jon′a·than climbed up on his hands and feet, and his armor-bearer was behind him; and the Phi·lis′tines began to fall before Jon′a·than, and his armor-bearer was putting them to death behind him. 14 In the first attack that Jon′a·than and his armor-bearer made, they struck down about 20 men within about half the plowing line in an acre of field.*

15 Then terror spread in the field camp and among all the people of the outpost, and even the raiding parties[c] were terrified. The earth began quaking, and a terror from God ensued. 16 Saul's watchmen in Gib′e·ah[d] of Benjamin saw that the turmoil was spreading in every direction.[e]

17 Saul said to the people with him: "Take a count, please, and see who has left us." When they took the count, they saw that Jon′a·than and his armor-bearer were not there. 18 Saul now said to A·hi′jah:[f] "Bring the Ark of the true God near!" (For the Ark of the true God was with the Israelites at that time.) 19 And while Saul was speaking to the priest, the turmoil in the camp of the Phi·lis′tines was growing greater and greater. Then Saul said to the priest: "Stop what you are doing." 20 So Saul and all the people with him assembled and went into the battle, where they found that the Phi·lis′tines had turned their swords against one another, and the confusion was very great. 21 Also, the Hebrews who had previously sided with the Phi·lis′tines and who had come up with them into the camp were going over to Israel under Saul and Jon′a·than. 22 All the men of Israel who had hidden[a] in the mountainous region of E′phra·im heard that the Phi·lis′tines had fled, and they too joined in pursuing them in the battle. 23 So Jehovah saved Israel on that day,[b] and the battle extended as far as Beth-a′ven.[c]

24 But the men of Israel were hard-pressed on that day, for Saul had put the people under this oath: "Cursed is the man who eats any food* before the evening and until I have taken vengeance on my enemies!" So none of the people ate any food.[d]

25 And all the people* came into the forest, and there was honey on the ground. 26 When the people came into the forest, they saw the honey dripping, but no one would put his hand to his mouth, because they feared the oath. 27 But Jon′a·than had not heard his father put the people under an oath,[e] so he stretched out the tip of the staff that was in his hand and dipped it into the honeycomb. When he drew his hand back to his mouth, his eyes brightened. 28 At this one of the people said: "Your father put the people under a strict oath, saying, 'Cursed is the man who eats food today!'[f] That is why the people are so tired." 29 However, Jon′a·than said: "My father has brought great trouble* on the land. Look at how my eyes brightened because I tasted this little bit of honey. 30 How much better if the people had eaten freely[g] today from the spoil of their enemies that they found! For then the slaughter of the Phi·lis′tines would have been even greater."

31 On that day they kept striking down the Phi·lis′tines from Mich′mash to Ai′ja·lon,[a] and the people became very tired. 32 So the people began rushing greedily at the spoil, and they took sheep and cattle and calves and slaughtered them on the ground, and they ate the meat along with the blood.[b] 33 So it was reported to Saul: "Look! The people are sinning against Jehovah by eating meat with the blood."[c] At this he said: "You have acted faithlessly. Roll a large stone to me immediately." 34 Saul then said: "Spread out among the people and say to them, 'Each of you must bring his bull and his sheep and slaughter them here and then eat them. Do not sin against Jehovah by eating meat with the blood.'"[d] So each of them brought his bull with him that night and slaughtered it there. 35 And Saul built an altar to Jehovah.[e] This was the first altar he built to Jehovah.

36 Saul later said: "Let us go down after the Phi·lis′tines by night and plunder them until the morning light. We will not leave a single survivor." To this they said: "Do whatever seems good in your eyes." Then the priest said: "Let us approach the true God here."[f] 37 And Saul inquired of God: "Should I go down after the Phi·lis′tines?[g] Will you give them into the hand of Israel?" But God did not answer him on that day. 38 So Saul said: "Come here, all you chiefs of the people, and find out what sin has been committed today. 39 For as surely as Jehovah is alive, who rescued Israel, even if it turns out to be Jon′a·than my son, he must die." But none of the people would answer him. 40 Then he said to all Israel: "You will be on one side, and my son Jon'a·than and I will be on the other side." At this the people said to Saul: "Do whatever seems good in your eyes."

41 Saul then said to Jehovah: "O God of Israel, answer with the Thum'mim!"[a] Then Jon'a·than and Saul were selected, and the people went free. 42 Saul now said: "Cast lots[b] to decide between me and my son Jon'a·than." And Jon'a·than was selected. 43 Then Saul said to Jon'a·than: "Tell me, what have you done?" So Jon'a·than told him: "I merely tasted a little honey on the tip of the staff in my hand.[c] Here I am! I am ready to die!"

44 At this Saul said: "Thus may God do and may he add to it if you do not die, Jon'a·than."[d] 45 But the people said to Saul: "Should Jon'a·than die—the one who brought this great victory*[e] to Israel? It is unthinkable! As surely as Jehovah is alive, not even a single hair of his head should fall to the ground, for it was with God that he acted this day."[f] With that the people rescued# Jon'a·than, and he did not die.

46 So Saul stopped pursuing the Phi·lis'tines, and the Phi·lis'tines went to their own territory.

47 Saul secured the kingship over Israel and fought against all his enemies on every side, against the Mo'ab·ites,[g] the Am'mon·ites,[h] the E'dom·ites,[i] the kings of Zo'bah,[j] and the Phi·lis'tines;[k] and wherever he went he defeated them. 48 And he fought bravely and conquered the A·mal'ek·ites[l] and rescued Israel from the hand of their plunderers.

49 The sons of Saul were Jon'a·than, Ish'vi, and Mal'chi·shu'a.[a] And he had two daughters; the name of the older one was Me'rab,[b] and the name of the younger one, Mi'chal.[c] 50 The name of Saul's wife was A·hin'o·am the daughter of A·him'a·az. The name of the chief of his army was Ab'ner[d] the son of Ner, the uncle of Saul. 51 Kish[e] was the father of Saul, and Ner[f] the father of Ab'ner was the son of A·bi'el.

52 There was fierce warfare with the Phi·lis'tines all the days of Saul.[g] When Saul saw any strong or courageous man, he would recruit him into his service.[h]

15 Then Samuel said to Saul: "Jehovah sent me to anoint you as king over his people Israel;[i] now listen to what Jehovah has to say.[j] 2 This is what Jehovah of armies says: 'I will call to account the A·mal'ek·ites for what they did to Israel when they opposed them along their way coming up from Egypt.[k] 3 Now go, and strike down the A·mal'ek·ites,[l] and devote them to destruction[m] along with all that they have. You must not spare* them; you are to put them to death,[n] man as well as woman, child as well as infant, bull as well as sheep, camel as well as donkey.'"[o] 4 Saul summoned the people and counted them in Te·la'im: There were 200,000 foot soldiers and 10,000 men of Judah.[p]

5 Saul advanced as far as the city of Am'a·lek and set an ambush by the valley.* 6 Saul then said to the Ken'ites:[q] "Go, depart from among the A·mal'ek·ites, so that I do not sweep you away with them.[r] For you showed loyal love to all the people of Israel[a] at the time they came up out of Egypt." So the Ken'ites departed from the midst of Am'a·lek. 7 After that Saul struck down the A·mal'·ek·ites[b] from Hav'i·lah[c] as far as Shur,[d] which is next to Egypt. 8 He caught A'gag[e] the king of Am'a·lek alive, but all the other people he devoted to destruction with the sword.[f] 9 However, Saul and the people spared* A'gag and the best of the flock, the herd, the fattened animals, the rams, and all that was good.[g] They did not want to devote them to destruction. But all the goods that were worthless and unwanted, these they devoted to destruction.

10 Then the word of Jehovah came to Samuel: 11 "I regret* that I have made Saul king, for he has turned away from following me and he has not carried out my words."[h] Samuel became very upset, and he kept crying out to Jehovah all night long.[i] 12 When Samuel got up early in the morning to meet Saul, Samuel was told: "Saul went to Car'·mel,[j] and there he erected a monument for himself.[k] Then he turned around and went down to Gil'gal." 13 When Samuel finally came to him, Saul said to him: "May Jehovah bless you. I have carried out the word of Jehovah." 14 But Samuel said: "Then what is this sound of the flock in my ears and the sound of the cattle that I hear?"[l] 15 To this Saul said: "They were brought from the A·mal'ek·ites, because the people spared* the best of the flock and the herd for sacrificing them to Jehovah your God; but what was left we devoted to destruction." 16 At this Samuel said to Saul: "Stop! Let me tell you what Jehovah said to me last night."[a] So he said to him: "Speak!"

17 Samuel continued: "Were you not insignificant in your own eyes[b] when you were made head of the tribes of Israel and when Jehovah anointed you as king over Israel?[c] 18 Jehovah later sent you on a mission and said, 'Go, and devote the sinful A·mal'·ek·ites to destruction.[d] Fight against them until you have exterminated them.'[e] 19 So why did you not obey the voice of Jehovah? Instead, you rushed greedily toward the spoil[f] and did what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah!"

20 However, Saul said to Samuel: "But I have obeyed the voice of Jehovah! I went on the mission to which Jehovah sent me, and I brought back A'gag the king of Am'a·lek, and I devoted the A·mal'ek·ites to destruction.[g] 21 But the people took sheep and cattle from the spoil, the best of what was devoted to destruction, to sacrifice to Jehovah your God at Gil'gal."[h]

22 Samuel then said: "Does Jehovah take as much pleasure in burnt offerings and sacrifices[i] as in obeying the voice of Jehovah? Look! To obey is better than a sacrifice,[j] and to pay attention than the fat[k] of rams; 23 for rebelliousness[l] is the same as the sin of divination,[m] and pushing ahead presumptuously the same as using magical power and idolatry.* Because you have rejected the word of Jehovah,[n] he has rejected you from being king."[o]

24 Then Saul said to Samuel: "I have sinned, for I have overstepped the order of Jehovah and your words, because I feared the people and listened to what they said. 25 And now, please, pardon my sin, and return with me so that I may bow down to Jehovah."[a] 26 But Samuel said to Saul: "I will not return with you, for you have rejected the word of Jehovah, and Jehovah has rejected you from continuing as king over Israel."[b] 27 As Samuel was turning to go, Saul grabbed hold of the hem of his sleeveless coat, but it ripped away. 28 At this Samuel said to him: "Jehovah has ripped away the royal rule of Israel from you today, and he will give it to one of your fellow men who is better than you.[c] 29 Moreover, the Excellency of Israel[d] will not prove false[e] or change his mind,* for He is not a mere man that he should change his mind."*[f]

30 At this he said: "I have sinned. But honor me, please, in front of the elders of my people and in front of Israel. Return with me, and I will bow down to Jehovah your God."[g] 31 So Samuel returned behind Saul, and Saul bowed down to Jehovah. 32 And Samuel said: "Bring A′gag the king of Am′a·lek near to me." Then A′gag went to him reluctantly,* for A′gag had been saying to himself: 'Surely the threat# of death is past.' 33 However, Samuel said: "Just as your sword has bereaved women of children, so your mother will be most bereaved among women." With that Samuel hacked A′gag to pieces before Jehovah at Gil′gal.[h]

34 Samuel now went to Ra′mah, and Saul went up to his own house at Gib′e·ah of Saul. 35 Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death, for Samuel went into mourning for Saul.[i] And Jehovah regretted that he had made Saul king over Israel.[j]

16 Jehovah eventually said to Samuel: "How long will you mourn for Saul[a] now that I have rejected him from ruling as king over Israel?[b] Fill your horn with oil[c] and go. I will send you to Jes′se[d] the Beth′le·hem·ite, because I have selected from among his sons a king for myself."[e] 2 But Samuel said: "How can I go? When Saul hears about it, he will kill me."[f] Jehovah replied: "Take a young cow with you and say, 'I have come to sacrifice to Jehovah.' 3 Invite Jes′se to the sacrifice; then I will make known to you what to do. You must anoint for me the one whom I designate to you."[g]

4 Samuel did what Jehovah said. When he came to Beth′le·hem,[h] the elders of the city were trembling at meeting him, and they said: "Does your coming mean peace?" 5 To this he said: "It means peace. I have come to sacrifice to Jehovah. Sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice." Then he sanctified Jes′se and his sons, after which he summoned them to the sacrifice. 6 As they came in and he saw E·li′ab,[i] he said: "Surely here before Jehovah stands his anointed one." 7 But Jehovah said to Samuel: "Do not pay attention to his appearance and how tall he is,[j] for I have rejected him. For the way man sees is not the way God sees, because mere man sees what appears to the eyes, but Jehovah sees into the heart."[k] 8 Then Jes′se called A·bin′a·dab[l] and had him pass before Samuel, but he said: "Jehovah has not chosen this one either." 9 Next Jes′se presented Sham′mah,[m] but he said: "Jehovah has not chosen this one either." 10 So Jes′se had seven of his sons pass before Samuel, but Samuel said to Jes′se: "Jehovah has not chosen any of these."

11 Finally Samuel said to Jes′se: “Are these all of your boys?” To this he said: “The youngest[a] has been left out until now; he is pasturing the sheep.”[b] Then Samuel said to Jes′se: “Send for him, because we will not sit down for the meal until he comes here.” 12 So he sent for him and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, with beautiful eyes, and handsome in appearance.[c] Then Jehovah said: “Get up, anoint him, for this is the one!”[d] 13 So Samuel took the horn of oil[e] and anointed him in the presence of his brothers. And the spirit of Jehovah began to empower David from that day forward.[f] Samuel later rose and went his way to Ra′mah.[g]

14 Now the spirit of Jehovah had departed from Saul,[h] and a bad spirit from Jehovah terrorized him.[i] 15 The servants of Saul said to him: “You see that a bad spirit from God is terrorizing you. 16 Let our lord, please, command your servants before you to look for a man who is skilled at playing the harp.[j] Whenever a bad spirit from God comes upon you, he will play it, and you will feel better.” 17 So Saul said to his servants: “Find me, please, a man who plays well, and bring him to me.”

18 One of the attendants said: “Look! I have seen how a son of Jes′se the Beth′le·hem·ite plays skillfully, and he is a courageous, mighty warrior.[k] He can speak well, and he is handsome,[l] and Jehovah is with him.”[m] 19 Saul then sent messengers to Jes′se and said: “Send to me your son David, who is with the flock.”[n] 20 So Jes′se loaded a donkey with bread, a skin bottle of wine, and a young goat and sent them to Saul with his son David. 21 Thus David came to Saul and began serving him.[o] Saul grew to love him very much, and he became his armor-bearer. 22 Saul sent a message to Jes′se: “Please let David remain in my service, for he has found favor in my eyes.” 23 Whenever a bad spirit from God came upon Saul, David took the harp and played it, and Saul found relief and felt better, and the bad spirit would depart from him.[a]

17 And the Phi·lis′tines[b] assembled their armies* for war. They assembled at So′coh,[c] which belongs to Judah, and they camped between So′coh and A·ze′kah,[d] in E′phes-dam′mim.[e] 2 Saul and the men of Israel assembled and camped in the Valley* of E′lah,[f] and they drew up in battle formation to meet the Phi·lis′tines. 3 The Phi·lis′tines occupied the mountain on one side, and the Israelites occupied the mountain on the other side, with the valley between them.

4 Then a champion came out from the camps of the Phi·lis′tines; his name was Go·li′ath,[g] from Gath,[h] and his height was six cubits and a span.* 5 He had a helmet of copper on his head, and he was wearing a coat of mail of overlapping scales. The weight of the copper coat of mail[i] was 5,000 shekels.* 6 He had shin guards of copper on his legs and a javelin[j] of copper slung between his shoulders. 7 The wooden shaft of his spear was like the beam of loom workers,[k] and the iron blade of his spear weighed 600 shekels;* and his shield-bearer was marching ahead of him. 8 Then he stood and called out to the battle line of Israel[a] and said to them: "Why have you come out to draw up in battle formation? Am I not the Phi·lis'tine, and are you not the servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me. 9 If he is able to fight with me and strike me down, we will then become your servants. But if I prevail against him and strike him down, you will become our servants and serve us." 10 The Phi·lis'tine then said: "I do taunt* the battle line of Israel[b] this day. Give me a man, and let us fight it out!"

11 When Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Phi·lis'tine, they became terrified and greatly afraid.

12 Now David was the son of the Eph'rath·ite[c] from Beth'le·hem[d] of Judah named Jes'se,[e] who had eight sons[f] and who in the days of Saul was already an old man. 13 The three oldest sons of Jes'se had followed Saul to the war.[g] The names of his three sons who went to war were E·li'ab[h] the firstborn, his second son A·bin'a·dab,[i] and the third Sham'mah.[j] 14 David was the youngest,[k] and the three oldest followed Saul.

15 David was going back and forth from Saul to tend the sheep[l] of his father at Beth'le·hem. 16 Meanwhile, the Phi·lis'tine would come forward and take his position each morning and each evening for 40 days.

17 Then Jes'se said to his son David: "Take, please, this e'phah* of roasted grain and these ten loaves of bread, and carry them quickly to your brothers in the camp. 18 And take these ten portions of cheese* to the chief of the thousand; also, you should check on the welfare of your brothers and bring back some token from them." 19 They were with Saul and all the other men of Israel in the Valley* of E'lah,[a] fighting against the Phi·lis'tines.[b]

20 So David got up early in the morning and left someone in charge of the sheep; then he packed up and went just as Jes'se had commanded him. When he came to the camp enclosure, the army was going out to the battle line, shouting a battle cry. 21 Israel and the Phi·lis'tines drew up so that one battle line faced the other battle line. 22 David immediately left his baggage in the care of the baggage keeper and ran to the battle line. When he arrived, he began asking about the welfare of his brothers.[c]

23 While he was speaking with them, there came the champion named Go·li'ath,[d] the Phi·lis'tine from Gath. He came out from the battle line of the Phi·lis'tines, and he spoke the same words as before,[e] and David heard him. 24 When all the men of Israel saw the man, they fled from him, terrified.[f] 25 The men of Israel were saying: "Have you seen this man who is coming out? He comes to taunt* Israel.[g] The king will give great riches to the man who strikes him down, he will give him his own daughter,[h] and he will give the house of his father exemption in Israel."

26 David began to say to the men who were standing near him: "What will be done for the man who strikes down that Phi·lis'tine over there and takes away reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Phi·lis'tine that he should taunt* the battle line of the living God?"[i] 27 Then the people told him the same thing as before: "This is what will be done for the man who strikes him down." 28 When his oldest brother E·li'·ab[a] heard him speak to the men, he became angry with David and said: "Why have you come down? And with whom did you leave those few sheep in the wilderness?[b] I well know your presumptuousness and the bad intentions of your heart; you came down just to see the battle." 29 To this David said: "What have I done now? I was only asking a question!" 30 So he turned from him toward someone else and asked the same thing as before,[c] and the people gave him the same reply as before.[d]

31 The words that David had spoken were overheard and reported to Saul. So he sent for him. 32 David said to Saul: "Let no one lose heart* because of him. Your servant will go and fight with this Phi·lis'tine."[e] 33 But Saul said to David: "You are not able to go fight against this Phi·lis'tine, for you are but a boy,[f] and he has been a soldier* from his youth." 34 David then said to Saul: "Your servant became a shepherd of his father's flock, and a lion[g] came, also a bear, and each carried off a sheep from the flock. 35 I went out after it and struck it down and rescued it from its mouth. When it rose up against me, I grabbed it by its fur* and struck it down and put it to death. 36 Your servant struck down both the lion and the bear, and this uncircumcised Phi·lis'tine will become like one of them, for he has taunted* the battle lines of the living God."[h]

37 Then David added: "Jehovah, who rescued me from the claws of the lion and the bear, he is the one who will rescue me from the hand of this Phi·lis'tine."[a] At this Saul said to David: "Go, and may Jehovah be with you."

38 Saul now clothed David with his garments. He put a copper helmet on his head, after which he clothed him with a coat of mail. 39 Then David strapped on his sword over his garments and tried to go but could not, for he was not used to them. David said to Saul: "I am unable to go in these things, for I am not used to them." So David took them off. 40 He then took his staff in his hand and chose five smooth stones from the streambed* and placed them in the pouch of his shepherd's bag, and his sling[b] was in his hand. And he began approaching the Phi·lis'tine.

41 The Phi·lis'tine came closer and closer to David, and his shield-bearer was ahead of him. 42 When the Phi·lis'tine looked and saw David, he sneered at him in contempt because he was just a ruddy and handsome boy.[c] 43 So the Phi·lis'tine said to David: "Am I a dog,[d] so that you are coming against me with sticks?" With that the Phi·lis'tine cursed David by his gods. 44 The Phi·lis'tine said to David: "Just come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the heavens and to the beasts of the field."

45 David replied to the Phi·lis'tine: "You are coming against me with sword and spear and javelin,[e] but I am coming against you in the name of Jehovah of armies,[f] the God of the battle line of Israel, whom you have taunted.[g] 46 This very day Jehovah will surrender you into my hand,[h] and I will strike you down and cut off your head; and on this day I will give the corpses of the camp of the Phi·lis′tines to the birds of the heavens and to the wild beasts of the earth; and people of all the earth will know that there is a God in Israel.[a] 47 And all those gathered here will know that it is not with the sword or the spear that Jehovah saves,[b] for the battle belongs to Jehovah,[c] and he will give all of you into our hand."[d]

48 Then the Phi·lis′tine rose and drew steadily closer to meet David, but David ran quickly toward the battle line to meet the Phi·lis′tine. 49 David thrust his hand into his bag and took a stone from there and slung it. He struck the Phi·lis′tine in the forehead, and the stone sank into his forehead and he fell facedown on the ground.[e] 50 So David prevailed over the Phi·lis′tine with a sling and a stone; he struck down the Phi·lis′tine and put him to death, though there was no sword in David's hand.[f] 51 David continued running and stood over him. Then he took hold of the Phi·lis′tine's sword[g] and pulled it out of its sheath and made sure that he was dead by cutting off his head with it. When the Phi·lis′tines saw that their mighty one had died, they fled.[h]

52 At that the men of Israel and of Judah rose and broke into shouting and pursued the Phi·lis′tines all the way from the valley[i] to the gates of Ek′ron,[j] and the slain of the Phi·lis′tines lay fallen along the road from Sha′a·ra′im,[k] as far as Gath and Ek′ron. 53 After the Israelites returned from hotly pursuing the Phi·lis′tines, they pillaged their camps.

54 Then David took the head of the Phi·lis′tine and brought it to Jerusalem, but he put the Phi·lis′tine's weapons in his own tent.[a]

55 At the moment that Saul saw David go out to meet the Phi·lis′tine, he said to Ab′ner,[b] the chief of the army: "Whose son is this boy,[c] Ab′ner?" Ab′ner replied: "As surely as you live,* O king, I do not know!" 56 The king said: "Find out whose son the young man is." 57 So as soon as David returned from striking down the Phi·lis′tine, Ab′ner took him and brought him before Saul with the head of the Phi·lis′tine[d] in his hand. 58 Saul now said to him: "Whose son are you, boy?" to which David said: "The son of your servant Jes′se[e] the Beth′le·hem·ite."[f]

18 As soon as David had finished speaking to Saul, Jon′a·than[g] and David became bound together in close friendship,* and Jon′a·than began to love him as himself.#[h] 2 From that day, Saul kept David with him, and he did not allow him to return to his father's house.[i] 3 And Jon′a·than and David made a covenant,[j] because he loved him as himself.#[k] 4 Jon′a·than took off the sleeveless coat that he wore and gave it to David, along with his gear, his sword, his bow, and his belt. 5 David began going out and was successful*[l] wherever Saul would send him. So Saul put him in charge of the fighting men,[m] and this pleased all the people and the servants of Saul.

6 When David and the others would return from striking down the Phi·lis′tines, the women would come out from all the cities of Israel with song[n] and dances to meet King Saul with tambourines,[a] with rejoicing, and with lutes. 7 The women who were celebrating would sing:

"Saul has struck down his thousands,
And David his tens of thousands."[b]

8 Saul became very angry,[c] and this song displeased him, for he said: "They have credited David with tens of thousands, but to me they have credited thousands. The only thing left to give him is the kingship!"[d] 9 From that day on, Saul was always looking at David suspiciously.

10 The next day a bad spirit from God gripped Saul,[e] and he started to act strangely* inside the house, while David was playing music on the harp[f] as on other occasions. Saul had a spear in his hand,[g] 11 and he hurled the spear,[h] saying to himself: 'I will pin David to the wall!' But David escaped from him twice. 12 Then Saul was afraid of David because Jehovah was with him[i] but had departed from Saul.[j] 13 So Saul removed him from his presence and appointed him as chief of a thousand, and David would lead the army into battle.[k] 14 David continued to have success[l] in all he did, and Jehovah was with him.[m] 15 And when Saul saw that he was very successful, he became afraid of him. 16 But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he would lead them in their campaigns.

17 Saul later said to David: "Here is my oldest daughter Me'rab.[n] I will give her to you as a wife.[o] However, you should continue to display your courage for me and fight the wars of Jehovah."[a] For Saul said to himself: 'Do not let my hand come against him. Let the hand of the Phi·lis'tines strike him.'[b] 18 At this David said to Saul: "Who am I and who are my relatives, my father's family in Israel, for me to become son-in-law to the king?"[c] 19 However, when the time came to give Saul's daughter Me'rab to David, she had already been given to be the wife of A'dri·el[d] the Me·hol'ath·ite.

20 Now Saul's daughter Mi'chal[e] was in love with David, and it was reported to Saul, and this pleased him. 21 So Saul said: "I will give her to him to serve as a snare to him, so that the hand of the Phi·lis'tines may come upon him."[f] Saul then said to David a second time: "You will form a marriage alliance with me* today." 22 Further, Saul ordered his servants: "Speak to David secretly and say, 'Look! The king is pleased with you, and all his servants are fond of you. So now form a marriage alliance with the king.'" 23 When Saul's servants told David these things, David said: "Is it a trivial matter to you to form a marriage alliance with the king when I am a man poor and lightly esteemed?"[g] 24 Then Saul's servants reported to him: "These are the words that David spoke."

25 At that Saul said: "This is what you should say to David, 'The king does not want any bride price[h] except 100 foreskins[i] of the Phi·lis'tines, to take revenge on the enemies of the king.'" For Saul was scheming to have David fall by the hand of the Phi·lis'tines. 26 So his servants reported these words to David, and it was pleasing to David to form a marriage alliance with the king.[j] Before the allotted time, 27 David went with his men and struck down 200 Phi·lis′tine men, and David brought the full number of their foreskins to the king, to form a marriage alliance with the king. Therefore, Saul gave him his daughter Mi′chal as a wife.[a] 28 Saul realized that Jehovah was with David[b] and that his daughter Mi′chal loved him.[c] 29 This made Saul even more afraid of David, and Saul became an enemy of David for the rest of his life.[d]

30 The princes of the Phi·lis′tines would go out to battle, but as often as they went out, David was more successful* than all the servants of Saul;[e] and his name was highly esteemed.[f]

19 Saul later spoke to Jon′a·than his son and to all his servants about putting David to death.[g] 2 Since Saul's son Jon′a·than was very fond of David,[h] Jon′a·than told David: "My father Saul wants to have you put to death. Please be on your guard in the morning, and go to a secret place and remain hidden. 3 I will go out and stand next to my father in the field where you will be. I will talk about you to my father, and if I learn anything, I will be sure to tell you."[i]

4 So Jon′a·than spoke well of David[j] to his father Saul. He said to him: "The king should not sin against his servant David, for he has not sinned against you and what he has done for you has benefited you. 5 He risked his life* to strike down the Phi·lis′tine,[k] so that Jehovah brought about a great victory# for all Israel. You saw it, and you were overjoyed. So why should you sin against innocent blood in having David put to death for no reason?"[l] 6 Saul listened to Jon′a·than, and Saul swore: "As surely as Jehovah is living, he will not be put to death." 7 Afterward Jon′a·than called David and told him all these things. So Jon′a·than brought David to Saul, and he continued to serve him as before.[a]

8 In time war broke out again, and David went out and fought against the Phi·lis′tines and struck them down with a great slaughter, and they fled from before him.

9 And a bad spirit from Jehovah came upon Saul[b] when he was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand, while David was playing music on the harp.[c] 10 Saul tried to pin David to the wall with the spear, but he eluded Saul, who drove the spear into the wall. David fled and escaped during that night. 11 Saul later sent messengers to David's house to watch it and to kill him in the morning,[d] but David's wife Mi′chal told him: "If you do not escape* tonight, tomorrow you will be a dead man." 12 Immediately Mi′chal let David down through the window, so that he could run away and escape. 13 Mi′chal took the teraphim statue* and placed it on the bed, and she put a net of goat hair at the place of his head, and she covered it with a garment.

14 Saul now sent messengers to take David, but she said: "He is sick." 15 So Saul sent the messengers to see David and told them: "Bring him to me on his bed to have him put to death."[e] 16 When the messengers came in, there was the teraphim statue* on the bed and a net of goat hair where his head would have been. 17 Saul said to Mi′chal: "Why did you trick me like this and send my enemy[a] away so that he could escape?" Mi′chal replied to Saul: "He said to me, 'Send me away, or I will kill you!'"

18 Now David had run away and escaped, and he came to Samuel at Ra′mah.[b] He told him all that Saul had done to him. Then he and Samuel went away, and they stayed in Nai′oth.[c] 19 In time it was reported to Saul: "Look! David is in Nai′oth in Ra′mah." 20 At once Saul sent messengers to seize David. When they saw the elderly ones of the prophets prophesying and Samuel standing and presiding over them, the spirit of God came to be upon Saul's messengers, and they began behaving as prophets as well.

21 When they told it to Saul, he immediately sent other messengers, and they too began behaving as prophets. So Saul sent messengers again, a third group, and they too began behaving as prophets. 22 Finally he also went to Ra′mah. When he reached the great cistern that is in Se′cu, he asked: "Where are Samuel and David?" They replied: "There in Nai′oth[d] in Ra′mah." 23 While Saul was on his way from there to Nai′oth in Ra′mah, the spirit of God came upon him as well, and he walked along behaving as a prophet until he came into Nai′oth in Ra′mah. 24 He also stripped off his garments, and he too behaved as a prophet before Samuel, and he lay there naked* all that day and all that night. That is why they say: "Is Saul also among the prophets?"[e]

20 Then David ran away from Nai′oth in Ra′mah. However, he came to Jon′a·than and said: "What have I done?[f] What is my offense, and how have I sinned against your father for him to seek my life?"* 2 At this Jon′a·than said to him: "It is unthinkable![a] You will not die. Look! My father will not do anything, great or small, without disclosing it to me. Why should my father hide this matter from me? This will not happen." 3 But David swore further and said: "Your father surely knows that I have found favor in your eyes[b] and would say, 'Do not let Jon′a·than know this or he will be upset.' But as surely as Jehovah is living and as surely as you are* living, there is only a step between me and death!"[c]

4 Then Jon′a·than said to David: "Whatever you say,* I will do for you." 5 David said to Jon′a·than: "Tomorrow is the new moon,[d] and I am certainly expected to sit with the king to eat; you must send me away, and I will hide in the field until the evening on the third day. 6 If your father misses me at all, then say, 'David begged me for permission to go quickly to his city Beth′le·hem,[e] because there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.'[f] 7 If his response is, 'That is fine,' it means peace to your servant. But if he becomes angry, you can be sure that he is determined to harm me. 8 Show loyal love to your servant,[g] for you have brought your servant into Jehovah's covenant with you.[h] But if I am guilty,[i] put me to death yourself. Why turn me over to your father?"

9 To this Jon′a·than said: "It is unthinkable to suggest that about you! If I learn that my father is determined to harm you, would I not tell you?"[j] 10 Then David said to Jon′a·than: "Who will tell me whether your father gives you a harsh answer?" 11 Jon′a·than said to David: "Come, let us go out into the field." So both of them went out into the field. 12 And Jon′a·than said to David: "Let Jehovah the God of Israel be a witness that I will sound out my father about this time tomorrow or by the third day. If he is favorably disposed toward David, will I not then send you word and disclose it to you? 13 But if my father intends to harm you, may Jehovah do that and more to Jon′a·than if I do not disclose it to you and send you away in peace. May Jehovah be with you,[a] just as he was with my father.[b] 14 And will you not show me the loyal love of Jehovah while I am alive and even when I die?[c] 15 Never withdraw your loyal love from my household,[d] even when Jehovah wipes out all the enemies of David from the face of the earth." 16 So Jon′a·than made a covenant with the house of David, saying, "Jehovah will require it and call David's enemies to account." 17 So Jon′a·than had David swear again by his love for him, for he loved him as he loved himself.*[e]

18 Jon′a·than then said to him: "'Tomorrow is the new moon,[f] and you will be missed, for your seat will be vacant. 19 By the third day, you will be missed even more, and you must go to the place where you hid the other day* and stay near the stone here. 20 I will then shoot three arrows to one side of it, as though I were shooting at a target. 21 When I send the attendant, I will say, 'Go, find the arrows.' If I say to the attendant, 'Look! The arrows are on this side of you, get them,' then you may come back, for as surely as Jehovah is living, it means everything is peaceful for you and there is no danger. 22 But if I should say to the boy, 'Look! The arrows are beyond you,' then go, for Jehovah has sent you away. 23 As for the promise that we have made,[a] you and I, may Jehovah be between us forever."[b]

24 So David hid in the field. When the new moon came, the king took his seat at the meal to eat.[c] 25 The king was sitting in his usual seat by the wall. Jon′a·than was facing him, and Ab′ner[d] was sitting at Saul's side, but David's place was vacant. 26 Saul did not say anything that day, for he said to himself: 'Something has happened so that he is not clean.[e] Yes, he must be unclean.' 27 And the day after the new moon, on the second day, David's place continued vacant. Saul then said to Jon′a·than his son: "Why has the son of Jes′se[f] not come to the meal either yesterday or today?" 28 Jon′a·than answered Saul: "David begged me for permission to go to Beth′le·hem.[g] 29 He said, 'Please permit me to go, because we have a family sacrifice in the city, and my own brother summoned me. So if I have found favor in your eyes, please let me slip away to see my brothers.' That is why he has not come to the king's table." 30 Then Saul became enraged with Jon′a·than, and he said to him: "You son of a rebellious woman, do you think I do not know that you are choosing to side with the son of Jes′se, to your own shame and to the shame of your mother?* 31 As long as the son of Jes′se is alive on the earth, you and your kingship will not be firmly established.[h] So now send someone to bring him to me, for he must die."*[a]

32 However, Jon′a·than said to Saul his father: "Why should he be put to death?[b] What has he done?" 33 At that Saul hurled the spear at him to strike him,[c] so Jon′a·than knew that his father was determined to put David to death.[d] 34 Jon′a·than immediately rose up from the table in the heat of anger, and he did not eat any food on the second day after the new moon, for he was upset over David[e] and his own father had humiliated him.

35 In the morning Jon′a·than went out to the field for the appointment with David, and a young attendant was with him.[f] 36 And he said to his attendant: "Please run and find the arrows that I shoot." The attendant ran, and Jon′a·than shot the arrow beyond him. 37 When the attendant reached the place where Jon′a·than had shot the arrow, Jon′a·than called out to the attendant: "Is not the arrow beyond you?" 38 Jon′a·than called out to the attendant: "Hurry! Go quickly! Do not delay!" And Jon′a·than's attendant picked up the arrows and came back to his master. 39 The attendant did not understand anything about the matter; only Jon′a·than and David knew what was meant. 40 Then Jon′a·than gave his weapons to his attendant and told him: "Go, take them to the city."

41 When the attendant left, David rose up from a place nearby that was to the south. Then he fell with his face to the ground and bowed three times, and they kissed each other and wept for each other, but David wept the most. 42 Jon′a·than said to David: "Go in peace, since we have both sworn[g] in the name of Jehovah, saying, 'May Jehovah be between you and me and between your offspring* and my offspring* forever.'"[a]

Then David rose up and left, and Jon′a·than went back to the city.

21 David later came to Nob[b] to A·him′e·lech the priest. A·him′e·lech began to tremble when he met David, and he said to him: "Why are you by yourself and no one is with you?"[c] 2 David replied to A·him′e·lech the priest: "The king instructed me to do something, but he said, 'Do not let anyone know anything about the mission on which I am sending you and about the instructions I have given you.' I made an appointment with my young men to meet at a certain place. 3 Now if there are five loaves of bread at your disposal, just give them to me, or whatever is available." 4 But the priest answered David: "There is no ordinary bread on hand, but there is holy bread[d]—provided that the young men have kept away from women."*[e] 5 David answered the priest: "Women have certainly been kept away from us as on previous occasions when I went out on a campaign.[f] If the bodies of the young men are holy even when the mission is ordinary, how much more so today should they be holy!" 6 So the priest gave him the holy bread,[g] because there was no bread there except the showbread, which had been removed from Jehovah's presence to be replaced by fresh bread on the day it was taken away.

7 Now one of Saul's servants was there on that day, detained before Jehovah. His name was Do′eg[h] the E′dom·ite,[i] the chief of Saul's shepherds.

8 David then said to A·him′e·lech: "Is there a spear or a sword here at your disposal? I did not take my own sword or my weapons with me, because the king's mission was urgent." 9 To this the priest said: "The sword of Go·li′ath[a] the Phi·lis′tine, whom you struck down in the Valley* of E′lah,[b] is here, wrapped up in a cloth behind the eph′od.[c] If you want to take it for yourself, take it, because it is the only one here." David said: "There is none like it. Give it to me."

10 That day David rose up and continued his flight[d] from Saul, and he eventually came to King A′chish of Gath.[e] 11 The servants of A′chish said to him: "Is this not David, the king of the land? Is he not the one they sang about when they danced, saying,

> 'Saul has struck down his thousands,
> And David his tens of thousands'?"[f]

12 David took these words to heart, and he became very much afraid[g] of King A′chish of Gath. 13 So he disguised his sanity[h] in their presence and acted insane while among them.* He was making marks on the doors of the gate and letting his saliva run down his beard. 14 Finally A′chish said to his servants: "You see that this man is crazy! Why bring him to me? 15 Do I have a shortage of crazy men that I need to have this one acting crazy before me? Should this man enter my house?"

22 So David went from there,[i] escaping to the cave of A·dul′lam.[j] When his brothers and his father's entire house heard of it, they went down there to him. 2 And all those who were in trouble and debt and who had a grievance* gathered to him, and he became their chief. There were about 400 men with him.

3 David later went from there to Miz′peh in Mo′ab and said to the king of Mo′ab:[a] "Please let my father and mother stay with you until I know what God will do for me." 4 So he left them with the king of Mo′ab, and they stayed with him the whole time that David was in the stronghold.[b]

5 In time Gad[c] the prophet said to David: "Do not stay in the stronghold. Go from there into the land of Judah."[d] So David left and went into the forest of He′reth.

6 Saul heard that David and the men with him had been found. Saul was then sitting in Gib′e·ah[e] under the tamarisk tree on the high place with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were stationed around him. 7 Then Saul said to his servants stationed around him: "Listen, please, you Ben′ja·mites. Will the son of Jes′se[f] also give fields and vineyards to all of you? Will he appoint all of you as chiefs of thousands and chiefs of hundreds?[g] 8 All of you have conspired against me! No one informed me when my own son made a covenant with the son of Jes′se![h] Not one of you has sympathy for me and informs me that my own son has incited my own servant against me to ambush me, as is now the case."

9 Then Do′eg[i] the E′dom·ite, who was stationed there over the servants of Saul, answered:[j] "I saw the son of Jes′se come to Nob to A·him′e·lech the son of A·hi′tub.[k] 10 And he inquired of Jehovah for him and gave him provisions. He even gave him the sword of Go·li′ath the Phi·lis′- tine."[a] 11 At once the king sent for A·him′e·lech son of A·hi′tub the priest and all the priests of his father's house, who were in Nob. So all of them came to the king.

12 Saul now said: "Listen, please, you son of A·hi′tub!" to which he replied: "Here I am, my lord." 13 Saul said to him: "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jes′se, by giving him bread and a sword and by making an inquiry of God for him? He opposes me and waits in ambush, as is now the case." 14 At this A·him′e·lech answered the king: "Who among all your servants is as trustworthy* as David?[b] He is the king's son-in-law[c] and a chief over your bodyguard and honored in your house.[d] 15 Was today the first time I inquired of God for him?[e] What you are saying is unthinkable on my part! Do not let the king hold anything against his servant and against my father's entire house, for your servant did not know a single thing about any of this."[f]

16 But the king said: "You will surely die,[g] A·him′e·lech, you along with all your father's house."[h] 17 With that the king said to the guards* stationed around him: "Turn and kill the priests of Jehovah, because they have sided with David! They knew that he was a runaway, and they did not inform me!" But the king's servants did not want to lift their hands to assault the priests of Jehovah. 18 Then the king said to Do′eg:[i] "You turn and assault the priests!" Immediately Do′eg the E′dom·ite[j] went and assaulted the priests himself. He killed on that day 85 men wearing the linen eph′od.[k] 19 He also struck Nob,[l] the city of the priests, with the sword; man as well as woman, child as well as infant, bull, donkey, and sheep, he put to the sword.

20 However, one son of A·him′e·lech the son of A·hi′tub, whose name was A·bi′a·thar,[a] escaped and ran away to follow David. 21 A·bi′a·thar told David: "Saul has killed the priests of Jehovah." 22 At this David said to A·bi′a·thar: "I knew on that day,[b] when Do′eg the E′dom·ite was there, that he would be sure to tell Saul. I am personally responsible for the death of everyone* in your father's house. 23 Stay with me. Do not be afraid, for whoever seeks your life* seeks my life;* you are under my protection."[c]

23 In time David was told: "The Phi·lis′tines are fighting against Kei′lah,[d] and they are raiding the threshing floors." 2 So David inquired of Jehovah:[e] "Should I go and strike down these Phi·lis′tines?" Jehovah said to David: "Go, strike down the Phi·lis′tines and rescue Kei′lah." 3 But the men of David said to him: "Look! We are afraid while here in Judah;[f] how much more so if we go to Kei′lah against the battle line of the Phi·lis′tines!"[g] 4 So David inquired once again of Jehovah.[h] Jehovah now answered him: "Rise up; go down to Kei′lah because I will give the Phi·lis′tines into your hand."[i] 5 So David went with his men to Kei′lah and fought against the Phi·lis′tines; he carried off their livestock and struck them down with a great slaughter, and David rescued the inhabitants of Kei′lah.[j]

6 Now when A·bi′a·thar[k] the son of A·him′e·lech ran away to David at Kei′lah, he had an eph′od with him. 7 Saul was told:

"David has come to Kei'lah." Then Saul said: "God has handed him over to me,[a] for he has trapped himself by entering a city with gates and bars." 8 So Saul summoned all the people to war, to go down to Kei'lah and besiege David and his men. 9 When David learned that Saul was plotting against him, he said to A·bi'a·thar the priest: "Bring the eph'od here."[b] 10 Then David said: "O Jehovah the God of Israel, your servant has indeed heard that Saul intends to come to Kei'lah to destroy the city because of me.[c] 11 Will the leaders of Kei'lah surrender me into his hand? Will Saul come down as your servant has heard? O Jehovah the God of Israel, please tell your servant." To this Jehovah said: "He will come down." 12 David asked: "Will the leaders of Kei'lah surrender me and my men into Saul's hand?" Jehovah replied: "They will surrender you."

13 At once David rose up with his men, about 600 in number,[d] and they left Kei'lah and moved about wherever they could. When Saul was told that David had escaped from Kei'lah, he did not go out after him. 14 David stayed in the wilderness in places difficult to approach, in the mountainous region of the wilderness of Ziph.[e] Saul searched for him constantly,[f] but Jehovah did not give him into his hand. 15 David was aware that* Saul had gone out to seek his life# while David was in the wilderness of Ziph at Ho'resh.

16 Jon'a·than the son of Saul now went out to David at Ho'resh, and he helped him find strength* in Jehovah.[a] 17 He said to him: "Do not be afraid, for my father Saul will not find you; you will be king over Israel,[b] and I will become second to you; and my father Saul also knows that."[c] 18 Then the two of them made a covenant[d] before Jehovah, and David stayed in Ho'resh, and Jon'a·than went to his home.

19 The men of Ziph later went up to Saul at Gib'e·ah[e] and said: "Is not David hiding near us[f] in the places difficult to approach at Ho'resh,[g] on the hill of Hach·i'lah,[h] which is south* of Je·shi'mon?#[i] 20 Whenever it pleases you* to come down, O king, come, and we will surrender him into the hand of the king."[j] 21 At this Saul said: "May you be blessed by Jehovah, for you have shown compassion to me. 22 Please go and try to find out exactly where he is and who saw him there, for I have been told that he is very cunning. 23 Carefully ascertain where all his hiding places are and return to me with the evidence. I will then go with you, and if he is in the land, I will search him out among all the thousands* of Judah."

24 So they left and went to Ziph[k] ahead of Saul, while David and his men were in the wilderness of Ma'on,[l] in the Ar'a·bah[m] to the south of Je·shi'mon. 25 Then Saul came with his men to look for him.[n] When David was told, he at once went down to the crag[o] and stayed in the wilderness of Ma'on. When Saul heard this, he chased after David into the wilderness of Ma'on. 26 As Saul came to one side of the mountain, David and his men were on the other side of the mountain. David was hurrying to get away[a] from Saul, but Saul and his men were closing in on David and his men to capture them.[b] 27 But a messenger came to Saul, saying: "Come quickly, for the Phi·lis′tines have made a raid on the land!" 28 At that Saul stopped chasing after David[c] and went to confront the Phi·lis′tines. That is why that place was named the Crag of the Divisions.

29 Then David made his way up from there and stayed in the places difficult to approach at En-ged′i.[d]

24 As soon as Saul returned from pursuing the Phi·lis′tines, they told him: "Look! David is in the wilderness of Ged′i."[e]

2 So Saul took 3,000 men chosen from all Israel and went to look for David and his men on the rocky cliffs of the mountain goats. 3 Saul came to the stone sheepfolds along the road, where there was a cave, and he went in to relieve himself* while David and his men were sitting in the recesses at the back of the cave.[f] 4 David's men said to him: "This is the day on which Jehovah is saying to you, 'Look! I am giving your enemy into your hand,[g] and you can do to him whatever seems good to you.'" So David rose up and quietly cut off the edge of Saul's sleeveless coat. 5 But afterward David's heart* kept striking him[h] because he had cut off the edge of Saul's sleeveless coat. 6 He said to his men: "It is unthinkable from Jehovah's standpoint that I should do such a thing to my lord, the anointed of Jehovah, by lifting my hand against him, for he is the anointed of Jehovah."[a] 7 So David restrained* his men with these words, and he did not allow them to attack Saul. As for Saul, he rose up from the cave and went on his way.

8 Then David got up and went out from the cave and called out after Saul: "My lord the king!"[b] When Saul looked behind him, David bowed down low with his face to the ground and prostrated himself. 9 David said to Saul: "Why do you listen to the words of men who say, 'Look! David is seeking to harm you'?[c] 10 This very day your own eyes have seen how Jehovah gave you into my hand in the cave. But when someone said to kill you,[d] I had pity on you and said, 'I will not lift my hand against my lord, for he is the anointed of Jehovah.'[e] 11 And look, my father, yes, see the edge of your sleeveless coat in my hand; for when I cut off the edge of your sleeveless coat, I did not kill you. You can now see and understand that I do not intend to harm you or to rebel, and I have not sinned against you,[f] whereas you are hunting me down to take my life.*[g] 12 May Jehovah judge between you and me,[h] and may Jehovah take vengeance on you for me,[i] but my hand will not come against you.[j] 13 Just as the ancient proverb says, 'From the wicked comes wickedness,' but my hand will not come against you. 14 After whom has the king of Israel gone out? Whom are you chasing? A dead dog? A single flea?[k] 15 May Jehovah be the judge, and he will judge between you and me, and he will see and will plead my case[l] and judge me and rescue me from your hand."

16 At the moment that David finished speaking these words to him, Saul said: "Is this your voice, my son David?"[a] And Saul began to weep loudly. 17 He said to David: "You are more righteous than I am, for you have treated me well and I have repaid you with evil.[b] 18 Yes, today you have told me of the good you did by not killing me when Jehovah surrendered me into your hand.[c] 19 For what man finds his enemy and sends him on his way unharmed? Jehovah will reward you with good[d] because of what you have done for me today. 20 And now look! I know that you will surely rule as king[e] and that in your hand the kingdom of Israel will endure. 21 Now swear to me by Jehovah[f] that you will not wipe out my descendants* after me and that you will not annihilate my name out of my father's house."[g] 22 So David swore to Saul, after which Saul went home.[h] But David and his men went up to the stronghold.[i]

25 In time Samuel[j] died; and all Israel gathered together to mourn for him and to bury him at his house in Ra′mah.[k] Then David rose and went down to the wilderness of Pa′ran.

2 Now there was a man in Ma′on[l] whose work was in Car′mel.[m] The man was very wealthy; he had 3,000 sheep and 1,000 goats, and he was then shearing his sheep at Car′mel. 3 The man's name was Na′bal,[n] and his wife's name was Ab′i·gail.[o] The wife was discerning and beautiful, but the husband, a Ca′leb·ite,[p] was harsh, and he behaved badly.[q] 4 David heard in the wilderness that Na′bal was shearing his sheep. 5 So David sent ten young men to him, and David told the young men: "Go up to Car′mel, and when you come to Na′bal, ask him in my name about his welfare. 6 Then say, 'May you live long and may you be well and may your household be well and may all that you have be well. 7 Now I hear that you are doing your shearing. When your shepherds were with us, we did not harm them,[a] and they found nothing missing the whole time they were in Car′mel. 8 Ask your young men, and they will tell you. May my young men find favor in your eyes, because we have come at a joyous time.* Please give to your servants and to your son David whatever you can spare.'"[b]

9 So David's young men went and told all of this to Na′bal in David's name. When they finished, 10 Na′bal answered David's servants: "Who is David, and who is the son of Jes′se? Nowadays many servants are breaking away from their masters.[c] 11 Do I have to take my bread and my water and the meat that I butchered for my shearers and give it to men who come from who knows where?"

12 At that David's young men returned and reported all these words to him. 13 David immediately said to his men: "Everyone strap on your sword!"[d] So they all strapped on their swords, and David also strapped on his own sword, and about 400 men went up with David, while 200 men stayed with the baggage.

14 Meanwhile, one of the servants reported to Ab′i·gail, Na′bal's wife: "Look! David sent messengers from the wilderness to wish our master well, but he screamed insults at them.[e] 15 Those men were 18 So Ab'i·gail[d] quickly took 200 loaves of bread, two large jars of wine, five dressed sheep, five seah measures* of roasted grain, 100 cakes of raisins, and 200 cakes of pressed figs and put all of it on the donkeys.[e] 19 Then she said to her servants: "Go on ahead of me; I will follow you." But she said nothing to her husband Na'bal.

20 While she was riding on the donkey and going down under cover of the mountain, just then David and his men were coming down toward her, and she met them. 21 Now David had been saying: "It was for nothing that I guarded everything that belongs to this fellow in the wilderness. good upon my lord, remember your servant girl."

32 At this David said to Ab′i·gail: "Praise Jehovah the God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me! 33 And blessed be your good sense! May you be blessed for restraining me this day from incurring bloodguilt[a] and from taking revenge* with my own hands. 34 Otherwise, as surely as Jehovah the God of Israel who held me back from harming you[b] is living, if you had not come quickly to meet me,[c] by morning there would not have remained a single male* belonging to Na′bal."[d] 35 With that David accepted from her what she had brought him and said to her: "Go up in peace to your house. See, I have listened to you, and I will grant your request."

36 Ab′i·gail later went back to Na′bal, who was feasting like a king in his house, and Na′bal* was in a good mood and was as drunk as could be. She did not tell him a single thing until the morning light. 37 In the morning, when Na′bal was sober, his wife told him these things. And his heart became like a dead man's, and he lay paralyzed like a stone. 38 About ten days later, Jehovah struck Na′bal, and he died.

39 When David heard that Na′bal had died, he said: "Praise Jehovah, who has pleaded my case[e] of reproach from Na′bal[f] and has kept his servant from doing anything bad,[g] and Jehovah has brought the badness of Na′bal back on his own head!" Then David sent word to propose to Ab′i·gail to take her as his wife. 40 So David's servants came to Ab′i·gail at Car′mel and said to her: "David has sent us to you to take you as his wife." 41 She immediately rose up and bowed with her face to the ground and said: "Here is your slave as a servant to wash the feet[a] of the servants of my lord." 42 Then Ab′i·gail[b] quickly rose up and rode on her donkey with five of her female servants walking behind her; she accompanied the messengers of David and became his wife.

43 David had also married A·hin′o·am[c] from Jez′re·el,[d] and both women became his wives.[e]

44 But Saul had given his daughter Mi′chal,[f] David's wife, to Pal′ti[g] the son of La′ish, who was from Gal′lim.

26 In time the men of Ziph[h] came to Saul at Gib′e·ah,[i] saying: "Is David not hiding on the hill of Hach·i′lah facing Je·shi′mon?"*[j] 2 So Saul rose up and went down to the wilderness of Ziph with 3,000 chosen men of Israel to look for David in the wilderness of Ziph.[k] 3 Saul camped on the hill of Hach·i′lah, which faces Je·shi′mon, by the road. David was then living in the wilderness, and he learned that Saul had come into the wilderness after him. 4 So David sent spies to verify that Saul had indeed come. 5 David later went to the place where Saul had encamped, and David saw the place where Saul and Ab′ner[l] the son of Ner, the chief of his army, were lying asleep; Saul lay asleep in the camp enclosure with the troops camping all around him. 6 Then David said to A·him′e·lech the Hit′tite[m] and A·bish′ai[n] the son of Ze·ru′iah,[o] the brother of Jo′ab: "Who will go down with me into the camp to Saul?" A·bish′ai replied: "I will go down with you." 7 So David and A·bish′ai made their way to the troops by night, and they found Saul lying asleep in the camp enclosure with his spear stuck into the ground next to his head; Ab′ner and the troops were lying all around him.

8 A·bish′ai now said to David: "Today God has surrendered your enemy into your hand.[a] And now, please, let me pin him to the ground with the spear just once, and I will not need to do it twice." 9 However, David said to A·bish′ai: "Do not harm him, for who can lift his hand against the anointed of Jehovah[b] and remain innocent?"[c] 10 David continued: "As surely as Jehovah is living, Jehovah himself will strike him down,[d] or his day will come[e] and he will die, or he will go down into battle and perish.[f] 11 It is unthinkable from Jehovah's standpoint for me to lift my hand against the anointed of Jehovah![g] So now take, please, the spear next to his head and the water jug, and let us be on our way." 12 So David took the spear and the water jug from next to Saul's head, and they went away. No one saw[h] or noticed them or woke up, for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from Jehovah had fallen upon them. 13 Then David crossed to the other side and stood on the top of the mountain some distance away, with a considerable space between them.

14 David called out to the troops and to Ab′ner[i] the son of Ner, saying: "Ab′ner, will you not answer?" Ab′ner answered: "Who are you who calls to the king?" 15 David said to Ab′ner: "Are you not a man? And who is like you in Israel? So why did you not keep watch over your lord the king? For one of the soldiers came in to do away with your lord the king.[j] 16 What you have done is not good. As surely as Jehovah is living, you deserve to die, because you have not kept watch over your lord, the anointed of Jehovah.[a] Now look around! Where are the king's spear and the water jug[b] that were next to his head?"

17 Then Saul recognized the voice of David and said: "Is this your voice, my son David?"[c] David replied: "It is my voice, my lord the king." 18 He added: "Why is my lord chasing after his servant,[d] for what have I done, and what am I guilty of?[e] 19 My lord the king, please, listen to the words of his servant: If it is Jehovah who incited you against me, let him accept* my grain offering. But if men have incited you,[f] they are cursed before Jehovah, because they have driven me away today from being united with Jehovah's inheritance,[g] saying, 'Go, serve other gods!' 20 And now do not let my blood fall to the ground away from the presence of Jehovah, for the king of Israel has gone out to look for a single flea,[h] as if he were chasing a partridge on the mountains."

21 In turn Saul said: "I have sinned.[i] Come back, my son David, for I will do you no more harm, because you regarded my life* as precious[j] this day. Yes, I have acted foolishly and have made a terrible mistake." 22 David answered: "Here is the spear of the king. You will surely do great things, and you will surely prevail."[b] Then David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.[c]

27 However, David said in his heart: "One day I will perish by Saul's hand. The best thing for me is to escape[d] to the land of the Phi·lis'tines; then Saul will give up looking for me in all the territory of Israel,[e] and I will escape from his hand." 2 So David rose up with the 600 men[f] who were with him and went over to A'chish[g] the son of Ma'och, the king of Gath. 3 David stayed with A'chish in Gath, he and his men, each man with his household. With David were his two wives, A·hin'o·am[h] of Jez're·el and Ab'i·gail[i] the Car'mel·ite, Na'bal's widow. 4 When report was made to Saul that David had run away to Gath, he stopped searching for him.[j]

5 Then David said to A'chish: "If I have found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in one of the cities of the countryside, so that I may live there. Why should your servant live in the royal city with you?" 6 So A'chish gave him Zik'lag[k] on that day. That is why Zik'lag belongs to the kings of Judah down to this day.

7 The length of time* that David lived in the countryside of the Phi·lis'tines was a year and four months.[l] 8 David would go up with his men to raid the Gesh'ur·ites,[m] the Gir'zites, and the A·mal'ek·ites,[n] for they were inhabiting the land that extended from Te'lam as far as Shur[a] and down to the land of Egypt. 9 When David would attack the land, he preserved neither man nor woman alive,[b] but he took the flocks, herds, donkeys, camels, and clothing, after which he would return to A'chish. 10 Then A'chish would ask: "Where did you make a raid today?" David would reply: "Against the south* of Judah"[c] or "Against the south of the Je·rah'me·el·ites"[d] or "Against the south of the Ken'ites."[e] 11 David did not spare alive any man or woman to be brought to Gath, saying: "That they may not tell them about us and say, 'This is what David did.'" (And that was his practice the whole time he lived in the countryside of the Phi·lis'tines.) 12 So A'chish believed David, saying to himself: 'He has certainly become a stench among his people Israel, so he will always be my servant.'

28 In those days the Phi·lis'tines assembled their armies for war against Israel.[f] So A'chish said to David: "You know, of course, that you and your men will go out into battle with me."[g] 2 At that David said to A'chish: "You surely know what your servant will do." A'chish said to David: "That is why I will appoint you as my permanent bodyguard."*[h]

3 Now Samuel had died, and all Israel had mourned him and had buried him in Ra'mah, his own city.[i] And Saul had removed the spirit mediums and the fortune-tellers from the land.[j]

4 The Phi·lis'tines assembled and went and set up camp in Shu'nem.[k] So Saul assembled all Israel, and they set up camp in Gil·bo'a.[l] 5 When Saul saw the camp of the Phi·lis'tines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly.[a] 6 Although Saul would inquire of Jehovah,[b] Jehovah never answered him, either in dreams or by the U'rim[c] or through the prophets. 7 Finally Saul said to his servants: "Find me a woman who is a spirit medium,[d] and I will go and consult her." His servants replied: "Look! There is a woman who is a spirit medium in En-dor."[e]

8 So Saul disguised himself and put on other garments and went to the woman by night with two of his men. He said: "Use divination, please, by acting as a spirit medium,[f] and bring up for me the one whom I designate to you." 9 However, the woman said to him: "You must know what Saul did, how he removed the spirit mediums and the fortune-tellers from the land.[g] Why, then, are you trying to trap me* to have me put to death?"[h] 10 Saul then swore to her by Jehovah, saying: "As surely as Jehovah is alive, you will not incur any guilt in this matter!" 11 At this the woman said: "Whom should I bring up for you?" He replied: "Bring up Samuel for me." 12 When the woman saw "Samuel,"*[i] she cried out at the top of her voice and said to Saul: "Why did you trick me? You are Saul!" 13 The king said to her: "Do not be afraid, but what do you see?" The woman replied to Saul: "I see one like a god coming up out of the earth." 14 At once he asked her: "What does he look like?" to which she said: "It is an old man coming up, and he is clothed in a sleeveless coat."[j] At that Saul realized that it was "Samuel," and he bowed low with his face to the ground and prostrated himself.

15 Then "Samuel" said to Saul: "Why have you disturbed me by having me brought up?" Saul replied: "I am in great trouble. The Phi·lis'tines are fighting against me, and God has departed from me and no longer answers me, either through the prophets or in dreams;[a] so that is why I am calling on you to let me know what I should do."[b]

16 And "Samuel" said: "Why do you inquire of me now that Jehovah has departed from you[c] and has become your adversary? 17 Jehovah will do for himself what he foretold through me: Jehovah will rip the kingdom out of your hands and give it to one of your fellow men, David.[d] 18 Because you did not obey the voice of Jehovah and you did not execute his burning anger against the A·mal'ek·ites,[e] that is why Jehovah is doing this to you this day. 19 Jehovah will also give both Israel and you into the hand of the Phi·lis'tines,[f] and tomorrow you[g] and your sons[h] will be with me. Jehovah will also give the army of Israel into the hands of the Philis'tines."[i]

20 At once Saul fell full length on the ground and became very much afraid because of "Samuel's" words. And there was no strength left in him, because he had not eaten food all day and all night. 21 When the woman came to Saul and saw that he had been greatly disturbed, she said to him: "Here your servant has obeyed what you said, and I risked my life*[j] and did what you told me to do. 22 Now, please, listen to what your servant has to say. Let me set before you a piece of bread; then eat so that you will have some strength to go on your way." 23 But he refused and said: "I am not going to eat." However, his servants and also the woman kept urging him. Finally he listened to them and got up from the ground and sat on the bed. 24 The woman had a fattened calf in the house, so she quickly slaughtered* it and took flour and kneaded dough and baked it into unleavened bread. 25 She served them to Saul and his servants, and they ate. After that they rose up and left during the night.[a] 29 The Phi·lis′tines[b] assembled all their armies at A′phek, while the Israelites were camping by the spring in Jez′reel.[c] 2 And the lords of the Phi·lis′tines were passing by with their hundreds and their thousands, and David and his men were marching at the rear with A′chish.[d] 3 But the princes of the Phi·lis′tines said: "Why are these Hebrews here?" A′chish replied to the princes of the Phi·lis′tines: "This is David, the servant of King Saul of Israel, who has been with me for a year or more.[e] I have not found any fault in him from the day he deserted to me until today." 4 But the princes of the Phi·lis′tines became indignant at him, and they said to him: "Make the man go back.[f] Let him return to the place where you assigned him. Do not let him go down with us into the battle, so that he will not turn against us during the battle.[g] For what better way to put himself in favor with his lord than with the heads of our men? 5 Is this not the David about whom they sang when they danced, saying:

'Saul has struck down his thousands,
And David his tens of thousands'?"[h]

6 So A′chish[i] summoned David and said to him: "As surely as Jehovah is living, you are upright, and I am pleased to have you go on the campaign with my army,[a] for I have not found any fault with you from the day you came to me until today.[b] But the lords do not trust you.[c] 7 So return in peace, and do not do anything to displease the lords of the Phi·lis′tines." 8 However, David said to A′chish: "Why, what have I done? What fault have you found in your servant from the day that I came to you until today? Why should I not come with you and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?" 9 A′chish answered David: "From my standpoint, you have been as good as an angel of God.[d] But the princes of the Phi·lis′tines have said, 'Do not let him go up with us into the battle.' 10 Now get up early in the morning with the servants of your lord who came with you; rise up and leave early in the morning as soon as it is light."

11 So David and his men rose up early in the morning to return to the land of the Phi·lis′tines, and the Phi·lis′tines went up to Jez′re·el.[e]

30 When David and his men came to Zik′lag[f] on the third day, the A·mal′ek·ites[g] had made a raid on the south* and on Zik′lag, and they had attacked Zik′lag and burned it with fire. 2 They had taken captive the women[h] and all who were in it, from the smallest to the greatest. They had not killed anyone, but they had carried them off and gone on their way. 3 When David and his men came to the city, they found it burned down, and their wives and their sons and their daughters had been carried off captive. 4 So David and the men with him began weeping loudly until they had no strength left to weep. 5 David's two wives had also been carried off captive, A·hin′o·am of Jez′re·el and Ab′i·gail the widow of Na′bal the Car′mel·ite.[a] 6 David was very distressed, because the men were talking of stoning him, for all the men* had become very bitter over the loss of their sons and daughters. But David strengthened himself by Jehovah his God.[b]

7 David then said to A·bi′a·thar[c] the priest, the son of A·him′e·lech: "Please bring the eph′od here."[d] So A·bi′a·thar brought the eph′od to David. 8 David inquired of Jehovah:[e] "Should I chase after this marauder band? Will I overtake them?" At this He said to him: "Go in pursuit, for you will certainly overtake them, and you will make the rescue."[f]

9 David immediately set out with the 600 men[g] who were with him, and they went on as far as the Wadi* Be′sor, where some of the men stayed behind. 10 David kept up the chase with 400 men, but the 200 men who were too tired to cross the Wadi Be′sor stayed behind.[h]

11 They found an Egyptian man in the field and took him to David. They gave him food to eat and water to drink, 12 as well as a slice of a cake of pressed figs and two cakes of raisins. After he ate, he regained his strength,* for he had not eaten any food or drunk any water for three days and three nights. 13 David now asked him: "To whom do you belong, and where are you from?" to which he said: "I am an Egyptian attendant, a slave of an A·mal′ek·ite man, but my master left me because I got sick three days ago. 14 We made a raid on the south* of the Cher′e·thites[a] and on the territory of Judah and on the south* of Ca′leb,[b] and Zik′lag we burned with fire." 15 At this David said to him: "Will you lead me down to this marauder band?" He replied: "If you swear to me by God that you will not put me to death and that you will not hand me over to my master, I will lead you down to this marauder band."

16 So he led him down to where they were spread out all over the land, eating and drinking and celebrating because of all the great spoil that they had taken from the land of the Philis′tines and the land of Judah. 17 Then David struck them down from the morning darkness until the following evening; not a man escaped[c] except 400 men who fled on camels. 18 David recovered all that the A·mal′ek·ites had taken,[d] and David rescued his two wives. 19 Nothing of theirs was missing, from the smallest to the greatest. They recovered their sons and daughters and the spoil;[e] David recovered everything that they had taken. 20 So David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drove before their own livestock. They said: "This is David's spoil."

21 Then David came to the 200 men who had been too tired to go along with David and who had stayed behind by the Wadi Be′sor,[f] and they came out to meet David and the people with him. When David came near to the men, he asked them how they were. 22 However, every bad and worthless man among those who had gone with David said: "Since they did not go with us, we will not give them any of the spoil that we recovered except that each one may take his wife and his sons and go away." 23 But David said: "You must not do this, my brothers, with what Jehovah has given us. He protected us and gave into our hand the marauder band that came against us.[a] 24 Who would agree with you on this? The share of the one who went down into the battle will be the same as the share of the one who sat by the baggage.[b] All will have a share together."[c] 25 And from that day forward, he kept it set as a regulation and a rule for Israel down to this day.

26 When David returned to Zik′lag, he sent some of the spoil to the elders of Judah who were his friends, saying: "Here is a gift* for you from the spoil of Jehovah's enemies." 27 He sent it to those who were in Beth′el,[d] to those in Ra′moth of the Neg′eb,* to those in Jat′tir,[e] 28 to those in A·ro′er, to those in Siph′moth, to those in Esh·te·mo′a,[f] 29 to those in Ra′cal, to those in the cities of the Je·rah′me·el·ites,[g] to those in the cities of the Ken′ites,[h] 30 to those in Hor′mah,[i] to those in Bor′a·shan, to those in A′thach, 31 to those in Heb′ron,[j] and to all the places that David and his men had frequented.

31 Now the Phi·lis′tines were fighting against Israel.[k] And the men of Israel fled from before the Phi·lis′tines, and many fell slain on Mount Gil·bo′a.[l] 2 The Phi·lis′tines kept in close range of Saul and his sons, and the Phi·lis′tines struck down Jon′a·than,[m] A·bin′a·dab, and Mal′chi-shu′a, Saul's sons.[n] 3 The fighting grew fierce against Saul, and the archers found him, and he was severely wounded by the archers.[o] 4 Then Saul said to his armor-bearer: "Draw your sword and run me through with it, so that these uncircumcised men[a] may not come and run me through and deal ruthlessly* with me." But his armor-bearer was unwilling, because he was very much afraid. So Saul took the sword and fell on it.[b] 5 When his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead,[c] he too fell on his own sword and died with him. 6 Thus Saul, his three sons, his armor-bearer, and all his men died together on that day.[d] 7 When the people of Israel who were in the region of the valley* and in the region of the Jordan saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, they began to abandon the cities and flee;[e] the Phi·lis′tines then came and occupied them.

8 The next day, when the Phi·lis′tines came to strip the slain, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gil·bo′a.[f] 9 So they cut off his head and stripped off his armor and sent word throughout the land of the Phi·lis′tines to spread the news[g] in the houses* of their idols[h] and among the people. 10 Then they put his armor in the house of the Ash′to·reth images and fastened his corpse to the wall of Beth-shan.[i] 11 When the inhabitants of Ja′besh-gil′e·ad[j] heard what the Phi·lis′tines had done to Saul, 12 all the warriors rose and traveled all night and took the bodies of Saul and his sons off the wall of Beth-shan. They returned to Ja′besh and burned them there. 13 Then they took their bones[k] and buried them under the tamarisk tree in Ja′besh,[l] and they fasted for seven days.

1 After Saul's death, when David had returned from defeating* the A·mal′ek·ites, David stayed at Zik′lag[a] for two days. 2 On the third day, a man came from the camp of Saul with his garments ripped apart and dirt on his head. When he approached David, he fell down to the ground and prostrated himself.

3 David asked him: "Where are you coming from?" He replied: "I have escaped from the camp of Israel." 4 David asked him: "How did things turn out? Please tell me." To this he said: "The people have fled from the battle and many have fallen and died. Even Saul and his son Jon′a·than have died."[b] 5 Then David asked the young man who brought him the news: "How do you know that Saul and his son Jon′a·than are dead?" 6 The young man replied: "By chance I was on Mount Gil·bo′a,[c] and there was Saul supporting himself on his spear, and the chariots and horsemen had caught up with him.[d] 7 When he turned around and saw me, he called me, and I said, 'Here I am!' 8 He asked me, 'Who are you?' I replied, 'I am an A·mal′ek·ite.'[e] 9 Then he said, 'Please stand over me and put me to death, for I am in great agony, but I am still alive.'* 10 So I stood over him and put him to death,[f] for I knew that he could not survive after he had fallen down wounded. Then I took the crown* that was on his head and the bracelet that was on his arm, and I brought them here to my lord."

11 At this David took hold of his garments and ripped them apart, and so did all the men who were with him. 12 And they wailed and wept and fasted[a] until evening for Saul, for his son Jon′a·than, for the people of Jehovah, and for the house of Israel,[b] because they had fallen by the sword.

13 David asked the young man who brought him the news: "Where are you from?" He said: "I am the son of a foreign resident, an A·mal′ek·ite." 14 Then David said to him: "Why did you not fear to lift your hand to do away with the anointed of Jehovah?"[c] 15 With that David called one of the young men and said: "Step forward and strike him." So he struck him down, and he died.[d] 16 David said to him: "Your blood is on your own head, because your own mouth testified against you by saying, 'I myself put the anointed of Jehovah to death.'"[e]

17 Then David chanted this dirge* over Saul and his son Jon′a·than[f] 18 and said that the people of Judah should be taught the dirge called "The Bow," which is written in the book of Ja′shar:[g]

19 "The beauty, O Israel, lies slain upon your high places.[h]
How the mighty have fallen!
20 Do not tell it in Gath;[i]
Do not announce it in the streets of Ash′ke·lon,
Or the daughters of the Phi·lis′tines will rejoice,
Or the daughters of the uncircumcised men will exult.
21 You mountains of Gil·bo′a,[j]
May there be no dew or rain upon you,
Nor fields producing holy contributions,[k]
Because there the shield of mighty ones was defiled,
The shield of Saul is no longer anointed with oil.

22 From the blood of the slain, from the fat of mighty ones,
The bow of Jon′a·than did not turn back,[a]
And the sword of Saul would not return without success.[b]
23 Saul and Jon′a·than,[c] beloved and cherished* during their life,
And in death they were not separated.[d]
Swifter than the eagles they were,[e]
Mightier than the lions.[f]
24 O daughters of Israel, weep over Saul,
Who clothed you in scarlet and finery,
Who put gold ornaments upon your clothing.
25 How the mighty have fallen in battle!
Jon′a·than lies slain upon your high places![g] 26 I am distressed over you, my brother Jon′a·than;
You were very dear to me.[h]

2 Afterward David inquired of Jehovah,[j] saying: "Should I go up into one of the cities of Judah?" Jehovah said to him: "Go up." David then asked: "Where should I go?" He replied: "To Heb′ron."[k] 2 So David went up there with his two wives, A·hin′-o·am[l] of Jez′re·el and Ab′i·gail[m] the widow of Na′bal the Car′melite. 3 David also brought the men who were with him,[n] each with his household, and they settled in the cities around Heb′ron. 4 Then the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David as king over the house of Judah.[a]

They told David: "The men of Ja′besh-gil′e·ad were the ones who buried Saul." 5 So David sent messengers to the men of Ja′besh-gil′e·ad and said to them: "May you be blessed by Jehovah, because you showed loyal love to your lord Saul by burying him.[b] 6 May Jehovah show loyal love and faithfulness to you. I will also show you kindness because you have done this.[c] 7 Now let your hands be strong and be courageous men, for your lord Saul is dead, and the house of Judah has anointed me as king over them."

8 But Ab′ner[d] the son of Ner, the chief of Saul's army, had taken Saul's son Ish-bo′sheth[e] and brought him across to Ma·ha·na′-im[f] 9 and made him king over Gil′e·ad,[g] the Ash′ur·ites, Jez′-re·el,[h] E′phra·im,[i] Benjamin, and over all Israel. 10 Ish-bo′sheth, Saul's son, was 40 years old when he became king over Israel, and he reigned for two years. The house of Judah, however, supported David.[j] 11 The time* that David was king in Heb′ron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.[k]

12 In time Ab′ner the son of Ner and the servants of Ish-bo′sheth, Saul's son, went out from Ma·ha·na′im[l] to Gib′e·on.[m] 13 Jo′ab[n] the son of Ze·ru′iah[o] and the servants of David also went out and encountered them at the pool of Gib′e·on; and one group sat on this side of the pool, and the other group on that side of the pool. 14 Finally Ab′ner said to Jo′ab: "Let the young men get up and engage in combat* before us." To this Jo′ab said: "Let them get up." 15 So they got up and crossed over by number, 12 for Benjamin and Saul's son Ish-bo'sheth and 12 from the servants of David. 16 They grabbed one another by the head and each of them thrust his sword into the side of his opponent, and they all fell down together. So that place, which is in Gib'e·on, was called Hel'kath-haz·zu'rim.

17 The fighting that ensued was extremely fierce that day, and Ab'ner and the men of Israel were finally defeated before the servants of David. 18 Now the three sons of Ze·ru'iah[a] were there—Jo'ab,[b] A·bish'ai,[c] and As'a·hel;[d] and As'a·hel was as swift on his feet as a gazelle in the open field. 19 As'a·hel chased after Ab'ner, and he would not veer to the right or to the left in his pursuit of Ab'ner. 20 When Ab'ner looked behind, he asked, "Is that you, As'a·hel?" to which he replied, "Yes, it is." 21 Then Ab'ner said to him: "Veer to your right or to your left and capture one of the young men, and take whatever you strip off him for yourself." But As'a·hel did not want to stop chasing him. 22 So Ab'ner said to As'a·hel once again: "Stop chasing me. Why should I strike you down? How could I look your brother Jo'ab in the face?" 23 But he kept refusing to stop, so Ab'ner struck him in the abdomen with the butt end of the spear,[e] and the spear came out from his back; and he fell there and died on the spot. Everyone who came to the place where As'a·hel fell and died would stop and pause there.

24 Then Jo'ab and A·bish'ai went in pursuit of Ab'ner. As the sun was setting, they came to the hill of Am'mah, which faces Gi'ah on the way to the wilderness of Gib'e·on. 25 There the Ben'ja·min·ites gathered together behind Ab'ner, and they formed one company and made a stand on the top of a certain hill. 26 Then Ab'ner called out to Jo'ab: "Is the sword going to devour endlessly? Do you not know that the outcome will only be bitterness? How long, then, will it be before you tell the people to turn back from pursuing their brothers?" 27 At that Jo'ab said: "As surely as the true God is living, if you had not spoken, then only by the morning would the people have stopped pursuing their brothers." 28 Jo'ab now blew the horn, and his men stopped chasing after Israel, and the fighting ceased.

29 Ab'ner and his men then marched through the Ar'a·bah[a] all that night and crossed the Jordan and marched through the entire ravine* and finally came to Ma·ha·na'im.[b] 30 After Jo'ab turned back from pursuing Ab'ner, he gathered all the people together. Of David's servants, 19 were missing, in addition to As'a·hel. 31 But the servants of David had defeated the Ben'ja·min·ites and the men of Ab'ner, and 360 of their men had died. 32 They took As'a·hel[c] and buried him in his father's tomb, which is at Beth'le·hem.[d] Then Jo'ab and his men marched all night long, and they reached Heb'ron[e] at daybreak.

3 The war between the house of Saul and the house of David dragged on; and David kept getting stronger,[f] and the house of Saul grew steadily weaker.[g]

2 Meanwhile, sons were born to David in Heb'ron.[h] His firstborn was Am'non[i] by A·hin'o·am[j] of Jez're·el. 3 His second was Chil'e·ab by Ab'i·gail,[k] the widow of Na'bal the Car'mel·ite; and the third was Ab'sa·lom[l] the son of Ma'a·cah, the daughter of Tal'- mai[a] the king of Gesh'ur. 4 The fourth was Ad·o·ni'jah[b] the son of Hag'ith, and the fifth was Sheph·a·ti'ah the son of A·bi'tal. 5 The sixth was Ith're·am by David's wife Eg'lah. These were born to David in Heb'ron.

6 While the war between the house of Saul and the house of David continued, Ab'ner[c] kept strengthening his position in the house of Saul. 7 Now Saul had had a concubine whose name was Riz'pah,[d] the daughter of A'iah. Ish-bo'sheth[e] later said to Ab'ner: "Why did you have relations with the concubine of my father?"[f] 8 Ab'ner grew very angry over the words of Ish-bo'sheth and said: "Am I a dog's head from Judah? Until this very day, I have shown loyal love toward the house of your father Saul and to his brothers and his friends, and I have not betrayed you into the hand of David; yet today you call me to account for an error concerning a woman. 9 May God do so to Ab'ner and add to it if I do not do for David just as Jehovah swore to him:[g] 10 to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and to establish the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan to Be'er-she'ba."[h] 11 He was not able to say one more word in reply to Ab'ner, for he was afraid of him.[i]

12 Ab'ner immediately sent messengers to David, saying: "To whom does the land belong?" He added: "Make a covenant with me, and I will do whatever I can* to turn all Israel to your side."[j] 13 To this he replied: "Good! I will make a covenant with you. The only thing I ask of you is that you do not try to see my face unless first you bring Mi'chal,[k] Saul's daughter, when you come to see me." 14 Then David sent messengers to Ish-bo'sheth,[a] Saul's son, saying: "Give me my wife Mi'chal, to whom I became engaged for 100 foreskins of the Phi·lis'tines."[b] 15 So Ish-bo'sheth sent to take her from her husband, Pal'ti·el[c] the son of La'ish. 16 But her husband kept walking with her, weeping as he followed her as far as Ba·hu'rim.[d] Then Ab'ner said to him: "Go, return!" At that he returned.

17 Meanwhile, Ab'ner sent word to the elders of Israel, saying: "For some time you wanted to have David as king over you. 18 Now act, for Jehovah said to David: 'By the hand of my servant David[e] I will save my people Israel from the hand of the Phi·lis'tines and from the hand of all their enemies.'" 19 Then Ab'ner spoke to the people of Benjamin.[f] Ab'ner also went to speak privately to David at Heb'ron to tell him what Israel and the whole house of Benjamin had agreed upon.

20 When Ab'ner came to David at Heb'ron with 20 men, David held a feast for Ab'ner and for the men with him. 21 Then Ab'ner said to David: "Let me go and gather all Israel together to my lord the king, so that they may make a covenant with you, and you will become king over all that you desire."* So David sent Ab'ner off, and he went his way in peace.

22 Just then, David's servants and Jo'ab returned from a raid, bringing a great quantity of spoil back with them. Ab'ner was no longer with David in Heb'ron, for he had sent him on his way in peace. 23 When Jo'ab[g] and all the army that was with him arrived, Jo'ab was told: "Ab'ner[h] the son of Ner[i] came to the king, and he sent him off, and he went his way in peace." 24 So Jo′ab went in to the king and said: "What have you done? Here Ab′ner came to you. Why did you send him off so that he successfully got away? 25 You know Ab′ner the son of Ner! He came here to fool you and to get to know your every move and to find out everything that you are doing."

26 So Jo′ab left David and sent messengers after Ab′ner, and they brought him back from the cistern of Si′rah; but David did not know anything about it. 27 When Ab′ner returned to Heb′ron,[a] Jo′ab took him aside inside the gate to speak with him privately. However, there he stabbed him in the abdomen, and he died;[b] this was for killing* his brother As′a·hel.[c] 28 When David heard about it later, he said: "I and my kingdom are forever innocent before Jehovah of the bloodguilt[d] for Ab′ner the son of Ner. 29 May it turn back on the head of Jo′ab[e] and on the entire house of his father. May Jo′ab's house never be without a man suffering from a discharge[f] or a leper[g] or a man working at the spindle* or one falling by the sword or one in need of food!"[h] 30 So Jo′ab and his brother A·bish′ai[i] killed Ab′ner[j] because he had put As′a·hel their brother to death in the battle[k] at Gib′·e·on.

31 Then David said to Jo′·ab and all the people with him: "Rip your garments apart and tie on sackcloth and wail over Ab′ner." King David himself was walking behind the funeral bier. 32 They buried Ab′ner in Heb′·ron; and the king wept loudly at Ab′ner's tomb, and all the people gave way to weeping. 33 The king chanted over Ab′ner and said:

"Should Ab′ner die the death of a senseless person?
34 Your hands had not been bound,
And your feet were not in fetters.*
You fell like one falling before criminals."#[a]

At that all the people wept over him again.

35 Later all the people came to give David bread for consolation* while it was still daytime, but David swore: "May God do so to me and add to it if before the sun sets I taste bread or anything at all!"[b] 36 All the people took notice, and it pleased them. Like everything that the king did, it pleased all the people. 37 So all the people and all Israel knew on that day that the king was not responsible for having Ab′ner the son of Ner put to death.[c] 38 Then the king said to his servants: "Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel?[d] 39 Today I am weak, although anointed as king,[e] and these men, the sons of Ze·ru′iah,[f] are too brutal for me.[g] May Jehovah repay the evildoer according to his own evil."[h]

4 When Saul's son Ish-bo′sheth*[i] heard that Ab′ner had died in Heb′ron,[j] his courage failed him# and all the Israelites were disturbed. 2 There were two men in charge of the marauder bands that belonged to the son of Saul: one was named Ba′a·nah and the other Re′chab. They were sons of Rim′mon the Be·er′oth·ite, of the tribe of Benjamin. (For Be·er′oth[k] too used to be counted as part of Benjamin. 3 The Be·er′oth·ites ran away to Git′ta·im,[a] and they are foreign residents there down to this day.)

4 Now Saul's son Jon′a·than[b] had a son whose feet were crippled.*[c] He was five years old when the report about Saul and Jon′a·than came from Jez′re·el,[d] and his nurse picked him up and fled, but as she was fleeing in panic, he fell and was crippled. His name was Me·phib′o·sheth.[e]

5 The sons of Rim′mon the Be·er′oth·ite, Re′chab and Ba′a·nah, went to the house of Ish-bo′sheth during the hot part of the day, as he was taking his midday rest. 6 They went into the house as if they were getting wheat, and they struck him in the abdomen; then Re′chab and his brother Ba′a·nah[f] escaped. 7 When they had entered the house, he was lying on his bed in his bedroom, and they struck him and put him to death, after which they cut off his head. Then they took his head and walked all night long on the road to the Ar′a·bah. 8 And they brought the head of Ish-bo′sheth[g] to David at Heb′ron and said to the king: "Here is the head of Ish-bo′sheth the son of Saul your enemy[h] who sought your life.*[i] This day Jehovah gives to my lord the king revenge on Saul and his descendants."

9 However, David answered Re′chab and his brother Ba′a·nah, the sons of Rim′mon the Be·er′oth·ite, and said to them: "As surely as Jehovah is living, the one who rescued me* out of all distress,[j] 10 when someone reported to me, 'Here Saul is dead,'[k] and he thought he was bringing me good news, I took hold of him and killed him[l] in Zik′lag. That was the messenger's reward he received from me! 11 How much more so when wicked men have killed a righteous man in his own house on his bed! Should I not require his blood from your hands[a] and rid the earth of you?" 12 David then ordered the young men to kill them.[b] They cut off their hands and feet and hung them[c] by the pool in Heb′ron. But they took the head of Ish-bo′sheth and buried it in the burial place of Ab′ner in Heb′ron.

5 In time all the tribes of Israel came to David at Heb′ron[d] and said: "Look! We are your own bone and flesh.[e] 2 In times past while Saul was our king, you were the one who was leading Israel on its campaigns.[f] And Jehovah said to you: 'You will shepherd my people Israel, and you will become leader over Israel.'"[g] 3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Heb′ron, and King David made a covenant with them[h] in Heb′ron before Jehovah. Then they anointed David as king over Israel.[i]

4 David was 30 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 40 years.[j] 5 In Heb′ron he reigned over Judah for 7 years and 6 months, and in Jerusalem[k] he reigned for 33 years over all Israel and Judah. 6 And the king and his men set out for Jerusalem against the Jeb′u·sites[l] who were inhabiting the land. They taunted David: "You will never come in here! Even the blind and the lame will drive you away." They thought, 'David will never get in here.'[m] 7 However, David captured the stronghold of Zion, which is now the City of David.[n] 8 So David said on that day: "Those who attack the Jeb'u·sites should go through the water tunnel to strike down both 'the lame and the blind,' who are hateful to David!"* That is why it is said: "The blind and the lame will never enter the house." 9 Then David took up residence in the stronghold, and it was called* the City of David; and David began to build all around from the Mound#[a] inward.[b] 10 Thus David became greater and greater,[c] and Jehovah the God of armies was with him.[d]

11 King Hi'ram[e] of Tyre sent messengers to David, also cedar timbers,[f] woodworkers, and stonemasons for building walls, and they began to build a house* for David.[g] 12 And David knew that Jehovah had firmly established him as king over Israel[h] and had exalted his kingdom[i] for the sake of His people Israel.[j]

13 David took more concubines[k] and wives in Jerusalem after he came from Heb'ron, and more sons and daughters were born to David.[l] 14 These are the names of those born to him in Jerusalem: Sham·mu'a, Sho'bab, Nathan,[m] Sol'o·mon,[n] 15 Ib'har, E·li'shu·a, Ne'pheg, Ja·phi'a, 16 E·lish'a·ma, E·li'a·da, and E·liph'e·let.

17 When the Phi·lis'tines heard that David had been anointed as king over Israel,[o] all the Phi·lis'tines came up to search for David.[p] When David heard about it, he went down to the stronghold.[q] 18 Then the Phi·lis'tines came in and spread out in the Valley* of Reph'a·im.[r] 19 David inquired of Jehovah,[s] saying: "Should I go up against the Phi·lis'tines? Will you give them into my hand?" At this Jehovah said to David: "Go up, for I will surely give the Phi·lis'tines into your hand."[a] 20 So David came to Ba'al-pe·ra'zim, and David struck them down there. At that he said: "Jehovah has broken through my enemies[b] before me, like a breach made by waters." That is why he named that place Ba'al-pe·ra'zim.*[c] 21 The Phi·lis'tines abandoned their idols there, and David and his men took them away.

22 Later the Phi·lis'tines came up once again and spread out in the Valley* of Reph'a·im.[d] 23 David inquired of Jehovah, but He said: "Do not go directly up. Instead, go around behind them, and come against them in front of the ba'ca bushes. 24 And when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the ba'ca bushes, then act decisively, for Jehovah will have gone out before you to strike down the army of the Phi·lis'tines." 25 So David did just as Jehovah commanded him, and he struck down the Phi·lis'tines[e] from Ge'ba[f] all the way to Ge'zer.[g]

6 David again gathered all the best troops in Israel, 30,000 men. 2 Then David and all the men with him set out for Ba'al-e-ju'dah to bring up from there the Ark of the true God,[h] before which people call on the name of Jehovah of armies,[i] who sits enthroned above* the cherubs.[j] 3 However, they placed the Ark of the true God on a new wagon[k] to transport it from the house of A·bin'a·dab,[l] which was on the hill; and Uz'zah and A·hi'o, the sons of A·bin'a·dab, were leading the new wagon.

4 So they transported the Ark of the true God from A·bin'- a·dab's house on the hill, and A·hi'o was walking ahead of the Ark. 5 David and all the house of Israel were celebrating before Jehovah with all sorts of juniper-wood instruments, harps, other stringed instruments,[a] tambourines,[b] sistrums, and cymbals.[c] 6 But when they came to the threshing floor of Na'con, Uz'zah thrust his hand out to the Ark of the true God and grabbed hold of it,[d] for the cattle nearly upset it. 7 At that Jehovah's anger blazed against Uz'zah, and the true God struck him down[e] there for his irreverent act,[f] and he died there beside the Ark of the true God. 8 But David became angry* because Jehovah's wrath had broken through against Uz'zah; and that place has been called Pe'rez-uz'zah# down to this day. 9 So David became fearful of Jehovah[g] on that day and said: "How can the Ark of Jehovah come to me?"[h] 10 David was not willing to bring the Ark of Jehovah to where he was in the City of David.[i] Instead, David had it taken to the house of O'bed-e'dom[j] the Git'tite.

11 The Ark of Jehovah remained at the house of O'bed-e'dom the Git'tite for three months, and Jehovah kept blessing O'bed-e'dom and all his household.[k] 12 The report was made to King David: "Jehovah has blessed the house of O'bed-e'dom and all that belongs to him because of the Ark of the true God." So David went to bring the Ark of the true God from the house of O'bed-e'dom up to the City of David with rejoicing.[l] 13 When the carriers[m] of the Ark of Jehovah had marched six steps, he sacrificed a bull and a fattened animal.

14 David was dancing around before Jehovah with all his might; all the while David wore* a linen eph'od.[a] 15 David and all the house of Israel were bringing up the Ark[b] of Jehovah with joyful shouting[c] and with the sound of the horn.[d] 16 But when the Ark of Jehovah came into the City of David, Saul's daughter Mi'chal[e] looked down through the window and saw King David leaping and dancing around before Jehovah; and she began to despise him in her heart.[f] 17 So they brought the Ark of Jehovah in and set it in its place inside the tent that David had pitched for it.[g] Then David offered up burnt offerings[h] and communion sacrifices[i] before Jehovah.[j] 18 When David finished offering up the burnt offerings and the communion sacrifices, he blessed the people in the name of Jehovah of armies. 19 Further, he distributed to all the people, to the whole multitude of Israel, to each man and woman, a ring-shaped loaf of bread, a date cake, and a raisin cake, and then all the people left, each to his own house.

20 When David returned to bless his own household, Saul's daughter Mi'chal[k] came out to meet him. She said: "How glorious the king of Israel made himself when he uncovered himself today before the eyes of the slave girls of his servants, just as an empty-headed man openly uncovers himself!"[l] 21 At this David said to Mi'chal: "My celebration was before Jehovah, who chose me rather than your father and all his household and who appointed me as leader over Jehovah's people, Israel.[m] Therefore, I will celebrate before Jehovah, 22 and I will humble myself even more than this and become low even in my own eyes. But by the slave girls whom you mentioned, I will be glorified." 23 So Saul's daughter Mi'chal[a] had no children down to the day of her death.

7 When the king was settled in his own house*[b] and Jehovah had given him rest from all his surrounding enemies, 2 the king said to Nathan[c] the prophet: "Here I am living in a house of cedars[d] while the Ark of the true God sits in the midst of tent cloths."[e] 3 Nathan replied to the king: "Go and do whatever is in your heart, for Jehovah is with you."[f]

4 On that very night, the word of Jehovah came to Nathan, saying: 5 "Go and say to my servant David, 'This is what Jehovah says: "Should you build me a house to dwell in?[g] 6 For I have not dwelled in a house from the day I brought the people of Israel out of Egypt to this day,[h] but I have been moving* about in a tent and in a tabernacle.[i] 7 During all the time that I went with all the Israelites,* did I ever say one word to any of the tribal leaders of Israel whom I appointed to shepherd my people Israel, saying, 'Why did you not build a house of cedars for me?'"' 8 Now say this to my servant David, 'This is what Jehovah of armies says: "I took you from the pastures, from following the flock,[j] to become a leader over my people Israel.[k] 9 And I will be with you wherever you go,[l] and I will do away with* all your enemies from before you;[m] and I will make a great name for you[n] like the name of the great men of the earth. 10 I will appoint a place for my people Israel and settle them, and they will live there and not be disturbed anymore; and wicked men will not oppress them again as they did in the past,[a] 11 from the day that I appointed judges[b] over my people Israel. And I will give you rest from all your enemies.[c]

"'"Also, Jehovah has told you that Jehovah will make a house* for you.[d] 12 When your days come to an end[e] and you are laid to rest with your forefathers, then I will raise up your offspring* after you, your own son,[#] and I will firmly establish his kingdom.[f] 13 He is the one who will build a house for my name,[g] and I will firmly establish the throne of his kingdom forever.[h] 14 I will become his father, and he will become my son.[i] When he does wrong, I will reprove him with the rod of men and with the strokes of the sons of men.*[j] 15 My loyal love will not be taken away from him the way I took it away from Saul,[k] whom I removed from before you. 16 Your house and your kingdom will be secure forever before you; your throne will be firmly established forever."'"[l]

17 Nathan told David all these words and this entire vision.[m]

18 At that King David came in and sat down before Jehovah and said: "Who am I, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah? And what is my house that you have brought me this far?[n] 19 As if this were not enough, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah, you also speak about the house of your servant down to a distant future time; and this is instruction* for all mankind, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah. 20 What more can your servant David say to you when you know me so well,[a] O Sovereign Lord Jehovah? 21 For the sake of your word and in agreement with your heart* you have done all these great things and have revealed them to your servant.[b] 22 That is why you are truly great,[c] O Sovereign Lord Jehovah. There is no one like you,[d] and there is no God except you;[e] everything we have heard with our ears confirms this. 23 And what other nation on earth is like your people Israel?[f] God went and redeemed them as his people,[g] making a name for himself[h] by doing great and awe-inspiring things for them.[i] You drove out the nations and their gods in behalf of your people, whom you redeemed to yourself from Egypt. 24 You established your people Israel as your own people for all time;[j] and you, O Jehovah, have become their God.[k]

25 "Now, O Jehovah God, carry out the promise you have made concerning your servant and his house for all time, and may you do just as you have promised.[l] 26 May your name be exalted forever,[m] so that people may say, 'Jehovah of armies is God over Israel,' and may the house of your servant David be firmly established before you.[n] 27 For you, Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, have made a revelation to your servant by saying, 'I will build a house* for you.'[o] That is why your servant has the courage# to pray this prayer to you. 28 And now, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah, you are the true God, and your words are truth,[p] and you have promised these good things to your servant. 29 So may it please you to bless the house of your servant, and may it continue forever before you;[a] for you, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah, have promised, and with your blessing may the house of your servant be blessed forever."[b]

8 Some time later, David defeated the Phi·lis'tines[c] and subdued them,[d] and David took Meth'eg-am'mah out of the hands of the Phi·lis'tines.

2 He defeated the Mo'ab·ites[e] and made them lie down on the ground and measured them with a line. He measured out two lines to be put to death, and one full line to be kept alive.[f] And the Mo'ab·ites became David's servants and brought tribute.[g]

3 David defeated Had·ad·e'zer the son of Re'hob the king of Zo'bah[h] as he was on his way to restore his authority at the Eu·phra'tes River.[i] 4 David captured 1,700 horsemen and 20,000 foot soldiers from him. Then David hamstrung all but 100 of the chariot horses.[j]

5 When the Syrians of Damascus[k] came to help King Had·ad·e'zer of Zo'bah, David struck down 22,000 of the Syrians.[l] 6 David then established garrisons in Syria of Damascus, and the Syrians became David's servants and brought tribute. Jehovah gave David victory* wherever he went.[m] 7 Moreover, David took the circular shields of gold from the servants of Had·ad·e'zer and brought them to Jerusalem.[n] 8 From Be'tah and Be·ro'thai, cities of Had·ad·e'zer, King David took a great quantity of copper.

9 Now King To'i of Ha'math[o] heard that David had defeated the entire army of Had·ad·e'zer.[p] 10 So To'i sent his son Jo'ram to King David to ask about his welfare and to congratulate him because he had fought and defeated Had·ad·e′zer (for Had·ad·e′zer had often fought against To′i), and he brought articles of silver, gold, and copper. 11 King David sanctified these to Jehovah, along with the silver and the gold that he had sanctified from all the nations that he had subdued:[a] 12 from Syria and Mo′ab,[b] from the Am′mon·ites, the Phi·lis′tines,[c] the A·mal′ek·ites,[d] and from the spoil of Had·ad·e′zer[e] the son of Re′hob the king of Zo′bah. 13 David also made a name for himself when he came back from striking down 18,000 E′dom·ites in the Valley of Salt.[f] 14 He established garrisons in E′dom. In all E′dom he established garrisons, and all the E′dom·ites became David's servants.[g] Jehovah gave David victory* wherever he went.[h]

15 David kept reigning over all Israel,[i] and David was administering justice and righteousness[j] for all his people.[k] 16 Jo′ab[l] the son of Ze·ru′iah was over the army, and Je·hosh′a·phat[m] the son of A·hi′lud was recorder. 17 Za′dok[n] the son of A·hi′tub and A·him′e·lech the son of A·bi′a·thar were priests, and Se·rai′ah was secretary. 18 Be·nai′ah[o] the son of Je·hoi′a·da was over the Cher′e·thites and the Pel′e·thites.[p] And David's sons became chief ministers.*

9 David then said: "Is there anyone still left of the house of Saul to whom I may show loyal love for the sake of Jon′a·than?"[q] 2 Now there was a servant of the house of Saul named Zi′ba.[r] So they called him to David, and the king asked him: "Are you Zi′ba?" He replied: "I am your servant." 3 The king continued: "Is there anyone left of the house of Saul to whom I may extend God's loyal love?" Zi′ba replied to the king: "There is still one son of Jon′a·than; he is crippled* in both feet."[a] 4 The king asked him: "Where is he?" Zi′ba replied to the king: "He is in the house of Ma′chir[b] the son of Am′mi·el at Lo-de′bar."

5 King David immediately sent for him and took him from the house of Ma′chir the son of Am′mi·el at Lo-de′bar. 6 When Me·phib′o·sheth the son of Jon′a·than the son of Saul came in to David, he at once fell facedown and prostrated himself. Then David said: "Me·phib′o·sheth!" to which he replied: "Here is your servant." 7 David said to him: "Do not be afraid, for I will certainly show loyal love[c] to you for the sake of your father Jon′a·than, and I will return to you all the land of Saul your grandfather, and you will always dine* at my table."[d]

8 At that he prostrated himself and said: "What is your servant, that you have turned your attention* to a dead dog[e] like me?" 9 The king now sent for Zi′ba, Saul's attendant, and said to him: "Everything that belonged to Saul and to all his house I give to the grandson of your master.[f] 10 You will cultivate the land for him —you and your sons and your servants—and you will gather its produce to provide food for those who belong to the grandson of your master to eat. But Me·phib′o·sheth, the grandson of your master, will always dine at my table."[g]

Now Zi′ba had 15 sons and 20 servants.[h] 11 Then Zi′ba said to the king: "Your servant will do all that my lord the king commands his servant to do." So Mephib′o·sheth ate at David's* table like one of the sons of the king.

10 Later the king of the Am′-mon·ites[d] died, and his son Ha′nun became king in his place.[e] 2 At that David said: "I will show loyal love toward Ha′-nun the son of Na′hash as his father showed loyal love toward me." So David sent his servants to offer him comfort over the loss of his father. But when David's servants came into the land of the Am′mon·ites, 3 the princes of the Am′mon·ites said to Ha′nun their lord: "Do you think that David is honoring your father by sending comforters to you? Is it not to search through the city and to spy it out and to overthrow it that David has sent his servants to you?" 4 So Ha′nun took the servants of David and shaved off half their beards[f] and cut their garments in half at their buttocks and sent them away. 5 When David was told, he at once sent men to meet them, because the men had been deeply humiliated; and the king told them: "Stay in Jer′i·cho[g] until your beards grow back, and then return."

6 In time the Am′mon·ites saw that they had become a stench to David, so the Am′mon-ites sent and hired Syrians of Beth-re′hob[h] and Syrians of Zo′-bah,[i] 20,000 foot soldiers; and the king of Ma′a·cah,[j] with 1,000 men; and from Ish′tob,* 12,-000 men.[k] 7 When David heard about it, he sent Jo′ab and the entire army, including his mighti-est warriors.[l] 8 And the Am′-mon·ites went out and drew up in battle formation at the entrance of the city gate while the Syrians of Zo′bah and of Re′hob, along with Ish′tob* and Ma′a·cah, were by themselves in the open field.

9 When Jo′ab saw that the battle charges were coming against him from the front and the rear, he chose some of the best troops in Israel and drew them up in battle formation to meet the Syrians.[a] 10 He put the rest of the men under the command* of his brother A·bish′-ai,[b] in order to draw them up in battle formation to meet the Am′mon·ites.[c] 11 Then he said: "If the Syrians become too strong for me, then you must come to my rescue; but if the Am′mon·ites become too strong for you, I will come to your rescue. 12 We must be strong and courageous[d] for our people and for the cities of our God, and Jehovah will do what is good in his eyes."[e]

13 Then Jo′ab and his men advanced to meet the Syrians in battle, and they fled from before him.[f] 14 When the Am′mon·ites saw that the Syrians had fled, they fled from A·bish′ai and went into the city. After that Jo′ab returned from the Am′mon·ites and came to Jerusalem.

15 When the Syrians saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they regrouped.[g] 16 So Had·ad·e′zer[h] sent for the Syri-ans in the region of the Riv-er,*[i] and then they came to He′-lam, with Sho′bach the chief of the army of Had·ad·e′zer leading them.

17 When the report was made to David, he immediately gath-ered all Israel and crossed the Jordan and came to He′lam. The Syrians then drew up in battle formation to meet David and fought against him.[a] 18 But the Syrians fled from Israel; and David killed 700 charioteers and 40,000 horsemen of the Syrians, and he struck down Sho′bach the chief of their army, who died there.[b] 19 When all the kings, the servants of Had·ad·e′zer, saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they promptly made peace with Israel and became their subjects;[c] and the Syrians were afraid to help the Am′monites anymore.

11 At the start of the year,* at the time when kings go on campaigns, David sent Jo′ab and his servants and the entire army of Israel to bring the Am′monites to ruin, and they besieged Rab′bah,[d] while David stayed in Jerusalem.[e]

2 One evening* David got up from his bed and walked around on the rooftop of the king's house.# From the rooftop he saw a woman bathing, and the woman was very beautiful. 3 David sent someone to inquire about the woman, and he reported: "Is this not Bath-she′ba[f] the daughter of E·li′am[g] and the wife of U·ri′ah[h] the Hit′tite?"[i] 4 Then David sent messengers to bring her.[j] So she came in to him, and he lay down with her.[k] (This happened while she was purifying herself from her uncleanness.*)[l] Afterward, she returned to her house.

5 The woman became pregnant, and she sent a message to David: "I am pregnant." 6 At this David sent a message to Jo′ab: "Send to me U·ri′ah the Hit′tite." So Jo′ab sent U·ri′ah to David. 7 When U·ri′ah came to him, David asked him how Jo′ab was getting along, how the troops were getting along, and how the war was going. 8 David then said to U·ri′ah: "Go down to your house and relax."* When U·ri′ah left the king's house, the king's courtesy gift# was sent after him. 9 However, U·ri′ah slept at the entrance of the king's house with all the other servants of his lord, and he did not go down to his own house. 10 So David was told: "U·ri′ah did not go down to his own house." At that David said to U·ri′ah: "Have you not just returned from a journey? Why did you not go down to your own house?" 11 U·ri′ah replied to David: "The Ark[a] and Israel and Judah are dwelling in temporary shelters, and my lord Jo′ab and the servants of my lord are camping in the open field. So should I go into my own house to eat and drink and lie down with my wife?[b] As surely as you live and are alive,* I will not do this thing!"

12 Then David said to U·ri′ah: "Stay here also today, and tomorrow I will send you away." So U·ri′ah stayed in Jerusalem on that day and the following day. 13 David then sent for him to come and eat and drink with him, and he got him drunk. But in the evening, he went out to sleep on his bed with the servants of his lord, and he did not go down to his house. 14 In the morning David wrote a letter to Jo′ab and sent it by the hand of U·ri′ah. 15 He wrote in the letter: "Put U·ri′ah in the front lines where the fighting is fiercest. Then retreat from behind him, so that he will be struck down and die."[c]

16 Jo′ab had been carefully watching the city, and he stationed U·ri′ah where he knew there were mighty warriors. 17 When the men of the city came out and fought against Jo′ab, some of David's servants fell, and U·ri′ah the Hit′tite was among those who died.[a] 18 Jo′ab now reported to David all the news about the war. 19 He instructed the messenger: "When you finish speaking to the king about all the news of the war, 20 the king may become angry and say to you, 'Why did you have to go so near to the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from the top of the wall? 21 Who struck down A·bim′e·lech[b] the son of Je·rub′be·sheth?[c] Was it not a woman who threw an upper millstone on him from the top of the wall, causing his death at The′bez? Why did you have to go so close to the wall?' Then say, 'Your servant U·ri′ah the Hit′tite also died.'"

22 So the messenger went and told David everything that Jo′ab had sent him to tell. 23 Then the messenger told David: "Their men overpowered us, and they came out against us in the field; but we drove them back to the entrance of the city gate. 24 And the archers were shooting at your servants from the top of the wall, and some of the servants of the king died; your servant U·ri′ah the Hit′tite also died."[d] 25 At that David said to the messenger: "Say this to Jo′ab: 'Do not let this matter trouble you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Intensify your battle against the city and conquer it.'[e] And encourage him."

26 When U·ri′ah's wife heard that her husband U·ri′ah had died, she began to mourn her husband. 27 As soon as the mourning period was over, David sent for her and brought her to his house, and she became his wife[a] and bore him a son. But what David had done was very displeasing to* Jehovah.[b]

12 So Jehovah sent Nathan[c] to David. He came in to him[d] and said: "There were two men in one city, the one rich and the other poor. 2 The rich man had very many sheep and cattle;[e] 3 but the poor man had nothing but one small female lamb, which he had bought.[f] He cared for it, and it grew up together with him and his sons. It would eat from the little food he had and drink from his cup and sleep in his arms. It became as a daughter to him. 4 Later a visitor came to the rich man, but he would not take any of his own sheep and cattle to prepare a meal for the traveler who had come to him. Instead, he took the poor man's lamb and prepared it for the man who had come to him."[g]

5 At this David grew very angry against the man, and he said to Nathan: "As surely as Jehovah is living,[h] the man who did this deserves to die! 6 And he should pay for the lamb four times over,[i] because he did this and showed no compassion."

7 Then Nathan said to David: "You are the man! This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says: 'I myself anointed you as king over Israel,[j] and I rescued you from the hand of Saul.[k] 8 I was willing to give you your master's house[l] and put your master's wives[m] in your arms, and I gave you the house of Israel and of Judah.[n] And as if that were not enough, I was willing to do much more for you.[o] 9 Why did you despise the word of Jehovah by doing what is bad in

13 David then said to Nathan: "I have sinned against Jehovah."[i] Nathan replied to David: "Jehovah, in turn, forgives your sin.*[j] You will not die.[k] 14 Nevertheless, because you have treated Jehovah with utter disrespect in this matter, the son just born to you will certainly die."

15 Then Nathan went to his own house.

And Jehovah struck the child whom U·ri′ah's wife had borne to David, and he became sick. 16 David pleaded with the true God in behalf of the boy. David went on a strict fast and would go in and spend the night lying on the ground.[l] 17 So the elders of his house stood over him and tried to raise him up from the ground, but he refused and would not eat with them. 18 On the seventh day the child died, but David's servants were afraid to tell him that the child was dead. They said: "While the child was alive we spoke to him, and he did not listen to us. So how can we tell him that the child has died? He may do something terrible."

19 When David saw that his servants were whispering to one another, he discerned that the child had died. David said to his servants: "Has the child died?" They replied: "He has died." 20 So David got up from the ground. He washed, rubbed himself with oil,[a] changed his clothing, and went to the house[b] of Jehovah and prostrated himself. Afterward, he went to his house* and asked for food to be brought to him, and he ate. 21 His servants asked him: "Why have you acted in this way? While the child was alive, you fasted and kept weeping; but as soon as the child died, you got up and ate food." 22 He replied: "While the child was alive, I fasted[c] and kept weeping because I said to myself, 'Who knows whether Jehovah may show me favor and let the child live?'[d] 23 Now that he has died, why should I fast? Can I bring him back?[e] I will go to him,[f] but he will not return to me."[g]

24 Then David comforted his wife Bath-she′ba.[h] He went in to her and lay down with her. In time she bore a son, and he was named Sol′o·mon.[i] And Jehovah loved him,[j] 25 and he sent word through Nathan[k] the prophet to name him Jed·i·di′ah, for the sake of Jehovah.

26 Jo′ab continued fighting against Rab′bah[l] of the Am′monites,[m] and he captured the royal city.[n] 27 So Jo′ab sent messengers to David and said: "I have fought against Rab′bah,[o] and I have captured the city of waters. 28 Now gather the rest of the troops and encamp against the city and capture it. Otherwise, I will be the one to capture the city, and it will be credited to me.”*

29 So David gathered all the troops and went to Rab′bah and fought against it and captured it. 30 Then he took the crown of Mal′cam from its head. The weight of it was a talent* of gold, along with precious stones, and it was placed on David’s head. He also took a vast amount of spoil[a] from the city.[b] 31 And he brought out the people who were in it and put them to work at sawing stones, at working with sharp iron instruments and with iron axes, and at brickmaking. That was what he did to all the cities of the Am′mon·ites. Finally David and all the troops returned to Jerusalem.

13 Now David’s son Ab′sa-lom had a beautiful sister named Ta′mar,[c] and David’s son Am′non[d] fell in love with her. 2 Am′non was so distressed that he became sick because of his sister Ta′mar, for she was a virgin and it seemed impossible for Am′non to do anything to her. 3 Now Am′non had a companion named Je·hon′a·dab,[e] the son of Shim′e·ah,[f] David’s brother; and Je·hon′a·dab was a very clever man. 4 So he said to him: “Why are you, the king’s son, so depressed every morning? Why not tell me?” Am′non replied to him: “I am in love with Ta′mar, the sister[g] of my brother Ab′sa-lom.” 5 Je·hon′a·dab replied to him: “Lie down on your bed and pretend to be sick. When your father comes to see you, say to him, ‘Please, let my sister Ta′mar come and serve me some food. If she prepares the food given to the sick* before my eyes, I will eat it from her hand.’”

6 So Am′non lay down and pretended to be sick, and the king came in to see him. Then Am′non said to the king: “Please, let my sister Ta′mar come in and bake two heart-shaped cakes before my eyes so that I may take food from her hand.” 7 At that David sent a message to Ta′mar at the house, saying: “Please go to the house of your brother Am′non and prepare food* for him.” 8 So Ta′mar went to the house of her brother Am′non, where he was lying down. She took the dough and kneaded it into cakes before his eyes and cooked the cakes. 9 Then she took the pan and served him. But Am′non refused to eat and said: “Have everybody leave me!” So everybody left him.

10 Am′non now said to Ta′mar: “Bring the food* into the bedroom, so that I may eat it from your hand.” So Ta′mar took the heart-shaped cakes that she had made and brought them to her brother Am′non in the bedroom. 11 When she brought them for him to eat, he grabbed her and said: “Come, lie down with me, my sister.” 12 But she said to him: “No, my brother! Do not humiliate me, for such a thing is not done in Israel.[a] Do not do this disgraceful thing.[b] 13 How could I live down my shame? And you will be regarded as one of the disgraceful men in Israel. Now speak, please, to the king, for he will not withhold me from you.” 14 But he refused to listen to her, and he overpowered her and humiliated her by raping her. 15 Then Am′non began hating her with a very intense hatred, so that his hatred for her became greater than the love he had felt for her. Am′non said to her: "Get up; go away!" 16 At this she said to him: "No, my brother, for sending me away now is worse than what you have done with me!" But he refused to listen to her.

17 With that he called his young attendant and said: "Get this person out of my presence, please, and lock the door behind her." 18 (Now she was wearing a special* robe, for those were the garments that the virgin daughters of the king wore.) So his attendant led her outside, and he locked the door behind her. 19 Then Ta′mar put ashes on her head,[a] and she ripped apart the fine robe she was wearing; and she kept her hands on her head and walked off, crying out as she walked.

20 At this her brother Ab′sa·lom[b] asked her: "Was it your brother Am′non who was with you? And now keep silent, my sister. He is your brother.[c] Do not let your heart dwell on this matter." Then Ta′mar lived in isolation at the house of her brother Ab′sa·lom. 21 When King David heard about all these things, he became very angry.[d] But he would not hurt the feelings of Am′non his son, because he loved him, for he was his firstborn. 22 And Ab′sa·lom said nothing to Am′non, either bad or good; for Ab′sa·lom hated[e] Am′non because he had humiliated his sister Ta′mar.[f]

23 After two full years, Ab′sa·lom's sheepshearers were at Ba′al-ha′zor, near E′phra·im,[g] and Ab′sa·lom invited all the sons of the king.[h] 24 So Ab′sa·lom came in to the king and said: "Your servant is having his sheep sheared. Please let the king and his servants go with me." 25 But the king said to Ab′sa·lom: "No, my son. If all of us go, we will be a burden to you." Although he kept urging him, he did not consent to go, but he blessed him. 26 Ab′sa·lom then said: "If not you, please let my brother Am′non go with us."[a] The king replied to him: "Why should he go with you?" 27 But Ab′sa·lom urged him, so he sent Am′non and all the king's sons with him.

28 Then Ab′sa·lom ordered his attendants: "Watch, and when Am′non's heart is in a cheerful mood from the wine, I will say to you, 'Strike down Am′non!' You must then put him to death. Do not be afraid. Is it not I who commands you? Be strong and courageous." 29 So Ab′sa·lom's attendants did to Am′non exactly as Ab′sa·lom had ordered; then all the other sons of the king got up, and each one mounted his mule and fled. 30 While they were on the way, the report reached David: "Ab′sa·lom has struck down all the sons of the king, and not one of them survived." 31 At this the king got up and ripped his clothes apart and lay on the ground, and all his servants were standing by with their garments ripped apart.

32 However, Je·hon′a·dab[b] the son of Shim′e·ah,[c] David's brother, said: "Do not let my lord think that they have killed all the young sons of the king, for only Am′non has died.[d] This is by the order of Ab′sa·lom, who decided to do this[e] from the day that Am′non humiliated his sister[f] Ta′mar.[g] 33 Now do not let my lord the king pay attention to* the report that says, 'All the king's sons have died'; only Am′non has died."

34 Meanwhile, Ab′sa·lom ran away.[a] Later the watchman raised his eyes and saw that there were many people coming from the road behind him next to the mountain. 35 At this Je·hon′a·dab[b] said to the king: "Look! The king's sons have returned. It is just as your servant said." 36 As he finished speaking, the king's sons came in, weeping loudly; also the king and all his servants wept very bitterly. 37 But Ab′sa·lom fled and went to Tal′mai[c] the son of Am·mi′hud the king of Gesh′ur. David mourned his son for many days. 38 After Ab′sa·lom fled and went to Gesh′ur,[d] he stayed there for three years.

39 Finally King David longed to go to Ab′sa·lom, for he had become reconciled to* the death of Am′non.

14 Now Jo′ab the son of Ze·ru′iah[e] learned that the king's heart longed for Ab′sa·lom.[f] 2 So Jo′ab sent to Te·ko′a[g] and summoned from there a clever woman and told her: "Act like you are in mourning, please, and put on garments of mourning, and do not rub yourself with oil.[h] Behave like a woman who has been mourning over someone dead for a long time. 3 Then go in and speak to the king like this." With that Jo′ab put the words in her mouth.*

4 The Te·ko′ite woman went in to the king and fell with her face to the ground and prostrated herself and said: "Help me, O king!" 5 The king replied to her: "What is the matter?" To this she said: "Alas, I am a widow; my husband is dead. 6 And I, your servant, had two sons, and the two of them fought with each other in the field. There was no one to separate them, and one struck the other down and killed him. 7 Now the whole family has risen up against me, your servant, and they are saying, 'Hand over the one who struck his brother, so that we may put him to death for the life* of his brother whom he killed,[a] even if it means wiping out the heir!' They would extinguish the last glowing coal that I have left[#] and leave to my husband neither a name nor a survivor[△] on the surface of the earth."

8 Then the king said to the woman: "Go to your home, and I will issue an order regarding you." 9 At this the Te·ko′ite woman said to the king: "O my lord the king, let the guilt be on me and on my father's house, while the king and his throne are innocent." 10 The king then said: "If anyone speaks further to you, bring him to me, and he will never trouble you again." 11 But she said: "Please, let the king remember Jehovah your God, so that the avenger of blood[b] does not bring ruin and annihilate my son." To this he said: "As surely as Jehovah is living,[c] not one of your son's hairs will fall to the ground." 12 The woman now said: "Let your servant, please, speak a word to my lord the king." So he said: "Speak!"

13 The woman said: "Why, then, have you thought to do something like this against the people of God?[d] When the king speaks this way, he makes himself guilty, for the king does not bring back his own banished son.[e] 14 We will surely die and be like waters that are poured out on the ground, which cannot be recovered. But God would not take away a life,* and he considers reasons why the banished one should not always be banished from him. 15 I have come in to say this to my lord the king because the people made me afraid. So your servant said, 'Let me speak, please, to the king. Perhaps the king will act on the request of his slave. 16 The king may listen and rescue his slave from the hand of the man seeking to annihilate me and my only son from the inheritance God gave us.'[a] 17 Then your servant said, 'May the word of my lord the king please give me relief,' for my lord the king is just like an angel of the true God in distinguishing what is good from what is bad. May Jehovah your God be with you."

18 The king now answered the woman: "Please do not hide from me anything I ask you." The woman replied: "Let my lord the king speak, please." 19 The king then asked: "Did Jo'ab put you up to all of this?"[b] The woman answered: "As surely as you are* living, O my lord the king, it is just as# my lord the king says, for it was your servant Jo'ab who instructed me and put all these words in the mouth of your servant. 20 Your servant Jo'ab has done this to change the appearance of things, but my lord has wisdom like that of the angel of the true God and knows all that is happening in the land."

21 The king then said to Jo'ab: "All right, I will do this thing.[c] Go and bring back the young man Ab'sa·lom."[d] 22 At this Jo'ab fell with his face to the ground and prostrated himself and praised the king. Jo'ab said: "Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your eyes, O my lord the king, because the king has acted on the request of his servant." 23 Then Jo'ab got up and went to Gesh'ur[a] and brought Ab'sa·lom to Jerusalem. 24 However, the king said: "Let him return to his own house, but he may not see my face." So Ab'sa·lom returned to his own house, and he did not see the face of the king.

25 Now in all Israel, no man was as highly praised for his handsome appearance as Ab'sa·lom. From the sole of his foot to the crown of his head, there was no flaw in him. 26 When he shaved his head —he had to shave it at the end of every year because it was so heavy for him—the hair of his head weighed 200 shekels* by the royal stone weight.# 27 To Ab'sa·lom were born three sons[b] and one daughter, whose name was Ta'mar. She was a very beautiful woman.

28 And Ab'sa·lom continued living in Jerusalem for two full years, but he did not see the face of the king.[c] 29 So Ab'sa·lom summoned Jo'ab in order to send him to the king, but Jo'ab would not come to him. Then he sent for him again, a second time, and he still refused to come. 30 Finally he said to his servants: "Jo'ab's plot of land is next to mine, and he has some barley there. Go and set it on fire." So the servants of Ab'sa·lom set the plot of land on fire. 31 At this Jo'ab got up and came to Ab'sa·lom's house and said to him: "Why did your servants set my plot of land on fire?" 32 Ab'sa·lom replied to Jo'ab: "Look! I sent this message to you, 'Come and let me send you to the king to ask: "Why have I come from Gesh'ur?[d] It

33 So Jo'ab went in to the king and told him. Then he called Ab'sa·lom, who came in to the king and prostrated himself before him, falling with his face to the ground before the king. Then the king kissed Ab'sa·lom.[a]

15 After all these things, Ab'sa·lom acquired for himself a chariot and horses and 50 men to run before him.[b] 2 Ab'sa·lom would rise up early and stand at the side of the road to the city gate.[c] Whenever any man had a legal case that was to come to the king for judgment,[d] Ab'sa·lom would call him and say: "From what city are you?" and he would say: "Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel." 3 Ab'sa·lom would say to him: "See, your claims are right and proper, but there is no one from the king to hear your case." 4 Ab'sa·lom would say: "If only I were appointed judge in the land! Then every man who has a legal case or judgment could come to me, and I would see that he receives justice."

5 And when a man came near to bow down to him, Ab'sa·lom would extend his hand and grab hold of him and kiss him.[e] 6 Ab'sa·lom would do this to all the Israelites who would come in to the king for judgment; so Ab'sa·lom kept stealing the hearts of the men of Israel.[f]

7 At the end of four years,* Ab'sa·lom said to the king: "Let me go, please, to Heb'ron[g] to pay my vow that I made to Jehovah. 8 For your servant made this solemn vow[h] when I was dwelling in Gesh'ur[i] in Syria: 'If Jehovah will bring me back to Jerusalem, I will make an offering to* Jehovah.'" 9 So the king said to him: "Go in peace." With that he rose up and went to Heb'ron.

10 Ab'sa·lom now sent spies through all the tribes of Israel, saying: "As soon as you hear the sound of the horn, announce, 'Ab'sa·lom has become king in Heb'ron!'"[a] 11 Now 200 men from Jerusalem had gone there with Ab'sa·lom; they were invited and went unsuspectingly, unaware of what was happening. 12 Further, when he offered the sacrifices, Ab'sa·lom sent for A·hith'o·phel[b] the Gi'lon·ite, David's adviser,*[c] from his city Gi'loh.[d] The conspiracy kept gaining momentum, and the people who supported Ab'sa·lom were growing in number.[e]

13 In time an informer came to David, saying: "The heart of the men of Israel has turned to Ab'sa·lom." 14 At once David said to all his servants with him in Jerusalem: "Get up, and let us run away,[f] for none of us will escape from Ab'sa·lom! Hurry, for fear he may quickly overtake us and bring disaster on us and strike the city with the sword!"[g] 15 The king's servants replied to the king: "Whatever my lord the king decides, your servants are ready to do."[h] 16 So the king went out with all his household following him, but the king left ten concubines[i] to take care of the house.* 17 And the king continued on his way out with all the people following, and they stopped at Beth-mer'hak.

18 All his servants leaving with him* and all the Cher'e·thites, the Pel'e·thites,[j] and the Git'tites,[k] 600 men who had followed him from Gath,[l] were passing by as the king reviewed them.* 19 Then the king said to It′tai[a] the Git′tite: "Why should you also go with us? Go back and dwell with the new king, for you are a foreigner and also an exile from your place. 20 Yesterday you came, so today should I make you wander with us, to go when I must go and where I must go? Go back and take your brothers with you, and may Jehovah show you loyal love and faithfulness!"[b] 21 But It′tai answered the king: "As surely as Jehovah is living and as surely as my lord the king is living, wherever my lord the king may be, whether for death or for life, there your servant will be!"[c] 22 At that David said to It′tai:[d] "Go and cross over." So It′tai the Git′tite crossed over, together with all his men and children.

23 Everyone in the land was weeping loudly while all these people crossed over, and the king was standing by the Kid′ron Valley;[e] all the people were crossing over to the road leading to the wilderness. 24 Za′dok[f] was also there and with him were all the Levites[g] carrying the ark[h] of the covenant of the true God;[i] and they set the Ark of the true God down; and A·bi′a·thar[j] went up, while all the people completed crossing over from the city. 25 But the king said to Za′dok: "Take the Ark of the true God back to the city.[k] If I find favor in the eyes of Jehovah, he will also bring me back and let me see it and its dwelling place.[l] 26 But if he should say, 'I have found no pleasure in you,' then let him do to me whatever seems good in his eyes." 27 The king said to Za′dok the priest: "Are you not a seer?[m] Return to the city in peace, and take the two sons of you men with you, A·him′a·az your own son and Jon′a·than[a] the son of A·bi′a·thar. 28 See, I will linger by the fords of the wilderness until word comes from you to inform me."[b] 29 So Za′dok and A·bi′a·thar took the Ark of the true God back to Jerusalem, and they remained there.

30 As David was going up the Mount* of Olives,[c] he was weeping as he went up; his head was covered, and he was walking barefoot. All the people with him also covered their heads and were weeping as they went up. 31 David was then told: "A·hith′o·phel is among those conspiring[d] with Ab′sa·lom."[e] At this David said: "Turn, please, the advice* of A·hith′o·phel into foolishness,[f] O Jehovah!"[g]

32 When David came to the summit where people used to bow down to God, Hu′shai[h] the Ar′chite[i] was there to meet him, with his robe ripped apart and dirt on his head. 33 However, David said to him: "If you go across with me, you will be a load on me. 34 But if you return to the city and you say to Ab′sa·lom, 'I am your servant, O King. I was the servant of your father in the past, but now I am your servant,'[j] you can then frustrate the advice of A·hith′o·phel for me.[k] 35 Are not Za′dok and A·bi′a·thar the priests there with you? You must tell Za′dok and A·bi′a·thar the priests everything that you hear from the house of the king.[l] 36 Look! There with them are their two sons, A·him′a·az[m] the son of Za′dok and Jon′a·than[n] the son of A·bi′a·thar, and through them send to me everything that you hear." 37 So Hu′shai, David's friend,*[o] went into the city as Ab′sa·lom was entering into Jerusalem.

16 When David had passed a little beyond the summit,[a] Zi′ba,[b] the attendant of Me·phib′·o·sheth,[c] was there to meet him with a couple of saddled donkeys, and on them were 200 loaves of bread, 100 cakes of raisins, 100 cakes of summer fruit,* and a large jar of wine.[d] 2 Then the king said to Zi′ba: "Why have you brought these things?" Zi′ba replied: "The donkeys are for the household of the king to ride, the bread and the summer fruit are for the young men to eat, and the wine is for those who get exhausted in the wilderness to drink."[e] 3 The king now said: "And where is the son* of your master?"[f] At this Zi′ba said to the king: "He is staying in Jerusalem, for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will give back the royal rule of my father to me.'"[g] 4 The king then said to Zi′ba: "Look! Everything that belongs to Me·phib′o·sheth is yours."[h] Zi′ba replied: "I bow down before you. May I find favor in your eyes, my lord the king."[i]

5 When King David reached Ba·hu′rim, a man of the family of Saul's house named Shim′e·i,[j] the son of Ge′ra, came out shouting curses as he approached.[k] 6 He was throwing stones at David and at all the servants of King David, as well as at all the people and the mighty men on his right and on his left. 7 Shim′e·i said as he cursed: "Get out, get out, you bloodguilty man! You worthless man! 8 Jehovah has brought back on you all the bloodguilt for the house of Saul, in whose place you have ruled as king, but Jehovah gives the kingship into the hand of Ab′sa·lom your son. 9 Then A·bish′ai the son of Ze·ru′iah[a] said to the king: "Why should this dead dog[b] curse my lord the king?[c] Let me go over, please, and take off his head."[d] 10 But the king said: "What do I have to do with you, you sons of Ze·ru′iah?[e] Let him curse me,[f] for Jehovah has said to him,[g] 'Curse David!' So who should say, 'Why are you doing this?'" 11 David then said to A·bish′ai and all his servants: "Here my own son, who came from my own body, is seeking my life,*[h] and how much more now a Ben′ja·min·ite![i] Leave him alone so that he may curse me, for Jehovah told him to! 12 Perhaps Jehovah will see my affliction,[j] and Jehovah will restore goodness to me instead of the curses shouted at me this day."[k] 13 With that David and his men kept going down the road while Shim′e·i was walking alongside the mountain abreast of him, shouting curses[l] and throwing stones and a lot of dust.

14 At length the king and all the people with him arrived at their destination exhausted, and they refreshed themselves.

15 Meanwhile, Ab′sa·lom and all the men of Israel arrived in Jerusalem, and A·hith′·o·phel[m] was with him. 16 When Hu′shai[n] the Ar′chite,[o] David's friend,* came in to Ab′sa·lom, Hu′shai said to Ab′sa·lom: "Long live the king![p] Long live the king!" 17 At this Ab′sa·lom said to Hu′shai: "Is this your loyal love toward your friend? Why did you not go with your friend?" 18 So Hu′shai said to Ab′sa·lom: "No, I am on the side of the one who has been chosen by Jehovah, this people, and all the men of Israel. I will stay with him. 19 And again I say, Whom should I serve? Should it not be his son? Just as I served your father, so I will serve you."[a]

16:11 *Or "soul." 16:16 *Or "confidant."

20 Ab'sa·lom then said to A·hith'o·phel: "Give me your advice.[b] What should we do?" 21 At that A·hith'o·phel said to Ab'sa·lom: "Have relations with your father's concubines,[c] those whom he left behind to take care of the house.[d] Then all Israel will hear that you have made yourself a stench to your father, and those who support you will be strengthened." 22 So they pitched a tent for Ab'sa·lom on the roof,[e] and Ab'sa·lom had relations with the concubines of his father[f] before the eyes of all Israel.[g]

23 In those days the advice that A·hith'o·phel[h] gave was considered as* the word of the true God. That was how all the advice of A·hith'o·phel was esteemed, both by David and by Ab'sa·lom.

17 A·hith'o·phel then said to Ab'sa·lom: "Please let me choose 12,000 men and rise up and chase after David tonight. 2 I will come upon him when he is weary and powerless,*[i] and I will throw him into a panic; and all the people who are with him will flee, and I will strike down only the king.[j] 3 Then I will bring all the people back to you. The return of all the people depends on what happens with the man you are seeking. Then all the people will be at peace." 4 The proposal was just right in the eyes of Ab'sa·lom and all the elders of Israel.

5 However, Ab'sa·lom said: "Please call Hu'shai[k] the Ar'chite as well, and let us hear what he has to say." 6 So Hu'shai came in to Ab'sa·lom. Then Ab'sa·lom said to him: "This is the advice A·hith'o·phel gave. Should we act on his advice? If not, you tell us." 7 At this Hu'shai said to Ab'sa·lom: "The advice that A·hith'o·phel gave is not good in this instance!"[a]

8 Hu'shai continued: "You well know that your father and his men are mighty,[b] and they are desperate,* like a bear that has lost her cubs in the field.[c] Moreover, your father is a warrior,[d] and he will not spend the night with the people. 9 At this very moment he is hiding in one of the caves* or in some other place;[e] and if he attacks first, those hearing of it will say, 'The people following Ab'sa·lom have been defeated!' 10 Even the courageous man whose heart is like that of a lion[f] will surely melt in fear, for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man[g] and that the men with him are courageous. 11 I give this advice: Let all Israel be gathered to you, from Dan to Be'er·she'ba,[h] as many as the grains of sand by the sea,[i] and you should lead them into the fight. 12 We will come against him wherever he is found, and we will come upon him just like the dew that falls on the ground; and not one of them will survive, not he nor any of the men with him. 13 If he retreats into a city, all Israel will carry ropes to that city, and we will drag it down into the valley until not even a pebble is left."

14 Then Ab'sa·lom and all the men of Israel said: "The advice of Hu'shai the Ar'chite is better[j] than the advice of A·hith'o·phel!" For Jehovah had determined* to frustrate the sound advice of A·hith'o·phel,[k] so that

Jehovah could bring disaster on Ab′sa·lom.[a]

15 Hu′shai later said to Za′dok and A·bi′a·thar[b] the priests: "This is what A·hith′o·phel has advised Ab′sa·lom and the elders of Israel, and this is what I have advised. 16 Now quickly send word to David and warn him: 'Do not stay at the fords* of the wilderness tonight, but cross over without fail, or the king and all the people with him may be wiped out.'"#[c]

17 Jon′a·than[d] and A·him′a·az[e] were staying at En-ro′gel;[f] so a servant girl went off and told them and they went to tell King David, for they did not dare to be seen entering the city. 18 However, a young man saw them and told Ab′sa·lom. So the two of them quickly went off and came to the house of a man in Ba·hu′rim[g] who had a well in his courtyard. They went down into it, 19 and the man's wife spread a covering over the top of the well and covered it with cracked grain; no one knew about it. 20 The servants of Ab′sa·lom came to the woman at her house and asked: "Where are A·him′a·az and Jon′a·than?" The woman replied: "They passed by toward the water."[h] Then the men searched for them but did not find them, so they returned to Jerusalem.

21 After the men were gone, they came up out of the well and went and informed King David. They said to him: "Rise up and quickly cross the water, for this is what A·hith′o·phel advised against you."[i] 22 Immediately David and all the people with him rose up and crossed the Jordan. By daybreak, there was no one left who had not crossed the Jordan.

23 When A·hith′o·phel saw that his advice had not been acted on, he saddled a donkey and went to his house in his hometown.[a] After he gave instructions to his household,[b] he hanged* himself.[c] So he died and was buried in the burial place of his forefathers.

24 Meanwhile, David went to Ma·ha·na′im,[d] and Ab′sa·lom crossed the Jordan with all the men of Israel. 25 Ab′sa·lom put A·ma′sa[e] in charge of the army in place of Jo′ab;[f] A·ma′sa was the son of a man named Ith′ra the Israelite, who had relations with Ab′i·gail[g] the daughter of Na′hash, the sister of Ze·ru′iah, Jo′ab's mother. 26 Israel and Ab′sa·lom camped in the land of Gil′e·ad.[h]

27 As soon as David came to Ma·ha·na′im, Sho′bi the son of Na′hash from Rab′bah[i] of the Am′mon·ites, Ma′chir[j] the son of Am′mi·el from Lo-de′bar, and Bar·zil′lai[k] the Gil′e·ad·ite from Ro·ge′lim 28 brought beds, basins, clay pots, wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, broad beans, lentils, parched grain, 29 honey, butter, sheep, and cheese.* They brought all of this out for David and the people with him to eat,[l] for they said: "The people are hungry and tired and thirsty in the wilderness."[m]

18 Then David numbered the men who were with him and placed over them chiefs of thousands and chiefs of hundreds.[n] 2 And David sent one third of the men under the command* of Jo′ab,[o] one third under the command of Jo′ab's brother A·bish′ai[p] the son of Ze·ru′iah,[q] and one third under the command of It′tai[r] the Git′tite. The king then said to the men: "I will also go out with you." 3 But they said: "You must not go out,[a] for if we flee, they would not care about* us; and if half of us would die, they would not care about us, because you are worth 10,000 of us.[b] Therefore, it would be better if you would send us help from the city." 4 The king said to them: "Whatever seems best to you, I will do." So the king stood next to the city gate, and all the men went out by hundreds and by thousands. 5 Then the king gave Jo'ab and A·bish'ai and It'tai this order: "Deal gently with the young man Ab'sa·lom for my sake."[c] All the men heard it when the king gave all the chiefs the order about Ab'sa·lom.

6 The men went out to the field to meet Israel, and the battle took place in the forest of E'phra·im.[d] 7 There the people of Israel[e] were defeated by the servants of David,[f] and a great slaughter took place on that day—20,000 men. 8 The battle spread through the whole region. Furthermore, the forest devoured more of the people than the sword did on that day.

9 Ab'sa·lom eventually found himself facing the servants of David. Ab'sa·lom was riding on a mule, and the mule went under the thick branches of a large tree, and his head got entangled in the big tree, so that he was suspended in midair* while the mule he had been riding kept going. 10 Then someone saw it and told Jo'ab:[g] "Look! I have seen Ab'sa·lom hanging in a big tree." 11 Jo'ab replied to the man who told him: "If you saw it, why did you not strike him down to the ground on the spot? Then I would have gladly given you ten pieces of silver and a belt."

12 But the man said to Jo'ab: "Even if I were handed* 1,000 pieces of silver, I could not lift my hand against the king's son, for we heard the king order you and A·bish'ai and It'tai, 'Whoever you are, watch over the young man Ab'sa·lom.'[a] 13 If I had disobeyed and taken his life,* it could never have remained hidden from the king, and you would not have protected me." 14 To this Jo'ab said: "I am not going to waste any more time with you!" So he took three spikes* in his hand and drove them through the heart of Ab'salom while he was still alive in the midst of the big tree. 15 Then ten attendants who carried Jo'ab's weapons came and struck Ab'sa·lom until he was dead.[b] 16 Jo'ab now blew the horn, and the men returned from chasing after Israel; Jo'ab called for them to halt. 17 They took Ab'sa·lom and threw him into a big pit in the forest and piled up over him a very big heap of stones.[c] And all Israel fled to their homes.

18 Now Ab'sa·lom, while he was alive, had taken and set up for himself a pillar in the Valley* of the King,[d] for he said: "I have no son to preserve the memory of my name."[e] So he named the pillar after himself, and it is called Ab'sa·lom's Monument to this day.

19 A·him'a·az[f] the son of Za'dok said: "Let me run, please, and break the news to the king, for Jehovah has given him justice by freeing him from his enemies."[g] 20 But Jo'ab said to him: "You will not be a bearer of news this day. You may break the news on another day, but today you will not break the news, because the king's own son has died."[a] 21 Then Jo'ab said to a Cush'ite:[b] "Go, tell the king what you have seen." At that the Cush'ite bowed to Jo'ab and ran off. 22 A·him'a·az the son of Za'dok said once again to Jo'ab: "Whatever happens, please let me also run behind the Cush'ite." However, Jo'ab said: "Why should you run, my son, when there is no news for you to tell?" 23 Still he said: "Whatever happens, let me run." So Jo'ab said to him: "Run!" And A·him'a·az ran by the way of the district of the Jordan,* and he eventually overtook the Cush'ite.

24 Now David was sitting between the two city gates,[c] and the watchman[d] went up to the roof of the gate by the wall. He looked up and saw a man running by himself. 25 So the watchman called out and told the king. The king said: "If he is by himself, he has news to tell." As he came steadily nearer, 26 the watchman saw another man running. The watchman then called to the gatekeeper: "Look! Another man running by himself!" The king said: "This one is also bringing news." 27 The watchman said: "I can see that the first man runs like A·him'a·az[e] the son of Za'dok," so the king said: "He is a good man, and he comes with good news." 28 A·him'a·az then called out to the king: "All is well!" With that he bowed to the king with his face to the ground. Then he said: "May Jehovah your God be praised, who has surrendered the men who rebelled* against my lord the king!"[f]

29 However, the king said: "Is everything all right with the young man Ab'sa·lom?" To this A·him'a·az said: "I saw the great commotion when Jo'ab sent the king's servant and your servant, but I did not know what it was."[a] 30 So the king said: "Step aside, stand here." At that he stepped aside and stood there.

31 Then the Cush'ite arrived,[b] and the Cush'ite said: "Let my lord the king accept this news: Today Jehovah has brought justice by freeing you from the hand of all those who rebelled against you."[c] 32 But the king said to the Cush'ite: "Is everything all right with the young man Ab'sa·lom?" To this the Cush'ite said: "May all the enemies of my lord the king and all those who rebelled against you to harm you become like the young man!"[d]

33 This disturbed the king, and he went up to the roof chamber over the gateway and wept, saying as he walked: "My son Ab'sa·lom, my son, my son Ab'sa·lom! If only I had died instead of you, Ab'sa·lom my son, my son!"[e]

19 It was reported to Jo'ab: "The king is weeping and mourning for Ab'sa·lom."[f] 2 So the victory* on that day was turned into mourning for all the people, because they heard that the king was grieving over his son. 3 The people quietly returned to the city[g] that day like people who are ashamed because they fled in the battle. 4 The king covered his face and kept crying out with a loud voice: "My son Ab'sa·lom! Ab'sa·lom my son, my son!"[h]

5 Then Jo'ab went in to the king at the house and said: "Today you have put to shame all your servants who this day saved your life* and the lives# of your sons,[i] your daughters,[j] your wives, and your concubines.[k] 6 You love those who hate you and hate those who love you, for you have made it clear today that your chiefs and servants mean nothing to you, because I am sure that if only Ab′sa·lom were alive today and the rest of us were dead, it would be all right with you. 7 Now get up, go out and reassure* your servants, because by Jehovah I swear that if you do not go out, not a man will remain with you tonight. This will be worse for you than all the injury that has come upon you from your youth until now." 8 So the king rose up and sat in the city gate, and all the people were informed: "Now the king is sitting in the gate." Then all the people came before the king.

But Israel had fled, each to his home.[a] 9 All the people in all the tribes of Israel were disputing, saying: "The king saved us from our enemies,[b] and he rescued us from the Phi·lis′tines; but now he has fled the land because of Ab′sa·lom.[c] 10 And Ab′sa·lom, whom we anointed over us,[d] has died in the battle.[e] So now, why are you doing nothing to bring the king back?"

11 King David sent this message to Za′dok[f] and A·bi′a·thar[g] the priests: "Speak to the elders of Judah,[h] saying, 'Why should you be the last ones to bring the king back to his house, when the word of all Israel has come to the king at his house? 12 You are my brothers; you are my own bone and flesh.* Why should you be the last ones to bring the king back?' 13 And you should say to A·ma′sa,[i] 'Are you not my own bone and flesh? So may God do to me and add to it if you will not become my army chief from now on instead of Jo′ab.'"[j]

14 So he won over* the hearts of all the men of Judah as one man, and they sent word to the king: "Come back, you and all your servants."

15 The king started back and reached the Jordan, and the people of Judah came to Gil′gal[a] to meet the king and to escort him across the Jordan. 16 Then Shim′e·i[b] the son of Ge′ra, the Ben′ja·min·ite from Ba·hu′rim, hurried down with the men of Judah to meet King David, 17 and there were 1,000 men from Benjamin with him. Also Zi′ba,[c] the attendant of the house of Saul, with his 15 sons and 20 servants, rushed down to the Jordan ahead of the king. 18 He* crossed the ford to bring the king's household across and to do whatever he desired. But Shim′e·i the son of Ge′ra fell down before the king when he was about to cross the Jordan. 19 He said to the king: "Do not let my lord hold me guilty, and do not remember the wrong your servant did[d] on the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem. May the king not take it to heart, 20 for your servant well knows that I have sinned; so today I have been the first of all the house of Joseph to come down to meet my lord the king."

21 At once A·bish′ai[e] the son of Ze·ru′iah[f] said: "Should not Shim′e·i be put to death for this, because he cursed the anointed of Jehovah?"[g] 22 But David said: "What does this have to do with you, you sons of Ze·ru′iah,[h] that you should act against me today? Should anyone be put to death today in Israel? For do I not know that today I am king over Israel?" 23 Then the king said to Shim′e·i: "You will not die." And the king gave him his oath.[i]

24 Me·phib′o·sheth,[j] the grandson of Saul, also came down to meet the king. He had not cared for his feet or trimmed his mustache or washed his garments from the day the king left until the day he returned in peace. 25 When he came to* Jerusalem to meet the king, the king said to him: "Why did you not go with me, Me·phib'o·sheth?" 26 To this he said: "My lord the king, my servant[a] tricked me. For your servant had said, 'Let me get my donkey saddled so that I may ride on it and go with the king,' for your servant is crippled.[b] 27 But he slandered your servant to my lord the king.[c] However, my lord the king is like an angel of the true God, so do whatever seems good to you. 28 All the household of my father could have been doomed to death by my lord the king, and yet you placed your servant among those eating at your table.[d] So what right do I have to cry out further to the king?"

29 However, the king said to him: "Why keep on speaking like this? I have decided that you and Zi'ba should share the field."[e] 30 At this Me·phib'o·sheth said to the king: "Let him take it all, now that my lord the king has come to his house in peace."

31 Then Bar·zil'lai[f] the Gil'ead·ite came down from Ro·ge'lim to the Jordan to escort the king to the Jordan. 32 Bar·zil'lai was very old, 80 years of age, and he supplied the king with food while he was staying in Ma·ha·na'im,[g] for he was a very wealthy man. 33 So the king said to Bar·zil'lai: "Cross over with me, and I will supply you with food in Jerusalem."[h] 34 But Bar·zil'lai said to the king: "How many days* of my life are left that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? 35 I am 80 years old today.[i] Can I discern between good and bad? Can I, your servant, taste what I eat and drink? Can I still listen to the voice of male and female singers?[a] So why should your servant be an added burden to my lord the king? 36 It is enough that your servant could bring the king to the Jordan. Why should the king repay me with this reward? 37 Let your servant return, please, and let me die in my city near the burial place of my father and my mother.[b] But here is your servant Chim'ham.[c] Let him cross over with my lord the king, and you may do for him what seems good to you."

38 So the king said: "Chim'ham will go across with me, and I will do for him what seems good to you; whatever you ask of me I will do for you." 39 All the people now began to cross the Jordan, and when the king crossed, the king kissed Bar·zil'lai[d] and blessed him; and Barzil'lai returned home. 40 When the king went across to Gil'gal,[e] Chim'ham crossed with him. All the people of Judah and half the people of Israel brought the king across.[f]

41 Then all the men of Israel approached the king and said to him: "Why did our brothers the men of Judah steal you away and bring the king and his household over the Jordan, along with all of David's men?"[g] 42 All the men of Judah answered the men of Israel: "Because the king is related to us.[h] Why are you angry over this? Have we eaten anything at the king's expense, or has a gift been given to us?"

43 However, the men of Israel answered the men of Judah: "We have ten parts in the king, so that we have a greater claim in David than you have. Why, then, have you treated us with contempt? Should we not have been first to bring our king back?" But the word of the men of Judah prevailed over* that of the men of Israel.

20 Now there was a trouble-maker named She′ba[a] the son of Bich′ri, a Ben′ja·min·ite. He blew the horn[b] and said: "We have no share in David, and we have no inheritance in the son of Jes′se.[c] Everyone to his gods,* O Israel!"[d] 2 At that all the men of Israel quit following David to follow She′ba the son of Bich′ri;[e] but the men of Judah stuck to their king, from the Jordan to Jerusalem.[f]

3 When David came to his house* at Jerusalem,[g] the king took the ten concubines he had left behind to take care of the house,[h] and he put them in a house under guard. He supplied food to them, but he did not have any relations with them.[i] They remained in confinement until the day of their death, living as if they were widows, even though they had a living husband.

4 The king now said to A·ma′sa:[j] "Call the men of Judah together to me within three days, and you also should be here." 5 So A·ma′sa went to call Judah together, but he came later than the set time that had been appointed for him. 6 Then David said to A·bish′ai:[k] "She′ba[l] the son of Bich′ri may do us more harm than Ab′sa·lom did.[m] Take the servants of your lord and chase after him, so that he may not find fortified cities and escape from us." 7 So the men of Jo′ab,[n] the Cher′e·thites, the Pel′e·thites,[o] and all the mighty men went out after him; they left Jerusalem to chase after She′ba the son of Bich′ri. 8 When they were near the great stone in Gib′e·on,[a] A·ma′sa[b] came to meet them. Now Jo′ab was wearing his battle clothing, and he had a sword in its sheath strapped to his hip. When he stepped forward, the sword fell out.

9 Jo′ab said to A·ma′sa: "Are you all right, my brother?" Then with his right hand, Jo′ab took hold of A·ma′sa's beard as if to kiss him. 10 A·ma′sa was not on guard against the sword that was in Jo′ab's hand, and Jo′ab stabbed him with it in the abdomen,[c] and his intestines spilled out on the ground. He did not have to stab him again; once was enough to kill him. Then Jo′ab and his brother A·bish′ai chased after She′ba the son of Bich′ri.

11 One of Jo′ab's young men stood by him and was saying: "Whoever is on Jo′ab's side and whoever belongs to David, let him follow Jo′ab!" 12 All the while A·ma′sa was wallowing in his blood in the middle of the road. When the man saw that all the people were stopping, he moved A·ma′sa from the road to the field. Then he threw a garment over him, because he saw that everyone was stopping when they came up to him. 13 After he had removed him from the road, all the men followed Jo′ab to chase after She′ba[d] the son of Bich′ri.

14 She′ba passed through all the tribes of Israel to Abel of Beth-ma′a·cah.[e] The Bich′rites gathered together and also went in after him.

15 Joab and his men* came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-ma′a·cah and raised up a siege rampart against the city, as it was standing within a rampart. And all the men with Jo′ab were undermining the wall to knock it down. 16 And a wise woman called out from the city: "Listen, men, listen! Please tell Jo'ab, 'Come here, and let me speak to you.'" 17 So he went near to her, and the woman said: "Are you Jo'ab?" He replied: "I am." At this she said to him: "Listen to the words of your servant." He said: "I am listening." 18 She continued: "They would always say in the past, 'Let them inquire in Abel, and that was the end of the matter.' 19 I represent the peaceable and faithful ones of Israel. You are seeking to destroy a city that is like a mother in Israel. Why should you do away with* the inheritance of Jehovah?"[a] 20 Jo'ab answered: "It is unthinkable for me to do away with it and destroy it. 21 That is not the case at all. Rather, a man named She'ba[b] the son of Bich'ri from the mountainous region of E'phra·im[c] has rebelled* against King David. If you hand over this one man, I will withdraw from the city." Then the woman said to Jo'ab: "Look! His head will be thrown over the wall to you!"

22 At once the wise woman went in to all the people, and they cut off the head of She'ba the son of Bich'ri and threw it to Jo'ab. At that he blew the horn, and they dispersed from the city, each one to his home;[d] and Jo'ab returned to Jerusalem to the king.

23 Now Jo'ab was in charge of all the army of Israel;[e] Be·nai'ah[f] the son of Je·hoi'a·da[g] was over the Cher'e·thites and the Pel'e·thites.[h] 24 A·do'ram[i] was over those conscripted for forced labor; Je·hosh'a·phat[j] the son of A·hi'lud was the recorder. 25 She'va was the secretary; Za'dok[k] and A·bi'a·thar[l] were priests. 26 And I'ra the Ja'ir·ite also became a chief minister* for David.

21 Now there was a famine[a] in the days of David for three consecutive years, so David consulted Jehovah, and Jehovah said: "There is bloodguilt on Saul and on his house, because he put the Gib'e·on·ites to death."[b] 2 So the king called the Gib'e·on·ites[c] and spoke to them. (Incidentally, the Gib'e·onites were not Israelites but Am'or·ites[d] who remained, and the Israelites had sworn to spare them,[e] but Saul sought to strike them down in his zeal for the people of Israel and Judah.) 3 David said to the Gib'e·on·ites: "What should I do for you, and how can I make atonement, so that you will bless the inheritance of Jehovah?" 4 The Gib'e·on·ites said to him: "It is not a matter of silver or gold[f] for us in connection with Saul and his household; nor can we put any man to death in Israel." At that he said: "Whatever you say, I will do for you." 5 They said to the king: "The man who exterminated us and schemed to annihilate us from living anywhere in the territory of Israel[g]— 6 let seven of his sons be given to us. We will hang their dead bodies*[h] before Jehovah in Gib'e·ah[i] of Saul, the chosen one of Jehovah."[j] The king then said: "I will hand them over."

7 However, the king showed compassion for Me·phib'o·sheth,[k] the son of Jon'a·than the son of Saul, because of the oath made before Jehovah between David and Jon'a·than,[l] the son of Saul. 8 So the king took Ar·mo'ni and Me·phib'o·sheth, the two sons of Riz'pah[m] the daughter of A'iah whom she bore to Saul, and the five sons of Mi′chal*[a] the daughter of Saul whom she bore to A′dri·el[b] the son of Bar·zil′lai the Me·hol′ath·ite. 9 Then he handed them over to the Gib′e·on·ites, and they hung their dead bodies on the mountain before Jehovah.[c] All seven of them died together; they were put to death in the first days of harvest, at the start of the barley harvest. 10 Then Riz′pah[d] the daughter of A′iah took sackcloth and spread it out on the rock from the start of harvest until rain poured down from the heavens on the bodies; she did not allow the birds of the heavens to land on them by day nor the wild beasts of the field to come near by night.

11 David was told what Saul's concubine Riz′pah the daughter of A′iah had done. 12 So David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jon′a·than from the leaders* of Ja′besh-gil′e·ad,[e] who had stolen them from the public square of Beth-shan, where the Phi·lis′tines had hung them on the day that the Phi·lis′tines struck down Saul on Gil·bo′a.[f] 13 He brought the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jon′a·than up from there, and they also gathered the bones of the men who had been executed.*[g] 14 Then they buried the bones of Saul and of Jon′a·than his son in the land of Benjamin in Ze′la[h] in the tomb of Kish[i] his father. After they did everything that the king had commanded, God listened to their entreaties for the land.[j]

15 Once again there was war between the Phi·lis′tines and Israel.[k] So David and his servants went down and fought the Phi·lis′tines, but David became exhausted. 16 A descendant of the Reph′a·im[a] named Ish′bi-be′nob, whose copper spear weighed 300 shekels*[b] and who was armed with a new sword, intended to strike David down. 17 At once A·bish′ai[c] the son of Ze·ru′iah came to his aid[d] and struck the Phi·lis′tine down and put him to death. At that time the men of David swore this oath to him: "You must not go out with us to battle anymore![e] You must not extinguish the lamp of Israel!"[f]

18 After this, war broke out again with the Phi·lis′tines[g] at Gob. At that time Sib′be·cai[h] the Hu′shath·ite struck down Saph, who was a descendant of the Reph′a·im.[i]

19 And war broke out again with the Phi·lis′tines[j] at Gob, and El·ha′nan the son of Ja′a·re-or′e·gim the Beth′le·hem·ite struck down Go·li′ath the Git′tite, whose spear had a shaft like the beam of loom workers.[k]

20 War broke out yet again at Gath, where there was a man of extraordinary size, with 6 fingers on each hand and 6 toes on each foot, 24 in all; and he too was a descendant of the Reph′a·im.[l] 21 He kept taunting Israel.[m] So Jon′a·than the son of Shim′e·i,[n] David's brother, struck him down.

22 These four were descendants of the Reph′a·im in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.[o]

22 And David spoke to Jehovah the words of this song[p] in the day that Jehovah rescued him out of the hand of all his enemies[q] and out of Saul's hand.[r] 2 He said:

3 My God is my rock,[c] in whom I take refuge,
My shield[d] and my horn* of salvation,# my secure refuge^[e]
And my place to flee,[f] my savior;[g] you who save me from violence.

4 I call on Jehovah, who is worthy of praise,
And I will be saved from my enemies.

5 The waves of death broke all around me;[h]
Flash floods of worthless men terrified me.[i]

The snares of death confronted me.[k]

7 In my distress I called on Jehovah,[l]
To my God I kept calling.
Then from his temple he heard my voice,
And my cry for help reached his ears.[m]

8 Back and forth the earth began to shake and rock;[n]
The foundations of the heavens trembled[o]

Glowing coals blazed from him.

10 He made the heavens bend as he descended,[r]
And thick gloom was beneath his feet.[s]

He took hold of me and pulled me from deep waters.[j]

18 He rescued me from my strong enemy,[k]
From those hating me, who were stronger than I was.

To me the Rock of Israel[a] said:
'When the one ruling over mankind is righteous,[b]
Ruling in the fear of God,[c]

A morning without clouds.
It is like the brightness after the rain,
Making grass sprout from the earth.'[e]

8 These are the names of David's mighty warriors:[i] Jo'shebbas·she'beth a Tah·che'mo·nite, the head of the three.[j] He brandished his spear over 800 slain at one time. 9 Next to him, Ele·a'zar[k] the son of Do'do[l] the son of A·ho'hi was among the three mighty warriors with David when they taunted the Phi·lis'tines. The Phi·lis'tines gathered together at Le'hi, where there was a plot of land full of lentils; and the people fled because of the Phi·lis'tines. 12 But he took his stand in the middle of the field and defended it and kept striking down the Phi·lis'tines, so that Jehovah brought about a great victory.*[b] the other three and he was their chief, he did not attain to the rank of the first three.

20 Be·nai'ah[a] the son of Jehoi'a·da was a courageous man* who performed many exploits in Kab'ze·el.[b] He struck down the two sons of Ar'i·el of Mo'ab, and he descended into a waterpit on a snowy day and killed a lion.[c] 21 He also struck down an Egyptian man of extraordinary size. Though the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, he went against him with a rod and snatched the spear away from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear. 22 These things Be·nai'ah the son of Je·hoi'a·da did, and he had a reputation like that of the three mighty warriors. 23 Although he was distinguished even more than the thirty, he did not attain to the rank of the three. However, David appointed him over his own bodyguard.

24 As'a·hel[d] the brother of Jo'ab was among the thirty: El·ha'nan the son of Do'do of Beth'le·hem,[e] 25 Sham'mah the Ha'rod·ite, E·li'ka the Ha'rodite, 26 He'lez[f] the Pal'tite, I'ra[g] the son of Ik'kesh the Te·ko'ite, 27 Abi-e'zer[h] the An'a·thoth·ite,[i] Me·bun'nai the Hu'shath·ite, 28 Zal'mon the A·ho'hite, Ma'ha·rai[j] the Ne·toph'a·thite, 29 He'leb the son of Ba'a·nah the Ne·toph'a·thite, It'tai the son of Ri'bai of Gib'e·ah of the Ben'ja·min·ites, 30 Be·nai'ah[k] a Pir'a·thon·ite, Hid'dai of the wadis* of Ga'ash,[l] 31 A'bi-al'bon the Ar'bath·ite, Az'ma·veth the Bar-hu'mite, 32 E·li'ah·ba the Sha·al'bo·nite, the sons of Ja'shen, Jon'a·than, 33 Sham'mah the Har'a·rite, A·hi'am the son of Sha'rar the Har'a·rite, 23:20 *Lit., "the son of a man of valor." 23:30 *See Glossary.

34 E·liph′e·let the son of A·has′-bai the son of the Ma·ac′a-thite, E·li′am the son of A·hith′-o·phel[a] the Gi′lon·ite, 35 Hez′ro the Car′mel·ite, Pa′a·rai the Ar′-bite, 36 I′gal the son of Na-than of Zo′bah, Ba′ni the Gad′ite, 37 Ze′lek the Am′mon·ite, Na′ha-rai the Be·er′oth·ite, the armor-bearer of Jo′ab the son of Ze·ru′-iah, 38 I′ra the Ith′rite, Ga′reb the Ith′rite,[b] 39 and U·ri′ah[c] the Hit′tite—37 in all.

24 The anger of Jehovah again blazed against Israel[d] when one incited David* against them, saying: "Go, take a count[e] of Israel and Judah."[f] 2 So the king said to Jo′ab[g] the chief of the army who was with him: "Please go through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Be′er-she′ba,[h] and register the people, so that I may know the number of the people." 3 But Jo′ab said to the king: "May Jehovah your God multiply the people 100 times, and may the eyes of my lord the king see it, but why does my lord the king want to do such a thing?"

4 But the king's word prevailed over Jo′ab and the chiefs of the army. So Jo′-ab and the chiefs of the army went out from before the king to register the people of Israel.[i] 5 They crossed the Jordan and camped at A·ro′er,[j] to the right* of the city in the middle of the valley,# toward the Gad′-ites, and on to Ja′zer.[k] 6 After that they went on to Gil′e·ad[l] and the land of Tah′tim-hod′shi and continued to Dan-ja′an and went around to Si′don.[m] 7 Then they went to the fortress of Tyre[n] and all the cities of the Hi′vites[o] and of the Ca′naan·ites, and finally they ended up in the Neg′eb[p] of Judah at Be′er-she′ba.[q] 8 Thus they went through all the land and came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and 20 days. 9 Jo′ab now gave to the king the number of the people who were registered. Israel amounted to 800,000 warriors armed with swords, and the men of Judah were 500,000.[a]

10 But David's heart* was struck with remorse[b] after he had numbered the people. David then said to Jehovah: "I have sinned[c] greatly by doing this. And now, Jehovah, please forgive your servant's error,[d] for I have acted very foolishly."[e] 11 When David got up in the morning, Jehovah's word came to Gad[f] the prophet, David's visionary, saying: 12 "Go and say to David, 'This is what Jehovah says: "I am giving you three options. Choose the one that I should bring on you."'"[g] 13 So Gad came in to David and told him: "Should seven years of famine come on your land?[h] Or should you flee for three months from your adversaries while they pursue you?[i] Or should there be three days of pestilence in your land?[j] Now consider carefully what I should reply to the One who sent me." 14 So David said to Gad: "It is very distressing to me. Let us fall, please, into the hand of Jehovah,[k] for his mercy is great;[l] but do not let me fall into the hand of man."[m]

15 Then Jehovah sent a pestilence[n] on Israel from the morning until the designated time, so that 70,000 of the people from Dan to Be′er-she′ba[o] died.[p] 16 When the angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, Jehovah felt regret* over the calamity,[q] and he said to the angel bringing destruction among the people: "It is enough! Now let your hand drop." Jehovah's angel was close to the threshing floor of A·rau′·nah[a] the Jeb′u·site.[b]

17 When David saw the angel who was striking the people down, he said to Jehovah: "I am the one who sinned, and I am the one who did wrong; but these sheep[c]—what have they done? Let your hand, please, come against me and my father's house."[d]

18 So Gad came in to David on that day and said to him: "Go up, set up for Jehovah an altar on the threshing floor of A·rau′·nah the Jeb′u·site."[e] 19 So David went up at the word of Gad, as Jehovah had commanded. 20 When A·rau′nah looked down and saw the king and his servants coming toward him, A·rau′·nah immediately went out and bowed down to the king with his face to the ground. 21 A·rau′·nah asked: "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?" David replied: "To buy from you the threshing floor in order to build an altar to Jehovah, so that the scourge against the people may be halted."[a] 22 But A·rau′·nah said to David: "Let my lord the king take it and offer up what seems good to him.* Here are cattle for the burnt offering and the threshing sledge and the equipment of the cattle for the wood. 23 All of this, O king, A·rau′nah gives to the king." Then A·rau′nah said to the king: "May Jehovah your God show you favor."

24 However, the king said to A·rau′nah: "No, I must buy it from you for a price. I will not offer up to Jehovah my God burnt sacrifices that cost me nothing." So David bought the threshing floor and the cattle for 50 silver shekels.*[b] 25 And David built an altar[c] there to Jehovah and offered up burnt sacrifices and communion sacrifices. Jehovah then responded to the entreaty for the land,[d] and the scourge against Israel was halted.

1 Now King David was old,[a] advanced in years,* and although they would cover him with garments, he could not get warm. 2 So his servants said to him: "Let a girl, a virgin, be found for my lord the king, and she will wait on the king as his nurse. She will lie in your arms so that my lord the king may feel warm." 3 They searched throughout all the territory of Israel for a beautiful girl, and they found Ab·i·shag[b] the Shu·nam·mite[c] and brought her in to the king. 4 The girl was extremely beautiful, and she became the king's nurse and waited on him, but the king did not have sexual relations with her.

5 Meanwhile, Ad·o·ni'jah[d] the son of Hag'gith was exalting himself, saying: "I am going to be king!" He had a chariot made for himself with horsemen and 50 men to run before him.[e] 6 But his father had never confronted him* by saying: "Why have you done this?" He was also very handsome, and his mother had given birth to him after Ab'sa·lom. 7 He conferred with Jo'ab the son of Ze·ru'iah and A·bi'a·thar[f] the priest, and they offered Ad·o·ni'jah help and support.[g] 8 But Za'dok[h] the priest, Be·nai'ah[i] the son of Je·hoi'a·da, Nathan[j] the prophet, Shim'e·i,[k] Re'i, and David's mighty warriors[l] did not support Ad·o·ni'jah.

9 Eventually Ad·o·ni'jah held a sacrifice[m] of sheep, cattle, and fattened animals by the stone of Zo'he·leth, which is near En·ro'gel, and he invited all his brothers the king's sons, and all the men of Judah the king's servants. 10 But he did not invite Nathan the prophet, Be·nai'ah and the mighty warriors, or Sol'o·mon his brother. 11 Nathan[a] then said to Bath-she'ba,[b] Sol'o·mon's mother:[c] "Have you not heard that Ad·o·ni'jah[d] the son of Hag'gith has become king, and our lord David does not know anything about it? 12 So now come, please, and let me advise you, so that you may save your own life and the life of* your son Sol'o·mon.[e] 13 Go in to King David and say to him, 'Was it not you, my lord the king, who swore to your servant, saying: "Your son Sol'o·mon will become king after me, and he is the one who will sit on my throne"?[f] So why has Ad·o·ni'jah become king?' 14 While you are still there speaking with the king, I will come in after you and confirm your words."

15 So Bath-she'ba went in to the king, into his private room. The king was very old, and Ab'i·shag[g] the Shu'nam·mite was waiting on the king. 16 Then Bath-she'ba bowed low and prostrated herself to the king, and the king said: "What is your request?" 17 She replied: "My lord, it was you who swore by Jehovah your God to your servant, 'Your son Sol'o·mon will become king after me, and he is the one who will sit on my throne.'[h] 18 But look! Ad·o·ni'jah has become king, and my lord the king does not know anything about it.[i] 19 He sacrificed bulls, fattened animals, and sheep in great quantity and invited all the sons of the king and A·bi'a·thar the priest and Jo'ab the chief of the army;[j] but he did not invite your servant Sol'o·mon.[k] 20 And now, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are upon you to tell them who will sit on the throne of my lord the king after him. 21 Otherwise, as soon as my lord the king is laid to rest with his forefathers, I and also my son Sol′o·mon will be considered traitors."

22 And while she was still speaking to the king, Nathan the prophet came in.[a] 23 At once the king was told: "Here is Nathan the prophet!" He came in before the king and prostrated himself to the king with his face to the ground. 24 Then Nathan said: "My lord the king, did you say, 'Ad·o·ni′jah will become king after me, and he is the one who will sit on my throne'?[b] 25 For today he has gone down to sacrifice[c] bulls, fattened animals, and sheep in great quantity, and he has invited all the sons of the king and the chiefs of the army and A·bi′a·thar the priest.[d] They are there eating and drinking with him, and they keep saying, 'Long live King Ad·o·ni′jah!' 26 But he did not invite me, your servant, or Za′dok the priest, or Be·nai′ah[e] the son of Je·hoi′a·da, or your servant Sol′o·mon. 27 Has my lord the king authorized this without telling your servant who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

28 King David now answered: "Call Bath-she′ba for me." At that she came in and stood before the king. 29 The king then swore an oath: "As surely as Jehovah is living, the one who rescued me* out of all distress,[f] 30 just as I swore to you by Jehovah the God of Israel, saying, 'Your son Sol′o·mon will become king after me, and he is the one who will sit on my throne in my place!' that is what I will bring about this day." 31 Then Bath-she′ba bowed low with her face to the ground and prostrated herself to the king and said: "May my lord King David live forever!"

32 Immediately King David said: "Call for me Za′dok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Be·nai′ah[a] the son of Je·hoi′a·da."[b] So they came in before the king. 33 The king said to them: "Take with you the servants of your lord, and have my son Sol′o·mon ride on my own mule,*[c] and lead him down to Gi′hon.[d] 34 Za′dok the priest and Nathan the prophet will anoint him[e] there as king over Israel; then blow the horn and say, 'Long live King Sol′o·mon!'[f] 35 Then follow him back, and he will come in and sit on my throne; and he will be king in my place, and I will commission him as leader over Israel and over Judah." 36 At once Be·nai′ah the son of Je·hoi′a·da said to the king: "Amen! May Jehovah the God of my lord the king confirm it. 37 Just as Jehovah was with my lord the king, so let him be with Sol′o·mon,[g] and may He make his throne greater than the throne of my lord King David."[h]

38 Then Za′dok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Be·nai′ah[i] the son of Je·hoi′a·da, and the Cher′e·thites and the Pel′e·thites[j] went down and had Sol′o·mon ride on the mule of King David,[k] and they brought him to Gi′hon.[l] 39 Za′dok the priest now took the horn of oil[m] out of the tent[n] and anointed Sol′o·mon,[o] and they began to blow the horn, and all the people began shouting: "Long live King Sol′o·mon!" 40 After that all the people followed him and went up, playing flutes and rejoicing greatly, so that the earth was split open by their noise.[p]

41 Ad·o·ni′jah and all those invited by him heard it when they had finished eating.[q] As soon as Jo′ab heard the sound of the horn, he said: “Why is there such a noisy uproar in the city?” 42 While he was still speaking, Jon′a·than[a] the son of A·bi′a·thar the priest came. Then Ad·o·ni′jah said: “Come in, for you are a good* man, and you must bring good news.” 43 But Jon′a·than answered Ad·o·ni′jah: “No! Our lord King David has made Sol′o·mon king. 44 The king sent with him Za′dok the priest, Na·than the prophet, Be·nai′ah the son of Je·hoi′a·da, and the Cher′e·thites and the Pel′e·thites, and they had him ride on the mule of the king.[b] 45 Then Za′dok the priest and Nathan the prophet anointed him as king in Gi′hon. After that they came up from there rejoicing, and the city is in an uproar. That was the noise that you heard. 46 Moreover, Sol′o·mon has sat down on the royal throne. 47 Another thing, the servants of the king have come in to congratulate our lord King David, saying, ‘May your God make Sol′omon’s name more splendid than your name, and may He make his throne greater than your throne!’ At that the king bowed down on the bed. 48 And the king also said, ‘May Jehovah the God of Israel be praised, who today has granted someone to sit on my throne and has allowed my own eyes to see it!’”

49 And all those invited by Ad·o·ni′jah became terrified, and each of them rose up and went his own way. 50 Ad·o·ni′jah was also afraid because of Sol′omon, so he got up and went and grabbed hold of the horns of the altar.[c] 51 The report was made to Sol′o·mon: “Here Ad·o·ni′jah has become afraid of King Sol′o·mon; and he has taken hold of the horns of the altar, saying, ‘Let King Sol′o·mon first swear to me that he will not put his servant to death by the sword.’” 52 To this Sol′o·mon said: “If he behaves in a worthy manner, not a single hair of his will fall to the ground; but if what is bad is found in him,[a] he will have to die.” 53 So King Sol′o·mon sent for him to be brought down from the altar. Then he came in and bowed down to King Sol′omon, after which Sol′o·mon said to him: “Go to your own house.”

2 When the time of David’s death drew near, he gave his son Sol′o·mon these instructions: 2 “I am about to die.* Therefore, be strong[b] and prove yourself a man.[c] 3 You must keep your obligation to Jehovah your God by walking in his ways and by observing his statutes, his commandments, his judgments, and his reminders as they are written in the Law of Moses;[d] then you will succeed* in everything you do and everywhere you turn. 4 And Jehovah will carry out his promise that he made concerning me: ‘If your sons pay attention to their way by walking faithfully before me with all their heart and soul,*[e] there will never fail to be a man of your line# sitting on the throne of Israel.’[f]

5 “You also well know what Jo′ab the son of Ze·ru′iah did to me, what he did to two chiefs of the armies of Israel—Ab′ner[g] the son of Ner and A·ma′sa[h] the son of Je′ther. He killed them, shedding the blood[i] of war in peacetime, and he put the blood of war on the belt around his waist and on the sandals on his feet. 6 You must act according to your wisdom and not let his gray hairs go down in peace to the Grave.*[a]

7 "But toward the sons of Bar·zil'lai[b] the Gil'e·ad·ite, you should show loyal love, and they should be among those eating at your table, for that was how they stood by me[c] when I ran away from your brother Ab'sa·lom.[d]

8 "There is also with you Shim'e·i the son of Ge'ra the Ben'ja·min·ite from Ba·hu'rim. He was the one who cursed me with a vicious curse[e] on the day that I was going to Ma·ha·na'im;[f] but when he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by Jehovah: 'I will not put you to death by the sword.'[g] 9 Now do not leave him unpunished,[h] for you are a wise man and you know what you should do to him; you must bring his gray hairs down to the Grave* with blood."[i]

10 Then David was laid to rest with his forefathers and was buried in the City of David.[j] 11 The length* of David's reign over Israel was 40 years. In Heb'ron[k] he reigned for 7 years, and in Jerusalem he reigned for 33 years.[l]

12 Sol'o·mon then sat down on the throne of David his father, and gradually his kingship became firmly established.[m]

13 In time Ad·o·ni'jah the son of Hag'gith came to Bath-she'ba, Sol'o·mon's mother. She asked: "Is your coming peaceable?" He replied: "It is peaceable." 14 He then said: "I have something to say to you." So she said: "Speak." 15 He continued: "You well know that the kingship was to become mine, and all Israel expected* me to become king;[n] but the kingship eluded me and became my brother's, for it was from Jehovah that it became his.[a] 16 But now there is just one request that I am making of you. Do not turn me away." So she said to him: "Speak." 17 He then said: "Please, ask Sol'o·mon the king—for he will not turn you away—to give me Ab'i·shag[b] the Shu'nam·mite as a wife." 18 To this Bath-she'ba said: "Very well! I will speak for you to the king."

19 So Bath-she'ba went in to King Sol'o·mon to speak to him for Ad·o·ni'jah. At once the king rose to meet her and bowed down to her. Then he sat down on his throne and had a throne set for the king's mother, so that she could sit at his right. 20 She then said: "There is one small request that I am making of you. Do not turn me away." So the king said to her: "Make it, my mother; for I will not turn you away." 21 She said: "Let Ab'i·shag the Shu'nam·mite be given as a wife to your brother Ad·o·ni'jah." 22 At this King Sol'o·mon answered his mother: "Why are you requesting Ab'i·shag the Shu'nam·mite for Ad·o·ni'jah? You may as well request the kingship for him,[c] for he is my older brother,[d] and supporting him are A·bi'a·thar the priest and Jo'ab[e] the son of Ze·ru'iah."[f]

23 With that King Sol'o·mon swore by Jehovah: "So may God do to me and add to it if it was not at the cost of his own life* that Ad·o·ni'jah made this request. 24 And now, as surely as Jehovah is living, who has firmly established me[g] and seated me on the throne of David my father and who made a house* for me,[h] just as he promised, Ad·o·ni'jah will be put to death[i] today." 25 King Sol'o·mon immediately sent Be·nai'ah[j] the son of Je·hoi'a·da, who went out and struck Ad·o·ni′jah down,* and he died.

26 To A·bi′a·thar[a] the priest, the king said: "Go to your fields in An′a·thoth![b] You deserve to die, but on this day I will not put you to death because you carried the Ark of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah before David my father[c] and because you shared in all the hardships that my father suffered."[d] 27 So Sol′o·mon drove A·bi′a·thar out from serving as a priest of Jehovah, to fulfill Jehovah's word against the house of E′li[e] in Shi′loh.[f]

28 When the news reached Jo′ab—for Jo′ab had supported Ad·o·ni′jah[g] but he had not supported Ab′sa·lom[h]—Jo′ab fled to the tent of Jehovah[i] and grabbed hold of the horns of the altar. 29 Then King Sol′o·mon was told: "Jo′ab has fled to the tent of Jehovah, and he is there beside the altar." So Sol′o·mon sent Be·nai′ah the son of Je·hoi′a·da, saying: "Go, strike him down!" 30 So Be·nai′ah went to the tent of Jehovah and said to him: "This is what the king says, 'Come out!'" But he said: "No! I will die here." Be·nai′ah brought word back to the king: "This is what Jo′ab said, and this is what he answered me." 31 Then the king said to him: "Do just as he said; strike him down and bury him and remove from me and from the house of my father the blood that Jo′ab spilled without just cause.[j] 32 Jehovah will bring his blood back on his own head, for without my father David's knowledge, he struck down and killed with the sword two men more righteous and better than he was: Ab′ner[k] the son of Ner, the chief of the army of Israel,[l] and A·ma′sa[m] the son of Je′ther, the chief of the army of Judah.[n]

33 Their blood will come back on the head of Jo′ab and on the head of his offspring* forever;[a] but for David, his offspring,* his house, and his throne, may there be peace from Jehovah forever." 34 Then Be·nai′ah the son of Je·hoi′a·da went up and struck Jo′ab down and put him to death, and he was buried at his own house in the wilderness. 35 Then the king appointed Be·nai′ah[b] the son of Je·hoi′a·da over the army in his place, and the king appointed Za′dok[c] the priest in place of A·bi′a·thar.

36 Then the king summoned Shim′e·i[d] and said to him: "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem, and live there; do not go out from there to any other place. 37 On the day you go out and cross the Kid′ron Valley,[e] you can be sure that you will die. Your blood will be on your own head." 38 Shim′e·i replied to the king: "What you have said is fair. Your servant will do just as my lord the king has said." So Shim′e·i stayed in Jerusalem for many days.

39 But at the end of three years, two of Shim′e·i's slaves ran away to A′chish[f] the son of Ma′a·cah the king of Gath. When Shim′e·i was told: "Look! Your slaves are in Gath," 40 Shim′e·i immediately saddled his donkey and went to see A′chish in Gath to find his slaves. When Shim′e·i returned from Gath with his slaves, 41 Sol′o·mon was told: "Shim′e·i has gone out of Jerusalem to Gath and has returned." 42 At that the king summoned Shim′e·i and said to him: "Did I not put you under oath by Jehovah and warn you: 'On the day you go out from here to any other place, you can be sure that you will die'? And did you not say to me,

2:33 *Or "descendants."

'What you are saying is fair; I will obey'?[a] 43 Why, then, did you not keep the oath of Jehovah and the commandment that I imposed on you?" 44 The king then said to Shim'e·i: "You know in your heart all the injury that you did to David my father,[b] and Jehovah will bring back that injury on your own head.[c] 45 But King Sol'o·mon will be blessed,[d] and the throne of David will be firmly established before Jehovah forever." 46 With that the king commanded Be·nai'ah the son of Je·hoi'a·da, who went out and struck him down, and he died.[e]

Thus the kingdom was firmly established in the hand of Sol'o·mon.[f]

3 Sol'o·mon made a marriage alliance with Phar'aoh king of Egypt. He married* Phar'aoh's daughter[g] and brought her to the City of David[h] until he finished building his own house,[i] and the house of Jehovah,[j] and the wall around Jerusalem.[k] 2 But the people were still sacrificing on the high places,[l] because until that time a house for the name of Jehovah had not yet been built.[m] 3 Sol'o·mon continued to love Jehovah by walking in the statutes of David his father, except that he was sacrificing and making offerings smoke on the high places.[n]

4 The king went to Gib'e·on to sacrifice there, for that was the most prominent* high place.[o] Sol'o·mon offered 1,000 burnt sacrifices on that altar.[p] 5 In Gib'e·on Jehovah appeared to Sol'o·mon in a dream by night, and God said: "Ask what you would like me to give you."[q] 6 At this Sol'o·mon said: "You have shown great loyal love toward your servant David my father as he walked before you in faithfulness and in righteousness and in uprightness of heart. You have continued to show him this great loyal love down to this day by giving him a son to sit on his throne.[a] 7 And now, Jehovah my God, you have made your servant king in the place of David my father, though I am just a youth* and I am inexperienced.#[b] 8 Your servant is among your people whom you have chosen,[c] a people so vast that they cannot be numbered or counted. 9 So grant your servant an obedient heart to judge your people,[d] to discern between good and bad,[e] for who is able to judge this numerous* people of yours?"

10 It was pleasing to Jehovah that Sol'o·mon had requested this.[f] 11 God then said to him: "Because you requested this and you did not request for yourself long life* or riches or the death# of your enemies, but you requested understanding to hear judicial cases,[g] 12 I will do what you asked.[h] I will give you a wise and understanding heart,[i] so that just as there has never been anyone like you before, there will never be anyone like you again.[j] 13 Furthermore, what you have not requested I will give you,[k] both riches and glory,[l] so that there will be no other king like you in your lifetime.[m] 14 And if you walk in my ways by keeping my regulations and my commandments, just as David your father walked,[n] I will also give you a long life."[o] dream. Then he went to Jerusalem and stood before the ark of the covenant of Jehovah and offered up burnt sacrifices and communion offerings[a] and spread a feast for all his servants.

16 At that time two prostitutes came in to the king and stood before him. 17 The first woman said: "Please, my lord, this woman and I live in one house, and I gave birth while she was in the house. 18 On the third day after I gave birth, this woman also gave birth. We were together, just the two of us; there was no one else with us in the house. 19 During the night this woman's son died, because she lay on him. 20 So she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from my side while your slave girl was asleep and laid him in her arms,* and she laid her dead son in my arms. 21 When I got up in the morning to nurse my son, I saw that he was dead. So I examined him closely in the morning and saw that it was not my son whom I had given birth to." 22 But the other woman said: "No, my son is the living one, and your son is the dead one!" But the first woman was saying: "No, your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one." That is how they argued before the king.

23 Finally the king said: "This one says, 'This is my son, the living one, and your son is the dead one!' and that one says, 'No, your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one!'" 24 The king said: "Bring me a sword." So they brought a sword to the king. 25 The king then said: "Cut the living child in two, and give half to one woman and half to the other." 26 At once the woman whose son was the living one pleaded with the king, for her compassions were stirred toward her son. She said: "Please, my lord! You should give her the living child! By no means put him to death!" But the other woman was saying: "He will be neither mine nor yours! Let them cut him in two!" 27 At that the king answered: "Give the living child to the first woman! By no means put him to death, for she is his mother."

28 So all Israel heard about the judgment that the king had handed down, and they were in awe* of the king,[a] for they saw that the wisdom of God was with him to execute justice.[b]

4 King Sol'o·mon ruled over all Israel.[c] 2 These were his high officials:* Az·a·ri'ah the son of Za'dok[d] was the priest; 3 El·i·hor'eph and A·hi'jah the sons of Shi'sha were secretaries;[e] Je·hosh'a·phat'[f] the son of A·hi'lud was the recorder; 4 Be·nai'ah[g] the son of Je·hoi'a·da was in charge of the army; Za'dok and A·bi'a·thar[h] were priests; 5 Az·a·ri'ah the son of Nathan[i] was over the deputies; Za'bud the son of Nathan was a priest and the king's friend;[j] 6 A·hi'shar was over the household; and Ad·o·ni'ram[k] the son of Ab'da was over those conscripted for forced labor.[l]

7 Sol'o·mon had 12 deputies in charge of all Israel who provided the king and his household with food. Each one was responsible for providing the food for one month of the year.[m] 8 These were their names: The son of Hur, in the mountainous region of E'phra·im; 9 the son of De'ker, in Ma'kaz, Sha·al'bim,[n] Beth-she'mesh, and E'lon-beth-ha'nan; 10 the son of He'sed, in A·rub'both (he

There was also one deputy in charge of all these other deputies in the land.

20 Judah and Israel were as numerous as the grains of sand by the sea;[o] they were eating and drinking and rejoicing.[p]

21 Sol′o·mon ruled over all the kingdoms from the River*[q] to the land of the Phi·lis′tines and to the boundary of Egypt. They brought tribute and served Sol′-o·mon all the days of his life.[r]

22 Sol′o·mon's food for each day was 30 cor measures* of fine flour and 60 cor measures of flour, 23 10 fattened cattle, 20 pastured cattle, and 100 sheep, besides some stags, gazelles, roebucks, and fattened cuckoos. 24 For he controlled everything this side of the River,*[a] from Tiph′sah to Gaz′a,[b] including all the kings on this side of the River; and he enjoyed peace in every region, all around him.[c] 25 Judah and Israel lived in se-curity, everyone under his own vine and under his own fig tree, from Dan to Be′er-she′ba, all the days of Sol′o·mon.

26 And Sol′o·mon had 4,000* stalls of horses for his chariots and 12,000 horses.#[d]

27 These deputies supplied food to King Sol′o·mon and to everyone who ate at the table of King Sol′o·mon. Each was re-sponsible for his month and saw to it that nothing was lacking.[e] 28 They also brought barley and straw wherever it was needed for the horses and for the teams of horses, each according to his quota.

29 And God gave Sol′o·mon wisdom and discernment in very great measure and a broadness of heart* like the sand on the seashore.[f] 30 Sol′o·mon's wis-dom surpassed the wisdom of all the people of the East and all the wisdom of Egypt.[g] 31 He was wiser than any other man, wiser than E′than[h] the Ez′ra·hite and He′man,[i] Cal′col,[j] and Dar′-da, the sons of Ma′hol; his fame spread among all the sur-rounding nations.[k] 32 He com-posed* 3,000 proverbs[l] and his songs[m] numbered 1,005. 33 He would speak about the trees, from the cedar in Leb′a·non to the hyssop[n] that grows on the wall; he would speak about

5 When Hi′ram the king of Tyre[e] heard that Sol′o·mon had been anointed as king in place of his father, he sent his servants to Sol′o·mon, for Hi′ram had always been a friend of David's.*[f] 2 In turn Sol′o·mon sent word to Hi′ram:[g] 3 "You well know that David my father was not able to build a house for the name of Jehovah his God because of the wars waged against him from every side until Jehovah put his enemies under the soles of his feet.[h] 4 But now Jehovah my God has given me rest on all sides.[i] There is no one opposing me and nothing bad happening.[j] 5 So I intend to build a house for the name of Jehovah my God, just as Jehovah promised to David my father, saying: 'Your son whom I will put on your throne in your place, he is the one who will build the house for my name.'[k] 6 Now command your people to cut cedars of Leb′a·non[l] for me. My servants will work with your servants, and I will pay the wages of your servants according to the rate you set, for you are aware that not one of us knows how to cut trees like the Si·do′·ni·ans."[m]

7 When Hi′ram heard Sol′o·mon's words, he rejoiced greatly and said: "May Jehovah be praised today, for he has given David a wise son over this great* people!"[n] 8 So Hi′ram sent word to Sol′o·mon: "I have heard the message you sent to me. I will do all you desire in providing the cedar and juniper timbers.[a] 9 My servants will bring them down from Leb′a·non to the sea, and I will make them into log rafts to go by sea to the place that you designate to me. I will have them broken up there, and you can carry them away. In exchange, you will provide the food that I request for my household."[b]

10 So Hi′ram supplied all the timbers of cedar and juniper that Sol′o·mon desired. 11 And Sol′o·mon gave Hi′ram 20,000 cor measures* of wheat as food supplies for his household and 20 cor measures of very fine olive oil.# That was what Sol′o·mon gave Hi′ram year after year.[c] 12 And Jehovah gave Sol′o·mon wisdom, just as He had promised him.[d] And there was peace between Hi′ram and Sol′o·mon, and the two of them made a treaty.*

13 King Sol′o·mon conscripted men for forced labor out of all Israel; 30,000 men were conscripted.[e] 14 He would send them to Leb′a·non in shifts of 10,000 each month. They would spend a month in Leb′a·non and two months at their homes; and Ad·o·ni′ram[f] was over those conscripted for forced labor. 15 Sol′o·mon had 70,000 common laborers* and 80,000 stonecutters[g] in the mountains,[h] 16 as well as Sol′o·mon's 3,300 princely deputies[i] who served as foremen to supervise the workmen. 17 At the king's order, they quarried large stones, expensive stones,[j] to lay the foundation[k] of the house with hewn stones.[l] 18 So Sol′o-mon's builders and Hi'ram's builders and the Ge'bal·ites[a] did the cutting, and they prepared the timbers and the stones to build the house.

6 In the 480th year after the Israelites* came out of the land of Egypt,[b] in the fourth year after Sol'o·mon became king over Israel, in the month of Ziv#[c] (that is, the second month), he began to build the house of Jehovah.△[d] 2 The house that King Sol'omon built for Jehovah was 60 cubits* long, 20 cubits wide, and 30 cubits high.[e] 3 The porch[f] in front of the temple* was 20 cubits long,# corresponding to the width of the house.△ Its depth was ten cubits from the front of the house.

4 He made windows of narrowing frames*[g] for the house. 5 Further, he built a side structure against the wall of the house; it went around the walls of the house, those of the temple* and the innermost room,[h] and he made side chambers all around.[i] 6 The lowest level of the side chambers was five cubits wide, the middle level was six cubits wide, and the third level was seven cubits wide, for he made offsets* all around the house, so that nothing was attached to the walls of the house.[j]

7 The house was built with quarry stone that had already been prepared,[k] so that no hammers or axes or any iron tools were heard in the house while it was being built. 8 The entrance of the lowest side chamber was on the south* side of the house,[a] and a winding staircase led up to the middle floor, and from the middle floor up to the third floor. 9 He continued building the house and finished it[b] and covered the house with cedar beams and rows of cedar planks.[c] 10 He built the side chambers all around the house,[d] each five cubits high, and they were joined to the house by cedar timbers.

11 Meanwhile, the word of Jehovah came to Sol'o·mon, saying: 12 "As for this house that you are building, if you walk in my statutes and carry out my judgments and observe all my commandments by walking in them,[e] I will also carry out with you my promise that I made to David your father,[f] 13 and I will reside in the midst of the Israelites,[g] and I will not forsake my people Israel."[h]

14 Sol'o·mon continued building the house to finish it. 15 He built the inside walls of the house with cedar boards. He paneled the inside walls with timber, from the floor of the house up to the rafters of the ceiling, and he overlaid the floor of the house with juniper boards.[i] 16 And he built a section of 20 cubits at the rear of the house with cedar boards, from the floor up to the rafters, and he built inside of it* the innermost room,[j] the Most Holy.[k] 17 And the temple*/—the part of the house in front of it—was 40 cubits. 18 The cedar inside the house was carved with gourds[m] and flowers in bloom.[n] All of it was cedar; no stone was seen.

19 And he prepared the innermost room[o] inside the house to put there the ark of the covenant of Jehovah.[a] 20 The innermost room was 20 cubits long, 20 cubits wide, and 20 cubits high;[b] and he overlaid it with pure gold; he overlaid the altar[c] with cedar. 21 Sol'omon overlaid the interior of the house with pure gold,[d] and he stretched gold chains in front of the innermost room,[e] which was overlaid with gold. 22 He overlaid the whole house with gold until all the house was completed; he also overlaid with gold the entire altar[f] near the innermost room.

23 In the innermost room he made two cherubs[g] of pinewood,* each ten cubits high.[h] 24 One wing of the cherub measured five cubits, and the other wing was five cubits. From the tip of one wing to the tip of the other wing was ten cubits. 25 The second cherub was also ten cubits. The two cherubs had the same size and shape. 26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, as was that of the other cherub. 27 Then he put the cherubs[i] inside the inner house.* The wings of the cherubs were extended so that the wing of the one cherub reached to one wall and the wing of the other cherub reached to the other wall, and their wings extended toward the middle of the house, so that the wings touched. 28 And he overlaid the cherubs with gold.

29 And on all the walls of the house all around both the inner and outer rooms,* he carved figures of cherubs,[j] palm trees,[k] and flowers in bloom.[l] 30 He overlaid the floor of the house with gold in the inner and outer rooms. 31 And for the entrance of the innermost room he made doors of pinewood, side pillars, and doorposts, as a fifth part.* 32 The two doors were of pinewood, and he carved on them cherubs, palm trees, and flowers in bloom, and he overlaid them with gold; and he hammered the gold down over the cherubs and the palm trees. 33 For the entrance of the temple,# that was how he made the doorposts of pinewood, belonging to a fourth part.* 34 And he made two doors of juniper wood. The one door had two leaves that turned on pivots, and the other door had two leaves that turned on pivots.[a] 35 He carved cherubs, palm trees, and flowers in bloom, and overlaid gold foil on the carvings.

36 He built the inner courtyard[b] with three rows of hewn stone and a row of cedar beams.[c]

37 In the 4th year, in the month of Ziv,* the house of Jehovah had its foundation laid;[d] 38 and in the 11th year, in the month of Bul* (that is, the eighth month), the house was finished in all its details and according to its plan.[e] So he spent seven years building it.

7 And it took Sol'o·mon 13 years to build his own house,*[f] until his whole house was completed.[g]

2 And he built the House of the Forest of Leb'a·non[h] 100 cubits* long, 50 cubits wide, and 30 cubits high on four rows of cedar pillars; and there were cedar beams[i] on the pillars. 3 It was paneled above with cedar on the girders that rested on the pillars; they numbered 45, with

6 And he built the Hall* of Pillars 50 cubits long and 30 cubits wide, and there was a porch in front of it with pillars and a canopy.

7 He also built the Hall* of the Throne,[a] where he would judge—the Hall of Judgment[b]—and they paneled it with cedar from the floor to the rafters.

8 The house* where he was to live, at the other courtyard,[c] was set back from the Hall,# and it was similar in workmanship. He also built a house similar to this Hall for Phar′aoh's daughter, whom Sol′o·mon had taken as a wife.[d]

9 All of these were made of expensive stones[e] hewn according to measure, trimmed with stonesaws inside and out, from the foundation up to the coping, and outside as far as the great courtyard.[f] 10 And the foundation was laid with very large, expensive stones; some stones measured ten cubits, and other stones, eight cubits. 11 And above these were expensive stones, hewn according to measure, as well as cedar. 12 Around the great courtyard were three rows of hewn stone and a row of cedar beams, like that for the inner courtyard[g] of the house of Jehovah and the porch of the house.[h]

13 King Sol′o·mon sent for Hi′ram[i] and brought him from Tyre. 14 He was the son of a widow from the tribe of Naph′ta·li, and his father was a Tyr′i·an coppersmith;[a] and he had great skill, understanding,[b] and experience for all kinds of work in copper.* So he came to King Sol′o·mon and did all his work.

15 He cast the two pillars of copper;[c] each pillar was 18 cubits high, and it took a measuring cord 12 cubits long to encircle each of the two pillars.*[d] 16 And he made two capitals cast in copper to put on the tops of the pillars. One capital was five cubits high, and the other capital was five cubits high. 17 The capital on top of each pillar had mesh network with wreathed chains;[e] seven for the one capital and seven for the other capital. 18 And he made pomegranates in two rows around the one network to cover the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; he did the same for both capitals. 19 The capitals on top of the pillars at the porch were of a lily pattern four cubits high. 20 The capitals were on the two pillars, just above the rounded portion adjoining the network; and there were 200 pomegranates in rows all around on each capital.[f]

21 He set up the pillars of the porch of the temple.*[g] He set up the right-hand# pillar and named it Ja′chin,△ and then he set up the left-hand⊠ pillar and named it Bo′az.□[h] 22 And the top of the pillars were of a lily pattern. So the work of the pillars was completed.

23 Then he made the Sea* of cast metal.[a] It was circular in shape, 10 cubits from brim to brim and 5 cubits high, and it took a measuring line 30 cubits long to encircle it.#[b] 24 And there were ornamental gourds[c] below its brim, completely encircling it, ten to a cubit all around the Sea, with two rows of the gourds cast in one piece with it. 25 It stood on 12 bulls,[d] 3 facing north, 3 facing west, 3 facing south, and 3 facing east; and the Sea rested on them, and all their hindquarters were toward the center. 26 And its thickness was a handbreadth;* and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It would hold 2,000 bath measures.#

27 Then he made the ten carriages*[e] of copper. Each carriage was four cubits long, four cubits wide, and three cubits high. 28 And this was how the carriages were constructed: They had side panels, and the side panels were between the crossbars. 29 And on the side panels between the crossbars were lions,[f] bulls, and cherubs,[g] and the same design was on the crossbars. Above and beneath the lions and the bulls were wreaths in relief. 30 And each carriage had four copper wheels and copper axles, and its four cornerpieces served as supports for them. Beneath the basin were the supports, cast with wreaths at the side of each. 31 Its opening was inside the crown, extending upward one cubit; and its opening was round, making up a stand of one and a half cubits, and on its mouth were engravings. And their side panels were square, not round. 32 The four wheels were below the side panels, and the supports of the wheels were attached to the carriage, and the height of each wheel was one and a half cubits. 33 And the wheels were made like chariot wheels. Their supports, rims,* spokes, and hubs were all of cast metal. 34 There were four supports on the four corners of each carriage; its supports were cast as part of* the carriage. 35 On top of the carriage was a circular band half a cubit high, and on the top of the carriage, its framing pieces and its side panels were cast as part of* it. 36 On the surfaces of its framing pieces and on its side panels he engraved cherubs, lions, and palm trees according to the amount of space on each, with wreaths all around.[a] 37 This is how he made the ten carriages;[b] they were all cast alike,[c] with the same measure and shape.

38 He made ten copper basins;[d] each could hold 40 bath measures. Each basin measured four cubits.* There was one basin for each of the ten carriages. 39 Then he put five carriages on the right side of the house and five on the left side of the house, and he placed the Sea on the right side of the house, toward the southeast.[e]

40 Hi′ram[f] also made the basins, the shovels,[g] and the bowls.[h] So Hi′ram finished all the work that he did for King Sol′o·mon on the house of Jehovah:[i] 41 the two pillars[j] and the bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the two pillars; the two networks[k] to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the pillars;

42 the 400 pomegranates[a] for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on the two pillars; 43 the ten carriages[b] and the ten basins[c] on the carriages; 44 the Sea[d] and the 12 bulls beneath the Sea; 45 and the cans, the shovels, the bowls, and all the utensils, which Hi′ram made of polished copper for King Sol′o·mon for the house of Jehovah. 46 The king cast them in clay molds in the district of the Jordan, between Suc′coth and Zar′e·than.

47 Sol′o·mon left all the utensils unweighed because they were in such great quantities. The weight of the copper was not ascertained.[e] 48 Sol′o·mon made all the utensils for the house of Jehovah: the altar[f] of gold; the gold table[g] on which to put the showbread; 49 the lampstands[h] of pure gold, five on the right and five on the left before the innermost room; and the blossoms,[i] the lamps, and the snuffers,* of gold;[j] 50 the basins, the extinguishers,[k] the bowls, the cups,[l] and the fire holders,[m] of pure gold; and the sockets for the doors of the inner house,[n] that is, the Most Holy, and for the doors of the house of the temple,[o] of gold.

51 So King Sol′o·mon completed all the work he had to do for the house of Jehovah. Sol′o·mon then brought in the things that David his father had made holy,[p] and he put the silver, the gold, and the articles into the treasuries of the house of Jehovah.[q]

8 At that time Sol′o·mon congregated[r] the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes, the chieftains of the paternal houses of Israel.[a] They came to King Sol′o·mon at Jerusalem to bring up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah from the City of David,[b] that is, Zion.[c] 2 All the men of Israel assembled before King Sol′o·mon at the festival* in the month of Eth′a·nim,# that is, the seventh month.[d] 3 So all the elders of Israel came, and the priests lifted up the Ark.[e] 4 They brought up the Ark of Jehovah, the tent of meeting,[f] and all the holy utensils that were in the tent. The priests and the Levites brought them up. 5 King Sol′o·mon and the entire assembly of Israel, who had been summoned to meet with him, were before the Ark. So many sheep and cattle were being sacrificed[g] that they could not be counted or numbered.

6 Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of Jehovah to its place,[h] into the innermost room of the house, the Most Holy, underneath the wings of the cherubs.[i]

7 Thus the wings of the cherubs were spread out over the place of the Ark, so that the cherubs overshadowed the Ark and its poles.[j] 8 The poles[k] were so long that the tips of the poles were visible from the Holy in front of the innermost room, but they were not visible from outside. And they are there to this day. 9 There was nothing in the Ark but the two stone tablets[l] that Moses placed there[m] at Ho′reb, when Jehovah made a covenant[n] with the people of Israel while they were coming out of the land of Egypt.[o]

10 When the priests came out from the holy place, the cloud[p] filled the house of Jehovah.[q] 11 The priests were not able to stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of Jehovah filled the house of Jehovah.[a] 12 At that time Sol'o·mon said: "Jehovah said he would reside in the thick gloom.[b] 13 I have successfully built a lofty house for you, an established place for you to dwell in forever."[c]

14 Then the king turned around and began to bless all the congregation of Israel while all the congregation of Israel stood.[d] 15 He said: "May Jehovah the God of Israel be praised, the one who by his own mouth promised my father David, and by his own hand has given fulfillment, saying, 16 'From the day I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I have not chosen a city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house for my name to remain there,[e] but I have chosen David to be over my people Israel.' 17 And it was the heart's desire of my father David to build a house for the name of Jehovah the God of Israel.[f] 18 But Jehovah said to my father David, 'It was your heart's desire to build a house for my name, and you did well to desire this in your heart. 19 However, you will not build the house, but your own son who is to be born to you* is the one who will build the house for my name.'[g] 20 Jehovah has carried out the promise that he made, for I have succeeded my father David and I sit on the throne of Israel, just as Jehovah promised. I have also built the house for the name of Jehovah the God of Israel[h] 21 and have set up a place there for the Ark containing the covenant[i] that Jehovah made with our forefathers when he was bringing them out of the land of Egypt."

22 Then Sol'o·mon stood before the altar of Jehovah in front of all the congregation of Israel, and he spread his hands out to the heavens,[a] 23 and he said: "O Jehovah the God of Israel, there is no God like you[b] in the heavens above or on the earth beneath, keeping the covenant and showing loyal love[c] to your servants who are walking before you with all their heart.[d] 24 You have kept the promise that you made to your servant David my father. You made the promise with your own mouth, and this day you have fulfilled it with your own hand.[e] 25 And now, O Jehovah the God of Israel, keep the promise you made to your servant David my father when you said: 'There will never fail to be a man of your line before me to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your sons will pay attention to their way by walking before me, just as you have walked before me.'[f] 26 And now, O God of Israel, let the promise that you made to your servant David my father prove trustworthy, please.

27 "But will God really dwell on the earth?[g] Look! The heavens, yes, the heaven of the heavens, cannot contain you;[h] how much less, then, this house that I have built![i] 28 Now pay attention to the prayer of your servant and to his request for favor, O Jehovah my God, and listen to the cry for help and to the prayer that your servant is praying before you today. 29 May your eyes be open toward this house night and day, toward the place of which you said, 'My name will be there,'[j] to listen to the prayer that your servant prays toward this place.[k] 30 And listen to your servant's request for favor and to the request by your people Israel that they pray toward this place, and may you hear from your dwelling place in the heavens;[a] yes, may you hear and forgive.[b]

31 "When a man sins against his fellow man and is made to take an oath* and is brought under liability to the oath,# and while under the oath# he comes before your altar in this house,[c] 32 may you then hear from the heavens and act and judge your servants by pronouncing the wicked one guilty* and bringing what he did on his own head, and by pronouncing the righteous one innocent# and rewarding him according to his own righteousness.[d]

33 "When your people Israel are defeated by an enemy because they kept sinning against you,[e] and they return to you and glorify your name[f] and pray and beg you for favor in this house,[g] 34 may you then hear from the heavens and forgive the sin of your people Israel and bring them back to the land that you gave to their forefathers.[h]

35 "When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain[i] because they kept sinning against you,[j] and they pray toward this place and glorify your name and turn back from their sin because you humbled* them,[k] 36 may you then hear from the heavens and forgive the sin of your servants, of your people Israel, for you will instruct them[l] about the good way in which they should walk; and bring rain on your land[m] that you gave to your people as an inheritance.

37 "If a famine occurs in the land,[n] or a pestilence, a scorching blight, mildew,[o] swarming locusts, or voracious locusts;* or if their enemy besieges them in any of the cities of the land# or if any other sort of plague or disease occurs,[a] 38 whatever prayer, whatever request for favor[b] may be made by any man or by all your people Israel (for each one knows the plague of his own heart)[c] when they spread out their hands toward this house, 39 then may you hear from the heavens, your dwelling place,[d] and may you forgive[e] and take action; and reward each one according to all his ways,[f] for you know his heart (you alone truly know every human heart),[g] 40 so that they may fear you all the days they live on the land that you gave to our forefathers.

41 "Also concerning the foreigner who is not part of your people Israel and who comes from a distant land because of your name*[h] 42 (for they will hear about your great name[i] and your mighty hand and your outstretched arm), and he comes and prays toward this house, 43 may you then listen from the heavens, your dwelling place,[j] and do all that the foreigner asks of you, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you,[k] as your people Israel do, and may know that your name has been called on this house that I have built.

44 "If your people go to war against their enemy in the way that you send them,[l] and they pray[m] to Jehovah in the direction of the city that you have chosen[n] and toward the house that I have built for your name,[o] 45 then hear from the heavens their prayer and their request for favor and execute judgment for them.

54 And as soon as Sol'o·mon finished offering to Jehovah this entire prayer and request for favor, he rose up from before the altar of Jehovah, where he had been kneeling with his hands spread out to the heavens.[a] 55 He then stood and blessed all the congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying: 56 "Praised be Jehovah, who has given a resting-place to his people Israel, just as he promised.[b] Not one word of all his good promise that he made through Moses his servant has failed.[c] 57 May Jehovah our God be with us just as he was with our forefathers.[d] May he not abandon us nor forsake us.[e] 58 May he draw our heart toward himself,[f] to walk in all his ways and to keep his commandments, his regulations, and his judgments, which he commanded our forefathers to observe. 59 And may these words of mine with which I have begged Jehovah for favor be near to Jehovah our God by day and night, that he may execute judgment for his servant and for his people Israel as each day requires, 60 so that all the peoples of the earth may know that Jehovah is the true God.[g] There is no other![h] 61 So let your heart be complete[i] with* Jehovah our God by walking in his regulations and by keeping his commandments as on this day."

62 Now the king and all Israel with him offered a grand sacrifice before Jehovah.[j] 63 Sol'o·mon offered the communion sacrifices[k] to Jehovah: He offered 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep. Thus the king and all the Israelites inaugurated the house of Jehovah.[l] 64 On that day the king had to sanctify the middle of the courtyard that is before the house of Jehovah, for there he had to offer up the burnt sacrifices, the grain offerings, and the fat pieces of the communion sacrifices, because the copper altar[a] that is before Jehovah was too small to contain the burnt sacrifices, the grain offerings, and the fat[b] pieces of the communion sacrifices. 65 At that time Sol'o·mon held the festival[c] together with all Israel, a great congregation from Le'boha'math* down to the Wadi# of Egypt,[d] before Jehovah our God for 7 days and then another 7 days, 14 days in all. 66 On the following* day, he sent the people away, and they blessed the king and went to their homes rejoicing and feeling glad of heart over all the goodness[e] that Jehovah had shown to David his servant and Israel his people.

9 As soon as Sol'o·mon had finished building the house of Jehovah, the house* of the king,[f] and everything Sol'o·mon desired to make,[g] 2 Jehovah appeared to Sol'o·mon a second time, just as he had appeared to him in Gib'e·on.[h] 3 Jehovah said to him: "I have heard your prayer and your request for favor that you made before me. I have sanctified this house that you built by permanently putting my name there,[i] and my eyes and my heart will always be there.[j] 4 And you, if you walk before me as your father David walked,[k] with integrity of heart[l] and with uprightness,[m] by doing everything I have commanded you,[n] and you obey my regulations and my judgments,[o] 5 then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, just as I promised your father David, saying, 'There will never fail to be a man of your line sitting on the throne of Israel.'[a] 6 But if you and your sons turn away from following me and do not keep my commandments and my statutes that I have put before you, and you go and serve other gods and bow down to them,[b] 7 I will cut Israel off from the surface of the land that I have given to them,[c] and the house that I have sanctified for my name I will cast out of my sight,[d] and Israel will become an object of scorn* and a cause for ridicule among all the peoples.[e] 8 And this house will become heaps of ruins.[f] Everyone passing by it will stare in amazement and will whistle and say, 'Why did Jehovah do that to this land and this house?'[g] 9 Then they will say, 'It was because they abandoned Jehovah their God, who had brought their forefathers out of the land of Egypt, and they embraced other gods and bowed down to them and served them. That is why Jehovah brought all this calamity on them.'"[h]

10 At the end of 20 years, during which Sol'o·mon built the two houses, the house of Jehovah and the house* of the king,[i] 11 Hi'ram[j] the king of Tyre had supplied Sol'o·mon with cedar and juniper timbers and with as much gold as he desired,[k] and King Sol'o·mon gave to Hi'ram 20 cities in the land of Gal'i·lee. 12 So Hi'ram went out from Tyre to see the cities that Sol'omon had given him, but he was not satisfied with them.* 13 He said: "What sort of cities are these that you have given me, my brother?" So they came to be called the Land of Ca′bul* down to this day. 14 In the meantime, Hi′ram sent to the king 120 talents* of gold.[a] 15 This is the account of those whom King Sol′o·mon conscripted for forced labor[b] to build the house of Jehovah,[c] his own house,* the Mound,[#d] the wall of Jerusalem, Ha′zor,[e] Megid′do,[f] and Ge′zer.[g] 16 (Phar′aoh king of Egypt had come up and captured Ge′zer and had burned it with fire, and he had also killed the Ca′naan·ites[h] dwelling in the city. So he gave it as a parting gift* to his daughter,[i] the wife of Sol′o·mon.) 17 Sol′o·mon built up* Ge′zer, Lower Beth-ho′ron,[j] 18 Ba′alath,[k] and Ta′mar in the wilderness, within the land, 19 as well as all of Sol′o·mon's storage cities, the chariot cities,[l] the cities for the horsemen, and whatever Sol′o·mon desired to build in Jerusalem, in Leb′a·non, and in all the land of his dominion. 20 As for all the people who were left from the Am′or·ites, the Hit′tites, the Per′iz·zites, the Hi′vites, and the Jeb′u·sites,[m] who were not part of the people of Israel,[n] 21 their descendants who were left in the land—those whom the Israelites had been unable to devote to destruction—were conscripted by Sol′o·mon for forced labor as slaves until this day.[o] 22 But Sol′o·mon did not make any of the Israelites slaves,[p] for they were his warriors, servants, princes, adjutants, and the chiefs of his charioteers and horsemen.

23 There were 550 chiefs of the deputies who were over the work of Sol′o·mon, the foremen over the people who were doing the work.[a]

24 But Phar′aoh's daughter[b] came up from the City of David[c] to her own house that he had built for her; then he built the Mound.[#d]

25 Three times a year[e] Sol′omon offered up burnt sacrifices and communion sacrifices on the altar that he had built for Jehovah,[f] also making sacrificial smoke on the altar, which was before Jehovah, so he completed the house.[g]

26 King Sol′o·mon also made a fleet of ships in E′zi·on-ge′ber,[h] which is by E′loth, on the shore of the Red Sea in the land of E′dom.[i] 27 Hi′ram sent his own servants with the fleet of ships,[j] experienced seamen, to serve along with the servants of Sol′o·mon. 28 They went to O′phir[k] and took from there 420 talents of gold and brought it to King Sol′o·mon.

10 Now the queen of She′ba heard the report about Sol′o·mon in connection with the name of Jehovah,[l] so she came to test him with perplexing questions.[m] 2 She arrived in Jerusalem with a very impressive entourage,[n] with camels carrying balsam oil[o] and great quantities of gold and precious stones. She went in to Sol′o·mon and spoke to him about everything that was close to her heart. 3 Sol′o·mon then answered all her questions. There was nothing too difficult for* the king to explain to her.

13 King Sol'o·mon also gave the queen of She'ba whatever she desired and asked for, in addition to what he gave her out of his own generosity.* After that she left and returned to her own land, together with her servants.[a]

No other kingdom had made anything like it.

21 All the drinking vessels of King Sol'o·mon were of gold, and all the utensils of the House of the Forest of Leb'a·non[i] were of pure gold. There was nothing made of silver, for silver was considered as nothing in the days of Sol'o·mon.[j] 22 For the king had a fleet of ships of Tar′shish[a] on the sea along with Hi′ram's fleet. Once every three years, the fleet of ships of Tar′shish would come loaded with gold and silver, ivory,[b] apes, and peacocks.

23 So King Sol′o·mon was greater than all the other kings of the earth in riches[c] and wisdom.[d] 24 And people of all the earth sought an audience with* Sol′o·mon to hear his wisdom that God had put in his heart.[e] 25 They would each bring a gift—articles of silver, articles of gold, garments, armor, balsam oil, horses, and mules—and this continued year after year.

26 And Sol′o·mon kept accumulating chariots and horses;* he had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horses,*[f] and he kept them stationed in the chariot cities and close by the king in Jerusalem.[g]

27 The king made the silver in Jerusalem as plentiful as the stones, and cedarwood as plentiful as the sycamore trees in the She·phe′lah.[h]

28 The horses of Sol′o·mon had been imported from Egypt, and the company of the king's merchants would obtain the horses in droves* for one price.[i] 29 Each chariot imported from Egypt cost 600 silver pieces, and a horse cost 150; in turn, they would export them to all the kings of the Hit′tites[j] and the kings of Syria.

11 But King Sol′o·mon loved many foreign women[k] besides the daughter of Phar′aoh:[l] Mo′ab·ite,[m] Am′mon·ite,[n] E′dom·ite, Si·do′ni·an,[o] and Hit′tite[p] women. 2 They were from the nations about whom Jehovah had said to the Israelites: "You must not go in among them,* and they should not come in among you, for they will surely incline your heart to follow their gods."[a] But Sol′o·mon clung to them and loved them. 3 And he had 700 wives who were princesses and 300 concubines, and his wives gradually inclined his heart.* 4 In Sol′o·mon's old age,[b] his wives inclined* his heart to follow other gods,[c] and his heart was not complete with# Jehovah his God like the heart of David his father. 5 And Sol′o·mon followed after Ash′to·reth,[d] the goddess of the Si·do′ni·ans, and Mil′com,[e] the disgusting god of the Am′mon·ites. 6 And Sol′o·mon did what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah, and he did not follow Jehovah completely* as David his father had done.[f]

7 It was then that Sol′o·mon built a high place[g] to Che′mosh, the disgusting god of Mo′ab, on the mountain in front of Jerusalem and to Mo′lech,[h] the disgusting god of the Am′mon·ites.[i] 8 That was what he did for all his foreign wives who were making sacrificial smoke and sacrificing to their gods.

9 Jehovah became furious at Sol′o·mon, because his heart had inclined away from Jehovah the God of Israel,[j] who had appeared to him twice[k] 10 and had warned him about this very thing, that he should not go after other gods.[l] But he did not obey what Jehovah had commanded. 11 Jehovah now said to Sol′o·mon: "Because you have done this and you have not kept my covenant and my statutes as I commanded you, I will surely

14 Jehovah then raised up a resister against Sol·o·mon,[f] Ha·dad the E′dom·ite, of the royal family of E′dom.[g] 15 When David defeated E′dom,[h] Jo′ab the chief of the army went up to bury the slain, and he tried to strike down every male in E′dom. 16 (For Jo′ab and all Israel stayed there for six months until he had done away with* every male in E′dom.) 17 But Ha′dad fled with some of his father's E′dom·ite servants, and they went to Egypt; Ha′dad was then a young boy. 18 So they set out from Mid′i·an and came to Pa′ran. They took men with them from Pa′ran[i] and came to Egypt, to Phar′aoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, assigned him a food allowance, and gave him land. 19 Ha′dad found favor in the eyes of Phar′aoh, so much so that he gave him in marriage the sister of his own wife, Tah′pe·nes the queen.* 20 In time the sister of Tah′pe·nes bore him a son, Ge·nu′bath, and Tah′pe·nes brought him up* in the house of Phar′aoh, and Ge·nu′bath remained in the house of Phar′aoh among the sons of Phar′aoh.

So Ha′dad said to Phar′aoh: "Send me away, so that I may go to my own land." 22 But Phar′aoh said to him: "What have you lacked with me that you now seek to go to your own land?" To this he said: "Nothing, but please send me away."

23 God also raised up against Sol·o·mon another resister,[a] Re′zon the son of E·li′a·da, who had fled from his lord, Had·ad·e′zer[b] the king of Zo′bah. 24 He gathered men to himself and became chief of a marauder band when David defeated* them.[c] So they went to Damascus[d] and settled there and began reigning in Damascus. 25 And he became a resister of Israel all the days of Sol·o·mon, adding to the harm done by Ha′dad, and he abhorred Israel while he reigned over Syria.

26 And there was Jer·o·bo′am[e] the son of Ne′bat, an E′phra·im·ite from Zer′e·dah, a servant of Sol·o·mon's[f] whose mother's name was Ze·ru′ah, a widow. He too began to rebel* against the king.[g] 27 This is why he rebelled against the king: Sol·o·mon had built the Mound*[h] and had closed up the gap of the City of David his father.[i] 28 Now this Jer·o·bo′am was a capable man. When Sol·o·mon saw that the young man was a hard worker, he made him overseer[j] over all the compulsory service of the house of Joseph. 29 During that time Jer·o·bo′am went out from Jerusalem, and the prophet A·hi′jah[k] the Shi′lo·nite found him on the road. A·hi′jah was wearing a new garment, and the two of them were by themselves in the field. 30 A·hi′jah took hold of the new garment he was wearing and ripped it into 12 pieces. 31 Then he said to Jer·o·bo′am:

"Take ten pieces for yourself, for this is what Jehovah the God of Israel says: 'Here I am ripping the kingdom out of the hand of Sol′o·mon, and I will give you ten tribes.[a] 32 But one tribe will remain his[b] for the sake of my servant David[c] and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel.[d] 33 I will do this because they have left me[e] and are bowing down to Ash′to·reth the goddess of the Si·do′ni·ans, to Che′mosh the god of Mo′ab, and to Mil′com the god of the Am′monites, and they have not walked in my ways by doing what is right in my eyes and observing my statutes and my judgments as his father David did. 34 But I will not take the entire kingdom out of his hand, and I will keep him as a chieftain for all the days of his life, for the sake of David my servant whom I chose,[f] because he obeyed my commandments and my statutes. 35 But I will take the kingship out of the hand of his son and give it to you, that is, ten tribes.[g] 36 To his son I will give one tribe, so that David my servant may always have a lamp before me in Jerusalem,[h] the city that I have chosen for myself as the place to put my name. 37 I will take you, and you will reign over all that you desire,* and you will become king over Israel. 38 And if you obey all that I command you and walk in my ways and do what is right in my eyes by obeying my statutes and my commandments, just as David my servant did,[i] I will also be with you. I will build you a lasting house, just as I have built for David,[j] and I will give you Israel. 39 And I will humiliate the offspring of David because of this,[a] but not always.'"[b]

40 So Sol′o·mon tried to put Jer·o·bo′am to death, but Jer·o·bo′am fled to Egypt, to Shi′shak[c] the king of Egypt,[d] and he remained in Egypt until Sol′o·mon's death.

41 As for the rest of the history of Sol′o·mon, all that he did and his wisdom, is it not written in the book of the history of Sol′o·mon?[e] 42 The length* of Sol′o·mon's reign in Jerusalem over all Israel was 40 years. 43 Then Sol′o·mon was laid to rest with his forefathers and was buried in the City of David his father; and his son Re·ho·bo′am[f] became king in his place.

12 Re·ho·bo′am went to She′chem, for all Israel had come to She′chem[g] to make him king.[h] 2 As soon as Jer·o·bo′am the son of Ne′bat heard of it (he was still in Egypt because he had run off on account of King Sol′o·mon and was living in Egypt),[i] 3 they sent for him. After that Jer·o·bo′am and all the congregation of Israel came to Re·ho·bo′am and said: 4 "Your father made our yoke harsh.[j] But if you make the harsh service of your father easier and you lighten the heavy* yoke he put on us, we will serve you."

5 At this he said to them: "Go away for three days; then return to me." So the people went away.[k] 6 King Re·ho·bo′am then consulted with the older men* who had served his father Sol′o·mon while he was alive, saying: "What advice would you give on how to reply to this people?" 7 They answered him: "If today you would become a servant to this people and submit to their request and give them a favorable answer, they will always be your servants."

8 However, he rejected the advice that the older men* gave him, and he consulted with the young men who had grown up with him and who were now his attendants.[a] 9 He asked them: "What advice do you offer on how we should reply to this people who have said to me, 'Make the yoke your father put on us lighter'?" 10 The young men who had grown up with him said to him: "This is what you should say to this people who have said to you, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you should make it lighter for us'; this is what you should tell them, 'My little finger will be thicker than my father's hips. 11 My father imposed a heavy yoke on you, but I will add to your yoke. My father punished you with whips, but I will punish you with scourges.'"

12 Jer·o·bo'am and all the people came to Re·ho·bo'am on the third day, just as the king had said: "Return to me on the third day."[b] 13 But the king answered the people harshly, rejecting the advice that the older men* had given him. 14 He spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying: "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke. My father punished you with whips, but I will punish you with scourges." 15 So the king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was caused by Jehovah,[c] in order to carry out the word that Jehovah had spoken through A·hi'jah[d] the Shi'lo·nite to Jer·o·bo'am the son of Ne'bat.

16 When all Israel saw that the king refused to listen to them, the people replied to the king: "What share do we have in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jes'se. To your gods, O Israel. Now look after your own house, O David!" With that Israel returned to their homes.*[a] 17 But Re·ho·bo'am continued to reign over the Israelites living in the cities of Judah.[b]

18 Then King Re·ho·bo'am sent A·do'ram,[c] who was in charge of those conscripted for forced labor, but all Israel stoned him to death. King Re·ho·bo'am managed to mount his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.[d] 19 And the Israelites have been in revolt[e] against the house of David down to this day.

20 As soon as all Israel heard that Jer·o·bo'am had returned, they summoned him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel.[f] None of the people followed the house of David except the tribe of Judah.[g]

21 When Re·ho·bo'am arrived in Jerusalem, he immediately congregated all the house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, 180,000 trained* warriors, to fight against the house of Israel in order to restore the kingship to Re·ho·bo'am the son of Sol'o·mon.[h] 22 Then the word of the true God came to She·mai'ah[i] the man of the true God, saying: 23 "Say to Re·ho·bo'am the son of Sol'o·mon the king of Judah and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin and the rest of the people, 24 'This is what Jehovah says: "You must not go up and fight against your Israelite brothers. Each one of you must return to his house, for I have caused this to happen."'"[j] So they obeyed the word of Jehovah and went back home, as Jehovah had told them.

25 Jer·o·bo'am then built up* She'chem[k] in the mountainous region of E'phra·im and lived there. From there he went out and built up* Pe·nu′el.[a] 26 Jer·o·bo′am said in his heart: "Now the kingdom will return to the house of David.[b] 27 If this people continues to go up to offer sacrifices at the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem,[c] the heart of this people will also return to their lord, King Re·ho·bo′am of Judah. Yes, they will kill me and return to King Re·ho·bo′am of Judah." 28 After consultation, the king made two golden calves[d] and said to the people: "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Here is your God, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt."[e] 29 Then he placed one in Beth′el,[f] and the other he put in Dan.[g] 30 And this caused them to sin,[h] and the people went as far as Dan to worship the one there.

31 And he made houses of worship on the high places and appointed priests from the people in general, those who were not Levites.[i] 32 Jer·o·bo′am also established a festival in the eighth month, on the 15th day of the month, like the festival in Judah.[j] On the altar that he made at Beth′el,[k] he sacrificed to the calves he had made, and at Beth′el he assigned priests for the high places that he had made. 33 And he began to make offerings on the altar that he had made at Beth′el on the 15th day in the eighth month, in the month that he had devised on his own; and he established a festival for the people of Israel, and he ascended the altar to make offerings and sacrificial smoke.

13 By the word of Jehovah, a man of God[l] came from Judah to Beth′el while Jer·o·bo′am was standing by the altar[m] to make sacrificial smoke. 2 Then he called out against the altar by the word of Jehovah and said: "O altar, altar! This is what Jehovah says: 'Look! A son named Jo·si′ah[a] will be born to the house of David! He will sacrifice on you the priests of the high places, those making sacrificial smoke on you, and he will burn human bones on you.'"[b] 3 He gave a sign* on that day, saying: "This is the sign* that Jehovah has declared: Look! The altar will be ripped apart, and the ashes# that are on it will be spilled out."

4 As soon as the king heard the word that the man of the true God had called out against the altar at Beth′el, Jer·o·bo′am stretched out his hand from the altar and said: "Seize him!"[c] Immediately, the hand that he had stretched out against him dried up,* and he could not draw it back.[d] 5 Then the altar was ripped apart and the ashes were spilled out from the altar according to the sign* that the man of the true God had given by the word of Jehovah.

6 The king now said to the man of the true God: "Please, beg for the favor* of Jehovah your God, and pray in my behalf that my hand may be restored to me."[e] At this the man of the true God begged for the favor of Jehovah, and the king's hand was restored to its former condition. 7 The king then said to the man of the true God: "Come home with me and take some food, and let me give you a gift." 8 But the man of the true God said to the king: "Even if you gave me half your house, I would not come with you and eat bread or drink water in this place. 9 For this is what I was commanded by the word of Jehovah: 'You must not eat bread or drink water, and you must not return by the way you came.'" 10 So he left by another way, and he did not return by the way he had come to Beth'el.

11 There was a certain old prophet dwelling in Beth'el, and his sons came home and related to him all the things that the man of the true God had done that day in Beth'el and the words he had spoken to the king. After they related this to their father, 12 their father asked them: "Which way did he go?" So his sons showed him the way that the man of the true God from Judah had gone. 13 He now said to his sons: "Saddle the donkey for me." They saddled the donkey for him, and he mounted it.

14 He followed the man of the true God and found him sitting under a big tree. Then he said to him: "Are you the man of the true God who came from Judah?"[a] He replied: "I am." 15 He said to him: "Come home with me and eat bread." 16 But he said: "I cannot go back with you or accept your invitation, nor may I eat bread or drink water with you in this place. 17 For I was told by the word of Jehovah, 'You must not eat bread or drink water there. You must not return by the way you came.'" 18 At this he said to him: "I too am a prophet like you, and an angel told me by the word of Jehovah, 'Have him come back with you to your house so that he may eat bread and drink water.'" (He deceived him.) 19 So he went back with him to eat bread and drink water in his house.

20 While they were sitting at the table, the word of Jehovah came to the prophet who had brought him back, 21 and he called out to the man of the true God from Judah, saying, "This is what Jehovah says: 'Because you rebelled against the order of Jehovah and did not keep the commandment that Jehovah your God gave you, 22 but you went back to eat bread and drink water in the place about which you were told, "Do not eat bread or drink water," your dead body will not come into the tomb of your forefathers.'"[a]

23 After the man of the true God ate bread and drank, the old prophet saddled the donkey for the prophet whom he had brought back. 24 Then he got on his way, but a lion came across him on the road and killed him.[b] His dead body was thrown onto the road, and the donkey stood beside it; the lion was also standing beside the dead body. 25 There were men passing by who saw the dead body thrown onto the road and the lion standing beside the dead body. They came in and told about it in the city where the old prophet lived.

26 When the prophet who had brought him back from the road heard of it, he immediately said: "It is the man of the true God who rebelled against the order of Jehovah;[c] so Jehovah gave him over to the lion, to maul and to kill him, according to the word of Jehovah that he spoke to him."[d] 27 He then said to his sons: "Saddle the donkey for me." So they saddled it. 28 Then he went on his way and found the dead body thrown onto the road, with the donkey and the lion standing beside it. The lion had not eaten the dead body, nor had it mauled the donkey. 29 The prophet lifted up the dead body of the man of the true God and put him on the donkey, and he brought him back into his own city to mourn and bury him. 30 So he laid the dead body in his own tomb, and they kept crying out over him: "Too bad, my brother!" 31 After burying him, he told his sons: "When I die, you must bury me in the place where the man of the true God is buried. Lay my bones next to his bones.[a] 32 The word that he called out by the word of Jehovah against the altar in Beth'el and against all the houses of worship on the high places[b] in the cities of Sa·mar'i·a is sure to take place."[c]

33 Even after this happened, Jer·o·bo'am did not turn back from his bad way, but he kept appointing priests for the high places from the people in general.[d] He would install as priests* anyone who so desired, saying: "Let him become one of the priests for the high places."[e] 34 This sin on the part of the household of Jer·o·bo'am[f] led to their destruction and annihilation from the face of the earth.[g]

14 At that time A·bi'jah the son of Jer·o·bo'am fell sick. 2 So Jer·o·bo'am said to his wife: "Rise up, please, and disguise yourself so that they will not know that you are Jer·o·bo'am's wife, and go to Shi'loh. Look! A·hi'jah the prophet is there. He is the one who spoke of me becoming king over this people.[h] 3 Take with you ten loaves of bread, sprinkled cakes, and a flask of honey, and go to him. He will then tell you what is going to happen to the boy."

4 Jer·o·bo'am's wife did what he said. She rose up and went to Shi'loh[i] and came to the house of A·hi'jah. A·hi'jah's eyes stared straight ahead, and he could not see because of his age.

5 But Jehovah had told A·hi'jah: "Here is the wife of Jer·o·bo'am coming to inquire of you regarding her son, for he is sick. I will tell you what to say to her.* When she arrives, she will conceal her identity."

6 As soon as A·hi'jah heard the sound of her footsteps as she was coming into the entrance, he said: "Come in, wife of Jer·o·bo'am. Why are you concealing your identity? I have been assigned to give you a harsh message. 7 Go, tell Jer·o·bo'am, 'This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says: "I raised you up from among your people to make you a leader over my people Israel.[a] 8 Then I ripped the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you.[b] But you have not become like my servant David, who kept my commandments and who walked after me with all his heart, doing only what was right in my eyes.[c] 9 But you have done worse than all those who were prior to you, and you made for yourself another god and metal images* to offend me,[d] and it is I whom you have turned your back on.[e] 10 For that reason I am bringing calamity on the house of Jer·o·bo'am, and I will annihilate* from Jer·o·bo'am every male,# including the helpless and weak in Israel, and I will make a clean sweep of the house of Jer·o·bo'am,[f] just as one clears away the dung until it is all gone! 11 Anyone belonging to Jer·o·bo'am who dies in the city, the dogs will eat; and anyone who dies in the field, the birds of the heavens will eat, for Jehovah has spoken it."'

Israel will mourn him and bury him, for he alone of Jer·o·bo′am's family will be laid in a grave, because he is the only one of the house of Jer·o·bo′am in whom Jehovah the God of Israel has found something good. 14 Jehovah will raise up for himself a king over Israel who will do away with* the house of Jer·o·bo′am[a] from that day forward, yes, even now. 15 Jehovah will strike Israel down like a reed that sways in the water, and he will uproot Israel off this good land that he gave to their forefathers,[b] and he will scatter them beyond the River,*[c] because they made their sacred poles,#[d] offending Jehovah. 16 And he will abandon Israel because of the sins that Jer·o·bo′am has committed and has caused Israel to commit."[e]

17 At that Jer·o·bo′am's wife rose up and went on her way and came to Tir′zah. As she came to the threshold of the house, the boy died. 18 So they buried him, and all Israel mourned him, according to Jehovah's word that he had spoken through his servant A·hi′jah the prophet.

19 And the rest of the history of Jer·o·bo′am, how he waged war[f] and how he reigned, is written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Israel. 20 And the length* of Jer·o·bo′am's reign was 22 years, after which he was laid to rest with his forefathers;[g] and his son Na′dab became king in his place.[h]

21 Meanwhile, Re·ho·bo′am the son of Sol′o·mon had become king in Judah. Am′mon·it·ess.[a] And his son A·bi′jam*[b] became king in his place.

15 In the 18th year of King Jer·o·bo′am[c] the son of Ne′bat, A·bi′jam became king over Judah.[d] 2 He reigned for three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Ma′a·cah[e] the granddaughter of A·bish′a·lom. 3 He went on walking in all the sins that his father committed prior to him, and his heart was not complete with* Jehovah his God like the heart of David his forefather. 4 However, on account of David,[f] Jehovah his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem[g] by raising up his son after him and keeping Jerusalem in existence. 5 For David did what was right in the eyes of Jehovah, and he did not turn aside from anything that He had commanded him all the days of his life, except in the matter of U·ri′ah the Hit′tite.[h] 6 And there was warfare between Re·ho·bo′am and Jer·o·bo′am all the days of his life.[i]

7 As for the rest of the history of A·bi′jam, all that he did, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Judah?[j] There was also war between A·bi′jam and Jer·o·bo′am.[k] 8 Then A·bi′jam was laid to rest with his forefathers, and they buried him in the City of David; and his son A′sa[l] became king in his place.[m]

9 In the 20th year of King Jer·o·bo′am of Israel, A′sa began to reign over Judah. 10 He reigned in Jerusalem for 41 years. His grandmother's name was Ma′a·cah[n] the granddaughter of A·bish′a·lom. 11 A′sa did what was right in the eyes of Jehovah,[o] like David his forefather. 12 He expelled the male temple prostitutes from the land[a] and removed all the disgusting idols* that his forefathers had made.[b] 13 He even removed Ma′a·cah[c] his grandmother from her position as queen mother,* because she had made an obscene idol for the worship of the sacred pole.# A′sa cut down her obscene idol[d] and burned it in the Kid′ron Valley.[e] 14 But the high places were not removed.[f] Nevertheless, A′sa's heart was complete with* Jehovah all his life.# 15 And he brought the things that he and his father had made holy into the house of Jehovah —silver, gold, and various utensils.[g]

16 There was constant warfare between A′sa and Ba′a·sha[h] the king of Israel. 17 So King Ba′a·sha of Israel came up against Judah and began to build up* Ra′mah[i] to prevent anyone from going out or coming in to# King A′sa of Judah.[j] 18 At that A′sa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasuries of the house of Jehovah and the treasuries of the house* of the king and handed them over to his servants. King A′sa then sent them to Ben·ha′dad the son of Tab·rim′mon the son of He′zi·on, the king of Syria,[k] who was dwelling in Damascus, saying: 19 "There is a treaty* between me and you and between my father and your father. I am sending you a gift of silver and gold. Come, break your treaty* with King Ba′a·sha of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me." 20 Ben-ha′dad listened to King A′sa and sent the chiefs of his armies against the cities of Israel, and they struck down I′jon,[a] Dan,[b] A′bel-beth-ma′a·cah, all Chin′ne·reth, and all the land of Naph′ta·li. 21 When Ba′a·sha heard of it, he immediately quit building* Ra′mah and continued dwelling in Tir′zah.[c] 22 King A′sa then summoned all Judah—no one was exempt—and they carried off the stones and timbers of Ra′mah that Ba′a·sha had been building with, and with them King A′sa built up* Ge′ba[d] in Benjamin, and Miz′pah.[e]

23 As for all the rest of the history of A′sa, all his mightiness and all that he did and the cities that he built,* is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Judah? But in his old age he suffered from a disease in his feet.[f] 24 Then A′sa was laid to rest with his forefathers and was buried with them in the City of David his forefather; and his son Je·hosh′a·phat[g] became king in his place.

25 Na′dab[h] the son of Jer·o·bo′am became king over Israel in the second year of King A′sa of Judah, and he reigned over Israel for two years. 26 He kept doing what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah and walked in the way of his father[i] and in his sin that he caused Israel to commit.[j] 27 Ba′a·sha the son of A·hi′jah of the house of Is′sa·char conspired against him, and Ba′a·sha struck him down at Gib′be·thon,[k] which belonged to the Phi·lis′tines, while Na′dab and all Israel were besieging Gib′be·thon. 28 So Ba′a·sha put him to death in the third year of King A′sa of Judah and became king in his place. 29 And as soon as he became king, he struck down all the house of Jer·o·bo′am. He did not let remain anyone breathing who belonged to Jer·o·bo′am; he had them annihilated according to Jehovah's word that he had spoken through his servant A·hi′jah the Shi′lo·nite.[a] 30 This was because of the sins that Jer·o·bo′am had committed and had caused Israel to commit and because he had greatly offended Jehovah the God of Israel. 31 As for the rest of the history of Na′dab, all that he did, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Israel? 32 And there was constant warfare between A′sa and King Ba′a·sha of Israel.[b]

33 In the third year of King A′sa of Judah, Ba′a·sha the son of A·hi′jah became king in Tir′zah over all Israel and reigned for 24 years.[c] 34 But he kept doing what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah,[d] and he walked in the way of Jer·o·bo′am and in his sin that he caused Israel to commit.[e]

16 The word of Jehovah against Ba′a·sha then came to Je′hu[f] the son of Ha·na′ni,[g] saying: 2 "I raised you up out of the dust and made you leader over my people Israel,[h] but you kept walking in the way of Jer·o·bo′am and caused my people Israel to sin so that they offended me with their sins.[i] 3 So I am making a clean sweep of Ba′a·sha and his house, and I will make his house like the house of Jer·o·bo′am[j] the son of Ne′bat. 4 Anyone belonging to Ba′a·sha who dies in the city the dogs will eat; and anyone belonging to him who dies in the field the birds of the heavens will eat."

in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Israel? 6 Then Ba′a·sha was laid to rest with his forefathers and was buried in Tir′zah;[a] and E′lah his son became king in his place. 7 Also through the prophet Je′hu the son of Ha·na′ni, Jehovah's word came against Ba′a·sha and his house, both because of all the badness that he committed in the eyes of Jehovah by offending him with the work of his hands, becoming like the house of Jer·o·bo′am, and also because of his striking him* down.[b]

8 In the 26th year of King A′sa of Judah, E′lah the son of Ba′a·sha became king over Israel in Tir′zah, and he reigned for two years. 9 His servant Zim′ri, the chief of half of his chariot forces, conspired against him while he was in Tir′zah drinking himself drunk at the house of Ar′za, who was over the household in Tir′zah. 10 Zim′ri came in and struck him down[c] and put him to death in the 27th year of King A′sa of Judah, and he became king in his place. 11 When he became king, as soon as he sat down on his throne, he struck down all the house of Ba′a·sha. 14 As for the rest of the history of E′lah, all that he did, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Israel?

15 In the 27th year of King A′sa of Judah, Zim′ri became king for seven days in Tir′zah while the troops were camped against Gib′be·thon,[a] which belonged to the Philis′tines. 16 In time the troops who were encamped heard it being said: "Zim′ri has conspired and has also struck down the king." So all Israel made Om′ri,[b] the chief of the army, king over Israel on that day in the camp. 17 Om′ri and all Israel with him went up from Gib′be·thon and laid siege to Tir′zah. 18 When Zim′ri saw that the city had been captured, he went into the fortified tower of the king's house* and burned the house down over himself, and he died.[c] 19 This was for his own sins that he had committed by doing what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah by walking in the way of Jer·o·bo′am and for the sin he had caused Israel to commit.[d] 20 As for the rest of the history of Zim′ri and his conspiracy, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Israel?

21 It was then that the people of Israel were divided into two factions. One part of the people became followers of Tib′ni the son of Gi′nath, wanting to make him king, and the other part followed Om′ri. 22 But the people who were following Om′ri prevailed over the people following Tib′ni the son of Gi′nath. So Tib′ni died, and Om′ri became king.

23 In the 31st year of King A′sa of Judah, Om′ri became king over Israel, and he reigned for 12 years. In Tir′zah he reigned for six years. 24 He bought the mountain of Sa·mar′·i·a from She′mer for two talents* of silver, and he built a city on the mountain. He named the city that he built Sa·mar′i·a,#[a] after She′mer the owner△ of the mountain. 25 Om′ri kept doing what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah, and he was worse than all who were prior to him.[b] 26 He walked in all the ways of Jer·o·bo′am the son of Ne′bat and in the sin he had caused Israel to commit by offending Jehovah the God of Israel with their worthless idols.[c] 27 As for the rest of the history of Om′ri, what he did and his mighty exploits, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Israel? 28 Then Om′ri was laid to rest with his forefathers and was buried in Sa·mar′i·a; and his son A′hab[d] became king in his place.

29 A′hab the son of Om′ri became king over Israel in the 38th year of King A′sa of Judah, and A′hab the son of Om′ri reigned over Israel in Sa·mar′i·a[e] for 22 years. 30 A′hab the son of Om′ri was worse in the eyes of Jehovah than all those who were prior to him.[f] 31 As if it were a trivial thing for him to walk in the sins of Jer·o·bo′am[g] the son of Ne′bat, he also took as wife Jez′e·bel[h] the daughter of Eth·ba′al, the king of the Si·do′·ni·ans,[i] and began to serve Ba′·al[j] and to bow down to him. 32 Further, he set up an altar to Ba′al at the house* of Ba′al[k] that he built in Sa·mar′i·a. 33 A′hab also made the sacred pole.*[l] A′hab did more to offend Jehovah the God of Israel than all the kings of Israel prior to him.

34 In his days, Hi′el the Beth′·el·ite rebuilt Jer′i·cho. At the cost of A·bi′ram his firstborn he laid its foundation, and at the cost of Se′gub his youngest he put up its doors, according to the word of Jehovah spoken through Joshua the son of Nun.[a]

17 Now E·li′jah*[b] the Tish′·bite, an inhabitant of Gil′·e·ad,[c] said to A′hab: "As surely as Jehovah the God of Israel whom I serve# is living, during these years there will be no dew or rain except by my word!"[d]

2 The word of Jehovah came to him, saying: 3 "Leave here, and turn eastward and hide at the Valley of Che′rith,* east of the Jordan. 4 You should drink from the stream, and I will command the ravens to supply you food there."[e] 5 He immediately went and did according to the word of Jehovah; he went and stayed by the Valley of Che′rith,* east of the Jordan. 6 And the ravens were bringing him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening, and he drank from the stream.[f] 7 But after some days, the stream ran dry,[g] because there was no rain in the land.

8 The word of Jehovah then came to him: 9 "Rise up, go to Zar′e·phath, which belongs to Si′don, and stay there. Look! I will command a widow there to supply you with food."[h] 10 So he rose up and went to Zar′e·phath. When he came to the entrance of the city, there was a widow gathering pieces of wood. So he called to her and said: "Please, bring me a little water in a cup so that I may drink."[i] 11 As she went to get it, he called to her: "Please, bring me a piece of bread in your hand."

12 At this she said: "As surely as Jehovah your God is living, I have no bread, only a handful of flour in the large jar and a little oil in the small jar.[a] Now I am gathering a few pieces of wood, and I will go in and make something for me and my son. After we have eaten, we will die."

13 Then E·li′jah said to her: "Do not be afraid. Go in and do as you said. But first make me a small round loaf of bread with what is there, and bring it out to me. Then you can make something afterward for you and your son. 14 For this is what Jehovah the God of Israel says: 'The large jar of flour will not run out, and the small jar of oil will not run dry until the day Jehovah makes it rain on the surface of the ground.'"[b] 15 So she went and did as E·li′jah said, and she together with him and her household ate for many days.[c] 16 The large jar of flour did not run out, and the small jar of oil did not run dry, according to Jehovah's word that he had spoken through E·li′jah.

17 After these things, the son of the woman who owned the house fell sick, and his sickness became so severe that he stopped breathing.[d] 18 At this she said to E·li′jah: "What do you have against me,* O man of the true God? Have you come to remind me of my guilt and to put my son to death?"[e] 19 But he said to her: "Give me your son." Then he took him from her arms and carried him up to the roof chamber, where he was staying, and he laid him on his own bed.[f] 20 He called out to Jehovah: "O Jehovah my God,[g] are you also bringing harm to the widow with whom I am staying by putting her son to death?" 21 Then he stretched himself out over the child three times and called out to Jehovah: "O Jehovah my God, please, let this child's life* come back into him." 22 Jehovah listened to E·li′jah's request,[a] and the life* of the child came back into him, and he revived.#[b] 23 E·li′jah took the child and brought him down from the roof chamber into the house and gave him to his mother; and E·li′jah said: "See, your son is alive."[c] 24 At that the woman said to E·li′jah: "Now I know that you truly are a man of God[d] and that Jehovah's word in your mouth is truth."

18 After some time, in the third year,[e] Jehovah's word came to E·li′jah, saying: "Go, present yourself to A′hab, and I will send rain on the surface of the ground."[f] 2 So E·li′jah went to present himself to A′hab, while the famine was severe[g] in Sa·mar′i·a.

3 Meanwhile, A′hab called O·ba·di′ah, who was over the household. (Now O·ba·di′ah greatly feared Jehovah, 4 and when Jez′e·bel[h] was doing away with* Jehovah's prophets, O·ba·di′ah took 100 prophets and hid them 50 to a cave, and he supplied them with bread and water.) 5 A′hab then said to O·ba·di′ah: "Go through the land to all the springs of water and to all the valleys.* Perhaps we can find enough grass to keep the horses and mules alive and not have all our animals die." 6 So they divided between themselves the land they were going to pass through. A′hab went alone by one way, and O·ba·di′ah went alone by another way.

7 As O·ba·di′ah was on his way, E·li′jah was there to meet him. At once he recognized him and fell facedown and said: "Is this you, my lord E·li′jah?"[a] 8 He replied to him: "It is I. Go and tell your lord: 'E·li′jah is here.'" 9 But he said: "What sin have I committed that you should hand your servant over to A′hab to put me to death? 10 As surely as Jehovah your God is living, there is not a nation or a kingdom where my lord has not sent to look for you. After they said, 'He is not here,' he made the kingdom and the nation swear that they could not find you.[b] 11 Now you are saying, 'Go and tell your lord: "E·li′jah is here."' 12 When I depart from you, the spirit of Jehovah will carry you away[c] to a place I will not know, and when I tell A′hab and he does not find you, he will surely kill me. Yet, your servant has feared Jehovah from his youth. 13 Has my lord not been told what I did when Jez′e·bel was killing the prophets of Jehovah, how I hid 100 of the prophets of Jehovah by groups of 50 in a cave and kept supplying them bread and water?[d] 14 But now you are saying, 'Go and tell your lord: "E·li′jah is here."' He will certainly kill me." 15 However, E·li′jah said: "As surely as Jehovah of armies whom I serve* is living, today I will present myself to him."

16 So O·ba·di′ah went off to meet A′hab and told him, and A′hab went to meet E·li′jah.

17 As soon as A′hab saw E·li′jah, he said to him: "Is this you, the one bringing great trouble* on Israel?"

18 To this he said: "I have not brought trouble on Israel, but you and the house of your father have, by abandoning the commandments of Jehovah and by following the Ba′als.[a] 19 And now summon all Israel to me at Mount Car′mel,[b] as well as the 450 prophets of Ba′al and the 400 prophets of the sacred pole,*[c] who are eating at the table of Jez′e·bel." 20 So A′hab sent word among all the people of Israel and collected the prophets together at Mount Car′mel.

21 Then E·li′jah approached all the people and said: "How long will you be limping between two different opinions?*[d] If Jehovah is the true God, follow him;[e] but if Ba′al is, follow him!" But the people did not say a word in answer to him. 22 E·li′jah then said to the people: "I am the only prophet of Jehovah left,[f] while the prophets of Ba′al are 450 men. 23 Let them give us two young bulls, and let them choose one young bull and cut it into pieces and put it on the wood, but they should not put fire to it. I will prepare the other young bull, and I will place it on the wood, but I will not put fire to it. 24 Then you must call on the name of your god,[g] and I will call on the name of Jehovah. The God who answers by fire will show that he is the true God."[h] To this all the people answered: "What you say is good."

25 E·li′jah now said to the prophets of Ba′al: "Choose one young bull and prepare it first, because you are the majority. Then call on the name of your god, but you must not put fire to it." 26 So they took the young bull that was given to them, prepared it, and kept calling on the name of Ba′al from morning until noon, saying: "O Ba′al, answer us!" But there was no voice and no one answering.[i] They kept limping around the altar that they had made. 27 About noon E·li′jah began to mock them and say: "Call out at the top of your voice! After all, he is a god![a] Perhaps he is deep in thought or he has gone to relieve himself.* Or maybe he is asleep and someone needs to wake him up!" 28 They were calling out at the top of their voice and cutting themselves with daggers and lances, according to their custom, until their blood gushed out all over them. 29 Noon was past and they continued in a frenzy* until the time the evening grain offering is presented, but there was no voice and no one answering; no one was paying attention.[b]

30 At length E·li′jah said to all the people: "Approach me." So all the people approached him. Then he repaired the altar of Jehovah that had been torn down.[c] 31 E·li′jah then took 12 stones, corresponding to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom Jehovah's word had come, saying: "Israel will be your name."[d] 32 With the stones he built an altar[e] in the name of Jehovah. Then he made a trench all around the altar, an area large enough to sow with two seah measures* of seed. 33 After that he put the pieces of wood in order, cut the young bull into pieces, and placed it on the wood.[f] He now said: "Fill four large jars with water and pour it on the burnt offering and on the pieces of wood." 34 Then he said: "Do it again." So they did it again. Once more he said: "Do it a third time." So they did it a third time. 35 And the water ran all around the altar, and he also filled the trench with water.

36 About the time when the evening grain offering is presented,[a] E·li′jah the prophet stepped forward and said: "O Jehovah, the God of Abraham,[b] Isaac,[c] and Israel, today let it be known that you are God in Israel and that I am your servant and that it is by your word that I have done all these things.[d] 37 Answer me, O Jehovah! Answer me so that this people may know that you, Jehovah, are the true God and that you are turning their hearts back to you."[e]

38 At that the fire of Jehovah fell from above and consumed the burnt offering,[f] the pieces of wood, the stones, and the dust, and it licked up the water from the trench.[g] 39 When all the people saw it, they immediately fell facedown and said: "Jehovah is the true God! Jehovah is the true God!" 40 Then E·li′jah said to them: "Seize the prophets of Ba′al! Do not let a single one of them escape!" At once they seized them, and E·li′jah brought them down to the stream* of Ki′shon[h] and slaughtered them there.[i]

41 E·li′jah now said to A′hab: "Go up, eat and drink, for there is the sound of a heavy downpour."[j] 42 So A′hab went up to eat and drink, while E·li′jah went up to the top of Car′mel and crouched on the ground, keeping his face between his knees.[k] 43 Then he said to his attendant: "Go up, please, and look toward the sea." So he went up and looked and said: "There is nothing at all." Seven times E·li′jah said, "Go back." 44 The seventh time his attendant said: "Look! There is a small cloud like a man's hand ascending out of the sea." He now said: "Go, say to A′hab, 'Hitch up the chariot! Go down so that the downpour may not detain you!'" 45 Meanwhile, the sky grew dark with clouds, the wind blew, and a heavy downpour fell;[a] and A'hab kept riding and made his way to Jez're·el.[b] 46 But the hand of Jehovah came on E·li'jah, and he wrapped his garment around* his hips and ran ahead of A'hab all the way to Jez're·el.

19 Then A'hab[c] told Jez'e·bel[d] all that E·li'jah had done and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword.[e] 2 At that Jez'e·bel sent a messenger to E·li'jah, saying: "So may the gods do to me and add to it if by this time tomorrow I do not make you like each one* of them!" 3 At that he became afraid, so he got up and ran for his life.[f] He came to Be'er-she'ba,[g] which belongs to Judah,[h] and he left his attendant there. 4 He went a day's journey into the wilderness and came and sat down under a broom tree, and he asked that he# might die. He said: "It is enough! Now, O Jehovah, take my life away,[i] for I am no better than my forefathers."

5 Then he lay down and fell asleep under the broom tree. But suddenly an angel touched him[j] and said to him: "Get up and eat."[k] 6 When he looked, there at his head was a round loaf on heated stones and a jug of water. He ate and drank and lay down again. 7 Later the angel of Jehovah came back a second time and touched him and said: "Get up and eat, for the journey will be too much for you." 8 So he got up and ate and drank, and in the strength of that nourishment he went on for 40 days and 40 nights until he reached Ho'reb, the mountain of the true God.[a]

9 There he entered a cave[b] and spent the night; and look! Jehovah's word came to him, telling him: "What are you doing here, E·li'jah?" 10 To this he said: "I have been absolutely zealous for Jehovah the God of armies;[c] for the people of Israel have forsaken your covenant,[d] your altars they have torn down, and your prophets they have killed with the sword,[e] and I am the only one left. Now they are seeking to take my life* away."[f] 11 But He said: "Go out and stand on the mountain before Jehovah." And look! Jehovah was passing by,[g] and a great and strong wind was splitting mountains and breaking crags before Jehovah,[h] but Jehovah was not in the wind. After the wind, there was an earthquake,[i] but Jehovah was not in the earthquake. 12 After the earthquake, there was a fire,[j] but Jehovah was not in the fire. After the fire, there was a calm, low voice.[k] 13 As soon as E·li'jah heard it, he wrapped his face in his official garment[l] and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then a voice asked him: "What are you doing here, E·li'jah?" 14 To this he said: "I have been absolutely zealous for Jehovah the God of armies; for the people of Israel have forsaken your covenant,[m] your altars they have torn down, and your prophets they have killed with the sword, and I am the only one left. Now they are seeking to take my life* away."[n]

15 Jehovah said to him: "Return, and go to the wilderness of Damascus. When you arrive, anoint Haz'a·el[o] as king over Syria. 16 And you should anoint Je'hu[p] the grandson of Nim'shi as king over Israel, and you

19 So he went from there and found E·li′sha the son of Sha′-phat while he was plowing with 12 pairs of bulls ahead of him, and he was with the 12th pair. So E·li′jah went over to him and threw his official garment[h] on him. 20 At that he left the bulls and ran after E·li′jah and said: "Please, let me kiss my father and my mother. Then I will follow you." He replied to him: "Go, return, for what have I done to stop you?" 21 So he went back and took a pair of bulls and sacrificed them, and he used the plowing gear to boil the meat of the bulls and gave it to the people, and they ate. After that he rose up and followed E·li′jah and began to minister to him.[i]

20 Now King Ben-ha′dad[j] of Syria[k] gathered his whole army together along with 32 other kings and their horses and chariots; he went up and laid siege[l] to Sa·mar′i·a[m] and fought against it. 2 Then he sent messengers to King A′hab[n] of Israel at the city and said to him: "This is what Ben-ha′dad says, 3 'Your silver and your gold are mine, as well as the best of your wives and your sons.'" 4 To this the king of Israel answered: "According to your word, my lord the king, I am yours along with all that belongs to me."[o]

5 The messengers later came back and said: "This is what Ben-ha′dad says, 'I sent this message to you: "Your silver, your gold, your wives, and your sons you will give me." 6 But about this time tomorrow I will send my servants to you, and they will carefully search your house and the houses of your servants, and all your desirable things they will seize and take away.'"

7 At that the king of Israel called all the elders of the land and said: "Take note, please, and see that this man is bent on bringing calamity, for he demanded my wives, my sons, my silver, and my gold, and I did not refuse him." 8 Then all the elders and all the people said to him: "Do not obey, and do not consent." 9 So he said to the messengers of Ben-ha′dad: "Say to my lord the king, 'All that you first demanded of your servant I will do, but this I cannot do.'" With that the messengers went off and brought word back to him.

10 Ben-ha′dad now sent him this message: "So may the gods do to me and add to it if there is enough dust in Sa·mar′i·a to give each of the people following me a handful!" 11 The king of Israel answered: "Tell him, 'The one who puts on his armor should not boast about himself like one who takes it off.'"[a] 12 As soon as he heard this reply, while he and the kings were drinking in their tents,* he said to his servants: "Get ready to attack!" So they got ready to attack the city.

13 But a prophet approached King A′hab[b] of Israel and said: "This is what Jehovah says, 'Have you seen all this large crowd? Here I am giving it into your hand today, and then you will know that I am Jehovah.'"[c] 14 A′hab asked: "By whom?" to which he said: "This is what Jehovah says, 'By the attendants of the princes of the provinces.'"* So he asked: "Who will start the battle?" to which he said: "You!"

15 A'hab then counted the attendants of the princes of the provinces, and they were 232; after that, he counted all the Israelite men, 7,000. 16 They went out at noon while Ben-ha'dad was drinking himself drunk in the tents* along with the 32 kings who were helping him. 17 When the attendants of the princes of the provinces came out first, Ben-ha'dad at once sent messengers. They reported to him: "Men have come out from Sa·mar'i·a." 18 At that he said: "If they have come out for peace, take them alive; or if they have come out for battle, you should still take them alive." 19 But when these came out of the city—the attendants of the princes of the provinces and the armies that were following them— 20 each one struck down his opponent. Then the Syrians fled,[a] and Israel pursued them, but King Ben-ha'dad of Syria escaped on a horse with some of the horsemen. 21 But the king of Israel went out and kept striking down the horses and the chariots, and he inflicted a great defeat* on the Syrians.

22 Later the prophet[b] approached the king of Israel and said to him: "Go, strengthen yourself and consider what you are going to do,[c] for at the start of the next year* the king of Syria will come up against you."[d]

23 Now the servants of the king of Syria said to him: "Their God is a God of mountains. That is why they overpowered us. But if we fight against them on level land, we will overpower them. 24 Also do this: Remove all the kings[a] from their places, and replace them with governors. 25 Then gather* an army equal to the army you lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot. Let us fight against them on level land, and we will surely overpower them." So he listened to their advice and did just that.

26 At the start of the year,* Ben-ha'dad mustered the Syrians and went up to A'phek[b] for battle against Israel. 27 The people of Israel were also mustered and supplied, and they went out to meet them. When the people of Israel camped in front of them, they were like two tiny flocks of goats, while the Syrians filled the whole land.[c] 28 Then the man of the true God approached the king of Israel and said: "This is what Jehovah says, 'Because the Syrians have said: "Jehovah is a God of mountains, and he is not a God of plains," I will give all this large crowd into your hand,[d] and you will certainly know that I am Jehovah.'"[e]

29 They remained encamped opposite each other for seven days, and on the seventh day the battle began. The people of Israel struck down 100,000 Syrian foot soldiers in one day. 30 And the rest fled to A'phek,[f] into the city. But the wall fell down on 27,000 of the men who were left. Ben-ha'dad also fled and came into the city, and he hid in an inner room.

31 So his servants said to him: "Look, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings.* Please, let us wear sackcloth on our hips and put ropes on our heads and go out to the king of Israel. Perhaps he will spare your life."[a] 32 So they wore sackcloth around their hips and ropes on their heads and came in to the king of Israel and said: "Your servant Ben-ha'dad says, 'Please, let me live.'" He replied: "Is he still alive? He is my brother." 33 The men took it as an omen and quickly took him at his word, so they said: "Ben-ha'dad is your brother." At that he said: "Go and get him." Then Ben-ha'dad went out to him, and he had him get up into the chariot.

34 Ben-ha'dad now said to him: "The cities that my father took from your father I will return, and you may establish markets* for yourself in Damascus, just as my father did in Sa·mar'i·a."

A'hab replied: "On the basis of this agreement,# I will let you go."

With that he made an agreement with him and let him go.

35 By the word of Jehovah, one of the sons of the prophets*[b] said to his companion: "Strike me, please." But the man refused to strike him. 36 So he said to him: "Because you did not listen to the voice of Jehovah, as soon as you leave me, a lion will kill you."* After he left him, a lion came upon him and killed him.

37 He found another man and said: "Strike me, please." So the man struck him and wounded him.

38 Then the prophet went and waited for the king by the road, disguising himself with a bandage over his eyes. 39 As the king was passing by, he cried out to the king: "Your servant went into the thick of the battle, and there was a man coming out who brought a man to me and said, 'Guard this man. If he is found missing, your life will have to take the place of his life,[a] or else you will pay a talent# of silver.' 40 And while your servant was busy here and there, suddenly the man was gone." The king of Israel said to him: "So your own judgment will be; you have decided it yourself." 41 Then he quickly removed the bandage from his eyes, and the king of Israel recognized that he was one of the prophets.[b] 42 He said to him: "This is what Jehovah says, 'Because you have let the man whom I said should be destroyed escape from your hand,[c] your life must take the place of his life,[d] and your people the place of his people.'"[e] 43 At that the king of Israel went home to Sa·mar'i·a,[f] sullen and dejected.

21 After these things, an incident took place concerning a vineyard that belonged to Na'both the Jez're·el·ite; it was in Jez're·el,[g] next to the palace of A'hab the king of Sa·mar'i·a. 2 A'hab said to Na'both: "Give me your vineyard for me to use as a vegetable garden, for it is near my house. Then I will give you a better vineyard to replace it. Or if you prefer, I will give you its value in money." 3 But Na'both said to A'hab: "It is unthinkable, from Jehovah's standpoint, for me to give you the inheritance of my forefathers."[h] 4 So A'hab came into his house, sullen and dejected over the answer that Na'both the Jez're·elite had given him when he said: "I will not give you the inheritance of my forefathers." Then he lay down on his bed, kept his face turned away, and refused to eat.

5 His wife Jez′e·bel[a] came in to him and asked him: "Why are you* so sad that you refuse to eat?" 6 He replied to her: "Because I said to Na′both the Jez′re·el·ite, 'Give me your vineyard for money. Or if you prefer, let me give you another vineyard to replace it.' But he said, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'" 7 His wife Jez′e·bel said to him: "Are you not the one ruling as king over Israel? Get up, eat something, and let your heart be cheerful. I will give you the vineyard of Na′both the Jez′re·el·ite."[b] 8 So she wrote letters in A′hab's name and sealed them with his seal[c] and sent the letters to the elders[d] and the nobles who lived in Na′both's city. 9 She wrote in the letters: "Proclaim a fast, and have Na′both sit at the head of the people. 10 And have two good-for-nothing men sit in front of him and testify against him,[e] saying, 'You have cursed God and the king!'[f] Then bring him out and stone him to death."[g]

11 So the men of his city, the elders and the nobles who lived in his city, did just as was written in the letters that Jez′e·bel sent to them. 12 They proclaimed a fast and had Na′both sit at the head of the people. 13 Then two of the good-for-nothing men came in and sat down in front of him and began to testify against Na′both in front of the people, saying: "Na′both has cursed God and the king!"[h] After that they brought him to the outskirts of the city and stoned him to death.[i] 14 They now sent word to Jez′e·bel, saying: "Na′both has been stoned to death."[a]

15 As soon as Jez′e·bel heard that Na′both had been stoned to death, she said to A′hab: "Get up, take possession of the vineyard of Na′both the Jez′re·el·ite,[b] which he refused to give you for money, for Na′both is no longer alive. He is dead." 16 As soon as A′hab heard that Na′both was dead, A′hab got up to go down to the vineyard of Na′both the Jez′re·el·ite to take possession of it.

17 But Jehovah's word came to E·li′jah[c] the Tish′bite, saying: 18 "Get up, go down to meet A′hab the king of Israel, who is in Sa·mar′i·a.[d] There he is in the vineyard of Na′both, where he has gone to take possession of it. 19 You must tell him, 'This is what Jehovah says: "Have you murdered a man[e] and also taken his property?"'* [f] Then say to him, 'This is what Jehovah says: "In the place where the dogs licked up the blood of Na′both, the dogs will lick up your own blood."'"[g]

20 A′hab said to E·li′jah: "So you have found me, O my enemy!"[h] He replied: "I have found you. 'Because you are determined* to do what is bad in the eyes of Jehovah,[i] 21 here I am bringing calamity upon you, and I will make a clean sweep after you and will annihilate from A′hab every male,* [j] including the helpless and weak in Israel.[k] 22 And I will make your house like the house of Jer·o·bo′am[l] the son of Ne′bat and like the house of Ba′a·sha[m] the son of A·hi′jah, for you have provoked my anger and have caused Israel to sin.' 23 Also concerning Jez′e·bel, Jehovah has said: 'The dogs will eat up Jez'e·bel in the plot of land of Jez're·el.[a] 24 Anyone belonging to A'hab who dies in the city the dogs will eat up, and anyone who dies in the field the birds of the heavens will eat up.[b] 25 Indeed, there has never been anyone like A'hab,[c] who was so determined* to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah, egged on by his wife Jez'e·bel.[d] 26 He acted in the most detestable way by going after the disgusting idols,* just as all the Am'or·ites had done, whom Jehovah drove out from before the Israelites.'"[e]

27 As soon as A'hab heard these words, he ripped his garments apart and put sackcloth on his body; and he went on a fast and kept lying down in sackcloth and walking despondently. 28 Jehovah's word then came to E·li'jah the Tish'bite: 29 "Have you seen how A'hab has humbled himself on my account?[f] Because he has humbled himself before me, I will not bring the calamity during his lifetime. I will bring the calamity upon his house in the days of his son."[g]

22 For three years there was no war between Syria and Israel. 2 In the third year King Je·hosh'a·phat[h] of Judah went down to the king of Israel.[i] 3 Then the king of Israel said to his servants: "Do you know that Ra'moth-gil'e·ad[j] belongs to us? And yet we are hesitating to take it back from the king of Syria." 4 He then said to Je·hosh'a·phat: "Will you go with me to fight at Ra'moth-gil'e·ad?" Jehosh'a·phat replied to the king of Israel: "I am the same as you. My people are the same as your people. My horses are the same as your horses."[a]

5 But Je·hosh'a·phat said to the king of Israel: "First inquire,[b] please, for the word of Jehovah."[c] 6 So the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about 400 men, and said to them: "Should I go to war against Ra'moth-gil'e·ad, or should I refrain?" They said: "Go up, and Jehovah will give it into the king's hand."

7 Je·hosh'a·phat then said: "Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah? Let us also inquire through him."[d] 8 At that the king of Israel said to Je·hosh'a·phat: "There is still one more man through whom we can inquire of Jehovah;[e] but I hate him,[f] for he never prophesies good things concerning me, only bad.[g] He is Mi·cai'ah the son of Im'lah." However, Je·hosh'a·phat said: "The king should not say such a thing."

9 So the king of Israel called a court official and said: "Bring Mi·cai'ah the son of Im'lah quickly."[h] 10 Now the king of Israel and Je·hosh'a·phat the king of Judah were each sitting on his throne, dressed in royal attire, at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Sa·mar'i·a, and all the prophets were prophesying before them.[i] 11 Then Zed·e·ki'ah the son of Che·na'anah made for himself iron horns and said: "This is what Jehovah says, 'With these you will gore* the Syrians until you exterminate them.'" 12 All the other prophets were prophesying the same way, saying: "Go up to Ra'moth-gil'e·ad and you will be successful; Jehovah will give it into the king's hand."

13 So the messenger who went to call Mi·cai'ah said to him: "Look! The words of the prophets are unanimously favorable to the king. Let your word, please, become like their words, and speak favorably."[a] 14 But Mi·cai′ah said: "As surely as Jehovah is living, whatever Jehovah says to me is what I will speak." 15 Then he came in to the king, and the king asked him: "Mi·cai′ah, should we go to war against Ra′moth-gil′e·ad, or should we refrain?" At once he replied: "Go up and you will be successful; Jehovah will give it into the king's hand." 16 At that the king said to him: "How many times must I put you under oath not to speak to me anything but the truth in the name of Jehovah?" 17 So he said: "I see all the Israelites scattered on the mountains,[b] like sheep that have no shepherd. Jehovah said: 'These have no master. Let each one go back to his house in peace.'"

18 Then the king of Israel said to Je·hosh′a·phat: "Did I not tell you, 'He will not prophesy good things concerning me, only bad'?"[c]

19 Mi·cai′ah then said: "Therefore, hear the word of Jehovah: I saw Jehovah sitting on his throne[d] and all the army of the heavens standing by him, to his right and to his left.[e] 20 Jehovah then said, 'Who will fool A′hab, so that he will go up and fall at Ra′moth-gil′e·ad?' And one was saying one thing while another said something else. 21 Then a spirit*[f] came forward and stood before Jehovah and said, 'I will fool him.' Jehovah asked him, 'How will you do it?' 22 He replied, 'I will go out and become a deceptive spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.'[g] So he said, 'You will fool him, and what is more, you will be successful. Go out and do that.' 23 And now Jehovah has put a deceptive spirit in the mouth of all these prophets of yours,[a] but Jehovah has declared calamity for you."[b]

24 Zed·e·ki′ah the son of Chena′a·nah now approached and struck Mi·cai′ah on the cheek and said: "Which way did the spirit of Jehovah pass from me to speak with you?"[c] 25 Mi·cai′ah replied: "Look! You will see which way on the day when you will enter the innermost room to hide." 26 Then the king of Israel said: "Take Mi·cai′ah and turn him over to A′mon the chief of the city and to Jo′ash the king's son. 27 Tell them, 'This is what the king says: "Put this fellow in the prison[d] and feed him with a reduced allowance of bread and water until I return in peace."'" 28 But Mi·cai′ah said: "If you do return in peace, Jehovah has not spoken with me."[e] Then he added: "Take note, all you peoples."

29 So the king of Israel and Je·hosh′a·phat the king of Judah went up to Ra′moth-gil′e·ad.[f] 30 The king of Israel now said to Je·hosh′a·phat: "I will disguise myself and will go into the battle, but you should put on your royal attire." So the king of Israel disguised himself[g] and entered the battle. 31 Now the king of Syria had ordered his 32 chariot commanders:[h] "Do not fight with anyone, small or great, except the king of Israel." 32 And as soon as the chariot commanders saw Je·hosh′a·phat, they said to themselves: "Surely it is the king of Israel." So they turned to fight against him; and Je·hosh′a·phat began to cry for help. 33 When the chariot commanders saw that it was not the king of Israel, they immediately turned back from following him.

34 But one man shot his bow at random,* and he struck the king of Israel between the joints of his coat of mail. So the king said to his charioteer: "Turn around and take me out of the battle,# for I have been badly wounded."[a] 35 The fighting raged throughout that day, and the king had to be propped up in the chariot, facing the Syrians. The blood of the wound poured out into the interior of the war chariot, and he died in the evening.[b] 36 Around sunset a cry passed through the camp, saying: "Everyone to his city! Everyone to his land!"[c] 37 Thus the king died, and he was brought to Sa·mar′i·a; they buried the king in Sa·mar′i·a. 38 When they washed off the war chariot by the pool of Sa·mar′i·a, the dogs licked up his blood and the prostitutes bathed there,* according to the word that Jehovah had spoken.[d]

39 As for the rest of the history of A′hab, all that he did and the house* of ivory[e] that he built and all the cities that he built, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Israel? 40 Then A′hab was laid to rest with his forefathers;[f] and his son A·ha·zi′ah[g] became king in his place.

41 Je·hosh′a·phat[h] the son of A′sa had become king over Judah in the fourth year of King A′hab of Israel. 42 Jehosh′a·phat was 35 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 25 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was A·zu′bah the daughter of Shil′hi. 43 He kept walking in all the way of A′sa[i] his father. He did not deviate from it, and he did what was right in Jehovah's eyes.[a] However, the high places were not removed, and the people were still sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places.[b] 44 Je·hosh′a·phat kept peaceful relations with the king of Israel.[c] 45 As for the rest of the history of Je·hosh′a·phat, his mighty exploits and how he waged war, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Judah? 46 He also cleared out of the land the rest of the male temple prostitutes[d] who had been left over in the days of A′sa his father.[e]

47 Then there was no king in E′dom;[f] a deputy was acting as king.[g]

48 Je·hosh′a·phat also made Tar′shish ships* to go to O′phir for gold,[h] but they did not go because the ships were wrecked at E′zi·on-ge′ber.[i] 49 It was then that A·ha·zi′ah the son of A′hab said to Je·hosh′a·phat: "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships," but Je·hosh′a·phat did not consent.

50 Then Je·hosh′a·phat was laid to rest with his forefathers[j] and was buried with his forefathers in the City of David his forefather; and his son Je·ho′ram[k] became king in his place.

51 A·ha·zi′ah[l] the son of A′hab became king over Israel in Sa·mar′i·a in the 17th year of King Je·hosh′a·phat of Judah, and he reigned over Israel for two years. 52 And he kept doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes and walking in the way of his father[m] and his mother[n] and in the way of Jer·o·bo′am the son of Ne′bat, who had caused Israel to sin.[o] 53 He continued serving Ba′al[p] and bowing down to him and kept offending Jehovah the God of Israel,[q] just as his father had done.

1 After the death of A′hab, Mo′ab[a] revolted against Israel.

2 It was then that A·ha·zi′ah fell down through the grating in his roof chamber in Sa·mar′i·a and was injured. So he sent messengers and said to them: "Go, inquire of Ba′al-ze′bub the god of Ek′ron[b] to find out whether I will recover from this injury."[c] 3 But the angel of Jehovah said to E·li′jah*[d] the Tish′bite: "Rise up, go to meet the messengers of the king of Sa·mar′i·a and say to them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to inquire of Ba′al-ze′bub the god of Ek′ron?[e] 4 Therefore this is what Jehovah says: "You will not leave the bed on which you are lying, for you will certainly die."'" With that E·li′jah went off.

5 When the messengers returned to him, he immediately said to them: "Why have you come back?" 6 They replied to him: "There was a man who came up to meet us, and he said to us, 'Go, return to the king who sent you and tell him, "This is what Jehovah says: 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending to inquire of Ba′al-ze′bub the god of Ek′ron? Therefore, you will not leave the bed on which you are lying, for you will certainly die.'"'"[a] 7 At this he asked them: "What did the man look like who came up to meet you and spoke these words to you?" 8 So they said to him: "He was a man with a garment of hair[b] and a leather belt around his waist."[c] Immediately he said: "It was E·li′jah the Tish′bite."

9 The king then sent to him a chief of 50 with his 50 men. When he went up to him, he was sitting on the top of the mountain. He said to him: "Man of the true God,[d] the king says, 'Come down.'" 10 But E·li′jah answered the chief of the 50: "Well, if I am a man of God, let fire come down from the heavens[e] and consume you and your 50 men." And fire came down from the heavens and consumed him and his 50 men.

11 So the king sent again to him another chief of 50 with his 50 men. He went and said to him: "Man of the true God, this is what the king says, 'Come down quickly.'" 12 But E·li′jah answered them: "If I am a man of the true God, let fire come down from the heavens and consume you and your 50 men." And fire of God came down from the heavens and consumed him and his 50 men.

13 Then the king sent again a third chief of 50 and his 50 men. But the third chief of 50 went up and bowed down on his knees in front of E·li′jah and began to beg for favor and say to him: "Man of the true God, please, let my life and the lives of* these 50 servants of yours be precious in your eyes. 14 Fire has already come down from the heavens and consumed the two former chiefs of 50 and their groups of 50, but now let my life* be precious in your eyes."

15 At that the angel of Jehovah told E·li′jah: "Go down with him. Do not be afraid of him." So he rose and went down with him to the king. 16 E·li′jah then said to the king, "This is what Jehovah says: 'You sent messengers to inquire of Ba′al-ze′bub the god of Ek′ron.[a] Is it because there is no God in Israel?[b] Why did you not inquire of his word? Therefore, you will not leave the bed on which you are lying, for you will certainly die.'" 17 So he died, according to the word of Jehovah that E·li′jah had spoken; and because he did not have a son, Je·ho′ram*[c] became king in his place, in the second year of Je·ho′ram[d] the son of Je·hosh′a·phat the king of Judah.

18 As for the rest of the history of A·ha·zi′ah,[e] what he did, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Israel?

2 When Jehovah was about to take E·li′jah[a] up to the heavens* in a windstorm,[b] E·li′jah and E·li′sha[c] went out from Gil′gal.[d] 2 E·li′jah said to E·li′sha: "Stay here, please, because Jehovah has sent me on to Beth′el." But E·li′sha said: "As surely as Jehovah is living and as you are* living, I will not leave you." So they went down to Beth′el.[e] 3 Then the sons of the prophets* in Beth′el came out to E·li′sha and said to him: "Do you know that today Jehovah is taking your master away from headship over you?"[f] At this he said: "I already know it. Be silent."

4 E·li′jah now said to him: "E·li′sha, stay here, please, because Jehovah has sent me on to Jer′i·cho."[g] But he said: "As surely as Jehovah is living and as you are* living, I will not leave you." So they came to Jer′i·cho. 5 Then the sons of the prophets who were in Jer′i·cho approached E·li′sha and said to him: "Do you know that today Jehovah is taking your master away from headship over you?" At this he said: "I already know it. Be silent."

6 E·li′jah now said to him: "Stay here, please, because Jehovah has sent me on to the Jordan." But he said: "As surely as Jehovah is living and as you are* living, I will not leave you." So both of them went on. 7 And 50 of the sons of the prophets also went and stood watching from a distance while the two of them stood by the Jordan. 8 Then E·li′jah took his official garment[h] and rolled it up and struck the waters, and they were divided to the left and to the right, so that both of them went across on the dry ground.[a]

9 As soon as they had gone across, E·li′jah said to E·li′sha: "Ask what you want me to do for you before I am taken from you." So E·li′sha said: "Please, may I receive a double portion*[b] of your spirit?"[c] 10 He replied: "You have asked a difficult thing. If you see me when I am taken from you, it will happen for you that way; but if you do not, it will not happen."

11 As they were walking along, speaking as they walked, suddenly a fiery chariot and fiery horses[d] made a separation between the two of them, and E·li′jah ascended to the heavens* in the windstorm.[e] 12 While E·li′sha was watching, he was crying out: "My father, my father! The chariot of Israel and his horsemen!"[f] When he could no longer see him, he took hold of his own garments and ripped them into two pieces.[g] 13 After that he picked up the official garment[h] of E·li′jah that had fallen off him and went back and stood by the bank of the Jordan. 14 Then he took the official garment of E·li′jah that had fallen off him and struck the waters and said: "Where is Jehovah, the God of E·li′jah?" When he struck the waters, they were divided to the left and to the right, so that E·li′sha went across.[i]

15 When the sons of the prophets at Jer′i·cho saw him from a distance, they said: "The spirit of E·li′jah has settled down on E·li′sha."[j] So they went to meet him and bowed down to the ground before him. 16 They said to him: "Here are 50 capable men with your servants. Let them go, please, to look for your master. Perhaps the spirit* of Jehovah has lifted him up and then thrown him on one of the mountains or in one of the valleys."[a] But he said: "Do not send them." 17 However, they kept urging him until he was embarrassed, so he said: "Send them." They sent the 50 men, who kept looking for three days but did not find him. 18 When they returned to him, he was staying in Jer′i·cho.[b] Then he said to them: "Did I not tell you not to go?"

19 In time the men of the city said to E·li′sha: "My master can see that the city is well-situated;[c] but the water is bad, and the land is barren."* 20 At that he said: "Bring me a small new bowl and put salt in it." So they brought it to him. 21 Then he went out to the source of the water and threw salt into it[d] and said: "This is what Jehovah says, 'I have healed this water. No more will it cause death or barrenness.'"* 22 And the water has been healed down to this day, according to the word spoken by E·li′sha.

23 He went up from there to Beth′el. As he was going along the way, some young boys came out from the city and began to jeer at him,[e] and they kept saying to him: "Go up, you baldhead! Go up, you baldhead!" 24 Finally he turned around and looked at them and cursed them in the name of Jehovah. Then two she-bears[f] came out of the forest and tore 42 of the children to pieces.[g] 25 He kept going from there to Mount Car′mel,[h] and from there he returned to Sa·mar′i·a.

3 Je·ho′ram[i] the son of A′hab became king over Israel in Sa·mar′i·a in the 18th year of King Je·hosh′a·phat of Judah, and he reigned for 12 years. 2 He kept doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, but not to the extent of his father or his mother, for he removed the sacred pillar of Ba'al that his father had made.[a] 3 However, he clung to the sins that Jer·o·bo'am the son of Ne'bat had caused Israel to commit.[b] He did not depart from them.

4 Now Me'sha the king of Mo'ab was a sheep raiser, and he used to pay 100,000 lambs and 100,000 unshorn rams as tribute to the king of Israel. 5 As soon as A'hab died,[c] the king of Mo'ab revolted against the king of Israel.[d] 6 So King Je·ho'ram went out on that day from Sa·mar'i·a and mustered all Israel. 7 He also sent a message to King Jehosh'a·phat of Judah, saying: "The king of Mo'ab has revolted against me. Will you go with me to war against Mo'ab?" To this he said: "I will go.[e] I am the same as you. My people are the same as your people. My horses are the same as your horses."[f] 8 Then he asked: "By which way should we go up?" He replied: "By the way of the wilderness of E'dom."

9 The king of Israel then set out with the king of Judah and the king of E'dom.[g] After they journeyed roundabout for seven days, there was no water for the camp and for the domestic animals that were following behind them. 10 The king of Israel said: "How terrible! Jehovah has called these three kings, only to give them into the hand of Mo'ab!" 11 At that Je·hosh'a·phat said: "Is there no prophet of Jehovah here through whom we may inquire of Jehovah?"[h] So one of the servants of the king of Israel answered: "There is E·li'sha[i] the son of Sha'phat, who used to pour out water on the hands of E·li'jah."*[j] 12 Then Jehosh'a·phat said: "The word of Jehovah is with him." So the king of Israel and Je·hosh'a·phat and the king of E'dom went down to him.

13 E·li'sha said to the king of Israel: "What do I have to do with you?[a] Go to the prophets of your father and to the prophets of your mother."[b] But the king of Israel said to him: "No, for it is Jehovah who has called these three kings to give them into the hand of Mo'ab." 14 To this E·li'sha said: "As surely as Jehovah of armies whom I serve is living, if I did not have regard for King Je·hosh'a·phat[c] of Judah, I would not look at you or take notice of you.[d] 15 Now bring me a harpist."[e] As soon as the harpist started playing, the hand of Jehovah came on him.[f] 16 He said, "This is what Jehovah says: 'Dig trench after trench in this valley, 17 for this is what Jehovah says: "You will not see wind, and you will not see rain; yet this valley* will be filled with water,[g] and you will drink from it, you, your livestock, and your other animals."' 18 But this is a trivial thing in the eyes of Jehovah,[h] for he will also give Mo'ab into your hand.[i] 19 You must strike down every fortified city[j] and every choice city, you should cut down every good tree, you should stop up all the springs of water, and you should ruin every good plot of land with stones."[k]

20 And in the morning, at the time of the morning grain offering,[l] water was suddenly coming from the direction of E'dom, and the land became filled with the water.

21 All the Mo'ab·ites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, so they called together all the men who could bear arms,* and they stationed themselves at the border. 22 When they got up early in the morning, the sun was shining on the water, and to the Mo′ab·ites on the opposite side, the water looked red like blood. 23 They said: "This is blood! The kings have surely slaughtered one another with the sword. So, then, to the spoil,[a] O Mo′ab!" 24 When they came into the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and began striking down the Mo′ab·ites, who fled from them.[b] They advanced into Mo′ab, striking the Mo′ab·ites down as they went. 25 They tore down the cities, and each man threw a stone into every good plot of land, filling it with stones; they stopped up every spring of water,[c] and they cut down every good tree.[d] Finally only the stone walls of Kir-har′e·seth[e] remained standing, and the slingers surrounded it and struck it down.

26 When the king of Mo′ab saw that the battle was lost, he took with him 700 men armed with swords to break through to the king of E′dom;[f] but they were not able to. 27 So he took his firstborn son who was going to reign in his place and offered him up as a burnt sacrifice[g] on the wall. And there came to be great indignation against Israel, so they withdrew from against him and returned to their land.

4 Now one of the wives of the sons of the prophets[h] cried out to E·li′sha, saying: "Your servant my husband is dead, and you well know that your servant had always feared Jehovah.[i] Now a creditor has come to take both of my children as his slaves." 2 At this E·li′sha said to her: "What can I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" She replied: "Your servant has nothing at all in the house but a jar* of oil."[a] 3 Then he said: "Go outside, ask for containers from all your neighbors, empty containers. Do not limit yourself to a few. 4 Then go in and close the door behind you and your sons. Fill all these containers, and set the full ones aside." 5 So she left him.

When she closed the door behind her and her sons, they passed the containers to her, and she kept pouring.[b] 6 When the containers were full, she said to one of her sons: "Bring another container to me."[c] But he said to her: "There are no more containers." At that the oil stopped.[d] 7 So she came in and told the man of the true God, and he said: "Go, sell the oil and pay off your debts, and you and your sons can live from what is left."

8 One day E·li′sha went to Shu′nem,[e] where there was a prominent woman, and she urged him to eat a meal there.[f] As often as he would pass by, he would stop there to eat. 9 So she said to her husband: "I know that it is a holy man of God who comes this way regularly. 10 Please, let us make a small room on the roof[g] and put there for him a bed, a table, a chair, and a lampstand. Then, whenever he comes to us, he can stay there."[h]

11 One day he came there, and he went to the room on the roof to lie down. 12 He then said to Ge·ha′zi[i] his attendant: "Call this Shu′nam·mite[j] woman." So he called her, and she stood before him. 13 Then he said to Ge·ha′zi: "Please tell her, 'Here you have gone to all this trouble for us.[k] What can be done for you?[a] Should I speak in your behalf to the king[b] or to the chief of the army?'" But her reply was: "I am living among my own people." 14 So he said: "Then what can be done for her?" Ge-ha'zi now said: "Well, she does not have a son,[c] and her husband is old." 15 Immediately he said: "Call her." So he called her, and she stood at the doorway. 16 Then he said: "At this time next year, you will be embracing a son."[d] But she said: "No, my master, man of the true God! Do not tell lies to your servant."

17 However, the woman became pregnant and gave birth to a son at the same time the next year, just as E-li'sha had told her. 18 The child grew up, and one day he went out to his father, who was with the reapers. 19 He kept saying to his father: "My head, O my head!" Then his father said to the attendant: "Carry him to his mother." 20 So he carried him back to his mother, and he sat on her lap until noon, and then he died.[e] 21 Then she went up and laid him on the bed of the man of the true God,[f] and she shut the door behind her and left. 22 She now called her husband and said: "Send me, please, one of the attendants and one of the donkeys, and let me go quickly to the man of the true God and return." 23 But he said: "Why are you going to see him today? It is not a new moon[g] or a sabbath." However, she said: "Everything is all right." 24 So she saddled the donkey and said to her attendant: "Go quickly. Do not slow down for me unless I tell you to."

25 So she went to the man of the true God at Mount Car'mel. As soon as the man of the true God saw her from afar, he said to Ge-ha'zi his attendant: "Look! The Shu'nam-mite woman is over there. 26 Please run to meet her and ask her, 'Are you well? Is your husband well? Is your child well?'" To this she said: "All is well." 27 When she came to the man of the true God at the mountain, she at once grabbed hold of his feet.[a] At this Ge-ha'zi came near to push her away, but the man of the true God said: "Let her alone, for she is in bitter distress,* and Jehovah has hidden it from me and has not told me." 28 She then said: "Did I ask my lord for a son? Did I not say, 'You must not give me a false hope'?"[b]

29 He immediately said to Ge-ha'zi: "Wrap your garments around your waist[c] and take my staff in your hand and go. If you encounter anyone, do not greet him; and if anyone should greet you, do not answer him. Go and place my staff on the boy's face." 30 At this the boy's mother said: "As surely as Jehovah is living and as you yourself are* living, I will not leave you."[d] So he got up and went with her. 31 Ge-ha'zi went before them and put the staff on the boy's face, but there was no sound or response.[e] He went back to meet E-li'sha and told him: "The boy did not wake up."

32 When E-li'sha came into the house, the boy was lying dead on his bed.[f] 33 He went in and closed the door behind them both and began to pray to Jehovah.[g] 34 Then he got up on the bed and lay down on the child and put his own mouth on the boy's mouth, his own eyes on his eyes, and his own palms on his palms and kept bent over him, and the child's body started to grow warm.[h] 35 He walked back and forth in the house, and he got up on the bed and bent over him again.

The boy sneezed seven times, after which he opened his eyes.[a] 36 E·li′sha now called Ge·ha′zi and said: “Call the Shu′nam·mite woman.” So he called her and she came in to him. Then he said: “Pick up your son.”[b] 37 And she came in and fell at his feet and bowed down to the ground before him, after which she picked up her son and went out.

38 When E·li′sha returned to Gil′gal, there was famine in the land.[c] The sons of the prophets[d] were sitting before him, and he said to his attendant:[e] “Put the large pot on and boil stew for the sons of the prophets.” 39 So one of them went out to the field to pick mallows, and he found a wild vine and picked wild gourds from it, filling his garment. He then returned and sliced them into the stewpot, not knowing what they were. 40 They later served it to the men to eat, but as soon as they ate from the stew, they cried out: “There is death in the pot, O man of the true God.” And they could not eat it. 41 So he said: “Bring some flour.” After he threw it into the pot, he said: “Serve it to the people.” And nothing harmful was in the pot.[f]

42 A man came from Ba′al·shal′i·shah,[g] and he brought the man of the true God 20 loaves of barley bread[h] made from the first ripe fruits, as well as a bag of new grain.[i] Then E·li′sha said: “Give it to the people so that they may eat.” 43 However, his attendant said: “How can I set this before 100 men?”[j] To this he said: “Give it to the people so that they may eat, for this is what Jehovah says, ‘They will eat and have some left over.’”[k] 44 At that he put it before them, and they ate and they had some left over,[l] according to the word of Jehovah.

5 Now Na′a·man the army chief of the king of Syria was a prominent man who was held in esteem by his lord, because through him Jehovah had given victory* to Syria. He was a mighty warrior, although he was a leper.# 2 On one of their raids, the Syrians had taken captive from the land of Israel a little girl who became a servant to Na′a·man’s wife. 3 She said to her mistress: “If only my lord would visit the prophet[a] in Sa·mar′i·a! Then he would cure him of his leprosy.”[b] 4 So he* went and reported to his lord, telling him what the girl from Israel had said.

5 Then the king of Syria said: “Go now! And I will send a letter to the king of Israel.” So he went, taking with him ten talents* of silver, 6,000 pieces of gold, and ten changes of garments. 6 He brought to the king of Israel the letter, which read: “Along with this letter that has come to you, I send my servant Na′a·man so that you may cure him of his leprosy.” 7 As soon as the king of Israel read the letter, he ripped his garments apart and said: “Am I God, to put to death and to keep alive?[c] For he is sending this man to me, telling me to cure him of his leprosy! You can see for yourselves that he is seeking a quarrel with me.”

8 But when E·li′sha the man of the true God heard that the king of Israel had ripped his garments apart, he at once sent word to the king: “Why did you rip your garments apart? Please let him come to me so that he may know that there is a prophet in Israel.”[d] 9 So Na′a·man came with his horses and his war char-iots and stood at the entrance of the house of E·li′sha. 10 However, E·li′sha sent a messenger to tell him: "Go, wash seven times[a] in the Jordan,[b] and your flesh will be restored, and you will be clean." 11 At this Na′a·man became indignant and started to leave, saying: "Here I said to myself, 'He will come out to me and stand here and call on the name of Jehovah his God, moving his hand back and forth over the leprosy to cure it.' 12 Are not the A·ba′nah and the Phar′par, the rivers of Damascus,[c] better than all the waters of Israel? Can I not wash in them and become clean?" With that he turned and went away in a rage.

13 His servants now approached him and said: "My father, if the prophet had told you to do something extraordinary, would you not do it? How much more, then, since he only said to you, 'Wash and be clean'?" 14 At that he went down and plunged* into the Jordan seven times, according to the word of the man of the true God.[d] Then his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little boy,[e] and he became clean.[f]

15 After that he went back to the man of the true God,[g] he and all his entourage,* and he stood before him and said: "Now I know that there is no God anywhere in all the earth but in Israel.[h] Now accept, please, a gift# from your servant." 16 However, E·li′sha said: "As surely as Jehovah whom I serve* is living, I will not accept it."[i] He urged him to accept it, but he kept refusing. 17 Finally Na′a·man said: "If not, please, let your servant be given two mule-loads of soil from this land, for your servant will no longer offer a burnt offering or a sacrifice to any gods other than Jehovah. 18 But may Jehovah forgive your servant for this one thing: When my lord goes into the house* of Rim′mon to bow down there, he supports himself on my arm, so I have to bow down at the house of Rim′mon. When I bow down at the house of Rim′mon, may Jehovah, please, forgive your servant for this." 19 At this he said to him: "Go in peace." After he departed from him and had traveled for some distance, 20 Ge·ha′zi[a] the attendant of E·li′sha the man of the true God[b] said to himself: 'Here my master has spared this Syrian Na′a·man[c] by not accepting from him what he brought. As surely as Jehovah is living, I will run after him and take something from him.' 21 So Ge·ha′zi chased after Na′a·man. When Na′a·man saw someone running after him, he got down from his chariot to meet him and said: "Is everything all right?" 22 To this he said: "All is well. My master has sent me, saying, 'Look! Just now two young men from the mountainous region of E′phra·im from the sons of the prophets came to me. Give them, please, a talent of silver and two changes of garments.'"[d] 23 Na′a·man said: "Go on, take two talents." He kept urging him,[e] and he wrapped up two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and gave them to two of his attendants, who carried them before him.

24 When he reached O′phel,* he took them from their hand and put them in the house and sent the men away. After they left, 25 he went in and stood by his master. E·li′sha now said to him: "Where did you come from, Ge·ha′zi?" But he said: "Your servant did not go anywhere."[a] 26 E·li′sha said to him: "Was my heart not there with you when the man got down from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to accept silver or to accept garments or olive groves or vineyards or sheep or cattle or male or female servants?[b] 27 Now Na′a·man's leprosy[c] will stick to you and your descendants forever." Immediately he went out from before him a leper, white as snow.[d]

6 The sons of the prophets[e] said to E·li′sha: "Look! The place where we are staying with you is too cramped for us. 2 Please let us go to the Jordan. Let each of us take a log from there and make a place there where we can dwell." He said: "Go." 3 One of them said: "Will you please come along with your servants?" At that he said: "I will come." 4 So he went with them, and they came to the Jordan and began to cut down the trees. 5 As one of them was cutting down a tree, the axhead fell into the water, and he cried out: "Alas, my master, it was borrowed!" 6 The man of the true God said: "Where did it fall?" So he showed him the place. He then cut off a piece of wood and threw it there and made the axhead float. 7 He said: "Lift it out." So he reached out his hand and took it.

8 Now the king of Syria went to war against Israel.[f] He consulted with his servants and said: "I will encamp at such and such a place with you." 9 Then the man of the true God[g] sent word to the king of Israel, saying: "Beware of passing by this place, because that is where the Syrians are coming down." 10 So the king of Israel sent word to the place that the man of the true God had warned him about. He kept warning him, and he stayed away from there on several occasions.*[a]

11 This enraged the king* of Syria, so he summoned his servants and said to them: "Tell me! Who among us is on the side of the king of Israel?" 12 Then one of his servants said: "None of us, my lord the king! It is E·li′sha the prophet in Israel who tells the king of Israel the things that you say in your own bedroom."[b] 13 He said: "Go and find out where he is, so that I may send men to capture him." Later the report was made to him: "He is in Do′than."[c] 14 He immediately sent horses and war chariots there, as well as a large army; they came by night and surrounded the city.

15 When the attendant* of the man of the true God rose early and went outside, he saw that an army with horses and war chariots was surrounding the city. At once the attendant said to him: "Alas, my master! What are we to do?" 16 But he said: "Do not be afraid![d] For there are more who are with us than those who are with them."[e] 17 Then E·li′sha began to pray and say: "O Jehovah, open his eyes, please, that he may see."[f] Immediately Jehovah opened the attendant's eyes and he saw, and look! the mountainous region was full of horses and war chariots of fire[g] all around E·li′sha.[h]

18 When the Syrians came down to him, E·li′sha prayed to Jehovah and said: "Please, strike this nation with blindness."[i] So he struck them with blindness, just as E·li′sha had requested. 19 E·li′sha now said to them:

"This is not the way, and this is not the city. Follow me, and let me lead you to the man you are looking for." However, he led them to Sa·mar′i·a.[a]

20 When they arrived in Sa·mar′i·a, E·li′sha said: "O Jehovah, open their eyes so that they may see." So Jehovah opened their eyes, and they saw that they were in the middle of Sa·mar′i·a. 21 When the king of Israel saw them, he said to E·li′sha: "Should I strike them down, should I strike them down, my father?" 22 But he said: "You must not strike them down. Do you strike down those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Give them bread and water so they may eat and drink[b] and return to their lord." 23 So he spread a great feast for them, and they ate and drank, after which he sent them away to return to their lord. And not once did the marauder bands of the Syrians[c] come again into the land of Israel.

24 Afterward Ben-ha′dad the king of Syria gathered all his army* together and went up and besieged Sa·mar′i·a.[d] 25 So there was a great famine[e] in Sa·mar′i·a, and they besieged it until a donkey's head[f] was worth 80 silver pieces, and a fourth of a cab measure* of dove's droppings was worth 5 silver pieces. 26 As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried out to him: "Help us, O my lord the king!" 27 To this he said: "If Jehovah does not help you, where can I get help for you? From the threshing floor? Or from the wine or oil press?" 28 The king asked her: "What is the matter with you?"

She replied: "This woman said to me, 'Hand over your son, and we will eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.'[a] 29 So we boiled my son and ate him.[b] The next day I said to her, 'Hand over your son so that we may eat him.' But she hid her son."

30 As soon as the king heard the woman's words, he ripped his garments apart.[c] When he passed by on the wall, the people saw that he was wearing sackcloth under his clothes.* 31 Then he said: "So may God do to me and add to it if the head of E·li′sha the son of Sha′phat remains on him today!"[d]

32 E·li′sha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. The king sent a man ahead of him, but before the messenger arrived, E·li′sha said to the elders: "Have you seen how this son of a murderer[e] has sent to take off my head? Watch when the messenger comes, close the door, and hold the door shut against him. Is not the sound of his lord's footsteps behind him?" 33 While he was still speaking with them, the messenger came to him, and the king said: "This calamity is from Jehovah. Why should I wait any longer for Jehovah?"

7 E·li′sha now said, "Listen to the word of Jehovah. This is what Jehovah says: 'Tomorrow about this time at the gate* of Sa·mar′i·a, a seah measure# of fine flour will be worth a shekel,△ and two seah measures of barley will be worth a shekel.'"[f] 2 At that the adjutant whom the king relied on said to the man of the true God: "Even if Jehovah should open floodgates in the heavens, could this* possibly take place?"[a] To that he said: "You will see it with your own eyes,[b] but you will not eat from it."[c]

3 There were four lepers at the entrance of the city gate,[d] and they said to one another: "Why are we sitting here until we die? 4 If we say, 'Let us go into the city,' while the famine is in the city,[e] we would die there. And if we sit here, we will die anyway. So now let us go over to the camp of the Syrians. If they spare our lives, we will live, but if they put us to death, then we will die." 5 They then got up in the evening darkness and entered the camp of the Syrians. When they reached the outskirts of the Syrian camp, there was nobody there.

6 For Jehovah had caused the Syrian camp to hear the sound of war chariots and horses, the sound of a huge army.[f] So they said to one another: "Look! The king of Israel has hired the kings of the Hit'tites and the kings of Egypt to come against us!" 7 They immediately got up and fled in the evening darkness, leaving their tents, horses, donkeys, and the whole camp just as it was, and they fled for their lives.*

8 When these lepers reached the outskirts of the camp, they entered into one of the tents and began to eat and drink. They carried away from there silver, gold, and garments and went and hid them. Then they returned and entered another tent and carried things away from there and went and hid them.

9 Finally they said to one another: "What we are doing is not right. This day is a day of good news! If we hesitate and wait until dawn, we will deserve to be punished. Let us now go and report this at the king's house." 10 So they went and called out to the gatekeepers of the city and reported to them: "We went into the camp of the Syrians, but nobody was there—we did not hear anyone at all. There were only the horses and donkeys tied and the tents left just as they were." 11 At once the gatekeepers called out, and it was reported inside the king's house.

12 Immediately the king got up by night and said to his servants: "Please let me tell you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry,[a] so they left the camp to hide in the field, saying, 'They will come out of the city, and we will catch them alive and enter into the city.'"[b] 13 Then one of his servants said: "Please, let some men take five of the remaining horses that are in the city. Look! They will end up the same as all the crowd of Israel that remain here. Look! They will end up the same as all the crowd of Israel that perished. Let us then send them out and see." 14 So they took two chariots with horses, and the king sent them out to the camp of the Syrians, saying: "Go and see." 15 They followed them as far as the Jordan, and the entire way was covered with garments and utensils that the Syrians had thrown away as they fled in panic. The messengers returned and reported it to the king.

16 The people then went out and plundered the camp of the Syrians, so that a seah measure of fine flour came to be worth a shekel, and two seah measures of barley came to be worth a shekel, according to the word of Jehovah.[c] 17 The king had appointed the adjutant whom he relied on to be in charge of the gate, but the people trampled him to death at the gate, just as the man of the true God had told the king when he came down to him. 18 It happened just as the man of the true God had said to the king: "Two seah measures of barley will be worth a shekel, and a seah measure of fine flour will be worth a shekel tomorrow at this time at the gate of Sa·mar′i·a."[a] 19 But the adjutant had said to the man of the true God: "Even if Jehovah should open floodgates in the heavens, could such a thing* take place?" To this E·li′sha had said: "You will see it with your own eyes, but you will not eat from it." 20 That is exactly what happened to him, because the people trampled him to death at the gate.

8 E·li′sha said to the woman whose son he had restored to life:*[b] "Rise up and go, you with your household, and live as a foreigner wherever you can, for Jehovah has declared a famine,[c] and it will come on the land for seven years." 2 So the woman got up and did what the man of the true God said. She went with her household and settled in the land of the Phi·lis′tines[d] for seven years.

3 At the end of seven years, the woman returned from the land of the Phi·lis′tines and went to appeal to the king for her house and her field. 4 Now the king was speaking to Ge·ha′zi the attendant of the man of the true God, saying: "Relate to me, please, all the great things that E·li′sha has done."[e] 5 Just as he was relating to the king how he had restored the dead one to life,[f] the woman whose son he had restored to life came to the king, appealing for her house and her field.[a] At once Ge·ha′zi said: "My lord the king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom E·li′sha restored to life." 6 At that the king asked the woman, and she related the story to him. Then the king assigned her a court official, telling him: "Return all that belongs to her and all the products of the field from the day she left the land until now."

7 E·li′sha came to Damascus[b] when Ben-ha′dad[c] the king of Syria was sick. So the report was made to him: "The man of the true God[d] has come here." 8 At that the king said to Haz′a·el:[e] "Take a gift with you and go and meet the man of the true God.[f] Inquire of Jehovah through him, asking, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'" 9 Haz′a·el went to meet him and took a gift with him, every sort of good thing of Damascus, the load of 40 camels. He came and stood before him and said: "Your son, Ben-ha′dad the king of Syria, has sent me to you, asking, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'" 10 E·li′sha replied to him: "Go and tell him, 'You will certainly recover,' but Jehovah has shown me that he will certainly die."[g] 11 And he kept staring at him to the point of embarrassment. Then the man of the true God gave way to weeping. 12 Haz′a·el asked: "Why is my lord weeping?" He replied: "Because I know what harm you will do to the people of Israel.[h] Their fortified places you will set on fire, their choice men you will kill with the sword, their children you will dash to pieces, and their pregnant women you will rip open."[i] 13 Haz′a·el said: "How could your servant, who is a mere dog, do such a deed?" But E·li′sha said: "Jehovah has shown me that you will be king over Syria."[j]

25 In the 12th year of Je·ho′ram the son of A′hab the king of Israel, A·ha·zi′ah the son of King Je·ho′ram of Judah became king.[a] 26 A·ha·zi′ah was 22 years old when he became king, and he reigned for one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Ath·a·li′ah[b] the granddaughter* of King Om′ri[c] of Israel. 27 He walked in the way of the house of A′hab[d] and kept doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, like the house of A′hab, for he was related to the house of A′hab by marriage.[e] 28 So he went with Je·ho′ram the son of A′hab to wage war against King Haz′a·el of Syria at Ra′moth-gil′e·ad,[f] but the Syrians wounded Je·ho′ram.[g] 29 So King Je·ho′ram returned to Jez′re·el[h] to recover from the wounds that the Syrians had inflicted on him at Ra′mah when he fought against King Haz′a·el of Syria.[i] A·ha·zi′ah the son of Je·ho′ram the king of Judah went down to Jez′re·el to see Je·ho′ram the son of A′hab, because he had been wounded.*

9 E·li′sha the prophet then called one of the sons of the prophets and said to him: “Wrap your garments around your waist, and quickly take this flask of oil with you and go to Ra′moth-gil′e·ad.[j] 2 When you arrive there, look for Je′hu[k] the son of Je·hosh′a·phat the son of Nim′shi; go in and have him get up from among his brothers and take him into the innermost room. 3 Then take the flask of oil and pour it out on his head and say, ‘This is what Jehovah says: “I anoint you as king over Israel.”’[l] Then open the door and flee without delay.”

4 So the prophet's attendant got on his way to Ra′moth-gil′e·ad. 5 When he arrived, the army chiefs were seated there. He said: "I have a message for you, O chief." Je′hu asked: "For which one of us?" He said: "For you, O chief." 6 So Je′hu got up and went into the house; the attendant poured the oil out on his head and said to him, "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says: 'I anoint you as king over Jehovah's people, over Israel.[a] 7 You must strike down the house of A′hab your lord, and I will avenge the blood of my servants the prophets and of all the servants of Jehovah who died at the hands of Jez′e·bel.[b] 8 And the whole house of A′hab will perish; and I will annihilate from A′hab every male,* including the helpless and weak in Israel.[c] 9 And I will make the house of A′hab like the house of Jer·o·bo′am[d] the son of Ne′bat and like the house of Ba′a·sha[e] the son of A·hi′jah. 10 As for Jez′e·bel, the dogs will eat her up in the plot of land at Jez′re·el,[f] and no one will bury her.'" With that he opened the door and fled.[g]

11 When Je′hu went back to the servants of his lord, they asked him: "Is everything all right? Why did this crazy man come to you?" He answered them: "You know that sort of man and his sort of talk." 12 But they said: "That is not true! Tell us, please." Then he said: "This is what he said to me, and then he added, 'This is what Jehovah says: "I anoint you as king over Israel."'"[h] 13 At this each of them quickly took his garment and put it under him on the bare steps,[i] and they blew the horn and said: "Je′hu has become king!"[j] 14 Then Je′hu[k] the son of Je·hosh′a·phat the son of Nim′shi conspired against Je·ho′ram.

Je·ho′ram had been on guard at Ra′moth-gil′e·ad,[a] he with all Israel, because of King Haz′a·el[b] of Syria. 15 King Je·ho′ram later returned to Jez′re·el[c] to recover from the wounds that the Syrians inflicted on him when he fought King Haz′a·el of Syria.[d]

Je′hu now said: "If you agree,* do not let anyone escape from the city to go and report this in Jez′re·el." 16 Then Je′hu mounted his chariot and went to Jez′re·el, for Je·ho′ram was lying there wounded, and King A·ha·zi′ah of Judah had gone down to see Je·ho′ram. 17 As the watchman was standing on the tower in Jez′re·el, he saw the throng of Je′hu's men approaching. At once he said: "I see a throng of men." Je·ho′ram said: "Take a cavalryman and send him to meet them, and let him say, 'Are you coming in peace?'" 18 So a horseman went to meet him and said: "This is what the king says, 'Are you coming in peace?'" But Je′hu said: "What do you have to do with 'peace'? Fall in behind me!"

The watchman then reported: "The messenger reached them, but he has not returned." 19 So he sent out a second horseman, who said when he came to them: "This is what the king says, 'Are you coming in peace?'" But Je′hu said: "What do you have to do with 'peace'? Fall in behind me!"

20 The watchman then reported: "He reached them, but he has not returned, and the driving is like the driving of Je′hu the grandson* of Nim′shi, for he drives like a madman." 21 Je·ho′ram said: "Hitch up!" So his war chariot was hitched up and King Je·ho′ram of Israel and King A·ha·zi′ah[a] of Judah each went out in his own war chariot to meet Je′hu. They encountered him in the plot of land of Na′both[b] the Jez′re·el·ite.

22 As soon as Je·ho′ram saw Je′hu, he said: "Are you coming in peace, Je′hu?" But he said: "What peace could there be as long as there is the prostitution of Jez′e·bel[c] your mother and her many sorceries?"[d] 23 At once Je·ho′ram turned his chariot to flee, and he said to A·ha·zi′ah: "We have been tricked, A·ha·zi′ah!" 24 Je′hu took his bow in hand and shot Je·ho′ram between the shoulders, and the arrow came out at his heart, and he collapsed in his war chariot. 25 He then said to Bid′kar his adjutant: "Pick him up and throw him into the field of Na′both the Jez′re·el·ite.[e] Remember, you and I were riding together* behind A′hab his father when Jehovah himself made this pronouncement against him:[f] 26 '"As surely as I saw the blood of Na′both[g] and the blood of his sons yesterday," declares Jehovah, "I will repay[h] you in this very plot of land," declares Jehovah.' So now pick him up and throw him into the plot of land, according to the word of Jehovah."[i]

27 When King A·ha·zi′ah[j] of Judah saw what was happening, he fled by way of the garden house. (Later Je′hu pursued him and said: "Strike him down also!" So they struck him down in the chariot on his way up to Gur, which is by Ib′le·am.[k] But he continued his flight to Me·gid′do and died there. 28 Then his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and they buried him in his grave with his forefathers in the City of David.[l] 29 It was in the 11th year of Je·ho′ram the son of A′hab that A·ha·zi′ah[a] had become king over Judah.)

30 When Je′hu came to Jez′re·el,[b] Jez′e·bel[c] heard of it. So she painted her eyes with black paint* and adorned her head and looked down through the window. 31 As Je′hu came in through the gate, she said: "Did it go well with Zim′ri, the killer of his lord?"[d] 32 Looking up to the window, he said: "Who is on my side? Who?"[e] Immediately two or three court officials looked down at him. 33 He said: "Throw her down!" So they threw her down, and some of her blood splattered on the wall and on the horses, and he trampled her. 34 After that he went in and ate and drank. He then said: "Please, take care of this accursed woman and bury her. After all, she is the daughter of a king."[f] 35 But when they went to bury her, they did not find anything but her skull and her feet and the palms of her hands.[g] 36 When they returned and told him, he said: "This fulfills the word of Jehovah[h] that he spoke through his servant E·li′jah the Tish′bite, saying, 'In the plot of land of Jez′re·el, the dogs will eat the flesh of Jez′e·bel.[i] 37 And the dead body of Jez′e·bel will become as manure on the surface of the field in the plot of land of Jez′re·el, so that they may not say: "This is Jez′e·bel."'"

10 Now A′hab[j] had 70 sons in Sa·mar′i·a. So Je′hu wrote letters and sent them to Sa·mar′i·a, to the princes of Jez′re·el, the elders,[k] and the guardians of A′hab's children,* saying: 2 "Now when this letter comes to you, the sons of your lord will be with you, as well as the war chariots, the horses, a fortified city, and weapons. 3 Select the best and most suitable* of the sons of your lord and put him on the throne of his father. Then fight for the house of your lord."

4 But they were overcome with fear and said: "Look! If two kings could not stand before him,[a] how can we stand?" 5 So the overseer of the palace,* the governor of the city, the elders, and the guardians sent this message to Je'hu: "We are your servants, and we will do everything that you tell us. We will not make anyone king. Do whatever seems good in your eyes."

6 Then he wrote them a second letter, saying: "If you belong to me and are willing to obey me, bring the heads of the sons of your lord and come to me tomorrow at this time at Jez're·el."

Now the 70 sons of the king were with the distinguished men of the city who were raising them. 7 As soon as the letter came to them, they took the sons of the king and slaughtered them, 70 men,[b] and they put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jez're·el. 8 The messenger came in and told him: "They have brought the heads of the sons of the king." So he said: "Put them in two heaps at the entrance of the city gate until morning." 9 When he went out in the morning, he stood before all the people and said: "You are innocent.* Yes, I conspired against my lord, and I killed him,[c] but who struck down all of these? 10 Know, then, that not a single word of Jehovah's that Jehovah has spoken against the house of A'hab will go unfulfilled,*[d] and Jehovah has done what he spoke through his servant E·li'jah."[a] 11 Moreover, Je'hu struck down all who were left of the house of A'hab in Jez're·el, as well as all his distinguished men, his acquaintances, and his priests,[b] until he had left him no survivor.[c]

12 Then he got up and went on his way to Sa·mar'i·a. The binding house* of the shepherds was on the way. 13 There Je'hu encountered the brothers of King A·ha·zi'ah[d] of Judah, and he said to them, "Who are you?" They said: "We are the brothers of A·ha·zi'ah, and we are on our way down to ask if all is well with the sons of the king and the sons of the queen mother."* 14 Immediately he said: "Capture them alive!" So they captured them alive and slaughtered them at the cistern of the binding house, 42 men. He did not let a single one of them survive.[e]

15 As he went from there, he encountered Je·hon'a·dab[f] the son of Re'chab,[g] who was coming to meet him. When he greeted* him, he said to him: "Is your heart fully# with me, just as my heart is with your heart?"

Je·hon'a·dab replied: "It is."

"If so, give me your hand."

So he gave him his hand, and Je'hu pulled him up into the chariot with him. 16 Then he said: "Come along with me, and see my toleration of no rivalry toward* Jehovah."[h] So they had him ride with him in his war chariot. 17 Then he came to Sa·mar'i·a, and he struck down all who were left over of A'hab's house in Sa·mar'i·a until he had annihilated them,[i] according to

Jehovah's word that he had spoken to E·li'jah.[a]

18 Further, Je'hu collected all the people together and said to them: "A'hab worshipped Ba'al a little,[b] but Je'hu will worship him much more. 19 So summon all the prophets of Ba'al,[c] all his worshippers, and all his priests[d] to me. Do not let a single one be absent, because I have a great sacrifice for Ba'al. Anyone who is absent will not live." But Je'hu was acting with cunning to destroy the worshippers of Ba'al.

20 Je'hu continued: "Declare* a solemn assembly for Ba'al." So they proclaimed it. 21 After that Je'hu sent word throughout Israel, and all the worshippers of Ba'al came. Not a single one was left out who did not come. They entered the house* of Ba'al,[e] and the house of Ba'al was filled from end to end. 22 He said to the one who was in charge of the wardrobe: "Bring out garments for all the worshippers of Ba'al." So he brought out the clothing for them. 23 Then Je'hu and Je·hon'a·dab[f] the son of Re'chab went into the house of Ba'al. He now said to the worshippers of Ba'al: "Search carefully and see that there are no worshippers of Jehovah here, only worshippers of Ba'al." 24 Finally they came in to offer up sacrifices and burnt offerings. Je'hu had stationed 80 of his men outside and said: "If any one of the men I am putting into your hands escapes, it will be your life for his."*

25 As soon as he finished offering up the burnt offering, Je'hu said to the guards* and the adjutants: "Come in and strike them down! Do not let a single one escape!"[a] So the guards and the adjutants struck them down with the sword and threw them out, and they kept going as far as the inner sanctuary* of the house of Ba'al. 26 Then they brought out the sacred pillars[b] of the house of Ba'al and burned each one.[c] 27 They tore down the sacred pillar[d] of Ba'al, and they tore down the house of Ba'al[e] and turned it into latrines, as it remains to this day.

28 Thus Je'hu annihilated Ba'al out of Israel. 29 However, Je'hu did not turn away from the sins that Jer·o·bo'am the son of Ne'bat had caused Israel to commit as regards the golden calves that were in Beth'el and in Dan.[f] 30 So Jehovah said to Je'hu: "Because you have acted well and have done what is right in my eyes by carrying out all that was in my heart to do to the house of A'hab,[g] four generations of your sons will sit on the throne of Israel."[h] 31 But Je'hu did not take care to walk in the Law of Jehovah the God of Israel with all his heart.[i] He did not turn away from the sins that Jer·o·bo'am had caused Israel to commit.[j]

32 In those days Jehovah started to cut off* Israel piece by piece. Haz'a·el kept attacking them throughout the territory of Israel,[k] 33 from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gil'e·ad—of the Gad'ites, the Reu'ben·ites, and the Ma·nas'sites[l]—from A·ro'er, which is by the Ar'non Valley,* to Gil'e·ad and Ba'shan.[m]

35 Then Je′hu was laid to rest with his forefathers, and they buried him in Sa·mar′i·a; and his son Je·ho′a·haz[a] became king in his place. 36 The length* of Je′hu's reign over Israel was 28 years in Sa·mar′i·a.

11 Now when Ath·a·li′ah,[b] A·ha·zi′ah's mother, saw that her son had died,[c] she rose up and destroyed the entire royal line.*[d] 2 However, Je·hosh′e·ba the daughter of King Je·ho′ram, A·ha·zi′ah's sister, took Je·ho′ash[e] the son of A·ha·zi′ah and stole him away from among the sons of the king who were to be put to death, keeping him and his nurse in an inner bedroom. They managed to keep him concealed from Ath·a·li′ah, so he was not put to death. 3 He remained with her for six years, hidden at the house of Jehovah, while Ath·a·li′ah was ruling over the land.

4 In the seventh year, Je·hoi′a·da sent for the chiefs of hundreds of the Ca′ri·an bodyguard and of the palace guards*[f] and had them come to him at the house of Jehovah. He made a pact# with them and had them swear to it at the house of Jehovah, and then he showed them the son of the king.[g] 5 He ordered them: "This is what you are to do: One third of you will be on duty on the Sabbath and will keep strict watch over the king's house,[h] 6 another third will be at the Gate of the Foundation, and another third will be at the gate behind the palace guards. You will take turns watching over the house. 7 Your two divisions that are supposed to be off duty on the Sabbath must keep strict watch over the house of Jehovah to protect the king. 8 You must surround the king on every side, each with his weapons in hand. Anyone entering within the ranks will be put to death. Stay with the king wherever he goes."

9 The chiefs of hundreds[a] did exactly what Je·hoi′a·da the priest had commanded. So each one took his men who were on duty on the Sabbath, together with those who were off duty on the Sabbath, and they came in to Je·hoi′a·da the priest.[b] 10 The priest then gave the chiefs of hundreds the spears and the circular shields that had belonged to King David, which were in the house of Jehovah. 11 And the palace guards[c] took their positions, each with his weapons in hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, by the altar[d] and by the house, all around the king. 12 Then Je·hoi′a·da brought the king's son[e] out and put on him the crown* and the Testimony,#[f] and they made him king and anointed him. They began to clap their hands and say: "Long live the king!"[g]

13 When Ath·a·li′ah heard the sound of the people running, she immediately came to the people at the house of Jehovah.[h] 14 Then she saw the king standing there by the pillar according to the custom.[i] The chiefs and the trumpeters[j] were with the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing the trumpets. At this Ath·a·li′ah ripped her garments apart and cried out: "Conspiracy! Conspiracy!" 15 But Je·hoi′a·da the priest commanded the chiefs of hundreds,[a] those appointed over the army, and said to them: "Take her out from among the ranks, and if anyone follows her, put him to death with the sword!" For the priest had said: "Do not put her to death in the house of Jehovah." 16 So they seized her, and when she reached the place where the horses enter the king's house,*[b] she was put to death there.

17 Then Je·hoi'a·da made a covenant between Jehovah and the king and the people,[c] that they would continue as the people of Jehovah, and he also made a covenant between the king and the people.[d] 18 After that all the people of the land came to the house* of Ba'al and tore down his altars,[e] completely smashed his images,[f] and killed Mat'tan the priest of Ba'al[g] in front of the altars.

Then the priest appointed overseers over the house of Jehovah.[h] 19 Further, he took the chiefs of hundreds,[i] the Ca'ri·an bodyguard, the palace guards,[j] and all the people of the land to escort the king down from the house of Jehovah, and they came to the king's house* by the way of the gate of the palace guard. He then sat on the throne of the kings.[k] 20 So all the people of the land rejoiced and the city was quiet, for they had put Ath·a·li'ah to death with the sword at the king's house.

21 Je·ho'ash[l] was seven years old when he became king.[m]

12 In the seventh year of Je'hu,[n] Je·ho'ash[o] became king, and he reigned for 40 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zib'i·ah from Be'er-she'ba.[p] 2 Je·ho'ash continued doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes all the days that Je·hoi'a·da the priest instructed him. 3 However, the high places[a] were not removed, and the people were still sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places.

4 Je·ho'ash said to the priests: "Take all the money that is brought to the house of Jehovah for the holy offerings,[b] the money for which each one is assessed,[c] the money given as an estimated value for a person,* and all the money that each person's heart is moved to bring to the house of Jehovah.[d] 5 The priests will personally take it from their donors* and use it to repair the house, wherever any damage is# found."[e]

6 By the 23rd year of King Je·ho'ash, the priests had not yet repaired the damage to the house.[f] 7 So King Je·ho'ash called Je·hoi'a·da[g] the priest and the other priests and said to them: "Why are you not repairing the damage to the house? Therefore, do not take any more money from your donors unless it is used to repair the house."[h] 8 At that the priests agreed not to take any more money from the people and not to be responsible for repairing the house.

9 Je·hoi'a·da the priest then took a chest[i] and bored a hole in its lid and put it next to the altar on the right as one enters the house of Jehovah. That is where the priests who served as doorkeepers would put all the money that was brought into the house of Jehovah.[j] 10 Whenever they saw that there was a great deal of money in the chest, the secretary of the king and the high priest would come up and collect* and count the money that had been brought to the house of Jehovah.[a] 11 They would give the money that had been counted to those appointed over the work being done in the house of Jehovah. They, in turn, paid it to the woodworkers and to the builders who were working at the house of Jehovah,[b] 12 as well as to the masons and the stonecutters. They also bought timbers and hewn stones for repairing the damage to the house of Jehovah and used the money for all the other expenses incurred in repairing the house.

13 However, none of the money brought to the house of Jehovah was used to make basins of silver, extinguishers, bowls, trumpets,[c] or any sort of gold or silver article for the house of Jehovah.[d] 14 They would give it only to those who did the work, and with it they repaired the house of Jehovah. 15 They would not call for an accounting from the men to whom they gave the money to give to the workers, for they were trustworthy.[e] 16 However, the money for guilt offerings[f] and the money for sin offerings was not brought to the house of Jehovah; it belonged to the priests.[g]

17 It was then that Haz′a·el[h] the king of Syria went up to fight against Gath,[i] and he captured it, after which he decided to attack* Jerusalem.[j] 18 At that King Je·ho′ash of Judah took all the holy offerings that his forefathers Je·hosh′a·phat, Je·ho′ram, and A·ha·zi′ah, the kings of Judah, had sanctified, as well as his own holy offerings and all the gold to be found in the treasuries of the house of Jehovah and the king's house,* and sent them to Haz′a·el the king of Syria.[k] So he withdrew from Jerusalem.

19 As for the rest of the history of Je·ho′ash, all that he did, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Judah? 20 However, his servants joined in a conspiracy against him[a] and struck Je·ho′ash down at the house of the Mound,*[b] on the way that goes down to Sil′la. 21 His servants Jo′za·car the son of Shim′e·ath and Je·hoz′a·bad the son of Sho′mer were the ones who struck him and put him to death.[c] They buried him with his forefathers in the City of David, and his son Am·a·zi′ah became king in his place.[d]

13 In the 23rd year of Je·ho′ash[e] the son of A·ha·zi′ah[f] the king of Judah, Je·ho′a·haz the son of Je′hu[g] became king over Israel in Sa·mar′i·a, and he reigned for 17 years. 2 He continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, and he persisted in the sin that Jer·o·bo′am the son of Ne′bat had caused Israel to commit.[h] He did not turn away from it. 3 So Jehovah's anger[i] grew hot against Israel,[j] and he gave them into the hand of King Haz′a·el[k] of Syria and into the hand of Ben-ha′dad[l] the son of Haz′a·el all their days.

4 In time Je·ho′a·haz begged for the favor* of Jehovah, and Jehovah listened to him, for he had seen the oppression the king of Syria had inflicted on Israel.[m] 5 So Jehovah provided Israel with a savior[n] to free them from Syria's grip, and the Israelites were able to dwell in their homes as before.* 6 (However, they did not depart from the sin of the house of Jer·o·bo′am that he had caused Israel to commit.[o] They continued in this sin,* and the sacred pole*[a] continued to stand in Sa·mar′i·a.) 7 Je·ho′a·haz was left with an army of only 50 horsemen, 10 chariots, and 10,000 foot soldiers, because the king of Syria had destroyed them,[b] trampling them like the dust at threshing time.[c]

8 As for the rest of the history of Je·ho′a·haz, all that he did and his mightiness, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Israel? 9 Then Je·ho′a·haz was laid to rest with his forefathers, and they buried him in Sa·mar′i·a;[d] and his son Je·ho′ash became king in his place.

10 In the 37th year of King Je·ho′ash of Judah, Je·ho′ash[e] the son of Je·ho′a·haz became king over Israel in Sa·mar′i·a, and he reigned for 16 years. 11 He continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, not departing from all the sins that Jer·o·bo′am the son of Ne′bat had made Israel commit.[f] He continued* in these sins.

12 As for the rest of the history of Je·ho′ash, all that he did and his mightiness and how he fought against King Am·a·zi′ah of Judah,[g] is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Israel? 13 Then Je·ho′ash was laid to rest with his forefathers, and Jer·o·bo′am*[h] sat on his throne. And Je·ho′ash was buried in Sa·mar′i·a with the kings of Israel.[i]

14 Now when E·li′sha[j] became ill with the sickness from which he eventually died, Je·ho′ash the king of Israel came down to him and wept over him, saying: "My father, my father! The chariot of Israel and his horsemen!"[k] 15 E·li′sha then said to him: "Take a bow and arrows." So he took a bow and arrows.

16 Then he said to the king of Israel: "Put your hand to the bow." So he put his hand to it, after which E·li′sha laid his hands on the king's hands. 17 Then he said: "Open the window toward the east." So he opened it. E·li′sha said: "Shoot!" So he shot. He now said: "Jehovah's arrow of victory,* the arrow of victory over# Syria! You will strike down△ Syria at A′phek[a] until you finish it off."

18 He continued: "Take the arrows," and he took them. Then he said to the king of Israel: "Strike the ground." So he struck the ground three times and stopped. 19 At that the man of the true God grew indignant at him and said: "You should have struck the ground five or six times! Then you would have struck down Syria until you finished it off, but now you will strike down Syria only three times."[b]

20 After that E·li′sha died and was buried. There were Mo′abite marauder bands[c] that would come into the land at the beginning of the year.* 21 As some men were burying a man, they saw the marauder band, so they quickly threw the man into E·li′sha's burial place and ran off. When the man touched the bones of E·li′sha, he came to life[d] and stood on his feet.

22 Now King Haz′a·el[e] of Syria oppressed Israel[f] all the days of Je·ho′a·haz. 23 However, Jehovah extended favor and mercy to them[g] and showed his concern for them for the sake of his covenant with Abraham,[h] Isaac,[i] and Jacob.[j] He did not want to bring them to ruin, and he has not cast them away from his presence to this day. 24 When King Haz'a·el of Syria died, his son Ben-ha'dad became king in his place. 25 Je·ho'ash the son of Je·ho'a·haz then took back from Ben-ha'dad the son of Haz'a·el the cities that he had taken in war from Je·ho'a·haz his father. Three times Je·ho'ash struck him down,*[a] and he recovered the cities of Israel.

14 In the second year of Je·ho'ash[b] the son of Je·ho'a·haz the king of Israel, Am·a·zi'ah the son of King Je·ho'ash of Judah became king. 2 He was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Je·ho·ad'din of Jerusalem.[c] 3 He continued to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes, but not like David[d] his forefather. He did everything as Je·ho'ash his father had done.[e] 4 However, the high places were not removed,[f] and the people were still sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places.[g] 5 As soon as he had the kingdom firmly in his control, he struck down his servants who had struck down his father the king.[h] 6 But he did not put the sons of the murderers to death, in harmony with Jehovah's commandment written in the book of Moses' Law: "Fathers should not be put to death for their sons, and sons should not be put to death for their fathers; but each one should be put to death for his own sin."[i] 7 He struck down the E'dom·ites[j] in the Valley of Salt,[k] 10,000 men, and captured Se'la in the war,[l] and its name became Jok'the·el to this day.

8 Then Am·a·zi'ah sent messengers to Je·ho'ash son of Je·ho'a·haz son of Je'hu the king of Israel, saying: "Come, let us confront each other in battle."[a] 9 King Je·ho'ash of Israel sent this message to King Am·a·zi'ah of Judah: "The thorny weed in Leb'a·non sent a message to the cedar in Leb'a·non, 'Give your daughter to my son as a wife.' However, a wild beast of Leb'a·non passed by and trampled down the thorny weed. 10 True, you have struck down E'dom,[b] so your heart has become arrogant. Enjoy your glory, but stay in your own house. Why should you provoke disaster and fall, bringing Judah down with you?" 11 But Am·a·zi'ah did not listen.[c]

So King Je·ho'ash of Israel went up, and he and King Am·a·zi'ah of Judah confronted each other in battle at Beth·she'mesh,[d] which belongs to Judah.[e] 12 Judah was defeated by Israel, so each one fled to his home.* 13 King Je·ho'ash of Israel captured King Am·a·zi'ah of Judah, son of Je·ho'ash son of A·ha·zi'ah, at Beth-she'mesh. Then they came to Jerusalem, and he made a breach in the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of E'phra·im[f] to the Corner Gate,[g] 400 cubits.* 14 He took all the gold and the silver and all the articles that were found in the house of Jehovah and in the treasuries of the house* of the king, as well as hostages. Then he returned to Sa·mar'i·a.

15 As for the rest of the history of Je·ho'ash, what he did and his mightiness and how he fought against King Am·a·zi'ah of Judah, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Israel? 16 Then Je·ho'ash was laid to rest with his forefathers and was buried in Sa·mar′i·a[a] with the kings of Israel; and his son Jer·o·bo′am*[b] became king in his place.

17 Am·a·zi′ah[c] the son of Je·ho′ash the king of Judah lived for 15 years after the death of Je·ho′ash[d] the son of Je·ho′a·haz the king of Israel.[e] 18 As for the rest of the history of Am·a·zi′ah, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Judah? 19 Later a conspiracy was formed against him[f] at Jerusalem, and he fled to La′chish, but they sent men after him to La′chish and put him to death there. 20 So they carried him back on horses, and he was buried in Jerusalem with his forefathers in the City of David.[g] 21 Then all the people of Judah took Az·a·ri′ah,#[h] who was 16 years old,[i] and made him king in place of his father Am·a·zi′ah.[j] 22 He rebuilt E′lath[k] and restored it to Judah after the king* was laid to rest with his forefathers.[l]

23 In the 15th year of Am·a·zi′ah the son of Je·ho′ash the king of Judah, Jer·o·bo′am[m] the son of King Je·ho′ash of Israel became king in Sa·mar′i·a, and he reigned for 41 years. 24 He continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes. He did not depart from all the sins that Jer·o·bo′am the son of Ne′bat had caused Israel to commit.[n] 25 He restored the boundary of Israel from Le′bo·ha′math*[o] clear to the Sea of the Ar′a·bah,#[p] according to the word that Jehovah the God of Israel spoke through his servant Jo′nah[q] the son of A·mit′tai, the prophet from Gath-he′pher.[a] 26 For Jehovah had seen the very bitter affliction of Israel.[b] There was no one left to help Israel, not even the helpless or the weak. 27 But Jehovah had promised not to wipe out the name of Israel from under the heavens.[c] So he saved them by the hand of Jer·o·bo′am the son of Je·ho′ash.[d]

28 As for the rest of the history of Jer·o·bo′am, all that he did and his mightiness, how he fought and how he restored Damascus[e] and Ha′math[f] to Judah in Israel, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Israel? 29 Then Jer·o·bo′am was laid to rest with his forefathers, with the kings of Israel; and his son Zech·a·ri′ah[g] became king in his place.

15 In the 27th year of King Jer·o·bo′am* of Israel, Az·a·ri′ah#[h] the son of King Am·a·zi′ah[i] of Judah became king.[j] 2 He was 16 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 52 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Je·co·li′ah of Jerusalem. 3 He continued to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes, just as his father Am·a·zi′ah had done.[k] 4 However, the high places were not removed,[l] and the people were still sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places.[m] 5 Jehovah afflicted the king, and he remained a leper[n] until the day of his death; and he stayed in a separate house,[o] while the king's son Jo′tham[p] was in charge of the house,* judging the people of the land.[q] 6 As for the rest of the history of Az·a·ri′ah,[r] all that he did, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Judah? 7 Then Az·a·ri′ah was laid to rest with his forefathers,[a] and they buried him with his forefathers in the City of David; and his son Jo′tham became king in his place.

8 In the 38th year of King Az·a·ri′ah[b] of Judah, Zech·a·ri′ah[c] the son of Jer·o·bo′am became king over Israel in Sa·mar′i·a, and he reigned for six months. 9 He did what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, just as his forefathers had done. He did not depart from the sins that Jer·o·bo′am the son of Ne′bat had caused Israel to commit.[d] 10 Then Shal′lum the son of Ja′besh conspired against him and struck him down[e] at Ib′le·am.[f] After putting him to death, he became king in his place. 11 As for the rest of the history of Zech·a·ri′ah, it is written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Israel. 12 That fulfilled Jehovah's word spoken to Je′hu: "Four generations of your sons[g] will sit on the throne of Israel."[h] And that is how it happened.

13 Shal′lum the son of Ja′besh became king in the 39th year of King Uz·zi′ah[i] of Judah, and he reigned for a full month in Sa·mar′i·a. 14 Then Men′a·hem the son of Ga′di came up from Tir′zah[j] to Sa·mar′i·a and struck down Shal′lum[k] the son of Ja′besh in Sa·mar′i·a. After putting him to death, he became king in his place. 15 As for the rest of the history of Shal′lum and the conspiracy that he formed, it is written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Israel. 16 It was then that Men′a·hem came from Tir′zah and struck down Tiph′sah and all who were in it and its territory, because it did not open its gates to him. He struck it down and ripped open its pregnant women.

17 In the 39th year of King Az·a·ri′ah of Judah, Men′a·hem the son of Ga′di became king over Israel, and he reigned for ten years in Sa·mar′i·a. 18 He continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes. He did not depart from all the sins that Jer·o·bo′am the son of Ne′bat had caused Israel to commit,[a] all his days. 19 King Pul[b] of As·syr′i·a came into the land, and Men′a·hem gave Pul 1,000 talents* of silver in return for his support in strengthening his hold on the kingdom.[c] 20 So Men′a·hem raised the silver from Israel by exacting it from the prominent, wealthy men.[d] He gave the king of As·syr′i·a 50 silver shekels* for each man. Then the king of As·syr′i·a turned back and did not stay in the land. 21 As for the rest of the history of Men′a·hem,[e] all that he did, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Israel? 22 Then Men′a·hem was laid to rest with his forefathers; and his son Pek·a·hi′ah became king in his place.

23 In the 50th year of King Az·a·ri′ah of Judah, Pek·a·hi′ah the son of Men′a·hem became king over Israel in Sa·mar′i·a, and he reigned for two years. 24 He continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes. He did not depart from the sins that Jer·o·bo′am the son of Ne′bat had caused Israel to commit.[f] 25 Then his adjutant Pe′kah[g] the son of Rem·a·li′ah conspired against him and struck him down in Sa·mar′i·a in the fortified tower of the king's house* with Ar′gob and A·ri′eh. He had 50 men of Gil′e·ad with him; and after he put him to death, he became king in his place. 26 As for the rest of the history of Pek·a·hi′ah, 27 In the 52nd year of King Az·a·ri′ah of Judah, Pe′·kah[a] the son of Rem·a·li′ah became king over Israel in Sa·mar′·i·a, and he reigned for 20 years. 28 He continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, and he did not depart from the sins that Jer·o·bo′am the son of Ne′bat had caused Israel to commit.[b] 29 In the days of King Pe′kah of Israel, King Tig′lath-pil·e′ser[c] of As·syr′i·a invaded and captured I′jon, A′bel-beth-ma′a·cah,[d] Ja·no′ah, Ke′desh,[e] Ha′zor, Gil′e·ad,[f] and Gal′i·lee—all the land of Naph′ta·li[g]—and he took the inhabitants into exile in As·syr′·i·a.[h] 30 Then Ho·she′a[i] the son of E′lah formed a conspiracy against Pe′kah the son of Rem·a·li′ah, and he struck him and put him to death; and he became king in his place in the 20th year of Jo′tham[j] the son of Uz·zi′ah. 31 As for the rest of the history of Pe′kah, all that he did, it is written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Israel.

32 In the second year of Pe′·kah the son of Rem·a·li′ah the king of Israel, Jo′tham[k] the son of King Uz·zi′ah[l] of Judah became king. 33 He was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 16 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Je·ru′sha the daughter of Za′·dok.[m] 34 He kept doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes, just as his father Uz·zi′ah had done.[n] 35 However, the high places were not removed, and the people were still sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places.[o] He was the one who built the upper gate of the house of Jehovah.[p] 36 As for the rest of the history of Jo′·tham, what he did, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Judah? 37 In those days Jehovah began sending Re′zin the king of Syria and Pe′kah[a] the son of Rem·a·li′ah against Judah.[b] 38 Then Jo′tham was laid to rest with his forefathers and was buried with his forefathers in the City of David his forefather. And his son A′haz became king in his place.

16 In the 17th year of Pe′·kah the son of Rem·a·li′ah, A′haz[c] the son of King Jo′tham of Judah became king. 2 A′haz was 20 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 16 years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in the eyes of Jehovah his God as David his forefather had done.[d] 3 Instead, he walked in the way of the kings of Israel,[e] and he even made his own son pass through the fire,[f] following the detestable practices of the nations[g] that Jehovah had driven out from before the Israelites. 4 He also kept sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places,[h] on the hills, and under every luxuriant tree.[i]

5 It was then that King Re′zin of Syria and Pe′kah son of Rem·a·li′ah the king of Israel came up to wage war against Jerusalem.[j] They laid siege against A′haz but were not able to capture the city. 6 At that time King Re′·zin of Syria restored E′lath[k] to E′dom, after which he drove the Jews* out of E′lath. And the E′dom·ites entered E′lath, and they have occupied it down to this day. 7 So A′haz sent messengers to King Tig′lath-pil·e′ser[l] of As·syr′i·a, saying: "I am your servant and your son. Come up and save me from the hand of the king of Syria and the hand of the king of Israel, who are attacking me." 8 A′haz then took the silver and the gold that was to be found at the house of Jehovah and in the treasuries of the king's house* and sent the king of As·syr′i·a a bribe.[a] 9 The king of As·syr′i·a responded to his request, and he went up to Damascus and captured it and led its people into exile to Kir,[b] and he put Re′zin to death.[c]

10 Then King A′haz went to meet King Tig′lath-pil·e′ser of As·syr′i·a at Damascus. When he saw the altar that was in Damascus, King A′haz sent U·ri′jah the priest a plan of the altar, showing its pattern and how it was made.[d] 11 U·ri′jah[e] the priest built an altar[f] according to all the directions that King A′haz had sent from Damascus. U·ri′jah the priest finished building it before King A′haz returned from Damascus. 12 When the king returned from Damascus and saw the altar, he approached the altar and made offerings on it.[g] 13 And on that altar he continued to make his burnt offerings and his grain offerings smoke; he also poured out his drink offerings and sprinkled the blood of his communion sacrifices on it. 14 Then he moved the copper altar[h] that was before Jehovah from its place in front of the house, from between his own altar and the house of Jehovah, and he put it at the north side of his own altar. 15 King A′haz commanded U·ri′jah[i] the priest: "Make the morning burnt offering smoke on the great altar,[j] also the evening grain offering,[k] the king's burnt offering, and his grain offering, as well as the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the drink offerings of all the people. You should also sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offerings and all the blood of the other sacrifices. As for the copper altar, let me decide what to do with it." 16 And U·ri′jah the priest did everything that King A′haz had commanded.[a]

17 Furthermore, King A′haz cut the side panels of the carriages[b] into pieces and removed the basins from them,[c] and he took the Sea down off the copper bulls[d] that supported it and put it on a stone pavement.[e] 18 And the covered structure for the Sabbath that had been built in the house and the king's outer entryway he shifted away from the house of Jehovah; he did so because of the king of As·syr′i·a.

19 As for the rest of the history of A′haz, what he did, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Judah?[f] 20 Then A′haz was laid to rest with his forefathers and was buried with his forefathers in the City of David; and his son Hez·e·ki′ah*[g] became king in his place.

17 In the 12th year of King A′haz of Judah, Ho·she′a[h] the son of E′lah became king over Israel in Sa·mar′i·a; he ruled for nine years. 2 He continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, only not to the extent of the kings of Israel prior to him. 3 King Shal·man·e′ser of As·syr′i·a came up against him,[i] and Ho·she′a became his servant and began to pay tribute to him.[j] 4 However, the king of As·syr′i·a learned that Ho·she′a was involved in a conspiracy, for he had sent messengers to King So of Egypt[k] and did not bring the tribute up to the king of As·syr′i·a as in former years. Therefore, the king of As·syr′i·a kept him confined and bound in prison.

5 The king of As·syr′i·a invaded the entire land, and he came to Sa·mar′i·a and laid siege to it for three years. 6 In the ninth year of Ho·she′a, the king of As·syr′i·a captured Sa·mar′i·a.[a] He then led the people of Israel into exile[b] in As·syr′i·a and made them dwell in Ha′lah and in Ha′bor at the river Go′zan[c] and in the cities of the Medes.[d]

7 This happened because the people of Israel had sinned against Jehovah their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the control of Phar′aoh king of Egypt.[e] They worshipped* other gods,[f] 8 they followed the customs of the nations that Jehovah had driven out from before the Israelites, and they followed the customs that the kings of Israel had established.

9 The Israelites were pursuing the things that were not right according to Jehovah their God. They kept building high places in all their cities,[g] from watchtower to fortified city.* 10 They kept setting up for themselves sacred pillars and sacred poles*[h] on every high hill and under every luxuriant tree;[i] 11 and on all the high places they would make sacrificial smoke just as the nations did that Jehovah had driven into exile from before them.[j] They kept doing wicked things to offend Jehovah.

12 They continued to serve disgusting idols,[k] about which Jehovah had told them: "You must not do this!"[l] 13 Jehovah kept warning Israel and Judah through all his prophets and every visionary,[m] saying: "Turn back from your wicked ways! Keep my commandments and my statutes according to all the law that I commanded your forefathers and that I sent to you through my servants the prophets." 14 But they did not listen, and they remained just as stubborn as their forefathers who had not shown faith in Jehovah their God.[a] 15 They continued rejecting his regulations and his covenant[b] that he had made with their forefathers and his reminders that he had given to warn them,[c] and they kept following worthless idols[d] and became worthless themselves,[e] imitating the nations all around them that Jehovah had commanded them not to imitate.[f]

16 They kept leaving all the commandments of Jehovah their God, and they made metal statues# of two calves[g] and a sacred pole,[h] and they bowed down to all the army of the heavens[i] and served Ba′al.[j] 17 They also made their sons and their daughters pass through the fire,[k] they practiced divination[l] and looked for omens, and they kept devoting themselves to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah, to offend him.

18 So Jehovah was very angry with Israel, so that he removed them from his sight.[m] He did not let any remain but the tribe of Judah alone.

19 Even Judah did not keep the commandments of Jehovah their God;[n] they also walked in the customs that Israel followed.[o] 20 Jehovah rejected all the descendants of Israel and humiliated them and gave them into the hand of plunderers, until he had cast them away from before him. 21 He ripped Israel away from the house of David, and they made

Jer·o·bo′am the son of Ne′bat king.[a] But Jer·o·bo′am caused Israel to stray from following Jehovah, and he caused them to commit a great sin. 22 And the people of Israel kept walking in all the sins that Jer·o·bo′am had committed.[b] They did not depart from them 23 until Jehovah removed Israel from his sight, just as he had declared through all his servants the prophets.[c] So Israel was taken into exile from its land to As·syr′i·a,[d] where they remain to this day.

24 The king of As·syr′i·a then brought people from Babylon, Cu′thah, Av′va, Ha′math, and Seph·ar·va′im[e] and settled them in the cities of Sa·mar′i·a in place of the Israelites; they took possession of Sa·mar′i·a and lived in its cities. 25 When they first began dwelling there, they did not fear* Jehovah. So Jehovah sent lions among them,[f] and they killed some of the people. 26 It was reported to the king of As·syr′i·a: "The nations that you have taken into exile and resettled in the cities of Sa·mar′i·a do not know the religion* of the God of the land. So he keeps sending lions among them, which are putting them to death, because none of them know the religion of the God of the land."

27 At that the king of As·syr′i·a commanded: "Have one of the priests whom you took into exile from there return to live there and to teach them the religion of the God of the land." 28 So one of the priests whom they had taken into exile from Sa·mar′i·a came back to live in Beth′el,[g] and he began to teach them how they should fear* Jehovah.[h]

29 However, each different nation made their own god,* which they placed in the houses of worship on the high places that the Sa·mar′i·tans had made; each different nation did so in their cities where they were living. 30 So the men of Babylon made Suc′coth-be′noth, the men of Cuth made Ner′gal, the men of Ha′math[a] made A·shi′ma, 31 and the Av′vites made Nib′haz and Tar′tak. The Se′phar·vites would burn their sons in the fire to A·dram′me·lech and A·nam′me·lech, the gods of Seph·ar·va′im.[b] 32 Although they feared Jehovah, they appointed priests for the high places from the people in general, and these officiated for them at the houses of worship on the high places.[c] 33 Thus, they feared Jehovah, but they worshipped their own gods according to the religion* of the nations from which they had been deported.[d]

34 To this day they follow their former religions.* None of them worship[#] Jehovah, and none follow his statutes, his judgments, the Law, and the commandment that Jehovah gave the sons of Jacob, whose name he changed to Israel.[e] 35 When Jehovah made a covenant with them,[f] he commanded them: "You must not fear other gods, and you must not bow down to them or serve them or sacrifice to them.[g] 36 But Jehovah, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and an outstretched arm,[h] is the One you should fear,[i] and to him you should bow down, and to him you should sacrifice. 37 And the regulations, the judgments, the Law, and the commandment that he wrote for you,[j] you should always follow carefully, and you must not fear other gods. 38 And you must not forget the covenant that I made with you,[a] and you must not fear other gods. 39 But it is Jehovah your God whom you should fear, as he is the one who will rescue you out of the hand of all your enemies."

40 But they did not obey, and they followed their former religion.*[b] 41 So these nations came to fear Jehovah,[c] but they were also serving their own graven images. Both their sons and their grandsons have done just as their forefathers did, down to this day.

18 In the third year of Ho·she'a[d] the son of E'lah the king of Israel, Hez·e·ki'ah[e] the son of King A'haz[f] of Judah became king. 2 He was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was A'bi* the daughter of Zech·a·ri'ah.[g] 3 He kept doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes,[h] just as David his forefather had done.[i] 4 He was the one who removed the high places,[j] smashed the sacred pillars, and cut down the sacred pole.[k] He also crushed the copper serpent that Moses had made;[l] for down to that time the people of Israel had been making sacrificial smoke to it and it used to be called the copper serpent-idol.# 5 He trusted in Jehovah[m] the God of Israel; there was no one like him among all the kings of Judah after him nor among those prior to him. 6 He held fast to Jehovah.[n] He did not turn away from following him; he continued to keep the commandments that Jehovah had given to Moses. 7 And Jehovah was with him. Wherever he went, he acted wisely. He rebelled against the king of As·syr'i·a and refused to serve him.[a] 8 He also defeated the Phi·lis'tines[b] clear to Gaz'a and its territories, from watchtower to fortified city.

9 In the fourth year of King Hez·e·ki'ah, that is, the seventh year of Ho·she'a[c] the son of E'lah the king of Israel, King Shal·man·e'ser of As·syr'i·a came up against Sa·mar'i·a and began to lay siege to it.[d] 10 They captured it[e] at the end of three years; in the sixth year of Hez·e·ki'ah, which was the ninth year of King Ho·she'a of Israel, Sa·mar'i·a was captured. 11 Then the king of As·syr'i·a took Israel into exile[f] in As·syr'i·a and settled them in Ha'lah and in Ha'bor at the river Go'zan and in the cities of the Medes.[g] 12 This was because they had not listened to the voice of Jehovah their God but kept violating his covenant, all that Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded.[h] They neither listened nor obeyed.

13 In the 14th year of King Hez·e·ki'ah, Sen·nach'er·ib the king of As·syr'i·a[j] came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.[j] 14 So King Hez·e·ki'ah of Judah sent word to the king of As·syr'i·a at La'chish: "I am at fault. Withdraw from against me, and I will give whatever you may impose on me." The king of As·syr'i·a imposed on King Hez·e·ki'ah of Judah a fine of 300 silver talents* and 30 gold talents. 15 So Hez·e·ki'ah gave all the silver that could be found at the house of Jehovah and in the treasuries of the king's house.[k] 16 At that time Hez·e·ki'ah removed the doors of the temple[l] of Jehovah and the doorposts that King Hez·e·ki'ah of Judah himself had overlaid,*[a] and he gave them to the king of As·syr'i·a.

17 The king of As·syr'i·a then sent the Tar'tan,* the Rab'sa·ris,# and the Rab'sha·keh^ with a vast army from La'chish[b] to King Hez·e·ki'ah in Jerusalem.[c] They went up to Jerusalem and took up a position by the conduit of the upper pool, which is at the highway of the laundryman's field.[d] 18 When they called for the king to come out, E·li'a·kim[e] son of Hil·ki'ah, who was in charge of the household,* Sheb'nah[f] the secretary, and Jo'ah son of A'saph the recorder came out to them.

19 So the Rab'sha·keh said to them: "Please, say to Hez·e·ki'ah, 'This is what the great king, the king of As·syr'i·a, says: "What is the basis for your confidence?[g] 20 You are saying, 'I have a strategy and the power to wage war,' but these are empty words. In whom have you put your trust, so that you dare to rebel against me?[h] 21 Look! You trust in the support of this crushed reed, Egypt,[i] which if a man should lean on it would enter into his palm and pierce it. That is the way Phar'aoh king of Egypt is to all those who trust in him. 22 And if you should say to me, 'We trust in Jehovah our God,'[j] is he not the one whose high places and altars Hez·e·ki'ah has removed,[k] while he says to Judah and Jerusalem, 'You should bow down before this altar in Jerusalem'?"'[l] 23 So now make this wager, please, with my lord the king of As·syr'i·a: I will give you 2,000 horses if you are able to find enough riders for them.[a] 24 How, then, could you drive back even one governor who is the least of my lord's servants, while you put your trust in Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? 25 Now is it without authorization from Jehovah that I have come up against this place to destroy it? Jehovah himself said to me, 'Go up against this land and destroy it.'"

26 At this E·li'a·kim son of Hil·ki'ah, and Sheb'nah[b] and Jo'ah said to the Rab'sha·keh:[c] "Speak to your servants, please, in the Ar·a·ma'ic* language,[d] for we can understand it; do not speak to us in the language of the Jews in the hearing of the people on the wall."[e] 27 But the Rab'sha·keh said to them: "Is it just to your lord and to you that my lord sent me to speak these words? Is it not also to the men who sit on the wall, those who will eat their own excrement and drink their own urine along with you?"

28 Then the Rab'sha·keh stood and called out loudly in the language of the Jews, saying: "Hear the word of the great king, the king of As·syr'i·a.[f] 29 This is what the king says, 'Do not let Hez·e·ki'ah deceive you, for he is not able to rescue you out of my hand.[g] 30 And do not let Hez·e·ki'ah cause you to trust in Jehovah by saying: "Jehovah will surely rescue us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of As·syr'i·a."[h] 31 Do not listen to Hez·e·ki'ah, for this is what the king of As·syr'i·a says: "Make peace with me and surrender,* and each of you will eat from his own vine and from his own fig tree and will drink the water of his own cistern, 32 until I come and take you to a land like your own land,[i] a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and honey. Then you will live and not die. Do not listen to Hez·e·ki′ah, for he misleads you by saying, ‘Jehovah will rescue us.’ 33 Have any of the gods of the nations rescued their land out of the hand of the king of As·syr′i·a? 34 Where are the gods of Ha′math[a] and Ar′pad? Where are the gods of Seph·ar·va′im,[b] He′na, and Iv′vah? Have they rescued Sa·mar′i·a out of my hand?[c] 35 Who among all the gods of the lands have rescued their land out of my hand, so that Jehovah should rescue Jerusalem out of my hand?’”[d]

36 But the people kept silent and did not say a word to him in reply, for the order of the king was, “You must not answer him.”[e] 37 But E·li′a·kim son of Hil·ki′ah, who was in charge of the household,* Sheb′nah the secretary, and Jo′ah son of A′saph the recorder came to Hez·e·ki′ah with their garments ripped apart and told him the words of the Rab′sha·keh.

19 As soon as King Hez·e·ki′ah heard this, he ripped his garments apart and covered himself with sackcloth and went into the house of Jehovah.[f] 2 Then he sent E·li′a·kim, who was in charge of the household,* Sheb′nah the secretary, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah,[g] the son of A′moz. 3 They said to him: “This is what Hez·e·ki′ah says, ‘This day is a day of distress, of rebuke,* and of disgrace; for the children are ready to be born,# but there is no strength to give birth.[h] 4 Perhaps Jehovah your God will hear all the words of the Rab′sha·keh, whom the king of As·syr′i·a his lord sent to taunt the living God,[a] and he will call him to account for the words that Jehovah your God has heard. So offer up a prayer[b] in behalf of the remnant who have survived.’”

5 So the servants of King Hez·e·ki′ah went in to Isaiah,[c] 6 and Isaiah said to them: “This is what you should say to your lord, ‘This is what Jehovah says: “Do not be afraid[d] because of the words that you heard, the words with which the attendants of the king of As·syr′i·a blasphemed me.[e] 7 Here I am putting a thought in his mind,* and he will hear a report and return to his own land; and I will make him fall by the sword in his own land.”’”[f]

8 After the Rab′sha·keh heard that the king of As·syr′i·a had pulled away from La′chish,[g] he returned to him and found him fighting against Lib′nah.[h] 9 Now the king heard it said about King Tir·ha′kah of E·thi·o′pi·a: “Here he has come out to fight against you.” So he sent messengers[i] again to Hez·e·ki′ah, saying: 10 “This is what you should say to King Hez·e·ki′ah of Judah, ‘Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you by saying: “Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of As·syr′i·a.”[j] 11 Look! You have heard what the kings of As·syr′i·a did to all the lands by devoting them to destruction.[k] Will you alone be rescued? 12 Did the gods of the nations that my forefathers destroyed rescue them? Where are Go′zan, Ha′ran,[l] Re′zeph, and the people of E′den who were in Tel-as′sar? 13 Where is the king of Ha′math, the king of Ar′pad, and the king of the cities of Seph·ar·va′im, and of He′na, and of Iv′vah?’”[m] out of the hand of the messenah then went up to the house of Jehovah and spread them* out before Jehovah.[a] 15 And Hez-e·ki′ah began to pray[b] before Jehovah and say: "O Jehovah the God of Israel, sitting enthroned above* the cherubs,[c] you alone are the true God of all the kingdoms of the earth.[d] You made the heavens and the earth. 16 Incline your ear, O Jehovah, and hear![e] Open your eyes,[f] O Jehovah, and see! Hear the words that Sen·nach′er·ib has sent to taunt the living God. 17 It is a fact, O Jehovah, that the kings of As·syr′i·a have devastated the nations and their lands.[g] 18 And they have thrown their gods into the fire, because they were not gods[h] but the work of human hands,[i] wood and stone.

That is why they could destroy them. 19 But now, O Jehovah our God, please save us out of his hand, so that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you alone are God, O Jehovah."[j]

20 Isaiah son of A′moz then sent this message to Hez·e·ki′- ah: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says, 'I have heard your prayer[k] to me concerning
King Sen·nach′er·ib of As·syr′i·a.[l]
21 This is the word that Jehovah has spoken against him:

"'The virgin daughter of Zion despises you, she scoffs at you.
The daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head at you.
22 Whom have you taunted and blasphemed?[m]
Against whom have you raised your voice[n]
And lifted your arrogant eyes?
It is against the Holy One of Israel![a] 23 Through your messengers[b]
you have taunted Jehovah[c] and said,
'With the multitude of my war chariots
I will ascend the heights of mountains,
The remotest parts of Leb′a·non.
I will cut down its lofty cedars, its choice juniper trees.
I will enter its farthest retreats, its densest forests.
24 I will dig wells and drink
foreign waters;
I will dry up all the streams* of Egypt with the soles of my feet.'
25 Have you not heard? From long ago it was determined.*[d]
From days gone by I have prepared# it.[e]
Now I will bring it about.[f]
You will turn fortified cities into desolate piles of ruins.[g]
26 Their inhabitants will be helpless;
They will be terrified and put to shame.
They will become as vegetation of the field and green grass,[h]
As grass of the roofs that is scorched by the east wind.
27 But I well know when you sit, when you go out, when you come in,[i]
And when you are enraged against me,[j]

me[k] and your roaring have reached my ears.[l]

The zeal of Jehovah of armies will do this.[e]

32 "'Therefore this is what Jehovah says about the king of As·syr'i·a:[f]

Or confront it with a shield
Or cast up a siege rampart against it.[h]

He will not come into this city," declares Jehovah.

34 "I will defend this city[i] and save it for my own sake[j]
And for the sake of my servant David.'"'"[k]

35 On that very night the angel of Jehovah went out and struck down 185,000 men in the camp of the As·syr'i·ans.[l] When people rose up early in the morning, they saw all the dead bodies.[m] 36 So King Sen·nach'·er·ib of As·syr'i·a departed and returned to Nin'e·veh[n] and stayed there.[o] 37 And as he was bowing down at the house* of his god Nis'roch, his own sons A·dram'me·lech and Shar·e'zer struck him down with the sword[a] and then escaped to the land of Ar'a·rat.[b] And his son E'sar-had'don[c] became king in his place.

20 In those days Hez·e·ki'ah became sick and was at the point of death.[d] The prophet Isaiah the son of A'moz came and said to him, "This is what Jehovah says: 'Give instructions to your household, for you will die; you will not recover.'"[e] 2 At that he turned his face to the wall and began to pray to Jehovah: 3 "I beg you, O Jehovah, remember, please, how I have walked before you faithfully and with a complete heart, and I have done what was good in your eyes."[f] And Hez·e·ki'ah began to weep profusely.

4 Isaiah had not yet gone out to the middle courtyard when Jehovah's word came to him, saying:[g] 5 "Go back and say to Hez·e·ki'ah, the leader of my people, 'This is what Jehovah the God of David your forefather says: "I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears.[h] Here I am healing you.[i] On the third day you will go up to the house of Jehovah.[j] 6 I will add 15 years to your life,* and I will rescue you and this city out of the hand of the king of As·syr'i·a,[k] and I will defend this city for my own sake and for the sake of David my servant."'"[l]

7 Isaiah then said: "Bring a cake of pressed dried figs." So they brought it and applied it to the boil, after which he gradually recovered.[m]

8 Hez·e·ki'ah had asked Isaiah: "What is the sign[n] to show that Jehovah will heal me and that I will go up on the third day to the house of Jehovah?" 9 Isaiah replied: "This is the sign from Jehovah to show that Jehovah will carry out the word that he has spoken: Do you want the shadow on the stairway* to move forward ten steps or back ten steps?"[a] 10 Hez·e·ki'ah said: "It is an easy thing for the shadow to extend itself ten steps but not to go back ten steps." 11 So Isaiah the prophet called out to Jehovah, and He made the shadow on the stairway of A'haz go back ten steps after it had already descended the steps.[b]

12 At that time the king of Babylon, Be·ro'dach-bal'a·dan son of Bal'a·dan, sent letters and a gift to Hez·e·ki'ah, for he had heard that Hez·e·ki'ah had been sick.[c] 13 Hez·e·ki'ah welcomed* them and showed them his entire treasure-house[d]—the silver, the gold, the balsam oil and other precious oil, his armory, and everything that was to be found in his treasuries. There was nothing that Hez·e·ki'ah did not show them in his own house# and in all his dominion.

14 After that Isaiah the prophet came in to King Hez·e·ki'ah and asked him: "What did these men say, and where did they come from?" So Hez·e·ki'ah said: "They came from a distant land, from Babylon."[e] 15 Next he asked: "What did they see in your house?"# Hez·e·ki'ah replied: "They saw everything in my house.# There was nothing that I did not show them in my treasuries."

16 Isaiah now said to Hez·e·ki'ah: "Hear the word of Jehovah,[f] 17 'Look! Days are coming, and all that is in your house# and all that your forefathers have stored up to this day will be carried off to Babylon.[g] Nothing will be left,' says Jehovah. 18 'And some of your own sons to whom you will become father will be taken[a] and will become court officials in the palace of the king of Babylon.'"[b]

19 At that Hez·e·ki'ah said to Isaiah: "The word of Jehovah that you have spoken is good."[c] Then he added: "It is good if there will be peace and stability* during my lifetime."#[d]

20 As for the rest of the history of Hez·e·ki'ah, all his mightiness and how he made the pool[e] and the conduit and brought the water into the city,[f] is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Judah? 21 Then Hez·e·ki'ah was laid to rest with his forefathers;[g] and his son Ma·nas'seh[h] became king in his place.[i] mediums and fortune-tellers.[a] He did on a grand scale what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, to offend him.

7 He put the carved image of the sacred pole*[b] that he made into the house about which Jehovah had said to David and to his son Sol'o·mon: "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will permanently put my name.[c] 8 And I will never again make the feet of Israel wander from the land that I gave to their forefathers,[d] provided they carefully observe all that I have commanded them,[e] the entire Law that my servant Moses ordered them to follow." 9 But they did not obey, and Ma·nas'seh kept leading them astray, causing them to do greater evil than the nations that Jehovah had annihilated from before the Israelites.[f]

10 Jehovah kept speaking through his servants the prophets,[g] saying: 11 "Ma·nas'seh the king of Judah has done all these detestable things; he has acted more wickedly than all the Am'or·ites[h] before him,[i] and he has made Judah sin with his disgusting idols.* 12 Therefore this is what Jehovah the God of Israel says: 'Here I am bringing such a disaster on Jerusalem[j] and Judah that it will make both ears of anyone who hears about it tingle.[k] 13 And I will stretch out on Jerusalem the measuring line[l] applied to Sa·mar'i·a[m] and use the leveling tool* applied to the house of A'hab,[n] and I will wipe Jerusalem clean, just as one wipes a bowl clean, wiping it and turning it upside down.[o] 14 I will forsake the remnant of my inheritance[p] and give them into the hand of their enemies, and they will become plunder and spoil to all their enemies,[a] 15 because they did what was bad in my eyes and were continually offending me from the day that their forefathers came out of Egypt to this day.'"[b] of the times of the kings of Judah? 26 So they buried him in his grave in the garden of Uz′za,[a] and his son Jo·si′ah[b] became king in his place.

22 Jo·si′ah[c] was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned for 31 years in Jerusalem.[d] His mother's name was Je·di′dah the daughter of A·dai′ah from Boz′kath.[e] 2 He did what was right in Jehovah's eyes and walked in all the ways of David his forefather,[f] and he did not deviate to the right or to the left.

3 In the 18th year of King Josi′ah, the king sent Sha′phan the secretary, the son of Az·a·li′ah the son of Me·shul′lam, to the house of Jehovah,[g] saying: 4 "Go up to Hil·ki′ah[h] the high priest, and let him collect all the money that is being brought into the house of Jehovah,[i] which the doorkeepers have collected from the people.[j] 5 Have them give it to those appointed over the work in the house of Jehovah who, in turn, will give it to the workers in the house of Jehovah who are to repair the damage to* the house,[k] 6 that is, to the craftsmen, the builders, and the masons; and they are to use it to buy timbers and hewn stones to repair the house.[l] 7 But no accounting should be required of them for the money that they are given, because they are trustworthy."[m]

8 Later Hil·ki′ah the high priest said to Sha′phan the secretary:[n] "I have found the book of the Law[o] in the house of Jehovah." So Hil·ki′ah gave the book to Sha′phan, who began to read it.[p] 9 Then Sha′phan the secretary went to the king and told him: "Your servants have poured out the money that was found in the house, and they have handed it over to those appointed over the work in the house of Jehovah."[a] 10 Sha′phan the secretary also told the king: "There is a book[b] that Hil·ki′ah the priest has given me." Then Sha′phan began to read it before the king.

11 As soon as the king heard the words of the book of the Law, he ripped his garments apart.[c] 12 Then the king gave this order to Hil·ki′ah the priest, A·hi′kam[d] the son of Sha′phan, Ach′bor the son of Mi·cai′ah, Sha′phan the secretary, and A·sai′ah the king's servant: 13 "Go, inquire of Jehovah in my behalf, in behalf of the people, and in behalf of all Judah concerning the words of this book that has been found; for Jehovah's rage that has been set ablaze against us is great,[e] because our forefathers did not obey the words of this book by observing all that is written concerning us."

14 So Hil·ki′ah the priest, A·hi′kam, Ach′bor, Sha′phan, and A·sai′ah went to Hul′dah the prophetess.[f] She was the wife of Shal′lum son of Tik′vah son of Har′has, the caretaker of the wardrobe, and she was dwelling in the Second Quarter of Jerusalem; and they spoke to her there.[g] 15 She said to them: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says, 'Tell the man who sent you to me: 16 "This is what Jehovah says, 'I will bring calamity on this place and its inhabitants, all the words of the book that the king of Judah has read.[h] 17 Because they have abandoned me and are making sacrifices smoke to other gods[i] in order to offend me with all the work of their hands,[j] my rage will be set ablaze against this place and it will not be extinguished.'"[k] 18 But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of Jehovah, this is what you should say to him, “This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says: ‘Regarding the words that you have heard, 19 because your heart was responsive* and you humbled yourself[a] before Jehovah on hearing what I have spoken against this place and its inhabitants—that they would become an object of horror and a curse—and you ripped your garments apart[b] and wept before me, I also have heard you, declares Jehovah. 20 That is why I will gather you to your ancestors,* and you will be laid in your grave in peace, and your eyes will not see all the calamity that I will bring on this place.’”” Then they brought the reply to the king.

23 So the king sent word, and they summoned all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.[c] 2 After that the king went up to the house of Jehovah with all the men of Judah, all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, and the prophets—all the people, from small to great. He read in their hearing all the words of the book[d] of the covenant[e] that had been found in the house of Jehovah.[f] 3 The king stood by the pillar and made a covenant* before Jehovah,[g] that he would follow Jehovah and keep his commandments, his reminders, and his statutes with all his heart and with all his soul# by carrying out the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people agreed to the covenant.[h]

4 The king then ordered Hilki′ah[i] the high priest, the priests of the second rank, and the doorkeepers to bring out from the temple of Jehovah all the utensils made for Ba′al, for the sacred pole,#[a] and for all the army of the heavens. Then he burned them outside Jerusalem on the terraces of Kid′ron, and he took their ashes to Beth′el.[b] 5 So he put out of business the foreign-god priests, whom the kings of Judah had appointed to make sacrificial smoke on the high places in the cities of Judah and the surroundings of Jerusalem, as well as those making sacrificial smoke to Ba′al, to the sun, to the moon, to the constellations of the zodiac, and to all the army of the heavens.[c] 6 He brought the sacred pole#[d] out from the house of Jehovah to the outskirts of Jerusalem, to the Kid′ron Valley, and he burned it[e] in the Kid′ron Valley and ground it to dust and scattered its dust on the graves of the common people.[f] 7 He also tore down the houses of the male temple prostitutes,[g] which were in the house of Jehovah and where the women were weaving tent shrines for the sacred pole.#

8 Then he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and he made unfit for worship the high places where the priests had been making sacrificial smoke, from Ge′ba[h] to Be′er-she′ba.[i] He also tore down the high places of the gates that were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the chief of the city, which were on the left as one entered the city gate. 9 The priests of the high places did not serve at the altar of Jehovah in Jerusalem,[j] but they did eat unleavened bread along with their brothers. 10 He also made unfit for worship To′pheth,[k] which is in the Valley of the Sons of Hin′nom,[l] so that no one could make his son or his daughter pass through the fire to Mo′lech.[m] 11 And he prohibited the horses that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun from entering the house of Jehovah by the chamber# of Na′thanmel′ech the court official, which was in the porticoes; and he burned the chariots of the sun[a] in the fire. 12 The king also tore down the altars that the kings of Judah had set up on the roof[b] of A′haz's upper chamber, as well as the altars that Manas′seh had set up in two courtyards of the house of Jehovah.[c] He crushed them and scattered their dust in the Kid′ron Valley. 13 And the king made unfit for worship the high places in front of Jerusalem that were to the south* of the Mount of Ruination,# which Sol′o·mon the king of Israel had built to Ash′to·reth the disgusting goddess of the Si·do′ni·ans; and to Che′mosh the disgusting god of Mo′ab; and to Mil′com[d] the detestable god of the Am′mon·ites.[e] 14 He broke the sacred pillars to pieces and cut down the sacred poles*[f] and filled their places with human bones. 15 He also tore down the altar in Beth′el, the high place that Jer·o·bo′am the son of Ne′bat had made that caused Israel to sin.[g] After tearing down that altar and the high place, he burned the high place, ground it to dust, and burned the sacred pole.*[h]

16 When Jo·si′ah turned and saw the graves on the mountain, he had the bones taken from the graves and burned them on the altar, making it unfit for worship, according to Jehovah's word that had been proclaimed by the man of the true God who foretold that these things would happen.[a] 17 Then he said: "What is the gravestone over there that I am looking at?" At this the men of the city said to him: "It is the grave of the man of the true God from Judah[b] who foretold these things that you have done against the altar of Beth′el." 18 So he said: "Let him rest. Do not let anyone disturb his bones." So they left his bones undisturbed, as well as the bones of the prophet who had come from Sa·mar′i·a.[c]

19 Jo·si′ah also removed all the houses of worship on the high places that were in the cities of Sa·mar′i·a,[d] which the kings of Israel had built to offend God, and he did the same thing to them that he had done at Beth′el.[e] 20 So he sacrificed on the altars all the priests of the high places who were there, and he burned human bones on them.[f] After that he returned to Jerusalem.

21 The king now commanded all the people: "Hold a Passover[g] to Jehovah your God as is written in this book of the covenant."[h] 22 No Passover like this had been held since the days when the judges had judged Israel or in all the days of the kings of Israel and the kings of Judah.[i] 23 But in the 18th year of King Jo·si′ah, this Passover to Jehovah was held in Jerusalem.

24 Jo·si′ah also cleared out the spirit mediums, the fortune-tellers,[j] the teraphim statues,[k] the disgusting idols,# and all the disgusting things that had appeared in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, in order to carry out the words of the Law[l] that were written in the book that Hil·ki′ah the priest had found in the house of Jehovah.[a] 25 There was no king like him prior to him, who returned to Jehovah with all his heart and with all his soul[b] and with all his strength, according to all the Law of Moses; nor did anyone like him rise up after him.

26 Nevertheless, Jehovah did not turn away from his burning anger that blazed against Judah because of all the offensive things that Ma·nas′seh had done to offend Him.[c] 27 Jehovah said: "I will also remove Judah from my sight,[d] just as I removed Israel;[e] and I will reject this city that I chose, Jerusalem, and the house about which I said, 'My name will continue there.'"[f]

28 As for the rest of the history of Jo·si′ah, all that he did, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Judah? 29 In his days Phar′aoh Ne′choh the king of Egypt came to meet the king of As·syr′i·a by the Eu·phra′tes River, and King Jo·si′ah went out to confront him; but when Ne′choh saw him, he put him to death at Me·gid′do.[g] 30 So his servants transported his dead body in a chariot from Me·gid′do and brought him to Jerusalem and buried him in his grave. Then the people of the land took Jo·si′ah's son Je·ho′a·haz and anointed him and made him king in place of his father.[h]

31 Je·ho′a·haz[i] was 23 years old when he became king, and he reigned for three months in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Ha·mu′tal[j] the daughter of Jeremiah from Lib′nah. 32 He began to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, according to all that his forefathers had done.[k] 33 Phar′aoh Ne′choh[l] imprisoned him at Rib′lah[m] in the land of Ha′math, to keep him from reigning in Jerusalem, and then imposed on the land a fine of 100 silver talents* and a gold talent.[a] 34 Furthermore, Phar′aoh Ne′choh made Jo·si′ah's son E·li′a·kim king in place of his father Jo·si′ah and changed his name to Je·hoi′a·kim; but he took Je·ho′a·haz and brought him to Egypt,[b] where he eventually died.[c] 35 Je·hoi′a·kim gave the silver and the gold to Phar′aoh, but he had to tax the land to give the silver that Phar′aoh demanded. He exacted an assessed amount of silver and gold from each of the people of the land to give to Phar′aoh Ne′choh.

36 Je·hoi′a·kim[d] was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 11 years in Jerusalem.[e] His mother's name was Zebi′dah the daughter of Pe·dai′ah from Ru′mah. 37 He continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes,[f] according to all that his forefathers had done.[g]

24 In Je·hoi′a·kim's days King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar[h] of Babylon came against him, and Je·hoi′a·kim became his servant for three years. However, he turned against him and rebelled. 2 Then Jehovah began to send against him marauder bands of Chal·de′ans,[i] Syrians, Mo′ab·ites, and Am′mon·ites. He kept sending them against Judah to destroy it, according to Jehovah's word[j] that he had spoken through his servants the prophets. 3 Surely it was by the order of Jehovah that this happened to Judah, to remove them from his sight[k] because of all the sins that Ma·nas′seh had committed,[l] 4 and also the innocent blood that he had shed,[m] for he had filled Jerusalem with innocent blood and Jehovah was not willing to forgive.[n]

5 As for the rest of the history of Je·hoi′a·kim, all that he did, is it not written in the book of the history of the times of the kings of Judah?[a] 6 Then Je·hoi′a·kim was laid to rest with his forefathers;[b] and his son Je·hoi′a·chin became king in his place.

7 Never again did the king of Egypt venture out of his land, for the king of Babylon had taken all that belonged to the king of Egypt,[c] from the Wadi* of Egypt[d] up to the Eu·phra′tes River.[e]

8 Je·hoi′a·chin[f] was 18 years old when he became king, and he reigned for three months in Jerusalem.[g] His mother's name was Ne·hush′ta the daughter of El·na′than of Jerusalem. 9 He continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, according to all that his father had done. 10 During that time the servants of King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the city came under siege.[h] 11 King Neb·u·chadnez′zar of Babylon came to the city while his servants were laying siege to it.

12 King Je·hoi′a·chin of Judah went out to the king of Babylon,[i] along with his mother, his servants, his princes, and his court officials;[j] and the king of Babylon took him captive in the eighth year of his reign.[k] 13 Then he took out from there all the treasures of the house of Jehovah and the treasures of the king's house.[l] He cut into pieces all the gold utensils that Sol′omon the king of Israel had made in the temple of Jehovah,[m] just as Jehovah had foretold. 14 He took into exile all Jerusalem, all the princes,[n] all the mighty warriors, and every craftsman and metalworker[a]—he took 10,000 into exile. No one was left behind except the poorest people of the land.[b] 15 Thus he took Je·hoi′a·chin[c] into exile to Babylon;[d] he also led away the king's mother, the king's wives, his court officials, and the foremost men of the land, taking them into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. 16 The king of Babylon also took into exile to Babylon all the warriors, 7,000, as well as 1,000 craftsmen and metalworkers,* all of them mighty men and trained for war. 17 The king of Babylon made Mat·ta·ni′ah, Je·hoi′a·chin's uncle,[e] king in his place and changed his name to Zed·e·ki′ah.[f]

18 Zed·e·ki′ah was 21 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 11 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Ha·mu′tal[g] the daughter of Jeremiah from Lib′nah. 19 He continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, according to all that Je·hoi′a·kim had done.[h] 20 It was because of Jehovah's anger that these things took place in Jerusalem and in Judah, until he cast them out of his sight.[i] And Zed·e·ki′ah rebelled against the king of Babylon.[j]

25 In the ninth year of Zed·e·ki′ah's reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar[k] of Babylon came with all his army against Jerusalem.[l] He camped against it and built a siege wall all around it,[m] 2 and the city was under siege until the 11th year of King Zed·e·ki′ah. 3 On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was severe[n] in the city, and there was no food for the people of the land.[o] 4 The city wall was broken through,[a] and all the soldiers fled by night through the gate between the double wall near the king's garden, while the Chal·de'ans were surrounding the city; and the king went by the way of the Ar'a·bah.[b] 5 But the Chal·de'an army pursued the king, and they overtook him in the desert plains of Jer'i·cho, and all his troops were scattered from his side. 6 Then they seized the king[c] and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Rib'lah, and they passed sentence on him. 7 They slaughtered Zed·e·ki'ah's sons before his eyes; then Neb·u·chad·nez'zar blinded Zed·e·ki'ah's eyes, bound him with copper fetters, and brought him to Babylon.[d]

8 In the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, that is, in the 19th year of King Neb·u·chad·nez'zar the king of Babylon, Neb·u'zar·ad'an[e] the chief of the guard, the servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem.[f] 9 He burned down the house of Jehovah,[g] the king's house,[h] and all the houses of Jerusalem;[i] he also burned down the house of every prominent man.[j] 10 And the walls surrounding Jerusalem were pulled down by the entire Chal·de'an army that was with the chief of the guard.[k] 11 Neb·u'zar·ad'an the chief of the guard took into exile the rest of the people who were left in the city, the deserters who had gone over to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the population.[l] 12 But the chief of the guard left some of the poorest people of the land to serve as vinedressers and as compulsory laborers.[m] 13 And the Chal·de'ans broke into pieces the copper pillars[n] of the house of Jehovah and the carriages[o] and the copper Sea[p] that were in the house of Jehovah, and they carried the copper away to Babylon.[a] 14 They also took the cans, the shovels, the extinguishers, the cups, and all the copper utensils used in the temple service. 15 The chief of the guard took the fire holders and the bowls that were of genuine gold[b] and silver.[c] 16 As for the two pillars, the Sea, and the carriages that Sol'o·mon had made for the house of Jehovah, the copper of all these articles was beyond weighing.[d] 17 Each pillar was 18 cubits high,[e] and the capital on it was of copper; and the height of the capital was three cubits, and the network and pomegranates all around on the capital were all made of copper.[f] The second pillar with its network was like it.

18 The chief of the guard also took Se·rai'ah[g] the chief priest, Zeph·a·ni'ah[h] the second priest, and the three doorkeepers.[i] 19 And he took from the city one court official who was the commissioner over the soldiers, five close associates of the king who were found in the city, as well as the secretary of the chief of the army, the one mustering the people of the land, and 60 men of the common people of the land who were yet found in the city. 20 Neb·u'zar·ad'an[j] the chief of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Rib'lah.[k] 21 The king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death at Rib'lah in the land of Ha'math.[l] Thus Judah went into exile from its land.[m]

22 King Neb·u·chad·nez'zar of Babylon appointed Ged·a·li'ah[n] the son of A·hi'kam[o] the son of Sha'phan[p] over the people whom he had left behind in the land of Judah.[q] 23 When all the army chiefs and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Ged·a·li′ah, they immediately came to Ged·a·li′ah at Miz′pah. They were Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah, Jo·ha′nan the son of Ka·re′ah, Se·rai′ah the son of Tan·hu′meth the Ne·toph′a·thite, and Ja·az·a·ni′ah the son of the Ma·ac′a·thite, together with their men.[a] 24 Ged·a·li′ah swore an oath to them and their men and said to them: "Do not be afraid of being servants to the Chal·de′ans. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you."[b]

25 And in the seventh month, Ish′ma·el[c] son of Neth·a·ni′ah son of E·lish′a·ma, who was of the royal line,* came with ten other men, and they struck down Ged·a·li′ah and he died, along with the Jews and the Chal·de′ans who were with him in Miz′pah.[a] 26 After that all the people, from small to great, including the army chiefs, rose up and went to Egypt,[b] for they were afraid of the Chal·de′ans.[c]

27 And in the 37th year of the exile of King Je·hoi′a·chin[d] of Judah, in the 12th month, on the 27th day of the month, King E′vil-mer′o·dach of Babylon, in the year he became king, released* King Je·hoi′a·chin of Judah from prison.[e] 28 He spoke kindly with him and put his throne higher than the thrones of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. 29 So Je·hoi′a·chin took off his prison garments, and he regularly ate before him all the days of his life. 30 A regular allowance of food was given him from the king, day after day, all the days of his life.

before any king reigned over the Israelites:[a] Be′la the son of Be′or; the name of his city was Din′ha·bah. 44 When Be′la died, Jo′bab the son of Ze′rah from Boz′rah[b] began to reign in his place. 45 When Jo′bab died, Hu′sham from the land of the Te′man·ites began to reign in his place. 46 When Hu′sham died, Ha′dad the son of Be′dad, who defeated Mid′i·an in the territory of Mo′ab, began to reign in his place. The name of his city was A′vith. 47 When Ha′dad died, Sam′lah from Mas·re′kah began to reign in his place. 48 When Sam′lah died, Sha′ul from Re·ho′both by the River began to reign in his place. 49 When Sha′ul died, Ba′al-ha′nan the son of Ach′bor began to reign in his place. 50 When Ba′al-ha′nan died, Ha′dad began to reign in his place. The name of his city was Pa′u, and the name of his wife was Me·het′a·bel the daughter of Me′za·hab. 51 Then Ha′dad died.

The sheikhs* of E′dom were Sheikh Tim′na, Sheikh Al′vah, Sheikh Je′theth,[c] 52 Sheikh O·hol·i·ba′mah, Sheikh E′lah, Sheikh Pi′non, 53 Sheikh Ke′naz, Sheikh Te′man, Sheikh Mib′zar, 54 Sheikh Mag′di·el, Sheikh I′ram. These were the sheikhs of E′dom.

2 These were the sons of Israel:[d] Reu′ben,[e] Sim′e·on,[f] Le′vi,[g] Judah,[h] Is′sa·char,[i] Zeb′u·lun,[j] 2 Dan,[k] Joseph,[l] Benjamin,[m] Naph′ta·li,[n] Gad,[o] and Ash′er.[p]

3 The sons of Judah were Er, O′nan, and She′lah. These three were born to him from Shu′a's daughter, the Ca′naan·it·ess.[q] But Er, Judah's firstborn, was displeasing to Jehovah, so He put him to death.[a] 4 Ta′mar,[b] Judah's daughter-in-law, bore to him Pe′rez[c] and Ze′rah. Judah had five sons in all.

5 The sons of Pe′rez were Hez′ron and Ha′mul.[d]

6 The sons of Ze′rah were Zim′ri, E′than, He′man, Cal′col, and Da′ra. There were five of them in all.

7 The son* of Car′mi was A′char,# who brought disaster△ on Israel,[e] who was unfaithful with regard to what had been devoted to destruction.[f]

8 The son* of E′than was Az·a·ri′ah.

9 The sons of Hez′ron who were born to him were Je·rah′me·el,[g] Ram,[h] and Che·lu′bai.*

10 Ram became father to Am·min′a·dab.[i] Am·min′a·dab became father to Nah′shon[j] the chieftain of the descendants of Judah. 11 Nah′shon became father to Sal′ma.[k] Sal′ma became father to Bo′az.[l] 12 Bo′az became father to O′bed. O′bed became father to Jes′se.[m] 13 Jes′se became father to his firstborn E·li′ab, A·bin′a·dab[n] the second, Shim′e·a the third,[o] 14 Ne·than′el the fourth, Rad′dai the fifth, 15 O′zem the sixth, and David[p] the seventh. 16 Their sisters were Ze·ru′iah and Ab′i·gail.[q] The sons of Ze·ru′iah were A·bish′ai,[r] Jo′ab,[s] and As′a·hel,[t] three. 17 Ab′i·gail gave birth to A·ma′sa,[u] and the father of A·ma′sa was Je′ther the Ish′ma·el·ite.

18 Ca′leb* the son of Hez′ron became father to sons by his wife A·zu′bah and by Jer′iand Gib′e·a.[a] Ca′leb's[b] daughter was Ach′sah.[c] 50 These were the descendants of Ca′leb.

The sons of Hur[d] the firstborn of Eph′ra·thah[e] were Sho′bal the father of Kir′i·ath-je′a·rim,[f] 51 Sal′ma the father of Beth′le·hem,[g] and Ha′reph the father of Beth-ga′der. 52 Sho′bal the father of Kir′i·ath-je′a·rim had sons: Ha·ro′eh and half of the Me·nu′hoth. 53 The families of Kir′i·ath-je′a·rim were the Ith′rites,[h] the Pu′thites, the Shu′math·ites, and the Mish′ra·ites. It was from these that the Zo′rath·ites[i] and the Esh′ta·ol·ites[j] came. 54 The sons of Sal′ma were Beth′le·hem,[k] the Ne·toph′a·thites, At′roth-beth-jo′ab, half of the Man·a·ha′thites, and the Zor′ites. 55 The families of the scribes dwelling at Ja′bez were the Ti′rath·ites, the Shim′e·ath·ites, and the Su′cath·ites. These were the Ken′ites[l] who came from Ham′math the father of the house of Re′chab.[m]

3 These were the sons of David who were born to him in Heb′ron:[n] the firstborn Am′non,[o] whose mother was A·hin′o·am[p] of Jez′re·el; the second, Daniel, whose mother was Ab′i·gail[q] the Car′mel·ite; 2 the third, Ab′salom[r] the son of Ma′a·cah the daughter of Tal′mai the king of Gesh′ur; the fourth, Ad·o·ni′jah[s] the son of Hag′gith; 3 the fifth, Sheph·a·ti′ah, whose mother was A·bi′tal; and the sixth, Ith′re·am, whose mother was David's wife Eg′lah. 4 These six were born to him in Heb′ron; he reigned there for 7 years and 6 months, and for 33 years he reigned in Jerusalem.[t]

5 These were born to him in Jerusalem:[u] Shim′e·a, Sho′bab, Nathan,[v] and Sol′o·mon;[w] the mother of these four was Bath-she′ba[x] the daughter of Am′mi·el. 6 And nine other sons were Ib′har, E·lish′a·ma, E·liph′e·let, 7 No′gah, Ne′pheg, Ja·phi′a, 8 E·lish′a·ma, E·li′a·da, and E·liph′e·let. 9 All of these were the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines, and Ta′mar[a] their sister.

10 The son of Sol′o·mon was Re·ho·bo′am;[b] A·bi′jah[c] was his son, A′sa[d] his son, Je·hosh′a·phat[e] his son, 11 Je·ho′ram[f] his son, A·ha·zi′ah[g] his son, Je·ho′ash[h] his son, 12 Am·a·zi′ah[i] his son, Az·a·ri′ah[j] his son, Jo′tham[k] his son, 13 A′haz[l] his son, Hez·e·ki′ah[m] his son, Ma·nas′seh[n] his son, 14 A′mon[o] his son, Jo·si′ah[p] his son. 15 The sons of Jo·si′ah were the firstborn, Jo·ha′nan, the second, Je·hoi′a·kim,[q] the third, Zed·e·ki′ah,[r] the fourth, Shal′lum. 16 The sons of Je·hoi′a·kim were Jec·o·ni′ah[s] his son and Zed·e·ki′ah his son. 17 The sons of Jec·o·ni′ah the prisoner were She·al′ti·el, 18 Mal·chi′ram, Pe·dai′ah, She·naz′zar, Jek·a·mi′ah, Hosh′a·ma, and Ned·a·bi′ah. 19 The sons of Pe·dai′ah were Ze·rub′ba·bel[t] and Shim′e·i; and the sons of Ze·rub′ba·bel were Me·shul′lam and Han·a·ni′ah (and She·lo′mith was their sister); 20 and five other sons were Ha·shu′bah, O′hel, Ber·e·chi′ah, Has·a·di′ah, and Ju′shab-he′sed. 21 And the sons of Han·a·ni′ah were Pel·a·ti′ah and Je·sha′iah; the son* of Je·sha′iah was Re·pha′iah; the son* of Re·pha′iah was Ar′nan; the son* of Ar′nan was O·ba·di′ah; the son* of O·ba·di′ah was Shec·a·ni′ah; 22 and the sons of Shec·a·ni′ah were She·mai′ah and the sons of She·mai′ah: Hat′tush, I′gal, Ba·ri′ah, Ne·a·ri′ah, and Sha′phat—six in all. 23 And the sons of Ne·a·ri′ah were Eli·o·e′nai, Hiz·ki′ah, and Az·ri′kam, three. 24 And the sons of Eli·o·e′nai were Hod·a·vi′- ah, E·li′a·shib, Pe·la′iah, Ak′kub, Jo·ha′nan, De·la′iah, and A·na′ni, seven.

4 The sons of Judah were Pe′rez,[a] Hez′ron,[b] Car′mi, Hur,[c] and Sho′bal.[d] 2 Re·a′iah the son of Sho′bal became father to Ja′hath; Ja′hath became father to A·hu′mai and La′had. These were the families of the Zo′rathites.[e] 3 These were the sons of the father of E′tam:[f] Jez′reel, Ish′ma, and Id′bash (and the name of their sister was Haz·ze·lel·po′ni), 4 and Pe·nu′el was the father of Ge′dor, and E′zer was the father of Hu′shah. These were the sons of Hur,[g] the firstborn of Eph′ra·thah and the father of Beth′le·hem.[h] 5 Ash′hur[i] the father of Te·ko′a[j] had two wives, He′lah and Na′a·rah. 6 Na′a·rah bore to him A·huz′zam, He′pher, Te′me·ni, and Ha·a·hash′ta·ri. These were the sons of Na′a·rah. 7 And the sons of He′lah were Ze′reth, Iz′har, and Eth′nan. 8 Koz became father to A′nub, Zo·be′bah, and the families of A·har′hel the son of Ha′rum.

9 Ja′bez was more honorable than his brothers; and his mother named him Ja′bez,* saying: "I gave birth to him in pain." 10 Ja′bez called on the God of Israel, saying: "O that you would bless me and enlarge my territory and let your hand be with me and preserve me from calamity, so that it may bring no harm to me!" So God brought about what he had asked for.

11 Che′lub the brother of Shu′hah became father to Me′hir, who was the father of Esh′ton. 12 Esh′ton became father to Beth-ra′pha, Pa·se′ah, and Te·hin′nah, the father of Ir-na′hash. These were the men of Re′cah. 13 And the sons of Ke′naz were Oth′ni·el[a] and Se·rai′ah, and the son* of Oth′ni·el was Ha′thath. 14 Me·o′no·thai became father to Oph′rah. Se·rai′ah became father to Jo′ab the father of Ge·har′a·shim,* so called because they were craftsmen.

15 The sons of Ca′leb[b] the son of Je·phun′neh were I′ru, E′lah, and Na′am; and the son* of E′lah was Ke′naz. 16 The sons of Je·hal′le·lel were Ziph, Zi′phah, Tir′i·a, and As′a·rel. 17 The sons of Ez′rah were Je′ther, Me′red, E′pher, and Ja′lon; she* conceived and bore Mir′i·am, Sham′mai, and Ish′bah the father of Esh·te·mo′a. 18 (And his Jewish wife gave birth to Je′red the father of Ge′dor, He′ber the father of So′co, and Je·ku′thi·el the father of Za·no′ah.) These were the sons of Bi·thi′ah, the daughter of Phar′aoh, whom Me′red married.

19 The sons of Ho·di′ah's wife, the sister of Na′ham, were the fathers of Kei′lah the Gar′mite and Esh·te·mo′a the Ma·ac′a·thite. 20 And the sons of Shi′mon were Am′non, Rin′nah, Ben-ha′nan, and Ti′lon. And the sons of Ish′i were Zo′heth and Ben-zo′heth.

21 The sons of She′lah[c] the son of Judah were Er the father of Le′cah, La′a·dah the father of Ma·re′shah, and the families of the workers of fine fabric of the house of Ash·be′a, 22 and Jo′kim, the men of Coze′ba, Jo′ash, and Sa′raph, who became husbands of Mo′ab·ite women, and Jash′u·bi-le′hem. These records are ancient.* 23 They were potters who lived in Ne·ta′im and Ge·de′rah. They lived there and worked for the king.

24 The sons of Sim′e·on[a] were Nem′u·el, Ja′min, Ja′rib, Ze′rah, and Sha′ul.[b] 25 Shal′lum was his son, Mib′sam his son, and Mish′ma his son. 26 And the sons of Mish′ma were Ham′mu·el his son, Zac′cur his son, Shim′e·i his son. 27 And Shim′e·i had 16 sons and 6 daughters; but his brothers did not have many sons, and none of their families had as many as the men of Judah had.[c] 28 They lived in Be′er·she′ba,[d] Mo·la′dah,[e] Ha′zar·shu′al,[f] 29 Bil′hah, E′zem,[g] To′lad, 30 Be·thu′el,[h] Hor′mah,[i] Zik′lag,[j] 31 Beth-mar′ca·both, Ha′zar-su′sim,[k] Beth-bir′i, and Sha′a·ra′im. These were their cities until the reign of David.

32 Their settlements were E′tam, A′in, Rim′mon, To′chen, and A′shan,[l] five cities, 33 along with their settlements that were all around these cities as far as Ba′al. These were their genealogical enrollments and the places where they lived. 34 And Me·sho′bab, Jam′lech, Jo′shah the son of Am·a·zi′ah, 35 Joel, Je′hu son of Josh·i·bi′ah son of Se·rai′ah son of As′i·el, 36 and Eli·o·e′nai, Ja·a·ko′bah, Jesh·o·hai′ah, A·sai′ah, Ad′i·el, Je·sim′i·el, Be·nai′ah, 37 and Zi′za son of Shi′phi son of Al′lon son of Je·da′iah son of Shim′ri son of She·mai′ah; 38 these mentioned by name were the chieftains among their families, and the household of their forefathers increased in number. 39 And they went to the entrance of Ge′dor, to the east side of the valley, to look for pastures for their flocks. 40 They eventually found rich and good pastures, and the land was spacious, quiet, and undisturbed. Those who previously lived there were Ham′ites.[m] 41 These whose names are listed came during the days of King Hez·e·ki′ah[a] of Judah and struck down the tents of the Ham′ites and the Me·u′nim who were there. They devoted them to destruction down to this day; and they settled in their place because there were pastures for their flocks there.

42 Some of the Sim′e·on·ites, 500 men, went to Mount Se′ir[b] with Pel·a·ti′ah, Ne·a·ri′ah, Repha′iah, and Uz′zi·el, the sons of Ish′i who led them. 43 And they struck down the rest of the A·mal′ek·ites[c] who had escaped, and they have lived there down to this day.

5 These are the sons of Reu′ben,[d] Israel's firstborn. He was the firstborn, but because he defiled* the bed of his father,[e] his right as firstborn was given to the sons of Joseph[f] the son of Israel, so he was not enrolled genealogically for the right of the firstborn. 2 Though Judah[g] was superior to his brothers and from him came the one to be the leader,[h] the right as firstborn belonged to Joseph. 3 The sons of Reu′ben the firstborn of Israel were Ha′noch, Pal′lu, Hez′ron, and Car′mi.[i] 4 The sons of Joel were She·mai′ah his son, Gog his son, Shim′e·i his son, 5 Mi′cah his son, Re·a′iah his son, Ba′al his son, 6 and Be·er′ah his son, whom King Til′gath-pil·ne′ser[j] of As·syr′i·a took into exile; he was a chieftain of the Reu′ben·ites. 7 His brothers by their families in the genealogical enrollment by their descendants were, as the head, Je·i′el, Zech·a·ri′ah, 8 and Be′la son of A′zaz son of She′ma son of Joel, who lived in A·ro′er[k] and as far as Ne′bo and Ba′al-me′on.[l] 9 To the east he settled as far as the beginning of the wilderness at the Eu·phra′tes River,[m] for their livestock had become numerous in the land of Gil′e·ad.[n] 10 In the days of Saul, they waged war against the Hag′rites, who were defeated before them, so they dwelled in their tents throughout all the territory east of Gil′e·ad.

11 Now the descendants of Gad lived next to them in the land of Ba′shan as far as Sal′e·cah.[a] 12 Joel was the head, Sha′pham the second, and Ja′nai and Sha′phat in Ba′shan. 13 And their brothers belonging to their paternal houses were Mi′cha·el, Me·shul′lam, She′ba, Jo′rai, Ja′can, Zi′a, and E′ber, seven in all. 14 These were the sons of Ab′i·ha·il son of Hu′ri son of Ja·ro′ah son of Gil′e·ad son of Mi′cha·el son of Je·shish′ai son of Jah′do son of Buz. 15 A′hi son of Ab′di·el son of Gu′ni was head of their paternal house. 16 They lived in Gil′e·ad,[b] in Ba′shan[c] and its dependent* towns, and in all the pastures of Shar′on as far as they extended. 17 They were all enrolled genealogically in the days of King Jo′tham[d] of Judah and in the days of King Jer·o·bo′am*[e] of Israel.

18 The Reu′ben·ites, the Gad′ites, and the half tribe of Manas′seh had 44,760 mighty warriors in their army who carried shields and swords and were armed with bows,* and they were trained in war. 19 They waged war against the Hag′rites,[f] Je′tur, Na′phish,[g] and No′dab. 20 And they were helped in fighting them, so that the Hag′rites and all who were with them were given into their hand, for they called to God for help in the war, and he responded to their entreaty because they trusted in him.[h] 21 They captured their livestock—50,000 camels, 250,000 sheep, and 2,000 donkeys—as well as 100,000 people.* 22 Many had fallen slain, because the war was waged by the true God.[a] And they lived in their place until the time of the exile.[b]

23 The descendants of the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh[c] lived in the land from Ba′shan to Ba′al-her′mon and Se′nir and Mount Her′mon.[d] They were numerous. 24 These were the heads of their paternal houses: E′pher, Ish′i, E′li·el, Az′ri·el, Jeremiah, Hod·a·vi′ah, and Jah′di·el; they were mighty warriors, men of fame, and heads of their paternal houses. 25 But they acted unfaithfully toward the God of their forefathers and prostituted themselves to the gods of the peoples of the land,[e] whom God had annihilated from before them. 26 So the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of King Pul of As·syr′i·a[f] (that is, King Til′gath-pil·ne′ser[g] of Assyr′i·a) so that he took into exile those of the Reu′ben·ites, the Gad′ites, and the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh and brought them to Ha′lah, Ha′bor, Ha′ra, and the river Go′zan,[h] where they are until this day.

6 The sons of Le′vi[i] were Ger′shon, Ko′hath,[j] and Me·rar′i.[k] 2 The sons of Ko′hath were Am′ram, Iz′har,[l] Heb′ron, and Uz′zi-el.[m] 3 The children* of Am′ram[n] were Aaron,[o] Moses,[p] and also Mir′i·am.[q] And the sons of Aaron were Na′dab, A·bi′hu,[r] El·e·a′zar,[s] and Ith′a·mar.[t] 4 El·e·a′zar became father to Phin′e·has;[u] Phin′e·has became father to Ab·i·shu′a. 5 Ab·i·shu′a became father to Buk′ki; Buk′ki became father to Uz′zi. 6 Uz′zi became father to Zer·a·hi′ah; Zer·a·hi′ah became father to Mera′ioth. 7 Me·ra′ioth became father to Am·a·ri′ah; Am·a·ri′ah became father to A·hi′tub.[v]
